

Charismatic Charlie Wade Chapter 4955-4960

Chapter 4955

Considering their own limited conditions, employers have to make such a choice. If the price of two people is the same, all employers will not consider the latter. Most illegal immigrants can also understand this truth, but Soleil doesn't think so.

She doesn't realize the natural gap between herself and the legal nanny, she just keeps accumulating her own resentment in her heart, and even gradually rises to hatred. In the third year of Soleil's arrival in the United States, a fire broke out in her employer's house. The employer's family killed three of four members, a young couple in their thirties and their eldest daughter, who was five years old. Their youngest son, who was under a year old at the time, was missing in the fire. that scene The fire came from Soleil's hands. After Soleil set fire, she took her infant to another city in the United States. She entrusted a middleman to sell the child to a Chinese couple in their 40s who had been unable to have a child for $30,000. At that time, this transaction far exceeded the local market price, and the buyer was once persuaded by the high price. But Soleil is very smart.

She could see the couple's desperate hope for a child, and also saw that the one-year-old baby was somewhat similar to a man, so she described the child's appearance to the couple based on the child's facial features, saying that the child When he grows up, he must be very similar to the man. In addition, the astute Soleil also hit the most moving pain point: because they look alike, as long as they take the child to live in another place, when the child grows up, no one will doubt that the child is buying Come here, even if you bring it back to your hometown in China in three or five years, no one will doubt it if you say it is your own child. Moreover, she also told the couple that, unlike the adopted child, the child she brought is not yet one year old and will never have any memory of her original parents when she grows up.

In Soleil's words, as long as you buy this child, the family will be passed on in one step. So, the persuaded couple bought the child with $30,000, while Soleil got $25,000. At the time, the money was more than what she earned as a nanny for two years. Since then, Soleil has embarked on the evil road of "making quick money". In the early years, she assumed various identities and specially selected Chinese families with babies. Later, with the popularity of the Internet, many Chinese families did not dare to hire illegal immigrants as babysitters, so Soleil changed her career and started other businesses. Until she catches up with the current line. Over the years, Soleil has made more and more money. Her two sons live in large villas and drive luxury cars.

Her eight grandchildren are also healthy and sensible. The whole family is prosperous and prosperous. Leafy scenery. Because she has been away from home for too long and has many grandchildren, Soleil is more and more eager to return to China to reunite with them earlier.

In her own words, even if they are bad people, they should retire to take care of themselves. And she is now more and more eager to retire that day. But Soleil is also very clear in her heart that neither of her two sons is the material for reading, and they have no real skills other than spending money and playing with women, and her husband, who is only a farmer, has not lived with him for 20 years.

, and have nothing in common. In the final analysis, the entire family, one husband, two sons, two daughters-in-law, and eight grandchildren, have no ability to make money, and rely on her income in the United States to enjoy the benefits. life. Once she retires, the whole family will enter a stage of sitting and eating. So for Soleil, how to accumulate more money as soon as possible before retirement has become her most anxious thing now. Originally, she thought that after Elaine's business was successful, plus the big order from Mexico, she could earn at least $200,000, and she was one step closer to her success. But unexpectedly, something happened to Elaine.

So, to avoid the limelight for a while and to ensure that business in Mexico is not affected, she decided to go to Mexico in person. After the business in Mexico is done, she will have to come back with another identity. At that time, Jovie will no longer exist in the Chinese circle. Instead, she will have another identity.

Thinking back on this, Soleil couldn't help sighing softly, and at the same time made up her mind in her heart: "After returning from Mexico this time, I will try my best to make a fortune from him by changing my identity again, after that, I will leave the United States and never come back!" Speaking, she took out her mobile phone and found pictures of her grandchildren, and her faith in making money suddenly became firmer.

At this time, her eldest son suddenly called her, and as soon as the call got through, he asked flatteringly on the other end of the phone: "Mom, are you up yet?" Soleil said lightly, "Even if you don't get up, you will still be called by you. I woke up, tell me if you have something to say." The eldest son smiled and said quickly, "Mom, do you remember Brother Sun next door to our hometown?"

"Well." Soleil asked him, "What happened to him?" The eldest son smiled hesitantly and said, "That...he didn't do anything...just...just..." Soleil said coldly, "Speak up if you have something to say, and let it go if you have any farts. I'll hang up first."

The eldest son hurriedly said, "Don't, don't, don't hang up, Mom, I'll tell you the truth, I've made my grandson and his daughter's belly bigger, and it's been more than three months, I told you His daughter is 100,000 yuan, and she doesn't want to let her beat the child. She wants to give birth to the baby now, and asks me for 1 million yuan for the abortion fee.

I don't want to ask you a favor. I plan to give her 200,000 yuan. She can beat the child." Soleil angrily said, "Is it our family's seed?" "Yeah..." The eldest son quickly explained: "This is not Brother Sun's call during Chinese New Year and let me call his daughter. Arranging an internship in a big city, I thought that they were all old neighbors, and his daughter was also brought up by me, so I got her to my friend's company as an administrator..." Speaking of this, the eldest son added:

“She is unfamiliar here alone, I think his father is also my big brother, I always have to take care of it, and it happens once and for all...” He said, he He didn’t forget to add: “It’s really our family’s seed...” Soleil said lightly, “It’s our family’s seed, so there’s no reason to destroy it! I worked so hard to make money in the United States just to make our family flourish and people flourish! You let her give birth, I will give her this million! The eldest son was overjoyed and quickly said again: “Mom, you can’t let my brother and the others know about this.

If it gets to my wife, the family will be turned upside down...” Soleil said lightly: “I know, don’t worry. “Speaking, Soleil said again: “Have you thought about how to tell her father about this? You are more than ten years older than his daughter. If he wants to know, he must be messing around, right?”

The eldest son explained: “Actually, Brother Sun already knows that the one million miscarriage fee is what Brother Sun means, and he didn’t make it difficult for me. Anyway, this matter is your own will, not me. He couldn’t do anything to me even if he wasn’t happy.

“Soleil sneered:” He is not happy? His daughter is pregnant with your s*ed, I think he will wake up laughing from a dream! Maybe this was planned by him, and I have already seen it clearly in his family.

The eldest son said helplessly: “Whether he planned it or not, I don’t know...” Soleil snorted and said, “I’ll give you $50,000 first when I turn around.

You give her the money and tell her to be at ease.” Raise the baby, give birth to the child, and do a paternity test after the child is born. As long as it is your seed, I will definitely give her the rest of the money. “Speaking, Soleil couldn’t help sighing again, and said: “You and your brother have 8 children,

I have no chance to pull and pull since childhood, this child is born, I should also retire and go back, then I will help you raise it.

Chapter 4957

The eldest son hurriedly said: “Mom, you can’t take this child home after birth. My wife knows that it will make a mess with me.”

“She dares!” Soleil said coldly, “She eats mine, wears mine, uses mine, spends mine, sits on mine, and lives with me, if she doesn’t have any self-awareness, let her get out as soon as possible. “

The eldest son said embarrassedly, “Mom, even if she doesn’t dare to make trouble with me in front of you, she will definitely make trouble with me in private. It won’t be enough to bother me by then!”

Soleil snorted disdainfully: “As long as she dares to make trouble with you, You will divorce her immediately, and if she leaves, find another big girl, maybe she will give you two more children. Mother face will be stronger in her whole life?”

Soleil’s words gave her eldest son great encouragement.

The eldest son was on the other end of the phone, and he couldn’t hide his excitement and said, “Mom, if you say this, then I’m really relieved!”

Soleil snorted coldly and said, "I tell you, don't mess around outside in the future. Do it, especially don't engage with girls like the Sun family, their level is too low!"

The eldest son asked quickly: "Mom, what are you talking about is too low? What are you doing? I don't understand!"

Soleil He hates iron and steel and reprimands: "I'll let you learn more English, learn to learn English, I've been here for more than 20 years, you can't even understand what level is, what a f*cking waste!"

The eldest son laughed and said: "Mom, people say that Yin is prosperous and Yang is declining. You alone in our family hold most of the sky, so naturally you can't show me..."

Soleil was complimented by the eldest son, and her mood eased After a lot, he asked, "If I remember correctly, when I went back to my hometown to worship my ancestors a few years ago, I saw that girl from the Sun family. She didn't seem to have graduated from junior high school, so she went to work in a factory?"

"Yes." The eldest son said casually, "I went to work outside a few years ago, but she seemed to go home and talk about matchmaking afterward. She didn't meet any of the boys in the village, so she said she wanted to go out to work, so her father found me..."

Soleil After a sigh, he said: "In the future, keep a distance from their family. After the child is born, you will cut off contact with them. If you are looking for a woman outside in the future, you should set your sights a little higher, or find a young woman who graduated from college! In this way, I can give you two more children!"

The eldest son said angrily: "Mom... People are serious college graduates, how can they look down on me..."

Soleil sneered disdainfully: "What about graduating from college? How much money can you earn a month after graduating from college? You have to work hard for several lifetimes to drive a luxury car and live in a villa? You are already a successful person in the eyes of college students. There is such a good opportunity, and they are happy it's too late!"

The eldest son sneered twice: "But I'm a little old at this age, how can a girl like me like an old man in his thirties like me."

Soleil hummed and said: "Look at those female stars, they can earn tens of millions or even hundreds of millions a year by themselves, but there are still many of them who choose to marry an old man older than their father, why? Isn't it because the old men are richer than them?"

After speaking, Soleil said lightly: "Mom has been here for so many years, and she has long understood that no matter what shortcomings a man has, you can use money to make up for it, no matter how old you are. , Ugly, short, low education, as long as you have money, all of these are not a problem, but only lack of money is a problem, if you don't have money, what's the use of being handsome? Girls are fascinated by love at first Head, she may still be willing to starve with you for a year or two, but after a year or two, she will understand that it's useless to look good, only money is the last word."

Chapter 4958

The eldest son smiled: "I see. Mom, when you come back, let's work together to run the yellow-faced woman away first, and then look for a young and beautiful female college student."

"Well." Soleil nodded and said, "Okay, I still have something to do. , I won't tell you first, about the 50,000-dollar matter, you can contact me privately to see if anyone wants to exchange foreign currency, and if there is, I will be able to trade in a few days after I have finished my work at hand."

The eldest son Excitedly , she said, "Okay mom, I'll get in touch now!"

Soleil hung up the phone, and Jase, who was driving, said with a smile: "Sister , are you going to hug your grandson again? One? Nine?"

Soleil gave a rare smile, nodded and said, "Yes, nine."

Jase asked in surprise: "Sister Soleil, do you like children so much? If I were You, if your two sons want eight or nine children, I'm afraid my brain will explode."

Soleil waved her hand: "You don't understand."

As she said that, she turned to look at Yosef and Hallie who were sitting in the back row, and said, "Listen carefully, doing our line of work is the most detrimental to the good fortune and future generations, so if you have the conditions, you must It is necessary to have more children and have more children. If God wants a person to cut off offspring, the less children he has, the harder it is to fight fate. But if there are enough children, if retribution comes and falls on future generations, children There are too many, maybe there will be one or two fish that slip through the net."

Jase was dumbfounded, and said embarrassingly: "Sister Soleil, it's not as evil as you said..."

Soleil said expressionlessly: " Is it so evil, I don't know, people say that eggs can't be put in the same basket, but the key question is, you can't have only one egg, if you have enough eggs, God will be very tired to smash them one by one , Besides, he is numb after hitting too much, maybe he will stop."

Hearing this, the other three were all stunned.

They dared not imagine that the so-called eggs in Soleil's mouth were actually referring to her own children and grandchildren.

The translation is that if God wants to collect her children and grandchildren, it will be very tiring to collect them one by one.

Soleil didn't take the three people's shock into her eyes at this time, and just asked lightly, "How long will it take to get to the border?"

Jase said, "Even if we drive non-stop, it will take at least 30 hours, or we can find Go to a city by plane?"

"No." Soleil waved her hand: "What I hate the most is flying, except for returning home, I almost never take a plane."

Jase hurriedly asked: "Sister Soleil, are you afraid that the plane is not safe?"

Soleil shook her head: "I know that the plane is very safe, at least it is much safer than the car, but that is for ordinary people, for us, the plane is a sealed Once you get into the big cage, the police will have no chance to run."

Jase nodded suddenly, and asked Soleil, "Sister Soleil, you have been making money for your family for so many years, and it's almost time to go back. Are you enjoying your life?"

Soleil said lightly: "Let's do it by the end of the year, and I will leave by the end of the year. After so many years of hard work and hard work, it is indeed time to go back and enjoy the happiness."

Jase sighed: "Sister Soleil, your Husband married you, it's really smoking from ancestral graves, you don't have to do anything, just enjoy the happiness in the country!"

Soleil snorted: "He is just a waste of food and waiting to die, if not for both sons and grandchildren Change my surname, I have already kicked him out of the house, how can I give him a chance to enjoy this blessing."

Then, she looked at Jase and asked him, "By the way, when are you going to go back?"

Jase sneered and said, "I'm still early... I've earned a lot less than you in these years. I think I'll have nothing to worry about in the future, so I'll have to work hard for a few more years."

Soleil hummed and said with some anticipation : "I have been wandering around in the United States these years, and I have no fixed place to live. I go back and enjoy the joy of living in my own home, surrounded by children and grandchildren."

What Soleil didn't know was that Wanlong Palace had long ago All the information that has been investigated has been sent to the domestic police.

At this moment, the police are ready to close the net.

When her eldest son came out of his villa and was about to get into the newly bought Mercedes-Benz G, a group of police suddenly rushed in.

The first police officer held the arrest warrant and said to Soleil's eldest son: "Aron! You are now officially arrested by the police on suspicion of money laundering!"

Aron, who weighs more than 200 pounds, never dreamed that the police would come to his door one day.

Aron has always felt that her mother is a person with great ability. She has a way to make a lot of money in the United States, and she only needs to exchange her US dollars for Huaxia coins in China, and then enjoy the prosperity and wealth.

As for whether his mother's money came from the right way, and whether it was illegal to exchange foreign currency in private, he didn't bother to worry about it.

So he asked the police with a surprised look: "What do you mean? What is suspected of money laundering? What money did I launder?" The police said coldly: "We have sufficient evidence to prove that what you and your brother have All assets are illegal gains obtained through illegal exchange of foreign currency! And we also have evidence to prove that you are laundering money for an overseas criminal organization!"

"What?" Aron said with a look of disdain: "Every cent of our family is worth the money. It was my mother who worked so hard to earn it back, so how could it become illegal income in your mouth?" The policeman frowned and asked him, "Don't you know anything about the law?"

Aron immediately said loudly: "Why don't you understand? I'm a law-abiding citizen! I don't gamble, cheat, steal, or rob. Why do you say I'm breaking the law?!" The policeman knew that he couldn't communicate with him, so he said to his subordinates: "Take someone with you. Let's go! Also go in and see if his bro and Salem are there, and they will be arrested and brought back for trial!"

Several policemen rushed into the villa quickly, and within five minutes, they took the bewildered Stanley, And the shivering Salem brought it out.

Salem is Soleil's husband. When he was impoverished, Soleil went to the United States with others, and he took care of two children at home. Later, Soleil made a lot of money and despised him more and more, so he forced him to The surnames of the two children were changed from Zhang to Mei.

Salem was useless and poor all his life. At that time, he just lived a rich life with Soleil. He deeply felt the benefits of being rich, so he didn't want to go back to live a poor life no matter what, so in order to live a little easier, He agreed to Soleil's seemingly excessive request.

Over the years, although Salem and Soleil's marriage has already existed in name only, but the wealth he earned with Soleil has also passed the addiction of rich people. He drives a BMW X7 when he goes out and in on weekdays. Some middle-aged women of the same age or a few years younger than him hang out together, and they are usually complimented and served by those middle-aged women, and their lives are very uncomfortable.

The more so, the more nervous it becomes to see the police.

Salem's two daughters-in-law were shocked and frightened when they saw that their masters and father-in-law were arrested by the police, so they rushed out to ask about the situation.

The eldest daughter-in-law was a bit savage, and regardless of the nursing child in her arms, she sat down on the ground and scoffed: "Why do you come to our house to arrest people? Are you unhappy when you see that our family is doing well? ? You said, who asked you to come?!" The leading police officer said in a cold voice, "I warn you, the three of them are now criminal suspects. We are going to take them away for investigation. You'd better not interfere with our law enforcement. Otherwise, you will be obstructing public affairs, and you will be legally responsible for obstructing public affairs!" The eldest daughter-in-law insisted, crying and saying, "Don't bully me, a woman who doesn't understand anything! Today you want to be my face and treat my family members. You can't take it away!" The leading police officer said with a serious expression: "Let me tell you, the three of them are now suspected of money laundering, and according to the evidence we have, they are involved in a very high amount of money and a very serious case. According to the criminal law, They should be sentenced to fixed-term imprisonment of at least 5 years and less than 10 years!"

"Not only that, all the deposits, cash, houses, and cars in their names, according to the evidence we have, are all illegal gains without exception, and we will follow up. Seize these assets in accordance with the law. If you and their other family members transfer the illegal income at this stage, according to the criminal law, this belongs to knowingly concealing or transferring the proceeds of crime, and will be sentenced to fixed-term imprisonment of not more than three years, Detention or control!"

"If the circumstances are serious, it will be sentenced to more than three years and less than seven years in prison!"

"So I warn you, you must cooperate honestly with our investigation! Otherwise, you will harm yourself!" The eldest daughter-in-law heard that , he might be sentenced to death, and he was so frightened that he fell apart.

The second daughter-in-law has a weak personality. When she heard this, she was paralyzed on the ground in fright.

At this time, the eldest daughter-in-law also lost the aggressive energy she had just now, and hurriedly cried and asked the police: "Then what should we do now... You have arrested all the elders of our family, and our orphans and widows are not only limited to Waiting to die?" The police immediately said: "Don't worry, I will notify your community neighborhood committee immediately and pay attention to your situation, but you don't have any needs in life, the neighborhood committee will definitely help you solve it, but I still say that. , you must first understand what is legal and what is illegal, there are already three criminal suspects in your family, so you must not push yourself on the road of breaking the law!”

After that, the police immediately waved to the people around him: “Close the team!”

Everyone responded immediately and took the father and son police car to the police station.

Seeing that many police cars were roaring away, the second daughter-in-law was crying so hard that she hurriedly asked the eldest daughter-in-law, “Sister-in-law...how can we fix it now...” The eldest daughter-in-law was also frightened and murmured, “Me too. I don’t know... I’m so old, and it’s the first time I’ve talked to the police so much...” The second daughter-in-law hurriedly said, “Sister-in-law, hurry up and call our mother, we have to let our mother make up her mind about this matter. Ah...” The eldest daughter-in-law came back to her senses and said quickly, you’re right, hurry up and call Mom, I’ll call her now! Having said that, she immediately took out her mobile phone and called Soleil.

The mobile phone Soleil kept close to her body was specially used by her to communicate with her family, and only her family knew her phone number.

She thought it was another call from her eldest son, but when she looked down, she found that the caller was actually the eldest daughter-in-law, and she couldn’t help frowning immediately.

She had never liked her eldest daughter-in-law very much. She felt that this eldest daughter-in-law was pungent, strong, and even a little stupid.

However, she was also pregnant with a son at the time, and she was eager to hold her grandson, so she acquiesced to the marriage.

But her dissatisfaction with her eldest daughter-in-law continued to increase as she made more and more money.

Just now, she wanted her eldest son to change his wife, not just talking about it. She really had this plan, but she never spared her hands to interfere in this matter before.

And she originally planned that after she retired and returned to China, the first thing she would do was to drive this eldest daughter-in-law away.

Now, when she saw her eldest daughter-in-law calling, she instinctively thought that she must have overheard what she said to her eldest son. Now she is calling to ask her for help.

So, Soleil answered the phone and asked in a very unfriendly tone: "Why are you calling me so early? Don't you know it's early in the morning here?" The eldest daughter-in-law cried and said, "Mom... It's a big deal... all taken away by the police!"
