

Charismatic Charlie Wade Chapter 5003-5008

Chapter 5003

charlie, who decided to bring Trent with him, immediately thought about the next rhetoric and two possible corresponding plans for himself.

He planned to ask Trent to join him as a seaman first. If Trent did not agree, he would let the people from Wanlong Palace follow him all the way after he got off the plane to find the other party's lair.

If Trent agrees, then you will see whether Soleil's contact person agrees. If the contact person agrees, then he can follow Trent smoothly and enter the opponent's interior.

But if the other party does not agree, then the first plan is still used, and Trent is used as a bait and followed quietly.

So he pretended to be improvised, and said to Trent : "Brother, I have nothing to do when I go to Mexico. If you can introduce me, I will be a seaman with you."

Trent also felt that charlie, a young man, was very easy to chat with, so he said cheerfully: "Okay, but what I said doesn't count. After I got off the plane and saw the person who was there to pick me up, I asked them. If you are not recruiting people, if you are recruiting people, you can go with them."

"Okay." charlie smiled and said, "Thank you, brother."

Trent waved his hand: "You're welcome, by the way, what do you call my brother?"

"Charlie, what about you, brother?"

"Trent ."

Soon, the plane landed smoothly. During the taxiing phase, charlie canceled the flight mode of the mobile phone and sent a message to Abbas. The message only had eight words: the plan has changed, and the opportunity will be taken.

Afterwards, when the plane stopped, he and Trent got off the plane with their luggage.

When lining up to go to the customs, charlie asked Trent : "Brother, will someone come to pick you up later, or do you have to go by yourself?"

"Someone will pick you up." Trent said, "My mother's friend told me before that this place is still about 100 kilometers away from the port of Ensenada. I didn't know the place well, and I used to have a hard time, so she asked the other side. The shipping company sent a car to pick you up."

After speaking, Trent said again: "After we meet later, I will ask him if he is still recruiting people. If he does, the two of us will go with his car together."

"Okay." charlie said with a smile: "I'll ask you to say more good things in that moment, brother."

Trent hurriedly said: "You're welcome, you're welcome, but it's just a little effort, and I'm not very capable. It's not me who decides whether I can do it or not, it depends on others."

Afterwards, the two went through the customs with their respective passports. Since neither of them had checked luggage, they went straight to the airport exit as soon as they exited the customs.

At this time, many people at the exit of the airport picked up the plane with name cards, most of which were written in English or Spanish, so Chinese name cards are very easy to find here.

Soon, Trent saw a young Chinese man holding a sign with his name on it, so he quickly said to Charlie, "It's there, let's go!"

With that said, the two of them trotted all the way.

When he came to the other party, Trent waved at the other party and smiled: "Hello, I am Trent!"

Chapter 5004

When the young man saw Trent, he cautiously took out his mobile phone from his pocket, opened a photo and checked it up and down. After confirming that it was Trent, he realized that there was a young Chinese man beside him, and pointed at Charlie. He asked him vigilantly: "Who is this person? Is he with you?"

Trent said with a smile: "This little brother's name is Charlie, he is a compatriot I met on the plane, we are seated next to each other, he owes some money in China and can't run away, and he is also in Mexico. I don't know what to do, he heard that I was going to be a seaman, and he wanted to give it a try, but he didn't know if we were still recruiting people here."

Charlie on the side said quickly: "I can endure hardships, work hard without complaining, and I can do the work no matter how hard or tiring."

The young man couldn't help frowning, and then said, "Wait for me, I'll call the leader and ask."

After speaking, he took his mobile phone and walked a long way. After making sure that no one was around, he took out his mobile phone and made a call.

As soon as the phone was connected, a man's voice came from the other end and asked, "Have you received someone?"

"I received it." The young man said respectfully, "The one named Trent just got off the plane."

The other party asked again: "Have you checked the identity information? Does it match the information provided by Soleil?"

The young man hurriedly said: "I have checked it, and it is indeed me."

"Well." The other party said lazily: "Since the person has received it, bring it here quickly. Pay attention on the road, and don't let him find any clues."

The young man lowered his voice and said, "Uncle Ma, I have to tell you something about the situation here. That Trent met another Chinese young man who came to Mexico on the plane. Speculation, that kid doesn't have a fixed job, so he wanted to join Trent as a seaman, and was asking if I was still recruiting people, how do you think about this situation?"

The other party was silent for a moment, then said solemnly: "The young man already knows Trent, and he has also seen you. In case Trent goes missing in the future, the police in the United States will find him based on the seat clues on the plane, and he will definitely Confess you, as long as he remembers what you look like, the police will be able to draw a portrait of you, then you will be in trouble."

"F*ck..."

The young man cursed in a low voice, then gritted his teeth and said: "F*ck, it's better to take this kid over there, and check him to see if he has any use value, I think he is young and strong, he should be if you can sell it for a good price, won't you kill two birds with one stone?"

The man on the other end of the phone asked cautiously, "Do you see anything wrong with that kid? Could it be Tiaozi's plain clothes?"

"This..." The young man said hesitantly, "It shouldn't be possible... Logically speaking, the note should not be able to follow our line, not to mention that this kid is from China, he is not an American."

The other party said: "Never believe what other people say, Tiaozi will never tell you that he is Tiaozi, there are so many Chinese police officers in the United States, just send a young man here, pretending to be from China, it is very difficult if you don't check carefully. Hard to tell."

"Then what should I do?" The young man said, "As you said, he has already seen me, no matter if he is a spy or not, I can't let him go..."

The other party thought for a while and said, "So, you can find a reason to look at his passport to see if he is from China. If he is really a domestic passport, then he must not be a note from the United States."

The young man said subconsciously: "Isn't it a good idea to forge passports... We don't know how many fake passports we have to get all day long... If he is a real note, what kind of passport can't he get out?"

The other party smiled and said, "You're stupid, don't you look at his customs clearance record? That fake passport can deceive us, but not the customs. Check if the stamp on the entry record in Mexico was stamped today, and then look at it. Let's see if his previous trip from China to the United States is the most recent. If it is, it proves that he is definitely not a note. Then you can bring him here with confidence and boldness. I will arrange for someone to respond. If you stay locked up, isn't this a big grievance sent to the door?"

"Hey!" The young man was relieved and said with a smile,

At this time, the young man finally breathed a sigh of relief. After hanging up the phone happily, he turned around and walked towards charlie and Trent .

The young man at this time didn't know that the whole process of his phone call and report to the above was heard by charlie clearly.

On the one hand, charlie marveled at the vigilance of this organization, but on the other hand, he couldn't help sighing that in the face of absolute power, such a careful strategy and careful actions seemed meaningless.

Rao is that they are so cautious, but from now on, no matter how smart and cautious they are, they will not be able to escape the end of being destroyed by the group.

The young man didn't know the disaster was coming, he thought Trent was buying one get one free, he smiled back to the two of them, and said to charlie with a smile, "Your luck is really good, we usually recruit people very well. Strict, not only do you have to submit documents in advance, but you also have to go through a strict medical examination to have the possibility of going up. However, this time our ship is going to sea soon, and there is just one manpower shortage. If you are interested, you can go back for an interview with me. You can go to work without any problems."

charlie pretended to be excited and asked, "Then how much is our seaman's monthly salary?"

The young man said with a smile: "Five to six thousand dollars a month, depending on your performance and the efficiency of the mission."

"Okay." charlie nodded cheerfully and said, "It sounds good, let's do it first!"

The young man nodded and said, "Let's go quickly. From here to the port of Ensenada, there is still about 100 kilometers to go."

The two readily agreed, so they came to the parking lot outside the airport under the leadership of the young man.

The three of them came to a Chevrolet pickup. The main driver was already seated with a brown-skinned Mexican man. The man was five-year-old and three-thick, with a face full of flesh.

The young man pulled away from the co-pilot, turned to charlie and Trent , and said, "This is our company's car, and the driver is the bodyguard of our company's general manager. Mexico is not very peaceful, so we have to rely on the bodyguard to control the market. Don't look at his face. Hengrou doesn't look like a good person, but he's actually a very enthusiastic old ink."

The Mexican man looked at the two with a smile on his face, then patted his bulging waist and said a word in Spanish with a smile.

The young man on the side translated: "He said you are welcome to come to Mexico, and he has a Glock 17 in his pocket to keep us safe."

charlie nodded with a smile, and Trent , who was beside him, didn't feel anything wrong, so he quickly said, "Tell him about your hard work."

The young man smiled slightly, greeted each other in Spanish, and said to the two: "You two sit in the back row."

charlie and Trent got into the car from left to right and sat in the back row, and then the Mexican drove out of the airport.

In the car, the young man turned his face to charlie and Trent and said, "You'd better call your home now or send a message to report safety, because the infrastructure on the Mexican side is not very good, and we will leave the city and go to the city later. On the way to Ensenada, there is basically no signal."

Trent didn't realize that he was cheating, so he quickly took out his mobile phone and called his home to report that he was safe.

Seeing that charlie didn't call, the young man couldn't help but ask him, "Dude, why didn't you tell the family?"

charlie smiled and said, "I didn't dare to tell anyone when I came to Mexico. For people like me, the most taboo thing is to contact family members. It's easy to get into trouble when you contact me, so I don't want to talk about it."

When the young man heard this, he nodded with a smile and said nothing.

Chapter 5006

The reason why he asked charlie and Trent to call home first is because his car is equipped with a signal shielding device. Once the car leaves the city, he will open the shielding device to prevent the signal base station from recording The movement trajectory of the two mobile phones.

Because all mobile phone communication depends on the base station on the ground, and a large number of ground base stations overlap each other, forming a communication range with almost no dead ends in the city, the mobile phone will automatically adapt to the one with the strongest and best signal among multiple base stations. Then establish a connection to it.

When the mobile phone is constantly moving across regions, the mobile phone will search for the base station with the best signal all the way, and constantly switch between multiple base stations. In this way, the base station will also record the access information of this device.

If you want to use a mobile phone to track a person's movement trajectory, you only need to call up the access time and specific information of his mobile phone and the base station, and you can lock a relatively accurate route map and relatively accurate range.

In this way, the specific location of the criminals' lair will be exposed.

Therefore, this young man just deliberately falsely claimed that Mexico's infrastructure is not good, in order to pave the way for the next signal blocking.

With this early vaccination, when the two find out that the mobile phone has no signal, they will definitely not feel anything abnormal.

After the pickup left the airport, it went all the way south. When the car drove about ten kilometers away, the young man quietly reached out and touched under the passenger seat, and turned on a hidden switch inside.

This switch is the power switch of the signal shielding device.

After pressing it, all signals within five meters around the car will be completely blocked, not only can't answer calls, even satellite signals can't be received.

Trent chatted with charlie all the way, and at the same time chatted with his wife on WeChat on his mobile phone, but while chatting, the mobile phone signal suddenly became out of service, he was a little surprised, and subconsciously said: "Oh, there is no Internet so soon now..."

The young man laughed casually: "Oh, this is so normal in Mexico. In a place like Mexico, as long as you go out of the city, there is basically no cell phone signal."

Trent nodded lightly, then put the phone down, looked at the desolate desert-like landscape outside the window, and asked charlie, "Brother, did you feel the difference when you came from the United States to Mexico? Look outside here. The barren countryside is not much different from the no-man's land."

charlie smiled and said: "I am actually very adaptable. You let me live in the presidential suite of a five-star hotel today, and I am not excited. You let me set up a tent in the wilderness tomorrow, I don't feel bad about sleeping in the wind."

Trent said with a smile: "You have a good personality. Your personality is a standard optimist, and you can adapt as quickly as possible wherever you go."

"Yes." charlie nodded and said with a smile, "I've been here for so many years. I can't say I'm well-informed, but at least I can be flattered and humiliated."

Trent gave a thumbs up and praised: "If only I could be as free and easy as you are."

As he spoke, his eyes glanced into the distance. When he saw something vaguely in the distant wilderness, his brows suddenly wrinkled.

Immediately, he subconsciously picked up the phone and fiddled with it, his expression became more dignified, and even a little nervous.

charlie noticed Trent's change from the corner of his eye. He also saw Trent carefully looking at the Mexican who was driving, and he couldn't help thinking: "This Trent, shouldn't he have found something?"

Just thinking about it, Trent picked up the phone, pressed it on it for a while, handed it to charlie, and said with a smile, "Brother, let me show you the photo of my son, he looks so handsome."

charlie looked down, and there were no photos on the screen of the mobile phone he handed over at all, but a line of words: "

Brother, there is something wrong with this kid! We may have been fooled!"

Chapter 5007

Seeing the text on Trent 's mobile phone, charlie was surprised.

He did not expect that Trent could see the problem so quickly.

So, he took the phone, typed on it quietly, and said with a smile, "Oh, brother, your son doesn't look like you at all, he's much more handsome than you!"

While speaking, he typed a line on his mobile phone: "Brother, what's the problem?"

He then handed the phone back to Trent .

Trent took over the phone at this time and said with a smile: "My son looks like his mother, I tell you, don't look at me not very good, my wife is so beautiful, wait a minute, I Find you pictures of my wife when she was young!"

As he said that, while typing on his mobile phone, he muttered: "Oh, there are too many photos in my mobile phone, 20,000 to 30,000, and it's really hard to find them."

After a while, he handed the phone to charlie and said, "Hey, look, this is a photo of us when we got married, there was no such thing as a photo, retouching, or a beauty camera at that time. ."

charlie took the mobile phone and read a large paragraph on it: "Brother, the guy driving said there is no mobile phone signal here, but I just saw a signal tower in the wilderness about a kilometer or two away, although I looked at it. It's very vague, but I am a communication engineer myself. I can recognize the signal tower at a glance. It stands to reason that even if the base station equipment is old, it is impossible to have no signal after only one or two kilometers, especially here. There is no obstruction for ten kilometers, and the signal is even more impossible to cover, so I think this must not be right!"

Seeing this, charlie couldn't help but admire Trent , but he didn't want Trent to get nervous too early, so as not to startle the snake, so he said, "Don't tell me, my sister-in-law was really beautiful when she was young!"

Saying that, he typed a line on his hand: "Will the signal tower be broken? Is it normal for the signal tower to fall into disrepair in this kind of place?"

Trent took over the phone, and while typing, he said, "By the way, I have a young daughter who looks a lot like my wife . I'll show you a photo to see."

While speaking, Trent typed another line: "I thought so too at first, but I just looked at the navigation software and found that the navigation software can't even find satellite signals, which is even more strange! Even if Mexico's infrastructure is very poor, even if the signal tower just now is indeed broken, the satellites in the sky will not be broken. There are more than 24 GPS satellites working on six orbital planes at the same time. Even if Mexico is unmanned, it can still receive satellite signals, but my mobile phone can't find any satellite signals, which proves that there must be some kind of shielding device on the car, which can block the communication signal and the satellite signal at the same time!"

Seeing this, Charlie couldn't help sighing in his heart: "As expected, the shielding device installed by the other party just touches the professional field of Trent, a talent in the communication field, so he can feel something wrong all of a sudden, but he can also it can be seen that Trent is definitely a smart person."

Charlie was afraid that he would act rashly, so he replied on his mobile phone: "Brother, don't act rashly first, let's take a look."

Trent was in a hurry, and he found a reason to show him his mobile phone, and replied on it: "Brother, we can't drag it on! It may be too late for the two of us to find a way to escape now, if we wait for the place, we can only let others kill!"

Charlie replied: "We can't jump out of the car and run away, right? The speed of the car is so fast that jumping out will definitely kill you, not to mention that the old Mo who was driving has a gun on his body, even if the two of us jumped out of the car and didn't fall to his death, he came up and shot him. We must be dead too."

Trent replied to him: "But when they are in their territory, we will have no chance! Will they be slaughtered by others?"

Charlie replied: "We are both poor and white, they are definitely not trying to make money and kill their lives, maybe they are planning to trick our brothers into a ship as free laborers, or maybe we are two, as long as we are obedient and stay alive. It shouldn't be a big problem. If we run away now, we will most likely die in Mexico. Although I said that there is no loess to bury people, I don't want to be buried in this ghostly place where birds don't shit..."

When Trent saw Charlie's reply, he instantly fell into a struggle.

He knew that what Charlie said was probably right.

Chapter 5008

In this situation, if you want to escape, you can only fight to the death.

However, in the end of a desperate fight, there is a high probability of death.

After all, the other party is prepared, and he has a gun in his body. If he shoots at a disagreement, he and Charlie will definitely be abandoned in the wilderness.

After all, Trent has stayed in the United States for so many years and has a relatively good understanding of the situation in Mexico.

This place is full of armed criminal groups. The number of armed criminals is more than the number of police and army combined. In this place, it is easier for criminal groups to kill people than to steal bicycles on the street, let alone ordinary people being killed. Even Mexico's rich, politicians, and high-ranking officials are often kidnapped and assassinated every now and then.

In the eyes of the Mexican police, the death of two foreign tourists in such a place is less worth mentioning than the loss of two bicycles at the entrance of an Internet cafe.

Thinking of this, although Trent was very nervous, he did not dare to act rashly.

He felt that what charlie just said was somewhat reasonable.

It's almost impossible for him to be poor, and it doesn't make any sense for the other party to take his own life.

If they still think about kidnapping themselves and asking their family for ransom, it's even more impossible.

My family is now absolutely negative, and to put it bluntly, the money my wife can come up with is not enough for them to drive this pickup truck and pick me up at the airport.

Therefore, Trent felt that charlie's analysis should be correct, and they most likely wanted to deceive themselves to come over and work hard.

If that is the case, although it may be dark, at least one life will be left.

As the saying goes, it is better to die than to live.

As the saying goes, if you keep the green hills, you will not be afraid of running out of firewood.

Thinking of this, he was already resigned to his fate, and the thought of dying and struggling just now was completely dispelled, and then he typed it to charlie on his mobile phone, and it said: "I'm really sorry, brother, it's brother who has troubled you. ..."

charlie was not nervous at all, and replied on his mobile phone: "Where is it, I took the initiative to come. If there are any consequences, it has nothing to do with you, brother."

Afterwards, charlie added: "Brother, as soon as you come, you will be at peace. Fortunately, we can still be friends with each other. It's a blessing or a curse, and we'll know when we get there."

Trent really didn't expect that charlie, a little brother who was a dozen years younger than himself, could see things so open-mindedly.

Under the influence of charlie, Trent's heart was not as nervous as before.

But he couldn't be as open-minded as charlie, so after deleting all the text, he looked out the window alone, feeling guilty and flustered...
