

Charismatic Charlie Wade Chapter 5009-5014

Chapter 5009

The pickup truck they called it did not go to the port city called Ensenada as scheduled.

That place is just a guise for a fool.

In fact, they drove to the edge of a coastal fishing village northwest of Ensenada.

There are still more than ten or twenty kilometers away from Ensenada.

Before the pickup truck drove into the fishing village, the driver kept staring at the rearview mirror, looking left and right, for fear of being followed, so he deliberately slowed down to see if the car behind him slowed down.

Soon, he found that as his speed slowed down, the cars behind him caught up one after another, and none of them slowed down because of his own deceleration.

According to his superficial anti-tracking common sense, he was basically sure that no one or vehicle was following him.

Then he felt relieved and turned the car into the fishing village.

It's just that he didn't know that from the time they left the airport, there were more than a dozen cars following one after another in the relay, some cars overtook after more than ten kilometers, and some cars followed after more than ten kilometers from a fork. Turning, these dozen cars were all very cautious, and he didn't see any clues.

While he was slowing down, the vehicle in charge of tracking this section of the distance passed him directly without slowing down in order not to attract his attention.

And about a mile behind, which is about 1,600 meters, there is actually a spare car that has been out of sight all the time, blindly following all the way through the radio command of the continuous relay vehicle in front.

Since the spare car was always out of sight of the other party, there was no need to replace it frequently, so Abbas took this car as his command car.

After hearing that the vehicle slowed down, the car stopped directly behind a mile away, and then the Wanlong Palace soldiers in the vehicle immediately released a high-end domestically produced aerial photography drone.

This kind of civilian aerial photography drone is a big loss that Wanlongdian has suffered in Syria.

Before that, they couldn't believe that a domestic drone costing no more than $1,000 could silently take aerial photos 500 meters above their heads, giving them a panoramic view of all their movements.

Since Wanlong Palace was brought under Charlie's command, Wanlong Palace has purchased at least 10,000 civilian aerial photography drones of different specifications, some of which can even be folded into pockets, and can take off within a minute if necessary.

At this time, they flew a cracked drone directly behind them.

This cracked quad-rotor drone can break the original factory's 500-meter ascent limit, and it can easily fly even if it is two or three kilometers.

Moreover, the enhanced battery can provide it with at least 50 minutes of flight endurance and more than an hour and a half of airborne capacity, and the speed of the drone can reach more than 60 kilometers per hour.

Therefore, after the drone took off, it took just over a minute to lock the pickup truck that Charlie was riding in on the screen.

Afterwards, the soldier in charge of aerial photography immediately reported to Abbas: "Palace Master, the target position has been locked, and they have entered the fishing village on the right side of the road ahead!"

Abbas nodded and said lightly: "I think this is the other side's lair, send out the coordinates, let everyone rush to a location a mile away from the fishing village to hide, secretly encircle the fishing village, and prepare to follow Mr. Wade's plan. , bring them a oriole at the back!"

the other side.

Chapter 5010

Seeing that Lao Mo drove the car into the dilapidated fishing village, Charlie pretended to be curious and asked the young man in the co-pilot: "Hey buddy, aren't we going to that Ensenada? How can we drive this bird without shitting? Are you here in the village?"

The young man said casually: "Our car is running out of gas. There is smuggled oil in this fishing village, and the price is cheap. Let's fill up the gas here and continue on our way. Now it is not far from Ensenada. It's 20 minutes after refueling for a kilometer."

After he finished speaking, he stretched his waist and said casually: "Oh, I played cards with a few old Mos until it was past three o'clock at night, but I was fucking sleepy. After picking up you, I'll be able to sleep well. Get some sleep!"

With that said, the pickup truck drove into a rural courtyard.

Charlie looked at Trent, who was beside him. Seeing that he was getting more and more flustered, he smiled and said, "Brother, don't be so nervous, it's just to cheer up, it's alright."

As soon as he finished speaking, the pickup truck stopped in the yard. Seven or eight burly men walked out of several brick houses around the yard. Without exception, these people were all brown-skinned Mexicans with similar tattoos on their bodies. The totem of Gay, the pointy-toed shoes that are gay in his feet are kicked, and the key is that he holds a pistol in his hand.

Seeing these people rushing around, Trent asked nervously, "What are they going to do?!"

"What are you doing?" The young man in the co-pilot smiled, escaped a pistol from under the seat, pointed at Trent, and then at Charlie, and said coldly, "Give me all the fucking honesty. Get out of the car, if you f*cking dare to run around, I will shoot him to death!"

As soon as they finished speaking, the burly men outside reached out and opened the two rear doors.

Afterwards, each of them pointed guns at Charlie and Trent in the car, shouting something very excited.

It's just that Charlie can't understand Spanish, and has absolutely no idea what they are babbling about. He just thinks that these guys are so f*cking annoying.

Charlie hurriedly put his head in his hands and shouted: "If you have something to say, don't shoot, don't shoot, don't you just want money? I have more than 1,000 dollars in my pocket, you can take it all! If it doesn't work, then I'll give you the suitcase too!"

The young man roared coldly, "What are you talking about? I asked you to get off the bus, you don't understand?"

Charlie hurriedly said, "I understand, I understand."

After saying that, he stepped out of the car.

As soon as he got out of the car, two burly men held him on the left and the right, and then tied his wrists behind him with nylon ties about one centimeter wide.

This kind of nylon cable tie is very strong. Under normal circumstances, if a person's hands and wrists are tied in this way, even if he breaks the cable tie into the flesh, until the bone is strangled, it is impossible to break the cable tie. break.

And the buckle of this kind of cable tie is one-way, it will only get tighter and tighter, but there will never be any looseness, so these criminal groups especially like to use this kind of thing to restrain the victim.

In their experience, no one has ever been able to break free from this type of tie.

After Charlie's hands were tied, Trent was also dragged directly from the car by two big men.

Trent also tried to struggle, but the other party directly pressed him to the ground and fastened his hands with cable ties.

Trent ate a mouthful of dirt, vomited several times in a row, and said hoarsely: "Bah, bah, what are you doing?! You kidnapping a bankrupt poor bastard like me is completely useless, I'm here for you. Said, apart from wasting food, there is no use at all!"

The young man stepped forward, squatted on the ground, patted Trent's face with the barrel, and said with a smile, "Brother, don't think that you are useless, in fact, you are very useful!"

Chapter 5011

charlie and Trent were coerced by the opponent with guns and brought directly into one of the brick houses.

In this brick house, there is no furniture, just a sinking staircase with bright lights.

The two were taken to the ground by a group of gangsters with live ammunition, which turned out to be unique.

The entire underground part is divided into two areas by a corridor. On the left, there is a prison cell with iron fence gate, and seven or eight people are still locked in it. On the right, it is tightly covered by a nearly ten meter long white curtain. I couldn't see what was going on behind the curtain.

However, the whole underground part is filled with the smell of disinfectant, which is very strong and even choking. In addition, the sound of the ventilator and the operation of the ECG monitor can be heard.

charlie immediately realized that this should be a simple operating room.

And charlie could feel that behind the white curtain, there were two very weak patients who were in a deep coma.

At this time, at the other end of the corridor, a yellow-skinned middle-aged man in his fifties walked down. The man walked down quickly and walked across the corridor to the crowd. He first glanced at Trent, and then looked at Trent. charlie, who was beside him, asked the young man, "Aliang, has the identity of this person been verified?"

"It's verified." The young man called Ah Liang hurriedly said with a diligent smile: "Uncle Ma, this kid is just a f*cking unlucky bastard who came from China, and happened to be sitting with this Trent on the plane. Together, the two chatted all the way, and the chat was quite speculative, and he planned to follow Trent to Mexico as a seaman, and then he came here."

Uncle Ma nodded lightly, looked charlie up and down, and said with a smile: "Don't tell me, this kid looks strong and young, if he can find a suitable match, he will definitely sell it. Good price."

With that said, he said to Ah Liang, "Let Hardik come down and have a look."

"Okay, Uncle Ma, wait a moment." A Liang responded quickly, and then trotted all the way to the outside.

charlie looked at the uncle Ma at this time and asked nervously, "Who are you? What are you going to do when you tie us here?"

Uncle Ma grinned, showing his big yellow teeth, looking at charlie as if he were looking at prey, and said with a smile: "I heard a persuasion, some things don't need to be known too early, it's too early to know, for you Apart from adding to your troubles, it doesn't have any other effect, you just sleep here with me, eat steadily, and what exactly you want to do to you, you will know in a few days."

After speaking, he looked at Trent , who was beside him, and said with a smile, “Your name is Trent , right? I’ll call you Xiao Lang in the future, to be more cordial.”

Trent asked nervously, “You... who are you?”

Uncle Ma said with a smile: “My surname is Ma, and my Chinese name is Ma Kui. The place you are staying is just under my control, so you are under my control.”

Just as he was talking, Ah Liang just now brought back a dark-skinned Indian. The Indian wore myopia glasses and wore a white lab coat. He looked like a doctor.

The Indian stepped forward to several people and asked in English, “Which is the donor for the acquired surgery?”

A Liang on the side quickly pointed to Trent and said, “He is.”

The Indian looked at Trent carefully, nodded and said, “It seems that he is in good shape. In the past two days, he must have a low-sugar diet, eat less frequently, and don’t give him any drugs.”

Trent ‘s face turned pale with fright, and he blurted out, “What are you going to do?! Are you going to cut off one of my kidneys?!”

Chapter 5012

Ah Liang smiled and said coldly: “I really want to cut one of your kidneys, but so far I haven’t found a patient who can match your type. Even three cents of money!”

When Trent heard this, he was even more nervous and quickly asked, “What are you doing?”

The Indian doctor looked at Trent and said with a smile: “For the operation of the day after tomorrow, you should not know many things so early.”

Uncle Ma said to A Liang at this time: “Oh, by the way, there is something I haven’t had time to inform you. A Canadian uremia patient has been successfully matched with Xiao Lang, and the other party is willing to pay 200,000 US dollars for a kidney. The price I offered him was $600,000 for two kidneys, which is a rare opportunity for a uremia patient.”

When Ah Liang heard this, his brows were overjoyed, and he blurted out, “Did he agree?”

Uncle Ma said with a smile: “I said that I have to think about it, but I’m sure he will agree. If he agrees, we will have the surgery together the day after tomorrow.”

The Indian doctor Hadik blurted out: “Mr. Ma, I have three surgeries the day after tomorrow, and I have to go back to the United States. If I add another kidney transplant, it will be in the middle of the night...”

Uncle Ma said with a smile, “It’s okay, Dr. Hardik, you have to work hard. I’ll pay you an additional $5,000 for the surgery. After the surgery, I’ll let Ah Liang take you to the airport.”

Hearing this, Hardik rolled his round and even protruding eyes a few times, then shook his head and said, "Since Mr. Ma said so, then I will work harder to make one more."

Trent had already vaguely understood what the other party was doing at this time. He didn't know what the other party wanted to take from him the day after tomorrow, but now he actually said that he would do a double kidney transplant for the matching type. Don't you die?

Thinking of this, he said in fear: "Aren't you afraid of being arrested for doing such a depraved thing?!"

Ah Liang smiled and said, "What the hell is your conscience, if you kill you, you will lose your conscience? Do you know that if you die, you can save at least two people, and maybe you can make another person see the light again. People say that saving one life is better than building a seven-level pagoda. We kill one, save two, and two minus one equals one. Isn't this the same as saving a life for nothing? The merits are boundless, I will go!"

Trent was trembling with fright, and blurted out, "What are you going to do to me?!"

A Liang looked at Uncle Ma who was beside him and asked, "Uncle Ma, can you tell him about this?"

Uncle Ma looked at Trent at this time, and smiled cruelly: "To tell you the truth, there is a heart patient who has successfully matched your heart, and he will come to Mexico the day after tomorrow for an operation to replace your heart. , If the Canadian customer also negotiates, then he will come over the day after tomorrow to replace your two kidneys. In addition, because the cornea transplant does not need to be matched, we may find another one that needs eye surgery from tonight to tomorrow. corneal transplant patients."

Trent slumped to the ground in fright. For a while, he felt like a thunderclap, and he didn't know what to do.

At this time, A Liang looked at him, raised his eyebrows cheerfully and said, "Brother, look at what I said, you are very useful!"

Trent collapsed in an instant, he knelt on the ground with a thud, crying and begging: "I beg you to let me go, I am old and young, my family is waiting for me to support, if you kill me, My mother, wife, and children will be all over..."

Ah Liang smiled and said, "I've tried so hard to deceive you here, how can I let you go?"

As he said that, he turned his face and said to charlie: "Oh, you are also interesting, how do you say something? Oh right, if there is a way to heaven, you don't go, and there is no door to hell, you break in, you say You're lucky, there's really no one else in the world! Hahahaha!"

charlie was not afraid at all at this time. He looked at that Ah Liang and asked curiously, "What are you going to do with me?"

Chapter 5013

A Liang looked at charlie disdainfully at this time, and said lightly: "Don't worry, I will ask someone to draw blood for you later, and then post your blood type and other relevant information on the Internet.

If you match, I will negotiate the price with the other party, and after the negotiation, you can just wait for the operating table.”

The Indian doctor Hadik said quickly: “Damn, I almost forgot that there were still two lying on the operating table.”

As he said that, he quickly stretched out his hand and opened the white curtain next to him. As expected by Charlie, it was a simple operating room. There were two operating tables in the operating room. At this time, there were two operating tables on each of them. people.

The Indian doctor ran over to see the situation of the two and said to Uncle Ma, “Mr. Ma, the guest’s condition is almost stable, and it can be sent to recuperate.”

“Okay.” Uncle Ma nodded, and with a wave of his hand, several Mexicans immediately stepped forward, moved the man to the mobile hospital bed, and carried him out.

At this time, Uncle Ma looked at another unconscious man lying on the operating table, and asked the doctor, “How is this guy?”

Hardik looked at it, shook his head and said, “It’s not very good, it’s too weak, it’s estimated that won’t live for a few days.”

After speaking, he asked Uncle Ma, “Have the other parts of the body found a buyer?”

Uncle Ma shook his head and said, “I haven’t been able to match.”

After speaking, Uncle Ma said, “Don’t worry about him, let him stay here, I’ll have someone pull him out and bury him in the middle of the night.”

Hardik said, “Then I’ll leave him alone. Today’s work is over and I’ll go to bed.”

Uncle Ma instructed: “Remember there are two surgeries tomorrow, don’t get up too late.”

Hardik nodded quickly, then yawned and walked away.

Ah Liang shouted from behind, “Hey, Hardik, we haven’t collected blood for this kid yet!”

Hardik turned around and said, “Let’s pick it tomorrow morning. After picking it, take it to Ensenada for testing. Now picking it will not be fresh until tomorrow.”

When Ah Liang heard this, he didn’t say much, but looked at Charlie and said playfully, “Have a good rest tonight, there are two surgeries tomorrow, just to let you see the world.”

Charlie looked at him and asked, “You said just now that I can sell for a good price, so I want to know how much I can sell?”

Ah Liang frowned at Charlie, and asked in surprise, “Boy, aren’t you afraid?”

charlie casually smiled and said, "I'm afraid it's useless. I said I'm afraid you can let me go? If you can't, why should I be afraid?"

"Ouch..." Ah Liang couldn't help looking at charlie up and down, and raised his eyebrows and said, "I didn't see that you are quite kind."

charlie smiled lightly and said, "You haven't told me yet, how much can I sell it for?"

Before Ah Liang could speak, Uncle Ma stepped forward and said with a frown, "Boy, who are you?"

charlie smiled and said, "If I tell you now that I'm someone you can't offend, would you think I'm too pretentious?"

"Grass..." Ah Liang was a little angry, and blurted out, "You're so f*cking fat! Believe it or not, I'll open it up for you now, let's see how fat you are?!"

Uncle Ma, who was on the side, stopped him, pulled him behind him, stared at charlie with dead eyes, and asked, "Boy, if you have any way to go, just report to your home, if we can make a deal between us. Four, five or six, today's matter, it's not impossible to turn battles into jade and silk."

Chapter 5014

Speaking, Uncle Ma looked at charlie with a cold and vicious expression, and continued: "If you can't tell me four, five or six, then I have a way to make your life worse than death."

charlie asked curiously, "What can I do? Let's hear it."

Uncle Ma's expression became more ruthless, and he gritted his teeth: "Do you believe it or not? When the operation is performed, I will tell them not to give you anesthesia, and then let you experience what it means to be cut with a thousand cuts."

charlie nodded and said with admiration: "This is good, this is good, this has an idea!"

After he finished speaking, he looked at India on the side and asked curiously, "Hadik, right, are you the chief surgeon here?"

Hardik smiled unnaturally and said, "I'm only in charge of the operation, and I don't care about the rest."

"Okay." charlie nodded and smiled, and said seriously: "You can do it, you can be a big one."

A Liang was a little confused. He looked at Uncle Ma and asked, "Uncle Ma, shouldn't this kid be frightened? Why do I feel like he's lost his mind?"

Uncle Ma was also a little confused.

To be cautious, he looked at A Liang and asked, "Did you pay attention when you came, and were you followed by others?"

“How is that possible.” Ah Liang said very seriously: “I’ve been staring at the rearview mirror all the way, no car has been following us, and no car has behaved abnormally or suspiciously. Mo has confirmed that there are no other vehicles within sight.”

Uncle Ma nodded lightly, then looked at charlie, and asked curiously, “Boy, I really want to know, why are you not afraid at all? Are you not afraid of death?”

charlie smiled and said, “I’m afraid of death.”

Uncle Ma frowned and asked, “Are you afraid of death, are you still pretending to be so?”

charlie said lightly: “I’m afraid of death, but not of you, you can’t kill me.”

Uncle Ma suddenly pulled out a pistol from his waist, pointed it at charlie, and asked coldly, “Tell me, what the hell are you doing!”

charlie deliberately changed into a Hong Kong-Taiwan accent, and said helplessly: “Hey, you are really a locomotive. You have asked me the same question many times.”

At this time, Ah Liang said to Uncle Ma: “Uncle Ma, why do you ignore him? I guess this grandson is scared to death and deliberately wants to anger you, so that you can kill him with one shot, don’t be impulsive. Ah, if you are impulsive, you will lose at least a million dollars with this shot.”

Uncle Ma nodded and said coldly, “It’s estimated that there is some kind of stress response. I don’t care about him, you lock the two of them first. In addition, strengthen your guard tonight. If there is any trouble, report it to me immediately.”

Ah Liang hurriedly said, “Okay, don’t worry, Uncle Ma!”

Uncle Ma snorted, turned around and was about to leave, charlie suddenly sneered and said, “I thought you had some amazing deeds in Mexico, and after doing it for a long time, it turned out that it was all this kind of work that didn’t make it to the top. You are really not afraid of retribution coming soon!”

Uncle Ma turned around, stared at charlie vigilantly, and asked him, “What do you mean?”

charlie smiled slightly, and asked him: “You shouldn’t have contacted Soleil recently, right?”

“F*ck!” When Uncle Ma and A Liang heard this, they both turned pale with shock, both of them took out their guns and aimed at charlie at the same time, A Liang blurted out and asked, “Say, where the hell did you hear that? Soleil? Are you a sliver?”

Uncle Ma felt that charlie was unlikely to be a spy, so he pulled the trigger slightly, stared at charlie viciously, and asked coldly, “Brother, let’s not talk secretly, which way are you going? How do you know about Soleil?”
