

Charismatic Charlie Wade Chapter 5027-5032

Chapter 5027

Frightened, he subconsciously asked charlie: "We are crazy Juarez, we have always respected Wanlong Palace very much, but I don't understand, I have no grievance with Wanlong Palace, why Wanlong Palace wants to kill me twice. More than 100 brothers?"

charlie sneered and said, "I said just now, all of you, without exception, are all the most heinous people. To kill you is to do justice for the sky and eliminate harm for the people." Juarez Unwilling in his heart, he blurted out: "In Mexico, we are not the only criminal group with heinous crimes.

Why don't you target the most powerful ones, but instead target us Crazy Juarez? Are you acting for the heavens and killing the people? Do you want to pick the weaker ones too?

charlie sneered, looked at him and asked, "You still played moral kidnapping with me? Well, since that's the case, then I'll convince you to die, and I ask you, is Soleil from you?" "Soleil?!" Juarez suddenly remembered that when Ma Kui called himself to report, he had revealed on the phone that charlie had inspected Soleil before.

Now hearing charlie mention Soleil's name again, Juarez said quickly, "Soleil is just one of our peripheral members in the United States!" charlie asked him: "The peripheral members Not a member anymore? Let me ask you again, are the contrabands that Soleil tricked her compatriots to help her transport in the United States, are they yours?"

"Juarez subconsciously quibble: "No...not mine..." "Don't tell the truth? charlie snorted coldly and said to Abbas, "Abbas, abolish his legs!" Abbas didn't say a word. He raised his gun and fired two shots at an extremely fast speed.

Juarez only felt a sharp pain in his knees. He looked down and saw two legs. Her knees were completely shattered by bullets.

The severe pain made him almost faint on the spot, but he immediately regained consciousness from the brink of fainting. The uncontrollable pain made her cry out in a collapsed whole body.

looked at him and said coldly, "If you make that noise like killing a pig again, I'll have someone break that thing in your crotch too! When Juarez heard this, he trembled with fright, and then forced himself to shut his mouth. charlie looked at him at this time and continued,

"I'll ask you again, are the goods in Soleil's hands?" yours? Juarez was enduring the severe pain at this time, and the large beads of sweat continued to flow down his cheeks, and even merged into a trickling stream at his chin. In order to save his life, he only Can admit: "Yes...it's mine..." charlie nodded and asked him again: "I'm asking you Soleil, the person who tricked me from the United States to work in Mexico, is he?"

Wasn't it brought here by you to take the organs and then kill them? Juarez's first thought was to deny it, but then he thought that the other party had already come to the operating room.

If he dared to quibble at this time, wouldn't he be courting death? So he could only say nervously: "Yes... yes..." "Okay. charlie smiled and continued: "Just two days ago,

Soleil deceived another Chinese compatriot and asked him to bring a batch of contraband for her from the airport, but unfortunately, that Chinese compatriot didn't wait for the plane.

You were caught by U.S. Customs and the police on takeoff, you know? "Juarez always knew about this, because that time he lost 5 kilograms of goods, which really made his flesh hurt all night.

But he really couldn't figure it out, what could this matter have to do with charlie? charlie After all, he is a person with a black gold card, and he is also the owner of the entire Wanlong Palace.

This kind of person can already be regarded as the top of the world. How could he have something to do with Soleil? Thinking of this, he couldn't help it.

Q: "Mr. Wade...you... You are already the master of Wanlong Palace, why bother to embarrass us little gangs because of this trivial matter?

charlie sneered and said word by word, "May I tell you, the woman who was used by Soleil, who was carrying contraband, and who flew on the plane is my mother-in-law!" ""what?

Chapter 5028

"Juarez only felt five thunders at the moment! Let him think about it for ten or twenty years, and he would never have imagined that Soleil could trick the mother-in-law of a big man like charlie into a mule... ..

No wonder charlie has such strength, but he has to destroy a Mexican criminal group with only 200 people.

It turns out that his subordinates accidentally provoked charlie's mother-in-law! Ma Kui on the side is also scared.

Seeing that Wanlong Hall had killed so many of his colleagues, he was so frightened that he quickly knelt on the ground, crying and begging charlie:

"Mr. Wade, I really didn't participate in this matter, it was that Soleil who did it all by herself. of. For the sake of my compatriots, please spare me a dog's life! ""Sibs?

" charlie asked disdainfully, "Aren't you guys specially designed to harm your compatriots? How many compatriots have died in your hands over the years? Did you do the statistics yourself? "Makui said in a panic: "Mr. Wade..

.I...I am also forced to be helpless...These things are what Juarez forced us to do, and I myself have never gone out to deceive my compatriots, it was Soleil and the others who went to deceive people..."

charlie looked at him and said coldly, "You are still here to quibble when you are about to die, you can't really cry without seeing the coffin! After that, he looked at Abbas and instructed: "Abbas, break his hands and feet for me!"

Abbas raised his gun expressionlessly and fired, firing four bullets in an instant, and these four powerful bullets directly smashed Ma Kui's wrists and ankles into a pool of bone mud, which was equivalent to cutting off Qigen! (No wonder charlie has such strength, yet he has to destroy a Mexican criminal group with only 200 people.

It turned out that his subordinates accidentally provoked charlie's mother-in-law! Ma Kui on the side was also frightened.

For the sake of my compatriots, please spare me a life!" "Compatriots?" charlie asked disdainfully, "Aren't you all dedicated to harming compatriots?"

Who are the compatriots who have died in your hands these years? How many people?

Have you counted them yourself?" Ma Kui said in a panic, "Mr. Wade...I...I am also forced to be helpless...These things are all Chinese.

What Reis forced us to do, and I myself have never gone out to deceive my compatriots, it was Soleil and the others who went to deceive people..." charlie looked at him and said coldly,

"I die until I die. You are still here to quibble at the end of the day, you really can't see the coffin without tears!"

After that, he looked at Abbas and instructed: "Abbas, break his hands and feet for me!"

Abbas was expressionless He lifted the gun and fired, and shot four bullets in an instant, and these four powerful bullets directly smashed Ma Kui's wrist and ankle into a pool of bone mud, which was equivalent to cutting off the root! (No wonder charlie has such strength, yet he has to destroy a Mexican criminal group with only 200 people.

Abbas was expressionless He lifted the gun and fired, and shot four bullets in an instant, and these four powerful bullets directly smashed Ma Kui's wrist and ankle into a pool of bone mud, which was equivalent to cutting off the root! (

I, charlie, always acted like this, and was suddenly shot four times, because both ankles had turned into mud, and the whole person fell to the ground.

And he subconsciously wanted to use his hands to support the fallen body, but he forgot that he still had hands at this time, but they were just two bloody bones.

Therefore, when he used the wound on his broken wrist to support his body that fell down, the huge gravity brought huge shock and pain to his two wrists, and the pain made him feel like a fish that had just been caught. Tuna, the whole person fluttered on the ground desperately, screaming incessantly.

A large amount of blood was sprayed everywhere as he struggled violently. A Liang, who was next to him, was splattered with Ma Kui's blood because he was too close.

His whole body was so frightened that his legs went weak, and he couldn't help kneeling on the ground. Although Ma Kui was in unbearable pain, he still struggled and begged to charlie:

"Mr. Wade, you see that I am a waste now, I beg you to forgive me for the fact that I am in my sixties this year. dog life... charlie frowned, and asked back, "Have those compatriots who have been persecuted by you for so long, knelt down and begged you to spare their lives?"

If so, how did you do it? Ma Kui suddenly didn't know how to answer. Over the years, countless compatriots have died at their hands.

Almost every victim would kneel on the ground, begging to be able to raise his hand. But he has never softened for anyone. He has always been cruel, Ma Kui seems to have been able to foresee his future.

He knew in his heart that he would die today. At this time, charlie said, "If I just kill you, I want to come to those who were killed by you. Murdering innocent compatriots will definitely feel that it is not enough to relieve hatred, so you can rest assured that after you die,

I will continue to make you pay with blood. "Ma Kui was a little dumbfounded, because he really couldn't understand, if he died, how could charlie continue to pay his debts with blood? He couldn't smash himself into thousands of pieces, right?

In his heart, When he was puzzled, charlie opened his mouth and said to Abbas, who was beside him: "Abbas, investigate all his information and background, find out all his immediate family members, and then investigate his immediate family members.

In the financial accounting transactions between him and him over the years, as long as any adult in his immediate family spends the unscrupulous money he earned, he will tie that person to me and go to Syria.

Before the age of 18 to 70, no Men and women are treated equally! I want to make him work in Syria for the rest of his life to repay this blood debt for him! Abbas said respectfully without hesitation: "Okay, Mr. Wade, this subordinate will arrange for someone to investigate!" When Ma Kui heard this, he broke down and burst into tears.

He is almost the same as Soleil and Xu Jianxi. They are all alone to make money and support the family.

However, he is stronger than Soleil and Xu Jianxi because he is older than her.

He has already made money to bring his family to North America and successfully obtained Canadian citizenship.

He has three sons, the eldest is in his thirties, and is currently working in a multinational company in Toronto, and has already started a family.

His second son was just married at the beginning of the year.

as for him My third son, who will graduate from college this summer and enter the society.

Although these sons are not outstanding talents, they all successfully completed university thanks to the higher education resources per capita in Western countries and Mac Kui's ability to make money.

According to the plan that charlie just said, the three sons of Ma Kui would have to work in Syria for the rest of their lives to repay the blood debt for Ma Kui.

How could Ma Kui have the heart to drag down his three sons, crying and begging charlie: "Mr. Wade...everything is my fault, as the saying goes, it is not my family's fault, even if you kill me now, I will not I'm just asking you to spare my family, please...

" charlie sneered and asked him, "Have you heard about Soleil and Xu Jianxi?" Ma Kui shook his head in confusion.

Since Elaine's accident, these two people have disappeared from the world, and Ma Kui has no contact at all.

Chapter 5030

However, Ma Kui also knew very well in his heart that this must be Soleil's initiative to cut off contact with the outside world.

After working with Soleil for many years, Ma Kui still knew her very well.

Therefore, Ma Kui did not hear anything about what happened at Soleil and Xu Jianxi's home.

Seeing his confused face, Charlie said lightly: "Their family members were all arrested by the police for money laundering, and their illegal gains were basically seized according to law, which means that the two of them have been doing bad things for so many years, earning a lot of money.

The black money that I received has basically disappeared, you see, twenty years of hard work have been in vain, and I have also put my relatives in prison, is it worth it?" Ma Kui was extremely frightened in his heart, while Charlie paused.

, continued: "However, their families will not be sentenced to prison for too long, so I will take them to Syria after they are released from prison, and the families of the three of you can still meet there.

" Ma Kui was stunned. He didn't expect Charlie to be able to do such a thing to cut off his son and his grandson.

If so, wouldn't the two families be completely finished and never turn over? ! Just when he was extremely frightened, Charlie said with a smile: "It's good, the three of you can be regarded as a kind of colleague relationship for the time being, and your colleague relationship will be passed on to you after you die.

Descendants, maybe in the future when your son is digging an air-raid shelter in Syria, he will meet a new kid.

That kid is Soleil's son.

By then, the two of them will be digging an air-raid shelter in Syria together, and they will work at least 12 times a day.

After an hour, after finally resting, we can talk about the glorious deeds of their parents together, which is really interesting to think about.

" Ma Kui's whole body collapsed, he cried and said: "Mr. Wade... .It's all my fault...

I beg you, don't let my wife, children, and children pay for my mistakes.

My eldest grandson has just started elementary school.

You can't even let the children go! "Speaking, Charlie reminded kindly: "Oh, by the way, don't worry, if your immediate family members are underage, I will definitely not do anything to him, I will give him a normal adult. Opportunity.

Having said that, Charlie changed the subject and said again: "But I want to talk about the ugly first, once he is an adult, although I will not settle accounts in the autumn and bring him back to Xueli Ya, but I will tell everyone around him what you did! ""Including but not limited to his classmates, friends, teachers and future significant other! "I want them to know what kind of elder he has.

In this way, he is likely to be unable to raise his head in front of others because of what you have done, so that he will hate you in his heart for the rest of his life!"

"I will also ask my subordinates to tell him that as long as he still chooses the surname Ma, no matter where his life is hiding, I will let him escape from your shadow, unless he is willing to completely change his surname and remain anonymous from now on!"

""At that time, your grandson will be ashamed of following your surname, he will change his surname, and his children will also change their surnames like him.

At that time, your lineage will be broken! After you die, only people will hate you, and no one will miss you.

Your lineage of Ma family will be completely cut off, leaving only your infamy for the rest of your life! Ma Kuiting's scalp went numb, and he blurted out hysterically: "You can't do this!

" You can't do this to a child! It is inhumane to do so! It's already the 21st century, not the age of the ancient times when houses were raided together! What's the difference between you and a barbarian?

!" Charlie snorted and said lightly, "I'm sorry, Charlie has always acted like this! The means of civilization will only make you annoyed by your carelessness, but it will not make you reflect and regret what you have done, and I just want you to truly regret what you have done, but I prefer I won't give you a chance to start over or change it! I want to make every second before you die, full of endless pain!

Chapter 5031

Um. Ma Kui didn't expect that Charlie could come up with such a method.

Not only will his life be over, but his three sons will also be in darkness for the rest of their lives. How could they escape the pursuit of Wanlong Palace?

Even his grandson was not spared. Once he was humiliated and criticized for his actions, he would hate himself to the core.

At that time, he will definitely give up his surname without hesitation.

In this way, the inheritance of the family is completely broken!

Thinking of this, Ma Kui was extremely frightened, he cried and begged Charlie: "Mr. Wade...you can't do this, Mr. Wade...one person does things and one person is responsible... Even if you want my son to be punished on my behalf, you can't target a child like this!"

charlie smiled and said: "What did I target him? I just announced what his grandfather did, is there anything wrong? You are not afraid of doing so many hurtful things, are you afraid that these crimes will be made public?"

? And have you ever thought that once your actions are exposed, the media around the world will report on it, and even your deeds may be remade into movies by directors from all over the world, which will be shown in various countries around the world.

You will be really notorious at that time, and maybe you won't need me to fuel the flames, and when your grandson grows up, he will hate you to the bone!"

Ma Kui's whole person was like a madman, and he shouted in a broken way: "You are going to raid my house and let my house be destroyed! I will not let you go even if I am a ghost!"

charlie sneered and said disdainfully, "If there are ghosts in this world, even if you become a ghost, I will not forgive you lightly, and I will count you as my wade if I don't send you to the eighteenth floor of hell and go up to the knife mountain and down to the oil pan. I can't stand it!"

Ma Kui looked at charlie's disdainful and contemptuous eyes, and was extremely horrified.

At this moment, he realized that he was in charlie's hands, like a bug caught in his palm.

How the other party wants to kill himself is easy.

At this time, charlie looked at Ma Kui's collapsed appearance, and sneered: "To deal with heinous bastards like you, you won't feel the pain if you don't raid your home and let your family be destroyed!"

Speaking of which, charlie looked at Ma Kui and asked him: "In the early years, there were many drug-related criminals in Southeast Asia, and the local police couldn't clean them up no matter how hard they fought., do you know how the local police stopped them later?"

Ma Kui shook his head blankly.

charlie said with a smile: "They found that although these drug-related criminals have committed crimes outside, but at home, without exception, they are very responsible for the responsibility of the head of the family. They would rather tie their heads to their belts than Desperately taking the risk and earning a lot of money to build a house for the family, buy a car, so that they can live without food and clothing, as long as the family can make a fortune, they will smile even when they go to the execution ground."

"Later, the local police in Southeast Asia learned a trick. Before they shot the drug-related criminals, they first let these criminals watch their wives, children, children and children dared to come out of their homes, and then let them watch their own buildings being destroyed with their own eyes. The excavators flattened and watched their car being torn to shreds by hydraulic tongs, so that they could see that all their efforts were turned into ashes, and then drag them to the execution ground in desperation."

"Since then, the number of drug-related criminals has really started to decrease!"

Having said this, Charlie looked at Ma Kui and sneered: "We should use the same method to deal with you bastards! Since money and family are your beliefs and totems in your heart, then if I just kill you alone, you will feel in your heart that you are a brave warrior who devoted your life to your faith, so I must smash your faith to smithereens! Not a single piece is left!"

Ma Kui sat on the ground as if struck by lightning, with tears and snot flowing, while letting his limbs bleed continuously, the whole person was completely desperate.

At this time, a soldier from Wanlong Palace ran in and said to Abbas: "Palace Master, there is a car coming in at the east entrance of the village. Our sentry confirmed that Soleil was seated in the co-pilot.!"

"Soleil?!" Abbas's eyes lit up, and he quickly looked at Charlie beside him and asked respectfully, "Mr. Wade, as you expected, that Soleil really came to Mexico!"

Chapter 5032

Charlie smiled and said: "Now she can't find another place to live except Mexico! Soleil, Soleil, I finally waited for you!"

After speaking, he asked the Wanlong Palace soldier, "How is the cleaning outside?"

The man hurriedly said: "Mr. Wade, before the palace master came in, we were already cleaning the battlefield. Those corpses have now been moved into the empty room above. Our soldiers are turning the soil inside and outside the yard to hide them. Blood, it's windy tonight, and the smell of blood dissipates quickly."

"Okay." Charlie nodded and said, "After their car enters the door, just grab them and bring them to meet me!"

The soldier immediately said respectfully, "Mr. Wade, your subordinates obey!"

Right now, at the eastern entrance to this Mexican village.

As Man Jase drove the car into the village entrance, Soleil, Xu Jianxi, and Hallie, who played Man Jase's wife, all breathed a sigh of relief at the same time.

The four of them braved the road for several days without stopping, and finally reached their destination.

In the past few days, their car has hardly stopped except for refueling and buying food and drinking water.

In their view, the entire United States is at risk, so the best thing to do is to get to Mexico as soon as possible.

Moreover, Soleil also planned to go to Mexico to rest for a few days, while watching Trent 's surgery, and then go back when the wind in the United States is less serious.

At this moment, Jase, who was driving, said in surprise, "Aunt Soleil, why is it so quiet here today?"

Soleil said lightly, "Don't look at what time it is."

As she said that, she stretched her waist and said cursingly, "I don't want to take a car again in my life..."

Jase didn't think much of it, and skillfully drove to the location of the operating room.

However, when the car drove near the operating room, everyone suddenly found that there were many vehicles outside the operating room door, and at least dozens of vehicles were seen.

Xu Jianxi, who was sitting in the back row, was also a little surprised, and asked, "Why are there so many cars? Everyone from the gang is here?"

Soleil couldn't help but murmured: "Could it be that the boss is here? Looking at this situation, only he can have such a big scene."

Xu Jianxi said nervously: "Sister Soleil, the boss needs time for us. He will definitely blame us for not doing things well..."

Soleil swallowed her saliva and said with difficulty: "Don't think too much about it now, the goods are found by customs, this kind of thing is normal in itself, if the goods go out so well, the price will naturally not be able to sell so high. , why is this thing so expensive, isn't it just to add those sunk costs? It's like building a wooden bridge in the abyss. The bridge made of wood is not worth much, but the valuable thing is that it can support the wooden bridge in the abyss Wooden shelf!"

As she said that, she paused for a moment and said seriously: "When you meet the boss in a while, don't talk casually, so as not to say too many mistakes. I will talk to him when the time comes, and I believe he will give us another chance!"
