

No. 1 Supreme Warrior Chapter 2996 - 3000

Chapter 2996

Emilio took a deep breath as he paled slightly, "So you were actually very confident. That's why you made the bet against Ethan. That was why you looked down on all of us..."

Jackie raised an eyebrow and merely let out a faint smile.

After everyone heard Emilio's words, they let out looks of realization. No wonder Jackie's actions had been so hard to understand. Insulting Ethan and betting against Ethan. No matter what anyone else said, Jackie had been unfazed. At that moment, everyone had been wondering if Jackie had some sort of goal in mind. It was then they realized that Jackie had not regarded them as anything at all. Jackie had just been incredibly confident.

Jackie frowned, saying in exasperation, "I already made things very clear earlier, it's just that none of you wanted to listen. You thought I was spewing nonsense. There's nothing I could do about that."

It was then did everyone realize that Jackie had definitely said that he would not have done the bet if he did not have the skills. At the time, no one believed in him. They even thought that he must have been crazy to say that. Now, they know that he was not crazy, it was them who was being ignorant.

Emilio's lips twitched as his expression soured. At that moment, he did not know what to say. He felt like he was a complete clown in front of Jackie.

He took a deep breath as his lips twitched slightly, "I'm such a joke..."

When it was announced that he got third place, Emilio was actually full of disbelief. He had felt that, even if he could not get the golden treasure, he was not that bad to only get a black treasure. Now it seemed like he was not just bad in terms of skill, but in terms of evaluating others as well.

Emilio sighed as he composed himself. He turned around as he returned to his original spot somewhat despondently. If he had lost, then he could only accept the results as it is. He was not as much of a sore loser compared to Ethan. No matter what, he still managed to obtain a treasure. Even if it was just a black treasure, he would at least have something to bring back with him. Furthermore, things happened unexpectedly this time, so he would be able to explain things if the higher-ups asked.

Jackie raised an eyebrow, suddenly feeling like there was a gaze on him. He then looked up to see Nash looking at him with a complicated expression.

He was actually in a similar state as Ethan. His lips twitched and the muscles on his face were stiff. He was filled with disbelief, frustration, and anger. Nash had never expected that things would end up like that.

Jackie had gotten a golden treasure, while he had gotten nothing. Compared to Jackie, he was nothing. He had actually been the one to suffer a complete loss. There was no way Nash could accept that.

Nash took a deep breath as he asked with a trembling voice, "You were always just pretending. Who are you? And... Why..?"

Nash suddenly stopped as he said that. He still had a load of questions to ask, but his reason told him that the situation would go out of control if he asked the questions out loud.

The alchemists from the other worlds were still staring right at their direction. Even if he hated Jackie, he could not deny Jackie's value. Just with Jackie's skills, Scarlet Pavilion would happily accept Jackie. If Scarlet Pavilion's higher-ups really did so, then he would be in a difficult spot. So he forced down the anger and doubt in his heart as he stared at Jackie.

Jackie raised an eyebrow as he said calmly, "I'm just more talented than all of you. There's nothing else to it."

Chapter 2997

The moment he said that, chills could be felt in the air. Everyone's face soured at the harsh words!

However, they were forced to hold back even if they wanted to mock Jackie. After all, Jackie's skills had been shown for all to see. Unless they were stronger than Jackie, anything they said would just be a joke.

Everyone had seen that Jackie had actually gotten first place. The results of the top three had been shown to everyone. The numbers were incredibly specific, and there was no way it was fake. Everyone would constantly glance at Jackie, most of them with inquisitive looks.

Jackie did not care how others looked at him, ignoring everyone.

After Nash shut his mouth, Jackie only had one thought in mind. He turned around and walked toward where the alchemists from White Marsh Continent were.

At that moment, the alchemists from White Marsh Continent all looked at Jackie carefully. They were even a little afraid, not sure if Jackie would shoot back at them with some vicious words. If Jackie decided to mock them, they would be thoroughly humiliated. However, Jackie did not even bother looking at the alchemists behind Ethan as he looked right at Ethan.

After reaching in front of Ethan, Jackie reached out and said coldly, "Have you forgotten the million spirit crystals?"

That served as a reminder to everyone. All of them suddenly remembered the bet Jackie had made against Ethan before. It had been clearly written that Ethan would have to give Jackie a million spirit crystals as long as Jackie got a treasure. Not only did Jackie manage to get a treasure, but a golden treasure. Jackie had stood on top of the three of them.

Ethan's face darkened completely when he heard that Jackie wanted his spirit crystals. His lips paled, and everyone gulped at how he looked. He looked like he was about to die from anger.

Ethan started to take deep breaths. He had never been so humiliated before. It was incredibly embarrassing. Not only did he lose to Jackie, but he also needed to give Jackie a million spirit crystals for no reason.

Looking at Ethan, it was obvious that Ethan was furious to the point where he had no intentions of taking out any spirit crystals.

Jackie raised an eyebrow and mocked, "What are you trying to do? Are you planning on going against the deal? Don't forget, you signed the contract very happily..."

Those words caused Ethan's face to sour even more. He remembered what he had said to Jackie before. At the time, Ethan had thought that Jackie was a complete idiot that was giving him free spirit crystals. Even if he had guessed that Jackie might have other goals, he never expected that Jackie actually had no other intentions. Jackie had merely bet against him because Jackie had been incredibly confident.

Ethan's hands trembled, "I had no such intentions, I would never do that!"

Ethan felt like he was about to explode from the anger.

Jackie then let out a laugh, "Do you still remember how you talked to me then? You said I was something else for wanting to give you spirit crystals. I was wondering what sort of expression you would have when the results came up. I wondered if you would be as happy as back then when you gave me the spirit crystals. In my eyes, you were like a clown."

Chapter 2998

After saying that, Jackie even waved the sixth-grade alchemist badge on his chest in front of Ethan.

Ethan lost his balance looking at that. If it were not for the other alchemists behind him, he would probably have tripped and fallen.

At that moment, everyone was looking at Ethan. He let out a bitter smile. There was no way he could back out at that moment. After all, he had signed a contract. With the laws of the world restricting him, there was no way he could violate them. He was forced to swallow his frustration and hatred as he took out a million spirit crystals from his spatial ring to give to Jackie.

Jackie had actually started counting it on the spot. After making sure that the number was right, he put the crystals into the Mustard Seed.

Ethan stood by the side, he was so angry that his whole body was trembling. He felt like he could pass out at any moment. This time, he was positively furious!

However, even if Ethan did die, Jackie would not care at all. After Jackie was done counting the spirit crystals, the Heaven Array in Prosper City's inner city started to glow in green. It was the sign that a message was being sent over.

Everyone reacted when they saw the glow. It looked like the round was already over. The results were out. If someone acquired a treasure, then the results would be sent before the green light disappeared. Everyone was already familiar with the sight. After all, six groups had already competed before this.

Everyone straightened their backs the moment they saw the green light, looking toward the Heaven Array. The green light got denser and denser, causing everyone's spirits to be lifted.

Some of them started to discuss, "I wonder what the results are. I wonder if we managed to get a treasure."

"With Nash, there's a big chance that we did. Even if Nash is not as good as Rudeus, he's not too much worse. If Nash performs as usual, and there's no one overly strong from the two other worlds, the black treasure will be ours!"

"There are too many conditions. I feel like the third place isn't that easy. Just look at Rudeus' expression. He's trying too hard to suppress his worry. We can see that he's not that confident in Nash."

"That's right, even Nash himself probably doesn't know if he can get third place. That Ethan guy had been so arrogant earlier. If we fail to win anything this time, he'll definitely not hold back and keeps on insulting us. How infuriating."

"That guy actually insulted us and told us not to participate. He said that we're all just here to make up the numbers. I get so angry just thinking about it!"

“There’s nothing we can do about it though. Hestia Continent really can’t compare to the other two continents, but that’s not our fault.”

“If the barrier hadn’t appeared back then, we wouldn’t be losing to them now. We might even be stronger than Chaos Continent. It’s all because we were completely sealed off. That’s why we became so weak.”

Discussions could be heard everywhere. Most of them did not have too much hope for the results. Many of them felt like the chances of getting a prize were too small. After all, the other two worlds were too strong.

Rudeus was furious listening to their complaints.

Chapter 2999

He had already been in a terrible mood thanks to Jackie. Those negative comments seemed to light up a fuse in him.

He suddenly stood up on his mat as he shouted at all the alchemists around him, “All of you, shut your mouths! The results have not been sent over, and you’re already saying such depressing things. Even if the results are good, they have been swallowed up by your depressing words! I trust Nash’s skills. Even if he doesn’t get a black treasure, he would have only missed by just a little!”

Everyone shut up after hearing that. No one dared to provoke him. They knew that Rudeus was in an incredibly bad mood at that moment.

Mitchell frowned unhappily as he looked at how crazy Rudeus was acting. No matter what Rudeus said before, he had more or less tolerated it, but he never expected that Rudeus would end up being so out of control, biting at everyone like a mad dog.

There was nothing too wrong with what everyone was talking about. All of it was the truth. Even he was not that optimistic about this round’s results. After all, there are a lot of talented alchemists from the two other worlds.

It was not easy to place in the top three among so many masters. He had participated in one of the rounds, and naturally knew how hard it was.

Mitchell took a deep breath, saying unhappily, “Rudeus, I know you’re in a bad mood, but there’s nothing wrong with what everyone is saying. No one wants to be pessimistic. If there really is reason to be confident, I trust that everyone would have gladly said so...”

Rudeus frowned as he looked at Mitchell darkly. His lips twitched as he snorted, “Stop trying to be so snide about everything. This time, Phoenix Valley has their representative in it too. Aren’t you worried? Wouldn’t you be angry with them when you hear such negative evaluations?”

Mitchell coldly answered, "Of course I want my fellow students to get good results, but the truth is clear for all to see. If I say that he'll definitely be able to get a treasure, I'd just be bragging..."

Mitchell and Rudeus were arguing nonstop on one end, while Rudy and Aaron sat in their corner, starting to discuss things.

Rudy's face was full of worry. He trusted Jackie's skills, but they were against two incredibly strong worlds. He did not know if Jackie would be able to get good results.

Possibly because of the worried look on Rudy, but Aaron could tell right away.

He said curiously, "I feel like Jackie should be able to get a good standing, I just don't know how well he'll do. I heard from the other alchemists that only the top three results would be announced, while everything else would be ignored."

Saying that Aaron was worried as well. If Jackie did not get in the top three, then his results would not be shown. It would be useless even if Jackie had been in fourth place.

After Rudy heard Aaron's words, he turned and said seriously, "Jackie will definitely get a treasure!"

Rudy sounded incredibly confident, leaving no room for doubt. Aaron's lips twitched helplessly, not knowing what to say. He wanted to ask Rudy how he was so confident that Jackie would definitely get a treasure.

Chapter 3000

Did he think the top three were all useless?

It's not something you can get just because you want it. However, he knew that Rudy would definitely not be his friend anymore if he said all of that, so he was forced to swallow his words.

Rudy continued to say, "I'm just wondering which prize he'll get, not if he gets one. If he doesn't get a treasure, then he wouldn't be Jackie anymore..."

After hearing that, Aaron was even more doubtful. He really wanted to give Rudy some advice, that the higher Rudy's hopes were, the more painful it would be in the end. Rudy had very high hopes on Jackie.

Did Rudy not know what placing in the top three meant?

Hearing his words, it was like Rudy was even more confident in Jackie than Jackie himself. Before, Aaron had already been confused by Jackie's confident actions and words.

Looking at Aaron who seemed like he did not know what to say, Rudy snorted, "I know what you're thinking. Honestly, I can understand, but you don't know anything about us. That's why you think we're crazy..."

The moment he said that, the Heaven Array suddenly let out a golden glow. The next second, the words 'golden treasure' appeared in front of everyone. When they saw those words, all the arguments and discussions immediately disappeared. They could not believe their eyes.

It was the first time they had seen those words on the Heaven Array. In the last six groups, four of them saw nothing being sent back at all. This time, not only was something sent back, it was none other than the golden treasure that was sent back.

Everyone was so shocked that they did not know what to say. They could not even believe what was actually happening.

After a while, someone finally pointed at the Heaven Array, trembling, "Are my eyes deceiving me? It's a golden treasure. An alchemist from Hestia Continent got a golden treasure. Is this real? Am I dreaming?"

"I'm wondering the same thing too. I suspect that I'm dreaming. All of us are!"

"Oh my gosh, we really got a golden treasure? Who got it? Was it Nash? His skills were actually that strong. He actually exceeded Rudeus and got a golden treasure! It's unbelievable. I was ignorant to assume that he was weaker than Rudeus."

"I thought the same too. I felt like he would be able to get a black treasure at most. A golden treasure is something unbelievable. I can't believe this dream actually came true. It's absurd!"

"It's not just you who thinks it's absurd. Everyone here does too!"

It was just like that person said. Everyone was filled with disbelief!

An alchemist from Hestia Continent had actually gotten first place! Before, the results of their earlier six groups had been abysmal compared to the two other continents. A golden treasure was something they did not even dare to think about, yet they actually managed to get it.

At that moment, there were many questions in everyone's minds, but after a few minutes, they started to get excited.

A golden treasure was not just a little better than bronze or black treasures. Once the golden treasure was brought back, it needed to be shared with everyone. The victor could pick first, but could only choose one. The rest was left for everyone else. A happy mood swept across the place. Even those who had been cursed and berated by Rudeus before were incredibly happy and pleased at that moment.
