

The Amazing Son in Law Chapter 1-10

Chapter 1

The luxurious Xiao family villa is brightly lit.

Tonight is the birthday banquet of the seventy-year-old Mrs. Xiao, the owner of the Xiao family.

Many grandchildren, granddaughters, and grandsons-in-law gave gifts.

“Grandma, I heard that you love tea. This century-old Pu’er tea brick is worth 500,000 and is a birthday gift for you.”

“Grandma, I heard that you believe in Buddha. This jade Buddha is carved from Hetian jade and is worth 700,000.”

Old Mrs. Xiao looked at the various gifts and laughed, making the whole family happy.

At this moment, Mrs. Xiao’s eldest grandson-in-law, Marven, suddenly said: “Grandma, can you lend me a million? Aunt Lena from the orphanage has uremia and needs money for treatment.”

The entire Xiao family was shocked.

Everyone looked at Marven with incredible eyes.

This live-in son-in-law is too courageous, right? The Lady Xiao was over her birthday. Not only did he not prepare any gifts, he even dared to open his mouth and ask the Lady Xiao to borrow one million?

Three years ago, the surviving Mr. Xiao, don’t know from where found Marven, and insisted on marrying his eldest granddaughter Avella Xiao to him. At that time, Marven was penniless, just like a beggar, same as now.

After the two got married, the Old Master passed away. Since then, the Xiao family has been deliberately trying to drive him away.

It’s just that Marven is indifferent, and is not moved by other people’s insults, so he has always been a live-in son-in-law in the Xiao family.

It is also helpless to ask the Lady Xiao to borrow money today.

Aunt Lena from the orphanage where he was taken in and saved, had uremia. Dialysis and kidney transplantation required at least one million. He really had no choice but to speak to the Lady Xiao.

He felt that today is the Lady Xiao’s birthday, and then she may be kind and willing to help when she is happy.

Unexpectedly, the Old Mrs. Xiao was still laughing for a second, and she immediately pulled her face down this second.

She threw the teacup in her hand to the ground and shouted angrily: “b*start thing, you are here to celebrate my birthday or to borrow money?”

Marven’s wife, Avella, hurried forward and explained to the Lady Xiao: “Grandma, Marven is ignorant, don’t be surprised.”

With that said, she was about to pull Marven aside.

At this time, Avella’s cousin, Theresa, sneered and said, “Sister, look at what kind of rubbish your marriage is! Phil and I were just engaged and not yet married, so Phil gave grandma a Hetian Jade Buddha, it’s good for your husband, he didn’t bring any gifts, and he still have the face to ask grandma to borrow money!”

“That’s right, Brother Marven, we are both grandsons-in-law of the Xiao family. You, as the eldest grandson-in-law, are really a failure!”

The man who spoke was Theresa’s fiance, Phil, the young master of a large local family.

Although Phil was about to marry Theresa, in his mind, Theresa’s appearance was a thousand miles away from Marven’s wife Avella.

Avella was a well-known goddess in Wrestvel, but seeing the goddess marrying this worthless man and a waste of money, Phil was also very upset.

“This kind of garbage, it’s best to get him out of our Xiao family as soon as possible!”

“Yes! The Xiao family’s face has completely lost this guy!”

“I think it is fake that he borrowed money, and his interest in deliberately sweeping the birthday feast of the Lady Xiao is true!”

Marven couldn’t help clenching his fists when he saw that the entire Xiao family was targeting and insulting him.

Had it not been for the medical expenses of the savior, he would have turned around and left this place of fake extravaganza and pomp.

However, thinking of his father’s teachings to him since he was a child, letting his kindness of dripping water and retribution to the spring, he tried to suppress the humiliation in his heart, and said to the Old Mrs. Xiao: “Grandma, saving a life is better than building a seventh-level Buddha. Please be merciful”

Someone snorted coldly and cursed: “Ye, you don’t want to give grandma ecstasy here. If you want to have someone, you can find a way by yourself and don’t let your grandma pay to help you save people. What are you?”

It was Theresa’s brother, Jay.

The brothers and sisters have always had great opinions on Avella, who is superior to them in all aspects, so they like to seize the opportunity to mock Marven the most.

Avella on the side looked a little embarrassed and said, "Grandma, Marven lost his father when he was eight years old. Aunt Lena from the orphanage brought him up. He wanted to repay his gratitude because of a grateful heart. Please help him"

Old Mrs. Xiao said with a dark face: "Let me help him? Okay, unless you divorce him and then marry Mr. Jones, if you do, I will immediately give him one million!"

The Lady Xiao was talking about Bob, who had been pursuing Avella. The Jones family was an upper-class family in Wrester, much more powerful than the Xiao family, and the Lady Xiao always wanted to curry favor.

At this time, the housekeeper ran in and said loudly: "Mr. Jones sent someone with a birthday gift! A carved jade amulet from Laokeng is worth three million!"

Mrs. Xiao was overjoyed and blurted out: "Bring it quickly, let me see!"

The butler immediately handed over an emerald green jade amulet, and everyone present let out a breath of surprise.

This jade amulet is emerald green, crystal clear, without a trace of impurities, and looks like a first-class genuine product.

Phil, who had sent the Hetian Jade Buddha, saw this jade amulet, and his face was a little bit awkward. Unexpectedly, Bob had nothing to do with the Xiao family, and his shot was so generous!

Old Mrs. Xiao happily played with jade amulets and said merrily: "Oh, Mr. Jones is really interested! Only if he could be my grandson-in-law, I would really wake up in my dreams!"

After that, she looked up at Avella: "How about my condition, would you like to consider it?"

Avella shook her head: "Grandma, I will not divorce Marven."

Mrs. Xiao's expression instantly turned into a haze, and she angrily cursed: "Don't give me your face! You must hang on this rubbish! Let this rubbish get out of my face! My birthday banquet, he is not allowed to participate!"

Marven was completely disappointed, and he had no face to stay in the Xiao family at this time, so he said to Avella, "Avella, I will go to the hospital to see Aunt Lena."

Avella hurriedly said, "Then I will be with you."

Old Mrs. Xiao cursed at this moment: "If you leave too, I won't have you as granddaughter in the future! You take your parents and your mother, and get out of Xiao's house with this waste!"

Avella looked startled, and she didn't expect the Lady Xiao to say such harsh words.

Marven said hurriedly: "You stay, don't worry about me."

With that said, before Avella recovered, he turned around and walked out.

Jay laughed behind him, "Oh my good brother-in-law, you left hungry and won't go to the streets to beg for dinner? In that case, our Xiao family's face will not let you lose all of it? I still have it. For a coin, you can buy a steamed bun to eat!"

Jay said, took out a coin and threw it at Marven's feet.

The entire Xiao family burst into laughter.

Marven gritted his teeth and left the Xiao family without looking back.

When he rushed to the hospital, Marven immediately went to the payment office, wanting to communicate with the hospital, and to inform them that the medical expenses would be delayed for another two days.

However, when he asked the nurse, he was suddenly told that Aunt Lena had been sent to the best Hospital in Orgeyon overnight.

Marven was shocked, and hurriedly asked her: "How much does it cost? I'll find a way!"

The other party said: "A total of three million is needed. One million has been paid, and there is still a gap of two million. It will be paid in a week."

"Who paid this million?"

The other party shook her head: "I don't know either."

Marven was surprised and was about to figure it out. When he turned his head, a man in a black suit with gray hair, about fifty years old, was standing behind him.

With eyes facing each other, the man bowed to him and said, "Young master, you have suffered for so many years!"

Marven frowned, as if his temperament had changed, and asked coldly: "Are you Darren?"

The other party said in surprise: "Mr. Ye, you still remember me!"

Marven's expression froze, and he murmured: "Of course I remember! I remember every one of you! Back then, you forced my parents to take me out of Orgeyon and escape all the way. During this time, my parents died unexpectedly. I have also become an orphan, so why are you looking for me now!"

Darren said very painfully: "Young Master, when your father passed away, Old Master Ye was also extremely sad. He has been looking for you for so many years. Now that it is all right, he wants you to come back to him with me!"

Marven said coldly: "You can go, I will never see him in my life."

Darren said, "Young Master, do you still blame Master Ye?"

"Of course." Marven said word by word: "I will never forgive him in my life!"

"Hey" Darren sighed and said: "Before I came, Master Ye said you might not forgive him."

"That means he has self-knowledge!"

Darren said: "Old Mr Ye. knows that you have suffered over the years, he wants to compensate you a little. If you don't want to go back, he will buy the largest company in Wrester and give it to you. In addition, he has asked me to give you this card. The password is your birthday."

With that, Darren handed over a Citibank premium card.

"Mr. Ye, there are only five such cards in the country."

Marven shook his head and said, "Take it away, I don't want it."

Darren said: "Mr. Ye, for your savior, you still have a shortfall of 2 million in medical expenses. If you fail to pay, her life may be in danger."

Marven frowned: "You deliberately fix me?"

Darren hurriedly said, "I don't dare to! If you accept this card, it will be enough to pay the money."

Marven asked, "How much money is in this card?"

"Mr. said, this card is for you as a little pocket money, not much, a total of 10 billion!"

chapter 2

Ten billion? !

Marven was stunned.

He knew that his grandfather's family was rich, but at that time he was young and had no idea about money. He only knew that the Ye family was one of the top families in Orgeyon and in the country.

But he didn't know exactly how much money it had.

But at this moment, he knew it.

Ten billion is just pocket money, and when it is about the entire Ye family, he is afraid it will be more than one trillion!

To be honest, at this moment, he was deeply moved in his heart.

But thinking of the death of his parents, Grandpa couldn't shirk the blame, and he couldn't forgive him.

Darren saw his entanglement and hurriedly said, "Master, you are the heir of Ye family. You deserve this money, and strictly speaking, it belongs to your father."

"Master said, if you are willing to go back, you will inherit the trillions of family properties. If you don't want to go back, this money will be given as your living expenses."

"Oh yes, Wrestvel's largest enterprise, the Emgrand Group with a market value of 100 billion, was wholly-owned by Yejia yesterday. Now all the shares are in your name, you can go to Emgrand Group for the hand over by tomorrow!"

Marven was a little unbelievable.

Ye Family's investment is too big for him to handle, right?

Ten billion premium cards, one hundred billion Emgrand Group!

Although Wrestvel hides the dragon and crouching tiger, the only true god is the Emgrand Group. Any family must bow to their knees in front of the Emgrand Group. It is the emperor of Wrestvel's business field!

Even the Xiao family and Wang family who humiliated him today, as well as the Jones family who pursue Avella, are all small in front of the Emgrand Group!

Unexpectedly, it turns out to be his own now?

At this time, Darren handed him a business card and said, "Mr. Ye, you may need to calm down and think about it. I won't bother you anymore. This is my phone number. Please tell me if you have anything to do!"

After speaking, Darren turned and left.

After he left, Marven was still in a daze.

He didn't know whether he should accept Ye Family's compensation.

But, thinking about it carefully, the humiliation that he has experienced over the past ten years, and the humiliation he has been given in the Xiao family, these are the compensations given to him by the Ye family, why doesn't he take it?

Moreover, Aunt Lena's medical expenses still need two million, and it is urgent.

Thinking of this, he gritted his teeth and immediately turned back to the toll office: "Hello, I want to deposit the two million."

Swipe the card, enter the password, the transaction is successful.

Two million was easily credited to the hospital's account.

Marven felt like the whole person was in the mist.

Has he become a billionaire?

Going home in a muddled manner.

The family had fallen out at this time.

Avella and her parents did not live in Xiao's villa, but a very ordinary building.

They have been driven out since Avella married him and Old Mr. Xiao died.

His mother-in-law was yelling at home: "Marven that rubbish! Let us lose face today! If you don't divorce him, your grandmother will drive you out of the Xiao Group!"

Avella said, "I'll find another job when I get out."

"You" said mother-in-law angrily: "What's so good about that rubbish? Why can't you divorce him and then marry Bob? If you marry Bob, our family can be proud!"

The father-in-law also said to the side: "Yes! Marry Bob, our family will become a treasure immediately in front of your grandma, and your grandma will rush to curry favor with you every day."

Avella said: "Don't say anything, I won't divorce Marven."

"You kid!"

The two had to persuade Marven to push in.

When they saw him, his father-in-law and mother-in-law didn't look good.

The mother-in-law snorted coldly: "A rubbish, and a face to bear it all!"

Marven sighed inwardly. His mother-in-law has always looked down upon him, but if he were to let her know that he is now the boss of the Emgrand Group and has 10 billion in cash, what would she be like?

However, Marven is not yet ready to let people know his identity.

He has been away from the Ye family for many years, who knows what the Ye family is now? What if someone in the Ye family is unfavorable to him if he exposes himself?

Therefore, it is better to keep a low profile first.

So he lowered his head and said apologetically: "Mom, I'm sorry, I caused you trouble today."

The mother-in-law scolded: "You are more than trouble, you are killing our family of three! You can't be a little self-aware, and get out of our house?"

Avella hurriedly said: "Mom, how do you talk, Marven is your son-in-law!"

"bulls*it!" Mother-in-law said bitterly: "I don't have such a waste son-in-law! The farther you go, the better!"

Avella pushed Marven: "Hurry go to the room."

Marven nodded gratefully and fled back to the room.

He and Avella had been married for three years, but they had never been married for three years in the strict sense. Avella slept on the bed and he slept on the floor next to her.

This night, Marven couldn't sleep for a long time.

What happened today is really shocking, he will not be able to digest it for a while.

Before going to bed, Avella said to him, "How is Aunt Lena? I still have more than 100,000 private money. You can take it to her tomorrow."

Marven said: "No, someone has already paid Aunt Lena and sent her to Orgeyon for treatment."

"Really?" Avella said in surprise, "Aunt Lena is saved?"

"Yes." Marven said: "Aunt Lena has done good and accumulated virtue throughout her life and helped so many people. Now someone has finally repaid her."

"That's good." Avella nodded and said to Marven: "You can breathe a sigh of relief."

"Yes."

Avella said: "I have to go to sleep. Recently, the company has a lot of things and I'm so tired."

Marven asked: "What happened to the company?"

Avella said: "The business is not very good. Grandma has always wanted to cooperate with a large company like the Emgrand Group, but the strength of the Xiao family is still much weaker and people look down on it."

Marven suddenly thought of the Emgrand Group and asked her: "The Xiao family has no cooperation with the Emgrand Group?"

Avella laughed at him and said: "How can the Emgrand Group look at the Xiao family! Even Theresa's fiancé and Phil's family are barely able to catch up with the Emgrand Group. Grandma counts on them after they get married. The Wang family can help the Xiao family connect with the Emgrand Group."

Marven nodded.

It turned out that the Xiao family had sharpened their heads and wanted to cooperate with the Emgrand Group.

However, Mrs. Xiao was afraid of dreaming and could not think of it, Emgrand Group is now his own.

Thinking of this, Marven decided to take over the Emgrand Group first, and then give Avella a little help through the Emgrand Group. She was too bullied in the Xiao family. As her husband, he had the responsibility to help her improve her status in the family.

At first, Your husband is different from today!

I will never let anyone look down on you again!

I will make the entire Xiao family bow to you!

Chapter 3

Early the next morning.

After Marven finished cooking, he rode his little ebike to the Emgrand Group.

He parked the little ebike next to the parking lot of the Emgrand Group. As soon as the bike was locked, a black Bentley car slowly parked in a parking space opposite.

Marven looked up inadvertently and saw a pair of young man and woman walking down the car.

The man is dressed in high-end suits, they look very stylish, and the women are coquettish. Although a bit gaudy, they are also rare beauties.

It turned out to be Avella's cousin Theresa, and her about to be engaged fiance, Phil, the eldest of the Wang family.

Marven didn't know what Theresa and Phil were doing in the Emgrand Group, but in order to avoid trouble, he still prepared to hideaway.

Unexpectedly, things are hiding more and more.

The sharp-eyed Theresa immediately saw him and shouted loudly: "Oh, brother-in-law!"

Theresa's brother-in-law yelled extremely cordially, but Marven couldn't help but he strode faster after hearing it.

Out of courtesy, he could only stop, and when the two approached, he smiled and said, "Theresa, why are you here?"

Theresa giggled: "I and Phil came over to meet with Lori, the vice chairman of Emgrand Group!"

After that, she looked at Phil with admiration and said, "Phil's family has a lot of cooperation with the Emgrand Group. In the future, not only will it help the Wang family, but also our Xiao family."

Marven didn't know that the Wang family had a cooperation with the Emgrand Group. After all, the Emgrand Group had just become his industry and had not had time to understand it.

But he didn't show it, just smiled and said: "The Prince has an extraordinary temperament and a good strength. You are really talented and beautiful!"

Phil Wang looked at Marven contemptuously, and couldn't help feeling injustice in his heart.

This stinky rug was scolded by Mrs. Xiao yesterday as a dog, and today he has a hippy smile like a okay person.

Why would a stunning beauty like Avella marry such a useless waste?

If it weren't for this useless man, he would definitely pursue Avella desperately, and how could he be engaged to this inferior Theresa in every respect?

Thinking of this, Phil was upset, and deliberately asked, "What did brother-in-law come to the Emgrand Group for?"

Marven said casually: "I'm looking for a job."

"Looking for a job?" He sneered and said, "Why do you want to find a job in the Emgrand Group?"

Marven frowned: "What does my job search have to do with you?"

Theresa called Marven to stop, just trying to sarcastically sarcasm him. Seeing that Phil had started first, she immediately sneered: "Why, is Phil wrong?"

"For academic qualifications, do you have a diploma?"

"If you want a job, do you have any achievements apart from your uselessness?"

"If you come to the Emgrand Group to apply for a security guard, They will not want a waste like you. If you are a little self-knowing, you might as well go picking up rubbish on the street. You can earn two or three thousand at least a month!"

After speaking, she threw the drink bottle in her hand at Marven's feet and hummed: "Hey, don't say I don't take care about you, pick up this empty bottle and sell it for money!"

Phil smiled and said: "Although you are rubbish, since you are a relative, then I have to take care of you as much as possible. It just so happens that I have some friendship with the vice chairman of the Emgrand Group. Why don't I help you with two good things and let her arrange it for you? A job cleaning the toilet?"

Marven smiled coldly and said: "The kind of job I am looking for, you don't need to worry about it. You should worry about yourself. Emgrand Group is a large enterprise. I believe they will not cooperate with you with such low-quality garbage."

Phil suddenly got furious: "Who do you say is rubbish!"

Marven said disdainfully: "You are rubbish!"

After speaking, he was too lazy to talk to Phil, and walked into the Emgrand Group Building.

"Drafting it, stop for me!" Phil quickly followed, and caught up with Marven at the elevator entrance.

He wanted to teach Marven a good lesson, but at least slapped him twice to let him know the fate of people offending him.

But when he saw that he was already inside the Emgrand Group Building, he was worried that doing something here would anger his partners, so he had to temporarily dismiss the idea of teaching him.

he gritted his teeth and said, "I will let you go for a while today, and you won't have such good luck next time!"

Marven snorted coldly, stepped into the elevator, and said to him: "Phil, do you think you are a powerful? Believe me, you will soon know the cost of arrogance!"

"f*ck you" Phil stepped into the elevator.

Theresa gave him a hand and said in a contemptuous tone: "Phil, don't take the same elevator with this kind of rubbish, lest you get smoked by the stench on his body."

Phil nodded, knowing that he couldn't do something with him here, so he said coldly: "Letting you go, I want you to look good next time!"

Marven took the elevator directly to the top floor where the chairman's office was.

On the side of the Emgrand Group, Darren had already arranged it for him, and the person in charge of docking with him was a woman named Lori Yong.

Lori is well-known in Wrestvel, and she is the most famous career oriented woman in Wrestvel. Not only is she beautiful, but she is also very capable of working. She has been promoted to the vice chairman of Emgrand Group at a young age. She has contributed to Emgrand Group's existence today.

Now that the Emgrand Group has been acquired by the Ye Family, the original chairman has abdicated, and Lori stayed and prepared to assist the new chairman.

When she saw Marven, Lori was shocked. She didn't expect that Marven would be so young and handsome!

After that, she did not dare to delay, and immediately said respectfully: "Mr. Ye, please come to my office."

Chapter 4

Marven also saw Lori for the first time.

I have to say that Lori looks really beautiful!

At the age of twenty-seven or eighteen, she has a slender and plump figure, an alluring beauty and a noble and capable temperament.

Marven sat down at Lori's desk and said: "I won't come to the Emgrand Group often in the future, so the Emgrand Group wants you to preside over the overall situation, and don't reveal my identity."

Lori knew that the Marven family in front of her was extraordinary, and an emgrand group was nothing short of drizzle to his family, and it was normal to not want to manage it himself.

So she hurriedly said: "Mr. Ye, if you have anything in the future, you can just tell me."

At this time, a female secretary knocked on the door and came in and said, "Miss Lori, there is a man named Phil who has brought his fiancée to visit you."

Lori immediately said: "I'm seeing the distinguished guests, let them wait first."

Marven asked her: "Do you know this Phil?"

Lori hurriedly said: "His family is a partner under us, and their main business is dependent on us. Their family has always said that they will come to visit, and they have been here several times."

Marven said coldly: "From now on, the Emgrand Group will no longer have any business dealings with the Wang Family. All ongoing and preparatory cooperation will be suspended. If the Wang Family can still earn a cent from the Emgrand Group, you deputy Chairman, will have to pack your things!"

When Lori heard this, her expression suddenly frightened. She didn't need to ask to know that someone from the Wang family must have offended the young master.

So she nodded immediately and said: "Mr. Ye, don't worry, I will order now to terminate all cooperation with the Wang family!"

Marven snorted and said, "Tell them that Emgrand Group will not cooperate with low-quality garbage, and then let the security guards drive them out."

Outside, Phil and Theresa were waiting excitedly.

The Wang family has always wanted to become a strategic partner of the Emgrand Group, so they especially hope to get closer to Lori.

But unexpectedly, Lori's secretary came with several security guards.

Phil couldn't help asking her: "Hello, will Miss Lori have time to see us?"

The secretary looked at him and said coldly: "I'm sorry, our Deputy Lori said, Emgrand Group will not cooperate with people of low quality like you, from now on, we are canceling all cooperation with your family!"

"what did you say?!"

Phil was stunned for a moment, and was astonished. Why is this sentence so familiar?

Oh, right! When he was in the parking lot just now, Marven also said exactly the same thing!

What does Miss Lori mean? Why should they stop cooperating with the Wang family?

Phil felt his brain congested.

what happened?

Terminate all cooperation?

More than half of Wang's profits are made by the Emgrand Group!

If the cooperation is terminated, wouldn't the family strength be cut by half immediately? !

He could not accept this reality and shouted: "I want to see Miss Lori! I want to ask Miss Lori face to face!"

The secretary said coldly: "I'm sorry, our Deputy Lori won't see you, and you won't be allowed to step into the Emgrand Group in the future!"

Phil scolded angrily: "Did you deliberately play with me? We are a long-term partner of the Emgrand Group. How can we terminate cooperation like this!"

The secretary ignored him and said directly to the security guards around him: "Take them out!"

The security captain rushed forward, grabbed Phil's wrist, and then twisted it behind him.

Phil yelled in pain, and the guard yelled coldly: "Get out! If you dare to make trouble in the Emgrand Group, be careful that I dispose of you!"

"You are a security captain, dare to yell at me, do you know who I am?"

As soon as Phil's voice fell, Captain slapped him and cursed, "In front of the Emgrand Group, what are you?"

Phil was slapped with a fierce pain on his face. When he was about to get angry, the phone rang suddenly.

The call turned out to be from his father.

When the phone was connected, an angry roar came from the other side: "Phil, what did you do? Now that Emgrand Group wants to cancel all cooperation with us, who did you offend?"

Phil said aggrievedly: "Dad, I have not offended anyone. I just came to visit Miss Lori, but I haven't even seen Miss Lori's face."

On the other end of the phone, Phil's father yelled, "The people of the Emgrand Group said that the reason they discontinued their cooperation with the Wang family is all because you are an unqualified rubbish! Now the family has suffered heavy losses because of you, so you hurry back to me and personally Explain to your grandpa!"

Phil was driven out of the gate of Emgrand Group by security all the way, holding the phone with a surprised expression.

He suddenly thought of Marvin, and couldn't help asking Theresa: "Theresa, is it because of your rubbish brother-in-law? Has he have anything to do with the Emgrand Group?"

"Huh?" Theresa was taken aback by Phil's words, thinking about it carefully, it might indeed be related to her rubbish brother-in-law.

However, he is obviously a waste!

Thinking of this, she shook her head flatly and said: "How could he have something to do with the Emgrand Group? He is not qualified to come to the Emgrand Group to clean the toilet!"

"That's right." Phil nodded, thinking of his furious father, he said sullenly: "No, I have to go home quickly."

The news that the Wang family was terminated by the Emgrand Group immediately spread throughout Wrestrvel.

Although it is not known why the Emgrand Group wants to block the Wang Family, everyone knows that the Wang Family must have offended the Emgrand Group.

At this time, the Wang family was over.

The Wang family's strength has plummeted by more than half. It was already close to the standard of the first-tier family, but now it has fallen directly into the tail of the second-tier family.

When the Old Mrs. Xiao heard the news, she was shaking with anger.

She wanted to annul the marriage contract between Theresa and Phil, but thought that the Wang family was thinner and camel was bigger than the horse, and the Xiao family could not afford to offend, so she could only give this thought up temporarily.

At this time, in Lori's office.

Marven learned the whole process just now and admired her style very much.

Marven said with satisfaction: "Lori, what you did just now is very good. Starting today, your salary will be double."

Lori was surprised and delighted, and hurriedly stood up and bowed to Marven, "Thank you Mr. Ye!"

Marven nodded and said, "Also, I want you to announce two things."

"Mr. Ye, say it, and it will be done."

"The first thing is to announce the change of ownership of Emgrand Group and the appointment of the new chairman, but do not reveal the identity of the new chairman, only the last name is Ye, that is what people need to know."

"The second thing is to announce that Emgrand Group will invest 2 billion in Wrestvel to build a six-star hotel. At the same time, it will launch a partner bidding. Construction and decoration companies in the city can participate in the bidding!"

The main business of the Xiao Group is decoration. The Lady Xiao dreams of going to the big ship of Emgrand Group. Whoever can win the cooperation of the Emgrand Group will definitely become the red man of the Xiao Group.

Now the Emgrand Group is his own, and of course he has to give his wife some benefits.

Chapter 5

The two news released by the Emgrand Group completely detonated the entire Wrestvel.

Hearing that the Emgrand Group has changed hands, the Xiao family wanted to understand why the Wang Family was kicked out by the Emgrand Group.

It seems that the new owner of the Emgrand Group still looks down on families likes of the Wang Family.

But who is Mr. Ye? Is this person too good? The Emgrand Group, which has hundreds of billions, buys and buys, and the richest man in Wrestvel is not as big as his!

For a time, countless families were ready to move. On the one hand, they were eager to have a relationship with this mysterious Mr. Ye, and on the other hand, they also longed for their daughter to marry Mr. Ye.

In addition, the Emgrand Group wants to invest in a hotel project of 2 billion, which also makes the entire Wrestvel construction and decoration industry tremble!

Two billion!

Just get a little leftover material, and you can make a lot of money!

Countless companies want to get a share of it.

This naturally also includes the Old Mrs. Xiao who is addicted to money!

Mrs. Xiao was very excited at this time. This is a great opportunity for a two billion project!

If the Xiao family can get a contract from it, it will really be ascended to heaven!

So she immediately ordered a family meeting to be held at home tonight to discuss how to make a breakthrough in the new project of the Emgrand Group. Everyone must attend!

That night, Xiao's villa.

Because the Lady Xiao asked everyone to be there, Marven followed.

He knew that the Lady Xiao was going to a meeting to discuss how to get a share of the Emgrand Group's big project.

Therefore, he wanted to take this opportunity to help his wife Avella grow her face!

When he arrived at the Xiao family villa, Avella's cousin Jay immediately sneered when he saw him: "f*ck, Marven, you have such a thick skin, and you have the face to see grandma again!"

Avella said with a cold face: "Don't talk nonsense. Grandma asked everyone in the Xiao family to come. Marven is my husband, and naturally also from the Xiao family!"

Jay laughed and said, "He is though considered a half Xiao family! But just a live-in son-in-law!"

Marven touched his nose and said to Avella, "Forget about him my wife, don't be familiar with him, go in quickly, save grandma waiting."

Avella nodded, and owed Jay a good face, and walked in with Marven.

Seeing this, Jay's expression also became cold, waiting for them to look good.

After entering the conference hall, Marven and Avella found a place in the corner to sit down.

Soon, Mrs. Xiao stepped forward and the family meeting officially began.

The Old Mrs. Xiao sat in the main seat, knocked on the table, and said vigorously: "The Xiao family has been waiting for an opportunity in the past few years, an opportunity that can make us one of the richest in Wrestrvel! Now, this opportunity has finally come!"

Mrs. Xiao said loudly: "This time the Emgrand Group has thrown out a two-billion-dollar project. Whoever can get a cooperation contract from it will definitely benefit a lot!"

“Moreover, this is the first major project of the Emgrand Group after the change of ownership. For the Xiao family, it is a great opportunity!”

“If we can cooperate with the Emgrand Group and leave a good impression on the new owner of the Emgrand Group, then the future of the Xiao family will be limitless!”

Although the Lady Xiao was very energetic, the people below seemed a little unmoved.

In fact, it is not a day or two for the Xiao family to cooperate with the Emgrand Group. For such a long time, the Emgrand Group has ignored the Xiao family. The Lady Xiao now wants to take a share of the new project of the Emgrand Group. How can it be possible?

Seeing that all the people present were silent, Mrs. Xiao immediately questioned in annoyance: “What? Are all dumb? Don’t you have the confidence to take a little leftover from the 2 billion project?”

Everyone looks at her and each other, but they dare not talk to each other.

The Lady Xiao was even more angry, and gritted her teeth and said: “I will put the words here today, who can talk about the 30 million cooperation share from Emgrand Group, who is the director of the group!”

As soon as this remark came out, everyone sitting was taken aback.

The Lady Xiao has always been arbitrary, so she has never appointed a director in the group. After all, the director has a lot of power, and it is almost the successor of the future group that is qualified to hold this position.

The Lady Xiao is now using this position as a reward. She definitely hopes that there will be a brave competition for the reward. It can be seen that she is extremely eager for the Emgrand Group project.

However, although the position of the director is good, it is not so easy to take.

In the eyes of the Xiao family, if you want to reach a cooperation with Emgrand, you have to get a contract of 30 million? Don’t be kidding, even if Mrs. Xiao goes out in person, the executives of the Emgrand Group will not see her, let alone talk about cooperation.

There was silence in the family meeting hall.

Seeing this, the Old Mrs. Xiao asked angrily: “You are descendants of the Xiao family, don’t you want to share the worries for the Xiao family?”

After that, the Old Mrs. Xiao looked directly at Jay: “Jay, leave this to you!”

Jay laughed a few times and quickly said: “Grandma, even Phil’s house has been cleared by the Emgrand Group now. Our strength is worse than the Wangs. How can we get the Emgrand Group contract?”

Mrs. Xiao suddenly cursed: “rubbish! Deny yourself if you haven’t tried it. You are more rubbish than Marven!”

In fact, Mrs. Xiao didn't know her heart, but she didn't want to be the helm of a second-and third-rate clan forever. She dreamed and longed for the Xiao family to rise to the next level.

And this Emgrand Group project is the only opportunity.

Therefore, no matter how difficult it is, she would not give up.

She thought that Jay, as the eldest grandson, would be able to take over the task happily, but she did not expect that he would withdraw at this time!

Jay was also very depressed, who would take on such an impossible task? He was afraid that he will be kicked out before entering the gate of the Emgrand Group.

At that time, not only did things fail, but they were also ridiculed and laughed at by others, so he decided not to agree in any way.

After cursing Jay, the Old Mrs. Xiao shouted and asked: "Where are the others? Don't you dare to take this task?"

Marven lightly touched Avella with his elbow at this time, and whispered: "Wife, you take this task!"

Avella hurriedly said: "It's crazy! It's impossible for the Emgrand Group to cooperate with a small company like the Xiao family!"

Marven smiled slightly and said confidently: "Don't worry, you can definitely talk about this cooperation!"

Avella asked in surprise, "Really?"

Marven said confidently: "Of course! I don't think you have a problem at all! Seize this opportunity, and your future status in the Xiao family will Hangingrocket!"

Avella didn't know why. At this moment, she believed Marven's words in a bewildered manner.

She stood up subconsciously and said to the Old Mrs. Xiao: "Grandma, I'm willing to try."

Chapter 6

Avella's statement made the entire Xiao family stunned!

Everyone felt that Avella must be crazy!

Don't divide the time to show off! At this moment of being in the limelight, what can be the result besides death?

The Emgrand Group is the largest company in Wrestvel. How can people look at the Xiao family? Whoever talks about it will never succeed!

Jay couldn't help but sarcastically said: "Avella, do you think you can get the contract from the Emgrand Group?"

Jay's own sister and Avella's cousin, Theresa, also sneered at this moment: "Sister Avella, what is your identity, and what is the identity of the Emgrand Group? You go to talk so rashly, don't shame our Xiao family.!"

Someone agreed: "That is, if she is driven out by the Emgrand Group by then, our Xiao family will definitely become a laughing stock in Wrestvel!"

When Avella heard the sound, her cheeks were extremely red, feeling very embarrassed.

Since marrying Marven, her status in the family has plummeted, becoming less and less important, and almost squeezed out, and even her parents have been ridiculed.

She felt that if she could talk about this project with the Emgrand Group, her position in the family would definitely be consolidated.

The most important thing is that parents can also stand upright.

But at this moment, being ridiculed by so many people, she couldn't help but retreat.

She gave Marven a depressed look. Why did she listen to his bewitching words? Won't get up for this if she knew it

Old Mrs. Xiao was very angry when she heard what everyone said.

After asking this question several times, no one dared to take this task. Now Avella took the initiative to stand up, and the group of people began to pour cold water again!

Although the Old Mrs. Xiao had always disliked Avella, at this time, she felt that Avella was at least willing to share her worries, unlike other people who only knew to hide in their shells at this moment!

Especially Jay, her beloved grandson, really disappointed her, too much!

Because of this, Mrs. Xiao's attitude towards Avella also changed a lot.

So she immediately said: "Since others dare not agree, don't talk nonsense! This time we cooperate with Emgrand Group on the project, let Avella talk about it!"

Avella could only bite the bullet and replied, "Don't worry, grandma, I will definitely go all out."

At this time, Jay sneered coldly from his nose and said, "What's the use of going all out? It's not a shame for the family to fail in the end!"

Marven asked with a sneer, "Jay, what is your purpose in singing badly? Don't you think the Xiao family is qualified to cooperate with Emgrand Group?"

Jay didn't expect that Marven would dare to speak at the family meeting, and he would wear a high hat on himself.

Seeing that Mrs. Xiao's expression was also a little sulky, he immediately explained: "I don't mean that, I just think it is impossible for Avella to discuss this cooperation!"

Marven smiled and asked him: "Then what if she can talk about cooperation at first? Shall we make a bet?"

Jay sneered: "Come on, just gamble, I will be afraid of you? Tell me, what are you betting on?"

Marven said: "If she start to negotiate a contract, you kneel down and knock me three heads in front of the whole family and say you are wrong. If she can't negotiate at first, I will knock three heads for you and say aloud that I was wrong, what do you think?"

"Hahahaha!" Jay immediately laughed wildly: "You rubbish are really looking for death! Okay, I'll bet with you!"

Marven nodded in satisfaction and said: "The whole family is here to witness that if anyone goes back, it will be equivalent to wishing death for father, mother, grandpa, grandma!"

Marven deliberately said the three words "dead grandma" very seriously, because he was afraid that Jay would back out it when he loses.

As soon as these words came out, Jay never dared to go back, because in that way, wouldn't it be cursing his grandma, that is, Old Mrs. Xiao to die? When the time comes, Mrs. Xiao will not let him go!

"Okay!" Jay didn't know that Marven had dug a hole for him, but instead felt that it was impossible for him to lose.

So, he laughed and said: "The whole family witnesses, I am waiting for you to kowtow to me!"

Avella was startled, and kept winking at him, but she didn't expect him to completely ignore it.

Old Mrs. Xiao didn't care about this kind of gambling. Her only concern was whether she could enter the Emgrand Group's cooperation list this time. If she could, don't say let Jay kneel to Marven, even if Jay called Marven his father, she didn't care either.

So she said: "Today's meeting ends here. Avella, you have three days to win the contract and the meeting ends!"

Back home, the father-in-law and mother-in-law immediately attacked Marven and Avella.

The mother-in-law Viola Ma was anxiously worried, and blurted out: "Avella, you are crazy, how can you listen to Marven's rubbish words, so confused and promised this job!"

Father-in-law Dave Xiao also scolded Marven and said, "Marven, Marven, you rubbish, you have killed my girl!"

Then, his father-in-law said angrily: "If you can't talk about the Emgrand Group's cooperation in the first place, you will definitely be squeezed out by the family. You, this rubbish, will also kneel and kowtow to Jay in front of the whole family. Don't let you lose it?"

Marven said seriously: "Dad and Mom, as long as the contract can be negotiated at first, everything will be solved?"

"Talk, talk, talk! Talk all bullsh*t!"

The father-in-law scolded: "Do you know how strong the Emgrand Group is? How can they look at the Xiao family!"

Marven smiled and said, "Maybe people can see it? I think it must be fine at first, and she can definitely get the contract down."

The mother-in-law sneered at the side: "Do you think? Think you are the boss of the Emgrand Group? A rubbish, do you use any a**brain of yours? You are still talking here!"

Chapter 7

Seeing that her parents had been targeting Marven, Avella sighed and said, "Dad and Mom, this matter has nothing to do with Marven. I don't want them to look down on us anymore. Isn't the grievances we have suffered enough over the years? "

Avella's mother blurted out: "Then you can't agree to this errand, don't talk about you, even if your grandma is gone, people won't talk to her at Emgrand!"

Marven looked at the scene in front of him with a wry smile, his snobbish father-in-law and mother-in-law, even if he kills, they couldn't believe it. He is the boss of the Emgrand Group, right?

At this moment, there was a knock at the door.

"I'm coming"

The mother-in-law Viola Ma sighed and opened the door.

Marven looked around, and saw a young man in an Armani suit standing at the door. It could be said that he was a handsome and talented person with a Patek Philippe watch, which seemed to be worth at least three to five million.

The mother-in-law said excitedly: "Oh, it's Bob! Why are you here?"

This person is Bob, the son of Jones Family who has been pursuing Avella.

Bob smiled and said: "Auntie, I heard that Avella has taken over the cooperation of Emgrand Group, so I came here to give her an idea."

"Oh! You are really the savior of our family!"

Viola was very excited. The look in Bob's eyes was like looking at her son-in-law. She hurriedly welcomed him in and said, "Bob, do you have a way to help Avella win the Emgrand Group contract?" "

Bob nodded with a smile, turning a blind eye to Marven who was standing by, as if looking at the ants on the side of the road. He went straight to Avella and smiled slightly: "Avella, you don't even tell me about such a big thing. , But you can rest assured that Emgrand Group and my company have a cooperation. I will ask my dad to say hello and I will do my best to help you."

In fact, Bob's father didn't have that much energy at all. He said this just to pretend to be an something in front of Avella.

Avella always knew that Bob was interesting in her, so she said coldly: "Bob, I understand your kindness, and I will find a way."

Viola exclaimed in disbelief: "Avella, are you crazy? Mr. Jones kindly came over to help you, how can you talk like that?"

Avella didn't speak, but Marven on the side asked Bob with interest: "Mr. Jones, I'm very curious about what you can do to help Avella? The Emgrand Group is so big, it can't be controlled by you, right? Emgrand signed a contract with Avella?"

Bob sneered contemptuously, and said: "What do you know? Our Jones family and Emgrand Group have always been in-depth partners. This time from the Emgrand Group's 2 billion project, our family can get at least one-third of it! I will let you My dad directly allocated tens of millions from this third to subcontract to Avella. Wouldn't this help her complete the task?"

Marven said in surprise: "Oh! I didn't expect that Mr. Jones's family has such a deep relationship with the Emgrand Group!"

Bob snorted coldly and said, "Of course! In Wrestvel, who doesn't know that our Jones family works closely with Emgrand Group?"

After finishing speaking, Bob stared at Marven and said contemptuously: "Marven, I advise you to leave Avella as a frog at the bottom of the well. A man like you can't give her happiness and will only hinder her path to progress."

Avella said coldly at this time: "I'm sorry Mr. Jones, I don't need your help, and please don't speak harshly to my husband!"

Bob said dumbfounded: "Avella, if I help you like this, you still have to face this rubbish? What is he worthy of your maintenance?"

Avella said seriously: "He is not a waste, he is my husband!"

Bob was full of gloom and anger, and said angrily: "Okay! Toast and not eat fine wine! I want to see what you can do to solve this trouble! If you can't figure it out then, don't blame me for not giving you a chance!"

After speaking, Bob turned around and slammed the door away.

Viola wanted to catch up to explain, but Bob had already gone far.

She slapped her thighs with anger, and pointed to Marven's nose and cursed: "You are so mad at me! What else can you do except for your rubbish will drag your legs? Mr. Jones is so kind to help, but you are all Get angry and go!"

Marven said indifferently: "Mom, he just talked about it. He couldn't get the cooperation of Emgrand Group himself, so how could he be able to help Avella."

"You bullsht!" Viola said angrily: "The Jones family can get one-third of the Emgrand Group's projects, you know what bullsht!"

Marven sneered in his heart. I don't know what Jones Family can do. I only know that my Emgrand Group will never have any cooperation with Jones Family! Even if the Emgrand Group and Jones's did have a lot of cooperation in the past, from now on, this cooperations will all stop!

Avella didn't know what Marven was thinking, and said to her mother: "Mom, don't blame Marven. Let's talk about it when I come back from Emgrand Group!"

"Hey!" Viola sighed long, only feeling that God was unfair. She married a rubbish husband, but the daughter married a more rubbish man.

What an injustice this is!

Chapter 8

Early the next morning, Avella brought the cooperation plan she had prepared overnight and came to the Emgrand Group with Marven.

Looking at the 100-story Emgrand Group Building, Avella had no idea at all.

How could a company as large as the Emgrand Group look at the Xiao family?

Not to mention that the Xiao family wanted to negotiate a share of 30 million.

This is like a beggar who wants to go to a rich man's house to ask for a reward of 30 million, which is completely idiotic.

However, since she promised my grandma and accepted the task in public, then she have to try something.

Seeing that she was very nervous, Marven tidied her hair a little distressedly: "Don't worry, my wife, you can talk, you will succeed."

Avella said helplessly: "Hope! You are waiting for me here."

After speaking, Avella took a deep breath and summoned her courage to walk into the door of the Emgrand Group.

Marven watched behind her, took out her cell phone and called Lori.

“Lori, my wife has already gone up, you should know how to do the rest!”

Lori said immediately: “Mr. Ye, don’t worry, I will definitely satisfy Mrs. Ye.”

Marven asked again: “By the way, I heard that Emgrand Group has a deep cooperation with Jones Family?”

Lori said: “The cooperation between them and Emgrand was really deep in the past. They also want to cooperate deeply in our new project this time, and are submitting the cooperation application materials to me, but now it depends on what you mean, Mr. Ye.”

Marven said coldly: “I don’t want to see the Jones family participate in this new project, and I won’t have any cooperation with them in the future.”

Lori hurriedly said: “Don’t worry, I will do it!”

On the other side, Avella walked into the office building of the Emgrand Group and waited for an appointment at the front desk. She didn’t even know whether Lori, the vice chairman of the Emgrand Group, would like to see her.

After a while, a female assistant came over with a graceful posture: “You are Ms. Avella, right? Miss Lori is waiting for you in the office, please follow me.”

Avella nodded. She was still waiting in line to make an appointment, so why she was called indirectly?

Could it be that Lori knew she was coming?

But it doesn’t make sense, how can a famous person like Lori know her?

Although she couldn’t figure it out, Avella also knew that the opportunity was rare, and hurriedly followed the other party.

The female assistant took Avella directly into Lori’s office.

Seeing Avella, Lori quickly got up from the chair and greeted her respectfully: “Hello, Ms. Xiao, I am Lori, Vice Chairman of the Emgrand Group.”

Facing the famous Wrestvel superwoman, Avella felt a little nervous, and said respectfully: “Hello, Mr. Lori, I am here this time to talk to you about the hotel project. Although the overall strength of our Xiao family is not good Strong, but we are really working hard in the decoration business, and we have a good reputation!”

As she said, she nervously handed over a piece of information, saying: "Lori, this is the relevant introduction and qualification documents of our Xiao Group. Please also check it out."

Lori smiled, and after receiving the document, she glanced briefly and said directly: "Ms. Xiao, I read your information. I think the Xiao family and Emgrand can cooperate."

"What? What you said is true?" Avella couldn't believe it.

Agreed so soon? How could it be so simple?

Lori smiled and said: "Of course it is true. Although the Xiao family's own conditions do not meet the cooperation standards of the Emgrand Group, our chairman is very optimistic about Ms. Xiao and is willing to cooperate with you."

"Chairman?" Avella exclaimed and asked, "Who is your chairman?"

Lori smiled indifferently and said: "Our chairman is Someone called Ye from the Ye family of Orgeyon."

"Ye?"

Avella frowned and said, "I don't seem to know anyone named Ye, except for my husband."

Lori nodded lightly, Marven had told her not to reveal his identity information, so she could only reveal so much.

Apart from Marven, Avella did not know anyone with the Ye, but she had never thought that her orphaned husband, who was of no use, was the son of Yes.

At this time, Lori said again: "Ms. Xiao, let me see if the share of intention to cooperate in your information is 30 million?"

Avella nodded in a hurry, and asked without a bottom: "Is it too much?"

Lori smiled and said, "Not much, not much, but less."

Avella became even more confused, and hurriedly asked, "What do you mean?"

Lori smiled and said: "Our chairman explained that he asked me to increase the cooperation share to 60 million."

While talking, Lori took out a contract and handed it to Avella: "Look, the contract has been drawn up in advance, and the total is 60 million. If you think it's okay, we can sign it now."

"Huh? This"

Avella was really dumbfounded.

She didn't expect that the Emgrand Group, which was unable to reach the Xiao family, would take the initiative to prepare a contract for her!

Moreover, the contract amount has doubled!

Grandma's goal is 30 million, and the contract actually says 60 million!

She suddenly thought that during the meeting last night, her husband Marven resolutely let her take this task.

Why was he so confident?

And when he was at the door of the Emgrand Group just now, she had no confidence at the time, but he seemed confident.

Did he already know the result?

Who is he?

Chapter 9

At this moment, Avella suddenly had an unbelievable thought in her heart.

Is the Ye in Lori's mouth just her husband Marven?

But after another thought, she felt it was too magical to be true.

how could it be!

Marven is an orphan who grew up in a welfare institution!

However, besides Marven, who else in this world would treat her so well?

30 million is an extravagant hope, but the other party directly gave 60 million

She couldn't help but ask Lori: "Ms. Lori, may I ask, is your chairman's name Marven?"

Lori sighed in her heart. The young master had ordered not to reveal his identity, and could only say that his surname was Ye to the outside world. If this was guessed by the young lady, wouldn't she have to go back?

So she hurriedly said: "Ms. Xiao don't ask any more. Our chairman is behind Orgeyon's famous door. His identity is highly confidential and I have no right to disclose it."

Avella nodded lightly, and after Lori said the famous Orgeyon family, she suddenly recovered.

Marven is an orphan, it can't be some Orgeyon famous door, it seems that she really thinks too much

When she came out of Lori's office, Avella was still dizzy.

What she held in her hand was the 60 million cooperation agreement between the Xiao family and the Emgrand Group.

All this is just like a dream.

At the gate of the Emgrand Group, Avella saw Marven's figure and ran up excitedly and said, "Marven, I actually made it."

Marven smiled secretly in his heart, your husband is the boss of the Emgrand Group, how could you fail to talk about it?

However, he pretended to be surprised and said: "You can negotiate such a difficult project. Wife, you are really amazing!"

Avella said: "Oh, this is not my great one, this is simply a gift from the Emgrand Group."

"What?" Marven asked deliberately: "Why do you say that?"

Avella was afraid that she would say something about the chairman of the Emgrand Group, and Marven would be jealous, so she hurriedly said, "Oh, this is a long story. Let's go to the company now and tell everyone the good news."

Marven laughed and said: "Okay! This time, that b@stard Jay, has to abide by the betting contract and kneel and kowtow to me!"

Avella nodded, and said: "He usually has a high-level eye and no one is in the eye, so he should be taught a lesson!"

In fact, Avella also has her own temper. She wants that the people like Jay don't look down on her and her husband in every possible way. Now that they have negotiated a cooperation, they really want to restrain them in the future.

More than ten minutes later, the two came to the Xiao Group.

In the meeting room, everyone in the Xiao family looked strange.

They all know that Avella went to the Emgrand Group early in the morning, but everyone didn't believe that she could handle it, and they were all waiting to see her become a joke.

Unexpectedly, she would come back so soon.

When Avella and Marven arrived in the meeting room, everyone showed sarcasm.

Jay said unceremoniously: "Oh, Avella, you are back in just half an hour? Did you even fail to enter the door of the Emgrand Group! Hahahaha!"

His sister Theresa also sneered: "Oh, sister Avella, she failed in less than an hour. You also broke the record, right?"

Old Mrs. Xiao's expression also turned gloomy. The Emgrand Group project is indeed extremely difficult. Even if Avella fails to reach a conclusion, she should at least be cautious, right? It really made her angry to give up so quickly.

So, the Old Mrs. Xiao stared at her and said coldly, "Avella, you disappointed me too much."

Marven frowned immediately when she heard this.

This group is too disgusting, right? Don't ask about the outcome of the matter, let's make a mockery first regardless of whether it is indiscriminate or not?

Especially Jay, the tortoise b@stard, what the h*ll are you doing? He will kowtow later!

Avella was originally excited, but at this moment, everyone's words were undoubtedly pouring cold water. With anger in her heart, she said: "I'm sorry, I disappointed you all. The Emgrand Group's Lori has already negotiated with me for the Project cooperation!"

"What? You talked about it?"

"Impossible! How is it possible! You can't even see Lori's face!"

Everyone was stunned.

"Avella, do you think we will believe it?"

Jay came back to his senses and immediately slapped the table and said angrily: "Lori of the Emgrand Group is a well-known business elite in the city. How could she meet you? What identity do you have?"

Facing everyone's doubts and accusations, Avella directly took out the contract and handed it to Mrs. Xiao: "This is the project contract of the Emgrand Group. Please have a look."

This contract is like a bomb, causing the atmosphere of these people on the scene to burst suddenly!

Jay still didn't believe it, and shouted loudly: "This must be her forged contract! I don't believe that she can handle the Emgrand Group!"

"That's it!" Theresa also added fuel and jealousy to the side: "How can she win the Emgrand Group's contract? This is a big project of 30 million! If she is able to it, I will have negotiated it!"

Avella sneered and said, "Cousin, you are wrong. This contract is not 30 million, but 60 million!"

"Get off!" Theresa grinned and said, "A contract of 60 million? Are you not embarrassed to say it! Are we really fools? You can sign 60 million, and I say I can sign 100 million! "

Jay also said with a cold face: "Avella, you are playing grandma and us as monkeys!"

After he finished speaking, he said to Mrs. Xiao: “Grandma! At first this is a big treachery! You can’t spare her!”

The Old Mrs. Xiao also gritted her teeth angrily. She felt that 90% of the 30 million was worthless. After half an hour, Avella ran back and told her that she signed 60 million

Isn’t this treating her as a fool in front of so many people?

Really be the head of the family for nothing?

This kind of unscrupulous offspring, if she can’t drive out, how can she stand in the family in the future?

Old Mrs. Xiao was anxious, slapped the table, and shouted: “Avella! Go to the personnel department to go through the resignation procedures immediately!”

Avella’s expression was stunned. Are these people crazy? She opened the contract and took a look, can they still not believe?

At this moment, someone suddenly yelled: “f*ck! Emgrand Group’s official statement is released! The 60 million contract is true!”

Chapter 10

With this roar, everyone was shocked.

Afterwards, everyone hurriedly took out their mobile phones and went to the official account of Emgrand Group!

really!

The official service account of Emgrand Group released a push!

The Emgrand Group’s 2 billion hotel project signed the first partner. The group’s vice chairman Lori and Wrestvel Xiao’s representative Avella signed a 60 million decoration contract!

Seeing this title, everyone is crazy!

Avella actually talked about the project! And the amount doubled!

It has only been more than half an hour!

How could it be so easy? !

This is totally illogical!

Jay was shocked and regretted!

Before today, Avella was incomparable with himself in terms of status and identity.

If he accepted this task yesterday, no matter if he had negotiated it or not, he would not give Avella a chance to show her face!

In the end, he turned down because he was afraid of failure!

It doesn't matter if he refuse it, the key is that Avella actually made it!

This is simply slapped in the face!

Mrs. Xiao immediately picked up the contract excitedly, read it carefully, and laughed excitedly: "Okay! Good! Good! Good! Avella, you really made a great contribution!"

After speaking, she asked: "How did you do it?"

Avella said: "Thanks to Ms. Lori, Deputy Lori, she is very optimistic about our Xiao family."

In fact, Avella wanted to tell the truth, but after thinking about it carefully, she didn't know who the chairman of the Emgrand Group was, and no one might believe it, she ditched the idea.

Upon hearing this, Jay felt even more uncomfortable and wanted to die!

No wonder Avella can win the contract!

It turns out that Lori of the Emgrand Group is very optimistic about the Xiao family!

Wouldn't anyone go?

He really missed a great opportunity!

At this time, Marven spoke: "Jay, do you remember our gambling appointment?"

Jay's expression was as ugly as if he had eaten sh!t.

How could he not remember the bet, and if he loses, he has to knock three heads in public.

Avella got the contract and made it clear that he had lost

No way!

How can he kowtow to this kind of garbage!

Never possible!

So he immediately gritted his teeth and said, "Marven, what are you? It's just a rubbish who enters our house and eats leftovers every day. You want me to kneel and kowtow to you?"

Marven said calmly: "I am indeed a waste, but we swore yesterday, if anyone retreats, death, death, death, grandpa, death to grandma!"

Marven deliberately said the three words "death to grandma" very hard.

really!

Mrs. Xiao's expression immediately became extremely ugly!

She stared at Jay, and asked him in a cold voice, "What? Do you want me to die?"

Jay panicked and blurted out: "Grandma, you can't be fooled by Marven! He wants to make your grandson's face and your face lost!"

Marven said indifferently at this time: "Jay, don't fool grandma here, don't forget that you have taken a poisonous oath, if you retreat, your oath will be condemned by God, do you want to curse grandma?"

Jay was horrified, and blurted out: "Grandma, you can't make a joke!"

Old Mrs. Xiao said with a cold face: "You know that I believed in Buddhism during my life and swear to heaven, how dare you break your promise?!"

"grandmother"

Jay really panicked, because he could see that grandma was really angry!

The Old Mrs. Xiao saw that Jay even violated the vow linked to her life and death for the sake of his own prestige. She slammed the table and shouted angrily: "Are you determined to violate the oath?"

"Grandma!" Jay froze, and immediately made a calculation in his heart.

If he abides by the gambling agreement and kowtows to Marven to admit his mistake, then he has lost face.

But if he doesn't abide by the gambling agreement and angers his grandma, then he will lose everything he has in the Xiao family!

Thinking of this, even though he was 10,000 times unwilling in his heart, he could only grit his teeth and said: "Okay! I am willing to do it!"

Marven looked at him with a smile, and said nothing, just waiting for him to kneel and kowtow.

Jay felt that his legs were filled with lead and moved to Marven with difficulty step by step.

He was trembling with hatred and gritted his teeth, but his legs softened and he knelt on the ground.

Plop!

Those in attendance even took out their phones quietly.

Jay lowered his head and said in a trembling voice, "I was wrong!"

After finishing speaking, he leaned down and dropped his head.

Marven said: "What did you say, I didn't hear clearly, speak louder."

Jay endured the humiliation and kowtow again: "I was wrong!"

Marven sneered and said: "Oh, it turns out that you were wrong, where did you go wrong?"

Jay's heart for killing Marven was all there, but there was one last head that didn't knock.

So he just gritted his teeth and said: "I shouldn't doubt Avella's ability to be wrong."

After speaking, he kowtowed again!

Marven felt very comfortable!

He could not bear this Jay for a long time, and this time he seized the opportunity to let him kneel and kowtow. It feels really cool!

Avella looked at all this in surprise, and felt that her husband was suddenly different from before!

Where the specifics are different, she will not be able to tell for a while.

But, thinking back to the way that her husband had a bet with Jay yesterday, it seems that he had long expected that he would win?

Why does he have such a strong self-confidence?
