

The Amazing Son In-Law Chapter 1001-1010

Chapter 1001

Seeing that Avella went to the bathroom of the bedroom to take a shower, Marven went to the guest bathroom on the same floor to take a shower.

This is good for living in a villa. There are so many bathrooms, so there is no need to line up.

Marven took a bath faster, and when Avella came out of the bathroom, he had already finished the bath and was lying on the bed.

Avella saw Marven, who was wearing a vest and shorts, lying on his back on the bed. She was surprised for a moment before blurting out, "Why you sleep on the bed?"

Marven smiled and said, "Wife, didn't you say it was done earlier, should I be promoted? Some time ago, mom went to engage in MLM, which delayed my promotion. Now that she is back, you can't stop me from being promoted. Right?"

"I..." Avella was suddenly embarrassed.

She didn't know how to answer Marven's question.

Indeed, she had promised him that she would be promoted to a higher level without having to sleep on the floor.

But she and Marven had never been so close.

I really didn't have the psychological preparation for this.

However, the words came back again.

During this period of time, Avella's favor with Marven has been rapidly heating up.

Especially today, seeing Marven hit Jiang Ming, seeing him donating 1 million to the orphanage, seeing Marven solve the job for a good brother, and let him go to the pinnacle of life...

Marven tonight is like an omnipotent male god in her eyes.

Sometimes, she feel very heart-warming. That may be the feeling of love.

Thinking of this, her face immediately turned red, and against the dim light of the bedroom, she looked even more charming.

Marven looked at her shame, and his heart was full of love.

This is my beloved wife, like a ray of sunshine in life, warming my heart.

Avella looked at Marven with red eyes, and after a while, she said shyly: "You can upgrade to one level, but you can only upgrade to one level, that's it!"

Marven hurriedly asked: "My wife, what do you mean by this? What does it mean to only be promoted to one level?"

Avella said: "From today you will sleep on the bed, but this bed is divided into two, male left and female right. Without my permission, you must not cross the boundary, otherwise you will be downgraded to one level."

Marven said with a sad face, "Wife, what does it mean to drop one level?"

Avella glanced at him for nothing, and said, "You know what it means to be promoted. Don't you know what it means to be lowered?"

Marven asked depressed, "Should I go back to sleep on the floor if I drop one level?"

"Yes!" Avella said triumphantly: "If you do not behave well, you will drop one level to sleep on the floor. If you do not perform well, you will drop one level to sleep in the guest room. Anyway, our villa has a lot of rooms. Yes."

Marven was about to cry and said, "Wife, can you tell me what the next level is? When can I go up to the next level?"

Avella blushed with a pretty face, and said, "What is the next level will be kept secret for now. As for when we can go up to the next level, you have to wait for notification from the superior."

With that said, Avella patted his chest again, and said grinning: "I am your superior, and all interpretation rights belong to me."

Marven was very depressed, and said, "My wife, you must have heard what Aunt Li said today. Aunt Li is really looking forward to having a baby soon. We can't live up to Aunt Li's wish!"

"Don't come here!" Avella stomped with embarrassment: "Who is going to give birth? Whoever wants to have a baby with you, you will find someone to give birth to, anyway, I don't have a baby."

Chapter 1002

Marven said helplessly: "There is no child between these two people. We are both normal people, and we are not infertile. It is a joke to always have no children, just in case you think you are not fertile. , Don't you want to look down."

Avella curled her lips and said, "Then when someone asks me, I will tell them that you have no fertility. Isn't that all right?"

Having said that, Avella said again: "Besides, you know that you have just reached the second level now. Do you know how many levels you have a child?"

Marven said immediately: "I must be the third level!"

Avella hummed: "You want to be beautiful!"

After all, Avella picked up her quilt from the floor, threw it on top of him, and said, "One person, one quilt, you are not allowed to cross the boundary! Hands, feet, body, hair, nowhere. If you cross the boundary, you will be downgraded!"

Marven could only say helplessly: "Well, well, I know, I must not cross the boundary, is this not enough?"

Avella smiled shyly and said: "This is pretty much the same."

After speaking, she opened her quilt, turned her back to Marven, and lay on the bed.

As soon as Avella got into bed, she wrapped himself tightly, blushing as if she was about to bleed, glanced at Marven, and quickly turned her head over.

At this moment, Marven wanted to hug her and give her a kiss.

However, since the respect for such a long time has come, why should he be anxious and disobey her?

In any case, he has been promoted to one level, and being able to lie on the same bed with her is a huge improvement. In the days to come, he will perform well, and will be able to reach another level.

Maybe when he gets to the next level, two people can sleep in one bed.

Thinking of this, he felt a lot of joy suddenly.

Avella dared not look at him, reached out her hand to turn off the light, and said, "It's getting late, go to bed."

After the light was turned off, the bedroom was dark, and he couldn't see fingers. It was so quiet that he could hear clearly as if a needle fell on the ground.

Marven could clearly hear Avella's breathing, and her breathing was a bit rapid. It seemed that she should be very nervous at this time.

If Avella usually falls asleep, her breathing is very even and gentle.

So Marven asked her: "Wife, are you still up?"

Avella asked, "What's wrong?"

Marven was also a little nervous, and hurriedly said, "It's nothing, I just want to chat with you."

Avella said, "What do you want to talk about? Tell me."

Marven smiled, turned his head to look at Avella's outline, and asked: "My wife, how is your company running recently?"

Avella said: "It's not bad. Emgrand Group and several other companies have given some orders. I am designing them one by one and looking for people to construct them. Now the overall situation has improved and the company's account has already The payment of several million is only an advance payment. If I finish the current projects, the payment should exceed 10 million."

Marven was surprised and said, "Wow, my wife, you are amazing. How long has it been since you made 10 million into the account!"

Avella said: "10 million is just an account, and the actual profit is only about 2 million. This 2 million is not as much as you can earn by showing others a feng shui."

With that, Avella hurriedly said to Marven: "By the way, you should never tell mom about the numbers that I just told you. If mom knows that the company has millions in the account, she will definitely get wrong ideas!"

Marven hurriedly said: "My wife, I listen to you, and I will never say a word to her!"

After speaking, Marven asked again: "Wife, you see that I have performed so well, can you raise me to the next level now?"

Chapter 1003

Marven felt nervous after asking this question.

He didn't know what kind of reply Avella would give him.

At this moment, he suddenly felt an object hit his face. The next moment, he felt the object, which was the little bear that Avella usually hugged to sleep.

At this time, he heard Avella say in ear: "You are so greedy, you usually play mobile games, the more difficult it is to upgrade, how can it be so simple?"

Marven said aggrievedly: "My wife, the upgrade of mobile games is fast now, and you can upgrade to level 80 with a single cut!"

Avella pretended to be a customer service of a certain treasure, and said, "I'm sorry, dear, this kind of upgrade is not available in our family. I suggest you consider trying other games."

Marven hurriedly said: "No, no, no, I don't want to try other games, I just want to ask if you can give us a quick way to upgrade this game?"

Avella smiled and said, "I'm sorry, dear, we don't have any shortcuts for the time being."

"Okay!" Marven sighed and said, "I will continue to work hard."

Avella nodded in satisfaction and said: "In this case, the customer service side is about to get off work now. If you have any questions, please come back tomorrow morning."

Seeing her playful, Marven hurriedly said: "Okay, let's talk about it tomorrow morning."

Avella said again: "Then please don't hang up. After a beep, you will comment on my service. 1 is very satisfied, 2 is satisfied, and 3 is not satisfied."

Marven said: "4!"

Avella said: "I'm sorry, the input was wrong, please re-enter."

Marven said: "Yes, 4 is very unsatisfactory!"

Avella grunted and said, "Congratulations for activating the hidden random treasure chest in the game. You will get a random gift. To open the treasure chest, press 1, and to give up the treasure chest, press 2."

Marven blurted out: "1!"

Avella imitated the sound of the lottery turntable and squeaked it around for a while before saying, "Congratulations on getting a random gift and drop one level! The gift will take effect immediately!"

Marven yelled in shock: "Don't, stop, I don't want this gift!"

Avella giggled and said, "Dear, hide the random treasure chest. Once opened, it cannot be returned!"

Marven said: "I want to appeal! I just pressed the wrong one, I want to press 2!"

Avella laughed for a while, and then said, "Dear, the system has received your appeal. We will process your appeal within two days. The result of the appeal will be sent back to you at that time, but before the feedback result comes out, You still need to accept a random punishment of downgrading one level in place."

Marven said: "I am an old customer of game, can you give me a face? This time set me free from punishment!"

Avella thought for a while, and then said, "Dear, since you are indeed our loyal customer, we decided after discussion and give you a chance to choose again."

After that, she cleared her throat and said, "Please press 1 to open the treasure chest, press 2 to give up the treasure chest."

Marven can only say: "2! I choose 2!"

Avella said: "It's a pity that you missed the random gift in the hidden random treasure chest this time. What else can I help you with?"

Marven sighed, "Nothing, no more, I'm going to continue leveling."

Chapter 1004

Avella said: "Then please don't hang up. After a beep, you will comment on my service. 1 is very satisfied, 2 is satisfied, and 3 is not satisfied."

Marven wailed: "1! Very satisfied!"

Avella said with satisfaction: "Thank you for your comments. That's all for today's connection. See you next time."

This night, Marven slept very unsteadily.

Although he has only been promoted by one level, this is the first time he has been in bed with Avella since he married Avella.

Of course, although the same bed is the same, there is no chance to sleep together. Two people use their own pillows and sleep on their own quilts.

Marven really didn't dare to cross the middle 38th line, otherwise he would really have to drop one level on the spot, wouldn't it be because he didn't cry without tears?

Avella actually didn't fall asleep for a long time, and she felt very nervous in her heart.

Although she and Marven slept in their own blankets and didn't have any skin-to-skin touch, she still felt that her heartbeat was very fast.

Well, this is after all the first time she shared a bed with a man since she shared a room with her parents when she was young.

It's not strange that she does feel nervous.

In this way, the two people suffered from insomnia for a long time before going to sleep one after another.

Early the next morning, Marven opened his eyes, Avella beside him was gone.

Hearing the sound of the shower coming from the bathroom, Marven knew that Avella was taking a shower.

Avella is a girl who loves cleanliness, and basically takes a bath every morning and evening, and Marven has already been surprised.

He stretched and was about to get up when the phone under his pillow suddenly buzzed.

He took out his cell phone and found that it was actually a call from Xiaofen.

After answering the call, Xiaofen's anxious voice came from over there: "Brother Marven, there is an accident in the orphanage!"

Marven hurriedly asked, "What's going on?! What happened to the welfare institution? Don't worry about it go slowly."

Xiaofen choked up and said, "Ten children were lost! Suspected they were stolen!"

"What?!" Marven was both anxious and angry when he heard that the child in the welfare home would be stolen. He hurriedly asked: "Xiaofen, tell me specifically, what is going on?"

Xiaofen hurriedly said: "This morning, the aunt in charge of infants and young children in the day shift went to work with the aunt in the night shift, and found that the aunt in the night shift was sleeping unconsciously. All the ten children in one room were gone. She was given a strong anaesthetic!"

Marven was furious, and he scolded: "Someone is too bold to do it, even dare to steal the children of the orphanage?!"

Xiaofen cried and said: "This kind of thing happened before, but we discovered it in time before. Now human traffickers are particularly rampant. Not only do they dare to steal from the orphanage, they also dare to steal from the hospital, and steal from people's homes. They even robbed other people's children on the street!"

After speaking, Xiaofen said again: "The main reason is that this business is too profitable for them. Any child can sell for about 100,000. If it is the kind of beautiful child, these rich people cannot give birth. Children who are even willing to pay a high price..."

Marven hurriedly asked, "What's the situation now? Did you call the police?"

Xiaofen hurriedly said: "Aunt Li and the dean have called the police a long time ago, and the case has been opened for investigation, but the police said that they speculated that the night shift aunt was anesthetized at around 3 in the morning, that is, they stole the child. Four hours have passed now, and they may have left Wrestrvel or even the province in these four hours!"

Chapter 1005

At this moment, Marven was very angry.

He did not expect that a human trafficker would be so bold and hit idea on the children of the orphanage.

Thinking of these children, among them, they might be sold to unscrupulous beggars, or even turned into disabled by them, Marven wanted to smash the corpses of these traffickers.

So he immediately said to Xiaofen: "Xiaofen, where are you now? Are you in the orphanage?"

"Yes!" Xiaofen said, "I just came back from the police station, Aunt Li and the others are still there."

“Okay.” Marven said immediately: “You are waiting for me in the orphanage, I will pass now!”

After speaking, he hung up the phone, ignored his wife, and hurried out.

Coming to the first floor, Viola, wearing a big red pajamas, urged impatiently: “Marven, hurry up and cook, I am starving to death.”

Marven frowned, and said in disgust: “If you want to eat, you can cook it yourself.”

Viola gritted her teeth and cursed: “Oh! You are amazing now, have you become more capable?”

Marven nodded and said, “If you can get such a big villa, then I can count you as capable!”

When Viola heard this, her face suddenly changed: “Marven, what do you mean by this? Do you think the villa you made is amazing? You started to shake face with me?”

Marven said coldly: “Yes, when I lived in your house before, what was your attitude towards me? I hope you will reflect on it now. Maybe after a while, I will treat you like you treated me. “

“You...” Viola’s arrogance disappeared by 80% at once, and she really realized that Marven was different from before.

Now he doesn’t have much to judge her. She used to say that he eats in her home and lives in her home, but now it seems that everything is the other way around.

At this time, Dave also came out of the elevator, and when he saw Marven as if he was going out, he asked: “Marven, where are you going?”

Marven said: “I’m going to the orphanage, something is wrong.”

Dave hurriedly said, “It just so happens that I have to go to the Calligraphy and Painting Association to do something, I’ll drive you.”

Marven nodded: “Okay, dad.”

Viola said angrily: “Dave, you are not allowed to go! Make breakfast for me!”

Dave glanced at her disgustedly: “Make it yourself, don’t eat it if you don’t do it!”

After speaking, he didn’t talk to her anymore.

Dave and son-in-law walked out, Viola gritted her teeth with anger behind.

Now the two men in the family ignore her, and her majesty in this family no longer exists.

Especially that Dave, who was so ambitious yesterday that he wanted to divorce her.

This dog has been married to her for more than 20 years, and he didn't dare to yell at her like that. There must be something strange about this matter, so she has to find a way to investigate it.

At this moment, Marven and the Old Master Dave came to the garage, Dave sat in his BMW car and drove Marven out.

As soon as the car left the house, Dave couldn't wait to ask: "Marven, you usually have a lot of ideas. Can you give your dad an idea, how can I divorce that b*tch?"

Marven said, "Didn't Mom say it yesterday? If you want to get a divorce, you have to live apart for at least two years."

Chapter 1006

Dave said impatiently: "Two years are too long. That b*tch still doesn't know that your Aunt is back, but this matter must not be hidden for too long. My thought is that before she knows that your Aunt is back, I want to divorce her first."

Speaking of this, Dave was a little depressed and said, "But, you heard what the shrew said yesterday. She said that if I find another woman, she will not let me get better, I'm afraid she will know you Aunt. She's going to trouble your Aunt. Your Aunt is quiet and dignified, and has a good temper. How could she be the opponent of that shrew."

Marven said: "Dad, I really want to help you with this matter, but I am also helpless. You still have to solve this problem yourself for some things."

In fact, Marven really wanted to let Viola evaporate directly from the world. He had this idea the last time this woman stole his bank card.

It's a pity that he couldn't bear Avella being sad, otherwise, he would never let Viola back!

If he didn't let Viola come back, then the Old Master's current life will be extremely enjoyable.

Thinking of this, Marven said again: "Dad, it's not that I told you. Your biggest problem is that you are too weak and too scared of her. She only has to say a few words, and you don't know what to do. People can't help you solve this problem. If you want to solve this problem, you can only rely on yourself."

Dave sighed and said, "I understand what you said, but some things will form a psychological shadow, and it is difficult for me to overcome in your heart."

Marven said: "Then I can't help, Dad, Aunt finally came back. If you let her know, she will probably fight Aunt to get rid of her. She will never give up unless Aunt is driven out of Wrestvel. At that time, you have to think about what to do."

When Dave heard this, he snorted in his heart.

What he fears most is the occurrence of this scene.

If Viola really knew that Meiqing is back, she would definitely go to trouble Meiqing, and she would never die!

Dave had to sigh: "Think about it. Try to think of a solution."

.....

Dave sent Marven to the orphanage, and he went to the Calligraphy and Painting Association to hold an appreciation meeting with others.

When Marven got out of the car, he saw Xiaofen just waiting at the door. The little girl ran to him when she saw that he was coming.

"Brother Marven!" Xiaofen cried out with a choked voice, then plunged into Marven's arms, crying and said: "Brother Marven, think of a solution quickly, I'm really afraid that those younger brothers and sisters will never again can be found..."

Marven patted her back lightly and said seriously: "Don't worry, I will definitely go all out. Is Aunt Li back now? Are there any new clues?"

Xiaofen shook her head with red eyes and said, "Aunt Li and the others haven't come back. I don't know if there is any progress."

As she was talking, a taxi stopped at the entrance of the orphanage.

Aunt Li and the director of the orphanage walked out of the taxi.

Marven hurriedly pulled Xiaofen to greet them, and asked, "Aunt Li, what did the police say, is there any clue?"

Seeing Marven's arrival, Aunt Li smiled bitterly, and said: "The police station has opened a case. They are starting from the monitor, but the only clue that can be found now is that they are driving a white Ivek and committing a crime. There should be six or seven of the elements. After they fainted the children, they all got in the car and were out of the city."

Marven asked hurriedly, "Has the police station started tracking this car?"

"Chased." Aunt Li sighed, and said: "Their car had a license plate, and it disappeared on the high-speed. It is seriously suspected that they have changed other brands on the high-speed. The kind of Iveco itself is our Wrestvel. The models are very common, and there is no license plate number, so it is difficult to find them."

Marven nodded solemnly.

Under this circumstance, it may be difficult to achieve results in a short period of time by relying on the police department's method of handling cases.

If you want to find criminals in the shortest time, or find information related to criminals, you must find the kind of people who have the underground world information and have great abilities.

They have a large number of eyes in all walks of life, so their intelligence is more in-depth than the police!

Chapter 1007

Thinking of this, Marven called Mr. Orvel.

After all, Mr. Orvel is the underground emperor of Wrestrvel, and his eye is much more than ordinary people.

As soon as the call was connected, Orvel asked respectfully: "Mr. Ye, what do you want?"

Marven said: "There are 10 two or three-year-old children in the Wrestrvel Welfare Institute. They were stolen by traffickers last night. You have been underground in Wrestrvel for a long time. Please help me to investigate if anyone has recently made noise about buying children. Or is anyone inquiring about the child everywhere?"

Many cases can be solved, not necessarily because of the supernatural powers of the investigators, or what kind of high-tech assistance they have, but because the criminals left key clues in his unique group.

For example, if a person is killed, the police will start by confirming the identity of the corpse. But people in the arena know who the person has offended and what kind of things he has been involved in. The probability is that who killed, can be found.

For another example, if someone loses a car in the local area, if they report to the police, the police usually investigate where the car has been. Where did it disappear? Surveillance video shows who has been in contact with this car during this time?

But if you directly ask the people in the underground world, who are the local people who steal the car, or who are the local people who are responsible for selling stolen goods, whoever has seen the car lost is basically accurate.

But the key is that the underground world has very clear rules and rules. Even if an insider wants to get certain information, his ability and status must match this information.

Otherwise, it is impossible to inquire about anything.

For example, a small gangster wants to know what kind of business Mr. Orvel is doing recently, who he has eaten with, and who he has met. It is basically impossible to inquire.

But if Mr. Orvel wants to know what a gangster is up to lately and who he has frequent contact with, his men will help him find out with just one sentence.

Mr. Orvel knew that Marven had always lived in the orphanage from childhood to adolescence, so he also knew that the children of the orphanage were stolen, Marven must be very angry.

So he immediately proceeded to investigate.

Ten minutes later, a clue was fed back to Mr. Orvel.

There is a kid named Liu Zhaochen in Wrestvel. Some time ago, while having a meal with friends on the road, he asked where Wrestvel could buy children.

Marven hurriedly asked him: "What is the origin of this Liu Zhaochen?"

Mr. Orvel said: "This kid is a native of Wrestvel. He has been stealing chickens and dogs since he was young, and his family is also making a living. When he was not an adult, he participated in many illegal and criminal activities for Money, this kid does everything."

"A few years ago, this kid and his family made some money by pirating movies. They sneaked into the movie theater with a video camera to secretly take pictures of other movies being shown, and then carved them into pirated CDs and sold them out. During that period of time, it was very busy."

"As a result, a big man invested in a big-produced movie, which was stolen by this kid as soon as it was released. Then the big man asked someone to chop off the kid's hand. From then on, the kid didn't dare to pirate the movie. , The family changed their careers and became a snakehead, just reselling the population."

"His family specializes in reselling underage children, usually to gangs in the south. Sometimes they also rent out a group of underage children to gangs. Some time ago, I heard that the police targeted those underage gangs controlled by the beggars. Adult children have carried out a special rescue operation and rescued a large number of children, so now the beggars have been asking for children everywhere, and he is specifically looking for children for the beggars."

Marven asked coldly: "This kid and his family are doing this business?!"

"Yes!" Mr. Orvel said: "A family of six, his father, his mother, his two brothers and one sister, all do this kind of business."

Marven gritted his teeth and said: "This kind of garbage is really d*mn!"

After that, he asked again: "Mr. Orvel, do you know where this kid is now? I want to know all his movements in the past two days!"

Mr. Orvel said: "I'm making inquiries, and there must be clues soon!"

Chapter 1008

Marven snorted and said: "If you have any clues, you must tell me at earliest!"

Mr. Orvel respectfully said: "Okay, Mr. Ye, I see!"

Marven hung up the phone, turned back to Aunt Li and Xiaofen, and said: "Aunt Li and Xiaofen, don't worry about it. I have asked friends to help me find out and they are quite energetic. I see some clues will come back soon."

Aunt Li said with a red eye: "Marven, thank you very much!"

Marven hurriedly said: "Aunt Li, what are you talking about? I also came out of the orphanage. Now that the younger siblings in the orphanage are lost, I will definitely try my best to find them back!"

Xiaofen choked up and said: "Brother Marven, you donated so much money yesterday. On the way back, Aunt Li also said that we are going to add a set of monitoring equipment to the entire orphanage. I didn't expect it to be today..."

Having said that, Xiaofen couldn't help it all at once, and started crying again.

Marven knows Aunt Li and Xiaofen very well. Most of the people working in the orphanage are very kind, and they take care of these children without parents as their own children, and regard themselves as the parents of these orphans.

Now the welfare home has lost 10 children at once, which is naturally a huge blow to them.

Marven was about to speak to comfort them, when Mr. Orvel called.

He hurriedly connected.

He heard Mr. Orvel say on the other end of the phone: "Mr. Ye, I have already asked someone to find out. The Liu Zhaochen temporarily found a friend on the road last night and borrowed a deck of Iveco. Come out, there will be no fall in the early morning."

"Borrowed an Iveco?!" Marven raised his eyebrows, and said coldly: "The kid who stole the kid also drove an Iveco. I guess this guy and his family did it!"

Mr. Orvel immediately said: "Mr. Ye, or provide this kid's phone number to the police now and let the police locate and arrest people based on phone number!"

Marven said coldly: "No! This kind of sc*m who specializes in poisoning children is too cheap for them to go to jail! I want them to die!"

Mr. Orvel suddenly shuddered and blurted out: "Mr. Ye if there is any need, I will die!"

Marven asked: "Can you locate that kid based on his phone number?"

Mr. Orvel said: "No problem, I have someone on China Unicom, and can investigate his real-time location information!"

Marven said: "Okay! Now you help me figure out the position!"

Mr. Orvel said immediately: "Mr. Ye, give me five minutes!"

"it is good!"

Marven hung up the phone, immediately called Zak Chen again, and asked: "How many helicopters can Wrestvel currently mobilize? How many people can each carried?"

Zak Chen said: "Mr. Ye Shangri-La has two heavy helicopters, each of which can take 12 people. There is a general aviation company invested by Ye's at the airport, and there are three medium-sized helicopters, each of which can take eight people!"

Marven snorted and said, "Get all the helicopters ready and bring your best manpower. Besides, you can let one of the helicopters pick me up near the Wrestvel Welfare Institute now!"

Zak Chen hurriedly asked: "Mr. Ye what are you going to do?"

Marven said coldly: "I want to walk for the sky!"

Chapter 1009

When Zak Chen heard Marven's tone, he knew Marven must be angry.

So, he almost didn't even think about it, and immediately said: "Mr. Ye I will arrange it now!"

After that, he hurriedly asked: "By the way, Mr. Ye I will take a helicopter to pick you up right now. Should I come directly to the Wrestvel Welfare Institute?"

Marven didn't want people to know how much energy he had, so he asked, "Is there any place suitable for helicopter landing near the orphanage?"

Zak Chen thought for a while and said, "There seems to be a building nearby called JH Building. There is a helipad on the top of the building. Or you can go there now, I will also set off now, and will be there soon!"

"Okay!" Marven said immediately: "Then you come faster."

"I understand Master!"

After hanging up the phone, Marven said to Aunt Li and the others: "Aunt Li, Xiaofen, I have a friend who may help me find some clues. I will go and find him now. Please wait patiently for my news, don't worry."

Xiaofen hurriedly said, "Brother Marven, I want to come with you, okay?"

Marven said: "Xiaofen, you can stay here with Aunt Li, just leave this to me."

Only then did Xiaofen nod his head, and said obediently: "Good Brother Marven, and Aunt Li are here waiting for your good news, you must get your brothers and sisters back!"

Marven resolutely said: "Don't worry, I will bring them back safely!"

After all, he immediately left the orphanage and went to the nearby JH Building.

.....

At the same time, the police issued a detective report to the whole society through various media. Suddenly, the fact that ten babies in the welfare home were stolen by human traffickers was quickly spread to the Internet and the entire Internet.

On many news platforms, this information has been topped the top search list.

It was also pushed on the screen, letting people across the country see this news.

In the past, a news about kidnapping on the street would be paid attention to by people all over the country, and even hit various headlines.

And now there are some traffickers who are bold enough to steal children from the orphanage! And one steal is 10!

This is simply unheard of stupid behavior! Let everyone smell it with extreme indignation!

For a time, countless netizens across the country were filled with outrage, scolding, scolding, commenting, and forwarding on the Internet, and the search volume has been high!

You must know that in recent years, human traffickers have become too rampant. I don't know how many families have broken their homes because their children were stolen or abducted by human traffickers.

In any family, children are the treasures in the hearts of parents. If this baby is stolen, abducted and bought, the parents will even lose the hope and motivation to live!

Chapter 1010

Countless happy families have been completely destroyed because of this gang of human abductors!

The most hateful thing is that after these traffickers abduct the children, it would be better to sell them to normal families who want children, at least the children's lives will not be too threatened.

But if these godsend beasts deliberately disabled the child and used them to beg for money, wouldn't the child's life be completely ruined? !

Therefore, at this moment, the hearts of the people across the country are closely concerned about these 10 children who were trafficked.

At this time, Marven just wanted to save the children as soon as possible! When he reached the top floor of the building, a helicopter had roared from the sky far away.

At this time, Mr. Orvel also sent an address to his WeChat, telling him: "Mr. Ye, that Liu Zhaochen is now out of the province, but their cars are afraid to go high speeds, they are all down the road, so now drove less than 400 kilometers."

Marven checked the address and found that the other party was heading south with the child from the orphanage, and was now in the Province, next door.

At this time, the helicopter slowly descended from the top of JH Building, but before it touched the ground, Zak Chen had already opened the door. Marven jumped up and said directly to him: "Let the pilot take off immediately and go to address at full speed. Let the other helicopters head in the same direction!"

"OK, young master!" Zak Chen immediately informed the pilot of the specific location through the earmuff intercom.

Afterwards, Zak Chen asked Marven: "Mr. Ye please forgive me. You are suddenly so anxious. What's the matter?"

Marven said with a black face, "This morning, a family of six traffickers stole 10 children from the orphanage!"

"f*ck!" Zak Chen suddenly exclaimed: "What kind of b@stards are this family, and they also do such sorrowful things!"

Marven said coldly: "Among the four words "knock and abduction", what I hate the most is abduction. When I was a child, I grew up in an orphanage and I saw many children who were rescued after being abducted. There are too many children, and every child has sold several hands. Even if the police rescued many children, it would be difficult for them to find their families, so they became orphans who were not actually meant to be orphans."

Zak Chen said immediately: "Mr. Ye don't worry, I brought my best men and horses this time. Everyone is a good soldier and strong general. After catching them, they will surely crush these b@stards!"

Marven said: "Not only do I want to smash them into pieces, but I also want to smash them all up and down, their accomplices, and colleagues!"

After all, Marven asked, "Does the Ye family have power in Zhejiang Province?"

Zak Chen nodded and said: "The family's influence in Zhejiang Province is also very strong, but the family has always been relatively low-key. Just like I was in Wrestvel, I generally do not participate in the management of disputes between local rich, families and gangs. If the locals do not follow the rules, then I can move them anytime, anywhere."

Marven suddenly remembered something and asked: "The Wu family's base camp is in Suzhou. Suzhou are the capital of Zhejiang Province. They must be the local snakes of Zhejiang Province, right?"

"Yes." Zak Chen said: "The Wu family is the largest family in the south of the Yangtze River. They have cultivated Jiangsu and Hangzhou for many years, so their strength in Zhejiang Province is really extraordinary."

After finishing speaking, Zak Chen added: "However, this is extraordinary for ordinary people. To the Ye family, they are just little friends."

Marven nodded, his face gloomy.

Zak Chen thought of the Wu family, and said, "Mr. Ye the Wu family was looking for your enemy some time ago. You must pay attention to this matter. Since you don't need your family to help you, then do you need me to send you Some bodyguards to protect your safety at all times?"

Marven waved his hand slightly, his heart was full of disdain for the Wu family, Zak Chen still didn't know his strength, judging from his current strength, no one could hurt him at all.
