

The Amazing Son In-Law Chapter 1181-1190

Chapter 1181

Paul looked at Marven in shock. Although it felt unbelievable, he didn't feel that Marven was bragging. So he hurriedly started the car and drove to Wei's Pharmaceutical.

Wei's Pharmaceuticals has a production base in the southeast of Wrestvel. In addition to all the medicines produced here, their management also works here.

In Wei's own production base, there are workshops, warehouses, office buildings and dormitories.

As soon as Paul parked the car in front of the Wei's pharmaceutical office building, Liang was already waiting here.

Marven was in Changbai Mountain that day and gave Liang a huge shock.

So that Liang already regarded Marven as the god he believed in in this life, and had a strong urge to go through water and fire in his heart.

Respectfully welcomed Marven and Paul to his office.

Liang immediately took out the contract template he had drawn up and said to Marven: "Mr. Ye, I already have drawn up the contract. You can ask your lawyer to go over it and see if there are any problems."

Speaking of this, he opened a contract and introduced: "The main clause in this contract is that on behalf of the Wei Group, I will unconditionally transfer 80% of the shares to you."

Marven didn't expect Liang to be so simple.

So he nodded and said, "Let Paul go with your lawyer about the contract."

Liang hurriedly said, "Then I will let the lawyer in now."

Then he made a call and several lawyers from the pharmaceutical factory walked in.

Paul worked very professionally and immediately confronted them with the details of the contract.

The contract was drawn up quickly and Marven and Liang signed the contract together.

After signing, Marven has become the largest shareholder of Wei's Pharmaceuticals, owning 80% of Wei's Pharmaceuticals.

Because Marven has hired Paul as his lawyer, Paul's name is also written in the lawyer column in this corporate equity transfer contract.

However, Marven was a little surprised that what Paul left on the contract turned out to be his Chinese name.

And his Chinese name is actually Han Mukun!

This surprised him too much!

Paul's Chinese name followed his mother Meiqing's last name, which did not surprise him.

To his surprise, the last two words of the name.

Mu Kun?

The word admiration alone seems to have nothing to do with feelings.

But in ancient Chinese, the word Mu has a very deep meaning.

It is the original meaning of attachment, yearning, longing, and also pointing to admiration.

And let alone the word Kun, it must be Dave, his father-in-law!

In this way, Paul's Chinese name probably means: Meiqing is attached to Dave, Meiqing yearns for Dave, Meiqing misses Dave, and even Meiqing loves Dave deeply.

He felt that the name reflected Meiqing's full and deep affection, and at the same time he felt that the name highlighted Meiqing's full literary accomplishments.

If she was not into the language, then she would give Paul a Chinese name, probably Han Sikun, Han Niankun, and Han Aikun.

Chapter 1182

However, she just used a low-key and deep, and even a long-standing Han Mukun!

At this moment, even Marven felt that Meiqing was really amazing.

But all this was just what Marven thought in his own heart, and he didn't tell Paul about it.

But he guessed that a smart person like Paul should also know what his own Chinese name means.

Here, Liang respectfully asked him after signing, "Mr. Ye, is Wei's Pharma going to change its name now?"

He felt that Marven is already a major shareholder of Wei's Pharmaceuticals, and it seems inappropriate to continue to call Wei's Pharmaceuticals.

Marven also thinks that the company he controls is called Wei's Pharmaceutical, which is really strange.

So he thought for a while, and said: "Then let's change the name to JX Pharmaceutical, JX short for Jiu Xuan."

Marven felt that his ability to master so many classic medical techniques left behind by his ancestors was entirely the result of the "Nine Profound Heavenly Scriptures", so he simply named JX Pharmaceutical, which can be regarded as his own contribution to the "Nine Profound Heavenly Scriptures."

Although Liang didn't know what the word "Jiu Xuan" meant, but since Mr. Ye had already said so, he naturally wouldn't have any opinions, so he immediately said, "Mr. Ye, then I will submit a statement today and register at the same time. The trademark of JX Pharmaceutical."

Marven nodded and said, "You told me that Kobayashi Pharmaceutical's stomach powder was very suppressing you, didn't it?"

"Yes!" Liang sighed and said, "Kobayashi Weisan is now sold throughout Asia. The pressure on us is very high."

Marven said to Liang, "Kobayashi Pharmaceutical is nothing. I'll give you a prescription for treating stomach problems. After you produce it, you will call it Jiu Weisan. Did you bring paper and pen? I will write it for you. After you go back, you will produce a prescription according to this formula and put it on the market as soon as possible."

Liang was overjoyed, but he didn't expect Marven to draw up a prescription himself, quickly took out a pen and paper, and handed it respectfully.

Marven thought for a moment, and selected a pill formula from the "Nine Profound Heaven Classics".

He chose this because the medicinal materials used in this formula are relatively easy to find.

Although this is only the primary prescription for stomach problems in the "Nine Profound Heavenly Secrets", this medicine has miraculous effects on ordinary people.

As long as Liang can produce this stomach medicine, it is definitely not a problem to press down the competitor like Kobayashi Pharmaceutical

So he wrote down the prescription and the ratio and handed it to Liang.

After Liang took the notebook and looked at the formula written on it, he couldn't help being surprised.

Liang has also studied some traditional medicine and tried to discover ancient Chinese prescriptions, so he has some understanding of the prescriptions.

However, looking at Marven's formula, it seems that many medicinal materials have nothing to do with the treatment of stomach diseases, so it still feels a little suspenseful.

The prescription Marven took out was the prescription in the “Nine Profound Sky Classics”. The “Nine Profound Sky Classics” was originally a sacred book. The prescriptions that can be recorded here are absolutely awesome, and most people can see them and understand, it’s really weird.

However, although Liang couldn’t understand this prescription, where exactly was the god, he didn’t dare to doubt Marven in his heart.

Liang put a lot of emphasis on the prescription, ready to go back to arrange the production first, and try the effect of the medicine.

He settled the contract with Paul and left from Wei’s Pharmaceutical, which is now JX Pharmaceutical.

Paul is full of respect for Marven beside him, he thinks Marven is too unpredictable.

Take any prescription, and others are willing to give him the entire group.

May I ask, who else in the world can have such an ability?

No wonder, all the people in Wrestrvel who have a face and respect him. He is Mr. Ye for a reason.

Moreover, when they mentioned Mr. Ye, they would give an evaluation: A true dragon in the world!

Chapter 1183

On the way back, Marven asked Paul: “By the way, what has Aunt been up to these days?”

Paul said: “Mother recently. She likes to run to senior colleges. An old friend of hers invited her to go there and be a visiting professor at senior colleges, specializing in general education for senior citizens.”

“Oh?” Marven said in surprise, “Then Aunt is Professor now?”

Paul smiled and said: “It’s not a professor. The senior university itself is not a university in the true sense. It is just an interest training class for the elderly. Although my mother teaches there, she is also a student there. , Learning calligraphy and traditional Chinese painting from others, so she is very busy every day.”

After that, Paul asked curiously: “What has Uncle Xiao been up to lately? My mother often talks about him, but she always seems to stop talking.”

Marven felt that Paul was not an outsider, so he sighed and said to him: “When you and Aunt just came back, my mother-in-law disappeared during that time, but she is back now.”

After speaking, Marven said again: “My mother-in-law, who has a more aggressive personality, my father-in-law is afraid. He knows that Aunt will come back and will trouble Aunt, so he dare not ask Aunt Meiqang.”

Paul nodded lightly, and said with emotion: “It is really hard for us to intervene in matters of our parents’ generation.”

At this time, Marvin's phone rang suddenly, and it turned out to be Warnia who hadn't seen him for many days.

He answered the phone and smiled and asked, "Miss Song, what are you up to lately?"

Warnia smiled and said, "I'm just busy, I'm sure you are not busy."

After speaking, she asked curiously: "Mr. Ye, do you have time for the night after tomorrow?"

Marvin thought for a while and said, "It seems there is nothing wrong, what's wrong?"

Warnia smiled and said: "It's nothing, I just want to invite you to have a meal at home, just because Grandpa kept talking about you."

Marvin smiled and said, "Okay. Then I'll come to the house the night after tomorrow and talk."

Warnia said happily, "Great, Mr. Ye, is it okay at 7 pm the next day?"

"It is."

"See you then!"

"Okay, see you then."

Hanging up Warnia's phone, Paul on the side smiled and asked, "Mr. Ye, was Miss Song calling you?"

Marvin knew that he knew Warnia, so he didn't hide it. He nodded and said, "That's right."

Paul smiled: "Miss Song called you for her birthday party, right?"

"Birthday party?" Marvin said surprised: "Miss Song didn't tell me on the phone just now, she said I would go to her house for dinner the next night."

Paul smiled profoundly and said: "It is estimated that Miss Song didn't want you to spend money on preparing gifts for her, so that's why she told you that. When she told me, she said directly about the birthday party."

Marvin couldn't help being a little surprised. Why should she hide her birthday? It won't look pretty even when it comes to the past empty-handed.

Is it really like Paul said, does she want him to not spend money?

Marvin thought for a while, and thought it was really possible.

Warnia always felt that she owed him favor because he had helped her break through the trapped dragon formation before and confiscated the money.

When he made medicine for her grandfather and Tianqi, he quietly gave her a pill.

After practicing the Rejuvenation Pill, he gave it to her grandfather so that her grandfather was at least a dozen or twenty years younger, and it was entirely in her face.

It was also the one who gave him the Rejuvenation Pill to Song Old Master, which made him treat Warnia very seriously, so Warnia's position in the Song family is getting higher and higher.

Chapter 1184

It is for these reasons that Warnia has always respected him.

So Warnia may deliberately conceal her birthday because she was afraid of owing a favor.

Marven thought of this, suddenly felt very interesting.

Warnia, aren't you afraid of owing me favors? Then I will give you another great favor this time.

For this birthday gift, I won't go out and buy it for you. I will prepare a rejuvenating pill for you.

Everyone in the upper class of Wrestvel knows how magical the Rejuvenation Pill is.

At the banquet that day, Mr. Song took the Rejuvenating Pill in public. Everyone witnessed the magical effect of the medicine.

Marven even heard that someone wanted to spend one hundred million or even several hundred million to buy a rejuvenating pill.

However, Marven never thought about selling medicine.

He is not short of money at all. A few hundred million, a dozen billion, or even a few billions are meaningless to him.

If he sells Rejuvenation Pills everywhere for money, it will suppress the value of Rejuvenation Pills.

It is to make everyone feel that Rejuvenation Pill is a super treasure that they can't ask for, and may not have a chance to get it in a lifetime.

They will be full of endless worship and longing for the rejuvenation pills.

As for why he should give Warnia a Rejuvenating Pill, Marven thought very simply.

First of all, he does regard Warnia as a good friend.

Since it's a good friend's birthday, it makes sense to send a valuable gift.

Secondly, Warnia is the eldest lady of the Song family. She has seen countless good things since she was a child. If he gives her a gift, it must be a gift that she can't buy with money.

Once again, this thing, Rejuvenating Pill, he gave to Warnia, but it was not for Warnia.

Warnia is still very young now, she is only about 25 years old, and she doesn't need to take Rejuvenating Pill at all.

He gave her a rejuvenation pill, the fundamental purpose was to use this rejuvenation pill in exchange for the love, attention and resource preference of Mr. Song.

Last time he gave Mr. Song a rejuvenating pill. Mr. Song took the entire Song family and knelt down in front of all the upper-class people in Wrestvel.

This shows that Mr. Song's desire for Rejuvenation Pill is beyond everything.

But Mr. Song must also know in his heart that giving him a rejuvenating pill by himself is already a great favor, and it was given in the face of Warnia.

He certainly didn't dare to hope, there was still a chance to get a second one from himself.

Now he gives this rejuvenation pill to Warnia. A clever person like Mr. Song will know his intentions, and he will pay more attention to Warnia, and may even let her inherit the entire Song family.

Marven could tell that Warnia herself was also a very ambitious woman.

Otherwise, she would not have worked so hard for the family all the time.

And because her parents died early, she was in the Song family, somewhat helpless.

Under such circumstances, it may be very difficult to fight a turnaround and successfully inherit the Song family.

That being the case, he might as well give her a hand!

Chapter 1185

After Paul sent Marven to Tomson, he drove home.

Marven went back to the villa by himself, and Dave, the old father-in-law, hurriedly greeted him and asked him: "Good son-in-law, have you gone out with Paul today to see your Aunt?"

Marven said helplessly, "Dad, how can I see Aunt when I go out with Paul on errands?"

Dave couldn't help sighing, feeling very depressed.

He missed Meiqing very much these days, but Viola was at home, so he really didn't dare to risk seeing her.

So at this time he was scratching my heart.

He asked Marven again: "Then have you asked Paul about the current situation of your Aunt? How is she doing these days?"

Marven laughed and said, "Aunt should be doing well recently. I heard Paul say that she now teaches in senior colleges every day. Not only does she teach classes, she also learns calligraphy and painting from others. She has a very good life."

When Dave heard this, he was anxious: "Oh, how can she go to senior college?"

Marven asked in surprise: "What's wrong with the university for the elderly? Isn't the university for the elderly the place for the elderly?"

Dave said with a gloomy expression: "Don't you know that there are so many old men without a wife in this elderly university. They are a bunch of bad old men who went in not to learn things, but to find a wife."

After speaking, he said nervously again: "Your Aunt is so beautiful, so after entering, you can't let these old men worry about her?"

Marven smiled and said, "Then can you stop others from worrying?"

Dave sighed: "That's right, now this situation is really depressing!"

After he finished speaking, his eyes suddenly brightened and said: "Yes, I can also go to senior college. Then, won't I be able to meet your Aunt?"

Marven asked him: "Aren't you afraid that mom would know?"

"It's okay." Dave said earnestly: "What kind of woman your mother is, don't you know? She is desperate for face, you see, she is now limping, crutches, and has lost two front teeth. She can't make up for the time being. How dare she go to crowded places now? Every time she goes out to buy things, she has to wear sunglasses and a mask, for fear that others will recognize her, so she dare not go to senior college."

"Okay." Marven nodded and didn't say much.

In fact, he doesn't care much about Dave and Meiqing's affairs. If Dave and Meiqing walked too close and his wife Avella knew, she would definitely be very sad and very depressed.

If his mother-in-law Viola knew about it, it would be terrible.

So it can only wronged the Old Master.

.....

Two days later.

Marven told his family in advance that he had a friend's birthday tonight.

In the afternoon, he went to the street and bought a redwood gift box, and then put a rejuvenating pill in it.

After putting it away, he asked the owner of the gift shop to help meticulously pack the gift box.

Since it is a birthday present, it naturally requires a sense of ritual.

Because Paul was also invited, he simply drove to pick Marven to the Song's villa.

On Warnia's birthday, the Song family didn't put up lights and festoons, but made some modern and warm decorations.

When Paul drove the car into the courtyard, Marven couldn't even see that these arrangements were for a birthday party.

Tonight Warnia is wearing a tailor-made white dress.

This skirt is a tube top, so it looks very s*xxy and beautiful, especially Warnia's collarbone, which is not only very obvious, but also beautiful in shape, even women will be jealous.

A lot of luxury cars have been parked in the yard, and it seems that there are still a lot of guests here today.

Warnia originally greeted the guests inside, but when she heard that Marven was here, she hurried out to meet him.

Chapter 1186

Marven couldn't help feeling very surprised when he saw her.

He had long felt that Warnia's appearance and figure were no less inferior to his wife Avella.

Even the aristocratic temperament that Warnia has cultivated since childhood is unmatched by his own wife.

After all, she is the eldest lady of the local top big family. Since she was young, she has received noble etiquette teachings, which is still very different from ordinary girls.

Seeing Marven, Warnia came in the morning very excited, and said with a bit of shyness: "Mr. Ye, you are here."

Marven smiled slightly and said, "Miss Warnia, why didn't you tell me in advance for your birthday today?"

Warnia said apologetically: "Mr. Ye also asks you not to be offended. The reason why I didn't tell you was because I was afraid that you would prepare gifts and spend money."

Marven smiled and said: "In fact, there is nothing to spend, are we two friends? I will definitely give you a gift for your birthday. Even if you don't say it, I will prepare a gift for you."

After that, Marven took out the small box containing Rejuvenation Pill from his pocket.

It's just that this gift box is packed very carefully, so no one knows what it is.

Warnia felt joy in her heart when she saw the gift Marven had prepared for her.

She had always liked Marven very much in her heart, and this was also the first birthday gift that her sweetheart gave her. Naturally, she was extremely excited.

So she accepted the gift and gratefully said to Marven: "Mr. Ye, thank you so much, you specially prepared gifts for me."

Marven smiled slightly: "Yes, you and I don't have to be polite."

Marven's words made Warnia's heart as sweet as honey.

Paul by his side also stepped forward at this moment, handed her a gift box and smiled and said, "Miss Song, happy birthday."

Warnia looked at Paul with a smile and asked, "You must have told Mr. Ye that I have my birthday today, right?"

"Yes." Paul smiled: "When Mr. Ye called, I was finishing official business with Mr. Ye."

"Really?" Warnia asked in surprise: "Do you still have business dealings with Mr. Ye?"

Paul smiled and said, "I am now Mr. Ye's lawyer and legal counsel."

Marven smiled and said, "And it's the kind that doesn't have any money."

Warnia asked curiously: "Mr. Ye, what do you want the legal counsel to do now? Are you having any trouble?"

"No." Marven smiled and said: "I just took a company, so let Paul help me deal with some legal details."

"Understood!" Warnia nodded and said with a smile: "Mr. Ye, let's go in now, there are still many acquaintances."

"it is good!"

Marven followed Warnia into the Song family villa, and the huge hall had been arranged into a banquet hall.

In the banquet hall at this time, there was not only a reception, but also a band playing jazz music.

Marven glanced and saw many acquaintances.

The first thing he saw was Warnia's cousin Honor.

But Marven didn't like Honor, so he didn't go to say hello to him.

Among the guests outside were Zak Chen, Solmon Wang, Mr. Orvel, Tianqi, his granddaughters Zhovia, Qin Gang and his daughter Aoxue.

There is even Tailai, the richest man in Haicheng.

Even Lori from the Emgrand Group came.

It seems that Warnia invited these, they are all old friends who have a better relationship.

Chapter 1187

At this moment, the guests who came to Warnia's birthday dinner, in fact, the one who was really waiting in the heart was Marven.

Everyone knows that the Wu family and his son came to Wrestvel some time ago and had conflicts with him.

At Father Song's birthday banquet, Marven even broke Roger's hand in public.

Then, Zak Chen came forward and even interrupted their legs, finally letting the father and son escape back to Suzhou in embarrassment.

Since then, everyone felt that Mr. Ye was absolutely fearless, even the First Family of Wrestvel did not care.

At that time, many people were still worried that Mr. Ye would eventually be no match for the Wu family, which has strong assets.

Unexpectedly, in a short time, the Wu family fell from the position of the first family in Wrestvel.

Moreover, there are too many things that happened in the Wu family during this period.

First of all, the reputation was greatly hit by the Beggar Gang;

Secondly, they successively sent masters to Changbai Mountain but failed one after another.

For the last time, even their true trump card and the last reliance-the eight heavenly kings, have been killed.

The Wu family now can't even reach the level of a first-class family, and it's far from the Song family.

Although there is no evidence that all of this was done by Marven, everyone was in their hearts and counted all of this on Marven's head.

In their eyes, only Mr. Marven Ye had such an ability.

Especially Zak Chen, he was at the foot of Changbai Mountain and saw how Marven killed the Eight Heavenly Kings with his own power.

So at this moment, Marven is a god in his eyes, a god who transcends everything!

Zak Chen was the first to walk towards Marven.

He walked towards Marven quickly, even wishing to kneel for Marven first.

Because that day in Changbai Mountain, Marven shocked him too much, and he had completely subverted all his worldviews.

However, he still knew that he has to be restrained. He was only polite when he saw Marven, and respectfully called Mr. Ye.

He didn't know that he was from the Ye Family Young Mr.. he thought Zak Chen had also asked him to see Feng Shui or something.

Immediately walking up was Lori wearing a bright silver s*xy dress.

In Marven's impression, Lori has always been the kind of ascetic professional beauty.

But today's Lori is dressed very sxy and enchanting, and her state is very good. People who don't know, if they see the current Lori, they will think that she is a sxy goddess.

Lori naturally knew the identity of Marven, but she knew very little about the identity of his Ye family..

After all, she is not a member of the Wrester family, nor is she involved in contact with those in the metaphysical circles, so the things Marven did as Mr. Ye, and Lori are almost completely two worlds.

Lori wanted to call him Young Master very much, but because so many people were here, she could only call out politely: "Mr. Marven."

Marven nodded at her slightly, and said: "President Lori dressed up very beautifully today. I really didn't expect the vice chairman of the Emgrand Group to be such a beautiful and enchanting beauty."

Lori blushed beautifully, and said shamefully, "Mr. Marven, you have praised me to sky."

After speaking, Lori smiled and said, "Mr. Marven, when will you have time to come to the Emgrand Group to sit down?"

Lori's words made Marven blush.

He knew that he, the chairman of the Emgrand Group, was really incompetent.

Chapter 1188

Usually, I would not go to the Emgrand Group, and I only asked about the Emgrand Group. Everything was directly passed to Lori.

As Lori said just now, it is estimated that she also hopes that she can go to the Emgrand Group more.

Thinking of this, he smiled and said to Lori: "Just for such a beautiful President, I will often come to the Emgrand Group to impress or harass!"

When Lori heard this, her unparalleled pretty face turned bright red.

At this time, Tianqi also brought Zhovia over.

Zhovia looked at Marven with tenderness in her beautiful eyes.

At the same time, there are some small complaints in her young girl's heart, always feel that Mr. Ye seems to have paid less attention to her and her grandfather recently.

Because during this time they haven't seen Mr. Ye go to the Clinic again, so even though she thought about him, she didn't have much chance to see him.

Tianqi didn't have so much thoughtfulness from his granddaughter. He just felt that one day he didn't see Mr. Ye. After taking the Rejuvenating Pill, he could feel every day how important it is to return to his youth, so every moment he Deep down, he's grateful to Marven.

Therefore, he walked up quickly, bowed to Marven with his fists, and said respectfully: "Mr. Ye, I haven't seen you for some time, I wonder if Mr. Ye, how are you coming in these days?"

Marven smiled faintly: "The genius doctor Tianqi is polite, I'm pretty good recently, I don't know how old Shi is?"

Tianqi said earnestly: "The blessing of Master, I feel perfect every day now! Thanks to Mr. Ye for giving me a great opportunity!"

Marven smiled slightly and said: "You also said, this is your chance, so don't be polite with me."

Aoxue, who was tasting dessert, suddenly saw Marven coming, her excited little heart thumped and thumped, her face was already red before she could talk to Marven.

Aoxue's character is the kind of little pepper that dared to love and hate. When she was facing Marven, she dared to do it against Marven, even if Marven kicked her a**.

But now Aoxue has completely regarded Marven as her dream lover, and she has to think about him for a long time before going to bed almost every night before she can fall asleep.

Moreover, Aoxue would frequently dream of Marven in her dreams, and sometimes in her dreams, she would also dream of doing some shameful things with Marven.

No way, because Aoxue really liked Marven.

After Marven saved the Qin family, Aoxue worshiped him.

Later, Marven was about to start refining magical medicine. Aoxue was entrusted by her father Qin Gang to ask Marven for the medicine.

She thought that even if Marven could give one, it was already a great gift, but he did not expect that Marven told Aoxue at the time: "For the face of your little beauty, I will give you two."

From that moment, Aoxue had fallen in love with Marven deeply.

What made her love Marven even more was that he helped her to be a hero.

Her good friend, who was traumatized by Wu Qi, almost wanted to commit suicide, and she didn't know Wu Qi's true background.

Unexpectedly, Marven would not hesitate to offend the second young master of the Wu family of the Wuxue First Family for her face.

Moreover, he also treated the second young master of the Wu family so miserably, so she was happy!

From that moment on, Marven became the god in Aoxue's heart.

And it was the god that Aoxue loved deeply.

At this moment, seeing her dream lover finally came, all Aoxue's emotions were beyond words.

She took her father and ran all the way to Marven, her face flushed with shame.

She took a deep look at Marven, then quickly moved her eyes to the side, but said tenderly: "Mr. Ye, Aoxue has been waiting for you for a long time, you are finally here..."

Chapter 1189

When Marven looked at Aoxue, Aoxue was already flushed with shame.

Aoxue herself was the kind of brave girl, and she was also a martial artist, and she herself had nothing to do with shyness and weakness.

But because her heart was full of the little girl's shyness and excitement when she met her sweetheart, it seemed that she suddenly became arousing love.

Marven smiled at her slightly and said, "Aoxue is also here, how are you doing?"

Aoxue blushed and said, "Recently... it's been pretty good, thank you Mr. Ye for caring..."

Marven nodded lightly and said to everyone: "Everyone hasn't seen each other for some days. Today happens to be Miss Song's birthday. You can drink a few more glasses later."

Everyone hurriedly said: "It must be! We must have a few more drinks tonight!"

Warnia said a little apologetically at this time: "Mr. Ye, please wait a moment, I have to greet some guests."

Marven nodded: "Go ahead and leave me alone."

Warnia bid farewell to everyone, and everyone invited Marven to the banquet hall for a cocktail.

Marven readily agreed, and was surrounded by the crowd to the side of the banquet hall.

Because Marven was the focus of everyone's attention, Aoxue felt a little bit unable to intervene, which made the little girl feel anxious.

When Marven saw Aoxue hesitated to speak several times, he was even preempted by others before he even spoke. He smiled and asked her, "Aoxue, do you have anything to tell me?"

When Aoxue heard this, she nodded with joy, and said, "Mr. Ye, I have something to tell you in private. I wonder if you have time?"

After speaking, her big eyes looked at Marven with expectation and pleading.

Marven still had a good impression of her.

One is because she is self-reliant and does not have the ills of a big family.

Second, as a little girl from a big family, she could still work hard to practice martial arts, which is really rare among the children of the rich family.

So Marven said to her: "Why don't you accompany me out to go around."

Aoxue nodded excitedly when she heard this.

Seeing this scene, Qin Gang grinned happily.

He especially looked forward to Marven's development with his daughter. In his opinion, even Aoxue's love to Marven was a blessing for the Qin family and even the girl herself.

Seeing Aoxue follow Marven out, Zhovia was also jealous and envious.

In her heart, why didn't she want to have more contact with Marven? It's just that there has been no very suitable opportunity.

Moreover, she was not as bold as Aoxue, she dared to speak directly to Mr. Ye in front of so many people.

At this moment, Marven took Aoxue out of the house and came to the courtyard of Song's villa.

Then he stopped and looked at Aoxue with a faint smile: "Let's talk about the little girl, what's the matter this time? It's not the schoolmates who were bullied again, right?"

Aoxue smiled shyly, and said falteringly: "Mr. Ye, Aoxue is looking for you this time, in fact..."

Chapter 1190

Aoxue was shy and embarrassed inside, so she didn't know how to start.

Marven smiled and said, "Is this the little pepper Aoxue I remember? The Aoxue I knew dared to follow me when she was in Antique Street. Why is this Aoxue even talking in front of me? Can't say it?"

Aoxue was even more shy when she heard this, and said nervously and shyly: "Mr. Ye, people didn't know how good you were at the beginning, so there are people who don't know Your excellency. Don't laugh at them."

With that, she thought that Marven had kicked her a** that day, and she replied in shame, but she felt a little happy like a girl.

Afterwards, she plucked up the courage and said to Marven: "Mr. Ye, I actually want to invite you to watch the International College Sanda Competition held in Wrestvel this year."

Marven frowned and said, "International College Sanda Competition?"

Marven suddenly thought of a detail.

Liang once told him that Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals seemed to sponsor this competition in order to promote their new drug, Kobayashi Weisan.

Marven remembered that Aoxue had been practicing martial arts, and asked curiously: "Aoxue, will you also participate in this competition?"

Aoxue blushed and nodded and said, "Mr. Ye, I will represent Chinese college students this time..."

"Oh?" Marven said in surprise, "So powerful? Are you confident to win the championship?"

Aoxue replied with shame: "I don't dare to win the championship, because the seeded player from Japan this time is still very powerful. She is also the current favorite to win the championship, and her strength is indeed much stronger than me."

After speaking, Aoxue said again: "But I won't be discouraged either, my goal is to break into the top three!"

Marven smiled and said, "Dreams are only possible if you dare to think about it. I am very optimistic about you. I think it's no problem for you to get the first place. Most of the Japanese fighting and Sanda are the essence of our Chinese martial arts. At that time, you must win glory for the country, give a good lesson to the other players, win the championship in our territory, and win glory for the country!"

Aoxue asked with joy, "Mr. Ye, do you really believe that I can get the first place?"

Marven nodded: "Of course, I am very optimistic about you."

Aoxue said happily, "Mr. Ye, can I invite you to watch the game then?"

Marven agreed without hesitation and said, "Don't worry, I will definitely come to the game when you are in the game, and I will cheer you on the scene."

"Great!" Aoxue jumped up happily.

She subconsciously wanted to hug Marven and behave like a coquettish to her father at home.

But suddenly thinking that Marven was a married person, she couldn't make such an intimate move, so she withdrew again.

Marven asked Aoxue at this time: "By the way, Aoxue, when I was practicing magic medicine, I gave your family two pills. Did your father keep one for you?"

"Yes!" Aoxue took out a small box from the inner pocket of her coat. After opening it, it contained the medicine that Marven gave her.

She blushed and said, "The medicine given by Mr. Ye was given to me by my father that night. I kept it next to my skin."

Marven nodded, and said, "This medicine is still very helpful for physical fitness. If you feel strenuous or unsure about the competition, then take this pill."

Aoxue blurted out: "Why then? Mr. Ye gave this to me. I must take good care of it and treasure it."

Marven smiled indifferently: "This medicine is made for people to eat, so why bother about it?"

Aoxue said with a hum, "OK, Mr. Ye, I know."
