

The Amazing Son In-law chapter 1211-1220

Chapter 1211

Honor was extremely depressed at this time.

He really didn't expect that his grandfather would even risk to offend Delon to court Marven.

Honor is not a fool either, he can see that the reason why the Old Master takes Marven so seriously is because he is a little addicted to Rejuvenation Pill.

In other words, the Old Master gave up the olive branch thrown by Delon and the Kevin family and wanted to please Marven. This proves that in his eyes, he no longer cares about how much money the family has. What he cares about is how many years he can live. .

Otherwise, he would never give up the Kevin family and choose Marven.

This made Honor feel very upset in his heart.

First of all, if the Old Master gave up the Kevin family, the Song family lost a good opportunity to rise above and beyond;

Secondly, the Old Master pleases Marven, if Marven gives him another rejuvenation pill, then he wants to live as an old fairy?

If he never died, when will his father inherit the Song family?

If his father can't inherit the Song family, when can he inherit the Song family?

He didn't want the Old Master to live another thirty or forty years, in which case he would completely collapse.

I'm almost 30 this year, and my father is in his early 50s. If he waits 30 years before the Old Master dies, then his father will be in his 80s when he inherits the Song family.

If father lived another 10 years and 8 years, and then handed over the Song family to him, he would be in his 60s or 70s.

This is something he cannot accept anyway.

He can't wait for the Old Master to die here today, so that his father will inherit the Song family, his rights will be much greater.

I will stay under the hands of my father for another 10 years, and then I will fool him to retire early and give myself the position of head of the house.

However, this thing is really hateful.

With this thing, the ghost knows when the Old Master can die?

His father, Tianming, was also very upset.

He was ready to inherit the family business. The Old Master was dying before seeing the doctor. He was still faintly happy, and felt that he was finally going to make it out.

But never dreamed that Warnia actually found Marven over.

Then things became uncontrollable.

At this moment, Mr. Song suddenly stood up and said with a smile: "Everyone, today is the day of the old granddaughter. There is something I want to announce in public."

Everyone looked at Mr. Song, wondering what he was going to announce in public.

Grandpa Song sighed and said, "Warnia's life is very bitter. When she was very young, her parents passed away one after another. It was me and my deceased wife who pulled her up."

Honor and Tianming looked at each other, neither of them knew what kind of medicine the Old Master was selling in the gourd.

Chapter 1212

At this time, Mr. Song again said: "Warnia has always been very filial, and has always been very caring about family matters. This is very gratifying to me. And some time ago I was seriously ill and was in bed, and all the doctors announced that I have few days. At that time, Warnia invited Mr. Marven Ye for me. It was Mr. Ye who healed me and pulled me back from the ghost gate. Then Mr. Ye gave me a revival pill, so that I could re-experience the younger 20 years."

Having said this, the Old Master paused, bowed slightly to Marven, and said: "The Old Master is grateful to Mr. Ye, and of course he is also grateful for this good granddaughter. Therefore, the Old Master wants to announce one thing on her birthday today. It is: He Decided that from tomorrow, Warnia will formally take over the position of Patriarch of the Song family, and also from tomorrow, he will officially retire!"

As soon as this remark came out, it suddenly sounded like a bomb in the entire scene.

No one had thought that Old Master Song would let a female inherit the Song family.

After all, there has never been a family, especially a large family, that gives a young woman the position of head of the family.

In addition, Mr. Song has several sons and a bunch of grandsons. His eldest son Tianming is already ready to inherit the position of Patriarch of the Song family. The outside world originally speculated that Mr. Song would pass on the position of Patriarch to him in the next few years, as he is the eldest son.

Unexpectedly, not only did he not give it to the eldest son or grandson, but to his granddaughter!

Tianming and Honor, father and son, had hatred in their hearts at this time!

They never dreamed that Warnia could become the head of the Song family.

At this time, their hearts were full of extreme hatred for the Old Master and Warnia!

The Old Master is too partial, right? !

Has the 200 billion property left to Warnia to take the helm?

Why is a 26-year-old woman in charge of the 200 billion Song family? !

Warnia was also dumbfounded at this time.

She used to only think about serving the Song family well, and doing her best for the family before she married.

But she never expected that she could inherit the position of Song Family Patriarch.

At this moment, Warnia's heart is very excited. She is also a very ambitious and enterprising woman. The joy in her heart is beyond words when she hears that she is about to succeed the Song family as the head of the Song family.

Honor was a little uncontrollable at this time. He stood up and blurted out: "Grandpa! How can you hand over the position of Patriarch to Warnia? She is just a woman. In the future, she will marry someone. Once she marries an outsider, can you watch the Song family's fortune fall into the hands of others?"

Father Song looked at him and said coldly: "Warnia is also named Song, and she belongs to the Song family whenever she is, and I believe that in the entire Song family, no one can be compared to Warnia in terms of ability. She comes to take over as the head of the Song family. It couldn't be more appropriate."

Tianming said blankly at this time: "Father, I think this matter is really wrong, please think twice!"

Father Song, the other sons also stood up and said, "Father, please think twice!"

None of them could accept that the Song family was handed over to Warnia to take charge of the Song family.

Mr. Song said lightly: "What's wrong, I founded this family business with my bare hands. I didn't inherit it from anyone, so I have absolute control over the Song family. I will take it. It is given to Warnia after careful consideration, because Warnia will definitely make the Song family better and stronger!"

Speaking of Mr. Song, he looked around and said to the entire Song family: "All the descendants of my Song family have the right to receive a generous dividend from the Song family. So even if the head of the family is held by Warnia, the Song family's All children and grandchildren can also live without worry, and don't forget that it doesn't matter who inherits the head of the Song family, what matters is who can lead the Song family to become stronger and stronger.

After a pause, the Old Master said with a majestic face: "Take the roommate and his family as an example. They can get 10% of the Song family's dividend rate every year, and if they pay 5 billion a year in dividends, their family can get 500 million, but if one person can lead the Song family to pay 10 billion in dividends a year, then their family can get 1 billion in a year. Don't you want a more capable person to lead you? To make more money?"

Chapter 1213

As soon as Mr. Song said this, those who were still opposed to Warnia's inheritance of the Song Family closed their mouths with interest.

They want to understand a truth. Anyway, they and their children have no chance to inherit the position of Patriarch. If this is the case, they must hope that the Patriarch will be inherited by a more capable person.

Because the stronger the Patriarch's ability, the more money everyone can get.

Although Honor is pretty good in all aspects, it is still a lot worse than Warnia in terms of ability.

Regardless of Warnia's young age, in fact, Warnia can take care of the Song family's business very well.

The antique business is prosperous in her hands; foreign trade is also very impressive by her; even the Li Ka-cheng family in Hong Kong feels her luck is very good, and voluntarily ran over to cooperate with her.

In terms of strength, Warnia surpassed all the descendants of the Song family, even her uncles.

She inherited the words of the Song family, and everyone was convinced to be honest.

Thinking of this, these people immediately returned to their seats.

Some of Warnia's uncles even said: "Since it is the father's decision, then we have no opinion."

Tianming and Honor never expected that the other families would compromise in an instant!

All of a sudden, he and his son became isolated and helpless.

And what the Old Master said is too hurtful, right?

What do you mean?

Could it be said that both of us, father and son, are not as capable as Warnia? ?

Tianming gritted his teeth and said: "Father, according to our Chinese custom, the position of the head of the family has always been passed on from male to male. If you hand over the position of head of the family to Warnia, then you will surely become the laughingstock of the upper class. ."

“Oh?” Mr. Song asked indifferently: “The guests here today are mostly high-class people. Why didn’t I see them mocking my decision?”

Tianming made a strong argument and said: “That’s because they are all guests, so how can you be embarrassed, and they laugh at the host’s decision in public?”

Mr. Song smiled and said seriously: “Tianming, I know your thoughts. I give Warnia the position of Patriarch. You must be unconvinced in your heart, but I still said that. It doesn’t matter who is the Patriarch. , The important thing is who can help the Song family make more money!”

“Warnia has been involved in family operations for a long time, but her achievements are obvious to all!”

“Don’t say anything else, if it weren’t for Warnia, how could we cooperate with Hong Kong Li Kacheng?”

“You have to know that Li Jiacheng and his two sons have at least 800 billion in assets, both overt and secretly. We are cooperating with them now, and there will be great improvement and progress in the future!”

“These are all brought by Warnia to the Song family!”

Grandpa Song said sentence after sentence, pointed at Marven, and said seriously: “Including Mr. Ye, our Song family is able to know Mr. Ye, and it is all due to Warnia! Tell me why Warnia can’t be the head of the Song family. ?”

Tianming was dumbfounded by Mr. Song’s questions. He also knew in his heart that Warnia was indeed strong in all aspects, stronger than his son, and even stronger than himself.

But even so, he couldn’t bear it, as Warnia became the Song family’s Patriarch.

He couldn’t help cursing in his heart: “You Warnia is just a girl movie. Do you really think you are a business woman?”

“If you want to be a strong woman, you can get out of the Song family and be your own strong woman outside. Don’t stand in my way in the Song family!”

Chapter 1214

When he thought of this, Tianming had already gritted his teeth, with murderous intent in his heart.

The Old Master Song seemed to have noticed the dissatisfaction in his elder son’s heart, so he looked at Marven and said respectfully: “Mr. Ye, the Old Master has an unsympathetic request. I hope you can agree to it.”

Marven smiled indifferently, and said, “Mr. Song please tell me.”

Mr. Song said: “I hope you can become the second heir to the Patriarch of the Song family. If there are any accidents to Warnia in the future? If Warnia does not leave any children, you will be at the helm of the Song family. If you agree, I can now make a promise that in the future 30% of the Song family's net profit will be owned by you, and it will be effective forever."

The reason for saying this is because Mr. Song is indeed worried that his eldest son's family will be disadvantageous to Warnia.

But he was unwilling to give up his plan because of this.

Mr. Song knew very well in his heart that the first thing the Song family wanted to achieve in the future was to let Warnia become the head of the family.

If Marven could become Warnia's husband and join the Song family, it would be perfect.

It doesn't matter even if Marven doesn't want to be married, as long as he and Warnia have a child, that child will have the blood of the Song family. Whether the surname is Song, it doesn't matter to him.

What's more, if Marven becomes his grandson-in-law, he himself can benefit infinitely in the future.

Until now, he has not put money interests first, but put his health and lifespan first.

So passing on the position of Patriarch to Warnia was just one of his plans.

He wanted Marven to be Warnia's husband.

Marven didn't know that Elder Song still had the idea of making him a grandson-in-law in his heart.

He just felt that when Mr. Song said so, he must be worried that Warnia would be disadvantaged in the future, so he wanted to bind himself to Warnia and let him ensure Warnia's safety.

After all, if you are the second heir of the Song family Patriarch, then it doesn't make sense for others to disadvantage Warnia, because even if you kill Warnia, you still have yourself.

What's more, even if someone in the Song family wants to covet the position of the Patriarch, he has to weigh whether he can provoke him.

Mr. Song is indeed very sincere, and he gave 30% of the income of the entire Song family at once, which is really a very big hand.

But Marven is not short of money, nor does he care about money.

What he cares about is Warnia's safety and future.

In Marven's heart, Warnia's status is second only to his wife Claire.

He didn't know exactly why, but thought that Warnia was really an impeccable woman.

Not only does he have a congenial relationship with her, but also have a better temper and acting style.

It is not an exaggeration to say that you are a confidant.

When he was drinking with Warnia, he also heard that Warnia confided to him that she knew her life experience was rather pitiful. As a girl from a wealthy family, she didn't even have the power to decide her future marriage.

So he also hoped that Warnia could become the head of the Song family.

In this way, no one can force her to do things she doesn't want to do in the future.

Marven said earnestly: "Master Song, don't worry, I will ensure Warnia's personal safety from now on."

Chapter 1215

At this time, Marven regarded Warnia as a good friend and was naturally willing to protect her personal safety.

And Tianming, Honor on the side, at this time, they had murderous intentions deep in their hearts.

The two of them, father and son, peeped at the position of Patriarch for many years. They couldn't accept anything. Warnia got this position.

However, both father and son knew very well. If they want to regain the position of the heir, it is bound to start a fierce battle.

Therefore, if this matter does not move, it will be done. If it does move, then victory must be ensured.

Warnia was undoubtedly the happiest, most pleasantly surprised and happiest person in this birthday party.

At this moment, deep in Warnia's heart, the gratitude and love for Marven reached a peak.

How could a smart woman like her not know Marven's intention to send her a rejuvenation pills?

Who can use Rejuvenation Pill? Of course it is an Old Master, and it is an Old Master.

She is only 26 years old this year, and it's useless to ask for this kind of rejuvenation pills. The only use is to give it to grandfather as a gift.

And grandpa was obsessed with Rejuvenation Pill, he should have seen Marven so easily gave him this Rejuvenation Pill, and then decided on the spot to pass on the position of Patriarch to him.

So in this matter, it can be said that Marven helped him a lot.

Warnia has now become the Patriarch of the Song family, so this birthday party feels even more grand.

At the end of the banquet, the servants of the Song family put out a huge birthday cake.

The birthday cake was filled with 26 candles. At the moment when the lights went out, Warnia stood alone in front of the candles, and the swaying candlelight reflected her beautiful face and glamorous things.

Warnia put her hands together on her chest, closed her eyes, and silently made her wish.

Afterwards, she opened her eyes and looked at Marven with an affectionate look.

At this moment, she felt that Marven was the sun and moon in her heart.

Marven didn't notice the look in Warnia's eyes.

When the lights went out, she was in the dark, so he quietly observed Tianming and Honor father and son with his superhuman vision.

At the moment when the lights went out, the father and son who had been pretending to be calm and forced to smile, their expressions became cold for a moment, and then became extremely sullen.

It was too difficult for them to hold back their hatred of Warnia in front of everyone.

So when the light were out, they couldn't help removing the disguise on their faces.

Then the lights came on and there was thunderous applause.

Warnia cut the birthday cake, and personally installed two copies, one to her grandfather, and the other to Marven.

After eating the cake, the birthday party is over.

This birthday party can be said to be a fun for the host and the guests.

The other Song family who wanted to understand had no opinion on Warnia's succession as the head of the family.

Only Tianming and Honor father and son were very gloomy in their hearts.

Paul, who was sitting at the other table, saw that the banquet was over, he stepped forward to Marven and respectfully said: "Mr. Ye, I'll take you back."

Chapter 1216

Marven was about to agree, but seeing the beautiful and moving Warnia suddenly appeared in front of the two, she said with a reddish face: "Paul, don't bother you to send Mr. Ye, I will drop him myself."

Paul is very smart, so when he saw this, he knew that Warnia must have loved Marven very much.

After all, today is her birthday and the first day she became the heir of the Song family, but after the banquet ended, she took the initiative to send Marven home.

The last person who should not come out to see the guests tonight is her birthday star.

What's more, there are so many people with good looks and faces today. She didn't send it to anyone, but only sent Marven alone, which is more than enough to see how much she values Marven in her heart.

So Paul said wittily: "And just when I remembered, I still have something to do. I didn't go along with Mr. Ye, so please ask Miss Warnia to help Mr. Ye!"

Warnia nodded and smiled: "Go ahead and take care of it, Mr. Ye is here to take care of me."

Marven smiled slightly: "Your grandpa asked me to take care of you, but now you have to take care of me."

Warnia rarely spit out her tongue playfully, and in a very gentle voice, she said shyly: "It's a rare opportunity to take care of Mr. Ye once. Mr. Ye, you must not refuse."

Marven nodded and said, "In this way, Miss Warnia will have to take a trip."

At this time, Tailai stepped forward to Marven, bowed respectfully, and said respectfully: "Mr. Ye, I have been eager to get the rejuvenate the pill for a long time, thank you for giving me this golden opportunity today!"

Marven smiled and said, "Mr. Li doesn't have to be so polite with me. You won the bidding for this Rejuvenation Pill. Of course, you don't have to thank me."

Tailai still arched his body and said respectfully: "Welcome to Mr. Ye, come to Haicheng another day to gather, and we must give Mr. Ye a chance to entertain wholeheartedly next time."

Marven nodded and said, "If there is a chance in the future, I will go."

After that, he asked Tailai: "By the way, President Tailai, my good brother Zhao Hao, is he working as an assistant for you now? Is he here today?"

Tailai nodded and said, "Old Zhao is now my full-time driver. This person is very practical and reliable. Thank you Mr. Ye for introducing me to such a reliable person!"

Tailai is worthy of being the richest man in Haicheng, and his speech is very technical.

In fact, he promoted Zhao Hao, who had a monthly salary of only a few thousand, to become his assistant, and had an annual salary of 2 million, which in itself sold Marven's face.

However, he did not dare to take credit for it in front of Marven.

So he, in turn, said that Marven introduced himself to a reliable person, and he would like to thank Marven again, which shows that this person has a high EQ.

As soon as Marven heard that the good brother came here today, he hurriedly asked, "Where is Zhao Hao?"

Li Tailai said, "The Song family arranged a banquet for the driver. He is in the side hall. He should have been waiting for me in the car by now."

Marven gave a hum, and said, "Just come out with me, and by the way, I also say hello to Zhao Hao."

At this time, Zhao Hao has completely lost the appearance of the failed rag.

He was wearing a very decent high-end suit and Wang gloves, sitting in Tailai's customized limited edition Rolls Royce.

Seeing Tailai walked out of the villa, he hurriedly got out of the car, opened the rear door, and prepared to welcome Tailai into the car.

At this moment, he suddenly saw his good brother Marven walking beside his boss.

His eyes were instantly overjoyed.

These days, Zhao Hao has always been very grateful to Marven, always looking for an opportunity to thank Marven, but because he has to accompany Tailai every day, he has no chance to come to Wrester again.

Now he didn't expect to see a good brother here.

Chapter 1217

Zhao Hao was full of excitement and came to Marven excitedly. He was about to say hello, but suddenly realized that he is now Tailai's driver, so he can't be so rude.

So he hurriedly put away the excitement on his face, and said respectfully to his boss: "Mr. Li!"

Tailai patted him on the shoulder and said with a smile: "Zhao Hao, you don't need to be so polite in front of me. You are Mr. Ye's brother, and that is my brother. Although I am many years older than you, We can also pay after year-end!"

Zhao Hao nodded quickly, flattered.

At this time, Marven smiled and asked him: "How about a rat, do you still adapt to the new job during this period of time?"

Zhao Hao said with gratitude, "Marven, my good brother, I really don't know how to thank you! Without you, how can I be Zhao Hao today! You are the noble person in my life!"

Marven smiled slightly and said: "Everyone will meet a noble person in their life. You think I am your noble person, but I still think that Aunt Lena is the noble person of both of us."

“Everything is actually karma. You and I have done good deeds in the last life, so in this life, a good person like Aunt Lena rescued us and gave us a home.”

“Maybe you did more good things in your previous life than me, so you met me again in this life and gave you a chance to change your life. In the future, all of this may have been destined, so you have to thank yourself even more. It’s you yourself.”

Marven suddenly talked about the topic so grandly, the others couldn’t keep up with the rhythm.

Warnia looked at Marven, her eyes sparkling with radiance, she carefully savored what Marven had just said, and suddenly thought, did she save the galaxy in her previous life, so this life will have a chance to meet Mr. Ye?

Thinking of this, she couldn’t help feeling a little lost in her heart.

Because she felt that if she had saved the galaxy in her previous life, then Mr. Ye’s wife, Claire, wouldn’t it have saved the entire universe in her previous life?

Zhao Hao was moved by Marven’s words.

This is a good brother who grew up with him since childhood. Even though he helped him so much, he didn’t feel that he really owed him anything. Instead, he traced everything back to his previous life.

Although my life in the past two decades was poor, there is such a man among the brothers of the dragon and the phoenix, and the hardship of the past two decades is not in vain.

At this time, Marven checked the time and said to Zhao Hao: “Friend, President Tailai, there is still something tonight, so you should drive President Tailai back first. When there is a chance in the future, I will come to Haicheng or you will come to Wrestvel. , Let us brothers get together again.”

When Tailai heard this, he waved his hand and said, “Mr. Ye, there is nothing wrong tonight, you and Zhao Hao will continue to talk about the past, don’t worry about me!”

Marven smiled slightly and said seriously: “Have you forgotten the rejuvenating pill you just bought? Hurry back, take a good bath and take the medicine, sleep well, wake up tomorrow morning, you will find that something happened to you, a rebirth, a great change.”

Tailai immediately became excited!

The rejuvenating pill was always talking, and it was placed close to the body in the inner pocket of the suit.

He always wanted to find an opportunity to quickly eat this Rejuvenating Pill, but he felt that today was on the Song family’s site, and it was also the birthday party of Warnia, the eldest of the Song family. If he would serve the Rejuvenating Pill on the spot. That’s overwhelming.

That’s why he has been enduring preparations to return to his villa in Wrestvel, and then quickly take this rejuvenating pill.

Hearing what Marven said, he clasped his fists in gratitude and said, "Mr. Ye is able to consider Li so much, and I am grateful! That being the case, then I will leave today!"

Marven nodded, hugged gently with his good brother, and watched the two get into the car and leave.

Chapter 1218

Warnia said softly at this moment: "Mr. Ye, let's go too."

"Okay, then."

Warnia drove Marven out of the Song family villa in her red Bentley.

Warnia's heartbeat accelerated at this time, and she had never been so nervous in front of Marven like now.

The atmosphere in the car was a little silent for a while, so Warnia hurriedly looked for a topic and said, "Mr. Ye, thank you so much today. I really didn't expect that you would give me such an expensive gift as Rejuvenating miracle."

Marven smiled slightly and said: "I'm telling you that the reason why I gave you the Rejuvenation Pill is to give you an opportunity to borrow flowers to offer Buddha. With this Rejuvenation Pill, Mr. Song can live to be at least a hundred years old. He must feel special. You want the pill that I gave you, but Mr. Song himself is a person who rewards and penalizes clearly, he is sentimental and righteous, so once he really wants your rejuvenation pill, he will definitely give you a great return. ."

Warnia nodded moved: "Mr. Ye, you are all for Warnia's sake. Warnia is really grateful. In this life, if Mr. Ye has any requirements for Warnia, as long as Mr. Ye has a word, Warnia would not dare to say No. No way!"

Marven smiled and said, "I don't have any requirements for you, you just need to take care of yourself from now on."

After speaking, Marven said again: "I didn't expect that Elder Song would be so simple. At this birthday party, he passed the position of Patriarch to you directly. I originally thought he might be soft in the future. It'd solve slowly."

"Now he suddenly announced that this will definitely be a very big blow to your uncle and your cousin, and it will even bring you a lot of hatred, so you must be very careful in your future actions, be careful and cautious. "

Warnia said earnestly: "Mr. Ye, don't worry, I understand all that you said."

Marven sighed softly and said, "It may be the Rejuvenation Pill, which is too attractive to the Old Master. Therefore, the Old Master may not think about this matter. What I am worried about is your personal safety in the future. If someone in the Song family is dissatisfied with your inheritance as Patriarch, then they are likely to be against you.”

Warnia smiled sweetly and said, “Thank you, Mr. Ye, for your reminder. Don’t forget, I also have a magical medicine that you gave me at the beginning. Isn’t that magical medicine that has a life-saving effect at critical times?”

Marven asked curiously: “Where did you put that medicine?”

Warnia blushed and said, “The medicine you gave...is always been...always...closed to my body...”

When it came to storing 4 words next to her, Warnia was already ashamed to not look at Marven.

Before, Warnia hid the pill in the car, but she thought it was too unsafe to put such a valuable thing in the car, so she has kept it close to her body ever since.

And because this is a gift from Marven to her, keeping it close to her will give her a feeling of being cared for by Marven.

Marven didn’t notice the girlish shyness on Warnia’s face.

He just faintly worried about Warnia’s safety from the bottom of his heart.

So he opened his mouth and said: “By the way, you can help me find a good piece of Wang jade from Jiqingtang another day.”

“Wang jade?” Warnia hurriedly asked, “Mr. Ye, what kind of Wang jade do you want?”

Marven said calmly: “The whitest, purest, and impurity-free Wang jade, I will make you a talisman by then, and it will keep you safe by wearing it next to your body.”

Chapter 1219

Warnia was very excited when she heard that Marven was going to make a talisman for her.

She didn’t know what Marven’s amulet was or what kind of effect it had.

But she knew that Marven wanted to make this thing for her, and he wanted to make it himself. The reason that Mr. Ye made it by himself was enough to be grateful.

So her eyes were red, and she said gratefully: “Mr. Ye, you are so kind to me, I don’t know how to repay you!”

When she said this, Warnia’s inner monologue was: “If it is possible, I really want to acquiesce by myself, to accompany Mr. Ye in this life, and to serve in front of you throughout this life, to repay you for the kindness.”

However, in this case, she will be embarrassed to say such a thing for a proud lady of the big family.

Marven was very indifferent to this.

Because he himself is a person who values love and righteousness and knows the gratitude.

Although Warnia is not his benefactor, she is his friend, and she is a trustworthy and heart-to-heart friend.

To such friends, he is naturally full of sincerity.

What's more, Marven always faintly felt that Warnia seemed to have a slightly different meaning to her from ordinary friends.

In Marven's heart, he admired Warnia's personality and Warnia's behavior style.

Moreover, he felt that Warnia's fate was similar to her own, both of whom were born well, but her parents died young.

But her life was a little better than her own, at least she didn't leave the family and fled to another country.

It was just because he admired Warnia's personality and cherished her love, so Marven wanted to take care of her a little more, and it was a natural feeling in his heart.

Warnia deliberately didn't drive the car fast, so that she would have more time to be alone in the car with him.

The Song's Villa and the Tomson where Marven lives are separated by a magnificent Yangtze River. So when Warnia drove the car near the River Bridge, she suddenly turned to look at Marven, her eyes full of expectation and said: "Mr. Ye, if you are not in a hurry to go home, can you accompany me to the riverside for a walk?"

Marven nodded and said: "Okay."

Warnia said with joy: "It's great. I know that there is a place that is very quiet and there are no people around. We can take a walk on the river beach and blow the wind."

With that, Warnia drove the car onto a small road along the river.

After the car drove out for a kilometer or two, she parked the car on the side of the road and said to Marven: "There is a road to go down here, let's get off here."

Marven nodded, opened the door and walked down.

The weather is getting colder now, but for him, it has no effect.

Warnia put on a furry coat, inside was the noble and elegant evening dress that she wore at the birthday party, and she also held a red Hermes handbag in her hand.

A cold wind hit her, and her long flowing hair danced with the wind, and a few strands of blue silk were blowing her face, looking quite charming.

There is no front or rear here, no people and no cars. Warnia took a deep breath against the wind, and said with a smile: "When I was young, I always liked to be by the river. When I grew up, I got busier and busier and I didn't have time."

With that, she said to Marven: "Mr. Ye, let's go down."

Chapter 1220

Marven responded and said, "Okay, but this staircase is a bit steep. Be careful when you descend."

Warnia shyly stretched out her soft hand and handed it to Marven, and said softly: "Mr. Ye, can you help me with your hand here? Otherwise, I'm afraid I might fall..."

In fact, she was not afraid of falling, but wanted to take this opportunity to get closer and closer to Marven.

Marven saw that this stone step was indeed very long and quite steep, extending from the bank to the river beach. Warnia, a girl, would really slip and fall, the consequences would be disastrous.

So he took Warnia's soft jade hand, led her to walk carefully, and walked down the stone steps.

At this time, the river beach was also empty, and occasionally a few ships with lights on the river passed by. The rumbling diesel engine made a loud noise, but it didn't feel very noisy on this empty river surface.

After arriving on the river beach, Marven let go of Warnia's hand, facing the cold wind on the surface of the river, smiling and saying, "This place is really good."

Warnia smiled slightly, stroked the blue silk between her ears, and said, "When I was young, I liked coming here the most. Back then, my father was busy with work, so my mother brought me here every day."

As she said, she sighed a little sadly, and said: "At that time, my mother would drive with me, park the car in the same place, and then walk down the same stone steps, just like you just now, so cautiously taking my hand."

Marven nodded lightly.

When he grew up in an orphanage, he often thought of his parents.

When they were young, they were not as strong as they are now. Whenever they think that they would hide under the covers or cry in the corner.

But after a long time, he gradually got used to it.

The hard life at the beginning made him understand a lot of precious truths.

For example, the deceased is dead, such as the sad things that happened in the past, let it pass quietly.

At this time, Warnia sighed: "I went to my parents to sweep the grave this morning. I couldn't believe it. They have been away for more than ten years. Everything from my childhood is still vivid in my eyes. There is an illusion that I feel like I am still alive when I am eight or nine years old."

Marven laughed at himself and sighed softly: "You can still go to sweep the graves of your parents, I don't know where my parents are buried now."

"Huh?" Warnia asked in surprise: "Can't you find it? Or what happened back then?"

Marven smiled bitterly: "When my parents passed away, I was just eight years old. At that time, I couldn't take care of myself. I didn't even know where to solve my full meal. I simply didn't have the ability to handle their funeral affairs. By the time it has not been found."

After speaking, Marven said again: "However, their ashes may have been taken back by the grandfather's family, but I am not sure about the details."

Warnia couldn't help asking him: "Mr. Ye, do you still have relatives in this world?"

Marven nodded: "Yes, but I am not ready to see them yet."

Warnia nodded lightly, blinked her beautiful eyelashes, and said, "Mr. Ye, let's take a walk along the river."

"Okay." Marven readily agreed, and walked side by side along the river with Warnia.

Warnia smiled and said: "By the way, Mr. Ye, do you remember the first time we met?"

Marven smiled and said, "Of course, in Jiqingtang, my father-in-law accidentally broke one of your antique vases."

Warnia nodded and said: "At that time, I was shocked by the way you repaired the vase. I thought how could a young man master the lost repair skills. This person is too good I said to myself. However, I never dreamed of it at that time. That's actually just the tip of the iceberg, Mr. Ye, and I didn't expect that you would help me so much..."
