

The Amazing Son In-law chapter 1241-1250

Chapter 1241

Hearing what the Old Lady said, Viola was stunned, feeling very upset.

Someone really invested in the Xiao family? Are they crazy?

Just the few broken fish and shrimps of the Xiao family, how many can be on the table?

Relying on them, it is strange that the Xiao Group can do it!

Wouldn't they have money to burn?

Thinking of this, Viola immediately sneered and said: "You Old Lady, don't be too troublesome in front of me. As far as your family is, even if the Xiao Group reopens, it will definitely go bankrupt in a few days. What kind of stuff are in your family, just like Jay, what can you do? He won't burn the whole family out!"

Viola's words also touched the pain of the Old Mrs. Xiao.

Although the Xiao family now has Regnar's investment, it does not mean that the Xiao family can sit back and relax in the future.

After all, Regnar's money only helped the Xiao family solve the survival problem, but the Xiao Group really needs to be led by capable people if it really wants to develop.

However, the family really didn't have any talents.

Noah himself was mediocre, and Jay was a low-handed waste. He was very good at eating inside and out. It really made him find a way to help the company make some money. It was really difficult.

He has been in the Xiao Group for several years. Basically, a business has not been completed. It is just a waste of insufficient success and more failure.

As for Theresa, not to mention, after graduating from Pheasant University, she just wandered around every day.

When she first fell in love with Phil, in addition to spending money every day, after breaking up with Phil, she followed Fredmen and Barena. Not only did she have no ability to run a business, but her own reputation was completely stinking. she can't count on it.

However, the Old Mrs. Xiao herself is also getting older, and she can't do many things by herself, and she is also incapable of doing things. In this case, she feels more and more that her granddaughter, Avella, whom she has never waited for, is actually the best in the entire Xiao family. The most capable one.

Therefore, although she is here to mock Viola, she actually wants to use her crushing advantage to make Viola yield to herself again. Once Viola yields to her again, she will help her persuade Avella to return to the Xiao family group.

If Avella is willing to come back, she will definitely give her a position of director, so that she will lead the Group to come back to life and create greater glories.

Old Mrs. Xiao also learned about Avella's current situation before. Although her studio is not large, she has a lot of orders.

The Emgrand Group gave her many design orders, and the Song family, the Wang family, and the Qin family also gave her many orders.

Avella is slowly working on these orders now. If she can be allowed to return to the Xiao Group, won't she be able to bring them back too?

Thinking of this, the Old Mrs. Xiao resisted her anger and said to Viola: "Viola, we mother-in-law and daughter-in-law, we don't have any deep hatred, why should you bite on us? In my opinion, we might as well let go of our prejudices. Cooperation, what do you say?"

Viola said annoyedly: "Dead old woman, you don't give me ecstasy here, we don't have deep hatred? You forgot how my leg was broken by you? You old thing wait for me, sooner or later I want to break both of your legs!"

Old Mrs. Xiao pointed to the newly bought Bentley Continental and said seriously: "Viola, as long as your family is willing to come back, I will buy your family a Bentley exactly the same. What do you think?"

Chapter 1242

In the eyes of Mrs. Xiao, Viola loves vanity the most, and also loves taking advantage. If she really matches their home with a Bentley, she will definitely try to persuade Avella.

However, the Old Lady counts everything, but ignores another characteristic of Viola's humanity, that is: holding grudges!

Although Viola loves to take advantage of her, she herself is extremely vengeful.

Before that, she had been persuading Avella to return to the Xiao family Group because she had no grudges with the Old Lady, it was nothing more than a bit of awkwardness between the mother-in-law and daughter-in-law.

In front of money, a little awkwardness will naturally not have any effect on Viola.

However, things are different now!

Viola has a deep hatred for Mrs. Xiao in her heart!

Back in the detention center, she took Gena to torture Viola to death. Not only did she torture her in an unethical manner, she even broke her leg when she finally left. Viola hated the Old Lady early in her heart.

Therefore, even if the Old Lady really paired her with a Bentley, she couldn't dilute her hatred for the Old Lady.

What's more, Viola is now savvy. She knows that the person she can't offend is her son-in-law Marven. Otherwise, she might be driven out of this luxurious villa by him.

Now her husband wants to divorce her, and her daughter can't help her. Of course she can't offend Marven. Otherwise, if she really angers Marven and gets kicked out of the house, wouldn't she have to wander on the street?

What's more, Viola knows how cruel this dead old woman's heart is, and Viola knows better than anyone, if she is fooled by her, she might be deceived in the future.

Therefore, she has decided not to be fooled by the Old Lady again.

So, she raised her eyebrows and said mockingly: "The old thing, you have said that you have a broken Bentley, even one-tenth of son-in-law's car can't be compared, how can I look at this kind of garbage? Just your family It's shameless to think of this sh!t as a treasure if you haven't seen anything in the world, and lick your face to my door!"

Jay blurted out: "Viola, you don't know how to raise your head here. Grandma gives you a chance to lower your head and admit your mistakes. If you don't take it well, you're still bragging? If you miss this opportunity, you won't even cry later! "

Viola smiled and said: "You don't know who produced the small wild species, and said that I am bragging? Wait, I will show you what a real luxury car is now!"

After speaking, Viola immediately took out the remote control key of the main door and pressed the open button.

In order to facilitate the owner's self-driving in and out of the villas of Tomson, the villas are equipped with remote electric gates, so that the owners can directly use the key to remotely switch the gates and operate the gates without getting off the car.

As soon as Viola pressed the key, the opposite door began to open slowly, and the two top supercars directly facing the door were exposed.

At this moment, Marven was sitting in that Aston Martin, and he had just explained to Avella the operation process of this supercar in detail, and was about to take her out for a lap.

So, he pressed the red button to start the engine, and immediately after that, the 7.3-liter v12 engine exploded like 12 wildly roaring beasts.

Old Mrs. Xiao and the other Xiao family members were all startled by the loud noise that suddenly came out of the yard.

When everyone looked intently, they saw that a supercar with a fierce face like a beast had been launched, slowly approaching the open door!

Chapter 1243

Marven wanted to take his wife out for a stroll, but he didn't expect that he really wanted to use the key to open the door remotely, and the door opened by itself.

He didn't know that this was Viola's contribution, and he was wondering when he saw a black car parked at the door, and there was an Old Lady standing beside the car.

A closer look revealed that the Old Lady turned out to be Avella's grandmother!

Avella was also very surprised, not understanding why grandma was at her door.

Marven could see that there was a car next to the Old Lady, a Bentley Continental.

He couldn't help being surprised, how could the Xiao family have money to buy a Bentley? Is it from Regnar? This grandson is really willing to work hard to disgust him.

At this time, Jay, who was sitting in the car, saw an Aston Martin driving out of the courtyard of Marven's villa, and he was shocked to speak!

A few seconds later, Jay said with an unhappy expression: "d*mn, Marven, the b@stard, can actually drive an Aston Martin. How can this car cost three or four million? It's not worse than our Bentley."

When Theresa was with Phil, the young master of the Wang family, she often heard Phil talk about various super sports cars, so she recognized this car as the famous Aston Martin one77 at a glance!

So she hurriedly said: "Brother, this Aston Martin is not an ordinary Aston Martin, this is Aston Martin's most expensive one77, and it costs tens of millions!"

"What is it?!" Jay blurted out subconsciously as if he was struck by lightning, "You said this car is an Aston Martin one77?"

Theresa nodded.

Most people can only recognize the distinctive shark face when looking at Aston Martin, but there are specific differences between each Aston Martin, and most people cannot see it from the front face of the car.

Unlike Mercedes-Benz, the cheapest Mercedes-Benz is only more than 200,000, but the most expensive Mercedes-Benz needs to be several million or even higher. But looking at the front face of Mercedes-Benz, it is difficult for anyone to see this car at a glance. What model is it.

Theresa doesn't know much about cars, but she has passively accepted some knowledge about super sports cars.

After all, she has been with Phil for several years. The second young master of the rich family likes to study sports cars as his favorite hobby, so Theresa can be said to be more proficient in sports cars.

When Jay heard that this Aston Martin one77 was worth tens of millions, he felt sore and hated.

d*mn, he thought that by buying a Bentley Continental, I would be able to take a good look at Marven's family, but he didn't expect Marven to come out with a sports car worth tens of millions...

At this time, Jay saw a sports car parked in the yard. He recognized the sports car brand that all boys dream of, exclaimed, and blurted out: "f*ck! Isn't the one next to it is a Bugatti, a Bugatti?! Bugatti at least more than 20 million, right?"

Theresa took a look and said with a complicated expression: "Brother, that car is a limited edition co-produced by Bugatti and Hermes, and the price is more than 50 million."

"f*ck!"

Chapter 1244

Jay only felt as if he had suffered heavy blows one after another.

He was stunned and said, "How did Marven get such an expensive car, that smelly rug? And even if it is one, he actually has two!"

Noah's face was also ugly: "It's probably that Marven fcked out to cheat people again! I don't understand. Did Wrestvel's rich guys fck their brains and let the donkey kick it? How come they all believe so. Marven, this smelly rag?!"

Jay was also very uncomfortable, and said angrily: "I want to know too! d*mn, I've been waiting for Marven this b@stard to thunder, but he is still alive now."

Theresa's eyes were red, and she said aggrieved: "If it weren't for Marven, Phil and I would have been married, our family would not have been so miserable, and my mother would not have been sent to the black coal kiln to suffer so many crimes."

? Noah said angrily: "Don't mention that b*tch woman!"

At this moment, the Old Mrs. Xiao saw Marven and Avella driving a weird-looking car to the front, and she stepped to the side of the cab, looked at Marven in the car, and said arrogantly: What kind of awesome car did your family buy? It's just such a ragged thing. How does it look different from a Ford Mondeo? The captain of the Xiao Group's security team used to drive this car, isn't it only 200,000?"

Because Aston Martin was acquired by the Ford Group, the Mondeo launched by the Ford Group in recent years has applied the most classic shark face of Aston Martin models.

So Ford Mondeo is also called Aston Mondeo.

And the sales of Ford Mondeo are pretty good, you can see it everywhere on the street.

But Aston Martin is a top sports car brand, in fact, the exposure to the people is very low, so over time, most people are more familiar with the Ford Mondeo car, and even appear like Mrs. Xiao, who mistakenly put Aspen Martin, recognizes Mondeo's situation.

Marven heard her say this, and didn't bother to be familiar with her, so he said to her: "Don't care whether my car is 200,000 or 100,000. You are blocking the door of my house now. Move the car quickly I want to get out. "

Viola on the terrace upstairs looked at Mrs. Xiao, sneered and said: "Your old thing is really not long-eyed, what kind of Ford Mondeo is this, it's called Aston Martin, and you don't even know this. A face comes out to show off."

Old Mrs. Xiao looked up at Viola and yelled, "Ah your mother, Ding, I have been here in heavy winds and waves for so many years. What good car I have never seen? I don't believe that such a small car can be more expensive than my Bentley! "

Although Jay usually likes to pretend to be coerced the most, but at this time he also knows that not only does it make no sense to pretend to be coerced in this way, it is self-defeating.

So he hurriedly pushed the door and got out of the car, helped the Old Lady, and whispered in her ear: "Grandma, let's go home quickly."

"Go home? What home?" The Old Mrs. Xiao coldly snorted, "Today is a good day for the rebirth of our Xiao family, and a big day for the re-emergence of our Xiao Group. I want this family to see clearly, don't feel that we live now. After a Tomson first-class villa, I am an adult. Compared to us, they are still far behind! Our family now runs a Bentley, how about them? Even a BMW they can't afford to open such a small one. There's a car, and there are only two seats, what is enough for?"

Jay was embarrassed and said: "Grandma, his car is much more expensive than ours! This is a super sports car, worth tens of millions!"

"What?" Old Mrs. Xiao shivered all over, and blurted out: "It's just such a small thing, tens of millions? Is it made of gold?"

Jay's face was hot, and while pulling her into the car, he said in a low voice, "Not only is this one he drove for tens of millions, but the one parked in the yard is also tens of millions. The cars add up to almost 100 million."

Chapter 1245

When Mrs. Xiao heard that the two cars together estimated to exceed 100 million, her body shuddered.

Two cars add up to more than 100 million. What the h*ll is this concept? These two cars are almost worthy of a Tomson first-class villa.

It took only RMB 3 million for a car of her own, and she already felt it was incredible. According to this, Marven's car had more than 30 cars.

The Old Lady feels uncomfortable.

She thought she was here to humiliate others, but she didn't expect it to be self-humiliating.

The point is that someone really spends so much money on such an expensive car, isn't it?

A car made of pure gold is only at this price, right?

Old Mrs. Xiao was indignant, and Jay, who was on the side, was afraid that she would be boring again, and quickly helped her to walk back to the Bentley.

Viola stood on the terrace with a sneer and said: "Oh, Old woman, why are you not arrogant? Why are you so frustrated? It's not you who sits on a Bentley and sneer?"

Old Mrs. Xiao turned her back to Viola, feeling like a man on her back.

She didn't need to look back to know how much ridicule and contempt Viola would have when looking at her eyes now.

This is really my own initiative to stretch my face to others and let others beat me.

If I knew this was the case, I must have avoided their home far away.

Why am I you here to touch this mold?

Moreover, for no apparent reason, the sl*t Viola broke a basin of cold water.

I was thinking about going home and changing my clothes, but suddenly a basin of cold water was poured down.

This basin of water not only poured the Old Mrs. Xiao very heartily, but also poured Jay into embarrassment.

To talk to the usual, Jay would definitely scold the other person, but this time, he really had no face to yell at Viola.

Afterwards, he got into the car in a panic, and drove away.

The Old Mrs. Xiao sat in the car and scolded her with anger.

Noah in the co-pilot was also depressed, and said, "This Viola is really disgusting. She always runs me over with Horiyah's thing. After today, don't know how she will change her law in the future. Running on us!"

Old Mrs. Xiao was also very upset. Originally, Regnar gave them the task to make Marven sick and uncomfortable, but she didn't expect that she would be run and calculated by Marven's family ever since they moved into Tomson villa. , Especially the last time she made dumplings with daffodils and almost lost half of life in it.

Theresa on the side couldn't help sighing: "Grandma, if we always can't get a bargain in front of the Marven family, will Mr. Wu lose confidence in us and drive us out?"

"Yes, grandma!" Jay also said hurriedly: "This villa is not ours. Moreover, Regnar invested the money of in our business. It is also conditional. He can ask us to return the money at any time. If we can't afford him, he will file a lawsuit and seal us up at that time, we will still go bankrupt, or we will have nothing."

Mrs. Xiao nodded very seriously.

She knew that her grandchildren were right. If she was unable to help Regnar's worries for a long time, then Regnar might give up on them.

Thinking of this, she gritted her teeth and said: "We still have to find a way to quickly frustrate Marven's spirit."

Noah asked, "Mom, do you have any good ideas?"

Chapter 1246

Old Mrs. Xiao shook her head.

In this situation, she really couldn't think of a good way.

Theresa said: "Grandma, or let's use the Xiao Group to suppress Avella's studio!"

"It doesn't make sense." The Old Mrs. Xiao said solemnly: "All the orders Avella got were from the Emgrand Group, the Wang Family, and the Qin Family. How can you suppress her?"

"This is also..."

Theresa was very annoyed.

She has been compared by Avella in various ways all the time. This made her feel full of hatred towards Avella in her heart.

Unexpectedly, the days of Avella and Marven, not only were there no thunderstorms, but they went over and over, which made her feel very uncomfortable.

When she thought that Marven's house had two top luxury cars that even Phil could only hope for, she hated Avella.

Why can she live such a good life?

And she is now a junior in Wrester's famous street?

At first, she was forced to follow Fredmen, and later she was thrown to Barena by Fredmen.

It was nothing more than with Barena, but when following Barena, instead of getting any benefit from him, she licked a whole row of urinals in the Brilliant Club with him. That incident completely discredited her in Wrestvel.

The current self is a laughingstock in Wrestvel, and don't know how many people have been poked on the backbone.

Theresa felt that all of this was given by her cousin Avella!

Therefore, she hoped to see Avella defeated more than anyone else.

So she suddenly had a vicious strategy in her heart, and she said, "Grandma, I have a good idea. If we can do it, Mr. Wu will be very pleased and may even give us a big reward."

"Oh?" Mrs. Xiao hurriedly asked, "What is the strategy? Hurry up and tell me!"

Theresa coldly said, "Isn't Marven the one who loves Avella the most? It seems that he and Avella have never been married, in other words, Avella should still be For this reason, if we set up a bureau to find someone to put Avella to sleep, and then make a video and upload it to the Internet, wouldn't Marven collapse? By then, Mr. Wu will definitely be very happy!"

Old Mrs. Xiao frowned and said, "The idea is a good one, but you have to think clearly that Marven is still very well-connected in Wrestvel. If we really do such a thing, he will definitely fight with us. Yes, he has a very good relationship with the Mr. Orvel on the road. In case of a murder order against our family, what life do we have to find anywhere?"

Noah also said with a look of horror: "This thing is absolutely impossible to do. Regnar must also know that Avella is Marven's fate. Why didn't he start with Avella? It must be because he is afraid that Marven is crazy. Find him in revenge!"

"You forgot, just because his brother-in-law abducted and sold children, Marven took his brother-in-law a dozen or so people to river. If someone provokes Avella, wouldn't it be copied by him?"

"Yeah!" Jay also panicked, and blurted out: "Theresa, your brain is pretty funny? If we really do this kind of thing, then we must be caught by river too!"

When Theresa heard this from her family, she was also full of fear.

She hated Avella too much just now, so she wanted to ruin her.

Just thinking of Marven's ferocious means made her back cold.

At this time, Noah suddenly said excitedly: "By the way, although we can't do anything to Avella, we can start with Viola!"

Chapter 1247

What Noah hates most is not Horiyah who cuckolded him, but Viola who insulted and hated him over and over again.

Thinking of the more than 20 green hats fluttering in the wind on Viola's balcony, Noah wanted to smash her body into pieces.

Those 20 green hats, every time they float in the wind, they are merciless lashes to him.

So he felt that if he wanted revenge, he would naturally start from Viola, which couldn't be more appropriate.

And most importantly, revenge on Viola will not arouse Marven's hatred.

Otherwise, if everyone started to attack Avella, it would be tantamount to touching Marven's inverse scales, and it would very likely cause a murderous disaster.

Even Ragnar didn't dare to attack Avella, so naturally his family couldn't cause that trouble.

Noah's proposal was immediately approved by the whole family.

During this period of time, Viola has always spared no effort to mock their family, and has deeply angered everyone. She finds a breakthrough from her, finds a way to fix her, and can also relieve the whole family.

Therefore, Jay hurriedly asked: "Dad, what is a good way, tell us quickly!"

Noah gritted his teeth and said: "Find an opportunity to ruin her, make her the laughingstock of the people of the whole country, and let her feel the feeling of being pierced by countless people!"

Speaking of this, Noah said again: "Also! It's better to get her a STD too!"

Jay said in surprise: "Dad! Are you going to do it yourself?"

When Noah heard this, he was furious and slapped him in the face. He cursed, "You f*ck me! The dog can't spit out ivory! Give me my hand? Just Viola? She deserves it too!"

In fact, both Viola and Horiyah are mature women with lingering charm.

However, these two charming women are in a bit miserable situation.

Needless to say, Horiyah had just miscarried and had a venereal disease that had not yet been cured. Now she was beaten by her husband and was lying in the hospital with her injuries and treated with venereal diseases.

Viola is also miserable now, with her broken leg still in plaster, and her two front teeth were broken again. How can she still have the original charm? No man was interested in it.

Jay slapped him, and said aggrievedly: "Dad, you said you wanted her to contract a venereal disease, and I thought you were going to do it yourself..."

Noah cursed: "Can't you find someone else to start?"

Jay said, "Who are you looking for?"

"don't know! Look for it, look for the young and strong one, preferably the one who is sick!"

Jay said awkwardly: "This is really not easy to find..."

Noah smacked his lips and said, "I'll find it, even if I can't find the sick, I have to find someone to take care of her!"

.....

Chapter 1248

The next day, Avella's high school classmates got married.

The couple drove a supercar at dawn and set off from Tomson to Wue County, a suburb of Wrestvel.

Wue County is about 60 kilometers away from the city center. Although it is a little far away, it is fortunate that there is a direct highway.

Avella's high school classmate lives in the suburbs of Wue County. When the two followed the navigation and came to the community where she lived, they discovered that it turned out to be an old community with a house age of at least 20 or 30 years.

All the houses in this community are no more than 6 stories, and the houses are built very densely. The green paint on the outside of the house is already mottled, revealing the color of cement.

The entrance of the community is very narrow, and there are relatively high speed bumps. In addition, you can see that the road occupation inside is very serious. It is not the garbage cans that occupy the road, or the tricycle bicycles, motorcycles or others. The dilapidated cars are parked against the road, so it is very narrow inside.

Marven drove the Bugatti in front, glanced at the entrance of the community, and called Avella and said, "My wife, the road conditions in this community are too complicated. I guess the chassis of our sports car is so Low, we can't drive in at all, or let's park the car and walk in."

Avella said, "Okay, stop first, and I will stop after you."

Marven leaned the car on the side of the road very well, and his wife Avella also parked the car behind him.

The two got off the cars, and passers-by in the early morning saw these two top luxury cars suddenly come to this economically depressed small county. They stopped and took pictures with their phones.

Marven didn't want to be too ostentatious, so he pulled Avella into the community.

Fortunately, the two came early, so there are not many passers-by now, otherwise, they will be surrounded by water.

It was only 7:40 in the morning. After Avella and Marven entered the community together, they couldn't help but sigh: "I visited her house once when I was in high school, and her family lived here at that time. I think their family still lives here for so many years."

Marven looked at the dilapidated building and couldn't help sighing: "The house shouldn't be much bigger, right?"

Avella gave a hum, and said, "Their house is a two-bedroom house, which adds up to more than 60 square meters."

Marven asked curiously: "How do they live in a two-bedroom house with 4 people? Didn't you say that she has a younger brother?"

"Yes." Avella said: "The family can't afford a big house, so she and her brother lived in the same room since they were young. Later, she went to school in another place. When she graduated from college, her brother was also a big boy. It's impossible for two people to live in another room, so my classmate went to Wrester to work hard, and rented a house out there."

As she said, she sighed and said, "Isn't she going to get married today, she has to get married from her natal according to the rules, so she came here last night and waited for her to get married this morning."

Marven nodded lightly and said, "If someone in any community marries a girl, at least they will get a rainbow gate at the gate of the community, and write on it the joy and celebration of the daughter's going out of the pavilion, Didn't the classmates make it at home? I can't tell at all when I walked in. Today someone is going to get married."

Avella helplessly said: "Her mother's family didn't want her to marry because the other party didn't give the bride price, but she was pregnant? So there is no other way. I heard her say that her mother's family is very angry and will not wait. Seeing her, she also said that if she is married today, the whole family will not go there. If she wants to leave, let her go alone."

Marven couldn't help but said, "This is a bit too much. Why is it her own daughter. If she is going to marry, parents and younger brother can't even go there? It's too impersonal."

Avella said with some sympathy: "My classmate is very pitiful. Her parents have told her long ago that no matter who she marries, as long as she can give the family 300,000 gift money, it will be good for her brother to buy an apartment."

"But she insisted on marrying this person, and her husband's family didn't give her the gift money, so her parents and brother wanted her to knock off the child and find a man who could give the gift money."

“But she didn’t agree with her life and death, so her parents hated her very much, even her brother hated her very much. If we don’t come to help her today, I guess she can only get married by herself.”

Chapter 1249

Hearing this, Marven asked Avella curiously: “What? She got married today, did she inform you of an old classmate?”

“Yeah...” Avella said: “She wants me to help her, otherwise she can’t handle it alone, I originally wanted her to find a few old classmates to help her. , Even if it is to cheer up, but she is not willing.”

Marven said helplessly, “I guess she doesn’t want to lose face in front of so many students, it’s understandable.”

Avella nodded and said, “I have never seen her so poor. On such an important day of marriage, her maiden-in-law’s family will add obstacles to her...”

As she said, Avella couldn’t help sighing: “Marven, actually I really think it’s good to marry you. If I’m really asked by my family to marry young masters from rich people, don’t know what I will be bullied by my husband kind.”

Marven’s expression was a bit awkward.

His own wife doesn’t know yet, the rubbish husband she married is the young master of the top family in the country.

Seeing that his expression was a bit wrong, Avella thought he was angry, and explained hurriedly: “Marven, don’t think too much, I have no other meaning, just want to say that marrying you is fine!”

Marven nodded and smiled and asked her, “If someday I become the young master of a rich family, what will you do?”

Avella smiled and said, “What you said is not true, because you are an orphan and you cannot be the young master of a rich family.”

Marven said: “I’m just making an analogy, what if I am?”

Avella smiled and said, “If you really are the young master of some rich man, then I will divorce you.”

Marven asked in surprise, “Are you serious?”

Avella chuckled: “What about you, hurry up, this is the building, let’s go upstairs!”

Marven shook his head helplessly, and followed her into the old staircase unit.

What surprised him was that today was the day when her classmates gets married, and they all walked to the door of the unit. The family still didn’t even post a happy word. It seemed that they hadn’t made any preparations for a girl to marry.

The couple walked up the stairs together. When they reached the third floor, they heard someone arguing and yelling.

“You money loser, you are really prepared to marry their house if you don’t want a penny? If you just marry like this, I won’t be allowed to be stabbed to death by someone in the future?”

The speaker was a middle-aged woman, and her voice sounded very pungent, which matched Viola.

Chapter 1250

At this time, they heard a middle-aged man shout in a cold voice: “This grandson’s family is really deceiving people too much. The child is pregn@nt with them, and they don’t even give a penny as a gift. Are they not afraid to beat the child?”

A young man replied: “The talents of the Sun family are not afraid. They wish my sister beat the child, because they don’t look down on my sister at all. They always think that my sister is behind their home.”

After finishing speaking, he said again: “Sister, why do you have to marry that man? The b@stard’s family is so bad. You can ask about it in our community. Whose daughter did not give the betrothal gift? My good buddy’s sister, married to an ordinary family in the next county town, and the family gave 280,000 beauties. Now he has paid down payment to buy a house in the county. The down payment was made with his sister’s gift, and his sister returned 50,000 for the decoration. If you marry that man, what can I do in the future!”

“That’s right! I don’t think I’m too embarrassed by you. You have to think about it for your brother? Your brother is 22 this year. It’s when he was looking for a partner to get married. How many little girls do you choose now? There is no house. Get him ready, which girl is willing to have s3x with him?”

At this time, they heard a woman grievingly said: “I love Carden sincerely, and I will not spend his money when I am with him.”

“Really love each other?” The middle-aged woman sneered and sternly said: “I yuck! If the b@stard Carden really loves you, how could he treat you this way? He won’t give you a gift without a penny, or even get married. If he doesn’t come to pick you up, can’t let you go on your own for dozens of kilometers? Is this a f*cking human business?”

The young man yelled: “The dog Carden just doesn’t look down on us at all. He thinks our family is poor and can’t match their family, so he doesn’t put our family in his eyes, and he won’t come to pick up the bride on the wedding day. Son, this kind of thing, I haven’t heard of it when I grow up.”

After finishing speaking, he said again: “Sister! If you marry so silly today, my parents and I will lose face in whole County!”

The woman said: “You don’t need to talk any more, I have made up my mind. I must marry today. Even if I rent out by myself, I will marry him.”

After finishing speaking, she said again: “Magnificence is really not as bad as you think. He just can’t be his mother’s home. Everything in his family is his mother’s decision. He was really willing to give the bride price at first, but his mother Disagree, Carden also said that after he gets married, his finances will be separated from his mother. Then he will save more money and 300,000 to supply you, then you can buy a house for your brother!”

“Huh? Wait two years?” The middle-aged woman scolded: “Your brother is 22 this year, and we will wait two more days to reach 24. We are still thinking about holding our grandson next year. Is it because of him we have to go back Wait two years?”

“Furthermore, I don’t believe what the Carden said at all. He said that in two years, what if he doesn’t make up the money? By then, you will be married and have a child. You will be worthless. Second-hand. What will your dad and I take to buy a house for your brother?”

The young woman said, “Mom, I have been with Carden for a few years. I know what kind of person he is, and he will do it when he says it.”

“What the f*ck is magnificent.” The middle-aged woman said angrily: “I tell you Isabella, our family of three will never allow you to marry Carden. If you still recognize our family, you will have your child’s abortion and broke up with that Carden completely, but if you dare to leave this house today, the three of us will cut off all relations with you, and you will be cut off from our family from now on!”

The middle-aged man said coldly: “You have heard what your mother said. What your mother said is what your brother thinks. If you want to go out of this door today, you should make your own decisions. Go out and never come back again!”

The young woman cried and said, “Dad, mom, and Xiaofeng, are you trying to force me to death? Even if you don’t love me, you have to love the child in my stomach?”

The young man said, “Sister, do you want such a love? You are only two months pregn@nt. What kind of child is in your belly? Isn’t it just a fertilized egg?”

When Avella heard this, she sighed, and said, “It is my high school classmates who are talking. It seems that their family does not want her to marry today...”

Marven nodded: “I heard it. Her younger brother is waiting for her gift money to buy a house. In his eyes, his sister is his cash cow. How could he just let her go in vain.”
