

The Amazing Son In-law chapter 1361-1370

Chapter 1361

When Yamamoto Kazuki heard the content of Marven's call, he asked nervously: "Could it be...isn't it that you are here to engrave?!"

Marven smiled and said, "What do you want? Let me engrave you? You deserve it too?"

After speaking, Marven laughed playfully and continued: "I am looking for a friend of mine this time. Although he has not gone to much school and has no elementary school education level, he can still write the words sick man in East Asia. At that time, I will let him try to engrave on your forehead as big as possible, so that you are satisfied!"

Yamamoto Kazuki was in a panic, what else he wanted to say. At this time, the staff of the organizing committee ran over and said to Nanako and Aoxue: "Two contestants, the competition has already started, and your two opponents are already there. Waiting on the ring, please hurry up and go to the ring to participate in the competition. If you don't arrive at the match within 10 minutes, we will consider it as an automatic abstention."

Aoxue recovered from the shock, looked at Marven, and asked him, "Master Ye, do I go by myself, or are you with me?"

Marven smiled and said, "I came here today to watch your game. Of course I will go with you."

Aoxue looked at Kazuki Yamamoto lying on the ground, and asked him in a low voice, "Master Kazuki, what should I do about the things here?"

Marven smiled and said: "Don't worry about him, let him lie down here, forgive him for not being able to escape from my palm."

After speaking, Marven stretched out his hand and patted Aoxue's back gently, and exhorted: "You must play well in the game later, don't let me down."

Aoxue hurriedly nodded: "Teacher Ye, don't worry, I will definitely work hard!"

Marven was not there either, Yamamoto Kazuki lying on the ground, and the crying red-eyed Nanako beside him, turned around and walked out of the rest area with Aoxue to the competition arena.

Nanako was guarding Kazuki Yamamoto at this time, and asked with concern: "Master.. I will contact an ambulance to take you to the hospital now!"

Yamamoto Kazuki waved his hand hurriedly: "The game is about to start, you hurry up to participate in the game, don't worry about me, don't delay your game because of me."

Jiro hurriedly said: "Yes, Nanako, if you don't go to the competition, you may be considered abstaining. In that case, you will lose the chance to win the championship."

Nanako said eagerly: “But I can’t leave Master here alone, he can’t move all over now!”.

Yamamoto Kazuki blurted out: “Nanako, don’t worry about me, this game is very important to you, you must win the championship!”

“But what do you do, Master....”

Just when Nanako didn’t know what to do, Jiro hurriedly said: “Miss Nanako, you go to the game tonight. Leave Mr. Yamamoto to me. I will take him to the hospital to make sure he gets the best treatment!”

Nanako asked imploringly: “Mr. Kobayashi, can you please take Master back to Japan now! Don’t let Master Ye engrave on the forehead just now!”

“What?!” When he heard this, Jiro turned pale with fright: “Miss Nanako, do you want me to sneak Mr. Yamamoto back to Japan?”

“Yes!” Nanako gritted her teeth and said, “In any case, I can’t let Master suffer such insults. Even if it is a name that cannot be defeated on the back, I can’t let them write on Master’s forehead!”

After speaking, she looked at Jiro and asked earnestly: “Mr. Kobayashi, please!”

When Yamamoto Kazuki heard this, he immediately had a strong impulse in his heart!

Taking advantage of Marven’s absence, run quickly to avoid being humiliated!

Even if he will never come to Wrestvel again, not come to China, or be a man in Japan, it is much better than returning to Japan with the words sick man of East Asia engraved on his forehead for the rest of my life!

Chapter 1362

Thinking of this, he immediately looked at Jiro with eyes full of expectation and pleading, and said: “Mr. Kobayashi... this time I ask you to help the Old Master...”

Jiro looked very embarrassed.

If Nanako is asking him to do things, he will certainly go all out to win her favor.

However, he even let himself secretly send Yamamoto Kazuki back to Japan from under Marven’s nose!

This... isn’t this killing own self!

They don’t know how terrifying Marven is, or how cruel Marven’s style is, but they know it clearly!

Back then, his eldest brother fell into Marven’s hands in Wrestvel!

At that time, the private jet of the Kobayashi family was at Wrestvel Airport. As long as the older brother got on the plane, he could escape Wrestvel and return to Tokyo.

But the result?

The plane did return to Tokyo, but his elder brother never returned.

Not only that, the Kobayashi family also lost nearly 2 billion USD on Marven.

The Kobayashi family has been in Japan for decades. When have they encountered such a evil star?

Therefore, even if he killed himself now, he would never dare to offend Marven!

Seeing Jiro's face full of embarrassment, Nanako kept silent and couldn't help but ask him: "Mr. Kobayashi, do you have anything unspeakable?"

Jiro sighed, and said frankly: "Miss Nanako, let me tell you, Mr. Marven's real name is Marven, I...I...I..."

Nanako asked, "Mr. Kobayashi, don't always be ambiguous, tell me what's going on!"

Jiro's face blushed, and he lowered his head and muttered: "I can't afford it..."

"what?!"

Nanako and Kazuki Yamamoto were surprised!

The two of them never dreamed that Jiro, who loves face so much, would frankly admit that he couldn't offend that Marven in front of them...

Looking at his expression, it seemed that Marven was very jealous and frightened!

Jiro can't take care of face at this time. He continued: "You two, the whole of China and even the whole world, the thing I dare not mess with is this Marven. I have investigated some of the glorious deeds of this guy and to be honest, this person is simply a devil!"

As he said, he took out his mobile phone and hurriedly turned on YouTube to find the original cross talk between Liu Guang and Liu Ming, and blurted out: "Look, this is not the first time he has engraved on someone's forehead! This father and son were also instructed by him to engrave these words on the foreheads of the father and son."

Nanako and Kazuki Yamamoto were both staring dumbfounded at the father and son who talked about cross talk in the video. They looked at the two people's foreheads, one with the poor hanging and the other with the poor hanging's father, that looked, absolutely tragic!

Jiro introduced with lingering fear on the side: "According to my investigation, this father and son angered Marven one after another. That's why Marven engraved these words. In addition, Marven has done a lot of evil. His crimes are simply overwhelming. If I really help Mr. Yamamoto escape from China today, let's not say whether the two of us can escape. Even if we escape, he will definitely get us back.. ...."

Chapter 1363

Seeing the cross talk between Liu Guang and Liu Ming, Nanako and Yamamoto Kazumu face were ashes.

Nanako finally understood, what exactly did Jiro mean when he said he could not provoke Marven.

This kind of evil star, most people are afraid that they can't afford to provoke him, and more importantly, it is still on their territory.

At this time, Nanako burst into tears, and blurted out: "Or I call my father, let him find a way!"

Jiro kindly persuaded: "Ms. Nanako, even if you call Mr. Ito, Mr. Ito can't do anything about it. Even if Mr. Ito set off immediately, flying from Tokyo to Wrestvel, the journey will take at least two or three hours, but at most. In half an hour, Marven's people may be here, and he has no choice at all..."

Although the Ito family is very powerful in Japan, their influence in Wrestvel is not worth mentioning.

Not to mention Nanako, even if her father Ito Yuhiko came, he would be hacked to death by Orvel's young brothers.

This is the reason why the strong dragon does not crush the ground snake.

Even if he has tens of thousands of younger brothers in Japan, how many can be sent to Wrestvel?

Once the plane is ready, two or three hundred people would be seated. Once these two or three hundred people land, Marven doesn't even need to take action at all. Mr. Orvel's younger brother could chop them into meat sauce.

While talking, the staff came to reminder: "Miss Ito, there are still three minutes left. If you don't appear yet, the referee will announce that you have abstained."

Yamamoto Kazuki sighed and said, "It's nothing, this may be my fate, Nanako, you don't have to worry about me anymore, go to the competition."

Nanako cried and said, "Master you are like this, how can I participate in the competition!"

Yamamoto Kazuki said, "It's useless for you to guard me here. You can't make me stand up again, and you can't stop Marven from letting people engrave on my forehead. On the contrary, if you stay here, it will cause You are my favorite to get out of the game early, and I don't want you to retire without a fight!"

Jiro also persuaded her: "Miss Ito, you should go to the competition as soon as possible. If you win the competition, Mr. Yamamoto can still get some comfort."

"Yes!" Yamamoto Kazuki sternly said: "If you abstain from voting like this, then I will assume that I have never accepted you as an apprentice in my life!"

After hearing this, Nanako clenched her fists and gritted her teeth and said, "Master rest assured, I will definitely win!"

Having said that, she immediately stood up, walked quickly out of the rest area, and went straight to her ring.

At this moment, Aoxue's game had already started.

She played against Joanna from Brazil, the No. 3 seed of the entire game.

This Joanna is a tall woman with strong muscles. Although she is the third seed in this competition, the outside world is generally optimistic that she can beat the second seed in this competition and get the runner-up title.

Therefore, no one believes that Aoxue can beat this runner-up hot candidate.

However, the shocking scene appeared soon!

On the ring, as soon as Joanna came up, she launched a fierce attack on Aoxue!

She felt that Aoxue's strength was not to be feared at all. If she wanted to ensure enough physical strength and energy to cope with the subsequent matches, the best way was to defeat Aoxue in the shortest time!

Only in this way can she retain her physical strength to the greatest extent.

However, she never dreamed that Aoxue's physical agility was unexpectedly high.

She quickly punched her and counted her legs in a short period of time, but all these fierce and fast attacks were easily avoided by her.

When she didn't know why, Aoxue suddenly shot a vicious whip!

Because her body had just absorbed the magical medicine given by Marven, and Marven used the spirit energy to strengthen and reform it a bit.

Chapter 1364

Therefore, her whip is extremely fast and powerful!

Joanna didn't put Aoxue's whip leg in her eyes at all, because she knew Aoxue's strength and knew that Aoxue could not pose too much threat to her, so she subconsciously stretched out her hands to block it!

At the same time, she had already made a tactical plan deep in her heart.

After blocking Aoxue's leg with both hands, she immediately went straight out of her right foot, pedaling and attacking her right knee, as long as one hit succeeded, followed by a dragon swinging her left leg, should be able to knock Aoxue down!

However, what made her dream crash was that Aoxue's whip leg was wrapped in a terrifying power that Joanna had never seen before!

Joanna's palms and arms instantly felt a huge force hit, and immediately after a bang, the whole person flew out directly, directly out of the ring!

The audience was stunned!

No one thought that the little-known Aoxue would knock the No. 3 seed out of the ring with a single blow!

Moreover, Joanna was seriously injured at this time, lying on the ground outside the ring, tried several times but failed to get up.

Her coach hurriedly stepped forward, exchanged a few words with her, and then immediately said to the referee: "We give up!"

"Give up?!"

The scene was even more shocking!

This...Is this to admit defeat? !

No one had never seen such a fast fighting match before, Aoxue only made one move and the match was over.

Qin Gang was a little dazed.

His daughter has a few kilograms and a few taels. He, who is a father, knows nothing better. He thought that even if his daughter had Master's guidance today, it would be very difficult for her to win over this Joanna.

But he didn't expect her to win so easily.

Marven looked at her with a smile on his face, his expression didn't have any surprise or shock.

Because he had known for a long time that Aoxue was no longer the same.

Her current strength can completely crush Joanna, even the No. 1 seed, the favorite to win the championship, Nanako!

When he saw Nanako just now, Marven had probably seen her strength, there was nothing really powerful, just that the outside disciple had practiced to the extreme.

The former Aoxue is naturally far from her opponent, but now she is far from Aoxue's opponent!

At this moment, in another arena, Nanako has just begun her fierce battle!

Her luck is very good. The opponent who was assigned this time, not even the top five seeded players, is much weaker than her.

However, because she was thinking about the injury of her master, Yamamoto Kazuki, she was a little absent-minded, and her combat effectiveness was greatly weakened.

Moreover, Marven's figure appeared in her heart from time to time.

Although Marven injured her master and had to engrave on his forehead, which made her feel very angry, she still couldn't help thinking of Marven's crushing master's palm!

What exactly is it? !

Why is there such a powerful perverted strength? !

Chapter 1365

Just because she was thinking about things in her mind, Nanako was forced to retreat by her opponent.

At this moment, she has no previous pursuit of this game.

Because she has realized that she has been practicing martial arts for so many years, and in front of a real master, she can't even beat the opponent with a single palm.

This caused a devastating blow to her self-confidence.

In fact, whoever encounters this kind of thing will suffer a huge blow.

It was not only her own self-confidence but also her long-standing beliefs that were defeated.

For a long time, Nanako felt that she was at most 20 years away from the pinnacle of martial arts.

Twenty years later, she will definitely grow into the world's top martial arts master, and even become a martial arts master like her master Yamamoto Kazuki.

However, Marven just made her realize that the martial arts master in her mind is nothing more than an ant in front of a real master.

It turns out that for so many years, she has been sitting in a well and watching the sky.

Now, she realized that the real world of martial arts is far beyond her own.

Before, she thought that the world is nothing more than this world, and the farthest distance is just from this end of the earth to the other end of the earth.

But today she knew that there was actually a solar system, a galaxy, and even the entire vast universe outside of this earth.

At this moment, she couldn't help thinking about another question: how many years would it take for her to grow into a true top master like Marven.

Recalling the palm that Marven slapped, although her mentor was beaten into a waste, the impact of that palm on him at the level of martial arts was like the brilliance of a bright moon!

Thinking about it this way, her concentration became even more dispersed.

But her opponent took advantage of the situation and scored offensively.

In the first game, Nanako was upset and lost, and the audience was in an uproar.

No one thought that the number one seed player Nanako of this competition would actually lose to a little-known player in the first round of eight-to-four.

When the referee announced the end of the first game, the opponents cheered excitedly.

She never dreamed that she unexpectedly won the first game of the game she thought she would lose.

It seems that Nanako's state has some problems today, but this is her great opportunity!

When Nanako came to the rest area by the ring, her brain was still in a trance.

Winning or losing the game is no longer important because her beliefs have collapsed.

At this time, her assistant Koichi Tanaka said anxiously: "Miss, you can't be so negative! Now you have entered the knockout stage. If you lose this game, then this game will end here. That's it!"

Nanako smiled bitterly and murmured: "Tanaka, you have also seen the terrifying power of Mr. Marven. The gap between me and him is simply Firefly and the Sun. Do you know that there is an old saying, Firefly How can your light compete with Sun for glory."

As she said, she sighed slightly: "His strength is like a bright Sun in the sky, and I am just a firefly in the grass in the wild..."

Koichi Tanaka's expression was also very emotional.

Chapter 1366

He didn't know how he should persuade this eldest lady.

Because he can understand Missy's mood at this time.

The strength of the young man surnamed Ye is really terrifying. Kazuno Yamamoto is a Japanese national treasure master, but under his hands, he can't even hold a hand. If he was in place of the eldest lady, I am afraid at this moment he would have lost all fighting spirit.

Not to mention the small game in front of him, even the Olympics, it seems to have become bleak.

Even the so-called martial arts has become a joke.

He served Nanako for many years. At this time, he couldn't help but feel heartache for her. He couldn't help but said: "Miss, if you really lose faith in this game, then let's go back to Japan!"

Nanako hurriedly asked, "Tanaka, where is my master? How is he now?"

Hiroshi Tanaka stammered and said: "A few wicked men came just now. The man used a knife to carve the words Sick Man of East Asia on Mr. Yamamoto's forehead. Then Mr. Yamamoto wanted to bite his tongue and kill himself, but he failed. , Was taken to the hospital by Mr. Kobayashi."

"What?!" Nanako was shocked, tears burst into her eyes, and she blurted out: "I'm going to the hospital to see Master! Take me now!"

Hiroshi Tanaka nodded and said: "Then I will tell the referee team now, we will give up the game."

"Okay! Go!" Nanako was already impatient.

In her eyes, Yamamoto Kazuki was her mentor, and if he had any shortcomings, she would not be able to forgive herself in this life.

After all, he came to China with her for the game. If it were not for her, he would not meet Marven, let alone encounter these hardships.

Just as she was about to give up the game and rush to the hospital to take a look at her teacher, a calm voice suddenly sounded:

"Since you have participated in the competition, you must take it seriously. How can you give up halfway?"

Nanako followed the prestige and saw that Marven, who possessed terrifying power, was standing under the stage and looking at her expressionlessly.

Her heart suddenly panicked, she didn't expect Marven to watch her game, and she didn't understand why he would watch her game.

In fact, Aoxue had already won the game with one move, so she had already gone to the locker room to take a shower and change clothes.

Marven had nothing to do, so he planned to come to watch Nanako's game, but he didn't expect that Nanako would lose the first set.

However, he could also see that Nanako lost the first set because she was worried and could not concentrate on the game.

Originally, he also thought that Nanako could quickly adjust the state, and then start to get back from the second game.

But he didn't expect that Nanako was about to abandon the game.

Nanako looked at him, thinking of her mentor who was trying to bite his tongue and commit suicide, there was a burst of indignation, a burst of strong indignation in her heart!

She glared at Marven, and shouted: “You bad guy! Why do you want to force my mentor step by step? Do you really want him to die?”

Marven said blankly: “Miss, I see your face and temperament. You should be a lady who has been well-educated since childhood, not like an unreasonable person. Just now, between your master Yamamoto Kazuki and me. I see the conflict in your eyes all the way, I hope you ask yourself, was I forcing him in this whole thing?”

“If he wasn’t so proud and confident, not so arrogant, didn’t take the initiative to use the words sick man of East Asia to insult me, how can I be as angry as now?”

“We in China have an old saying that the right way in the world is the vicissitudes of life! Is it true that in the eyes of you, a lady, the feeling of master and apprentice is more important than the right way in the world?”

Chapter 1367

Facing Marven’s question, Nanako was speechless.

First, staring at Marven speechless, then she blushed and was ashamed.

In terms of emotion and reason, what Marven said was right, the whole thing, in the final analysis, was her master begging to be hammered, and Marven was not wrong.

The ashamed Nanako can only bow to Marven respectfully: “Mr. Marven, I am impulsive. Please forgive me. At the same time, please don’t be insightful with me.”

Marven nodded lightly.

To a certain extent, he also understands Nanako.

After all, everyone can be objective and fair when it’s not about themselves, but once they have personal interests, it is difficult to be absolutely objective.

It’s like when someone else’s child makes a mistake, I always hope that he can learn enough lessons, but when my child makes a mistake, I always hope that everyone can forgive him and give him another chance.

Yamamoto Kazuki is the mentor of Nanako. The traditional culture of Japan and China is separated by a strip of water. The people of both countries pay attention to respect for teachers. Therefore, Nanako’s respect and maintenance of Yamamoto Kazuki are also acceptable and understandable.

But this is only understandable.

Marven can understand her feelings, but she will never change any opinions or decisions because of her.

Therefore, he said in a flat tone: “Miss Ito, since he is also a participant in this competition, we must respect this competition. Don’t pass the competition or withdraw halfway. Otherwise, it will be disrespect for martial arts.”

Nanako said desperately: “Mr. Marven, your strength has made me truly aware of what real martial arts is. Compared with yours, the martial arts skills of mine are only at the level of beginners, even beginners. They are far from as good as they are even more shameless to continue participating in the competition in front of your Excellency...”

Marven shook his head: “Martial arts does not necessarily have to compete with others. It is not only a sport, but also a culture and spirit. Isn’t it true that people with poor strength are not qualified to learn martial arts? Because your admission level is much lower than mine, can you give up this game with peace of mind?”

Marven paused slightly, then said in a more serious tone, word by word: “If this is the case, then I can only say that you don’t love martial arts at all. What you love is nothing more than a ranking. When you think you are ranked high, you love martial arts; when you think you rank very low, you betrayed martial arts! After all, you are not a loyal martial artist at all!”

Nanako blurted out with a hasty expression: “No, it’s not like that! I love martial arts! I am also a loyal warrior! I’m just...I’m just...”

Marven asked sharply: “What are you just?!”

Nanako was so nervous by his question, and immediately lowered her head in ashamed manner, gave up and continued to defend herself, and whispered: “Mr. Marven, you are right...I was wrong... ...I shouldn’t give up the game at this time! I shouldn’t betray martial arts at this time!”

Marven said: “Have a good match, I also hope that Aoxue can meet you in the final.”

Nanako’s eyes suddenly became extremely determined, and she nodded earnestly and said: “I know Mr. Marven! Don’t worry, I will definitely fight to the final next! Discuss with your master!”

Marven waved his hand: “Aoxue is not my apprentice, she is my friend, or in a strict sense, she is my friend’s daughter. I am just temporarily serving as her instructor these few days to give her some advice.”

Nanako asked in surprise: “Mr. Marven, aren’t you a professional coach?”

Marven smiled and said, “Of course not, I’m just an unemployed vagrant without any occupation.”

“unemployed?”

Nanako’s face was filled with shock and incredibility.

Chapter 1368

Marven, who is incredibly powerful, turned out to be an unemployed vagrant with no career?

Just when she wanted to continue to ask for more information, the referee stepped up to the ring and said: "The countdown for the second game is 30 seconds!"

Marven said to Nanako: "You can concentrate on the game, I'm leaving now."

"Mr. Marven you want to go?"

Nanako suddenly felt a sense of loss in her heart.

Marven said at this time: "Oh, yes, Yamamoto Kazuki's bet has ended. After he is discharged from the hospital, he can leave Wrestvel freely."

After all, Marven didn't stay on the scene anymore, turned around and left without looking back.

Nanako observed him a little lost, Tanaka Hiroshi hurriedly urged her: "Miss, we are going to play! Are you still playing?"

"Compare! Of course it is better!"

Nanako suddenly wanted to regain all her fighting spirit. She said with firm eyes and a firm tone: "I will definitely advance to the finals and compete with Aoxue face to face! I will never let Mr. Marven look down on me!"

When Marven arrived outside the gymnasium, Qin Gang and Aoxue were already waiting here.

Seeing Marven coming out, Qin Gang hurried forward and said respectfully: "Master, I didn't expect Aoxue to make such a huge improvement under your guidance. I am really grateful!"

Marven said lightly: "Mr. Qin, you and me don't have to be so polite. Aoxue is not only your daughter, but also my friend. This little thing is something that friends should do."

Qin Gang couldn't help but look at Aoxue, and said with a sigh, "Aoxue! See how Master loves you! You must hear Master's words in the future and serve him wholeheartedly, understand?"

Aoxue said loudly without hesitation: "Don't worry, dad! I am willing to follow Master in this life, obey his instructions, and repay him his kindness wholeheartedly!"

Marven smiled and said: "You and me don't have to be so polite, practice hard, winning this competition and winning the championship is the best reward for me."

Aoxue said very seriously: "Master, I was not sure to win the championship, but now I am fully confident! Aoxue's current strength is more than several times stronger than before. All of this Relying on the magical medicine you gave Master, and your help to guide my power!"

Marven smiled: "If you talk to me so politely in the future, then I will consider staying away from you."

“Ah, don’t master Ye!”

Aoxue suddenly became anxious and said with red eyes, “Isn’t it OK if Aoxue won’t be so polite to you in the future? You must not alienate me...”

Marven nodded: “Remember what you said, don’t be so polite to me in the future.”

“Aoxue must remember!”

Aoxue hurriedly agreed, and Qin Gang on the side said, “Master, why don’t you come to the house for a light meal?”

Marven waved his hand: “It won’t be over today. There is still something going on at the pharma factory. I asked Liang to invite a spokesperson over to see him.”

Chapter 1369

In order to endorse JX Weisan, Sara took her assistant and bodyguard to Wrestrvel by plane.

Since Gu’s family is the third largest family in Orgeyon, the overall strength is very strong, so Sara has always taken her own private jet when she goes out.

On the one hand, it is easy and convenient, and the more important aspect is privacy.

A big star like her will cause a huge sensation no matter whether it appears in any city in the country.

If you want to keep a low profile, you must avoid the eyes and ears of the media paparazzi and fans.

So taking a private jet became her first choice when going out.

After the plane arrived in Wrestrvel, Liang personally went to greet and took Sara and her party to JX Pharmaceutical.

Originally, Liang planned to arrange for them to stay at the Shangri-La Hotel, take a break, and talk about work tomorrow.

However, Sara insisted on going directly to the JX Pharmaceutical.

This is the first time that Sara has endorsed drugs. She herself takes this seriously and is also very cautious.

Therefore, her first thought was to visit the production factory of this pharmaceutical company to see if it was a sufficiently formal company.

When Marven went to JX Pharmaceutical, Sara had already started to inspect the production line of JX Pharmaceutical under the leadership of Liang.

The predecessor of JX Pharmaceutical is Wei's Pharmaceuticals, which is a large-scale pharmaceutical company with a market value of several billions. Both the production line and the production process have reached the domestic first-class standards.

Coupled with the medicinal effects of JX Weisan, Sara had experienced it personally, so there was nothing to worry about.

Therefore, she should have made up her mind and was willing to be the image spokesperson for JX Weisan.

At this time, the discomfort caused by her spleen and stomach disorders has become more and more intense, and seeing the production line next to her, packs of JX Weisan were quickly packaged, so she asked Liang: "Mr. Liang, Can you give me some JX Weisan first? My spleen and stomach have not been very good for a while. After taking a pack of JX Weisan, it has changed significantly, but the effect of the medicine has passed, so... .."

Liang said earnestly: "Miss Sara, let's not tell you that our boss has strict requirements. Before Weisan is officially listed, we must strictly supervise and control it. So I can't do this. Or wait for him to come and see what he suggests."

August said dissatisfiedly: "I think your boss is too picky, right? Just a few packets of medicine. Is it necessary to be so petty?"

Liang hurriedly explained: "Ms. August, you have misunderstood. Our boss is not picking, but cautious. Before our drugs are officially launched, we must strictly guard against any leakage of confidential drugs. Now, Japan, South Korea and Asia's other pharmaceutical companies have been imitating and plagiarizing our ancient prescriptions, which invisibly brought great losses to traditional medicine."

Chapter 1370

August frowned and asked: "Does your boss have persecution delusions? It is now in the 21st century. The law on patents is very strict. As long as your medicines have been patented, there is no need to worry that others will steal your formula."

Liang shook his head and said: "Ms. August still doesn't know something. In the current pharmaceutical industry, only chemically synthesized drugs are truly protected by patents and can be implemented."

August asked: "Chemical synthesis drugs? What do you mean?"

Liang said: "Chemically synthesized drugs have strict and clear chemical molecular equations, and their chemical structure is also very stable. For example, the special drug for leukemia, Glenin, is chemically imatinated. Ni, this is one of the world's best-selling tumor specific drugs produced by Swiss Novartis. As long as Novartis has applied for a patent for this chemical equation, any other company will be regarded as long as it produces chemical products with the same composition as a committor of infringement."

After a pause, Liang said again: "However, traditional medicine itself is not a chemical product. It is a lot of different proprietary Chinese medicinal materials that are matched in specific proportions to achieve a cure effect. This formula is very effective. It is difficult to apply for a patent, and it is also difficult to be effectively protected by the patent law, and it is even difficult to sue others for infringement."

“For example, everyone knows Banlangen granules? Its main ingredients are Banlangen and sucrose. How do you apply for a patent for this formula? As long as the formula leaks, ordinary people can make it at home as long as they get the formula. , Pharmaceutical companies can't take these ordinary people to court, right?”

August said: “Even if ordinary people cannot sue for infringement, at least pharmaceutical companies can always sue for infringement, right?”

Liang shook his head and said, “Ms. August, what you think is too simple. First of all, it is difficult to apply for a patent for this kind of thing that exists in nature. For example, almost all of Asia uses rice as the staple food. Rice can be used to treat certain diseases, and then a pharmaceutical company will use the rice to apply for a patent. It is impossible for the International Patent Organization to pass it.”

“Furthermore, even if it is a complex formula, although it can be patented, the chances of being cracked by competitors are also very high. Take the antidampness prescription, as long as you make some adjustments on the original basis, such as the dosage ratio With a slight change, replacing individual medicines with other similar medicinal materials can perfectly avoid patents without affecting the efficacy of the medicine.”

“So, in the final analysis, the patent protection of Chinese patent medicines is very weak. If you want to avoid being infringed by others, the best way is to win people first and let consumers recognize our brand and medicines. In this way, even if competitors imitate and follow us With similar drugs, we can also seize the opportunity at the consumer level.”

“This is like Yunnan Baiyao. There are actually many kinds of medicines on the market that have similar effects to Yunnan Baiyao. Their ingredients and formulas are basically the same. But because Yunnan Baiyao was well-known earlier, and among the common people, there it has a very good mass base, so the foundation of Yunnan Baiyao will not be hurt by those imitation drugs.”

August curled her lips: “You said so much, I just want to ask you one question, is your prescription also obtained from ancient Chinese prescriptions? Does this mean that you are also plagiarizing the fruits of your ancestors?”

Liang shook his head: “I really don't know this.”

“You don't know?” August was even more puzzled, and asked him: “The medicine you produced yourself, where did the prescription come from, don't you know it yourself?”

Liang said seriously, “Our boss made the prescription.”

“Your boss?” August asked in surprise, “Is the boss a doctor?”

With infinite reverence on Liang's face, he said with emotion: “Our boss is a true dragon in the world!”

“Cut!” August said disdainfully: “Don't brag about it, what kind of real dragon in the world, do anyone dare to call these titles now?”
