

The Amazing Son In-law chapter 1391-1400

Chapter 1391

Thinking of the old things, Darren couldn't cry.

Marven's heart throbbed as he heard his crying.

Although many years have passed, Marven's heart is also extremely painful and resentful when he thinks that his parents died not by accident but by fate.

As a son of man, the hatred of parents is not shared!

Don't need Darren to say this hatred, he will definitely do his best to repay it!

Otherwise, it is really a waste of man!

So, his voice said indifferently: "steward Darren, don't worry about this. Marven swears to God that I will avenge my parents by myself! All those who participated in the murder of my parents back then counted as one. I won't let them go!"

"That's good!" Darren was very excited, but he said seriously: "Master you must not be impulsive about this matter. There are many clues behind this that I haven't sorted out yet, so I still think about it for a long time. Don't expose them early..."

Marven said, "I know, don't worry."

After speaking, Marven said again: "I have another question, I hope you answer it truthfully."

Darren said immediately, "Master just ask!"

Marven pondered for a moment and asked, "My wife, Avella, did you arrange it?"

Darren hurriedly said: "This is really not...I also know your wife's grandfather. I really didn't expect that he could meet you at the construction site where you work, knowing that he wanted to marry you to his granddaughter. At that time, although I knew that his granddaughter was not worthy of you, I did not stop him at that time, because I just wanted to protect your safety and did not want to interfere with your life."

Marven breathed a sigh of relief.

He knew that his childhood in the orphanage was Darren's arrangement, so he was afraid that he would meet Avella and it was his arrangement.

So he said to Darren: "steward Darren, come here first. I have an appointment tonight. You can help me sort out the clues you have these days. If I have the opportunity, I will talk to you in person."

"OK Master!"

Marven hung up the phone, only then realized that two lines of tears flowed unconsciously on his cheeks.

He only learned today that it turned out that more than ten years ago, his parents were murdered by bad men.

He only learned today that it turned out that more than ten years ago, the orphanage he lived in was completely arranged by Darren, in order to completely hide all his information.

The world today has undergone earth-shaking changes in his eyes, as if the whole world has become unfamiliar.

The last time he felt this way, it was the moment when he accidentally got the Nine Profound Heaven Scriptures;

And the last time he felt this way was when he was eight years old, when he learned of parents' death.

Just when he was lost, Liang called and said, "Master, when will you come? Do you want me to pick you up by car?"

"No need." Marven said: "I will pick up my wife now, and then I will pass. You will wait for me for a while."

After speaking, he hung up the phone and rode the small electric bike to Avella's studio.

Chapter 1392

At the same time, the office of the dean of the Wrestvel Welfare Institute.

Seeing Darren finished the call, the dean respectfully asked, "steward Darren, what should I do now?"

Darren sighed, and said, "Since the young master already knows, you don't need to stay in the orphanage anymore. In the future, you should return to the post of the Ye family. I will settle down for you. Over the years, thanks for your hard work!"

The dean immediately bowed and said: "steward Darren, the second son has been waiting for me as a mountain before his death. I will wait to serve Young Master, and I will die!"

Darren nodded and said, "You are all the people who have worked so hard to cultivate for many years. For more than ten years, condescending to be in a small orphanage has not only worked hard for you, but also felt wronged. Take a good rest during this time."

"When the young master inherits the Ye family one day, you will all be the servants of the young master, and then you will be loyal to the him!"

“You guys grew up watching the young master. He is kind, upright, and honest. If one day he can control the Ye family, I believe he will never treat you badly.”

The dean immediately nodded and said: “This is also because the young master has suffered a lot since childhood, so he has this precious quality. This quality in him is something I can’t see in all the rich second generations.”

Darren smiled slightly: “Therefore, it may not be a bad thing to let the young master suffer in the orphanage back then. The young master is the only son of the second son after all. Not less than the second son!”

After all, Darren waved his hand and said happily: “Okay, I’m going back to Orgeyon, You have a meeting these few days, and then hand over the orphanage to the relevant departments in Wrestvel. I will meet tomorrow. I’ll give you a sum of money. You will go back to meet your family first, and then find a comfortable resort to rest and rest.”

The dean bowed again: “Thank Darren butler!”

After speaking, he asked again: “By the way, steward Darren, what should Li do? She didn’t know anything before, but now she already knows a lot of inside information.”

Darren said: “She has taken care of young master for so many years, and she is not too young. It is time to retire and take care of her life. I have a manor in Canada, so I will give it to her for retirement. Don’t let her in the future and wait until Mr. successfully inherits the Ye family.”

The dean said: “Li also has an adopted daughter who also works in the orphanage. She is an orphan who grew up with the young master. She still doesn’t know anything about this. I’m afraid Li will not let her go.”

Darren sighed and said, “Talk to the girl, tell her something selectively, and then let her accompany her mother to Canada. There are many Chinese people there, and the language requirements are not high. The mother and daughter can start a new life quickly over there. I have investigated the girl’s background, she is very clean, and she likes the young master and will never do anything against him.”

“OK!”

This night, the Wrestvel Welfare Institute suddenly completed a major exchange of blood.

Everyone was muffled, packing their luggage and things, and the city staff also rushed over to take over with the original team.

No one knows why the management team of a welfare institution suddenly had to replace all the staff from the dean to the chef. Could it be that these people made any big mistakes?

But they couldn’t imagine that these people were like a disciplined army. They had already fought this protracted war, and now it was time to exit the battlefield in an orderly manner.

Although Aunt Li was very reluctant to give up, she also knew very well that before, she was the same as Marven and didn't know these things, but now she already knows some inside stories and knows that Marven's true identity belongs to the Ye family.

Therefore, she also knew that she couldn't stay here anymore.

Now that she know this information, she can't say she been dragged into the water, but at least she can't be alone.

Now that she has been brought into this group, she must obey the instructions of the Ye family.

As a result, she also made a decision to listen to the dean's order and go to Canada to recuperate temporarily.

As for Xiaofen, Aunt Li did not tell her the truth, but only told her that the great benevolent who had funded her medical treatment before, had also funded for her to go abroad for a period of recuperation, she had no relatives, so she hoped that Xiaofen could be with her.

Xiaofen treated Aunt Li as her biological mother, and naturally agreed without hesitation, so she also started packing up and preparing to go abroad with her.

Aunt Li thought, after she arrived in Canada, she would tell Xiaofen these things.

Chapter 1393

Marven rode his electric bike to his wife's studio. As soon as he walked in, Avella asked in surprise: "My husband, why are your eyes red?"

"Are they?"

Marven said, stretched out his hands and rubbed his eyes, and said with a smile: "The wind and sand on the road just now blew hard."

Avella said distressedly: "Don't always go out on an electric bike. You bought two cars for the family, but you ride an electric bike every day. I feel so sorry."

"It's okay." Marven smiled and said casually: "I like riding an electric bike, which is convenient, fast, simple, and environmentally friendly."

Avella smiled helplessly: "You, what you say from your mouth seems to be indifferent."

With that, she turned off her computer, stood up and said, "I just finished a case of the Emgrand Group today. Ms. Lori, is very happy to let the finances pay, or I'll buy you a car. This way you will also have mobility tools in the future."

"No need, if I really want to drive, I would have taken the two supercars from President Wang and Qin Gang long ago."

Seeing that he was not joking, Avella had no choice but to say: "Okay, let me know when you have enough of that electric bikes."

Marven said, "My wife, we have to go quickly. I have an appointment for a dinner tonight."

Avella asked in astonishment: "Who will you date tonight? You don't say anything, it's mysterious."

Marven smiled and said, "I have an appointment with a distinguished guest. You'll know when you arrive."

"Guest?" Avella asked puzzlingly, "Is it one of your feng shui customers again?"

Marven smiled and said, "Well, it needs to be kept secret for the time being. You will know when you follow me."

"Okay." Avella nodded and said, "Then I will follow you to eat dinner at night."

Afterwards, the couple left the studio and came to the parking lot. Marven put his foldable e-bike into the trunk of Avella's BMW car, and then the two drove to Shangri-La together.

At this moment, Liang is accompanying Sara and August to sit down and chat in the top luxury box.

Zak Chen heard that Liang said that Master would be hosting a banquet here today, and he had already made perfect preparations. He heard that the guests had arrived, so he came to the box himself.

After buckling the door and entering the box, Zak Chen was stunned.

He never dreamed that the person sitting in the box turned out to be Miss Sara from Orgeyon, the most popular female star in China, Sara Gu.

After all, Zak Chen is the spokesperson of the Ye family in Wrestvel, and can be regarded as the middle and high level of the Ye family's subordinates, so he knows the Orgeyon family very well and naturally knows the background of Sara.

Seeing that she was actually here, Zak Chen felt a thud in his heart.

Is she the one that the young master will entertain tonight?

Everyone in Orgeyon knows that Sara is the baby relative of his young master, and he also knows that Sara's family has been looking for the young master's whereabouts.

Looking at this posture, he should have found the young master.

However, the young master is obviously already married. Isn't this a bit embarrassing?

Chapter 1394

Being embarrassed, Sara looked at him with a dark face, and blurted out: "Mr. Zak Chen! Did you know that Marven was in Wrestvel?"

“Ah? Uh...this...” Zak Chen suddenly didn’t know how to answer, he couldn’t tell why.

Sara bit her little white teeth and said angrily: “You guy are too unreliable. I asked you about the whereabouts of Marven so many times, and you haven’t had a word of truth!”

Zak Chen said embarrassingly: “Miss Sara, you really misunderstood me. I just learned not long ago that the young master was in Wrestvel. I have been in Wrestvel for so long on behalf of the Ye family. I never heard of it before.”

August asked in surprise: “What the h*ll?! Sara, you said that Marven, President Ye, is the Marven Ye you’ve been looking for?”

Sara nodded, and said seriously: “That’s right! This bad guy made me find it hard to find him!”

August said in surprise: “Oh! That’s great! You finally found him, wouldn’t you be able to get married soon? I remember you always said that as long as you find your Marven, you will immediately quit the entertainment industry, then marry him and have children.”

Sara’s face turned red immediately, and she said shyly: “I...I thought...but...but that bad guy is married...”

“dmn!” August immediately exploded and blurted out: “What the hll is going on with this deflated calf named Ye? Didn’t he know he had a marriage contract? Didn’t he know that he had a beautiful fiancée, Have you not been looking for him? How dare he marry another woman, when he comes, you see, I won’t scold him! What a shameful man!”

Liang and Zak Chen looked at each other, their expressions were very embarrassing.

It was at this time that Liang learned about the relationship between Sara and his Master, and he was naturally shocked.

At this time, he just listened to Sara saying: “A lot, Marven’s wife will also come later, I promised that Marven will not reveal the relationship between the two of us at the dinner table, so you must not mess around then. speak carefully.”

Chapter 1395

“How can it be done!” August said indignantly: “When that b@stard wife is also here, you should seize the opportunity and directly expose the matter in front of his wife, so that his wife can realize it. I don’t believe it anymore. Which woman would dare to steal the husband from you, Sara!”

“Oh no!”

Sara said very solemnly: “I have promised Marven about this matter. If you dare to make me break my promise, I will not forgive you back!”

August blurted out: “Hey, Sara, are you stupid? This meal is the best opportunity for you to drive away his original partner. You must take it well, or you will regret it in the future!”

“You don’t come here!” Sara said seriously: “I am a person who always promises and speaks for words. You are not allowed to make trouble for me.”

“Okay, okay.” August said helplessly: “You have decided. Don’t regret it in the future.”

At this time, Marven and Avella had also arrived outside the box.

Before entering the door, Avella still asked him: “Who is the guest I want to meet? It’s so mysterious.”

Marven smiled and said, “Don’t worry, it is definitely one of the people you want to see most.”

“The person I want to meet the most?” Avella frowned slightly, “I can’t think of who I want to see the most now.”

Marven smiled: “You’ll know if you go in.”

With that, he knocked gently on the door, and then pushed the box door inward.

Avella saw at a glance, Sara, who was sitting facing the door of the luxurious box, was stunned at this moment!

“God! is it Sara? Is it really Sara?”

Chapter 1396

At this time, Avella had no intention of guarding against Sara, who was like a fairy.

In her eyes, Sara is the perfect display of contemporary women. A woman like her who is extremely good in all aspects has no mundane smoke and fire smell on her body.

Therefore, she had never thought that such a woman would be her potential rival in love.

Marven was also relieved at this time. He planned to quietly go to Orgeyon after Aoxue finished the finals, and quietly see Sara’s father Philip.

Seeing that Philip was not the goal, it was his real goal to cure his advanced pancreatic cancer.

He is a good brother of his father. For so many years, he has not only paid homage to his parents every New Year’s Day, but also has not relaxed for a moment, and has not given up on finding his whereabouts. This kindness must be repaid by himself.

It just so happened that he could also take this opportunity to meet Darren in Orgeyon and find him for more clues and information.

Therefore, it will take at least three to five days to go to Orgeyon.

To be away from home for three or five days, you can’t make your wife suspicious. The best excuse is to be invited by Sara to go to Orgeyon to show her feng shui at home.

Sara spoke out the invitation in front of his wife, so that the wife would no longer doubt.

Seeing Avella's willingness to agree, Sara nodded happily, and said with a smile: "I didn't expect Mrs. Ye to be so refreshing. I was worried that you will disagree."

Avella hurriedly said: "Ms. Sara, you can recognize my husband's ability. I am too happy to have time. How could I disagree. Just in case my husband is not doing well enough, please bear with me."

"How come!" Sara said with a smile: "I recognize Mr. Marven's abilities very much, and I believe that my father and my family are the same, so I would like to thank Mrs. Ye for fulfilling this matter!"

Avella was a little flattered, and hurriedly said, "Miss Sara, you are so polite."

Seeing that Sara kept using such ulterior motives to release some kind of signal in secret, Marven couldn't help feeling helpless and depressed.

Chapter 1397

He knew that this was what Sara said to him, and at the same time it was told to Avella cryptically, and it could even be understood that this was a demonstration of her to Avella in front of her.

However, he just couldn't do anything about it.

After all, all this is because he owe Sara, and also betrayed the marriage contract made by both parents in the past. I have no face to accuse her anyway.

Moreover, what made Marven even more depressed was that he could not simply refuse Sara like he refused Elsa.

Although Elsa liked him, he did not owe Elsa any love, but saved her life many times, so even if he rejected her straightforwardly every time, Marven would not have any psychological burden.

But Sara is different after all.

She is his baby relative. She has been looking for him, waiting for him and looking forward to him for so many years, but he has failed her. This kind of thing is his fault.

At this time, Avella, who was in the dark, mustered up the courage to say to Sara: "Miss Sara, I... can I take a photo with you?"

Sara readily agreed, and smiled and said, "Okay! Shoot now?"

Avella nodded busy: "If it is convenient for you, then shoot now!"

Sara nodded, took the initiative to move her chair, leaned closer to Avella, and said with a smile: "Mrs. Ye is so beautiful, it is still very stressful to take a photo with you."

"How come..." Avella said awkwardly: "I am under pressure. Miss Sara is not only beautiful, but also a top star. In front of you, I will inevitably feel embarrassed..."

Chapter 1398

Sara smiled slightly: "Come on, I'll be a little bit ahead, so that you can make your face smaller and better."

The two women took a selfie together like sisters.

After the filming, Avella held the phone and asked excitedly: "Miss Sara, I... can I post this photo to Moments?"

Avella herself is a woman without any vanity.

When Marven bought her a BMW car, she never posted it to Moments;

Marven organized her wedding in the Hanging Garden of Shangri-La, and she never posted it to Moments;

Marven took her to experience tens of millions of super sports cars, but she still hasn't posted to Moments;

Even if she lives in a top-notch mansion like Tomson, she still hasn't posted to Moments.

The only "show off" in the circle of friends was the vegetable garden built by her husband Marven overnight.

But this time, she really couldn't hold back.

After all, Sara is her favorite female celebrity and her idol. She can eat with her idols, and even take photos with her idols. How many times can she encounter this kind of thing in a lifetime?

Sara also nodded and smiled generously: "Of course, Mrs. Ye, please."

Avella got Sara's consent and immediately thanked her happily. Then she opened her WeChat account and posted the photo to her circle of friends.

The words she wrote to Moments is: "I never dreamed that I would have the opportunity to meet my idol and take a photo with her!"

This photo has been sent out, and it has received numerous likes and comments.

Avella's social circle has never left Wrestvel. For Wrestvel, a second-tier city, there are not many opportunities to meet first-tier stars.

Especially the super first-line top stars like Sara are extremely difficult to see.

Therefore, Avella's circle of friends has aroused the amazement and envy of countless people.

Many people even chatted with her privately, asking about the details of her meeting with Sara, such as where she is now, whether Sara is in Wrestvel, and can she help ask for a signed photo of Sara, etc.

Sara on the side smiled and said, “Mrs. Ye, this time I came to Wrestvel and didn’t let the outside world know, so if someone asks, you must not say that I am in Wrestvel.”

Avella nodded hurriedly: “I know Miss Sara, don’t worry, I will never reveal it!”

Sara nodded and said with a smile: “By the way, Mrs. Ye, or let’s add a WeChat friend as well. You can contact us directly on WeChat if you have anything in the future.”

“Add friends?!” Avella exclaimed: “You want to add my WeChat friends?”

Avella dared to believe her idol and took the initiative to add her WeChat friend. She hadn’t had this idea before. If she could add Sara as a friend, even if she had no time to take care of herself, she could often see her circle of friends and see her latest developments.

However, she later thought that after all, she and Sara are in a disparity in status. It is already a great fortune to have a meal together. How embarrassed to add someone else to WeChat friends?

But she never expected that Sara would take the initiative to add her as a friend, and be able to become a WeChat friend with an idol. This is something she would never dream of!

Chapter 1399

After Sara and Avella added their WeChat friends, they looked at Marven and said with a smile: “By the way, Master, let’s add a friend too.”

After that, she handed her WeChat QR code to Marven.

Marven had to take out his mobile phone, scan it, and added her as a friend.

Sara winked at him with a successful face, and then asked him sternly, “Master, when will you be able to leave for Orgeyon? Can you tell me about the time so I can prepare.”

Marven said: “Next week, but I still can’t decide the exact time.”

Sara nodded and smiled and said, “Master, then my father and I will be waiting for you in Orgeyon!”

Marven suddenly thought of what Sara had said before, saying that after arriving in Orgeyon and seeing her father, she watched her father not beat him up.

Hey, the more I think about it, the more shameless I am to see her father Philip.

Just when Marven was having headaches for Gu’s father and daughter, in the intensive care unit of Wrestvel First People’s Hospital, Nanako and her assistant Koichi Tanaka, as well as Jiro of the Kobayashi family, stood motionless and stood by Nanako. Both sides of the hospital bed of the coach and Kazuki Yamamoto.

Yamamoto Kazuki on the hospital bed looked extremely haggard.

The doctor had just performed a third full-body examination on him, and once again confirmed that his nervous system was severely injured and there was almost no possibility of recovery.

As for the bloody East Asian sick man on his forehead, the big characters. Still eye-catching.

Nanako hopes that the doctor can use gauze to cover Kazuki Yamamoto's forehead, so as not to further stimulate her teacher.

However, Yamamoto Kazuki firmly rejected the proposal.

The ugly characters that Mr. Orvel left on his forehead can be said to be the greatest shame in his life, but they are also the most profound lesson in his life.

Before Marven defeated him with a palm, Yamamoto Kazuki still felt that he was a world-class martial arts master.

It wasn't until Marven's palm that he realized that he was just a tiny ant on the way to martial arts.

But everyone who is dedicated to martial arts has a sense of integrity. Even if they lose, most people are willing to gamble and surrender. What's more, even if they are missed to death in a competition, they can be calm before dying.

Although Yamamoto Kazuki's mind was not so broad, he was convinced at the bottom of his heart when he thought of Marven's terrifying strength.

At this time, Nanako looked at him sadly, and said: "Master I have communicated with my father. He will contact the best hospitals and doctors in Tokyo to help you treat and recover, and there will be a special plane to pick you up tomorrow. You go back to Japan!"

Chapter 1400

"No, I won't go!" Yamamoto Kazuki couldn't move, but he could gently shake his head.

At this time, he said hoarsely: "My injury cannot be cured by a doctor, and I cannot be better than here when I return to Japan. As your master, I cannot leave you here alone. I want to see you participating in the competition, I will return to Japan with you."

Nanako hurriedly said: "Master I may not be able to win the championship in this competition. I watched the video of Aoxue's competition after today's competition. Her strength is much stronger than the last time. To a talented player like Joanna, it may take a long battle to win the battle, but Aoxue faced Joanna and defeated her with just one move. This kind of strength is far beyond me..."

Yamamoto Kazuki sighed: "I watched the live broadcast of Aoxue's match at the hospital and also on the mobile phone video network. Her current strength is indeed very strong. It is more than several times stronger than when she was in the last match! I really can't imagine that a person can make such huge progress in such a short period of time! This has simply subverted my perception!"

Nanako said seriously: "I think this should be related to her coach Marven. Marven only started to be her coach during the last match."

Yamamoto Kazuki thought of Marven, and couldn't help feeling: "This Marven is really the martial arts master of the world! It seems that he is the legendary inner disciple who can practice internal strength in Chinese martial arts! I used to think that those were all lie. Yes, I really understand today!"

On the side, Jiro said: "I have studied ancient Chinese medical books and ancient books. The earliest "Huang Di Nei" in China contains a description of internal qi. There is also a special article about how to carry out internal qi in the body. It can be seen from this that they have been practicing internal strength for thousands of years."

Yamamoto Kazuki said with a fascinating look: "I really didn't expect that there is such a thing as internal power in the world. If I could know this 10 or 20 years earlier, then I must come to China and visit all of China. The famous Sichuan Dashan, worship a real master as a teacher, concentrate on learning internal power..."

Having said this, Yamamoto Kazuki sighed again: "It's a pity that I learned too late..."

After a pause, two lines of tears rolled down the deeply wrinkled face.

Nanako couldn't help crying when she saw the miserable end of her mentor.

At this time, Yamamoto Kazuki looked at her with a bit of enthusiasm in his eyes and said: "Nanako! To this day, I am no longer qualified to be your teacher, if you wish to have a greater career in martial arts. For the breakthrough and progress of the world, then you must find a way to worship Marven as your teacher!"

"What?!" Nanako blurted out exclaimed: "Worship him as a teacher?! I...I shouldn't! Nanako has only one mentor in this life, and that's you! Besides you, Nanako will never again Worship other people as teachers!"

"Stupid!" Yamamoto Kazuki shouted angrily, "What can I teach you like this? Don't say that I am a cripple now. Even if I am not a cripple, what I can teach you has already been taught to you. The rest is nothing more than some so-called actual combat experience."

"But if you look at my current fate, you will know the actual combat experience. In front of real masters, in front of absolute power, it has no meaning at all. An ant, even if it has experience in biting and fighting, is just It is effective against other ants, but in front of a human, it still can't resist a finger of the opponent!"

"And Marven made me realize that when I was in the martial arts, I was a complete ant. As the apprentice I taught, you haven't been able to come out of the blue. This proves that you are just like me, but just martial arts. The ants on the way!"

Speaking of this, Yamamoto Kazuki excitedly asked Nanako with a hot eye: "Nanako, you have been obsessed with martial arts for nearly 20 years. Are you willing to be an ant on the way to martial arts?"

When Nanako heard this, she bit her lower lip and said word by word: “Master Nanako is not willing to be an ant!”

Yamamoto Kazuki immediately said loudly: “Then go to worship Marven as a teacher! Let him teach you the real martial arts, only in this way can you have the opportunity to grow into a real strong, otherwise, I advise you to give up the so-called craze for martial arts now Forget about it, because the so-called martial arts we pursue, compared with Marven, is simply rubbish among rubbish!”
