

The Amazing Son In-law chapter 1411-1420

Chapter 1411

Marven was indeed very disgusted with Yamamoto Kazuki, but one of them said one, and the other said two. His impression of Nanako is still very good.

Although Nanako has practiced martial arts for many years, he can still see the tenderness in her bones, and she is a rare sensible girl.

Tianqi heard him and said immediately: "I know Master, don't worry, if she comes back next time, I will do my best to treat guests."

"Well, that's enough." Marven said, "Mr. Shi, I will be home soon, so I won't tell you anymore."

"OK, Master."

After hanging up Tianqi's phone, Marven drove into the Tomson Villa area.

Seeing that he was about to reach his door, Marven gradually slowed down.

At this moment, a figure suddenly flashed out from one side, blocking his car.

Marven stopped the car with a brake, and when he looked up, he found that the person in front of his car turned out to be Nanako!

He couldn't help wondering.

Why is this woman here?

Nanako's strength is indeed very good among ordinary people, so it is not surprising that she can get to the first grade of Tomson.

However, Marven was curious, what did this woman do for herself?

At this time, Nanako stood in front of Marven's BMW car, did not speak, but bowed deeply to him with a humble face.

Marven helplessly pushed the door and got out of the car. He came to her and asked, "Miss Ito, what are you doing here?"

Nanako raised her head, looking at Marven with a nervous expression. After hesitating for a while, her legs suddenly bent and knelt in front of him, begging: "Mr. Marven, I beg you to save my master!"

"Save him?" Marven asked amused: "He has all his meridians severed. Why do you think I can save him?"

Nanako said confidently: "I believe in my own judgment. I believe you will be able to save my master. Of course he is at fault, but there is no such fault that cannot be forgiven!"

Marven sneered: "This is not the fault? You have to know that he insulted me today. Why do you think he was not wrong? Just the words of the sick man of East Asia are completely inexcusable slurs!"

Nanako said with shame: "You are right. I know those words are very inappropriate, but my master himself is an Old Master in his twilight years. Now because of these words, you will make him useless for the rest of his life. , This is really too cruel, right? Moreover, your subordinates engraved those four characters on his forehead. He has already endured inhuman torture and insult, so please raise your hand and let him go...."

Marven said lightly: "Miss Ito, let me give you a piece of advice."

Nanako didn't understand why Marven wanted to give her a piece of advice, so she hurriedly said: "Mr. Marven, please tell me, I'll listen!"

Marven said: "You should return to Japan and find a good man to marry you. From now on, you will be married to each other. Don't try to practice martial arts anymore, let alone hope to be able to make a difference in martial arts and get a breakthrough."

Nanako looked at him and asked unconvincingly: "Mr. Marven, do you look down on my strength? Although I am not worth mentioning in front of you, I have at least won the championship of two world college competitions, better than most people. Is it not much better?"

Marven smiled and said: "Your strength is indeed very good among people of your age, but your mind is not suitable for martial arts."

Chapter 1412

Nanako frowned and said, "I would like to ask Mr. Marven to make it clear!"

Marven said: "First of all, the martial arts must first cultivate the mind, then the body, and then the skill."

"In other words, the importance of mood is greater than physical fitness and martial arts."

"Whether you practice fighting, Sanda, Jeet Kune Do, Karate, Wing Chun, Tai Chi, it doesn't really matter, what matters is your heart!"

Nanako asked puzzledly: "My heart? What happened to my heart?"

Marven snorted coldly, and condescendingly yelled, "Your heart is full of women's benevolence, full of gambling, no open-mindedness, no calmness, and no wolfishness!"

"Wolfness?!" Nanako's expression tightened and exclaimed: "What do you mean? What is wolfness?"

Marven said: "The so-called wolf nature is the tenacity and cruelty. If the wolf's companion is caught by the hunter, the wolf will only try to save it, and will not try to beg the hunter to spare it!"

“If a wolf’s companion is injured, it will not lie next to it and whimper, it will show its fangs to help the companion avenge. It will fight once it has been beaten, but if it fails, it will try its best, and it will find a suitable opportunity to fight again!”

“However, a qualified wolf, no matter what, will never beg for mercy in front of the enemy! If it is just a husky, no matter how big and powerful it is, it will not be a wolf’s opponent,”

“So, you are not a qualified warrior at all!”

Nanako asked angrily: “Why do you say that I am unqualified?”

Marven said coldly: “I said you were unqualified because you made three mistakes!”

“One of the mistakes! You lack the tolerance to bet!”

“Your master bet fair with me. The outcome is your own responsibility. Even your master is willing to gamble and accept the consequences of failure. As his apprentice, you can’t accept it. You even come to me and ask if you lose your bet, do you shame and refuse to admit defeat?”

Nanako was flushed with the reprimand, and she didn’t know what to do for a while.

Marven continued: “The second mistake! As a martial artist, although your body is strong, your heart is extremely weak. This proves that you are not worthy of being a martial artist from the bottom of your heart! In my eyes, a martial artist is a brave person who dares to fight and break. You are not afraid of a dead wolf, and although you have the physique and fangs of a wolf, in your bones, you are a poor Teddy dog!”

When Nanako heard this, tears burst into her eyes.

“The third mistake! A warrior should be like a warrior who regards death as home. On the battlefield, his head can be broken, blood can flow, and integrity should not be lost! And you? You came to me and begged for mercy. On the real battlefield, you will also be down on the enemy. Kneel to beg for mercy? Would you also beg the other side to show mercy and let you go?”

“A warrior who kneels down to the enemy begging for mercy is by no means a qualified warrior. Therefore, I said that you are not a qualified warrior. Do you have half wronged yourself!”

“What you are doing now has tainted the word martial artist! Therefore, I advise you not to practice martial arts anymore, you are not worthy!”

“Since you have such a benevolent woman, you should go back to be a good wife, a good mother, and a good woman. I believe you will perform better than a warrior!”

After Marven’s unrelenting reprimand, Nanako’s mood collapsed instantly, and she cried bitterly.

Chapter 1413

Marven's words let Nanako understand that she had never been a qualified martial artist.

Even though she has never won a world championship, even if she has been a top young master in the world, she still doesn't understand the soul of martial arts.

Seeing her crying with pear blossoms and rain, the whole person almost collapsed, Marven couldn't help but sighed and said: "Excuse me, what I said just now is a bit heavier, but I hope you can understand what real martial art's soul is!"

Nanako raised her head, and observed Marven with big red eyes. She knelt on the ground with her legs bent and said with tears: "I also ask Mr. Marven to make it clear, and request you to order it!"

Marven didn't stretch out his hand to help her, but said seriously: "The soul of martial arts is not in the level of strength, but the strength of the heart!"

"He has a strong heart, even if he is a waste person, he does not live up to the martial arts spirit. For example, your master, although he is defiant and conceited, can at least bear the consequences of failure. From this point of view, he is indeed much better than you!"

Nanako said sadly, "Master even tried to commit suicide today. I believe that if his hands can still be used, he will definitely choose to commit suicide..."

Marven nodded: "Then this proves that although he is very weak, he still has a strong heart. From the bottom of his heart, he has not lived up to the identity of a martial artist, and you..."

Having said that, Marven glanced up and down Nanako, and said seriously: "For now, you are really not suitable for martial arts practice. Let me give you a piece of advice. After this competition, go back to Japan and go to your university. After graduating from university, you can take a postgraduate entrance examination for further studies, or get married and have children as soon as possible to live the life of an ordinary people."

Nanako said with red eyes and earnestly said, "But...but I really don't want to give up martial arts!"

Marven said lightly: "Since you don't want to give up, then you have to find a way to make your heart stronger."

Nanako asked, "Mr. Marven, I...how do I become stronger inside?"

Marven said: "It's very simple. First of all, you have to start with your master. First confess his fate for him. This is the first step to a strong heart; to avenge him is the second step to a strong heart."

Nanako hurriedly waved her hand: "Mr. Marven, I never thought of avenging Master... Nanako knows that she is far from her opponent, and also knows that Master's ending today, no wonder he..."

"Yeah." Marven nodded approvingly, and said seriously: "Since you know that you can't blame me for this matter, it proves that you have made a little progress. This matter is entirely your master's fault. So I advise you not to put too much psychological pressure on yourself. If you think he is pitiful, just take care of him after returning to Japan.”

Nanako nodded again and again: “Mr. Marven, I understand!”

Marven said, “Well, it’s okay if you understand, it’s okay, it’s not too early, you should go back.”

Nanako hurriedly said, “Mr. Marven, I have one more question to ask you...”

Marven: “Say it.”

Nanako asked, “Mr. Marven, is it possible for you to accept Nanako as a disciple?”

Marven said decisively: “It’s impossible.”

“Why?” Nanako hurriedly asked him: “Is it because I am not qualified enough, or because I am Japanese?”

Marven didn’t conceal his words and said straightforwardly: “The main reason is that you are a Japanese. For thousands of years, the Chinese have taught the Japanese so much, but the Japanese don’t know how to be grateful. In the past two to three centuries of modern times, they have repeatedly made enemies with China and even harmed the Chinese people. As the saying goes, I will gain one wisdom from one bite. Therefore, I will never pass the Chinese martial arts to a woman from Japan.”

Nanako lost her heart instantly. She wanted him to be her master, but she cannot change her nationality.

Chapter 1414

So, she hurriedly put her hands on the floor, bowed her head and said: “Mr. Marven, I apologize to you and the Chinese people on behalf of those who have hurt the Chinese people. I’m sorry! I will do my best to be the opposite of what is the image in your mind about us!”

Marven waved his hand: “Okay, this account may never be clear. I am very pleased if you have this heart.”

After finishing speaking, he reached out to support Nanako and said: “You have two more matches to play next. Go back and prepare well. As Aoxue’s coach, I am still looking forward to seeing the two of you meet in the finals. So in the next semi-finals, you must play well. Only after successfully qualifying for the final can you meet Aoxue in the final.”

Nanako said firmly: “Mr. Marven, please rest assured, I will definitely go all out to meet Aoxue in the final!”

“Okay.” Marven nodded in satisfaction: “Then see you in the finals.”

After that, Marven turned back to the BMW car and drove into his Villa.

Nanako looked in the direction behind the car for a long time, until Marven disappeared, and she was still standing there, touching for about ten minutes.

At this moment, deep in her heart, a strong admiration for Marven suddenly emerged.

It turns out that a man like Marven is the real martial arts master.

Deep down, she made a comparison between the two.

In contrast, although her master was firm enough in his heart, his strength and personality were far worse than Marven.

Especially the rebellious and blind self-confidence of Master, thinking that he is already a top expert, and proactively provoking Marven. From this point, it can be seen that his mind has lost by more than 100,000 miles compared to Marven.

Marven's strength was incredible, but before he really took the shot, she couldn't see any arrogance or pride at all.

From an objective point of view, the teacher who put the words of the sick man in East Asia on his lips at that time was like a clown.

And Marven's words were not wrong at all. The reason why Master would end up like this was to get a hammer.

At this moment, her adoration and admiration for Marven was like a nuclear bomb that broke out in an instant, and it had an extremely powerful influence deep in her heart.

So that she was full of Marven's figure, lingering in her mind.

The ears were filled with Marven's sonorous and powerful reprimands. To her, it was simply an initiation.

Jiro waited for a long time outside the door of Tomson, only to see the desperate Nanako walking back slowly.

He hurriedly got out of the car and asked, "Miss Nanako, have you seen Marven?"

Nanako nodded, and whispered absent-mindedly, "See... I saw him."

Jiro was busy and asked again: "Then did he promised to help Mr. Yamamoto?"

Nanako shook her head and muttered softly as if she was talking to herself: "This matter I think is wrong and I think too much. I shouldn't give up the soul of the warrior spirit and come to ask Mr. Marven to save Master...My Old Master is a qualified warrior, a qualified warrior, who must have the courage to face his own destiny..."

"And I...Since I want to be a qualified warrior, I also must have the courage to face the fate of others..."

Chapter 1415

This night, Nanako stayed up all night.

She kept thinking about what Marven said to her, somehow, after thinking more, she suddenly felt that she must not give up martial arts!

Even, I must redouble my efforts and work hard, and I must make Marven admire me!

Perhaps Marven would never accept her as a disciple, but she must use practical actions to tell him that she would become a qualified warrior!

Jiro, who has always wanted to pursue Nanako, has not been able to sleep for a long time.

While he couldn't wait to take Nanako, he also looked forward to the next advertising campaign by Kobayashi Weisan in China.

Because Kobayashi's Weisan is the title sponsor of the finals, now is a good opportunity for Kobayashi's Weisan to promote it.

Moreover, what Jiro did not expect was that Chinese player Aoxue turned out to be a dark horse in this game!

For him, because he wants to open up the Chinese market, he very much hopes that Chinese players can achieve excellent results in this game.

Because, the more so, the Chinese audience will pay more attention to this game.

It is best if the Chinese players can win the championship, and the influence of this game will become very big in China. Then, Kobayashi Weisan can take this opportunity to carry forward in China.

However, he did not dare to expect Chinese players to win the championship before, after all, among the top five seeded players in this game, there are no Chinese players.

However, it now appears that Aoxue has the posture of counterattack to win the championship, which is definitely an unexpectedly good result for him.

As for Nanako, Jiro didn't want her to win.

First, if the winner of this game is a Japanese player and sponsored by a Japanese company, it is likely to cause a certain degree of resistance from the Chinese audience.

Secondly, Jiro wanted to wait for Nanako to marry him after graduating from university. If she wins this competition, she must prepare for the Olympics next. If she wins the next Olympics championship, it will definitely take advantage of the peak state to prepare for the next Olympics.

In this way, the matter of marriage must become insignificant in the eyes of Nanako.

Therefore, if Nanako loses this game, then abandons martial arts, abandons the Olympics, and marries him willingly, and then teaches her son, that is the best result for him.

If Aoxue can win this game and arouse the attention and pride of the whole of China, then Kobayashi Weisan will surely be able to use this game to successfully spread across the country.

In that way, at least tens of billions of profits will be brought to Kobayashi Pharmaceutical every year, which will enable it to quickly restore its vitality and set foot on a new peak!

This is the result that Jiro wants most!

The next day.

Sara started filming an advertisement for JX Weisan in the studio of a film and television base in Wrestrvel.

When shooting the commercial, Marven came to explore the crew.

In fact, he didn't want to come at all.

However, because his wife, Avella, really wanted to see the whole process of Sara shooting the commercial with her own eyes, she pestered him to bring her over.

Although Sara was quite dissatisfied with Marven's act of bringing his wife to visit the shooting, in general, Marven's presence here still made her feel very happy.

Advertising shooting is relatively simple. After shooting the material for a day, the shooting is basically done.

Chapter 1416

Avella couldn't stay at the film and television base all the time because she still had to work, so she went to her studio when she was halfway through the shooting, leaving Marven and Liang on the scene.

After the advertisement was shot, the staff of the advertising agency immediately took the material back to do the post-work, while Marven and Liang once again hosted a banquet in Shangri-La to entertain Sara and August.

After all, Sara is a top star in China, so her work arrangements are still very busy. Because of this Spring Festival, she was invited to participate in the Spring Festival Gala and has a solo show, so she has to rush back to Orgeyon, the first time to participate in the Spring Festival Gala. Official dress rehearsal.

The stars who can be at the Spring Festival Gala are all top domestic stars. Because the attention of the Spring Festival Gala is too high, many big stars have sharpened their heads and wanted to drill in.

In order to be at the Spring Festival Gala, many big stars are even willing to play an inconspicuous little role in the skit program, and some singers do not hesitate to sing a song together with several people.

The reason why the price is lowered is that the Spring Festival Gala is so popular.

In fact, in the Spring Festival Gala, there are too few people who can sing a song by themselves. Those who can get this kind of treatment are generally the Queens of Heaven.

Sara, as a film star mainly focused on filming, can have a solo show on the Spring Festival Evening, which can be said to be a super high standard treatment, and fans all over the country are also very concerned about her performance this Gala.

But Sara herself couldn't bear to leave Wrestvel so soon.

She was struggling to find Marven for more than ten years and finally met him. Naturally, she hoped to stay with him for a few more days.

However, as the Spring Festival Gala is a party that the people of the whole country are very concerned about, Sara dare not take it lightly, so she can only decide to fly back tomorrow morning and focus on preparing for the it the next time.

At the dinner table, Sara asked Marven again: "Marven, I will leave tomorrow and cannot stay with you. Are you sure you will come to Orgeyon next week to see my father and me?"

"Yes." Marven nodded and promised earnestly: "When I finish dealing with the matter at hand, I will definitely come next week."

Sara smiled happily and said, "Then I will go back tomorrow and wait for you in Orgeyon!"

Marven smiled: "Then let's see you in Orgeyon."

"Marven, can you come to the airport tomorrow to see me off?"

"Sure I can."

"Then it's settled!"

It just so happens that the international college student Sanda competition will start tomorrow in the semi-finals level.

Aoxue will face an Australian player in the game, while Nanako will face an American player.

If Aoxue wins, then she will meet the winner of the other game in the final to fight for the championship.

Marven was very confident in Aoxue, and with her current strength, he believed she would be able to win the championship.

However, Marven also hopes that Nanako can beat the American player in tomorrow's game, and then compete with Aoxue for the championship in the final.

In fact, this competition is not fair to Nanako.

Originally, she could definitely win the championship of this competition, but he helped Aoxue greatly improve her physical fitness with aura and magical medicine, and instantly reborn her, which is equivalent to having to take it from Nanako's hands. The champion's medal grabbed from her hands.

Because of the good impression of Nanako, he hoped that Nanako would win a silver medal.

After all, this girl is very obsessed with martial arts, and she trains very hard. She has been practicing hard since she was very young. Even if she can't win the championship, she will at least get a runner-up title.

Chapter 1417

The next day.

Sara's plane took off at 8:30 in the morning.

The semi-finals of the Sanda competition start at ten o'clock.

Therefore, Marven planned to send Sara off first, and then go to the gym to watch Aoxue's game.

Early in the morning, he went to Dave, his father-in-law, and said to him, "Dad, do you use the car in the morning? If you don't need it, let me drive. I have something to do."

Dave smiled and said, "I will represent our Calligraphy and Painting Association in the morning to give a lecture on the appraisal of antique literature and play at the University for the Elderly."

After that, Dave gave Marven a look, which means "Do you understand."

Marven realized instantly.

It must have been the last time the Senior Citizens University and the Calligraphy and Painting Association had an activity. The Old Master met with Meiqing. It happened that his mother-in-law did not suspect him, so the Old Master wanted to take this opportunity to increase contact with Meiqing.

This time he went to the senior college for a lecture. Needless to say, Marven could guess that he must have gone to Meiqing.

At this moment, Elaine just walked downstairs, and when she heard this, she contemptuously curled her lips: "What kind of calligraphy and painting are you doing all day long?"

Dave said angrily: "You know what a sh!t! I am now the standing director of the Painting and Calligraphy Association, but President Pei said that the next time the association changes, he will recommend me to be the vice president. At that time, I will be in Wrester Antiques's lead. In the literary play circle, this is also the number one character!"

Elaine snorted coldly: "Don't rectify those useless things. It's a good idea to get some money back. Before you join the Calligraphy and Painting Association, you can still make a difference in the price of antiques and other things. How come after you join the Calligraphy and Painting Association, I never heard that you made money from antiques? Do you hide private money behind my back?"

Dave said angrily: "Elaine, don't forget, we are separated now, and after you lost all the money last time, we have agreed that I will manage the money in this family, so you have the qualification to ask!"

Elaine gritted her teeth and said, "Okay, Xiao has some skills? You really think that you are separated from me, so I can't do anything with you? Believe it or not, I will not do anything today, so I will go to your painting and calligraphy. The association, have a fight with you in front of all of you people? I want to see what face you have then to continue to stay in the Calligraphy and Painting Association!"

With that said, Elaine was puzzled and continued: "Going once is not enough. I will give you a monthly package. I will go to your Calligraphy and Painting Association twenty or thirty times a month, and you will be satisfied!"

Dave was scared to pee at once.

He knew Elaine's temper. If she said that, she would definitely be able to do it.

Now that he finally has a certain position in the Calligraphy and Painting Association, and through the name of the Calligraphy and Calligraphy Association, he has had a little more contact with Meiqing. How can Elaine go to do such sabotage?

She was a shrew with a pungent temperament, and now she has lost two front teeth, it seems that she is really stubborn, he can't let her go to the Calligraphy and Painting Association to give him a beating!

More importantly, if she is eyeing the Calligraphy and Painting Association, and then follow through to find out that Meiqing has returned to China and he has more contact with her, then she will definitely make trouble with the Calligraphy and Calligraphy Association and the University for the Elderly. !

Chapter 1418

So he rushed to admit counsel and said to Elaine: "You don't have to solve everything through the trouble, okay?"

Elaine said coldly: "You have said that this family is yours, I am not qualified to control, then I will not make trouble, what will I use to establish my position in this family?"

Dave voluntarily surrendered and said, "I said the wrong thing. You are qualified to take charge. Is this the head office?"

Elaine said triumphantly: "Since you said that I am qualified, then I will exercise my qualifications and powers now, Dave, tell me the truth, how much money do you have now? Can you tell me that Dump Antique made money?"

Dave said with a sad look: "I'm making money for a bullsht! Let me tell you the truth, I don't have any money for a bullsht now, and the Calligraphy and Painting Association can't make any money at all. I used to sell antiques and still make some money. But now I don't have such a good opportunity. I recently bought a few cheap calligraphy and paintings, all of which were sold. One painting was bought for thousands, but I found that all of them were not worth even hundreds. All fake crafts."

As he said, Dave sighed and said regretfully, "That Ervin Jones I don't know where he is recently. He used to find and help me sell things at a good price. Now I want to find him, but he is nowhere. It's as if his soul from the world has evaporated."

Marven felt a bit funny after listening.

In order to please him, that Ervin Jones paid a lot of money to collect a few pieces of rubbish from the Old Master. The money was pure compensation.

If we keep going like this, we won't have billions of fortunes.

So he naturally tried to avoid the Old Master.

Dave wants to find him now, it must be as difficult as finding heaven on earth.

Elaine didn't believe him, and said coldly: "Come on, open all your mobile banking, Alipay, and WeChat wallets, and let me see the balance!"

Dave said angrily: "Why are you still checking my account? When you lost all of the family's money, I asked you to show me the balance, but you didn't show me. Why do you let me now show you the balance?"

Elaine said angrily: "Okay, don't show it, right? Don't show it, I'll take a crutches later, and come to your painting and calligraphy association to scold you in the street! I, Elaine, will do what I said!"

Dave was scared, and hurriedly said, "Okay, I'll show it to you!"

After finishing speaking, he opened the bank account, Alipay account, and WeChat wallet account one by one, and showed it to Elaine.

After Elaine finished reading, she was immediately disappointed: "Dave, how did you mess with? Bank cards Alipay and WeChat add up to only 10,000. You are a 50-year-Old man who is so poor. So, are you not ashamed?"

Dave's face turned red and white, and he said angrily: "You have a fcking face to say? All the fcking money I saved all my life and let you lose. Otherwise, how could I be so poor!"

Elaine's expression flashed with embarrassment, but she quickly became tough again: "It's your man's duty to go out to make money. Since the family's money is gone, you should go out and find a way to make money! Just this is a sh!t calligraphy and painting association all day long. Would you like an egg? Why don't you find a restaurant and serve someone else's plate, and you can earn two to three thousand for less than a month!"

Dave said angrily: "Elaine, I am the standing director of the Wrester Painting and Calligraphy Association anyway! You asked me to serve the plate by a standing director?"

"What kind of sh!t standing director? Not making money is not as good as sh!t!" Elaine yelled angrily: "I tell you, when my legs are better and my teeth are set, I will go out to party with friends, play cards, Make faces, eat, and sing. I have to spend money on these things. You quickly figure out a way to make money for me. Otherwise, I won't have the money to go out and play, so I will pester you every day!"

Chapter 1419

"you....."

Dave's eyes were red with anger.

He has absolutely no countermeasures against Elaine's tactics.

Therefore, there is a great feeling in his heart that a talented person meets soldiers and is unreasonable.

Marven said at this time: "Okay, you two should stop quarreling early in the morning."

When Elaine saw Marven speak, she wilted.

If Marven dared to interrupt when she scolded Dave before, he would definitely point to Marven's nose and scold him bloody.

But now it's not what it used to be. Destiny has taken turns. Now she has no money. Marven bought this villa again, so he has the biggest weight in this house.

In order not to be driven out by Marven, she could only do her best to please him and not let Marven get angry.

As a result, she gave Dave a vicious look, and said angrily: "If it weren't for a good son-in-law to speak for you, I would definitely not finish with you today! For the sake of him, I will spare you once!"

With that, she looked at Marven grinningly and asked, "Good son-in-law, do you want mom to cook you a meal this morning?"

Marven asked in surprise, "You can cook?"

Elaine hurriedly said: "Look at what you said, before you entered our house, I used to cook in our house, so let me bring you a tomato that I know best for making noodles. I'll go to our house later. Pick fresh tomatoes from your vegetable garden!"

Since the last time Marven made a vegetable garden at home. They also made the entire vegetable garden into a sunroom with double-glazed glass.

And heating equipment is installed inside, so that even if it is winter, the vegetable garden is still warm as spring.

This effect is much better than real vegetable greenhouses. Many fruits and vegetables are growing very well.

Marven and Avella have been married for almost 4 years, and he has never eaten a meal cooked by his mother-in-law.

Seeing his mother-in-law volunteered to make tomatoes and noodles, he was also happy and nodded and said: "Since mom is cooking, then I won't intervene, but I have something to go out now. If it is slow, it may be too late. "

Elaine smiled: "You don't need to worry about anything, mom will do it, and it will be done in 20 minutes at most!"

After speaking, immediately went out and picked tomatoes in the vegetable garden.

After picking the tomatoes, Elaine hurried into the kitchen and started cooking.

When Avella finished washing, she came down to find that it was her mother who was cooking in the kitchen.

For several years, she has never seen her mother go to the kitchen again, and this is really the first time since she married Marven.

Chapter 1420

So she asked Marven in a low voice: "What's wrong with mom? How did she go to the kitchen to cook?"

Marven smiled and said, "Mom said she wanted me to taste her craftsmanship, saying that she wanted to make tomato noodles."

Avella sighed: "My mother, she took the initiative to cook. This is really coming out of the sun hitting the west. It seems that she has lost her way and has come back."

What Marven was thinking at this time was not the four words to know when she was lost, but the old saying of "nothing to do, no evil or steal".

So he guessed that Elaine, the mother-in-law, must be asking him, otherwise, with her character, she would never be able to take the initiative to cook.

Sure enough, when he arrived at the dinner table, Elaine personally served Marven noodles, and smiled and said to him: "Good son-in-law, there is something else I want to ask you, I wonder if you can agree?"

Marven said: "Mom, just tell me if you have anything. There is something reasonable within my ability, I will not refuse."

Elaine immediately smiled attentively: "My good son-in-law is like this. Mom recently discovered. The whole person seems to be a lot older than before. Not to mention the wrinkles on my face, the crow's feet in the corners of the eyes are becoming more and more obvious. Time is really not forgiving!"

After speaking, she looked at Marven with a smile: “Mom recently heard that there is an anti-aging cosmetic made from high-end caviar abroad. It is said that its anti-aging effect is particularly good, and many well-known stars use it. To prevent aging, mom wants you to buy a set.”

When Avella heard this, she blurted out exclaimed: “Mom! The set of cosmetics you mentioned costs hundreds of thousands! What are the conditions of our family, you let Marven buy you such expensive cosmetics? I gave you before. Isn’t it enough to buy a set of Estee Lauder for thousands?”

Elaine blurted out: “Don’t talk about your Estee Lauder, I suspect that my wrinkles are worse after it.”

Avella became angry: “Mom! Estee Lauder is already pretty good. I can’t bear to use it myself! Go to our bathroom to see what I use. They are all domestic brands and ordinary imported brands, like Estee Lauder. I am not willing to use such a big name at all.”

Elaine hummed: “You are young! Young people are fine even if they don’t need anything, but I’m old! If I don’t take care of it, I will become a yellow-faced woman! Look at your dad, now I’m already disgusting. I am, separated from him, and he keeps saying that he wants to divorce me. If I don’t pay attention anymore if your dad abandons me in the future, how can any man want me!?”

Avella was speechless.

She was angry and felt that there was nothing to say to her mother, and she couldn’t reason with her, so she said to Marven: “Don’t listen to mother, don’t buy it for her!”

Elaine burst into tears aggrieved: “Your dad treated me badly, your grandmother treated me even more badly, but I never dreamed that you are my relatives, even you are not good to me!”

Avella blurted out: “Mom, how can you say that? It would be bad for me if I don’t buy you more than 100,000 sets of cosmetics? How can there be such a reason!”

Elaine cried: “I don’t care. I just want to be younger and don’t grow old so fast. I’m already so miserable. I really can’t look at myself more and more like a yellow-faced woman!”

Marven patted Avella’s hand at this time, and said lightly: “Well, my wife, don’t be angry. Mom’s words are also reasonable. Everyone has a love for beauty, and Mom definitely has this need.”

Elaine nodded and patted a flattering: “My son-in-law is the best! He knows me best!”

Marven went on to say at this time: “I happen to have a friend who is in the cosmetics import business. I will ask him when I meet him. It just so happens that he still wants to find me to show him the new storefront for Feng Shui. Then I will let him get two sets of cosmetics to cover the cost of Feng Shui.”

When Elaine heard this, she said excitedly: “Really? Oh my good son-in-law, you are really mom’s good son-in-law! Mom really didn’t expect that after experiencing the warmth and cold in the world, I finally realized that this son-in-law is the best son-in-law. You’re worth relying on. Other mothers-in-law, elder brothers-in-law, husbands and even daughters will lose their chains at critical times!”
