

The Amazing Son In-law chapter 1491-1500

Chapter 1491

In fact, by this point, the two brothers had already figured it out.

What money is not money at this time is just a foreign object.

What really matters to them right now is freedom and the identity of the heir of the Kobayashi family!

With only 10% of the shares left in his own hands, he can also guarantee that he will live a lifetime.

But if you are trapped in a kennel in a foreign country for a lifetime, there will be no chance of turning over in this lifetime.

Therefore, if these two options are compared, it is really one heaven and one underground hell.

When he heard Ichiro said that he was willing to give Marven 90% of the shares, Jiro was already crazy.

He almost desperately blurted out: "Mr. Marven, if you are willing to cooperate with me, I can give you 95% of the shares!"

Marven smiled slightly and said, "Jiro. You are a little late in your consciousness. I think it is better to cooperate with your brother on this matter."

As soon as Marven said this, Ichiro's expression was immediately extremely excited, while Jiro felt as if he had fallen into the abyss, and the whole person was completely desperate.

Ichiro knelt on the ground excitedly and kowtowed to Marven, and choked up, "Mr. Marven, thank you for your trust and appreciation. I will look forward to everything in the future. You let me go east and I will never go west!"

Marven nodded, then looked at the desperate Jiro with a smile and said, "Jiro, you don't have to worry too much, let alone be so desperate. My cooperation with your brother is only temporary."

As soon as these words came out, the two brothers looked at Marven nervously.

Marven continued: "If your brother cooperates well, actively cooperates with me, and satisfies me, then I may continue to cooperate with him. But if he dares to touch me with other thoughts and make me feel dissatisfied, then he will be caught again, or caught here. Let him raise the dog for me, and then let you replace him at the helm of the Kobayashi family."

After listening to it, Ichiro immediately stated his position without hesitation: "Mr. Marven, although you can put your heart at ease, I will definitely not have any dissatisfaction, and will never let you have any dissatisfaction with me!"

Jiro was desperate.

Looking at it this way, he will only be a deterrent to his brother in the future, and the meaning of his own existence is to constantly remind his brother to listen to Marven's words.

If the brother doesn't make any mistakes, then he wouldn't have a chance to stand up.

Ichiro also knows very well that Marven has the means to control him. If he doesn't listen to him, then he is likely to swap himself with his younger brother. Therefore, he must fully cooperate with Marven so as not to return to this ghost place!

What Marven wanted was for the two brothers to check and balance each other. Seeing that the purpose was achieved, he relaxed.

Afterwards, he looked at Ichiro and said lightly: "Ichiro, you have to prepare well these few days. I will go to another place in these two days. After I come back, I will personally take you to Japan to inherit the Kobayashi family, but I am going. Before, you must sign a contract with me and give me 90% of the shares of your family, Kobayashi Pharmaceutical."

Ichiro nodded like garlic: "Mr. Marven, don't worry, I can sign and draw at any time!"

Marven was satisfied now, smiled slightly, and said: "Okay, you two brothers will stay here now, I will come back in a few days."

After finishing speaking, he asked Orvel: "Mr. Orvel, you must see these brothers, you must not go on any business trips, understand?"

Orvel nodded without hesitation and said, "Master, don't worry, Orvel uses the head to ensure that there will be no mistakes!"

"It is fine."

Marven looked at Zak Chen and said, "Okay, let's go."

Chapter 1492

On the way back.

Marven's mobile phone received a push.

This post is a piece of news, with the headline "Japanese talented female Sanda player Nanako is out of danger. The doctor said that she might bid farewell to the ring! »

Seeing this news, Marven hurriedly clicked to check it, and then saw the text of the report.

It turned out that after Nanako returned to Japan, she immediately received emergency treatment at the best hospital in Tokyo.

Moreover, her injuries were very serious at the time. In fact, her internal organs were injured very critically, and she was unable to escape her life in danger.

After several hours of intensive treatment, she was finally out of danger.

However, although she is out of danger, the situation of her physical injury is still not optimistic. The media quoted the introduction of Tokyo's top doctors. Nanako is now seriously damaged in her physical function. She does not know whether she can recover. Even if she is out of danger, The chance of completely recovering as before is also very slim, and there is a high probability that she will not be able to board the ring again.

The report also said that the people were very sad about the news and prayed for Nanako on Japanese social networking sites, hoping that she would recover as soon as possible, continue to be in the ring, and win honors for the country.

At the end of the article, it is revealed that it is reported that Nanako will go to Kyoto for a long recuperation after her physical condition stabilizes. She may not appear in public view for a long time in the future.

Marven couldn't help but sigh after reading it.

It seems that Nanako suffered a serious internal injury in the game.

After all, she and Aoxue weren't the same weight players at all, and injuries were inevitable.

In fact, she shouldn't have played this inevitable match at all. It's just that this girl with a weak appearance, but a very strong heart, knew that she might lose miserably, but she did not hesitate to hold on to the end.

Marven sighed softly, put the phone away, and said to Zak Chen who was driving, "Old man, I am going to Orgeyon tomorrow. Please help me take care of things in Wrestvel."

Zak Chen nodded immediately and respectfully said: "Master you can rest assured that everything in Wrestvel is guarded by me. I promise you with my life that there will never be any deviation."

Marven gave a hum, and said nothing.

Zak Chen asked again: "Master do you want me to arrange a special plane to send you off?"

Marven shook his head: "No, if you arrange a special plane, the Ye family might know it too. I'm going to Orgeyon this time and it has nothing to do with the Ye family, and I don't want to be out of touch. It's better to keep a low profile."

Zak Chen nodded and said, "Master do you want me to book the ticket for you?"

"Okay." Marven said, "then help me book the flight for tomorrow morning."

Zak Chen hurriedly asked again: "Master when do you plan to come back? I will help you book the return flight."

"I haven't figured it out yet." Marven said: "You don't have to worry about things related to coming back."

Zak Chen hesitated for a moment and said with a serious face: "Master, Orgeyon is a place where dragons and tigers are hidden, tigers and dragons are mixed, so after you get there, it is best not to be arrogant to avoid unnecessary troubles. If you encounter any difficult problems, you can tell me, or tell the steward Darren, we will do our best to help you without telling the family."

"okay, I get it."

Zak Chen also reminded: "Master according to the information I have learned, Delon of the Kevin family hates you for your bones. If you go to Orgeyon, try not to conflict with the person surnamed Kevin, lest the dragon will not crush the snake."

"Delon?" Marven sneered: "If you don't tell me, I almost forgot about this stupid."

Chapter 1493

For Marven, whether he was Master or not, he didn't see Delon's kind of jumping clown at all.

Although the Kevin family is also a big family of Orgeyon, their overall strength is actually nothing more than that.

Not to mention a Delon, even the entire Kevin family may not be able to enter Marven's eyes.

Zak Chen naturally knew Marven's strength.

This is Master Ye of killing the eight heavenly kings of the Wu family single handedly!

With such strength, the Kevin family is definitely not an opponent.

But Zak Chen also knew well, what is Orgeyon? The water is deep there. In the seemingly calm water, in fact, all giants can be hidden. You don't know whether a carp will pop out in the next second, or a real dragon.

Moreover, Marven is going to Orgeyon alone this time, and Zak Chen was afraid that he would be outnumbered in Orgeyon, so he reminded him: "Master although the Kevin family is not top-notch in strength, there is a certain network and foundation in Orgeyon. Yes, you are not going to let the family know this time, so you should be as careful as possible."

Marven knew that Zak Chen said these words out of good intentions, so he nodded gently: "I know Mr. Zak Chen, don't worry."

While waiting for the red light, Zak Chen used his mobile phone to help Marven buy a ticket to Orgeyon tomorrow morning.

Then he said to Marven: "Master the plane is at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning, and I bought you first class."

"Okay." Marven nodded lightly and looked out the window, thinking that tomorrow would be his first return to Orgeyon after a lapse of more than ten years, he felt a little nervous in his heart.

This time, he was not going to return to the Ye family, nor was he going to meet with the Ye family.

But he planned to go to the tomb of his parents to worship. As a child, he has not visited the tomb for so many years. He is really unfilial. If he does not worship in Orgeyon, it is even more inexcusable.

Back home.

Dave and Viola have returned to their respective bedrooms.

Avella was not in the living room either. Marven came to the bedroom on the second floor and saw that Avella was standing on the terrace. So he walked to the front and said softly, "My wife, it's so late, why are you still standing outside? It's very cold now, so come back to room quickly."

Avella had already seen him enter the yard just now, so she was not surprised at his appearance, and said with a smile: "The weather forecast says it will snow tonight. Wrester is located south of the Yangtze River. There is very little snowfall. At that time I couldn't see a single snow in a year, I wanted to see if I could wait until it snowed."

Marven nodded and asked with a smile: "If you like snow, we can go to the north to see the snow if we have the opportunity in the future."

Avella said with a look of yearning: "I especially like to look at places full of white snow, such as Changbai Mountains, such as Hokkaido in Japan, if we have a chance, let's go and see it?"

Marven smiled and asked, "Where to go? Changbai Mountain or Hokkaido?"

Avella said: "Go to Changbai Mountain first!"

When Marven thought of Changbai Mountain, in addition to thinking of the scene where he killed the Eight Heavenly Kings at the foot of the mountain, he couldn't help but think of the Wei family's lustful father and son, so he shook his head and said, "Changbai Mountain is not accessible, we have a chance to go to Hokkaido. , Or go to Kunlun Mountain."

Avella hummed, and sighed: "The New Year is almost here, and your birthday will be after the first month. Do you have any birthday wishes?"

Marven shook his head: "I don't have any birthday wishes, I only wish my lover to be healthy, safe and happy."

Chapter 1494

Avella was moved by Marven's light words.

Can't help but walk to Marven's side, snuggle gently in his arms, look up at the stars in the sky, and say with happiness: "After the New Year, it's the fourth year of our marriage."

"Yeah." Marven couldn't help sighing: "It's been four years, and time flies really fast."

"Hurry?" Avella said earnestly, "I don't think time flies fast at all. In the past four years, too much has happened, especially in you, too many changes have taken place."

Marven touched his nose: "What? Have I changed?"

Avella nodded and said, "Of course you have changed! Whether it is the feeling to others, or the aura and temperament of your whole person, it seems that it has changed greatly from when you first got married."

As she spoke, she murmured softly: "But it's very strange, and then think about this change is really big, but sometimes think about it, and feel as if everything is quite natural, as if you are like this... .."

Marven sighed lightly and said to her: "Oh, my wife, the matter of going to Orgeyon to see Feng Shui has been decided, I will leave tomorrow morning."

"Leaving tomorrow?" Avella asked in surprise: "Why are you so anxious?"

Marven smiled and said, "It's the twelfth lunar month, and the Chinese New Year is only twenty days away. The customers over there are also very anxious. They all want to do everything they should do before, and we can't drag on hind legs."

Avella nodded lightly and said seriously: "Husband, although Feng Shui makes money, I don't want you to run around often in the future. After you said this, I have been thinking about The two have been married for almost four years, and it seems that we have never been separated all day and night. When I think of you going to Orgeyon for several days, I am not used to it..."

Having said this, she sighed with a little melancholy: "As you know, my parents' relationship has never been very good. Since mom lost more than two million in gambling and was held in the detention center because of MLM, dad doesn't seem to have any feelings for her anymore, especially when Aunt suddenly comes back, the relationship between the two of them has become worse..."

"When I come back from work every day, when I see the two of them resenting each other, quarreling and scolding, I feel very uncomfortable, so you can give me a little warmth at home. If you are away for several days, don't know how to face them."

Marven hugged her a little closer, and said seriously: "The things between parents, let's just let it go, don't think about it so much, it will definitely not be so annoying, besides, I will immediately finish the work. Don't worry I will rush back."

"Yeah." Avella nodded and said with a smile: "Oh, yes, you haven't been to Orgeyon? This time you can take the opportunity to have fun. Orgeyon is an ancient capital with rich history and culture!"

Marven gave a wry smile.

His wife thought that she grew up in Wrestvel Welfare Institute.

She didn't know. Actually, he grew up in Orgeyon and didn't leave until she was eight years old.

However, he was so happy that Avella knew nothing about his identity, so he smiled and said, "Okay, I will definitely find opportunities to see more this time."

Avella smiled and said, "When my grandfather was still alive, he took me to Orgeyon several times. He had a very deep affection for Orgeyon. According to him, our ancestors and generations gave Orgeyon a big family. As slaves, the family was so kind to our family, but later because of the war, some domestic slaves were dismissed."

As she said, she said again: "But the reason why our family was able to have a later scale is also because that large family gave a lot of settlement allowances when they were dismissed."

Marven smiled and asked, "Has Grandpa ever said, what is the name and background of that big family?"

"He never said it." Avella shook her head and said seriously: "However, my grandfather had always felt regret before, saying that he had no chance to repay this family's great kindness. Since I can remember, he had been talking about it for almost 20 years! But in the next few years, I never saw him open his mouth about it and never said a single word about this again."

Speaking of this, Avella thought of something and suddenly said, "Hey, thinking about it now, it seems that after we got married, he never said it again!"

Chapter 1495

After hearing what Avella said, Marven laughed and said nothing.

He knew why Mr. Xiao stopped talking about this after he got married to Avella. That's because Mr. Xiao felt that if he married Avella to himself and gave him a family, it was equivalent to repaying the family.

But he would naturally not tell Avella about this.

At this moment, Avella suddenly looked at the sky and said with joy: "Wow! It's really snowing now!"

Marven raised his head, and a piece of cold snow fell on his forehead, bringing a hint of coolness, and then instantly melted.

In the beginning, only a few snowflakes fell sporadically, and ten minutes later, snowflakes all over the night sky fell.

For Wrestvel, a southern city, such heavy snow is indeed too rare.

Avella danced happily in the snow like a child.

Seeing the snow falling and getting bigger and bigger, she took Marven to the yard, collecting a thin layer of snow from the roof of the car, and said to him: "If it falls like this, you can build a snowman and have a snowball fight tomorrow!"

Marven nodded and sighed, "I haven't built a snowman for many years."

The last time I did this kind of thing, when I was in the orphanage, together with my little friend Zhao Hao, and together with Xiaofen, the sister of the orphanage, piled up a huge snowman on the open space of the orphanage.

In a blink of an eye, nearly ten years have passed.

The heavy snow in Wrester is getting bigger and bigger. The Moments of Friends, Weibo, and TikTok are almost all about the content of this snow. Even Mr. Song posted a Moments of Friends and took a picture of the snow scene from the upper floor of the villa. The photo is accompanied by five words: "Blessings of the Year."

Warnia also posted to Moments. There is no picture. There is only one sentence: "I wrote your name in the snow. I was afraid that people would see it clearly, so I wiped it away..."

Marven guessed that the "your" she said should be himself, but he did not like or leave a message.

That night, Marven accompanied Avella, playing in the snow for a long time, until after twelve o'clock, the two went back to the room to rest.

Turning off the light, Marven lay on his half of the bed tossing and turning.

Now, there are less than ten hours left before his return to Orgeyon in 18 years.

Avella didn't fall asleep either. At night, she suddenly got into Marven's bed from his bed, hugged him from behind, and said emotionally in his ear: "My husband, you will leave tomorrow, I will Miss you....."

Marven nodded lightly, stroking her tender hands, with emotion in his heart.

Marven hardly fell asleep this night.

Fortunately, his body has long been different from ordinary people, even if he stays up all night, there is no discomfort.

Since it was ten o'clock in the morning, he had to arrive at the airport before nine o'clock, so Marven got up very early.

When he got up, Avella, who had made snowmen until twelve o'clock last night, hadn't woken up yet.

Marven didn't want to disturb her either. He left a note on the bedside and wrote: "My wife, I'm leaving. Do wait for me to come back."

After that, he changed his clothes, brought his wallet and credentials, put a few rejuvenating pills on his body, and left the bedroom.

When he got downstairs, Viola, the mother-in-law wearing an apron, immediately drove out from the kitchen and said affectionately: "Oh my son-in-law, why do you get up so early today?"

Marven said: "I'm going to Orgeyon today, and I won't be back in a few days."

Viola hurriedly said diligently: "Oh, going today? Mom made you preserved egg and lean meat porridge. Eat a bowl before you go!"

Marven waved his hand: "No, the plane is earlier, I have to go there earlier."

Viola said hurriedly: "Oh, then I'll give it to you!"

After speaking, she hurried out and followed Marven all the way to the door.

"Good son-in-law, do you want me to drive you to the airport?"

Marven shook his head: "No, I'll take a taxi."

Viola blurted out: "Why don't you let your dad drive you? Anyway, he is idle all the time."

Chapter 1496

Marven said lightly: "No, it's convenient for me to go by myself."

Viola smiled and nodded, and said, "Then you must pay attention to safety on the road!"

After speaking, seeing Marven go out, she hurriedly said: "Good son-in-law, if you see any good things in Orgeyon, please bring a copy for mom!"

"okay."

Marven responded and took a step away from home.

.....

Wrestvel Airport.

Marven didn't bring any luggage with him, so he changed his boarding pass and passed the security check.

Because Zak Chen bought him a first-class ticket, he went directly to the VIP lounge after passing the security check.

The plane took off at 10 o'clock, and the service staff in the VIP lounge personally guided him to board the plane early at 9:20.

Marven boarded the plane ahead of others, and there were already a few people in the first-class cabin.

The first class distribution of this aircraft is a 2+2 model, that is, there are two more spacious seats on each side of the corridor. The seats can be laid flat so that you can lie flat, which will be very comfortable.

Marven's position was near the window, and after sitting down, he looked out the window in a daze.

For more than ten years, he has not been in this state.

Anxious and faintly expecting.

The ancients said that he was close to his hometown, and it could not be more appropriate to describe him now.

The plane was still picking up passengers, and when he smelled a faint scent in his nostrils, he turned his head and glanced subconsciously.

A young woman just came to him and was about to sit down.

Seeing him turning his head, the woman also glanced at him subconsciously, and suddenly exclaimed: "Marven?! Why are you here?"

Marven was also stunned.

Because the woman in front of him turned out to be Elsa, the woman who has always liked him, Avella's best friend.

He was also surprised and asked: "Elsa, why are you here?"

"I'm going to Orgeyon!" Elsa said in surprise: "I am from Orgeyon, you shouldn't be stupid!"

After that, she hurriedly sat down and asked excitedly: "What about you? What are you doing in Orgeyon? What about Avella? Didn't she come with you?"

Marven shook his head and said, "I have something to do in Orgeyon. A friend introduced me to a Fengshui job. The pay was pretty good, so I am just going there."

Elsa nodded suddenly and said: "That's a coincidence! I just am going home to celebrate my grandma's birthday. I didn't expect that we were not only on the same plane, but the seats are next to each other. I say we two are particularly destined!"

Although Elsa hadn't seen Marven for a while, her feelings for him have never changed.

In fact, she has been missing Marven very much all this time.

Originally, she received Avella's invitation to live with them at Tomson, but during that time, too much happened in the Xiao family.

After a while, Mrs. Xiao's family ran up to the door, and the desperately looking to live in Tomson;

After a while, Viola disappeared, and Avella was searching all over the world;

Then, Dave would entertain his first love at home;

Later, the missing Viola came back and made the whole family jumpy.

As an outsider, Elsa couldn't help but still live in Tomson in such a chaotic environment, so she moved back to the hotel early.

Therefore, during this period of time, she almost fell out of contact with Marven!

Chapter 1497

To Elsa, Marven has always been a little far away.

He didn't feel much about Elsa, not to mention that Elsa was still a good girlfriend of his wife, and he had to keep a distance from her.

But he didn't expect that the two would still meet on the plane.

Elsa was in a good mood, she involuntarily got close to Marven, and asked, "Hey, Marven, how many days are you going to stay in Orgeyon this time?"

Marven said: "Not necessarily. It depends on the speed of the work. If it is fast, it will be two or three days, if it is slow, it will be four or five days."

Elsa said excitedly: "Oh, I booked the ticket four days later, how about you? When did you book the ticket? Can we come back together then?"

Marven said frankly: "I haven't booked the return flight ticket yet. Let's talk about it after the matter is over. It's still not sure."

Elsa said hurriedly: "Well then, when you are done with things, you tell me, I will see if the time can be coordinated, and if we can coordinate, then we will come back together."

Marven was somewhat repulsive in his heart, but on the surface, he still said indifferently: "Let's look at this when the time comes. There is still a lot of uncertainty."

Elsa didn't even notice that Marven was perfunctory, so she nodded and agreed.

Then she asked curiously: "What are you up to? How are you?"

Marven said: "I'm not busy, just show people Feng Shui occasionally, and stay at home for the rest of the time."

Elsa asked carefully: "After Avella came back, her mother didn't trouble you, right?"

“No.” Marvin smiled and said: “She is much more peaceful now than before?”

“That’s really great.” Elsa sighed sincerely: “I’m afraid Aunt bullies you at home. It’s great that she can settle down!”

Marven nodded lightly, took out his mobile phone, sent a WeChat message to Sara, and said to her: “Sara, give me a specific address of your home, I will be there today.”

Sara immediately sent him a voice call and asked excitedly: “Marven, are you coming here today?”

“Yes.” Marvin said: “I just finished handling the matter here last night, so I booked today’s ticket temporarily.”

Sara hurriedly said: “What time does it land? I will pick you up at the airport!”

Marven thought that she was a big star, and it was estimated that the paparazzi would follow her in and out, so he said: “Don’t bother, send me a specific position, and I will do it myself.”

Sara said: “No! I’m going to pick you up. But don’t worry, I will dress up for a while and I won’t be recognized.”

“Forget it.” Marvin said: “The paparazzi are very powerful. How many celebrities cheated and broke their shoes. They thought they were well hidden, but they were all procured by the paparazzi.”

Sara said helplessly: “Okay, then I will post the location to your WeChat later, can you be there at noon? I will let the family prepare lunch.”

Marven thought for a while: “Almost, then I’ll bother you.”

Sara chuckled and said: “I won’t tell my parents about this first, just say that an old person is going to be a guest at home. I believe they will be very excited when they see you!”

She said, there was also a hint of warmth in his heart.

Chapter 1498

Thinking of the deterioration of Sara’s father Philip, he asked, “Is Uncle’s condition okay?”

“Not so good...” Sara said in a low voice, “It’s not so good. The doctor has recommended that he be hospitalized again. My dad doesn’t want to go. I think he is a little depressed. Maybe he has resigned. I don’t want to toss anymore, he always feels that he has no dignity when he receives various treatments in the hospital...You may not know his character, but my mother said that he is exactly like your father. It’s like, they’re very axis, don’t listen to persuasion...”

Marven knows that many decent people have less desire to survive when they are dying.

This is mainly because they have been decent for so many years, and they value face and dignity very much. They don't want to put down all their dignity and esteem at the end of their lives in order to live for such a limited period of time.

Marven even heard that many great people have signed a no-rescue agreement when they are severely ill. If their lives come to the end, they will not be intubated, operated or on a ventilator, just to make themselves more dignified.

It seems that Philip has already started planning for the future.

Fortunately, the timing of his reunion with Sara was relatively coincidental. Otherwise, if wait for Philip to pass away from a serious illness, he would not be able to save Philip's life.

So, he said to comfort her: "Don't worry about this matter so much, I will help you solve it after I arrive."

Sara choked and said, "Thank you, Marven, he should be very happy if you can come to see Dad!"

Marven didn't want to talk too much to Sara, so as not to be heard by Elsa, who was next to him, so he said: "Let's do this first. The plane is about to take off and will be shut down."

Sara hurriedly said, "Okay, Marven, I am waiting for you in Orgeyon!"

Marven hung up the phone, and Elsa couldn't help but smile: "Oh, Marven, you are so amazing now. No wonder people call you Master. Listening to the tone you just called, it seems that they are waiting for you to fight the fire."

Marven smiled slightly: "Feng Shui is something like this sometimes, if there is no problem, but when there is a problem, it is often rushed."

Elsa sighed from the bottom of her heart: "Avella is really lucky to find a capable husband like you!"

After speaking, Elsa asked again: "By the way, where would you go to Orgeyon this time?"

Marven said: "Near Northeast Fifth Ring Road, there is the villa area."

Elsa said happily: "That's not far away! Come to my house?"

Marven said embarrassingly: "I won't, it's not appropriate, and I came to Orgeyon this time, there are quite a lot of things..."

Elsa smiled slightly: "It's okay. Look at that time. If you don't have time, it doesn't matter, but you have to give me a chance to treat you to dinner, just as I thank you for saving me twice, OK?"

Hearing that it was just a meal, Marven was not hypocritical, and he nodded and agreed: "Okay."

At this time, the beautiful and generous flight attendants have begun to remind everyone to buckle up their seat belts and the plane is ready to roll out.

Afterwards, the plane started slowly and came to the end of the runway. After taxiing to a sufficient speed on the runway, it took off into the air.

Elsa was very excited along the way, constantly searching for topics by Marven's side.

But Marven's thoughts have always been in Orgeyon, the place that carries his childhood memories.

After the one-hour and forty-minute flight, the plane slowly descended and landed smoothly on the runway of Orgeyon International Airport.

Marven's heart suddenly beat at this time, and shouted in his heart: "Orgeyon, I'm back!"

Chapter 1499

When the plane landed, Marven and Elsa got off the plane together.

Because Marven didn't have any luggage checked, he didn't have to wait to pick up his luggage, and Elsa was a big beauty after all, and she usually took a lot of clothes, cosmetics, and skincare products when she went out.

Especially for things like cosmetics and skincare products, it is easy to exceed the capacity, so she must check in.

After getting off the plane, she couldn't leave directly like Marven, and she had to wait for the luggage to come out at the luggage collection area.

So she hurriedly asked Marven: "Marven, how do you go later?"

Marven said, "I will go out and stop a taxi and leave."

Elsa hurriedly said: "Then you might as well wait for me for a while, let's go together? It just happened that my family drove to pick me up, and I can see you off."

Marven smiled and waved his hand: "No, Elsa, I'm quite anxious over there, let's go separately."

Elsa said helplessly: "Okay, then let's make an appointment another day. Don't forget that you promised me. Let's have a meal together."

"Okay." Marven smiled slightly and said: "You wait for your luggage, I'll go first, and I'll make an appointment another day."

After bidding farewell to Elsa, he walked out of Orgeyon Airport alone.

After he went out, he was too late to sigh, and he was ready to go directly to the taxi stop to queue up for a taxi.

Just after he came out, a woman wrapped in a thick down jacket, wearing a down jacket hat, a mask and black sunglasses, ran towards him quickly.

Before he could see clearly, the woman leaped at him happily, screaming happily, “Marven!”

He heard the woman’s voice, it was Sara, so he put down his guard and let her plunge into his arms.

Holding Sara lightly, Marven couldn’t help but ask her: “Didn’t I tell you, I said don’t pick me up? Why did you come here?”

Sara said diligently: “I wanted to see you soon! I’m afraid I stay at home, and I can’t help telling my parents the news of your coming in advance, so I just ran out.”

Marven asked again: “You won’t be spotted by the paparazzi when you come out. If you are secretly procured by the paparazzi and you are a big star hugging a man at the gate of the airport, then your popularity will probably be greatly affected.”

“What are you afraid of!” Sara said in a very indifferent tone: “If it is really procured and exposed, then I will say that I am holding my fiancé. If the popularity will decline because of this, then let it. I don’t rely on the entertainment industry to eat, so it’s easy to find you when I come in and play. Now that I find you, I can leave the circle at any time.”

“Okay.” Marven helplessly asked her: “Let’s go to see the uncle and aunt quickly, did you drive here?”

Sara nodded and said, “I just parked the car in the parking lot. Let’s go and pick up the car together!”

With that said, Sara hugged Marven’s arm and took him to the parking lot.

Sara drove a very humble old Volvo car today. After getting in the car, she took off her hat and said embarrassingly: “Marven, I’m sorry, the car I drove today is a bit shabby. The main reason is that most of the car paparazzi in our family know, so I just drove this old car out. Don’t dislike it.”

Marven smiled and nodded, and said, “You don’t know what days I have been living these years. I told you last time that I used to live in an orphanage. After I came out, my wife’s grandfather arranged for me to go to the construction site. After a year of college, I have gone through all the hardships, even if you tell me that you need me to walk to your house, I don’t mind.”

Sara looked at Marven and sighed softly, “Marven, you have suffered for so many years.”

Chapter 1500

Marven shook his head: “It doesn’t matter if you endure hardship. In my opinion, all the hardship I faced is a kind of training for me.”

Sara nodded earnestly, and while driving out of the parking lot, she said, “My dad was still talking about you yesterday. Didn’t the doctor ask him to go back to the hospital for treatment? He knows that his physical condition may be very unoptimistic. So he sighed, the biggest regret is that he couldn’t find you.”

Marven was moved and smiled slightly: “Sara, don’t worry, with me, Uncle will definitely recover his health.”

Sara didn't know Marven's abilities, let alone that Marven had the title of True Dragon Master in the upper class of Wrestvel, so she never believed that he could cure her father's terminal illness.

At this time, she just felt that Dad would be very pleased when he saw Marven. If the mood improves, I believe his body will also change to a certain extent.

Sara's home is not far from Orgeyon International Airport.

Orgeyon's airport is in the northeast of the city, and several top super villa districts of Orgeyon are also in the central villa district not far away.

Twenty minutes later, Sara drove the car to Orgeyon's Ocean Mansion.

Although there are many Orgeyon villas, most of them are townhouses of tens of millions. There are very few large and luxurious single-family villas in the urban area. Most single-family villas are located in very remote areas in the north. Near Xiaotang Mountain.

Among the limited single-family villas in the urban area, Ocean Mansion can be said to be one of the top villa areas.

Every villa here has a price of at least one billion and is luxurious.

However, this place still cannot be compared with the Ye family's mansion.

In Marven's memory, the Ye family's mansion was not a luxury villa built by this kind of developer, but the palace of a prince in the Qing Dynasty.

That is the real low-key luxury and grand atmosphere. Marven remembered that just the dozens of golden snail pillars in the mansion were priceless.

It is said that as early as more than ten years ago, a quote on the market had already exceeded 100 million.

This is not the most conspicuous. The most conspicuous one is the Prince Gong's Mansion in Orgeyon, where a pillar of Jinsinan is worth more than two billion.

However, Prince Gong's Mansion is a national cultural monument and is not owned by any individual.

Therefore, it can highlight the dignity of the Ye family mansion.

When Sara drove the car home, the courtyard door and garage door opened automatically.

A forty-year-old maid rushed into the garage, and while helping to open the car door, she respectfully said: "Miss, the food is ready, just wait for you, why did you just run away without saying a word."

After speaking, she suddenly found a man sitting in the co-pilot. She was surprised, and said politely: "Hello, sir!"

Marven nodded slightly, and Sara on the side could not restrain her excitement, and asked the servant: "Aunt, are my parents in the dining room?"

Auntie nodded slightly and said, "Miss, sir does not seem to be feeling well. He keeps saying that he wants to go back to room to rest. Go ahead."

When Sara heard this, she hurriedly took Marven's hand and ran into the villa.

Passing through the huge and luxurious hall, Sara directly took Marven to the dining room. As soon as she entered the dining room, she excitedly said to a middle-aged couple at the table: "Dad, Mom, do you see who I brought!"
