

The Amazing Son In-Law Chapter 1621-1630

Chapter 1621

Hearing Marven's question, Darren smiled bitterly, and said in a sad tone: "Master most people in this world are like this. They don't know how to be grateful, and they will depend on others and enjoy them only when they need others. Others give them help and support, but as soon as they don't need others, they will immediately turn their faces, and even complain that others have robbed them of the limelight."

Darren said with emotion, "You don't know. At that time, your father led them with Ross. When the Childe family fought fiercely, they were very flattering, and even took the initiative to form an Orgeyon business alliance and elected your father as the first chairman of the alliance."

"But when your father defeated the Rothschild family, they again immediately disbanded the business alliance, and even vilified your father's failure to operate, missed the opportunity to defeat the Rothschild family, and even maliciously slandered behind the scenes, saying that your father and the Rothschild family had joined forces to cheat the major families of Orgeyon off their interest."

Marven heard this, could not help but clenched fist, red with rage, thundered a low voice: "These people, it is too much, "

Darren sighed: "Hey Master, ah, employing forward! , No need to look like people from behind, in every big family in Orgeyon, it is everywhere! Back then, your father, from a hero who resisted the Rothschild family, suddenly became the object of envy and slander of everyone in Orgeyon. Your father was too good!"

Darren said here, he paused slightly, and continued: "The wood is beautiful in the forest, and the wind will destroy it. This is an eternal principle. After all, he was too good, so, The entire Orgeyon families turned their guns at him."

"The Rothschilds saw him become a target of public criticism, and immediately made a comeback, and they were also very insidious. They publicly declared that they were the Rothschilds, the Ye family, and they have personal grievances, naturally let all other aristocratic families watch the fire from the other side!"

Darren's tone became more and more angry: "The Old Master saw that the Ye family was going to be the target of the Rothschild family alone, and there were even a lot of Orgeyon people behind. Other families waited for an opportunity to stab the knife, so they had to expel your father from the Ye family, and announced to the public that your father had nothing to do with the Ye family, so your father would take you and your mother to leave Orgeyon. Go to Wrestvel."

Marven's expression was very gloomy. He gritted his teeth and said: "This incident is that the entire Orgeyon family betrayed the Ye family, and then the Ye family chose to betray my father, and finally pushed my father out as the scapegoat, Our family of three bore the anger of the Rothschild family alone."

Darren nodded lightly, and said with red eyes: "It was indeed like this back then."

Marven's eyes were full of solemnity, and he said coldly: "It's all. A group of b@stards who crossed the river and demolished bridges and fell into trouble, I swear by my name, one of these b@stards counts as one, and I will make them pay for it!"

Darren hurriedly said, "Master don't be impulsive! This happened back then. Except for the Gu family, all other families had participated in Orgeyon. From the Su family, which has been thriving in these years, to the other small families whose assets barely exceed 10 billion, all betrayed your father without exception. You must not Become their public enemy!"

Marven said with a resolute expression: "I am not a timid person. These people, even the Ye family, are all accomplices who killed my parents. I will not easily let them go!"

After speaking, he looked at Darren and said seriously: "steward Darren, you don't need to worry too much. I'm not a fool. When I'm under-fed and lacking in strength, I will not go against major Orgeyon's big families, I'll try my best, save energy, and give them a surprise!"

Darren sighed lightly, nodded and said, "Master it's not just that you want to avenge the second master and the second wife.

I am looking forward to this day for a long time. If you have any needs, I am willing to go through fire and water for this!" Marven nodded and said: "steward Darren, if there is anything that needs your help, I will definitely tell you."

Chapter 1622

Darren hurriedly said, "Master I have a small suggestion. I wonder if you would like to listen to it."

Marven said, "Please tell me."

Darren said, "Master I want Orgeyon to let those who fail your father. People pay the price, you must first hold the Ye Family firmly in your hands, and then formulate a detailed and complete plan to destroy these families one by one!"

Marven asked him: "If I hold the Ye Family in my hands, Which family do you think I am going to defeat first?"

"Su Family!"

Darren said without hesitation: "Su Family is the strongest. Killing them is equivalent to achieving half of the goal. Moreover, back then The group of people who stabbed your father secretly were all gathered by the Su family. They had formed an anti-Ye alliance in private, and the Su family was the leader."

"The anti-Ye alliance?" Marven sneered, "Okay." An anti-Ye alliance! Just three words, I will not give up with the Su family!"

Darren said, "By the way, Master today Elder Master Ye convened a meeting with all his protagonists and mentioned you and the Su family."

“Oh?” Marven frowned and asked him, “What did he say?”

Darren glanced at Sara, hesitated for a moment, and said, “I just said it straight away. The old master helped Ye family fix it. Master Ye has been waiting for the Ye Family to take off for the second time. He has pinned the Ye Family’s hope of taking off on you, so he wants you to come back and ask you to follow The Su family’s lady to get married.”

“Su family?!” Marven and Sara both looked shocked and questioned in unison.

“For him, it is the Su family!” Darren sighed and said, “Miss Zhiyu of the Su family is very important in the Su family. Whoever marries her will definitely get a lot of resources from the Su family. He wants you to do that, but let me persuade you.”

After speaking, he glanced at Sara again and said embarrassingly: “Master also said, if the Su family is not good, Miss Sara is also an excellent candidate.”

Sara blushed immediately.

Marven said in a cold voice, “When my father was being accused by thousands of people, he instead of helping our family of three sheltering us from the wind and rain, drove us out. Now he wants me to help the Ye family take off. It’s just a pipe dream!”

Darren nodded his head and said: “Master’s approach is certainly a bit too much, but you also unnecessary too angry, on the contrary that was a good opportunity to bring counted on the meter, you could have promised him, with Miss Sara complete engagement, then Take the opportunity to ask him for more resources from the Ye Family. If you can become the next Patriarch of the Ye Family and deal with the Su Family, you will definitely increase your chances of winning!”

Chapter 1623

“Become the Patriarch of the Ye Family?”

Marven smiled indifferently, and said with a little disdain: “I have no interest in the title of the Patriarch of the Ye Family.”

Darren hurriedly said, “Master don’t forget, Ye family is the second largest family in Orgeyon, and even the second largest family in the country. If you can get the Ye family, then the distance between you and the Su family will be very closer!”

Marven waved his hand and said, “steward Darren, finally One day, I will use my own hands to defeat the Su family and all other families that have failed my father! I will rely on my own strength to let them kneel before my parents’ grave to confess!”

Darren sighed “Master if you get the Ye Family, you will come sooner to this day!”

Marven said coldly, “I don’t want to return to the Ye Family, because when that day comes, even the Ye Family will have to Kneel!”

Darren was frightened by Marven’s determined attitude and cold aura.

At this moment, he saw Changying's shadow on Marven's body.

It was also at this moment that he gave up his plan to persuade Marven to return to the Ye Family and fight for the head of the Family.

Because he knew that the Ye family was not worthy!

The Ye family was not good enough for Changying back then, and now they are not good enough for Changying's son!

Therefore, he immediately stated to Marven: "Master from now on, I will listen to your instructions. If you need it, I can leave Ye's house at any time, and focus on being with you!"

Marven smiled slightly and said, "Now Don't worry, but in the future, I might really need steward Darren, you leave Ye's house and come out to help me."

Marven also wants to take Ichiro to Japan quickly before the arrival of the Lunar New Year, to thoroughly understand Kobayashi Pharmaceutical. Take it in his own hands, and let Kobayashi Pharmaceutical's horsepower to produce JX Weisan for himself, and then develop a liver-protecting drug, quickly seizing the global market.

The pharmaceutical industry is related to human health. As long as there is the core technology, profitability is not a problem at all, and it can easily become a giant multinational group.

If you develop JX Pharmaceutical into the world's top pharmaceutical company, neither the Ye family nor the Su family will be able to compete with them.

Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals has several production bases in Japan with huge production capacity. It is definitely unrealistic to move all of them back to China. Therefore, a reliable person is needed to help him observe in Japan as the chairman of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals.

At that time, Kobayashi Pharmaceutical will have to be renamed JX Pharmaceutical, and it is certain that Ichiro's straw bag cannot be the chairman.

Therefore, Darren will be the most suitable candidate in Marven's eyes.

Although Darren didn't know what Marven wanted to do, he didn't hesitate to say, "I will listen to your dispatch at any time!"

Marven nodded and said, "I am here for today, steward Darren, I will go back with Sara first. I will have to go back to Wrestvel tomorrow."

Darren asked in surprise, "Master, are you leaving so soon?"

Marven said, "I still have a lot to do. It's too late for me already."

Darren said: "Then I'll take you and Miss Sara out!"

Marven said, "Oh, yes, the tea you made is good. Give me some. I'll go back and give my Old Master, he bought a bunch of junk tea from the deceptive tea seller on WeChat. He can't return it as a baby."

Darren hurriedly said, "Master wait a moment, I will arrange for someone to bring it over!"

Soon, a teahouse manager carrying a few exquisite gift boxes and walked over quickly.

Darren said to Marven: "Master here are the best Mingqian Longjing, super Jin Junmei and good old Pu'er. You can take it back and give Mr. Xiao a taste. If he likes it, I will mail you some more stock regularly."

Marven took the tea and thanked him: "steward Darren, That is so nice of you, thank you."

Darren hurriedly bowed and said, "Don't dare to be."

After bidding farewell to Darren, Marven and Sara returned to the Gu family villa together.

Chapter 1624

On the way, Sara remained silent, as if something was on her mind.

Seeing her beautiful brows were always frowning, Marven couldn't help but ask her: "Sara, what are you thinking?" Sara returned to her senses and said, "Marven, you and Avella have a relationship Is it really good?"

Marven asked in amazement : "Why did you suddenly ask about this?"

Sara said, "I'm just curious, and also a little worried about it."

"Worry about what?"

"Worry about your relationship if it is real and deep? What should I do later?"

Marven smiled slightly and asked her: "Have you ever thought about what you will do in the future before meeting me?"

Sara nodded: "I thought about it, before I met you Before, I felt that I must find you. If I can't find you, I'll stay single. Anyway, I don't feel much about other men."

Marven asked, "If you really can't find me, you can't keep going single to 30 or 40 years old?"

Sara said seriously: "Don't say 30 or 40, what about 50 or 60 years old? My life is already fulfilled, so I won't be wronged just because I need a man. So I'd rather not chant, if I can't find you, then I might spend most of my life traveling around the world. When I'm old, I will find a place I like to settle down, grow flowers, grow grass, and raise small astupidls. I donated all the family properties, so it would be good for a lifetime."

Marven's persuasion reached his lips and swallowed it back.

At this moment, he suddenly realized that he had left an indelible mark on Sara's life. No matter whether he would be with her in the future, this mark could not be removed by luck.

This is what he owes her, and it is also an unshirkable responsibility.

It's just that, at the moment, he still can't figure out how he should resolve the relationship between this girl and himself for more than 20 years.

That night, Lenan personally cooked and prepared a table of rich and delicious meals.

Philip took out the top Maotai he saved for Sara's wedding and had a drink with Marven.

Marven was about to leave, and both of them were a little bit sad.

But the two also knew very well that Marven not only had a small family of his own in Wrestvel, but also started his own business there.

Marven did not go to the Emgrand Group given by the Ye family a few times. He did not take any money from the Emgrand Group;

Marven did not spend much for the 10 billion given by the Ye family, and he spent almost all the money later. Earn it himself, or took it from Kobayashi Pharmaceutical.

Now JX Pharmaceutical has become famous in China, and JX Weisan has become famous both at home and abroad for its powerful medicinal effects in a short period of time.

After trying this magical stomach medicine, many foreigners are crazy about purchasing and preparing to take it back to their country and share it with their loved ones.

This has further led to the popularity of JX Weisan.

Currently, JX Weisan has been in short supply. Distributors across the country are holding large amounts of cash, hoping to get more stock.

Following the development, JX Weisan is likely to become the world's best-selling and most well-known stomach medicine.

The practicability and applicability of stomach medicine are very wide. People all over the world, regardless of age, gender, or race, will have this aspect.

Therefore, this also means that JX Pharmaceutical's future development prospects are immeasurable.

Both husband and wife believed that if one day Marven could mass produce the magical rejuvenating pill, then he would definitely become the richest person in the world, not one of them.

Therefore, they also know that for Marven now, Wrestvel is his base, his base camp, and the cornerstone of his personal career soaring!

Chapter 1625

Early the next morning, Marven was about to say goodbye to Sara's family, and then he took a taxi to the station, but unexpectedly, Philip insisted on driving him personally.

Lenan and Sara were walking with him.

Marven didn't want them to spend a lot of trouble, but couldn't stand the hospitality, so he agreed.

On the road, Philip drove his Rolls-Royce sedan, Lenan sat in the passenger seat, and Marven and Sara sat in the back row.

Sara's mood has always been a little depressed, but since her parents are in the car, she didn't speak, and she seemed to worry about it all the way.

Seeing the outline of the airport can be seen outside the window, Sara plucked up the courage to stretch out her hand, quietly grabbed Marven's palm, and her little hand squeezed Marven's hand firmly.

Marven turned her head to look subconsciously, and found that Sara's eyes were stubbornly and resentful looking at him, and he couldn't help feeling a bit of guilt in his heart.

Rolls-Royce stopped steadily at the gate of the departure floor of the airport. Marven gently took his hand out of Sara's hand and said to the three of them: "Uncle, Aunt Lenan, and Sara, you just Don't get out of the car.

The airport is crowded and it's not so good to be seen by people, especially the girls , who are public figures." Sara said hurriedly, "I can wear a mask!"

Lenan said at this time: "If it's OK, even if you wear them Masks, you can only send Marven to the security checkpoint, there is not much distance in total, so don't take this risk."

Philip also nodded and said: "Yes, don't cause Marven trouble."

"Okay." Sara nodded slightly, looked at Marven, and said: "Marven, remember to inform me after you board the plane, and tell me after landing."

Marven smiled: "Okay. Yes, I know, don't worry." After that, Marven got out of the car and took a small bag from the trunk.

Afterwards, he waved goodbye to the Gu family of three through the window of the car, turned around and entered the airport.

As soon as he entered the airport, he received a call from Elsa: "Marven, are you at the airport?"

Marven said, "I'm here, and I'm going through the security check.?"

Elsa hurriedly said, "Then you go in first. , I'm in a traffic jam here, it may take about 20 minutes, I should be in time."

Marven said, "Then see you during a break or at the boarding gate, if it is not possible, we can also see each other on the plane."

"No problem!"

Marven hung up the phone, went through the security check alone and came to the t3 terminal.

The t3 terminal of Orgeyon Airport is very large, with many luxury shops in it. Basically, major international brands have stores here.

Marven thought that he only prepared some tea from Darren for Dave, but he hadn't prepared gifts for his wife and mother-in-law.

When he set off, Mother-in-law still flattered him to bring her some gifts. Seeing that she hadn't been a demon recently, and being respectful to him, he really wanted to give her some sweetness.

As for his wife, Avella, let alone, it is natural to carefully prepare a gift for her.

So he took advantage of this time to go shopping in the commercial street of the airport.

Because Marven has very low material requirements in his daily life, he couldn't think of what gifts should be given to his wife and mother-in-law, so it took him to think for a while.

Thinking that women of any age like bags, Marven walked into the Hermès store without hesitation.

The price disparity of Hermes is very large. The cheaper price is about 100,000, but this is only a starting point. Their high-end products can be expensive to millions.

Marven was a bit dismissive of the arrogant salesgirl in the store because of his ordinary clothes, but she didn't say anything malicious, but her attitude was somewhat unattractive.

Marven didn't pay too much attention. He looked around in the store, and he took a fancy to the large limited edition crocodile leather handbag in the glass showcase.

This handbag is the classic orange color of Hermès. The leather texture is very good and perfect, and the workmanship is also very elegant. It is very suitable for casual use or business use.

Marven greeted the sales girl and asked, "Hello, I want this bag, please wrap it up for me, please."

Chapter 1626

The salesgirl frowned and said, "Sir, the price of this bag is 580,000 yuan." Marven hummed and said, "No problem, I want it."

The salesgirl said again, "Sir, sorry. , Buying this bag requires distribution."

Marven asked in surprise: "What does distribution mean? Can this bag be purchased directly?" The salesgirl smiled contemptuously: "Sir, you are visiting first time to Hermès? Haven't you bought anything from Hermès before?"

Marven nodded, "No, why? What's the problem?"

Salesgirl hummed, "A lot of Hermès bags are not something you can buy. You buy them. You can pick, choose, and buy at will, but you can buy the basic items and basic items under 300,000 yuan, but the items above 300,000 are basically limited editions!"

"Don't look at the price of this bag in the store. Five hundred and eighty thousand, but as long as you take it out, you can immediately sell for seven to eight hundred thousand. Therefore, if you want to buy this bag, you must be a senior member of Hermes and make an appointment with our store manager in advance. You can; or, you have to buy a certain amount of other items, and other items cannot be popular items, and you can buy this bag if you have enough of 500,000 yuan ." Marven frowned: "According to what you mean, I If you want to buy this bag, you have to buy 500,000 other things first?"

"This is right." The salesgirl smiled and laughed: "Hermes all over the world follow this rule, don't you know it? Or you just want to try your luck and want to cheat this bag out of our store to make the difference?"

For Hermes, its limited-edition handbags have an amazing high preservation rate.

Even many styles are more expensive to sell in the second-hand market than first-hand, and the reason is the hunger marketing of Hermès.

Other brands can sell things for money, but Hermès doesn't.

Because the outside price is much more expensive than in the store, if you want to buy something from their store according to the price, you must buy hundreds of thousands or even millions of additional items.

In this way, if you want to get a limited package, you need to pay more than one million yuan.

However, Hermès is also very smart. If it is a distribution, you can't buy their hot-selling item, but can only buy their slow-moving item.

Unsalable money is very nonsense. For example, some 18k gold rings cost about 1,000 yuan, but because of the Hermes mark, they will sell for 50,000, 80,000, or even more than 100,000.

Such a ring, even if it is bought and sold out, no one wants to buy it, unless it is transferred at a very low discount.

Marven didn't get angry after he understood the rules of Hermes. Since they have this rule, then he just followed the rules.

So Marven said: "In this case, I can buy other things for 500,000 yuan, right?" Sales girl's eyes lit up when she heard this, but she didn't expect Marven to be a secret rich man with 500,000 yuan. Goods, too lazy to bargain, just ready to ask for it?

When she heard this, she changed her indifference and hurried forward, and said respectfully: "Sir, I will show you the things that can be used for distribution in our shop. You can see what you need."

Marven points He nodded and said: "I just saw a common style handbag, the price seems to be around 160,000, can that be used for distribution?"

"Yes." The sales girl said without hesitation: "The price of that bag is 158,888, so you need another 340,000 or so."

Marven was about to look at the others. At this time, a woman's voice came from the door: "I want to see Hermes!"

Then, another man's voice came: "Don't look, we are going to the boarding gate."

The spoiled woman pleaded: "! There half an hour before boarding, take me around Well,"

The man said helplessly: "Well, can only visit for twenty minutes!"

"Very kind of you"!

Right Then, a pair of young men and women stepped in.

Marven recognized the man at a glance. Isn't he the same Koichi Tanaka who had been with Nanako before?

How could he appear here.

Chapter 1627

At this moment, Koichi Tanaka's attention was all on the fashionable and somewhat coquettish woman beside him.

So he didn't find Marven in the store.

After the two came in, the woman took Tanaka and looked around the shop.

Immediately afterward, she pointed to the Hermès limited edition handbag that Marven had already bought for his wife, and said coquettishly: "Babes, I want this bag!" Tanaka said embarrassingly, "My dear, this time I came to Orgeyon to find a famous doctor for the eldest lady, not for shopping, and I didn't find a famous doctor. don't know how to go back. If you really want to buy something, you can wait until you return to Japan and I will buy it. We can go to Tokyo to see."

The woman reluctantly said: "I don't want to look for it in Tokyo, I want this one! You have to believe in fate when you buy a bag, and you must take it when you encounter it, otherwise it will be very difficult. Maybe I won't be able to buy it anymore!"

Tanaka said helplessly: "I have a difficult task on me. I can't take you with me. It's already a violation of the rules to bring you here quietly. If you have a high profile For shopping , it's hard for me to go back and explain to the president!"

The woman hummed, "I was an Orgeyon native before immigrating to Japan. If your president asks, you can tell him that I am just right. I also want to go back to my hometown to see my relatives. As for shopping, you can also say that I bought it myself."

Then, the woman took Tanaka Koichi's arm and pleaded: "Koichi, I really like this bag. Buy it for me, please? I beg you."

Tanaka hesitated for a moment, and said helplessly: "Okay, okay, but you must remember that after you go back, don't show off to the people around you, let alone this bag you say that you bought it in Orgeyon, do you understand?"

The woman smiled happily and said, "I know!"

After speaking, he immediately waved at the sales girl next to Marvin: "Beauty, I want this bag, help me get it!"

The attentive sales girl said apologetically: "Sorry miss, this bag has been taken by this gentleman, and he is now picking up the goods." As she said, the sales girl made a very respectful gesture with her palm facing Marvin next to her.

Marvin didn't even bother to look back at them. He just looked at the counter in front of him and said to the salesgirl, "Thank you for helping me get two scarfs of 30,000 yuan and the men's belt of 20,000 yuan. "The salesgirl nodded respectfully, and immediately helped him take out the things.

Seeing this, the woman said angrily: "Hey, didn't he have finished picking? Since he hasn't even finished picking the goods, it's still not the checkout? We can just swipe the card now!"

Then she so hurriedly said to Tanaka Koichi: "Koichi, take your card out!"

Tanaka said embarrassingly: "Since the man has scheduled it first, let's change to another one."

"No!" The woman hurriedly blurted out: "I want this one! I just saw this one!"

After that, she pointed to Marvin and said to Tanaka Koichi: "Babes, you give him a few more yuan for the benefit, Let him transfer this bag to me, okay!"

Tanaka really couldn't stand the other party's soft and hard foam and coquettishness, so he had to say to Marvin: "You Sir, my girlfriend has taken a fancy to this bag. If you can give it to us, I am willing to give you one hundred thousand yuan for a benefit. don't know if you are willing to cut love?"

Marven waved his hand without looking back.

The woman said angrily: "Hey! You don't have to do anything, just make 100,000 yuan in vain, where is there such a good thing? You didn't even agree, do you want the lion to speak out?"

Marven didn't bother to care about her. Continue to say to the salesgirl: "Come on, bring me this fifty-eight women wallet."

"Hey!" The woman did not expect Marven to completely ignore her words, and said angrily: "My boyfriend is a senior assistant to the Ito family in Japan! He is the confidant of Ito Yuhiko, the head of the Ito family. If you offend him, he will let you in the future unable to eat and walk around!"

Chapter 1628

Marven heard this and snorted: "Such as show off! believe it or not, even if Ito Takehiko stands in front of me, as long as he dares to pretend to be forceful with me, I will beat him. Let him call me grandpa on his knees."

"b*stard!" Koichi Tanaka, who had some guilt towards Marven because of his girlfriend's impoliteness, suddenly became angry.

He sternly reprimanded: "You dare to be disrespectful to Master Ito, are you too great?"

Marven smiled, turned his head to look at Koichi Tanaka, and asked coldly, "Is it Tanaka? It's been a long time."

The moment Tanaka saw Marven, his whole person seemed to have seen a ghost.

He still clearly remembered Marven's one move to destroy the picture of Yamamoto Kazuki.

There is no doubt that Marven is definitely the most abnormal person he has ever seen in his life, and he did not expect to meet this evil star in the Hermes store in Orgeyon Airport.

His legs softened, he knelt on the ground with a thump, walked a few steps on the ground, and came to Marven's side, and said respectfully and fearfully: "Mr. Marven, I didn't expect it to be you! I'm so sorry!"

Koichi Tanaka was naturally afraid of Marven.

In the beginning, treasure level master Yamamoto Kazuki, just pretended to be a force with Marven, he was beaten into a cripple, and he said nothing to disobey him!

Otherwise, if Marven is unhappy, he will just abandon him, but he can only lie down and return to Japan.

Tanaka Hiroshi looked at the woman. Seeing him suddenly kneel down and apologized to the man, she was amazed. She hurriedly stretched out her hand to get him up, and said angrily, "Babes, are you crazy? You are President Ito's man. In the eyes of the most promising young generation, the future is limitless, how can you kneel to a stranger?"

Hiroshi Tanaka angrily stretched out his hand, pulled the woman to the ground, and sternly shouted: "Presumptuous! Who made you rude in front of Mr. Marven? Hurry up and apologize to him!"

The woman was pulled to the ground by Hiroshi Tanaka. With a cry, her knees were so painful that she said aggrieved: "Babes, what do you mean?!"

As soon as Tanaka raised his hand, he slapped her and cursed: "Give me the f*cking nonsense, and apologize quickly!"

The woman was stunned by the beating, but seeing that Koichi Tanaka was so nervous, she was also a little scared, so she had to hesitate to say to Marven: "Sir, yes...sorry, it's all my fault... .."

Marven was too lazy to be familiar with these two people, and said coldly: "You two will remember me, I don't care how many of you are in Japan to fudge, as long as you are in China, you two will give me a low profile, as the saying goes. Well said, the Raptors can't cross the river yet, what are you two?"

Hiroshi Tanaka nodded hurriedly and begged: "Mr. Marven, I know I was wrong. From now on, I will be a low-key person, and I will teach this stupid woman to be a low-key person. Please don't be the same as the two of us."

Marven waved his hand disdainfully: "Go away."

When Tanaka heard Marven say these two words, he was relieved immediately and hurriedly thanked him: "Thank you, Mr. Marven, let's get out now, get out now..."

After that, he got up and ran out.

Marven suddenly remembered something and stopped him and said: "Wait a minute!"

Tanaka trembled in shock, and asked nervously, "Mr. Marven, what else do you have to say?"

Marven said indifferently: "I ask you something, and you will answer me honestly."

"Okay!" Tanaka nodded hurriedly: "Don't worry, I must say everything!"

Marven asked coldly, "How is your eldest lady now?"

Chapter 1629

When Tanaka heard Marven's question, his expression flashed dim, and he sighed slightly, saying: "Mr. Marven, it is true that Miss Nanako suffered very serious injuries in the battle with Miss Qin. We saved her life, but her body is not as good as before. She is now recuperating in Kyoto..."

Marven couldn't help feeling a little nervous when he thought of Nanako's tenderness.

However, he still hid his emotions. On the surface, he asked, "Is there anything wrong? Can she still participate in the competition?"

Tanaka Hiroshi smiled bitterly: "She definitely can't participate in the competition. The eldest lady is very weak now. She was barely able to stand a few days ago, but she couldn't walk a few steps away. Now she rests in bed most of the time every day. If it's good, she'll take a wheelchair to bask in the sun.

Marven suddenly saw the girl who loves to laugh, sitting in a wheelchair basking in the sun, and felt that his heart seemed to hurt.

He asked again: "Then how is her mood?"

Hiroshi Tanaka shook his head: "The eldest lady seems to have no influence on the surface, and she is happy every day, but based on my understanding of her, she should have a lot of thoughts in her heart. She talked to me a few days ago and asked me if I don't particularly want to see people, but there are people who may never see them in my life. don't know what the eldest lady means, but I can see that she was very depressed at the time..."

Marven couldn't help but sighed and said, "She shouldn't have played that game back then."

Tanaka didn't expect that Marven would feel sorry for his eldest lady.

After being stunned for a moment, he couldn't help sighing: "Mr. Marven, you are right. In the beginning, the president and I persuaded the lady not to play that game, but the lady disagreed life and death..."

After talking, Tanaka Koichi again said: "During this time, the guild grows up and searched all the famous doctors in Japan, but they were unable to treat the young lady's injuries. That's why I came to Orgeyon and went to the Orgeyon National Medical Center to seek medical advice for the young lady. medicine....."

Marven gave a hum and asked him, "How about it? Have you got it?"

"No." Hiroshi Tanaka shook his head dejectedly, and said: "The President has offered a very high remuneration, and I hope to invite the famous doctors of the National Medical Center to Japan to treat the young lady, but they are not willing to accept it."

Marven shook his head.

On the day Nanako was injured, he was watching. He knew that she was injured very seriously, which was far beyond the current level of Chinese and Western medicine.

So no matter it is the current top Western medicine or traditional medicine, it is impossible to cure her.

Probably, the only person in this world who can cure her is himself.

Thinking of this, Marven remembered that he was going to Japan soon. I wonder if I can meet Nanako in Kyoto this time?

If he has a chance, he must go to see her, at least, to heal her injuries.

At this time, Marven didn't have the mood to continue to care about with Tanaka Koichi and his girlfriend, so he waved his hand and said, "Okay, I won't pursue this matter, you two should go quickly."

Tanaka, as he received a pardon, hurriedly bowed to Marven, and said respectfully: "Mr. Marven, then let's go first..."

After that, he took the woman next to him and fled quickly.

Chapter 1630

Marven sighed with a melancholy expression, turned around and bought some small Hermes items from the counter as a distribution.

After matching up to 500,000, he directly swiped his card to check out, carrying a bunch of Hermes gift boxes, and heading to the VIP lounge.

When Marven reached the VIP lounge, Elsa had already arrived.

Seeing Marven coming in with something from Hermes, she said with a bit of jealousy: "I said why I didn't see you after I came, so you went to visit Hermes! Did you buy a gift for Avella?"

Marven nodded naturally: "I finally came to the big city of Orgeyon. Of course I have to buy some souvenirs for my wife."

Elsa curled her lips and said, "Marven, I found that you are hidden deep enough, a star as big as Sara, and any signed photo can be sold for thousands on a second-hand website. You knew her, and I never heard you talk about it."

Marven said indifferently: "How can I take others out as my capital to show off? Wouldn't that betray the kindness of others to me?"

Elsa nodded slightly: "That's what you said."

After all, she asked with some gossip: "Do you know what you two have known since childhood?"

Marven shook his head and said, "Of course don't know, I actually don't want to tell anyone, but I didn't expect to be seen by you in Hwai yesterday, otherwise you wouldn't know."

Elsa said happily: "In this way, I actually know your secrets that I didn't even know at the beginning. Does this mean that our relationship has gone further?"

Marven said helplessly: "What are you thinking about? I just said it just happened to be bumped by you."

Elsa snorted, “Whether it happens or not, I also know one more secret about you than at first!”

After that, she observed Marven’s eyes and asked: “Eh Marven, how many secrets are there in you? It feels like you are mysterious, as I can’t see through you at all.”

Marven didn’t want her to ask questions about this kind of thing, so he cleverly ridiculed: “What else is completely invisible? That time when we went to the hot springs together, I wore a pair of swimming trunks. I can’t let you see the rest after you finish it.”

Elsa blushed suddenly!

In her mind, it suddenly appeared that when Marven was wearing swimming trunks in the hot spring hotel, that strong and perfect figure, the deer couldn’t help but jump around.

Although blushing, she still whispered shyly: “Why can’t I see the rest...”

Marven said awkwardly: “Do you still have to ask why? We are friends, and you are my wife’s best friend, so of course I can’t show you the rest!”

Elsa lowered her head and whispered softly: “Why do you want to treat me like this? When I was injured, didn’t I also let you see the places you shouldn’t be shown? Did you not touch it?”

Marven blurted out: “These are two different things. It was to save you, not to take advantage of you.”

Elsa pouted her little mouth, rolled her eyes towards Marven, and said, “Who knows if you were trying to take advantage? Maybe you are saving people and taking advantage, and do both!”

As she said, she said hurriedly and seriously: “Actually, I don’t care about letting you take advantage of it. Even if I let you take advantage of it, I am willing to...”
