

The Amazing Son In-Law Chapter 1641-1650

Chapter 1641

Horiyah followed the Xiao family into the restaurant with resentment towards Mrs. Xiao.

Mrs. Xiao sat down directly on the main seat of the dining table and glanced at Horiyah's cooked food. She frowned dissatisfiedly and said, "Why are all home-cooked dishes? I don't have any hard dishes. don't know I'm old. Do you not need to replenish your body?"

Horiyah said with a bit of aggrieved tone: "Mom, you can't blame me for this. The money in the family is yours. I only have a few hundred in total. How can I afford to buy a lot of big fish and meat."

Mrs. Xiao coldly snorted, "I know you can find a reason. You can buy a chicken for a few hundred, right? A local chicken is only a hundred, can't you afford it?"

Horiyah was very angry and said, "Mom, five people in the family eat, you don't pay me living expenses. I am also a clever woman who can't cook without rice. There is still pork in this meal today, and I might not even be able to eat meat for the next meal."

Mrs. Xiao glared at her: "The living expenses are okay, but you have to be reimbursed. In the future, you will go to a regular supermarket to buy food and come to me for reimbursement with the receipt."

Horiyah felt a little disgusted when she thought that she might have to buy vegetables for hundreds every day and reconcile the reimbursement with the Old Lady.

But she didn't show it. She just said smoothly: "Okay, since mom is not too troublesome, then we will check the accounts once a day from now on."

Mrs. Xiao smiled sarcastically: "I don't find it troublesome, the Old Lady is very energetic."

Theresa next to her was flipping her phone while sipping her food, and then said to Mrs. Xiao: "Grandma, can I apply for an image fee with you?"

Mrs. Xiao frowned and asked, "What image fee?"

Theresa behaved and said: "Grandma, look, I am now the commercial director of our Xiao Group. This commercial director usually specializes in external affairs. After going out, it represents the image of our company. So my dress, even Cosmetics and skin care products have to meet our company's positioning."

Mrs. Xiao gave her a white look, and said, "Don't be arguing with me here, just say what you want."

Theresa said: "Grandma, I want to apply for 100,000 to buy a bag, buy new clothes, and buy some cosmetics and skin care products."

“One hundred thousand?!” Mrs. Xiao coldly snorted, “Do you really think our family’s money was brought by the wind?”

Theresa said aggrievedly: “Grandma, didn’t Mr. Regnar give us tens of millions? The funds in the company’s account are also quite abundant. 100,000 is nothing to us!”

Mrs. Xiao said angrily: “Isn’t that what? I tell you, money is because you always think that 100,000 is nothing, 200,000 is nothing, and even 1 million is not much. Little by little, we defeated the Xiao Group! So from now on, we must seize this opportunity of rebirth from the ashes, and we must not make any mistakes we made before!”

Theresa was also a little unhappy, and muttered with a little emotion: “After so long and hard days, I don’t even have a decent set of cosmetics now, so I will go out to discuss business and cooperation in such a disheveled manner. I’m sorry for the reputation of our Xiao Group. Besides, my bags were sold cheaply for the sake of food etc. Now I don’t even have a good bag. Wouldn’t I be laughed at when I go out?”

Mrs. Xiao waved her hand impatiently: “Okay, don’t come to this set with me. The bag problem will be solved. Just buy a fake one. Buy a fake Hermes. Wouldn’t it be worthwhile to carry it out?”

Chapter 1642

“What’s the face...” Theresa was anxious, choked up and said: “How can I say that I am also the commercial director of the Xiao Group. If I’m caught by a fake Hermes when I go out. What a shame if I am found out!”

Mrs. Xiao sneered and said, “You know what a bullsh*t! If you have a noble status these days, you just carry a fake bag, which is true in the eyes of others; but if you have a humble status, you are even saying the truth. In the eyes of others, he is also a fake! The Xiao Group is now in Phoenix Nirvana and it is a rebirth from the ashes. In the eyes of outsiders, you are the commercial director, naturally contain a lot of gold. Even if you carry a fake bag, no one will think that is fake!”

Theresa was depressed: “Grandma, even if you don’t look at it, if I am the commercial director of the Xiao Group, even if I am your granddaughter, giving me 100,000 is not too much, right?”

Mrs. Xiao snorted: “Don’t come to this set, it’s only ten thousand, you want it, don’t pull it down!”

Theresa was extremely depressed, but when she thought of 10,000, if she didn’t want it, then she would lose all that as well.

So she nodded and said aggrieved: “Well, ten thousand is ten thousand...”

Mrs. Xiao cleared her throat and said solemnly: “I tell you, this time, we must let the Xiao Group regain its glory! We even want the Xiao Group to take another step, so you call me one by one. With the spirit of 12 points, no hedonistic thinking is allowed, otherwise, even if it is my son or grandson, they have to get out! Do you understand?”

Noah, Jay, and Theresa knew in their hearts that the Old Lady said this to them.

Although the hearts were depressed, everyone didn't dare to show any objection. They could only nod bitterly and said in unison: "We understand..."

Mrs. Xiao was satisfied with this and waved her hand: "Okay, hurry up and eat. We have to go to the company in the afternoon to continue working!"

There was an uneasy feeling in her heart: "Viola's b*tch has a bunch of Hermes. I want to buy one. Grandma didn't even agree and asked me to buy a fake one. If I really buy a fake Hermes, in case, I meet Viola, so I still have to let her die?!"

Thinking of this, she became more and more angry in her heart, Viola's old w!tch, why use such an expensive thing?

I am now youthful and naturally beautiful, why can't even Viola be as good?

Thinking of this, she said aggrieved: "Grandma! Look! Even Viola b*tch has used real Hermes, why can't I use one real?!"

Mrs. Xiao snatched the phone from her, took a look, and said angrily: "d*mn Viola, I know it all day long!"

Noah also took the phone and looked at it and found that there was a picture of Viola taking a selfie with her bag on her back. He said coldly: "This stinky lady's legs seem to have been plastered off! She's going to jump out!"

Jay's teeth tickled when he thought of Viola, and hurriedly asked him: "Dad, didn't you say you want to punish her before? When do you do it? I have wanted to teach this d*mn lady a long time ago!"

"Don't worry." Dave snorted coldly: "She broke her leg before and stayed at home all day long, so she couldn't rush into her house and fix her? Wouldn't we have to put us in? Since hers The cast has been removed from the leg, and she must be stumbling out. When the time comes, we will seize the opportunity and she must be treated well!"

Chapter 1643

Noah still hates Viola very much.

Not only have they been hanging there, she has also successively bought a batch of new ones online, and now there are more than 30 in total.

Noah goes in and out of Tomson First Grade every day, passing through Marven's house, so he will see them, more than 30 green hats fluttering in the wind, and every time he is angry enough to think of killing her.

He always wanted to find a chance to tidy up Viola, and by the way, he also added some blockage to Marven's house to make Ragnar as satisfied as possible. However, Viola had a plaster on her leg, and she stayed at home most of the time. Even if he wanted to start. no chance.

Now that Viola's plaster has been removed, she must be able to come out very quickly because of her character. As long as she goes out frequently, he has a chance to deal with her.

When she heard that Viola was going to be cleaned up, Mrs. Xiao was also interested. She said in a cold voice, "This d*mn Viola is jumping all day long. The last time she was in the detention center, she should have been taken care of more thoroughly. All the legs interrupted, to relieve the hate!"

Theresa hurriedly said: "Grandma, then we can find a chance to break her legs this time!"

"Yes, grandma!" Jay became excited immediately, and blurted out: "If you interrupt both her legs, I've long seen her not pleasing to my eyes!"

Mrs. Xiao looked at Noah and said: "Noah, Viola has been insulting you and humiliating the entire Xiao family. You should really make a plan to show this b*tch a little bit of color."

After having lunch at home, Marven called Mr. Orvel to drive over and picked him up to the kennel.

He plans to go to Japan tomorrow and quickly settle all matters concerning Kobayashi Pharmaceutical.

To get Kobayashi Pharmaceutical, it is inseparable from the help of brothers Ichiro and Jiro.

In Mr. Orvel's car, Marven asked him: "How are Ichiro and Jiro's performance at the kennel recently?"

Mr. Orvel chuckled: "Master, these two brothers performed well in the kennel. They worked hard and don't dare to pretend to be forceful everywhere. They are working honestly like quail, but they couldn't meet. Two dogs with grudges are the same, and they have to be pinched as soon as they meet. I now assign the two to different areas and try to avoid their meeting."

Marven nodded lightly, there was naturally a deep hatred between Ichiro and Jiro.

Especially Ichiro, he was scammed by Marven, and even his father was poisoned to death by him. It was already miserable enough. He didn't expect that his younger brother would fall into trouble and gave him one. For the crime of poisoning his biological father, he also spent a lot of money to offer a reward for his head.

It can be said that he would never forgive Jiro until he died.

In fact, Jiro hates his own brother.

Because Marven had already made it very clear last time, only one of the two brothers could go back to Japan with him, and the other person had to stay in the kennel and work for a lifetime.

And Marven himself tends to take his brother Ichiro home, so he hopes that his brother will have some accident every day, it is best to die suddenly, in that case, he will become the only candidate for Marven.

Chapter 1644

Although after returning to Japan with Marven, he must give him 90% of the shares, but this is much better than staying at the kennel to work.

After Marven came to the kennel, he instructed Mr. Orvel: "Bring both Ichiro and Jiro."

"OK, Master!"

Mr. Orvel immediately ordered to go down, and soon, several of his men came over with brothers Ichiro and Jiro wearing work clothes.

As soon as the two met at the door, Ichiro took advantage of the unpreparedness, rushed over and kicked Jiro, kicked Jiro out, and said in a curse, "You b@stard, dare to show up in front of me!"

Jiro was kicked to the ground and hurriedly got up and rushed over to fight with him. He yelled, "You b@stard, I must kill you!"

Ichiro is not to be outdone: "Come on, let's see who kills who! I will blow your head with a punch!"

Mr. Orvel's men hurriedly separated the two and kept them under control. One of them yelled, "What the hell is this all fck? Just be honest with me! Otherwise, there will be good-looking ones from both of you later."

The two of them didn't dare to make any trouble, and were led into the room one after another.

Marven sat on the chair of the grandmaster, looked at the brothers with interest, and said with a smile: "Two, how are you doing these days?"

When the two saw Marven, they all knelt in front of him. Ichiro said excitedly: "Master, you are finally here! I have been waiting for you to come back these days, so I can follow you to Japan, 90% of Kobayashi Pharmaceutical's shares will be transferred to you!"

Jiro said hurriedly: "Master, don't believe this b@stard. He is a natural rebellious person and he is not a good person at all! Choose me! If you take me back to Japan, I will give you 95% of Kobayashi Pharmaceutical!"

Ichiro was crazy and he blurted out: “Jiro, you Abnere who murdered, dare you to say that I was born with a bone?!”

Jiro ignored him and looked at Marven and pleaded: “Master, I don’t ask for anything else. You only need to leave me two shares, and I will give you the remaining 98%. Please, take me. Take me back to Japan...”

Ichiro next to gritted his teeth: “Master, if you take me back, 99% of the shares will be given to you!!!”

Jiro collapsed and shouted: “Master, I will give you everything! You only need to save me some real estate and pay me a salary!”

Marven looked at the two brothers vying for freedom with interest, and smiled faintly: “Okay, don’t chat here anymore. I always count my words. Last time I promised Ichiro to take him back. He will give me 90% of Kobayashi Pharmaceutical’s shares, so naturally I will not break my promise.”

After that, he looked at Ichiro who was ecstatic, and said, “Ichiro, you prepare, let’s set off in the next two days.”

Ichiro was trembling with excitement, and when he knocked Marven three times in a row, he said excitedly: “Thank you Master, thank you Master!”

Jiro almost collapsed, crying and said: “Master, please take me back, I am willing to do anything you ask me...”

Marven said indifferently: “Well, Jiro, how about you, just stay here honestly. Here you can eat, drink, and live. You don’t have to worry about anything. If your brother is not obedient, he naturally will be sent back to replace you.”

Jiro fell into despair. Will he wait until the year of the monkey?

On the side, Ichiro seemed to be reborn, and he asked Marven excitedly: “Master, when are we going to leave?”

Marven waved his hand: “Tomorrow!”

Chapter 1645

Ichiro was excited when he heard that Marven would take him back to Japan tomorrow, but then he felt nervous again.

He looked at Marven and asked in a low voice, “Master, how can I convince the public when I return to Japan like this? Everyone thinks that I killed my father, and they all think I’m dead. Suddenly going back, I am afraid it will be difficult to inherit Kobayashi Pharmaceutical...”

Marven smiled and said, “Isn’t this a trivial matter?”

After finishing speaking, he immediately beckoned to Orvel: “Mr. Orvel, arrange for someone to prepare a video camera and shoot a video of confession for Jiro to let him admit that he poisoned and killed his father, and then offered a huge reward for his brother. Human head in order to achieve the goal of monopolizing Kobayashi Pharmaceutical.”

When Jiro heard this, he felt as if the sky had fallen, crying and said, “Master, you can’t do this! Didn’t you say that if my eldest brother behaves badly, just change me back? You let me now Plead guilty, how can I go back in the future?”

Marven said coldly: “What are you afraid of? You brothers will record a video of confessing guilt alone later. If your brother is in charge, you will be in charge; if you are in charge, let your brother be in charge. Is this not perfect?”

Both Jiro and Ichiro are full of despair, now that Marven is really going to die?

However, they are also very clear that their current life and death are in Marven’s hands. If they really fight against him, they are likely to suffer a disaster.

So the two of them could only nod their heads honestly, and the people arranged by Orvel took them to the empty room next door to shoot the video.

Marven called Meiqing’s son Paul at this time and asked him as soon as he came up: “Paul, do you have time in the next few days?”

Paul hurriedly said, “Mr. Marven, what are your orders?”

Marven said: “It’s the thing I told you before. You will accompany me to Japan to resolve the issue of the transfer of Kobayashi Pharmaceutical’s shares and complete the relevant legal procedures.”

“No problem!” Paul said immediately: “When is the specific departure time? I can arrange what I have at hand, and then I can go with you.”

Marven said with a smile: “Tomorrow, let’s go early and return early.”

“Ok.” Paul said, “Then let me book the ticket, who are you with?”

Marven said casually: “You don’t need to book the ticket. I will say hello to Zak Chen and let him arrange a private jet.”

“It Okay then!”

Then Marven hung up the phone and called Zak Chen again.

After all, the Ye family has a big business. In Wrestrvel, there is a private jet specially assigned to Zak Chen for daily use. When Zak Chen heard that Marven was going to Japan, he immediately arranged for the crew of the private jet to apply for the route and departure time.

At the same time, he said to Marven: “Master you are going to Japan this time, and you are not familiar with the place. So, I will go with you. I have some friendships with many Japanese companies and families. In case of any need, It can also be convenient for you.”

Since returning from killing the Eight Great Heavenly Kings in Changbai Mountain, Zak Chen has followed Marven with all his heart, and regarded him as the only master in his heart, and Marven can also see that this person is now 100% credible and is completely under his control. Since he wanted to follow, he had no objection.

So Marven said to him: "Let's do it, you arrange the plane, and then arrange two or three capable subordinates, and then go there together."

With that said, Marven glanced at Orvel and asked him, "Mr. Orvel, have you been okay in the last few days? If it's okay, come with me to Japan."

Chapter 1646

Mr. Orvel nodded immediately and said, "No problem, Master! Orvel will listen to your instructions!"

Marven nodded in satisfaction, and said to Zak Chen: "Old man, Mr. Orvel is with us, Paul from Smith Law Firm, and Ichiro from the Kobayashi family, please let the crew prepare."

"OK Master! I'll make arrangements!"

At this time, the brothers Ichiro and Jiro also recorded their own back-to-back videos.

Later, the two were brought back by Orvel's men.

Marven looked at the two and said lightly: "Ichiro, you have a good rest today. Tomorrow Mr. Orvel will take you to the airport, but I will warn you in advance. Please be careful along the way. Don't think that coming to Japan is like Back at your home court, if you dare to have any disobedience, I will definitely not spare you."

Ichiro nodded like garlic: "Mr. Marven, don't worry, I will die, but I won't disobey you..."

Marven gave a hum, then looked at Jiro, and said lightly: "Jiro, you just stay here, Mr. Orvel's men will make you eat and drink well. Apart from work, you will have the rest. You can pray for a while, and pray that something will happen to your eldest brother, so that you have a chance to return to Japan."

Hearing this, Ichiro waved his hands in fright: "Mr. Marven, you don't need to worry about anything, I will never cause anything. Jiro, the b@stard, will never have the chance to leave this kennel in this life!"

Jiro gritted his teeth angrily.

However, now that Ichiro became Marven's first choice, he could only honestly be a spare tire.

What is a spare tire?

If there are no problems with the tires being used, no air leaks, and no punctures, the spare tire will never have the opportunity to be employed.

Thinking of this, the hatred in his heart for his eldest brother is even deeper.

If it weren't for so many people here, he would have liked to rush up now and strangle this big brother to death with his arm!

Seeing that the brothers were hostile and jealous of each other, Marven was very satisfied.

What he wants is such an effect, allowing them to deter and check and balance each other.

In this way, none of them dare to make trouble with him, and can only honestly let themselves be at his mercy and be his puppets.

Thinking of this, Marven stood up and said to Orvel, "Mr. Orvel, starting from tomorrow, we will strengthen the guard of the kennel. We must take care of Jiro, and he's not allowed to go on business trips!"

Mr. Orvel immediately nodded and said, "Master, you can rest assured that there are more than 20 guards here, and dozens of the most ferocious purebred hounds. One bite of a dog and Jiro's small body is gone, tomorrow I will transfer ten more subordinates to come and surround this place into an iron bucket, there will never be any business trips!"

Marven smiled and said: "Okay, your style of doing things has become more and more appetizing to me, but you should also pay attention to it. If he is disobedient and you really let the dog bite, don't let the dog bite him to death. It's a good thing to keep him alive."

Orvel looked at Jiro and smiled sullenly: "If this kid dares to run, I will let my snow mastiff bite his stuff first!"

Chapter 1647

Kobayashi Pharmaceutical has multiple production bases in Japan.

Its headquarter is located in Tokyo. In addition to Tokyo, there are also production lines in several cities such as Yokohama, Osaka, and Nagoya.

In addition, some time ago, Kobayashi Pharmaceutical also invested a large amount of funds to establish Asia's largest biopharmaceutical production base in Osaka.

When Marven went to Japan this time, in addition to finalizing the share transfer agreement with Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals and completing the share transfer, he also brought Liang from Wei's Pharmaceuticals to inspect these production bases.

Liang is now the general manager of JX Pharmaceutical and the specific person in charge of the company. After Marven takes over Kobayashi Pharmaceutical, he will be in charge of the entire production line of Kobayashi Pharmaceutical for the time being.

In the future, if the time is right, Darren can come over to take over Kobayashi Pharmaceutical, and then let Liang concentrate on the country, and continue to expand the scale of JX Pharmaceutical in China.

Therefore, Marven and Zak Chen made an itinerary plan.

They will fly from Wrestvel to Tokyo tomorrow morning. Zak Chen will contact his men in Tokyo to respond to them locally, and arrange for a team to accompany them throughout the journey.

Yokohama is near Tokyo, not too far away, and it is less than a hundred kilometers by car.

Then, drive from Yokohama to Nagoya and finally to Osaka.

The reason why they have to drive around these cities is mainly because Japan has a relatively small land area. In fact, these cities are not far apart.

From Tokyo all the way to Osaka, it is more than 500 kilometers away. It takes less than an hour to arrive by plane. What's more, you have to go to the two cities of Yokohama and Nagoya in the middle. Instead, taking a plane is far less convenient than driving.

Nanako, who was seriously injured, was resting in Kyoto.

Marven couldn't help but think: I must go to Kyoto to see her!

At the dinner table, Marven told the family directly that he was going to Japan tomorrow.

When they heard that Marven was leaving tomorrow, Avella said with a bit of dismay: "You just came back today, and will leave tomorrow. You haven't even stayed for 24 hours..."

"Yeah!" Dave couldn't help but muttered: "Good son-in-law, making money is important, but your body is more important. You keep running back and forth like this, and this body can't stand it either."

Viola was a little excited and said, "Oh, what do you know? You have never been successful since you got married, and you have no motivation at all. That's why our family has been looked down upon you especially by the Old Lady, and we have never had a good life."

After that, she looked at Marven with a flattering expression, and complimented: "Look at our family Marven, how ambitious! don't know how many times stronger than you!"

Dave snorted, "Are you a human again? You used to chase people, and Marven said that they were useless. Isn't it you? You used to chase your daughter and asked her to divorce Marven?"

Viola's expression was a little unnatural, and she said anxiously, "Dave, you don't instigate discord here! I was wrong before, but I can correct it if I know the mistake!"

After speaking, he hurriedly said to Marven with a smile: "Good son-in-law, for how many days are you going to go to Japan this time?"

Marven said: "If it's fast, it's three to five days, if it's slow, it's a week."

Chapter 1648

Avella couldn't help muttering: "Huh? So long?!"

Marven smiled and said, "Isn't this going to a foreign country? I'm not familiar with the place. It's definitely not as convenient as doing things in China. If you really want to help others change Feng Shui, those raw materials are probably not available. It is so easy in China, so the time period may be extended."

Avella felt a little stunned.

In the past few days when Marven went to Orgeyon, she thought about him falling asleep every night. Now she finally looked forward to him coming back. She didn't expect him to leave again, and it would last for several days.

Viola couldn't help asking at this moment: "Good son-in-law, you go to Japan to show others Feng Shui this time, how much would they give you?"

Marven replied casually: "Two or three million."

"Oh! So much!" Viola clapped her hands happily, then gave a thumbs up and complimented: "My son-in-law is amazing! You can make two or three million by just watching Feng Shui!"

After finishing speaking, she quickly said with a smile: "Good son-in-law, I heard that Japanese cosmetics, skin care products, etc., the quality and efficacy are good, don't forget to buy some gifts for mom when you come back. Okay!"

Dave couldn't see it anymore, and blurted out: "Viola, are you endless? Marven has bought you a lot of Hermes, and you still ask for gifts? You are not greedy enough!"

"You need to take care of it!" Viola gave Dave a white look, and said angrily: "I'm asking about what I want, not what you want, what are you doing here? Who didn't mention the pants and gave you Exposed?"

"I didn't mention my pants to show myself? Doesn't this compare me to that thing?"

"This lady's broken mouth is too bad! I really want to smoke her with a big mouth!"

However, Dave only dared to think about it in his heart, if he really started with Viola, then he would be annoying.

So he immediately looked at Avella and complained: "Avella, look at your mother, it's really a dog that can't spit out ivory. What kind of quality is this!"

Avella couldn't listen anymore, and couldn't help but said, "Mom, you can't be more civilized..."

"Good, good." Viola waved her hand indifferently: "I am a little more civilized, and I don't have a general knowledge of this old thing."

Marven, who was on the side, shook his head and smiled, but he didn't even think about it. He was used to the bickering between the two for a long time now. If the two of them didn't fight each other someday, they would have something wrong.

After dinner, Marven and Avella returned to the bedroom on the second floor.

As usual, the couple took a shower one after the other, and then lay on the bed one after another.

Marven hasn't gone further with Avella since he was promoted to the first level before the fight, but he hasn't been too anxious, not to mention that there have been a lot of things recently, and he has always been troubled by the presence of other women.

Thinking of going to Japan tomorrow, Nanako's face and how she looked when she was injured in the ring suddenly appeared in his mind.

Marven didn't understand why he would never forget the woman Nanako.

It seems that he is attracted by her dual character, which is gentle as water and tough and unyielding?

While thinking wildly, Marven suddenly felt that Avella next to him moved.

He thought that Avella was just turning over normally, but he didn't expect that she would lift a corner of Marven's quilt and get into his bed...

Chapter 1649

Avella got into Marven's bed and gently hugged his waist.

At this moment, she felt an unprecedented sense of security.

Having been with Marven for so long, this is the first time to hold him like this. Although she feels full of security, her heart is still short of breath.

Marven, who had been thinking about things, was startled by Avella's actions.

When he turned his face, Avella was also taken aback by him.

Avella's pretty face suddenly became hot, and she stammered: "Husband, you...you haven't slept yet?"

Marven also explained in a flustered manner: "I slept, woke up again..."

After speaking, he couldn't help asking: "Wife, why did you run into my b3d?"

Avella said in embarrassment, "That...I...I am...I am..."

Avella stammered and murmured for a long time, before she simply turned her mind and said, "I just don't want you to go out again, so I want to hug you to sl3ep, okay?"

When Marven heard this, he felt a little throbbing in his heart. He stretched out his hand to put her in his @rms and whispered softly: "Silly girl, I will be back in a few days."

"Yeah." Avella gently leaned in Marven's arms and said with a smile: "I found that holding you to sleep like this is really safe."

Marven smiled and said, "Will I be able to get another level up from now on? How about we just sleep in a b3d from now on?"

Avella was immediately embarrassed and said in a low voice, "It's not impossible to upgrade to one level, but for the time being, you can only upgrade to one level..."

Following Marven's previous routine, he must ask Avella at this time, when will he be able to reach the full level? When can he have a baby? After all, even Viola supported the two of them to have a baby quickly.

Perhaps, if he satisfactorily, he would be able to get things done for the couple.

That feeling, like a thorn stuck in Marven's heart, instantly made him calm down a lot.

So, he gently hugged Avella, and said softly: "It's okay, I will be promoted to the next level, and it will be fine to sl3ep with you."

Now, it was Avella's turn to be surprised.

She also thought that Marven would definitely come to make some soft and hard bubbles.

However, she never expected that Marven would accept it so easily.

In fact, she has had deep feelings and dependence on Marven after getting along for so long.

However, after all, she was an unmanned girl, and she was somewhat hesitant and worried about breaking through that layer of relationship.

If Marven was very active, she might just let him go.

But Marven's sudden calmness really made her unexpected.

She wanted to ask him, why did he act so indifferently today? Is it because he doesn't like her?

However, she soon felt that it was really hard for her to speak such words, so she could only hide them deep in her heart.

Soon, Marven by her side let out a uniform breathing sound, Avella sighed in her heart, and fell asleep slowly with a bit of loss.

Chapter 1650

Marven woke up early the next morning.

In fact, he didn't sleep well this night.

Don't know why, as long as he closed his eyes, he couldn't help but think of Nanako.

During this period of time, there have been many women around Marven.

Whether it was Warnia, Aoxue, or Zhovia, Xiaofen, and Sara, although these women more or less made him feel a little heart-stirring, none of them made him feel distressed like Nanako.

After Sara waited for so many years and found him after all after so many years, Marven was indeed very guilty, but, Sara was born into a big family and was loved by her parents in every possible way.

After adulthood, she became an internationally renowned star, and was sought after and loved by countless people.

Even without him, her life is very wonderful, very rich, and very happy.

But Nanako is different.

Although she was also born in a rich family and was loved by her family, she was indeed injured too badly in the fight with Aoxue.

Suffering such a serious injury, the double blow to the body and spirit is absolutely impossible for an ordinary girl to experience in her lifetime.

Moreover, Marven can also imagine that although she is out of danger now, she must be tortured by injuries all the time. This feeling must be very painful.

And she could not have played this game.

However, she did everything to make him admire.

Even in the last match against Aoxue, she waited for a chance to win with one move in order to make him notice her, even if she was injured.

Marven knew very well that if it wasn't for him, how could that silly girl be injured so badly?

It is precisely because of this that he always feels distressed for how she looked when she was injured.

Marven also reflected on that, as a married man, he should not feel sorry for other women, let alone a her.

However, that kind of mood is completely beyond his control.

Marven went downstairs and saw that Dave and Viola hadn't gotten up, so he left a note, and then hurried out of the house.

At the door of Tomson.

Several Rolls-Royce cars parked side by side. As soon as Marven came out, Zak Chen and his men all got out of the car, bowed respectfully to him, and said in unison: "Master!"

Marven nodded and got into the same car with Zak Chen.

As soon as he got on, Zak Chen immediately said to Marven: "Master Paul and Liang are all going by themselves. Mr. Orvel and Ichiro walked past the kennel. We only need to meet them at the airport, the plane and the crew personnel are all ready, and they will leave at any time after we arrive!"

Marven said, the biggest difference between private jets and ordinary civil aviation flights is that the time is relatively free. As long as you apply for today's flight route, you can theoretically depart at any time.

There is an idea in his subconscious mind now, that is to go to Tokyo to get things done, and then rush all the way to Kyoto.

Don't know why, Nanako has become a curse in his heart, always emerging and constantly affecting his emotions.

He felt that this might be mainly because he felt a bit of sympathy for Nanako's experience, and if he cured her by himself, this demon would naturally be eliminated.

As a result, he said to Zak Chen a little impatiently: "Okay, time is waiting for no one, hurry"
