

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 171-180

Chapter 171

In the eyes of everyone worshipping, Marven left calmly.

Warnia couldn't help but look at him on the way to send him back.

At this time, Marven had returned to the ordinary state of his, and she could not see any powerful cultivation base on his body.

She was surprised and felt a little weird.

Just now, Marven exuded the aura of a superior, which made people fear and tremble.

But now, this temperament is gone, at first glance, it looks no different from passersby.

Hard to say if it is his intentional restraint, or just an illusion.

Warnia couldn't help asking: "Marven, did you really call the spirits that time?"

Marven looked at her and smiled slightly.

"Guess? If I say it's a coincidence, do you believe it?"

In Warnia's mind, the appearance of Marven summoning Tianlei flashed past unconsciously.

In the flash of thunder, he stood proudly in the world, with outstanding temperament.

If it is such a man, no matter which woman sees it, she will fall in love.

Warnia couldn't help her heart moving, but she shook her head quickly.

What a joke!

Even the world's top physicists cannot control lightning.

If Marven could summon Tianlei, would he still be a poor son-in-law like he is now?

Could it be that the sky thunder just now was really just a coincidence?

When Marven returned to the door, he heard the voice of his mother-in-law Viola coming from the house.

"I told you to find a capable husband, but you just didn't listen! See how capable this son-in-law is, he gave her a big four-bedroom! More than 180 square meters! How bright? Let's look at our house again, it's a total of 120 square meters, so I'm a stubborn person!"

After finishing speaking, the mother-in-law said angrily: "People's son-in-law can count on it. Marven's marriage is useless. Counting on him, I'm afraid I won't live in a big house in my life!"

Avella's dissatisfied voice came: "Mom, what do you envy other people doing, besides, I have also been promoted to director. If we save a few years, can we still not afford a new house?"

The mother-in-law spoofed and said: "Wait a few more years? Wait a few more years, the day lily will be cold! Since you married Marven, our family's life has plummeted. We can still live in Xiao's villa, now what? This broken house, my friends, all can live better than me!"

Avella said: "Mom, does it make sense for you to always compare like this?"

"It's boring!" The mother-in-law said angrily, "Because I can't beat others, so I'm boring! Especially boring!"

Marven shook his head helplessly at this time, opened the door and walked in.

Seeing Marven's return, Viola snorted coldly, and said, "Do you still know how to come back? Can you cook the meal? We are all hungry!"

Marven smiled and said, "Mom, I'm going to cook now."

After speaking, he went straight to the kitchen.

Marven couldn't be more clear about Viola's character, snobbery and clumsy, he felt uncomfortable when he saw what other people had.

If she knows that Solomon wants to give him a villa in order to make amends, she is afraid that she will come over and kneel and lick him immediately.

Chapter 172

However, as for Viola's performance, he is not ready to say anything about this house.

Marven was busy working in the kitchen, Avella walked over and said in a low voice, "Don't take what mom said to your heart, she just admires vanity."

Marven deliberately said, "What did Mom say? I didn't hear a word."

"Just pretend, it's strange if you didn't hear it." Avella poked Marven's forehead with her finger.

Marven took advantage of the opportunity to hold her hand.

Avella blushed, and quickly looked out of the kitchen before she retracted her hands.

But Marven held on to it, took a closer look, and saw that she was carrying the bracelet he made, and he smiled and asked, "Is this bracelet effective?"

“Huh?” Avella regained her senses, nodded and said, “Don’t say it is really effective. Since I put on the bracelet, my body feels like a new look and feels much more comfortable. What exactly is your bracelet made of? Does it work?”

Marven smiled and said, “It’s just a pearl.”

The Wang beads were worn on Avella’s wrist, making her wrist like snow, Wang and tender like a new lotus root.

Marven’s smooth and warm jade hand was held in his hand, like a piece of warm jade, and he didn’t want to let it go.

Avella also noticed it, blushing, and immediately retracted her hand and glared at him.

Marven smiled and said, “Do you want to change the house too?”

“Of course, who doesn’t want to live in a new house? Since my mother moved out of the villa, she complained all the time that it was too small and broken.”

Avella sighed, then recovered and said: “It’s just that the house price is too expensive now, and the family doesn’t have that much money, so let’s forget it.”

With that said, Avella suddenly remembered something and blurted out: “By the way, we can go to see the real estate first, and calculate how much the difference between this house and the new one would be. If the price difference is not so high, then replace this with a better one.”

Before Marven had time to speak, Avella said excitedly: “That’s it. It’s the weekend tomorrow, let’s go out and check out the real estate!”

Seeing that she was very interested in this matter, Marven nodded and said, “Since you want to see it, I will accompany you.”

Avella researched the real estate information on her mobile phone and decided to take a look for houses in New District with a better environment.

It just so happened that someone came and knocked on the door after eating. A courier handed a small package to Marven and said, “This is for you. Please sign it.”

After Marven signed the receipt, he opened it and found that there was a suite door key and several golden cards with the words “Tomson Villa a05” on it.

At this time, Marven received a phone call from Solmon, the patriarch of the Wang family. He respectfully said on the phone: “Mr. Ye, have you received the key and room card? Tomson Villa is developed by Tomson Company in Wrestvel. The most high-end real estate project. The No. a05 I gave you, is the largest villa, excluding the courtyard, with an area of more than 1,000 square meters, please accept it!”

Marven has heard of Tomson. They have developed villas and high-rise communities in Wrestvel, which can be said to be the highest-end real estate project in the city.

The market price of such a villa is at least 100 million.

It seems that Solmon is indeed bleeding heavily.

So Marven said lightly: "You have a heart."

Solmon said ecstatically: "Where is it! It is an honor for the Wang family to serve Mr. Ye!"

Back to the room, Marven deliberately asked Avella: "Wife, do you like the house of Thomps Builders?"

"Thomson First Grade?!" Avella exclaimed, "How can we afford the houses there! The prices of ordinary high-rise residential buildings there are twice as expensive as outside! But the houses are indeed the best in Wrestvel!" "

Marven smiled slightly and said, "You can go and see it tomorrow, let's talk about whether you can buy it or not later."

Avella hurriedly waved her hand and said, "Forget it, let's be more pragmatic and take a look at ordinary houses."

Marven smiled and said, "You tell me, I have a friend at Tomson First Grade. He said he can help get the internal price. We can go and see first."

Chapter 173

Early the next morning, Marven took the villa key and the companion access card given by Solmon, and drove with his wife to the Tomson sales center.

Soon, the car stopped in front of the Tomson sales center.

At this time, the sales center is almost crowded. It seems that the citizens of Wrestvel are still very interested in the real estate of Tomson. Even if they can't afford it, they must come to open their eyes.

Seeing this posture, Avella said to Marven: "Marven, there are so expensive, we can't afford it, so don't join in the fun!"

Marven smiled and said, "My wife, you have come here, what are you going to do, besides, I really want to see the world, come with me and have a look?"

Avella said helplessly: "Well, it's just time to see what the top Tomson looks like."

After entering, the people gathered around the huge sand table, listening to the shopping guide explaining the general situation of the Tomson community.

The area of real estate developed by Tomson in Wrestvel is very large.

On the periphery of the real estate, there are high-rise residential buildings, which are relatively ordinary housing. The area ranges from 120 square meters to 240 square meters. The price is very high, starting at 80,000.

As for the deepest, most comfortable and perfect prime location of the real estate, it is the villa area with single-family houses.

The size of the villa area ranges from 300 square meters to more than 1,000 square meters. Because it has a yard and a basement, the price is very expensive, at 130,000 square meters.

In other words, the villa Solomon gave to Marven was worth 130 million!

The shopping guide also introduced: "We provide separate property and security services for distinguished villa owners. Don't look at ordinary houses and villas in the same community, but there is a fence around the villa area. Isolated from ordinary houses!"

"The ordinary residential area outside is already very safe. People are not allowed to enter, and the villa area inside is safer. To put it simply, if a thief enters the ordinary residential area outside, it is absolutely impossible. Then enter the villa area through the security of the villa area, so the owner of the villa area is extremely safe, you can rest assured!"

At this time, a woman said angrily: "You are too much, right? This is to let the owners of the ordinary residential area outside help the owners of the villa area to block bullets!"

Many people around nodded one after another, listening to the shopping guide, it really meant that.

Marven felt that the voice was a bit familiar, and when he looked up, he realized that it was a woman with heavy makeup.

That woman is Avella's cousin, Theresa.

Why is she here?

Marven and Avella were a little surprised.

Looking next to her, her father Noah Xiao, mother Horiyah Qian and her brother Jay were all there!

Could it be that their family came to buy a house?

Avella whispered to Marven: "Uncle and family are all here, let's go!"

Marven shook his head: "What are you doing? If they are here, can't we be here?"

Avella said, "I'm afraid they will run on you again."

Chapter 174

Marven smiled slightly and said, "Don't worry, your husband has been run on for so many years. There are already more lice and itching!"

“Okay” Avella nodded.

At this time, the shopping guide said with a smile to Theresa who had just protested: “This lady, it’s true that we, Tomson, have always regarded the villa owners as the most distinguished owners. Our private swimming pool, high-end Sports clubs, high-end health clubs, golf courses, and Michelin restaurants specially introduced from Italy are all opened in the villa area and only serve the villa owners!”

Theresa said angrily: “What do you mean, the owner of our high-rise living outside are not humans? We also spent money, OK? Why don’t we enjoy these supporting facilities?”

The shopping guide said sorry: “I’m sorry, we also have a club in the high-rise area outside. If you buy a house, you can use the high-rise area club.”

Theresa asked: “Can’t I go there to use high-end health club? Can’t I go to play golf?”

“No.” The shopping guide said: “The facilities in our house are specially prepared for villa owners. I’m really sorry.”

Jay was very annoyed and said, “What the h*ll are you doing? We are still planning to buy your 240-square-meter largest high-rise residential building, 167 million! With so much money, you don’t let us use the supporting facilities inside? Mom? Yes, believe it or not, I won’t buy it?”

The shopping guide smiled slightly and said, “Sir, let me tell you that when we built this project, we built the outer circle of ordinary residences because of the city’s requirement that we were not allowed to develop a pure villa area!”

“That’s why we built these attached ordinary residences, and everything in our place is respected by the owners of the villa area!”

“If you can’t accept it, you can buy a villa, or you can buy nothing at all. To be honest, our outer flats are also selling very well, and we sold 80 on the opening day!”

Jay’s expression suddenly became ugly.

He thought that if he said not to buy, the other party would start to think about their stance.

But he didn’t expect that people would be so rigid.

The subtext of the shopping guide is: If you want to buy you can buy, If you don’t want to, just f*ck off.

The angered Jay blurted out to his parents, “I’m going, don’t buy it, we can buy it wherever when we have money!”

Jay’s mother, Horiyah, said, “Where are you going? This is the house I am after, and I can’t look at the houses elsewhere.”

Jay persuaded, "Mom, isn't it just for the wealthy people in the villa area to whom we will stand guard and block bullets? You have to be treated differently. What's good about this place?"

"You know what a sh!t!" Horiyah said. "Even if the outside high-rise environment and facilities are not as good as the inner villa area, it is the best in the high-rise area of Wrestvel! The villa your grandma lives in is too old. The decorations were done many years ago, and I've long been bored!"

Noah Xiao on the side also nodded and said, "Your grandma's current villa is indeed too old, the surrounding area is also remote, and there are no supporting facilities. If you want to buy a pack of cigarettes at night, you have to drive a long way. How can the facilities be so complete here."

As he said, he said again: "I have the same idea as your mother, just buy it here!"

Jay sighed. He was just pretending to be haughty in front of the shopping guide.

He was irritated, and suddenly saw two familiar figures, which made him immediately interested, and blurted out: "Oh, Avella, Marven, why are you two here?"

Avella didn't expect to be seen by Jay. Seeing his voice attracted the attention of his family, he laughed twice and said, "I and Marven came out to take a look."

Jay immediately said contemptuously: "Why? With your family's strength, plus your waste husband, you still want to buy a house in a high-end place like Tomson?"

Chapter 175

Jay naturally looked down upon Marven by 10,000.

And he was full of resentment towards Avella, then the company director.

Seeing that the couple came to Tomson to see the house, they wanted to seize the opportunity to satirize them.

When Marven heard that Jay dared to spray on him and his wife, he immediately sneered: "What? People like you can come to Tomson for inspection, why can't we?"

Jay sneered and said, "I can come because our family can afford it. Can you afford to buy a house here?"

Marven smiled: "How do you know that I can't afford it?"

Jay snorted: "How can you afford to have a ghost! Do you know how much this house is? The smallest one is 120 square meters, more than 80,000 square meters, and it costs 10 million. Ten million you hear?"

Marven laughed: "I don't bother to buy the smallest house. If I want to buy it, I will also buy the largest."

"You're pooh!" Jay said coldly: "The biggest two hundred and forty flats can you afford?"

Theresa also laughed: “Yeah, Marven, can you afford a two hundred and forty square meters house? Such a big house, even our family can’t buy it. How can you?”

Marven looked at her, smiled and asked: “Who told you that I want to buy a house of 240 square meters?”

Theresa snorted contemptuously: “What? Didn’t you say you want to buy the biggest one? Can’t install it now?”

Marven laughed and said, “Theresa, you are so unpromising. Didn’t you see that there is a large villa area on this table? The villa inside is the largest house.”

“Bah!” Theresa said disdainfully: “Returning the villa, the smallest villa inside is tens of millions, and the expensive one is even hundreds of millions. You can’t afford it for eight lifetimes with your rag life!”

Marven smiled and said: “What a coincidence, I just have one set, and it’s the biggest one!”

“Hahahaha!” Jay’s family laughed forward and backwards, pointing to Marven and said contemptuously: “You still buy the largest villa? My God, are you laughing at us too?”

Many customers who watched the house also heard Marven’s words, and laughed one by one: “It looks like a stinky rag, and he still buying a villa?”

“If he can afford this villa, then I can afford the entire Tomson product!”

“It’s really bragging not to write drafts!”

Avella’s face was also a little unsustainable, and she whispered in Marven’s ear: “Marven! What are you talking nonsense? Aren’t you ashamed of talking nonsense?”

Marven smiled and said, “What’s the shame to be honest?”

Jay smiled backwards and closed together, and said: “Have you heard, your own wife doesn’t believe you, and the eyes of the people are sharp. People like you are not even fit to enter this sales hall!”

After speaking, he said viciously: “Wait, I will tell the sales lady to drive you out!”

Immediately afterwards, Jay immediately greeted a sales lady who came over and pointed to Marven and said, “Beauty, what’s the matter with you, why did you let such rubbish rag in? This kind of person said without embarrassment to buy your best villa. With such people in the most expensive villa here, those of us who are really capable of buying a house don’t want to take it!”

The sales lady glanced at Marven, and she could also see that Marven’s clothes were ordinary, not what a rich man should have.

Not to mention buying a villa, even the client who buys the smallest three-bedroom apartment is more decent than him.

The surrounding people also started to booze, saying: "Hurry up and get this guy out, it affects our mood too much."

Chapter 176

The sales lady walked up to Marven and said: "Gentleman, if you are not going to buy a house, please leave, and don't affect our other customers who are interested in the houses."

Avella sighed, pulled Marven's sleeves, and said, "Let's go, let's go and take a look elsewhere."

Others also started to roar: "Poor ghosts go quickly, don't be embarrassed here."

Marven didn't move, and said with a smile: "Do you know why you can't afford to live in a villa? Because you are all short-sighted people. With your eyesight, it is impossible for you to live in a villa in this life."

Jay sipped: "Bah! Marven, you really have a face to say? Look at all of them, which one is not more rich than you?"

Marven raised his eyebrows and asked with a smile: "Jay, you keep saying that I can't afford a villa, so if I really can afford it, what shall you do?"

Jay laughed a lot, pointed to the tallest high-rise building on the sand table, and said arrogantly: "If you can afford the villa inside, I, Jay, will jump off the top of this building!"

Many people around screamed: "Smelly pauper, if you can afford it, I will dance too!"

"That's it! If you want to jump, you can count me as well! I don't like this kind of stupid who likes to pretend!"

Avella never felt so embarrassed, and complained a bit to Marven, and reprimanded: "Marven! What do you have to do with them here? Do you have to be happy not to come to this place?"

Marven smiled slightly and said, "My wife, how do you know if your husband knows nothing?"

With that, Marven took out the villa key and the villa's access card from his pocket, and said lightly: "Look, this is the key and information card of the a05 villa."

Theresa smiled and said: "Marven, do you think you can make us believe you by just holding the key? You think we are too mentally retarded?"

Marven threw the key and the information card to the sales lady, and said lightly: "Come on, tell them if this is true."

The sales lady recognized the key and information card that Marven had taken out at a glance, and when she saw that they were exclusively for the Tomson Villa, she was shocked.

Could it be that this person is really the owner of the villa area? She just wanted to kick him out. If he is really the owner, if he gets angry, her job will definitely be gone.

Thinking of this, she took Marven's information card in a panic, scanned the internal reader, and the reader immediately issued a computer voice: "Hi, distinguished owner of Building A05, Mr. Marven, welcome to your home!"

The sales lady suddenly exclaimed: "Are you Mr. Marven?"

"Yes." Marven nodded, it seems that the Wang family has already transferred this villa to this name.

The sales lady immediately returned the card to Marven with very respectful hands, and said in a panic: "Mr. Marven, I'm so sorry, I didn't know you are the distinguished owner of Building A05. Please forgive me for what happened just now."

Everyone present could not help but be stunned to see this scene!

Marven is really the owner here? Are you kidding me? Can this kind of person afford a Tomson first-class villa?

Jay's expression is extremely ugly, what the h*ll is going on! Marven buys Tomson's first-class villa? He would rather believe that there are ghosts in the world than that Marven has this strength!

But, what's the matter with this sales lady? She can never lie, right?

And she just scanned Marven's card, and even the machine reminded Marven to be the owner here what happened? !

Chapter 177

Seeing that the sales lady was nervous, fearing that she would lose her job because she offended Marven, Marven waved his hand lightly: "Little things, I won't hold grudges."

After speaking, Marven said again: "By the way, you can tell these short-sighted guys about the a05 villa."

The sales lady hurriedly said to others: "Our Tomson villa area is divided into four types abcd, of which the best is the largest area of type a, which has three floors above ground and two floors underground. There is a private elevator inside, the total usable area is more than 1,000 square meters, and it is equipped with hundreds of square meters of front and rear courtyards. The price is more than 100 million. It is the most expensive villa of our Tomson and even the entire Wrester!"

When these words came out, everyone's jaw dropped!

Marven, owns a villa that sells for more than one billion, a three-bedroom house with a dozen or so, and who is dressed in ordinary clothes, can actually have such a super luxury house?

Jay's expression is extremely ugly, his sister and parents are going crazy with jealousy!

Theresa asked incredulously: "Marven! How come you have a villa here?!"

Marven smiled faintly and said, "Someone gave it to me, can't I have it?"

"Why are you!" Theresa is really angry. Her heart is higher than the sky for her life, and she has no chance to live in the luxurious villa here. Why can Marven live here?

Marven was too lazy to respond to her, but looked at her brother Jay, smiled and said, "Jay, didn't you want to jump off the building? When would you jump?"

Jay's face was pale, extremely ugly, and clenched his fists and said: "Marven, you f*cking talk to me about these useless things, I still don't believe you can afford this villa! Not to mention that someone will give you the villa! Tell me, how did you come to this villa!"

Marven shook his head and smiled, and said to the people around: "If you see it, it means you can't lose."

After speaking, Marven said to Jay again: "Jay, with your ability, you are also worthy of buying a set of ordinary high-rises, so that people like us who live in villas can stand guard. You are not worthy of living in the villa, let alone know me. How did the villa come from, it's none of your business? All you need to know is that this is a place you can't afford to live in this whole life!"

"you"

Jay's expression was extremely ugly.

It was the first time for him to be so insulted by Marven, but the most hateful thing was that he couldn't even talk back!

How to pay it back? He bought a 240-square-meter building for his family, and the pressure was still a little bit heavy. The family was hesitant here, but Marven actually had the largest villa here. The gap between them was really too big!

It can be said that this time he was sturdy and satirized by Marven! It really made him angry!

He gritted his teeth and said with a black face: "Marven, you can stand it. You don't want us to say hello to your home in such a big villa. Is there still the Xiao family in your eyes?"

Marven smiled and said, "Didn't you always say that I am not from the Xiao family? So, why do you want to say hello"

Having said this, Marven turned to Avella: "Wife, as we are here, let's go to our new villa to see?"

Avella blurted out: "What the h*ll is going on here?"

Marven smiled and said, "I'll explain to you slowly later."

Just after speaking, he suddenly heard a familiar voice.

"Oh, eldest brother and sister-in-law, are you buying a house in Tomson? It's amazing!"

Chapter 178

It was Marven's mother-in-law, Viola!

Coming with Viola is Marven's father-in-law Dave!

Marven and Avella were a little surprised, why did they both come here?

Avella hurriedly stepped forward and asked, "Parents, why are you here?"

Viola said: "Your uncle and aunt called us, saying that they want to see the Tomson house, and let us come over and help them come up with ideas."

When Viola said this, she looked at Marven, somewhat annoyed in her heart.

In fact, she didn't want to come over at all, because she had just got angry with her daughter yesterday and said she wanted to move out of the old house, but unexpectedly, she received a call from Noah's family today and they asked her and her husband to come and show them the house.

What house to see? Don't they just want to call them over to show them that they want to buy at Tomson?

Viola was uncomfortable with anger, but because she didn't dare not give face to the Xiao family boss, she had to rush over with her husband as a foil.

That's why she was upset with Marven in every way. If she finds a talented son-in-law, she might be able to live in Tomson first!

At this time, she looked at her sister-in-law Horiyah with a flattering expression, and said with emotion: "Sister-in-law, you are really amazing! You bought a house in Tomson in a blink of an eye! I really envy you! I don't know how long our family can live in that old house. From such a luxurious house like Tomson! What you bought is 240 square meters? I see if our family can't save so much money in 50 years!"

Although she was very upset with the eldest family, Viola also knew that she had to slap them, so she came up with three horses.

Jay's mother, Horiyah Qian's expression was extremely ugly, she glared at Viola and said coldly: "Viola, what do you mean by this? Do you look down on people?"

Horiyah Qian's heart is almost exploded!

She wanted to call Dave and Viola over and let them witness the purchase of a first-grade Tomson mansion with their own eyes, so that they had a sense of existence in front of them, and then satirized them again.

But she didn't expect that the son-in-law has the ability! he actually got a Tomson first-class mansion villa!

This is really maddening her, and she is also jealous of death.

Now that Viola is here, she deliberately complimented her for buying a 240-square-meter building. Isn't this a mockery of her?

Your family has hundreds of millions of worth villa, and you still say you envy me? You also said that you can't live in such a luxurious house. Isn't this a curse?

Viola didn't know what was going on, she slapped Horiyah Qian's flattery when she came, but Horiyah Qian said that she looked down on people, and she was so wrong in her heart. The Lady Xiao licked her when she came, and she disliked her of course. Look down on her? Does look down on her if she kneel?

So Viola hurriedly bites the bullet and continued flattering: "Oh, sister-in-law, I am compared with you, that is, the candle meets the sun, and it is far behind. How can I look down on you! You see how good your life is, you're going to live in the Tomson first-grade house. Look at me again. I still live in the small broken house. Hey, our little broken house is really broken and rotten. How does it compare with your Tomson first-grade house! So of course I Envy you!"

Horiyah Qian was even more irritated by what she tried to say something, she couldn't even speak her words.

Her husband, Noah Xiao next to her, gritted his teeth and cursed: "Viola, is it interesting for you to blame Horiyah here? Isn't it just a villa? What are you bullish for?"

After that, he looked at his brother Dave and said coldly: "Dave, am I still a brother in the eyes of you husband and wife? You have a villa and are calling ours big one."

Dave was stunned: "Villa? What villa? Brother, are you going to buy a villa? so Rich!"

Chapter 179

When Noah Xiao heard this, he suddenly thought that Dave was deliberately running him with words, blowing his beard and staring angrily, and said: "Dave is OK, why do you say such things? Don't you just want to live in Tomson first grade villa now? Isn't this just getting up with me?"

Dave was stunned: "What? I live in Tomson's first-class villa? Big brother, don't you always use me to ridicule me?"

Viola was also confused: "Brother, are you making a mistake? Is there any misunderstanding in this?"

Noah Xiao pointed at Marven, and said with a displeased expression: "Your son-in-law has made a reservation for first-class villa, let him talk about the specifics!"

Viola and Dave were both dumbfounded, they looked at Marven in astonishment, and asked with unbelievable faces: "Marven, what your uncle said is true? Did you really get a Tomson first-class villa?"

Marven nodded and said, "Parents, there is indeed a villa, which is given to me by someone for helping him."

“Who gave it?” Viola blurted out with a look of ecstasy in her eyes.

Marven said: “I helped a friend solve some feng shui problems, and he gave me a villa.”

Viola was extremely excited and blurted out: “Take us to visit this villa! d*mn! Tomson’s villa, I can’t even dream of it!”

Avella pulled Marven a hand at this time, and asked in a low voice, “Marven, what is going on?”

Marven smiled slightly and said in a low voice: “Someone really gave me a villa. If you don’t believe it, let’s go and see it now.”

When Viola looked at her eldest brother and sister-in-law again, she felt a sense of superiority in her heart!

OK!

If you buy a large apartment, just follow me and let me come to accompany you to see the house. Now it’s alright. I’m going to live in the Tomson Villa area soon. I’ve been pressed by you for such a long time. Turned over to be Mastered!

So she deliberately smiled and said: “Oh, eldest brother and sister, Jay and Theresa, since you are all here, why don’t we visit this villa together, what do you think?”

Noah wished to leave immediately, but his wife Horiyah still grabbed him, winked at him, and said to Viola, “Okay, in that case, let’s go and see!”

As she said, she lowered her voice and said in her husband’s ear: “I will take some photos and videos later and show them to the Lady Xiao. If the Lady Xiao sees this villa, she will naturally ask them to come over. Is it not right?”

Noah Xiao’s eyes suddenly lit up!

It turns out that his wife has a working idea!

It’s wonderful!

So Marven took a group of people and walked into the villa area of Tomson.

As soon as they entered the villa area, everyone kept looking around. The environment in the villa area was several times better than the high-rise residences outside, and it was extremely refined.

“Marven, where is your villa?” Theresa asked loudly on purpose.

Marven took the key, walked past Theresa, smiled and walked to the villa in front: “This is the one, a05.”

Under the eyes of everyone, Marven didn't change his face, took the key to open the door of the villa, and gently pushed.

The door squeaked open to both sides, and the exquisite garden scene inside was immediately presented to everyone.

Click!

The door lock opened.

Theresa was stunned!

Jay and his parents were all dumbfounded!

Avella also held her breath, rubbed her eyes vigorously with her hand, and looked forward.

In the garden, there is a magnificent and spacious luxury villa in the middle of the garden with pavilions, flowers and trees.

"This is too luxurious, right?" Noah Xiao was the first to recover and exclaimed in shock.

Jay's expression was very ugly, and he said angrily: "Who would give you such a good villa? I don't believe it!!"

"You can't help it if you don't believe it, but this villa is indeed given to me." Marven was too lazy to explain.

Theresa glared at Marven fiercely, "hum" with anger, and said sourly, "Marven, are you worthy of such an expensive villa?"

Marven smiled and said, "It has nothing to do with you."

The crowd was silent in the open space at the gate of the villa.

No one could think that the owner of the most expensive villa in Wrestvel was actually Marven! !

Chapter 180

Theresa and Noah were even more unacceptable of this reality, as if they were slapped, slapped in public, wishing to dig a hole in and bury themselves.

The facts are breaking down!

At this moment, an Old Master walked out of the villa.

The Old Master came directly to Marven and asked respectfully: "Hello, are you Mr. Marven Ye?"

Marven nodded and said, "I am, who are you?"

The Old Master said: "Hello, Mr. Marven, I am Mr. Wang's housekeeper, and I am responsible for taking care of this villa. You can call me Libo. I usually take care of the villa and maintain hygiene."

"Libo?" Theresa on the side stared at him dumbfounded, her whole brain short-circuited.

This Uncle Libo, isn't this her fiance Phil's housekeeper? Why is he here?

Does this villa belong to the Wang family?

In that case, why give it to Marven?

Theresa hurriedly asked: "Libo, what is going on? Is this villa owned by the Wang family?"

Libo said: "It used to be, but now it belongs to Mr. Marven."

With that, Libo looked at Marven again and asked, "Mr. Marven, the decoration in the villa has not been completed yet. When do you plan to move in? I will let the workers do it faster and make preparations in advance."

Marven said faintly: "We will not move for the time being. You will continue to look after the villa. I will call you before I move."

"Yes! Mr. Marven!"

After Libo finished speaking, he bowed to Marven again, then let him aside, waiting for him to enter.

Theresa's eyes almost popped out, and the whole group of Xiao family relatives was also surprised.

"The housekeeper of the Wang family?" Theresa said dumbfounded: "Which Wang family is Phil's family?"

Marven looked at her, smiled slightly, and said, "Yes, it's your fiance Phil's house. His father gave me this house."

"What?!" Theresa's brain exploded!

This villa belongs to her fiancé's family?

In other words, the original villa could have been hers in the future?

But why would it be given to Marven!

This is my villa!

Theresa's parents were also very puzzled and angry at the same time.

The Wang family is the daughter's future husband's family. The Wang family's villa is naturally for their daughter. Why is it given to Marven? This is not logical!

Horiyah Qian blurted out and asked Theresa: "Theresa, what's the matter with this? Do you know the Wang family villa?"

Theresa shook her head repeatedly: "I don't know, I have never heard Phil talk about it."

Horiyah Qian immediately shouted, "Quickly call Phil and ask! Ask clearly what's going on!"

"Yes, I must!"

Theresa immediately took out the phone and called Phil.

As soon as the call connected, she asked Phil: "Phil, does your family have a villa in Tomson?"

Phil said: "There is a set, what's wrong?"

Theresa said with some dissatisfaction: "Why haven't you heard about it! Is it the wedding room for the two of us?"

"No." Phil said: "My uncle bought that villa for the elderly. He prefers the environment of Tomson, so how could he be willing to use it for us."

After speaking, Phil asked again: "How do you know about this?"

Theresa's aggrieved tears flowed out: "Do you know, your uncle gave away this villa!"

"Gave it away?" Phil blurted out, "Who gave it away?"

Theresa broke down and cried and said: "Gave it to Marven! It's my Rubbish brother-in-law Marven!"
