

The Amazing Son In-Law Chapter 1711-1720

Chapter 1711

“This one.....”

When Hiroshi Tanaka faced Ito’s problem, he immediately fell into a dilemma.

How should I answer?

Can the answer come back?

If you don’t come back by any chance, do you have to take the blame?

Will the answer come back?

Even if it was Ito Takehiko, he would run away immediately!

It seems that this question is really difficult to answer.

Seeing that he was stubbornly speechless, Ito shook his heart, and blurted out, “You don’t think that 80% chance for the money is that it will not come back, right?”

Hiroshi Tanaka quickly explained: “It’s not that there is no hope. I don’t think we need to be so pessimistic. It should be 50-50!”

“Fifty-fifty?” Ito Takehiko said angrily, “What the h*ll is this difference between not telling me and being so ambiguous?”

Hiroshi Tanaka said in a hurry: “President, there are indeed many uncertainties in this matter. I am not ready to make a conclusion now, but don’t forget, no matter how bad, we can still solve the problem through litigation.”

“Litigation?” Ito pointed at Hiroshi Tanaka and cursed: “You let the dog eat your brain? Eiki was abolished by Marven in the street and has become the laughing stock of all Japan. If I f*cking sue him for usurping my money wouldn’t it be even more laughed at by the whole of Japan if we don’t give 100 million?!”

Hiroshi Tanaka said embarrassingly: “Mr. President, this is 4.5 billion USD. We can’t really let it go because we are afraid of being laughed at? The whole family’s annual net profit can’t reach this number...”

“Yeah...” Ito said in a painful voice: “The recent economic downturn, our overall net profit last year was only more than 300 million USD. If there is not much improvement this year, maybe it will be even less.”

For large families or large companies, losses are common.

For example, the domestic Zotye Automobile, their financial report shows that they have lost more than 10 billion in a year in 2019.

The American General Motors Corporation, which is also in the automotive industry, has suffered losses due to poor management for years. In GM's 100-year history, the worst year is a direct loss of 38.7 billion USD!

The international economic situation has been cold in the past two years, and the pressure on Ito Takehiko has been even greater.

In this sluggish market environment, the development prospects of medical and health companies are actually the broadest, because people may not buy cars or houses, but they have to buy medicines.

Because of this, he decided to do everything possible to invest in Kobayashi Pharmaceutical.

Unexpectedly, he stepped into a deep pit.

Now that 4.5 billion fell into the pit and he can't get it back, I remember him scratching his heart.

Seeing that Ito was extremely depressed, Tanaka Hiroshi hurriedly persuaded: "My lord, in fact, you don't have to worry about it now. We are different from the Takahashi family. The Takahashi family doesn't even know who Marven is, but we at least know him more. On the bottom line, knowing that he is the current owner of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals and he is in Wrestvel, China, and he stepped back and said that even if we had to meet each other in the end, we would be able to find him. The Takahashi family is different. They may not even be able to find him."

"Yes!" Ito Takehiko suddenly felt his eyes light up and blurted out: "I just want them to not find him! As long as they can't find Marven, they will always be the laughing stock of Japan! Hahaha, so funny!"

After that, Ito Takehiko stood up immediately, lit another cigar excitedly, and took a sip, then smiled and said, "Tanaka, in my name, send a bunch of flowers and a fruit to the Takahashi family. The basket should go over and say it is sympathy and meant to disgust them! Hahaha!"

Chapter 1712

"OK, President!"

At this moment, Nanako, who is far away in Kyoto, is still sitting in the courtyard waiting for the heavy snow, and doesn't know if it will come.

There was a sudden vibration from the phone in her pocket. After she opened it, she found that it was a push notification popped up by the app, with the title: "Eiki was beaten up in the street by someone in Tokyo, and his arms abolished!"

Nanako couldn't help being surprised, and thought to herself: "Eiki is very famous in Tokyo, why would anyone act on him in the street?"

However, she didn't have much interest in Eiki, and didn't want to care about this gossips, so she didn't click on it.

However, as soon as the screen of the phone was locked, it immediately lit up again, and it was a push from another app. The title was similar to the one just now, except that this one added: "The mysterious man is superb and can be called the god of war!"

Nanako, who has a deep love for fighting and martial arts, immediately cheered up.

She really wanted to see how powerful the mysterious person who was called the god of war by the Japanese media really is!

Later, she turned on the phone and played the video.

Marven was surrounded by the crowd, and when she couldn't see anyone, Nanako felt very calm.

When several people were quickly knocked into the air, her expression showed unconcealable shock, and she murmured: "Eiki's bodyguard can't be a waiting person. It can be seen that this person is really strong!"

Then, she suddenly uttered an ah, the phone couldn't be held firmly, and it fell to the ground with a snap.

She hurriedly bent over to pick it up. Fortunately, the ground in the yard was not hard and the phone was not damaged.

So she picked up the phone and couldn't wait to continue to look at it, her expression became more horrified and excited!

She blurted out excitedly: "Master Ye...It's really Master Ye!"

At this time, Nanako has become a star chaser girl.

And Marven is her natal idol!

Therefore, as long as she saw Marven, she couldn't hide the excitement in her heart!

What's more, Marven in the video is so elegant, so chic, and so domineering!

Nanako, who has always been as quiet as still water, got up, the nymph0 who couldn't control it, and said to herself in surprise: "Master Ye is really handsome and powerful! This kind of strength is indeed a master of martial arts! No wonder! Can beat Yamamoto Kazuki-sensei with a single palm. With his strength, even if five Yamamoto Kazuki-sensei attacks him at the same time, I am afraid it will be difficult to win!"

With the extreme excitement of the young woman, Nanako watched the video several times over and over again. At this moment, she couldn't wait to rush back to Tokyo immediately and try her best to meet Marven!

However, after a while, she gave up the idea again.

She knew that after Marven abolished Eiki, he would have to face the Takahashi family's targeting, and her father also has conflicts with him. If she went to him at this time, let alone whether he had the energy to see her. Just going to see him by her is likely to bring trouble to him!

Nanako looked at the sky and murmured: "I only hope that Master Ye can leave Tokyo in peace. As for whether I can see him again, his safety is far more important than my wish. I hope God will bless him and Master Ye will never meet danger....."

Chapter 1713

That night.

The whole Tokyo runaway group united unprecedentedly.

In the past, they were fighting each other, even competing, antagonizing, and fighting each other while guarding a site. Now they all have become comrades-in-arms.

Everyone held hands together and searched through the carpet, just to find the whereabouts of the mysterious man who abolished Eiki.

However, the instruction they received was not to hack the man, but to report his whereabouts to the Takahashi family immediately.

As long as the exact clue is found, one million will be given.

The mobsters usually don't have many opportunities to make money. They either collect some protection fees on Red-Light Street, or they are doing some chicken business, and their income is actually very low.

In Japan, how can you be considered a successful mobster?

In fact, it's very simple. It is enough to have a large displacement motorcycle.

Because in the eyes of the rioters, a good motorcycle is simply the standard equipment for the successful rioters.

It's like an ancient warrior has a good horse.

However, most of the mobsters barely make ends meet, and simply cannot afford the cost of large-displacement motorcycles. Therefore, they have to walk, or take buses or subways, to fight with others on the streets.

As for why not to take a taxi, it is because the taxi fare in Japan is surprisingly expensive. The mobsters go out for a fight. Before they get to the place, the taxi fare may have been over 1,000, far exceeding their consumption ability.

Because of this, they are desperate for money.

One million, even if it is divided among several people or dozens of people, it is a very objective figure in the hands of individuals.

Therefore, these rioters all took to the street with their own brains, holding their mobile phones, while playing the video of Eiki being beaten, while looking for Marven in the video.

But they didn't dare to search with great fanfare, they only dared to search with their eyes quietly, because they knew that this man was incredibly powerful. If you see him, you must not hesitate, turn around and run, and report to the Takahashi family while running. That's it.

At the same time, several ninjutsu masters enshrined by the Takahashi family also penetrated into the night wearing night clothes.

They are extremely good at concealing body shape and breath, and they are very good at secretly searching and tracking. They are one of the few masters who can truly pass by without leaving marks.

For top ninjutsu masters, it is completely possible for people to run in front and let top police dogs chasing behind. In a few steps, the police dogs will lose all clues.

However, although they are good at hiding their whereabouts, when it comes to attacking power, they are still much worse than Chinese martial arts masters and internal masters.

But then again, although their absolute strength may not be comparable to China's domestic masters, their overall combat effectiveness should not be underestimated.

Because they are very good at using fatal blows, such as very good at using poisoned daggers, darts, and blow arrows. They like sneak attacks and give opponents a surprise nirvana.

Therefore, if the average master is slightly less vigilant, it is really possible that they will follow their way, and maybe they will die when it is unclear.

The task of these ninjutsu masters is to find Marven and monitor him secretly. After the Su family leaves Japan, or before Marven leaves Japan, they will kill him.

Chapter 1714

However, it was not easy for these ninjutsu masters to find him. Marven left no clues at the scene. They could only check Marven's whereabouts through the Tokyo monitoring system first.

late at night.

The first batch of raw materials prepared by Qin Gang arrived in Tokyo.

After the plane landed, it was unloaded and cleared immediately, and then shipped to the production line of Kobayashi Pharmaceutical at the fastest speed.

Since Liang and Ichiro have been training at the Kobayashi Pharmaceutical Tokyo production base for a day, after the raw materials arrived at the base, they immediately entered the factory and started producing JX Weisan.

In addition, Liang followed Marven's request and applied to the Japanese Drug Administration to directly change the name of Kobayashi Weisan to JX Weisan.

In this way, after successful trial production, JX Weisan can be put on the market directly in Japan and in the countries where their Weisan has covered it.

During the trial production, Zak Chen asked his subordinates to drive him and come to Ichiro's house to pick Marven to the scene.

As soon as Marven got on the car, Zak Chen said nervously: "Master why were you choking with the young master of the Takahashi family?"

Marven frowned and asked, "How did you know?"

Zak Chen hurriedly said: "Someone took a video of you teaching him and posted it on the Internet. Now it's spread all over Japan! You are hot in Japan!"

Marven frowned: "It has been spread throughout Japan within two hours?"

Zak Chen helplessly: "Master think about how fast the cross talk between Liu Guang and Liu Ming was spread on our domestic short video platform! We have more than one billion people in China, and that cross talk is not half It's been all over the country within just a few hours..."

Marven shrugged and said, "After all, our domestic Internet industry is very powerful, but is the Japanese Internet so developed?"

Zak Chen sighed and said, "Master even if Japan hasn't done much in the past few years, it is still an established developed country. Although their Internet is not as developed as ours, the video entertainment sector is still good. Young people have nothing to do all day long, except for drinking, eating and shopping, just playing with mobile phones."

As he said, he pointed to a few young boys walking side by side on the side of the road outside the window, and said, "Master look at those little b@stards. They just walked and looked at the phone. He didn't even take the road to watch. Several people in Tokyo get kill several times a day. I guess the eight achievements of these people are watching your video!"

Marven asked, "Do you have any Japanese short video app? Find out and let me see it."

Zak Chen hurriedly took out his phone, found out the video and passed it to Marven: "Look, master."

Marven looked at the video and found that he was blurry in the video. This was a relief, and said: "Fortunately, the filming is not very clear, otherwise it will be troublesome if an acquaintance sees it. I still talked to my wife before I came. It was about coming to Japan to help people watch Feng Shui. If she sees this video, she must ask me what happened.”

Zak Chen said: “You can rest assured that this app is not compatible with ours in China, and Japanese short videos have no influence in our country.”

Marven asked him: “Are you sure?”

Zak Chen nodded: “Yes, on our domestic short video platform, there are only a small number of people who are doing content. Most of the rest are copied and copied by a bunch of birdmen. One piece is hot, they can’t wait for it. Ten thousand people plagiarize, and there is either a bunch of ugly and poor stinky silks playing the rich second generation, or a bunch of scammers selling some broken fish and shrimp lives on the beach.”

Marven smiled slightly and said, “Regardless of these people, you call Darren, this video of mine can’t be circulated to China in any case.”

“OK Master!”

Chapter 1715

Under Liang’s overall management, the production line of Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals quickly produced the finished Powder.

Marven came to Kobayashi Pharmaceutical’s production base in the suburbs of Tokyo and personally did a quality inspection. After confirming that the newly produced JX Weisan was no different from the JX Weisan produced in Wrestrvel, he told Liang: “Liang, you must ensure that the Tokyo production line maintains the current speed, work overtime, keep people, don’t shut down the machine, and quickly produce a large number of finished products.”

“Okay Master!” Liang nodded immediately and asked, “By the way, Master, when will our JX Weisan be officially launched in Japan?”

Marven said: “Don’t worry about the official launch. We have to debug the production lines in Yokohama, Nagoya, and Osaka, and then accumulate a batch of finished products. At the same time, we must also prepare to advertise in Japan for consumers even in Asia. Everyone knows that Kobayashi’s Weisan has been fully upgraded, the name has been changed to JX Weisan, and the prescription has been enhanced. The effect is at least ten times the previous one. After the campaign is completed, sales will begin.”

Liang hurriedly said: “OK, Master, after I have sorted out the production lines, I will immediately start to promote things.”

Marven snorted and said, “Since the trial production has been successful here, we can go to Yokohama tomorrow.”

Liang nodded and said, “Master, I will leave an engineer here to supervise. Let’s leave early tomorrow morning!”

Marven turned to Ichiro next to him and said: "Give you a chance to come back. You must take good care of it. Whether you can rest easy in your life next depends on how you perform in Japan. These production lines must be given to you. Manage it well, otherwise, I will cut off your dividends and let you drink Northwest Wind."

Now, Ichiro has given 90% of Kobayashi Pharmaceutical's shares to Marven, and his remaining 10% will not play a decisive role in Kobayashi Pharmaceutical.

As the majority shareholder of Absolute Holdings, Marven has all decision-making powers over the company.

In other words, if Kobayashi Pharmaceutical makes 10 billion this year, Marven wants to withdraw all the profits of Kobayashi Pharmaceutical and transfer it to JX Pharmaceutical, Ichiro has nothing to do.

When the time comes, all profits will be taken away, and naturally he won't be able to pay him a dime in dividends, and he will have nothing to do.

Therefore, his best choice now is to honestly work for Marven. In this way, after Marven asks Kobayashi Pharmaceutical to make money through the production of JXwei Powder, he will also generously release a portion of the profit dividend to him. Make sure that he can enjoy the rich life in Japan without worrying about money for the rest of his life.

Ichiro has been imprisoned in the kennel for a long time in the dark, so he can be said to cherish his current life very much. Seeing Marven said this, he hurriedly said: "Master, don't worry, Ichiro will be your dog in the future. , Wherever you let me go, I will go, whatever you ask me to do, I will do it!"

Marven nodded in satisfaction.

Seeing that the on-site production is in order and the production quality is up to the standard, Marven did not stay too much. He said to Zak Chen and Liang: "Okay, let's go back to rest and go to Yokohama tomorrow."

When leaving Kobayashi Pharmaceutical, Zak Chen walked quickly ahead and helped Marven open the car door.

Marven was about to get into the car, and when he first stepped one leg into the car, his figure suddenly stopped for a few seconds.

Zak Chen asked hurriedly, "Master what's wrong?"

Marven frowned slightly, then said calmly: "It's okay, let's go."

After speaking, he got into the car.

Subsequently, the convoy drove away from the scene neatly.

At this time, on the roof of a building opposite Kobayashi Pharmaceutical, four men in black were lying side by side.

Chapter 1716

These four people were covered with black equipment from head to toe, black hats, black robes, black shoes, and even black gloves on their hands.

Moreover, this kind of black equipment is very different from ordinary black cloth. The ordinary black cloth is only black, but the black on their bodies is completely super black, like a black hole.

In fact, the reason why this black equipment has this effect is mainly because a layer of ultra-black material with extremely low light refractive index is attached to the outside.

The scientific name of this super-black material is carbon nanotubes, and its reflectivity to light is only 0.035%, which is 3.5/10,000, which is the darkest material that humans have made so far.

The clothes are coated with this material. In a poorly lit environment, to the naked eye it is almost completely unclear. So for ninjas who are good at hiding, this high-tech material is simply their gospel. Wear such clothes. , The ability to hide them has increased exponentially.

At this moment, one of the men said: "Brother, the guy paused for a second before getting into the car. I looked through the binoculars. He seemed to be looking at us. Could we be discovered by him?"

The black-clothed man he called his senior said coldly: "You are just f@rting! The straight-line distance between us and him is more than 800 meters, even beyond the effective range of most sniper rifles, and our location, altitude About thirty meters taller than that guy, how could he find us?"

"That's right!" The man on the far left sneered, "This kid is nothing more than a little fight. It is estimated that he is a Chinese master, but the internal power of their master is not supernatural. At most, he is most powerful. No Maybe you can find us even this far away."

The person asked before, "Brother, the Patriarch does not let us do anything to him now, what shall we do now?"

The brother said, "My second son and I followed the convoy with a powered paraglider. You two drive, and on the radio follow my command."

The other three agreed in unison.

Immediately afterwards, the brother and the other person pulled a set of powered paragliders also painted with super black material from the roof.

Afterwards, the two men started the engines of the paraglider, and after the dark paraglider was blown up by the wind, they took off directly from the roof and disappeared into the night.

At this moment, Marven in the car frowned.

Just before getting into the car, he keenly felt that there were people lurking around.

After all, he obtained the good fortune of the “Nine Profound Heavenly Scriptures”, and occasionally got spiritual stones and auras in his body, and then used Rejuvenation Pills as snacks. Not to mention his strong strength, his perception ability is much stronger than ordinary people.

Those four people were on the top of the building in the distance. Not only were they very hidden, they also controlled their breath very well, but they still didn't hide from Marven.

Marven couldn't help thinking about it in his heart.

First of all, these four people are hiding in the dark, they must be unkind, and ninety-nine percent of them are coming to him;

Secondly, these four people should all be relatively strong masters, not ordinary people;

Again, these four people are very good at hiding their whereabouts.

Therefore, based on the analysis of these three points, he felt that the four people should be the famous ninjutsu masters in Japan, that is, ninjas.

And their master must be the Takahashi family who he just offended!

Chapter 1717

At the same time, two dark silent paragliders are flying fast at an altitude of two hundred meters.

This silent paraglider uses a lithium battery to drive an electric engine, so there is no noise generated when the engine is running.

Moreover, the fan blades of the paraglider have been carefully designed, and the air noise during high-speed operation is also very small.

Using equipment to make up for the lack of strength is also the consistent development direction of Japanese ninjas.

In the early years, Japanese ninjas not only had to practice ninjutsu hard, but they also had to be proficient in chemistry, because they needed to prepare a variety of strange equipment.

On TV, the ancient ninja dropped a ball on the ground, and smoke was instantly ignited. After the smoke disappears, people also disappear. This is not a fictional scene, but a real existence in history.

The round ball used by ancient ninjas is actually a mixture of smoke bombs and flash bombs made with the earth method.

When the explosion occurs, the instantaneous strong light will make the opponent's vision temporarily blind, and the smoke is an excellent cover for retreat, so when the opponent's vision recovers and the smoke clears, the ninja will have run away long ago.

Ninjas are like chameleons, very good at hiding their whereabouts according to their surroundings.

When the target feels that they may have run away, they may hide on the beams of the house, or hide behind the target, or hide in the water, using the thin bamboo strips used to blow arrows to ensure breathing.

Modern ninjas integrate scientific and technological achievements into ninjutsu, which gives them better concealment capabilities.

For example, the super black materials on them, such as this paraglider, are their modern methods.

At this time, the two people on the paraglider were communicating with each other through wireless intercom, and one of them said: "Brother, should we control the distance a little bit? So that the other party will not find us."

"Impossible." The senior said very confidently: "Our current height is two hundred meters, and the straight-line distance from them is almost one kilometer. At such a distance, they can't hear any sound at all, nor can they see anything. Clue, even if the person directly below us looks up, it is impossible to spot us!"

The headed ninja thought he had achieved perfection, but he did not expect that Marven still noticed the two of them.

After realizing that he was being observed at by the two, Marven couldn't help but smile sarcastically.

It seems that these ninjas intend to bite him and not let go.

I just don't know when they are going to do it on him.

Not only did Marven not worry about it, but faintly expecting it.

When he was young, he watched some ninja-related movies and TV series and cartoons, and he was still a little interested in the profession of ninja.

Therefore, he also wanted to compete head-on with Japanese ninjas to see what level of ninja Japan boasted for thousands of years.

So he decided not to change any of his next plans, but always pay attention to the movement of these four ninjas to see what they want to do.

Twenty minutes later.

The convoy stopped downstairs in the building of Ichiro's house.

Marven entered the building with everyone and came to the top floor.

At this time, two ninjas riding powered paragliders were hovering in the night sky above the building, and the other two also drove downstairs.

Chapter 1718

The leading ninja observed the surrounding environment and saw that the Aman Hotel was not far from this building, so he immediately ordered: "Second, we fell on the top of the Aman Hotel to watch each other, the third, the old Fourth, look for a suitable place to hide downstairs and closely monitor the target first!"

In the intercom, the voice of three people immediately came: "OK, brother!"

The two pitch-black paragliders slowly lowered their height, and finally landed on the roof of the Aman Hotel. After landing, the leading ninja immediately called Eiki's father Machi Takahashi.

Machi Takahashi is in the hospital at this time. His eldest son, Eiki, is still undergoing surgery to implant a steel plate.

After receiving the call from the other party, Takahashi Machi immediately asked, "Mr. Fujibayashi, how is the matter going?"

The one called Mr. Fujibayashi is the leader of these four ninjas.

His name is Tenglin Zhengzhe, and the Tenglin family is one of the four famous ninjutsu in Japan.

In the development of Japanese ninjutsu, there was once a master of ninjutsu named Tengwu.

This Tengwu was once a celebrity of the Tokugawa family, Japan's top family.

In 1676, he wrote a book called "Wanchuan Jihai", which combined the martial arts essence of famous Chinese and Japanese masters, and also referred to the famous "Sun Tzu Art of War" and "Tai Gong Art of War" in Chinese history. "This book was later regarded as the encyclopedia of ninjas.

Since its beginning, the Tenglin family has gradually become Japan's top ninjutsu family.

And Tenglin Zhengzhe is the heir of this generation of Tenglin family.

In Japan, ninjas have always been dependent on top-notch families to survive. There were a large number of ninjas who worked for them in large Japanese families and under the shoguns during the Warring States period.

Although modern ninjas are becoming rarer and rarer, the true masters of ninjutsu are still attached to top big families.

This is mainly because the ninja family lacks sufficient earning power, and modern society is becoming more and more secure and more emphasis on the rule of law, so they cannot make money by killing people and by arson, so they can only continue to adhere to the big family and become A master enshrined in a large family.

Said to be worship, in fact, it is captive.

Raising ninjas in captivity, giving them enough money, enough respect, and letting them work for themselves is also a common hobby of large Japanese families.

Tenglin is a master of the Takahashi family.

On the phone, he reported to Takahashi: "Mr. Takahashi, we have tracked down that guy's address, which is opposite to the Aman Hotel in the city center. Now I am closely monitoring him on the roof of the Aman Hotel. Waiting for your next instructions."

"Good! Great!"

Machi Takahashi finally breathed a sigh of relief and gritted his teeth: "As long as you find him, I don't have to worry that my son's vengeance will not be avenged!"

After that, Takahashi Machi again ordered: "Mr. Fujibayashi, you must keep observing him. Wherever he goes, you will follow him and wait for my next step. But if he wants to leave Japan, Just kill him!"

Tenglin said: "Mr. Takahashi, please rest assured, from now on, I will never let the target leave our control!"

Takahashi really knows: "Mr. Fujibayashi, when things are done, I will give you a generous reward, at least five million USD!"

Tenglin smiled and said, "Thank you Mr. Takahashi in advance!"

Takahashi really knew what he thought of, and hurriedly said: "By the way, Mr. Fujibayashi, the eldest son of the Su family, Zhifei, lives in the Aman Hotel. If possible, please help me monitor him. I want to know if he sees him at the hotel. Who did he call, who called him, and what he said."

Tenglin immediately said: "No problem, I will check it out now!"

Chapter 1719

At this moment.

Aman Hotel Tokyo.

This is one of the most luxurious hotels in Tokyo.

Zhiyu and Zhifei stayed in this hotel at this time.

The two lived in the best room type in this hotel. The rooms are next to each other. Every room here has floor-to-ceiling windows on three sides. You can clearly see the night view of Tokyo, which is truly beautiful.

Zhiyu had just taken a shower at this time, her short hair was wet, so she simply combed all her hair to the back of her head. Looking stunning.

After taking a shower, Zhiyu wiped her body clean, put on the silk nightgown brought, holding a glass of red wine, and came to the huge French window.

She gently lay on the recliner in front of the French window, looking at the night view outside, lost in thought.

In her mind, Marven could not help but appear again.

Thinking of that man's arrogant and pretentious look, Zhiyu was still angry.

However, when she thought that everything that the man did was to protect an innocent girl, Zhiyu felt a little admiration for him unconsciously.

In a foreign country, most people are more low-key and tolerant, hoping to avoid trouble as much as possible.

In this case, even if you have been bullied, you may choose to endure a moment of calm and take a step back, let alone see others being bullied, and stand up for others.

It can be seen from this point that the man is indeed very nice, and the three views are also very positive, but he is a bit crazy.

Of course, the strength is so strong, there is nothing wrong with madness.

Just thinking about it, she suddenly received a WeChat message on her mobile phone.

After opening it, it was a link sent by her brother Zhifei, and then he sent another voice: "Zhiyu, take a look, things tonight have caused trouble in Japan!"

Zhiyu opened the link and saw that Marven's video has exceeded 10 million views on the Japanese network, and it is heading towards 20 million, and she can't help but be stunned.

There are more than 120 million people in Japan, and more than 15% of Japanese people have watched this video.

You know, Japan is still a highly aging society. If you remove the elderly, young children, and farmers who rarely go online in rural Japan, the views on this video is already terrifying.

And this is just the beginning.

The ghost knows how much it will be played tomorrow?

Zhifei sent a WeChat message at this time and told her: "Zhiyu, Dad is going to have a video conference. Is it convenient for you now?"

Zhiyu gave a hum and said, "Wait for me for a minute."

After speaking, she stood up, found a shawl, and draped it over her pink fragrant shoulder.

Chapter 1720

Her nightgown is a low-cut and big v-neck sling. She is very comfortable in the room, but it is a bit exposed after all, so she has to cover it.

After the video conference was connected, Zynn asked in the video: "Zhifei, Zhiyu, have you two arrived at the hotel?"

"Yes." Zhiyu and Zhifei nodded in unison.

Zynn asked again: "Have you met briefly with the Takahashi family?"

"Not yet." Zhiyu said: "Originally, we planned to touch the cooperation intention in the hotel's meeting room tonight, but unexpectedly, the Takahashi family had a small accident and Eiki suffered an injury, his father Takahashi should be in the hospital with him."

Zynn frowned and asked, "What's the matter? Will it affect our cooperation with them?"

Zhiyu said: "Eiki was beaten by a passerby, but this incident was just an incident and should not affect cooperation."

"That's good." Zynn breathed a sigh of relief, and said, "You must understand the foundations of these two companies and choose the best one."

With that said, Zynn continued with a cruel expression: "You must find the strongest and most wolfish company for cooperation, whether it is the Takahashi family or the Ito family, as long as we choose one of them, then we will join forces with them and kill the other one!"

Zhiyu asked in surprise: "Dad, if we choose any company to cooperate with, can we just focus on cooperation? There is no need to help them fight against another company, right?"

Zynn said: "I went to see your grandfather today, and he said that the Ye family seems to want to transport this cake by the ocean, so if we choose the Takahashi family, they will definitely choose the Ito family, and vice versa. also the same."

Zynn paused, and then said: "What your grandpa means is that if we choose the Takahashi family, then we will join hands with the Takahashi family to kill the Ito family. If we choose the Ito family, we will have to go with the Ito family. Join forces to kill the Takahashi family. In short, you can't leave the Ye family any chance!"

Zhifei asked in surprise: "The Ye family also wants to get a share of the pie?"

"Yes." Zynn nodded and said, "I guess they just wanted to follow us because they saw that we started to get involved in this industry."

Zhifei said coldly: "The Ye family is a little overwhelmed. Many domestic businesses haven't gotten the order, so they want to come to us to grab overseas markets?"

Zynn smiled: "This kind of thing is also normal. Big families, like big companies, have to do everything possible to steal other people's business."

After that, Zynn said: "Look at Tencent and Alibaba. One of them is doing a good job in social networking, but they desperately want to be an e-commerce company; an e-commerce company that is doing well, sharpened their heads, and wants to do social networking, and Ali has become Alipay. , Tencent will do WeChat payment, Ali buys Hungry, Tencent will invest in Meituan takeaway, the two will always be like playing Go, you surround me, I surround you, we are the same as the Ye family, early Ye family When we started a new business, we also united many people to deal with them. Now that we have a new business, they can't just sit back and watch."

Zhiyu smiled slightly and said, "Dad, as far as I know, the Ye family's generation seems to be nothing special. Moreover, the Ye family seems to be getting quieter and quieter in recent years. I think they will be in a difficult situation for a while. Cut into the business of ocean transportation and port operations."

Zynn said, "I have the same opinion as you on this matter, but your grandpa still hopes to be more cautious."

Zhifei smiled and said: "Dad, grandpa is old and it is normal to be more conservative and cautious, but we don't need to worry about this. My view is the same as that of Zhiyu. Ye family should not catch up for a while, and, The gap between them and us will definitely grow."

Zynn sighed, and said seriously: "Forty years ago, your grandfather treated the Ye family in the same way. He always felt that the Ye family had no successors and would be lonely in a short time, but he never dreamed that there was a person named Changying who was so wise and close to a demon, and brought Ye Family up all at once..."

As he said, Zynn's expression became extremely serious, and he asked the two: "You must remember that a big family like ours is often the same as the country. In the long history of national development, many times it is to bet on the national fortune. Yes, just like when Germany attacked the Soviet Union, it was betting on national luck. If the bet wins, entire Eastern Europe belongs to Hitler. The Soviet Union's massive oil, natural gas, and iron ore resources sufficient to support Germany's rule of Europe; but if the bet lost, it fell into the quagmire of two-front combat and ultimately failed miserably."

"We are now focusing our efforts on ocean transportation. The Ye family wants to keep up, and they want to take a gamble!"

"If they bet, there is still a chance of not being separated; if they don't bet, they will definitely be left far behind!"

"So, even if the Ye Family doesn't have a capable person to pull the flag, they will definitely come in and fight with us! And we, no matter whether the Ye Family will catch up or not, we will cut their way first!"
