

The Amazing Son In-Law Chapter 1871-1880

Chapter 1871

If it weren't for the phone call between his aunt and Zak Chen on the way home, Marven at this moment would really believe that the enthusiasm of the woman on the phone really came from the heart.

So, he simply pretended to be very surprised, and said with a smile: "Auntie, it's really you? Why would you remember to call me?"

She had already passed the order to Zak Chen, so that Zak Chen would directly inform Marven to go to Shangri-La for dinner tomorrow.

However, Mr. Ye came to her specifically just now and asked her to call Marven herself.

But it can also appear that she is more sincere, and, after all, she and Marven have not seen each other for so many years. A call ahead of time to get in touch with each other is tantamount to warming up in advance. For the next plan to persuade Marven to go home, also Will help.

So she smiled and said: "Marven, I haven't seen you for so many years, your aunt has always been thinking about you. I wanted to see you in Wrestvel a long time ago, but I heard Darren say that you don't want to come back temporarily, so I just I didn't bother you..."

With that said, she asked with great concern: "Marven, how have you been all these years?"

Marven felt a little nauseous in his heart, but he kept politely saying, "Everything is fine for me, thank you aunt for your concern."

Cynthia breathed a sigh of relief and said with a smile: "You have a good time, auntie can't be more pleased!"

After that, she said again: "By the way, Marven, I called you, mainly because I want to come to Wrestvel to see you tomorrow and ask you out for a meal. I wonder if you have time?"

Marven asked in surprise, "You are coming to Wrestvel tomorrow?"

"Yes!" Cynthia said: "Actually, I wanted Zak Chen to notify you, but I thought about it, the aunt and nephew have not seen each other for so many years, so I called you personally."

Marven smiled and said, "Okay, when will you arrive tomorrow, I will invite you to dinner!"

Cynthia smiled and said, "Let's have dinner in Shangri-La tomorrow night. I have already told Zak Chen."

"Okay." Marven did not hesitate, and agreed without thinking, "Then see you in Shangri-La tomorrow night."

Cynthia smiled and said, "Well, well, then I'll see you tomorrow!"

Marven hung up Cynthia's phone, the smile on his expression gradually disappeared.

He has no affection for all the people named Ye, whether it is his grandfather, his uncles, or his aunt.

Before investigating the cause of his parent's death, the Ye family was the biggest suspect in his eyes.

Back in the room, Avella had already set a bathwater for him.

Avella, like a child waiting to hear the story, asked him if he had encountered any interesting things in Japan.

Marven told Avella what had happened between the three big families in Tokyo.

However, he deliberately picked himself out of this series of events, not daring to let Avella know that he was deeply involved in it.

He just told her that his clients in Japan happened to have some relationship with these families, so he got some first-hand inside information.

Avella was shocked to hear Marven talk about these incredible things.

The elements of big family, ninja, and assassination sound not only incredible, but also new.

Therefore, Avella was very happy to listen to it, and entangled Marven to talk about it until it was too late.

Chapter 1872

The next day, Avella got up early to go to work at the company.

Marven had eaten breakfast made by Viola, and spent the whole day thinking about Cynthia's affairs.

Since Darren found him, until now, the Ye family has never directly appeared in his life.

Marven, also liked this situation where he didn't have to deal with the Ye family.

However, Cynthia broke the silence between him and the Ye family this time, which also means that the Ye family has begun to want to win over him, and for whatever purpose they do not want for him to stay in Wrestrvel.

Even if he saw his aunt today and refused her request, the Ye family would definitely give up.

It seems that the Ye Family will become a long-term trouble for him in the future.

At 5:30 in the afternoon, Marven said hello to his mother-in-law Viola, telling her that he would have something tonight and not eat at home.

Later, he went out alone and took a taxi to Shangri-La.

Zak Chen wanted to pick him up by car, but Marven refused.

The Ye family always thought that Zak Chen was theirs. If Zak Chen behaved too diligently to him, the Ye family might be aware of the abnormality.

Seeing Marven arrived, Zak Chen immediately stepped forward and said respectfully: "Master you are here."

Marven nodded and asked him, "Where is my aunt? Is she here?"

"Here." Zak Chen wiped the sweat from his forehead and whispered: "Your aunt said that she was a little tired. I arranged for a spa masseur to go to her room to serve her. It will take more than half an hour to finish the work."

Marven smiled faintly: "All right, then take me to the box first."

Zak Chen hurriedly said, "You two will have dinner in the sky garden tonight."

Marven couldn't help but frown. He remembered the Hanging Garden, where the wedding he had made up for Avella was held there.

The Hanging Garden is a huge banquet hall with no boxes and translucent glass around it. It is usually a dining place for top Shangri-La members. Choosing to eat there will inevitably be seen by other guests.

So Marven asked him, "Are there many guests tonight? In case many people see me having dinner with her, and then recognize her, it might expose my identity."

Zak Chen shrugged and said, "Don't worry, Shangri-La tonight has completely cleared the entire catering department. Whether it is the outside box or the sky garden, there are no other guests tonight."

Marven asked in surprise: "It's not enough to clear a sky garden? The boxes, Chinese restaurant and western restaurant outside are also cleared?"

"Yes." Zak Chen said: "The catering department will only entertain you and your aunt tonight."

Marven said awkwardly: "There is no need to toss like this, just find a higher-grade box?"

Zak Chen lowered his voice and said in Marven's ear: "Master you may not know your aunt, she has always been like this."

After speaking, Zak Chen said again: “Your aunt usually has eyes above the top, and she has always sneered at a third-tier city like Wrestvel, and asked her to eat with locals in a third-tier city like this. In her eyes, it’s an insult to her...”

“What insult?” Marven said with a bit of disgust: “No matter how pompous you are, don’t you still have to eat, drink and sleep like ordinary people? What’s the point of doing this kind of specialization everywhere?”

Chapter 1873

Marven stepped into the restaurant department of Shangri-La.

The huge food and beverage department is indeed empty today.

The waiters also evacuated a lot of arrangements. According to Zak Chen, he was afraid that there would be too many waiters, which made Cynthia upset.

Marven walked through the outer restaurant of the catering department and came directly to the Hanging Garden in the center. In the Hanging Garden Banquet Hall at this time, the eighty-eight banquet tables have been completely removed, and only one is left in the center. A well-made Western-style dining table.

Marven didn’t need to think about it. The removal of the eighty-eight banquet tables and chairs must have been instructed by his aunt.

Therefore, he felt a little upset in his heart.

Although Marven hadn’t met this aunt until now, he felt very disgusted by his aunt’s style of being a relative of the ancient emperor.

Even if Marven now has nearly 60 billion in cash in his bank card, he still has no intention of showing off.

Not to mention that eating a meal is a waste of time and money, even if he is allowed to eat a bowl of beef noodles for ten at a roadside ramen restaurant, he will not feel anything wrong.

Moreover, in order to have a meal, the entire Shangri-La field and the entire Hanging Garden were emptied, and it was really impossible for Marven to experience any superiority.

On the contrary, this will make him very repulsive and resistant.

Accompanied by Zak Chen, Marven came to the only table.

The dining table is about two meters long and one meter wide, with two seats placed at both ends.

Marven nodded lightly and said, "Okay, go ahead and wait for her here. I will just play on my mobile phone."

Marven said, "Just give me a glass of boiled water."

"OK, Young Master."

Marven sat at the dining table alone, fiddling with his cell phone, just in time to receive a message from Nanako: "What is Master Ye doing?"

Marven smiled knowingly when he saw her message, and replied, "Preparing to eat outside, how about you?"

Nanako replied: "I just came back from the hospital and accompanied my father in the hospital."

Later, Nanako sent another message: "Master, does your wife like the ring you gave? Is the size of the ring still appropriate?"

Marven replied: "She liked it, thank you for helping me try the ring, the size of the ring is also very suitable."

Nanako sent a smiling face and said, "That would be great! It will be the Chinese Lunar New Year in four days. I wish Master Ye a Happy New Year in advance!"

With a smile on his face, Marven typed his fingertips and replied: "Thank you! How is Mr. Ito doing?"

Nanako replied: "The doctor said that after a few days of training, he can be discharged from the hospital."

"That's good." Marven just sent these three words, and at the entrance of the Hanging Garden, a woman dressed in luxurious and splendid walked in.

This woman, looking at her age, is about forty years old, wearing a limited edition Chanel costume, with short and medium hair dyed in yellow. Her face was not beautiful, except for her indifferent appearance. Kind of a very mean feeling.

This woman is Marven's aunt, Cynthia.

Chapter 1874

Cynthia walked very fast, the stride meteor came in and went straight to the dining table where Marven was.

And Zak Chen followed her step by step with a respectful attitude.

When Marven was still a few meters away, Cynthia smiled and said, "Oh, Marven, I haven't seen him for so many years, and he has grown into a handsome young man!"

Marven looked at Cynthia and found some childhood memories on her face.

So he laughed and said, "I will be 27 years old soon, and I am not a big or small guy anymore."

Cynthia looked very intimate, and said with a smile: "Oh, you look so much like your dad! It's like a mold!"

Marven nodded and smiled: "Compared with the previous years, Auntie seems to have not changed much."

Cynthia laughed and said: "A dozen or twenty years have passed in a blink of an eye, and I am almost 50 years old. How could I be the same as before."

At this time, Zak Chen had already taken Cynthia's seat away carefully.

When Cynthia sat down, he glanced at Marven's side, and saw that Marven had always been sitting on the chair, but he hadn't stood up before she took a seat. She couldn't help feeling a little dissatisfied.

According to the rules, the younger generation at the dinner table should stand up and wait respectfully when the elders arrive.

If the elders speak, the younger ones must bend over and lower their heads to listen carefully;

If the elder is seated, the younger must wait until the elder is seated and when the elder indicates only then he can sit.

But Marven did well, his butt looked like he was on a chair all the way, not to mention standing up, he didn't even bother to move.

Cynthia felt annoyed all at once.

If Marven keeps missing, never shows up again, it is naturally best for her.

But she didn't expect that this kid had been missing for so many years, and suddenly jumped out to divide the assets of the Ye Family.

What made her even more unacceptable was that the Old Master gave him Emgrand Group and 10 billion cash, which was not enough, and he wanted him to return to the Ye family.

She looked at Marven, who was dressed in ordinary clothes, had an easy-going temperament, and had some ignorance of etiquette, and she said in her heart: "What qualifications does such a person have to return to the Ye family? Any direct member of the Ye family has received aristocratic education since childhood. Then he went abroad to receive advanced studies. Compared with Marven, who only spent a year as a senior in Wrestvel, it is almost a heaven and earth difference. Letting such a semi-illiterate return to Ye Family will definitely lose Ye Family's face!"

However, although Cynthia didn't like Marven very much in her heart, she did not dare to refuse the father's explanation.

After all, after she and her husband were completely separated, her wishful thinking was to return to the Ye family, so that in the future, she would get a share of the family's assets.

But after all, she was a married woman, and she wanted to return to her natal family to separate the family property. She herself was very repelled by the Andrew and Changyun brothers.

In this case, if Cynthia still wants to get some of her assets, she must have her father's strong support.

Therefore, she has always been the only one in the Ye family.

She usually has eyes above the top, no one is in the eye, and everyone does not dare to contradict her, but she did not dare to disobey the Old Master.

Moreover, whenever the Old Master confessed to her, she always went all out to make the Old Master happy.

Therefore, she also warned herself in her heart: "This time, I have to do the things my father arranged for me beautifully! Let's not say that I can persuade Marven to return to the Ye family, at least let him agree. For the Lunar New Year, he has to go back to Ye's house to spend time with the Old Master!"

Thinking of this, she suppressed her dissatisfaction with Marven, and said with a smile: "Marven, you have really suffered in Wrestvel these years. My family hasn't seen you for so many years, and all of them miss you very much. When do you want to come home and have a look?"

Chapter 1875

"Come home and have a look?"

Marven couldn't help but smile when he heard these words.

Cynthia saw that he had a fake smile on his face, so she said, "Marven, people say that you are leaving home to be the boss. Now that you are no longer young, you should come back and have a look after you have been away for so many years."

Marven nodded, agreeing: "You are right. After leaving for so long, I should take time to go back and have a look."

As he said, he smiled and said, "Well, I'll arrange a time later, and I will check it out if I have time."

Marven seemed to have agreed to Cynthia's proposal, but in fact it was nothing more than a drag formula.

After a while, to arrange another time, is basically tantamount to nowhere. Anyway, his only idea is to deal with today.

Of course, Cynthia also knew Marven's plan, and immediately said, "Marven, don't have any resistance to your family. My family has always cared about you very much. Don't forget, your grandfather heard that you were in Wrestvel. He immediately asked Darren to buy you the Emgrand Group and transfer 10 billion in cash. It is reasonable. You should also come back and meet the Old Master, what do you think?"

Marven asked back: "Aunty, is it true that I just have to go back and have a look, and this matter is settled?"

Cynthia's dissatisfaction has grown stronger.

Ye Family asked her to come all the way to ask him to go back. This is already a shame for her. If he knows a little bit, he should immediately agree to it, and then go directly with her plane back to celebrate the New Year.

Unexpectedly, he actually played hide and seek with her here, and he even said nothing.

So, she said to Marven with a slightly displeased expression: "Marven, your grandfather invested 110 billion in you. This amount of money is nothing to the Ye family, but it is purely from Quantitatively speaking, it is definitely a huge sum of money. Is it possible to invest so much in you so that you can only go back and take a look?"

Marven looked at Cynthia and asked seriously: "Auntie, what exactly does the Ye family want from me? You don't have to hide it here. Let's open the skylight to speak up."

Cynthia hesitated for a moment, then nodded and said, "Well, since you said that, then I won't go around with you."

As she said, Cynthia sat up straight and said with a serious expression: "Your grandfather meant to let you come back to Ye's house to spend a reunion year together."

Marven raised his eyes and asked with interest, "Did it break? What happened?"

Cynthia said: "You have nothing more than an Emgrand Group in Wrestvel, and a family of your current wife."

Chapter 1876

As she said, Cynthia stretched out a finger and said arrogantly: "First of all, regarding the Emgrand Group, you can continue to ask Lori to help you take care of it at that time. We have investigated this person, and she has the ability, and during this period of time. The Emgrand Group has developed well in her hands, so you can rest assured to hand it over to her."

After that, Cynthia stretched out another finger: "Secondly, your current wife, Avella's family. We have investigated the situation of the Xiao family. To be honest, such a family can not even count as a bullsh*t in front of the Ye family. No! How can their family be the Ye family's in-laws?"

Cynthia had already looked disgusted at this time, and said, "So, I advise you to leave that Avella as soon as possible and draw a clear line with their family. It is best to give them a sum of money directly and let them get away forever. Leave China so that no one will make a big fuss about them in the future and satirize our Ye family man who is hungry and does not choose food!"

Marven's face immediately became a little ugly when he heard this, and his voice became colder and colder. He said, "Auntie, my marriage is my own business, and it has nothing to do with you or the Ye family. So, please don't interfere with the Family!"

Cynthia sighed and persuaded: "Marven, don't be so arrogant. Think about it yourself. You are a descendant of the Ye family! Choose ten of the richest second generations in the country with the highest status and you will definitely be there. For a seat, how could the girl with the surname Xiao be worthy of you? She wouldn't even be qualified to carry your shoes! In ancient times, she wouldn't even had the qualifications to be your housekeeper!"

Marven said with a bit of sullen tone: "Auntie, she is my wife at first, and she married me when I was at the bottom of my life. I would never divorce her, I don't need to divorce her!"

Cynthia said with regret: "Marven! Don't use emotions!"

Marven said coldly: "Emotional matters, of course, I must be emotional!"

Cynthia blurted out: "As a descendant of a wealthy family, feelings are not even a bullsh*t! Do you remember your uncle? He is also a kind of talent. He has treated me well for so many years, but what about it? Once his family strength couldn't match I separated from him!"

Immediately afterwards, Cynthia said unwillingly: "If it weren't in your grandfather's opinion, woman's initiative to divorce will affect her reputation, and if I was not allowed to go through the divorce formalities, I would have severed all relations with him! You are a man, at all. Don't worry about the impact of divorce on your reputation, you just divorced the surname Xiao, and returned to Orgeyon to marry a well-known eldest lady. The future is boundless!"

Marven sneered and said, "I'm sorry, I am more emotional. If you can do something like this, I can't do it!"

Seeing that Marven did not accept her suggestion, Cynthia immediately said: "Marven! You have to find out that Ye Family's hands are one of the best in the whole country! Any woman who wants to marry into our Ye family, must have a family background that matches the Ye family! Otherwise, it will drag my Ye family back and shame my family's face! The Ye family's face must not be ruined by you or ruined by the surname Xiao in the hands of the humble family!"

Marven said coldly: "I'm sorry, although I am a Ye, I am not someone you can control and control at will. I am in charge of my marriage. No one else has the right to interfere. The same is true for you!"

“You!”

Cynthia was furious at that moment. She slapped the table and stood up and shouted angrily: “Marven! You thought I was talking to you in a good voice, and I was discussing it with you?!”

“What?” Marven asked her coldly, “Are you going to force me to get a divorce?”

Cynthia scolded, “You are the heir of the Ye family! You must follow the arrangements of the Ye family. What’s more, do you think the Emgrand Group and the 10 billion cash are given to you in vain?! If you are not obedient, the Ye family can support you, just I can step on you!”

Marven was also immediately furious, and he said coldly: “You don’t want to talk about the Emgrand Group and the 10 billion cash here! The reason why the Ye family was able to advance by leaps and bounds and stand at the top of the country was due to my father’s dedication. Plowing, and strategizing decision-making! If the property is counted, my father owns at least a quarter of the Ye family’s asset inheritance rights. If that is the case, let alone 110 billion, even 110 billion, I deserve it! “

Speaking of this, Marven’s tone became more severe, and he scolded: “My father did so much for the Ye family, but how did you return him? You forced our family of three out of Orgeyon! In the end, my parents died tragically. ! I haven’t settled this account with you yet!”

Chapter 1877

Cynthia didn’t expect Marven to dare to talk to her like this!

Moreover, when Marven said that he should inherit a quarter of Ye Family’s assets, she was immediately furious!

So, she shouted directly: “b*stard! You are too high on yourself! Why should you inherit a quarter of the assets of the Ye family?!”

Marven said coldly: “Just because I am Marven! Just because my father is Changying!”

Cynthia scolded, “Your dad has been dead for so many years, so you still want to inherit the Ye family’s assets?! I tell you, you are not worthy!”

Marven looked at Cynthia and sneered: “My father flew for the Ye family back then. In my opinion, even the head of the Ye family is more than enough! It’s you! I really have to follow the rules of the big family and get married. His daughter is the water that was poured out. Now that you are married, you are no longer a member of the Ye family! Why are you pointing fingers at me in front of me?!”

The sentence that the married daughter is the water poured out is the sentence that Cynthia hates most in her life.

Even if she married as a wife early on, she had been thinking about the Ye family’s wealth.

Now, after separating from her husband and severing her relations, she pinned her hopes for the future on the Ye family’s fortune!

However, the elders of the Ye family, Andrew, Changyun, and old Changfeng have always been hostile to Cynthia. They often said this in front of Cynthia, and reminded her overtly and secretly not to worry about Ye family assets, because she was married. , Is no longer the Ye family member, and is not worthy to inherit the Ye family's assets!

Cynthia naturally refused to accept it 10,000!

She felt that her husband's family was unreliable, the only thing she could rely on was Elder Ye!

Therefore, in any case, she must please the Old Master, and let the Old Master give her a legacy that can make her life safe for life before death. This is also the goal of her hard work now.

However, what she didn't expect was that Marven, a kid who had been away from home for nearly twenty years, dared to say such things in front of her. It was like stepping on her tail and making her angry immediately!

So, she gritted her teeth and glared at Marven, and said angrily: "Marven! I tell you! If you are more acquainted and follow the instructions of the Ye Family, the Ye Family will naturally not treat you badly in the future, and will let you live a life of food and clothing!"

After all, she changed her conversation, her voice increased a little, and her eyes were cracked threatening: "But if you don't know me! Then I tell you, the Ye family can hold you up, and naturally they can also throw you down. Go down! At that time, the Emgrand Group and the 10 billion will leave you! After all, you will be beaten back to your original shape and become the stinky rag that is despised by everyone and even in the wife's family!"

Cynthia was out of control, her voice even screamed.

Zak Chen hurriedly evacuated all the service personnel, and walked out of the sky garden banquet hall and stood outside the door.

At this time, even if she is slightly dissatisfied with them, it is possible that Cynthia's emotions will be further out of control.

Seeing that Cynthia's expression had already taken on a strong resentment, Marven smiled playfully, and asked her: "So cruel? Then I would like to ask, if I'm acquainted, what would the Ye family command me?"

Chapter 1878

Cynthia thought that her threat had softened Marven, so she immediately sneered: "First divorced your wife, and then returned to the Ye family to wait for your grandfather's dispatch. Now Philip of the Gu family is unified. The Gu family's control over the entire Gu family has reached an unprecedented peak. His daughter has a marriage contract with you. If you marry his daughter, it will be of great help to the Ye family."

After that, Cynthia said again: "Or you can try the eldest granddaughter of the Su family, that is, the daughter of Zynn. She is very favored in the Su family. Her mother was one of your father's suitors back then. , Maybe she will be willing to marry her daughter to you, and she will be even more helpful to the Ye family at that time!"

"So, after you divorced that woman, first try to develop with the eldest granddaughter of the Su family. If you can get her, you will get married to her. If you can't get her, you will fulfill the engagement with Philip's daughter!"

Marven chuckled, "So the Family wants me to sell for the Ye Family!"

Cynthia said coldly: "This is not a sell-off. After all, marriage is very common in the upper class. This is not only good for the Ye family, but also good for you!"

Marven sneered: "Auntie, since marriage has so many benefits, why don't you just divorce, and then try to get together with Philip or Zynn? If you have this, it is with them. You hook up with one of them, wouldn't it be a huge help to the Ye Family?!"

When Cynthia heard this, she felt like she had been slapped repeatedly by Marven. Then she realized that he seemed to be subdued, but it was actually to humiliate her!

Thinking of this, she immediately became angered and gritted her teeth: "You beast! I am your aunt! How dare you insult me?!"

Marven said coldly: "I insult you? I shame you. If you were a man, I would have beaten you eight times!"

Marven didn't bother to stay here at this time. He stood up and said to Cynthia disdainfully: "Go back and tell the Old Master, if he wants the return of the Emgrand Group and the 10 billion, I can return at any time!"

When he said this, his expression was stern and he shouted sharply: "But!"

"My parents' account, I will definitely settle it with him in the future!"

"At that time, all the people who are responsible for this matter will have to pay me back with profit! No one can escape! Even him! No exception!"

"You, you" Cynthia trembled angrily, and yelled at Marven with her fingers pointing: "You b@stard! You dare to be so disrespectful to your grandfather because you are the heir of the Ye family! How outrageous!"

Marven said coldly: "What if I disrespect him? If you are not satisfied, you can go back and complain to him!"

Cynthia gritted her teeth and said, "Okay! Every word you say today will be truthfully told to your grandpa. If you are beaten back to your original form, don't blame your aunt for not giving you a chance!"

"Give me a chance?" Marven snorted: "You don't deserve any chance at all! However, if I find out in the future and find that you are also involved in the death of my parents, then you won't ask me to give you a chance!"

"It turned you back! It turned you back!" Cynthia was already completely irritated by Marven. She grabbed a beautiful empty wine glass on the table and slammed it on the ground, shouting hysterically: "I will definitely make you regret it!"

Marven nodded and sneered contemptuously: "You can use whatever means you can, I'm waiting!"

After that, he walked toward the gate without looking back.

Chapter 1879

Seeing Marven's departure, Cynthia behind him couldn't help shouting angrily: "Marven! I haven't left yet, what qualifications do you have to leave first! I am your elder, your aunt! You dare to be so disrespectful to me, I must make you pay!"

Marven ignored it.

In his opinion, his aunt is completely an idiot spoiled by the family halo.

She never forgets to hold his airs and arrogantly at all times. It is obviously the order of the Old Master to do business, but she only cares about her own air and face, such a person, even in the Ye family, is difficult to respect.

Zak Chen hurriedly greeted him and said nervously, "Master why are you doing this? If Miss Cynthia goes to Master to file a complaint, then your situation will not be good!"

"So what?" Marven snorted: "Don't think she is from the Ye family, but in fact she is just a dog of the Old Master. She wants to bite me, but also depends on what the Old Master means! If the Old Master wants to really want to start with me, then let him do it!"

After that, Marven said again: "The reason why I only scolded her now, instead of hitting her or killing her, is because I was thinking that they still have a blood connection with me. If they do it themselves, then I will even have this point. The bloodline is ignored! No matter who belongs to the Ye family, if they dare to bark in front of me, I will directly destroy them! If anyone dares to do anything to me and the people around me, I will directly kill them!"

At this moment, Marven's body was murderous!

Zak Chen sighed helplessly.

At this moment, what he was actually worried about was not what the Ye Family would do to Marven in the future, but worried. Once the Ye Family became angry and angered Marven, he was afraid that he would not let the Ye Family go.

In case it really started, Ye Family might not be Marven's opponent.

He sent Marven all the way to the door of Shangri-La, and respectfully said: "Master where are you going? I will drive you."

Marven waved his hand: "No, you send me at this time, the Ye family will be aware of the clues. Go and see Cynthia, and by the way, see what she has planned next."

Zak Chen nodded slightly: "Master then I will go and see your aunt first."

Marven reminded him: "Take a look at Cynthia's return plan to see when she leaves. Besides, I must be guarded against her going to see my wife, understand?"

Zak Chen suddenly shuddered and stood up straight and respectfully said: "Master don't worry, I understand!"

Marven did not put Cynthia in his eyes, but he also worried that Cynthia would think of other ways to save the country.

She wanted him to divorce Avella on her own initiative, and then returned to Ye's house. He rejected her directly. Then, if she went to find his wife, it would be a bit tricky for him.

After all, Avella still doesn't know his identity.

And he didn't plan to let her know.

At least, he didn't want his wife to know his identity before he found out the truth about his parents' death and successfully avenged his parents.

At this time, Cynthia was already furious on the spot and her blood was boiling.

Chapter 1880

The prepared western dining table had already been lifted by her, and the ground was full of mess.

Because there was a lot of broken glass ballast on the ground, the female foreman of Hanging Garden was afraid that Cynthia might accidentally injure herself with the glass ballast, so she hurried over with two waiters to clean it.

Cynthia was full of sorrow and anger and had nowhere to vent. Seeing that the foreman came with two waiters, she was immediately furious. She went up and grabbed one of the girls. She raised her hand and pulled her face, while beating, she cursed and said in her mouth: "Did I let you come? Did I let you come?!"

The girl was slapped several times, crying and begging: "Miss you, calm down, I am afraid that you will be injured by the glass ballast, so I came quickly to clean the glass ballast..."

Cynthia's heart was still very angry, and even increased a bit of strength in her hands, and yelled: "b@stard thing! I let you out, you can come out, I don't let you out, I better not even see your!"

Seeing this, the foreman hurriedly stepped forward and begged: "Miss, don't be angry, this was my own opinion, so I ran into you..."

Cynthia observed angrily, kicked the foreman's stomach, and cursed coldly: "Things that don't have eyes! All three of you have been fired. Get out!"

The foreman was kicked by Cynthia and sat down on the ground.

The ground was full of glass ballast, so she immediately felt a few pieces of glass ballast pierced into the flesh.

However, at this moment, she did not care about the severe pain caused by the glass ballast. She was pale and clutching her belly, and said in pain: "My stomach hurts... Lily, please call me an ambulance....."

Lili was the other of the two waiters. She was not beaten by Cynthia because she was standing a little far away from her.

As soon as she saw the foreman holding her stomach and her face in pain, she immediately asked with concern, "Sister Nan, are you okay? Hold on, I'll call 120!"

Cynthia looked at the foreman contemptuously, and said disgustedly, "What kind of pity do you pretend to be in front of me? Do you want me to lose money to you?"

The girl who was dialing the phone suddenly rebuked, "Why are you like this! Sister Nan is three months pregn@nt! You are still kicking her belly. If the child has something long and two short, no matter how much money she has It can't solve the problem!"

Cynthia couldn't help frowning, and said coldly: "What are you, dare you to talk to me with this attitude?!"

The girl blurted out without showing weakness: "We are human! Not a thing! Even if we are not as high as you, our body is given by our parents! Why are you hitting us?!"

Cynthia is almost furious!

She grew up so big, in addition to behaving like a good woman with her tail clipped in front of her father, no one had ever dared to disobey her and talk to her in such a tone!

But here today, she has been confronted by Marven and several waiters one after another, and she is naturally annoyed.

At this moment, she completely ignored the fact that the foreman was pregnant, and took a step forward, grabbed her mobile phone from the girl who had smashed her into the hands of the girl who was waiting for the 120-sound station to answer, and slammed it directly on the ground.

Immediately afterwards, she immediately raised her hand and slapped her face, slapped her face fiercely, and gritted her teeth and cursed: "Shame on her face, and dare to yell at me here, don't you know who I am?!"

As she was talking, Zak Chen stepped forward, and when he saw this, he hurriedly stepped forward and asked: "Miss, what's the matter with you?"

Seeing Zak Chen's arrival, Cynthia said coldly: "Okay, you are here just right! I ask you, how do you manage this group of people under your hands? Even they dare to stand in front of me?!"

When Zak Chen saw that all three of his employees had been beaten, he didn't need to ask them to know that Cynthia must have vented her anger towards Marven on them, so he immediately said respectfully, "Miss, don't worry, these three do not have long eyes. I must deal with the person seriously! Don't get angry, I will send you back to your room to rest first?"

Cynthia was also suffocated with anger, and looked at Zak Chen and said coldly: "Completely block these three b*tches for me!"

After that, she stretched out her hand and slapped Lily's face again, before turning around and leaving...
