

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 191-200

Chapter 191

“You watch Jay’s murder like this?!”

Seeing Jay wielding an axe to chop Marven, Dave recovered and roared angrily.

However, the Old Mrs. Xiao sitting on the high hall and Noah Xiao standing on the steps were not moved at all!

He didn’t even blink his eyelids!

The other relatives of the Xiao family also said nothing! As if they had nothing to do with them!

And the Lady Xiao, only wants the villa at this time!

Others, of course, eyeing it too.

Sometimes, the older the person, the more greedy!

In ancient times, the older the emperor, the more faint, the more arrogant and extravagant, the older and the bigger he was to build palaces and tombs for himself.

And the older Mrs. Xiao is, the older she is, the more she hopes she can live better and enjoy it!

The Lady Xiao wanted to live in a better place, die in a better place, and be buried in a better place.

That indicates that in the next life she will have endless glory and wealth!

Therefore, this is why the old people often want to prepare a thick coffin and a gorgeous grave for themselves.

Therefore, for Mrs. Xiao, she must grab this $130 million villa!

Even if Jay really killed Marven, as long as he can get the villa, it doesn’t matter!

Dave and Avella raised their heads to look at these people, and their hearts were completely cold.

This is the so-called “blood” relative!

For money, in order to rob the property, they did not hesitate to set up a situation to take it, and even wanted to kill his family!

The eldest brother Noah said unhurriedly, “Second brother, Jay is still a child. He is playing around, why should you take it seriously? Besides, even if he really cut Marven down, he is not from the Xiao family. Right!”

In his opinion, anyway, Marven is a live-in son-in-law who has no power and no influence, even if Jay chopped him out of his brain, he would lose more money.

That would happen to get both people and money.

That villa is worth 130 million!

And now housing prices are still soaring!

If they grab it, let the Lady Xiao live in first, and when the Lady Xiao dies, the villa is estimated to be worth at least 200 million!

Two hundred million! Will they all be their own by then?

With so much money, who can resist this temptation?

“I don’t have a big brother like you!!”

Dave yelled angrily, picked up a mop, and hit Jay fiercely.

Noah Xiao frowned, fearing that his son would be beaten, and immediately rushed to stop him.

Before he finished speaking, Dave hit him with a stick. Fortunately, Noah dodged fast and only hit a stick on his shoulder, grinning in pain.

Seeing that the father, who is usually honest and easy to deal with, was also so angry, Avella hated the ruthlessness of the Xiao family and worried about Marven’s safety.

At this moment, Marven held the axe blade, looked at Jay, with a hint of ridicule on his face, and whispered: “Jay, I tell you the truth, in fact, in my eyes, you are a waste of money. Not on spot!”

“Marven, f*ck your mother!”

An anger rushed to Jay’s forehead, “You are a waste of money, how dare you speak to me like this”

Before he finished speaking, Marven grabbed his wrist directly and broke it back.

Hearing the crisp sound of “pop”, Jay burst out a heart-piercing scream!

The palm of his right hand was actually broken back by Marven one hundred and eighty degrees, breaking it abruptly!

Jay howled loudly and slumped on the ground with tears.

Chapter 192

Seeing that his grandson was broken by Marven, Mrs. Xiao, who was leisurely watching “Family Law”, was suddenly angry!

She was so angry that she rushed over, slapped Marven’s face with a slap in the face.

When she slapped her hand into the air, Marven suddenly turned around and said coldly: “Old thing, you f*cking want to die!”

After speaking, he slapped the Lady Xiao’s face, and slapped the Lady Xiao’s hind legs a few steps!

At this moment, Marven’s eyes were extremely cold, and his whole body exuded a murderous aura!

Although the Old Mrs. Xiao was slapped in the face, she was so painful that she shuddered involuntarily.

She covered her face and backed away in fright.

The Lady Xiao who retreated didn’t even dare to look at Marven. This was the first time she saw him with such terrible eyes.

The Xiao family looked stupid!

What the hll! What the hll!

This rubbish, even he dared to beat Lady Xiao.

However, who can vent their anger for the Lady Xiao at this time?

The injured bodyguard has fallen to the ground, and the remaining few, with a look of fear on their faces, do not dare to step forward.

Although the Old Mrs. Xiao wanted Marven’s life, she knew at this time that Marven didn’t know where to learn a kung fu, he was so powerful, she couldn’t keep him!

Avella could see her heart pounding, her beautiful eyes followed Marven all the time, her mood was exceptionally strange, and her cheeks couldn’t help but feel slightly hot.

It was the first time she discovered that Marven had such a sturdy and mighty side.

In the past, in Avella’s impression, Marven only felt that he was taciturn, and knew nothing except buying vegetables and cooking.

At this time, Marven, seeing that no one dared to step forward, he raised his head, glanced at the crowd coldly, and shouted to the two bodyguards who were hiding away: “If you don’t open the door now, I will break your neck!”

The two bodyguards frightened their legs and hurriedly opened the door of the house!

Noah said angrily: “Mom, we can’t let them go!”

Old Mrs. Xiao gritted her teeth, staring at Marven, and said bitterly: "Let them go!"

"Grandma, how can I let them go like this?" Jay yelled reluctantly, with hatred in his eyes: "He broke my hand, I'm going to chop him!"

Old Mrs. Xiao suppressed her anger and said coldly: "Shut up all of you!"

Noah Xiao said viciously: "Marven, you hurt my son and broke my Xiao family rules, you will definitely regret it!"

The Old Mrs. Xiao said word by word: "From now on, the Dave family will be removed from the Xiao family, and they will no longer be my Xiao family's children!"

Dave raised his head, his head was broken and blood stained on his face.

He said blankly: "Such a Xiao family is not rare for me!"

Avella also nodded and said, "Yes! we are not unhappy!"

The Lady Xiao gritted her teeth and said: "Avella! You are really the money-losing people of my Xiao family! From now on, you have also been removed from the Xiao Group! The Xiao Group is now cooperating with the Emgrand Group, and it will surely become a big winner in the future! And you are unfilial Granddaughter, you will have nothing to do with the Xiao Group in the future! Get away from us as far away as possible!"

Avella said firmly: "I don't care about it anymore. Dad, Marven, let's go."

Having said that, Avella and Marven supported Dave together, gave the Xiao family angry look, turned their heads and left.

She walked out of the door without any nostalgia at all.

Today she saw the true colors of these people clearly!

The so-called relative is not as good as an outsider!

If it weren't for her parents' sake, she would have drawn a clear line from the so-called "Xiao family"!

Marven was also extremely cold in his heart.

Old Mrs. Xiao, Noah Xiao, Jay, three generations are all f*cking idiots!

Do they think, why do they think that you can still cooperate with Emgrand Group?

Chapter 193

As Marven drove away from Xiao's house, Dave said angrily: "I knew that my mother and eldest brother's family were so cold-blooded, so I shouldn't have helped them so much."

Avella sighed in the co-pilot, and said, "With their style, even if the Xiao family has a big foundation, they will be ruined."

The mother-in-law Viola said indignantly: "The key is that we have helped them so much! Isn't the Emgrand Group's contract awarded for the first time? Now it is cheaper for them."

Marven said indifferently: "Mom, they will kill themselves if they do many injustices, and they will not end well."

The Xiao family's current reliance is nothing more than cooperation with the Emgrand Group, and they don't know that the Emgrand Group belongs to them.

Offending him, still want to make money from Emgrand Group?

Daydreaming!

As long as he gave Lori a phone call, the Xiao family would be defeated.

Dave touched the half-dry blood on his head, and muttered: "Who would have thought that the Xiao family was so overwhelming that our family hadn't had a chance to live in the villa sent by the Wang family. They had to grab it clearly. bully!"

With that said, Dave's eyes lit up, and he said to Marven: "Good son-in-law, you take us to Tomson. I always remember that villa and want to see it again."

Avella said: "Dad, this is almost home, so what else to see? Isn't that villa not under renovation yet? Libo is still looking at it."

Dave said: "Oh, I want to go take a good look, otherwise I can't sleep!"

Marven can naturally understand Dave's mentality. It's like a person who can't afford a car suddenly has a top-notch luxury car. Even if he doesn't drive, he always wants to take a look at it in the parking lot.

So he said to Avella, "Since Dad wants to see it, let's go and see it, just to see if there are any decoration ideas. You can talk to Libo."

Dave smiled and said, "Marven still understands my mind best!"

Avella sighed helplessly and said, "All right, then let's go and have a look."

Marven immediately turned around at the traffic light and drove to Tomson First Grade

Marven parked the car in front of Tomson's villa, and when he got out of the car, his brows suddenly frowned.

The fence gate of the villa was actually hidden, and there seemed to be noisy sounds inside.

Seeing that Marven was silent, Avella asked in confusion, "What's the matter?"

Marven said: "It doesn't seem to be right, I'll go in and have a look!"

After all, Marven took the lead to walk a few steps quickly into the yard.

As soon as he entered the yard, he found several bodyguards dressed in black, throwing some furniture out of the villa.

Dave exclaimed: "It's from the Xiao family!"

Marven's complexion suddenly became gloomy. These people in the Xiao family were really lingering. They didn't trouble them yet, but they came to the door first.

"Who allowed you to come in!"

Marven scolded coldly and rushed up quickly.

When several bodyguards saw Marven, their faces were panicked.

At this time, Jay's drake voice came from the main hall.

"I let them in!"

Jay walked arrogantly with a crowbar in his left hand and thick gauze in his right hand.

Chapter 194

"Marven, you Rubbish, now you have been driven out of the Xiao family. Of course, this Tomson first-class villa must stay in the Xiao family. I am here to collect the villa keys today!"

Avella gritted her teeth and said: "You are too much, forcing Marven to surrender the villa is not a success, now you have to grab it?"

Dave also said angrily: "Jay, the villa belongs to my son-in-law, no one can take it away!"

Jay spit, and cursed: "Draft, Avella who do you think you are? You are now a bereaved dog driven out of the house, are you qualified to talk to me?"

As he said, Jay picked up the crowbar again, pointed at Dave and continued to curse: "You have an old thing, do you think you are still my Uncle? Hurry up and get off, otherwise, I'll break your leg!"

Marven was so angry that he said coldly, "Where is Uncle Libo?"

Jay stepped forward and laughed: "Isn't there an Old Master who guards the house in the villa? d*mn, I got rid of him. I can't beat him anymore, let him know from now on, Who is the real owner of the villa."

"You hit Libo?" Marven's eyes were cold.

Although Libo was from the previous Wang family, he let him be in charge of this villa and he will be his own in the future.

Moreover, Uncle Libo is honest and loyal and respectful to him.

More importantly, he is more than sixty years old this year, and he is in his dying years. This Jay shouldn't even let go of an Old Master, it is really hateful!

Jay sneered at this moment and said: "Why, a dog slave who doesn't recognize his master, doesn't beat him hard, how can he know who Master Ye is? There is a saying that when hitting a dog depends on Master Ye. He must hit a dog now, yes. In order to let his master know who is the one who can't afford it"

After all, Jay laughed arrogantly and his face was full of revenge pleasure.

Marven was already so angry that he punched him without hesitation.

"boom!"

Jay couldn't dodge, and was hit by an iron fist on the bridge of his nose. He suddenly spurted from his nose and screamed in pain.

"Why are you still stunned? Give me all! I want this waste to die!"

Jay stepped back frantically like a dog, and shouted at the bodyguards.

The bodyguards took out long knives from their waists one after another, and rushed towards Marven viciously.

"Marven, I know you can fight, but what if you can't fight again! I want to see if you have a hard skin or a hard knife!"

Seeing this, Avella and Dave looked pale.

Marven can fight, but after all, he has a flesh and blood body. The opponent is the Xiao family bodyguard with a long knife. How could he win?

Marven didn't care, his face was cold, without the slightest change.

"You want my life even with these stinky fish and shrimps?!"

After all, Marven's speed was like a ghost, shuttled among the bodyguards of the Xiao family.

Even if the bodyguards of the Xiao family held a long knife, they couldn't touch the corner of his clothes at all.

And Marven, like a butterfly wearing a flower, started to attack while evading.

He just throws a fist casually, he can easily make a sound of breaking through the sky, full of momentum!

Although the bodyguards were all retired special forces and they also had long swords, they were not opponents at all when facing Marven!

In the blink of an eye, everyone was knocked to the ground by Marven!

No one knows exactly how he did it, because they couldn't see Marven's moves at all, and these bodyguards had already been knocked to the ground!

Moreover, Marven was very angry when he took the shot, so he didn't have any sympathy for these bodyguards, and directly attacked them. All of them had broken hands or feet, all lying in the yard screaming!

Chapter 195

Jay was already stunned by the sight in front of him!

He knew that Marven was great, but he did not expect that the bodyguards with knives were not Marven's opponents!

Seeing the murderous Marven, his frightened legs were shaking.

Coming to grab the villa was instructed by Mrs. Xiao. Because he had an enmity with Marven, he took the initiative to ask Mrs. Xiao to take advantage of this opportunity to destroy Marven.

However, he didn't expect that Marven actually put down all the bodyguards with knives, and he didn't get hurt at all!

Is this Marven still a human? !

At this time, Marven had already walked towards Jay with a cold face.

He must teach this rude man a lesson and make him pay a painful price!

Seeing Marven walk towards him, Jay's face pales in fright, and he blurted out: "You can't kill me! I am the son of the Xiao family. If you dare to touch my hair, the Xiao family will definitely not let you go!"

Marven was indifferent and ruthless. He walked up to Jay step by step, pulled him up directly by the collar, and said coldly: "The Xiao family you mentioned is not even rooted hair in my eyes!"

"Avella, Uncle, please let Marven stop."

In a hurry, Jay pleaded to Avella and Dave in a panic, completely forgetting the appearance of being defiant before.

Avella said coldly: "You have what you end up with today, you deserve it!"

Dave looked at Avella and then at Jay, struggling very much.

Ask yourself, Dave has been completely disappointed with the people of the Xiao family. Although Jay is his nephew, he doesn't care about family affection, so why should he care?

But after all, the Xiao family still had some power. If Marven really killed Jay, he would definitely usher in crazy revenge from the Xiao family.

Thinking of this, Dave said helplessly: "Marven, give him a lesson."

Marven thought for a moment, then coldly nodded, and pressed Jay to the ground. The gravel plunged directly into his face, and the blood could not stop flowing down.

"I can spare your life, but you have annoyed me, the death penalty is unavoidable, and the living sin cannot escape!"

With that, Marven punched him in the lower abdomen. This punch was full of force and directly hit Jay's groin.

Although Jay is just an ordinary person, he doesn't have any martial arts cultivation skills, but this punch is enough to destroy his ability in that area. From now on, this kid will become an incompetent man.

Jay only felt the punch coming over at this time, it was the most painful pain in the world! Let him lie on the ground in pain and roll, and he doesn't know what sequelae this punch will bring to him.

Afterwards, Marven immediately called the community security, arrested all the people and sent them to the bureau, and then looked at Libo's injuries.

Fortunately, Uncle Libo only suffered some skin injuries, but it was not a major problem, and Marven was relieved.

However, Marven was extremely angry at the Xiao family. Since the Xiao family is so disgusting, they must not blame him now!

They arrived home.

Dave sat on the sofa. The bloodstains on his face had been dealt with, but he still had a blue nose and a swollen face. There was a bruise on his forehead. He was also in a trance and his head was dizzy.

Today, the eldest brother ordered the bodyguard to beat him badly. He felt cold and uncomfortable, and he is still angrily.

Avella rubbed medicine on his forehead and said, "Dad, Marven has already helped you out, so don't take it too seriously."

Dave sighed and said, "I'm chilling, my mother, my brother, none of them treat me as their own."

After that, Dave said again: "Avella, now they have driven you out of the Xiao Group, what are your plans next?"

Chapter 196

Avella said, "plan? I'll find a job first."

Seeing this, Marven didn't speak, but walked to the balcony and called Solmon.

As soon as he spoke, Marven asked him: "Your nephew Phil, is there a marriage contract with Theresa?"

"Yes." Solmon hurriedly asked, "Mr. Ye have any instructions?"

Marven said coldly: "I have broken up with the Xiao family. If your Wang family is still intermarried with the Xiao family, it will not give me a good impression. If there are any contradictions then, don't blame me for being impolite."

When Solmon heard this, he suddenly became nervous and blurted out: "Mr. Ye, don't get me wrong. Our Wang family has long wanted to regret the marriage. If it weren't for Mr. Ye as the son-in-law of the Xiao family, how could we marry a woman like Theresa? Don't worry, I will arrange someone to go there and notify the Xiao family to dissolve the engagement!"

Marven nodded and said with satisfaction: "It's up to you."

Solmon hurriedly said: "Mr. Ye, don't worry, I will look forward to everything in the future of my Wang family!"

"Yeah." Marven said lightly: "Okay, do it now."

"OK Mr. Ye!"

Didn't the Xiao family want to go to the Wang family? In this case, let their wishful thinking come to nothing!

Subsequently, Marven called Lori of the Emgrand Group.

The Xiao family is now a street dog, and they have to fight harder.

As soon as the call was connected, Marven said coldly: "Lori, now announce to the public that Emgrand Group has suspended all cooperation with Xiao Group! And will always exclude them from the scope of cooperation!"

Lori asked in surprise: "Mr. Ye, this is the company of the young grandma's family, did they do so much harm to Ms. Avella?"

Marven said indifferently: "My wife has broken with them, and they will have nothing to do with me and my wife in the future!"

Only then did Lori understand, and immediately blurted out: "Don't worry, Mr. Ye, I know! I'll make a statement!"

In this way, the Xiao family is completely finished!

Isn't little Lady Xiao arrogant? Then she will be left with nothing!

After hanging up the phone, Marven went back to the living room and looked at Dave. He saw that Dave's eye sockets were swollen, and the bruise on his forehead was getting worse and worse. I'm afraid it won't be eliminated in one and a half months.

And he could see that Dave not only suffered trauma, but also some impacts on his brain. There was slight congestion in his skull. It is best to go to the hospital for craniotomy to remove blood clots.

Otherwise, over time, this intracranial hematoma will be a "time bomb", and maybe one day it will suddenly erupt, and may lead to death.

However, Marven was afraid that Avella would panic, and temporarily concealed this matter.

He stood up and said, "I'll go out and buy some medicinal materials to treat dad."

Many medical techniques are recorded in the Nine Profound Heaven Scriptures. There is a prescription that can relieve depression and activate blood circulation, which can cure the situation of the father-in-law.

Avella asked curiously: "What kind of medicinal materials can be bought, will it work? Or should we go to the hospital?"

Marven smiled slightly and said, "No need to go to the hospital. Doctors will deliberately scare and make things serious. Dad would be anxious after hearing this. I have a prescription that is very effective for bruises."

Avella nodded then.

When Marven opened the door of the room, an acquaintance happened to come outside the door.

It turned out to be Qin Gang.

He frowned, looked at Qin Gang and asked, "Why are you here?"

Chapter 197

When Qin Gang saw Marven, he hurriedly smiled and said, "Mr. Ye, I heard that you encountered something today, so I collected some medicinal materials and brought them over for you to have a look.

After speaking, a bodyguard behind him stepped forward and respectfully presented a red wooden box.

Qin Gang opened the lid and smiled respectfully: "Mr. Ye, please take a look."

In the box there was an old wild ginseng with a thick arm, as well as purplish red and shiny Ganoderma lucidum, as well as several expensive medicinal materials on the market, which are not found in ordinary traditional medicine stores.

Marven glanced at it. Although these medicinal materials are precious, they don't contain much spiritual energy, but they are better than nothing.

It just so happened that he also had to prepare pills for promoting blood circulation and swimming, and these medicinal materials just happened to come in handy.

Marven nodded faintly and said: "Give it to me."

Qin Gang hurriedly took the box and said, "Thanks to Mr. Ye's guidance, everything is going well in the Qin family now, and the business has doubled in the past two days, all thanks to Mr. Ye's credit. In the future, if Mr. Ye needs anything from the Qin family, please feel free. Qin must do his best to fulfil it."

Marven said, "Then you continue to pay attention to me. If you have good medicinal materials, please bring them to me. They are really useful."

"Yes!" After Qin Gang agreed, he immediately said, "Mr. Ye, if nothing is wrong, can you come to the house to enjoy the noodles and have a home-cooked meal?"

Marven said indifferently: "Someday, there is something wrong at home now."

"Okay." Qin Gang said hurriedly: "Then I won't bother!"

After speaking, he left.

Marven also turned around and returned home.

Dave's headache was unbearable, so Avella helped him to a nearby traditional medicine acupuncture center, wanting to massage and promote blood circulation.

Marven said to him, "Dad, it's not suitable for you walking indiscriminately right now, so let's take a break. A friend just delivered medicinal materials. I will prepare a little pill for you. It should have a good effect."

Dave asked wonderingly: "Marven, do you still have the ability to cure diseases and prescribe medicine?"

Marven said: "I learned a little bit of it before."

He could hardly say that he had read the Nine Profound Heaven Scriptures and knew that there was a medicine Pill.

This is a lost traditional medicine prescription. It can not only remove blood congestion in the brain, but also has a miraculous effect on serious brain diseases such as cerebral infarction and stroke.

If a Pill for Dispersing Blood and Heart Relief is formulated, for Dave, it will naturally cure the disease.

But Dave was a little worried. He said embarrassingly: “Marven, it’s not that your dad doesn’t believe you. You are okay in fighting. You can’t learn to treat illness and save people by watching TV.”

As he said, he coughed twice and said, “Well, let Avella take me to the hospital!”

Marven smiled slightly and said, “Okay, if you can’t believe me, you can go to the hospital to try it first. If it works, it’s a good thing.”

Dave hurriedly said: “It is not that I can’t believe you. It is a little bit painful right now. I will go and see a doctor first.”

After speaking, he said to Avella, “Avella, let’s go.”

Avella nodded and helped Dave to stand up and they went out.

Marven walked into the kitchen and began to make prescriptions.

According to the records on the Nine Profound Heaven Scriptures, this medicine is very effective. Dave only had a slight blood flow in his brain. To get the drug, Marven subtracted a few medicinal materials before starting to make it.

Chapter 198

The Pill was developed by the famous traditional medicine doctor Simiao in the Wang Dynasty. His widely circulated works are Qianjin Prescriptions and Wang Materia Medica, and the Simiao’s Medical Classics are his memorials of medical practice in the past dynasties, and many clinical records are recorded. Experience, these classics are also included in the Nine Profound Heaven Scriptures.

Compared with the previous two medical books, this Simiao’s medical classics is more clinically valuable, but not many people know it. Now it has been completely lost, and most traditional medicine practitioners have not even heard of this name.

According to the prescriptions in the medical classics, Marven quickly prepared a box of walnut-sized honey pills with six pills in total.

As soon as the pills were prepared, Avella helped Dave back.

Dave still had pain on his face, and he became increasingly uncomfortable walking.

Avella was also a little worried, and said, “Dad, if it’s not possible, let’s go to the hospital for a look, what do you think?”

Dave waved his hand: “Oh, I don’t want to go to the hospital anymore. It’s too much trouble. I have to take a blood test and a urine test and I have to take a film. Sometimes all is right and something is wrong. Let’s help me sit on the sofa for a while.”

Dave went to the traditional medicine Museum just now for an acupuncture massage, but he didn't expect that it wouldn't work at all. His head became more painful. At this time, he just wanted to sit down and rest quickly, otherwise he might faint.

At this moment, Marven walked out carrying the pill he had just configured.

Avella heard the smell of medicine floating in the air, and she asked in surprise: "Marven, are you boiling medicine?"

Marven pointed to the honey pill in his hand and said, "Dad, this pill can invigorate blood and remove blood stasis, and the effect is very good. You can take one and try it."

He picked up the pill and looked at it. A particularly fresh medicinal scent came into his nostrils, making him feel refreshed.

He asked in surprise: "You made this pill?"

"Yes!" Marven said, "I just made it."

Dave asked again: "Have you studied medicine?"

Marven said: "I used to learn from an Old Master sweeping the floor in an orphanage. His ancestor was a traditional medicine doctor."

Dave said with a look of disbelief, "Really? Can the things taught by the old sweeping man work?"

"It is guaranteed to be effective. You can try it. The medicine will cure the disease."

Dave felt a little nervous, but when he thought of his current situation, he couldn't bear the pain, so he took the pills in two mouthfuls.

Before Avella asked about the origin of Qing Pills, he saw that Dave had already taken it, and quickly asked, "Dad, how do you feel?"

"It seems that I just ate it and my head really doesn't hurt so much." Dave was also surprised.

This pill seemed unremarkable, but after he took it, it seemed as if a breath of fresh air reached his forehead, his nose opened up, his head became clearer, and the pain in the back of his head actually disappeared a lot.

Dave asked happily, "Marven, where did you buy this medicine?"

Marven said, "Qin Gang just sent some medicinal materials over, so I just fiddled with them."

Dave continued to admire: "This President Qin is such a good person! Knowing that I was injured, he even delivered medicine specially!"

Avella also said: "Everyone in Wresvel City said that Qin Gang is kind, and that seemed to be the case. If the uncle Noah was like President Qin with kind thoughts, how could it be like this."

When he mentioned Noah, Dave looked down, waved his hand and said, "Don't mention him."

Dave returned to the house to rest after taking the medicine.

Marven saw that Avella's face was not so good, and asked: "You should rest soon, don't get angry, Xiao family, you will definitely pay the price for today's affairs!"

Chapter 199

At this moment, the Xiao family compound.

The Old Mrs. Xiao and Noah Xiao are waiting for news that Jay has successfully seized the villa.

But unexpectedly, they received the news that Jay was seriously injured and arrested and detained by the police on the grounds that he was suspected of breaking into private houses and intentionally hurting others!

This made Old Mrs. Xiao particularly angry!

She angrily said: "This must be done by Avella and her family again! It's really unreasonable!"

Noah was very nervous when he heard that his son was injured, and said angrily: "Mom! Dave is so arrogant! You have to call the shots for Jay! After all, he has always listened to your sayings, what you say, he will look at you! "

"It's natural!" The Lady Xiao snorted coldly, and said, "What if their family has that villa? Isn't it an empty shell? No money, no power, how can they fight us! Not only do they want to take the villa It will cost them a painful price if they get it!"

As he was talking, someone came in to pass a message: "Lady Xiao, Solmon, the head of the Wang family, has just arrived!"

"Oh?" the Lady Xiao blurted out, "please come in quickly! I was just about to ask you why he should give the villa to that family. Wang family are also our in-laws, so how can he break his elbow!"

As she was talking, Solmon flew over with his nephew Phil.

The two of them came over, and they had retired.

In fact, Phil was a little tired of losing Theresa, the main reason was that Theresa's family really couldn't make it to the table.

So, when the uncle said that he would divorce, he did not object, even let the uncle be Master here.

Seeing the two coming in, Mrs. Xiao hurriedly greeted them and said, "Oh, my in-laws are here, why don't you say hello in advance!"

Solmon sneered, and said, "Mrs. Xiao is so majestic!"

Old Mrs. Xiao didn't know what Solmon's words meant, she squeezed out an awkward smile, and said, "Why are you saying this?"

After that, she said to Noah quickly: "It's rare that President Wang came to the door in person. Don't you come here quickly and invite President Wang to sit in? This is your future in-laws!"

"I won't come in." Solmon waved his hand with a cold face, and said, "I came here today, mainly to talk about the marriage between the two families."

Mrs. Xiao hurriedly said: "Please rest assured, Mr. Wang, the courtesy we should have at the wedding banquet, there will be no less, please say it Mr. Wang if you have any requirements."

Solmon said coldly: "Then I will make a long story short. Our Wang family has recently thought about it and felt that the different ways are not conspiring for us to get along together. Therefore, this time we are here to cancel the marriage contract between Phil and your Theresa."

"What, do you want to cancel the marriage contract?" The Old Mrs. Xiao and Noah Xiao were both shocked.

Theresa behind her was silly, and she blurted out: "Why? Phil and I have booked the big day!"

After speaking, she asked Phil: "Phil, what is going on?"

Phil stretched out his hands awkwardly, and said, "This is a family arrangement, and I can't help it."

The Xiao family is about to collapse!

The relationship between the two families was booked long ago, and even the marriage has been booked. Now all relatives and friends know about it and are waiting for the wedding next month.

At this time, the Wang family actually wanted to cancel?

The Old Mrs. Xiao is looking forward to getting married with the Wang family, and relying on the Wang family to fly to the top!

Now the Wang family is about to cancel it with a single sentence. Doesn't this vanish all her big dreams?

Chapter 200

Moreover, although Theresa and Phil are not married, they have been together for a long time. Some time ago, the two children were careless and got pregnant unexpectedly. In order not to make gossips, Lady Xiao asked Theresa to knock off the child and prepare to wait for marriage.

Unexpectedly, Wang's family will now come directly to retreat!

This, isn't this playing with the granddaughter for so long?

Moreover, she also made her belly bigger once, so she was going to leave?

She was very angry and tremblingly asked: "Mr. Wang, why are doing this? My Xiao family has not offended you! Moreover, we have always treated Phil as our own son. He had been with Theresa before. For a child, I also think that the reputation of the two families should be taken into consideration, and we can't get pregnant before unmarried, so I advocated that Theresa had the child knocked out. You can't do this to her, right?"

Speaking of the child, Theresa burst into tears.

Solmon sneered and said: "If this matter is to be blamed, you can't blame Phil, just blame your Old Mrs. Xiao for being too shameless!"

"This" Old Mrs. Xiao didn't expect, Solmon cursed directly on her head and couldn't help asking: "What happened to you, Lady Xiao?"

Solmon hummed: "The villa I gave to Marven, you guys were going to grab it too. For people with no character like you, how can I become relatives with you?!"

The Old Mrs. Xiao was dumbfounded, and blurted out: "My family, this is a matter between us and Marven, so why it bothers you?"

Solmon said coldly: "You Lady Xiao is really shameless! That villa is my honor to Mr. Marven, you dare to snatch it? You don't look at it, you're a sh!t!"

Mrs. Xiao felt a sharp pain in her chest.

This Solmon doesn't give her respect! If the family is rich, can they insult me like this?

However, she did not dare to refute it at once.

Because she knows that she is at a loss in this matter!

Moreover, she really did not expect that Solmon would respect Marven Rubbish so much!

This in the end is why? !

At this time, Theresa sat on the ground, watching Phil crying and said: "Phil, I was pregnant with your child, you can't leave me!"

Phil on the side said lightly: "If you are to blame, blame your grandma and your father, oh yes, and your brother!"

As he said, Phil said again: "Also, you even beat Libo. You know that Libo has been in my Wang's house for 40 years and saved my father's life. And he was the one who looked after me when I was young. I was saved by Uncle Libo when I stumbled into the water. Otherwise, I would be dead now. Uncle Libo is no different from my grandfather to me. You actually beat him to rob the villa! How outrageous! A shameless family cannot be like my family, I won't be your son-in-law, and don't even want you to be our daughter-in-law!"

Noah Xiao stood aside, his face pale.

Old Mrs. Xiao also had a frightened expression on her face.

They thought that Uncle Libo was just a subordinate, but they didn't expect it to be so important to the Wang family.

Old Mrs. Xiao regrets that her intestines are all green at this time. If she knew that, what villa would she still rob!

The villa was not snatched and ruined the granddaughter's marriage!

The key is that I still count on relying on the Wang family to fly and grow up! Now all the chickens have been beaten!

Thinking of this, the Lady Xiao almost burst into tears.

Sitting paralyzed on the ground, Theresa yelled at the Old Mrs. Xiao angrily: "I blame you for the dead Lady Xiao! I blame you for ruining my happiness!"
