

The Amazing Son In-Law Chapter 1951-1960

Chapter 1951

Mrs. Xiao was dizzy as slapped by Gena.

She really did not expect that she had said so many insults to Gena before that Gena did not do anything to her.

Unexpectedly, when she showed her weakness she accidentally touched her inverse scale.

Although Gena has no culture, she is indeed a filial daughter.

At first, her mother was forced to commit suicide by taking medicine. After hearing the news, she rushed back from her husband's house.

At that time, her mother was very sick and hopeless.

In the hospital, Gena's mother told her very weakly that she wanted to go home, saying that she was uncomfortable in the hospital.

Gena knew that she knew that she was going to die. When she was dying, all she wanted to do was to save some money for her family, and didn't want to stay in the hospital for fearless treatment.

She wanted to take her mother back to her in-law's house, be good for a few days, and let her walk through the last part of life.

But her mother-in-law strongly opposed it, especially her mother-in-law, who yelled at her on the phone, saying that if she dared to pick her mother back, she would not even enter the house herself.

The younger brother who is afraid of his wife is unwilling to let her mother go back because it is unlucky for her to die in her own home.

In the end, Gena could only take her mother back to her old house that had been abandoned for many years.

In the old house, Gena tried her best to wipe her mother's body with warm water, put on clean clothes, and made her a bowl of noodles with eggs.

After the mother ate the bowl of noodles, she held her hand and said to her contentedly, "Good girl, mom will sleep for a while", and then she never woke up.

That day, Gena cried all the tears.

After her mother entered the soil, Gena beat her younger sister-in-law and was sent to the detention center.

It was also because of her filial piety that when she heard that Viola was very unfilial to Mrs. Xiao, she felt sympathy for Mrs. Xiao and hated Viola at the same time.

Generally speaking, this is a vulgar, sloppy, and uneducated peasant woman who has always respected her deceased mother and awe of human nature.

Although her temper is aggressive, she is not a bad person.

She could tolerate the insults Mrs. Xiao had put on her, but she couldn't tolerate even a slight offense to her mother.

Mrs. Xiao only said that by dying in a better room, she can guarantee a good fate in her next life. It reminded her of her mother who had died in a dilapidated building.

She always felt that her mother was loyal and kind-hearted, though poor and down for her life.

However, her fate is so awkward, she has never enjoyed a blessing in her life, and finally was driven to ruin by her daughter-in-law.

She also felt that such a mother, even if she died in the worst room in the world, God has eyes, she would have a good fate and enjoy a lifetime of happiness in her next life.

And what Mrs. Xiao said just now, inadvertently, not only denied her consistent firm belief in her heart, but also blasphemed her mother's holy and great image in her mind.

Therefore, she couldn't bear it and slapped Mrs. Xiao.

At this time, Mrs. Xiao, covering her face, looked at Gena resentfully.

Chapter 1952

Although she was very annoyed in her heart, but at this time, given her ten thousand courage, she did not dare to do anything with Gena.

Regnar's subordinates said in a cold voice at this time: "We are here this time. It is Mr. Regnar's order to empty the assets in this villa. Mr. Regnar means that in the future, except for the hard-decorated parts, as well as the bed, Except for the large pieces of furniture such as the sofa, all other household appliances, all valuable furnishings, and the good wine stored in the basement must all be emptied, leaving nothing!"

When Mrs. Xiao heard this, she suddenly felt desperate.

At first, she was worried that she had no money. She could sell the household appliances in the villa, especially the wine in the warehouse in the basement, which could sell for at least one million, but she didn't expect that such a rich person as Regnar could even do this. She was worried about this in her heart, and before she was ready to make a move, his people had already found it!

Mrs. Xiao said bitterly: "You can move away from the little brothers, home appliances and so on, but please keep the wine for us. After all, we like to drink a few drinks occasionally..."

The leader sneered and said: "You're fcking almost out of food, and still thinking about fcking drinking? With that energy, you should study how to make money and make a living!"

After finishing speaking, he immediately said to a few people around him: "Start moving! Don't leave any valuables!"

"OK, boss!"

Several subordinates immediately agreed, and then began to search the villa for a while.

They even carried a flatbed cart specially used for moving house, put all the valuables in the cart, and pulled out all the bits.

Mrs. Xiao didn't dare to make any trouble, she could only watch them constantly move the things in the villa, not only moved all the wine out, even the TV on the wall was also taken down.

What's more, the kitchen utensils, pots and other items in the kitchen were all taken away by them.

Mrs. Xiao choked and said: "Brothers, please keep the cooking pots and pans for us..."

The man said coldly: "These are all kitchen utensils imported from Germany. One pot costs tens of thousands. Keep them for you. You will sell them all in two days!"

Mrs. Xiao cried and said, "No matter what I sell, I can't sell the pot..."

The man said disdainfully: "We don't care about this. If you want to cook, you can find a way to buy another pot!"

After that, he checked in each room again to make sure that there were no valuables left. Then he said to his men: "You first put everything in the car!"

Several subordinates went out one after another, and the person said to Gena again: "You will live here steadily in the future. Mr. Regnar has only one requirement of you, that is, you must not go to the house of Ms. Viola next door to find any trouble with their family. Otherwise, we will never be merciful!"

As soon as Gena heard this, she nodded quickly and said: "Don't worry, I will never trouble Viola! The trouble with Viola before was all because of Mrs. Xiao, an ungrateful Old Lady, so I will definitely not do it again in the future. Not anymore!"

The man was satisfied and said: "Okay, don't you want the bedroom on the third floor? Go and take it quickly, let's go first."

Gena said excitedly: "Okay! I see! You go slowly!"

After the group of people left, Mrs. Xiao sat on the ground and cried: "Oh my life, why is it so bitter..."

Theresa also cried out and said, "Grandma, Regnar is too much. He clearly wants to play with us..."

Horiyah said at this time: "People, Mr. Regnar, may not really want to play with us. Originally, he wanted to arrange a few helpers for our family. Unexpectedly, your grandma would offend them to death when she came up. Now there are no other helpers. Now, there are three more enemies..."

Mrs. Xiao asked furiously: "Horiyah, you sl*t who doesn't obey women's way, dare to point fingers at me!"

Horiyah had been fed up with the Old Lady's arrogance for a long time. Seeing that the Old Lady was angry with her, she immediately became angry and cursed: "You dead Old Lady, don't deceive too much! Do you really think you are still Mrs. Xiao?! You are now very poor and utterly impoverished, and you're fcking here with me, what the hll I owe to the Xiao family?!"

Chapter 1953

Mrs. Xiao did not expect that Horiyah, who had always been crushed by herself, would dare to challenge herself!

At this moment, she felt furious in her heart, but she didn't dare to say anything when she thought that she had no support at the moment and was like a frustrated ball.

If I had treated Gena better at first, then the three of them would now be their own loyal licking dogs, and Horiyah would naturally not dare to make any mistakes.

It's a pity that she has already made enemies with Gena and the others. If she offends Horiyah at this time, she really can't find half a helper.

So she could only say angrily: "I don't want to quarrel with you, let's take Noah back to the room, and then move Jay in!"

Noah was almost crying, and choked up: "Mom, you still remember me, I can't hold it anymore..."

Mrs. Xiao hurriedly said, "Theresa, Horiyah, please take Noah back to the room and let him rest."

The two struggled to lift Noah to the elevator. Theresa couldn't help but said to Gena: "Can't you three come over and help? Just watch it like this?"

Gena said blankly: "When the three of us came here, we really wanted to be a cow and a horse for your family, but your grandma was unwilling. Now, the three of us are in a co-tenant relationship with you, and it's love to help you. It's not our duty to help you!"

Theresa said angrily, "Can't you reach out and help?"

Gena shook her head: "Sorry, the love is gone!"

After speaking, she said to Mrs. Xiao again: "The biggest room on the third floor will be mine from now on!"

Mrs. Xiao stood there with tears in her eyes, but she dared not speak.

After all, it was all her own fault, and she could only break her teeth and swallow in her stomach.

Otherwise, Gena will certainly not give a chance.

After Gena warned Mrs. Xiao, she took Tabia and Lexi to the third floor.

The three generations of women in the Xiao family had to work hard to move both Noah and Jay to the second floor.

In order to take care of the father and son, Theresa and Horiyah both moved them to Master bedroom on the second floor and let them sleep on the same bed.

The original personal belongings of Mrs. Xiao had already been thrown outside the door on the third floor by Gena.

The Old Lady also wanted to find a separate room on the third floor, but she did not expect that the other rooms on the third floor would be occupied by two other women.

In desperation, the Xiao family can only draw a line with the three of them. Gena and the others live on the third floor, Noah and Jay live in Master bedroom on the second floor, and Theresa and Horiyah live in one of the second bedrooms on the second floor. The other second bedroom was given to Mrs. Xiao.

After the busy work, the family of five was exhausted and hungry.

Mrs. Xiao wanted to eat a meal, so she directed Horiyah to say: "Hurry up and make something to eat, I'm almost starving to death!"

Horiyah choked and said: "Be a bullsh*t, do it, let Gena and the three of them eat the ingredients prepared before, and now the pots and pans have been taken away by Regnar's people, and there is only half a bag of rice at home. , Even the rice cooker is gone, what do I use to cook?"

Mrs. Xiao asked desperately: "Is there nothing to eat in the refrigerator? It's better to eat a few sticks of ham rather than going hungry!"

Horiyah said annoyedly: "Old Lady is demented? Even the refrigerator is dragged away. Where can I get you the ham sausage? How about you give me the money and I go out to buy it for you?"

Only then did Mrs. Xiao remember that Regnar's people had already moved the refrigerator out.

In other words, in this villa now she cannot even find a bite...

Jay was aggrieved at this time and cried, "Mom...I...I'm so hungry...I haven't eaten a bite since I went out... .."

Chapter 1954

Horiyah couldn't help crying when she saw her son's miserable appearance, and choked up, "Jay, mom is really helpless. There is no bite to eat at home, and the money I can find has been taken away by Regnar's people. What do you want me to get you to eat..."

Theresa cried and said, "Mom, or I will find a job tomorrow!"

Horiyah nodded and said: "It's okay to find a job, but you have to find a job tomorrow. For the salary, we will have to wait for the next month. This is looking at the New Year. Our family should not be hungry for the New Year.. ...."

Mrs. Xiao said at this time: "It's really impossible, just go find a part-time job! Find a job that pays daily!"

Theresa said: "It can only be like this..."

At the same time, Gena on the third floor was also holding a meeting with Tabia and Lexi.

The situation faced by the three of them is the same as that of the Xiao family, except that they have no money.

Therefore, Gena said to the two of them: "It is a blessing that we can live in this big villa now. As for the meal, I think we have to figure out a solution by ourselves."

Lexi hurriedly said: "Sister Gena, what do you think we should do? The Chinese New Year is only two days away, so we have to prepare a little bit. Not to mention the big fish and the meat, at least make dumplings for dinner, right?"

Gena said: "This is actually simple. I know a few cleaning companies that specialize in cleaning homes. There we can make about 20 an hour. The three of us work together for eight hours a day, and one person has one hundred. Sixth, this adds up to 500, and now that the year has come, the service industry costs have risen. Going to the bathhouse and rubbing the back can also make a lot of money. As long as the three of us work hard, we will definitely make money. Enough for our lives."

Tabia said immediately: "No problem, although I haven't studied much, I still have strength in both arms!"

Lexi also nodded again and again: "Then we two will listen to sister Gena's arrangement!"

Gena gave a hum and said, "Go to bed early tonight, and we will go out to find work tomorrow morning!"

The villa a05 next door is another scene.

Although Viola had a cast on her leg, she was in a pretty good mood.

The young couple Marven and Avella had dinner together. Viola stretched her legs out of the dining table diagonally in a plaster cast, while eating and visiting Taobao with her mobile phone, her expression was very relaxed.

Seeing this, Dave couldn't help but mock her: "I say Viola, you are really such heartless. You just broke your leg for a short time. Not only do you don't swear or curse the street, but you are like an okay person. Here comes Taobao! This is not your character!"

Viola glared at him, and said contemptuously: "What do you know? I am different now. I have learned how to counsel myself!"

Marven was very curious and asked: "Mom, can you tell me, how do you do psychological counseling?"

Viola waved her hand: "Hurt! Isn't it easy? You think my good son-in-law, if I sit here and think about my leg, then I must be more uncomfortable the more I think about it, and the more uncomfortable the more I think about it. If I'm so angry that this leg won't return to nature, don't you think?"

Marven nodded: "This is indeed the truth."

Viola chuckled and said, "So, I don't think about it that way, and I don't think about my legs, I just miss that Roxa!"

Marven was dumb for a while, Roxa? Isn't that his aunt Cynthia?

Viola said triumphantly at this time: "I just thought in my heart, I am really fateful this time! The fraudster Roxa deliberately retaliated, not only didn't she die, she even got f*cked!"

"Not only did she do a fight, she swelled her nose and face. How awesome is this?"

Speaking of this, Viola refreshed and continued: "Now, Roxa has also been arrested, and I don't have to worry about anyone retaliating against me in the future. Can you say I can be upset?"

Avella asked in surprise: "Mom, who is Roxa? Is it a member of MLM organization?"

Viola realized that she had missed her mouth and nodded hurriedly: "Yes, that's right, Roxa is the boss of that MLM organization! Heinous b@stard!"

Chapter 1955

Marven marveled at Viola's spiritual victory method, and at the same time, he was relieved for the successful resolution of this matter.

What he was most worried about before was that Cynthia exposed his identity. After all, his aunt's acting style was extremely arrogant. Maybe the moment his brain heated up, she revealed the identity of the Ye family.

Fortunately, Cynthia chose the wrong way as soon as she came up. She directly wrote Viola a 100 million cheque, and asked her to classify her as a liar as soon as she came up.

The two words Citibank even stung Viola's deepest pain in his heart, so that Viola directly responded to Cynthia's purchase by force.

Thinking of this, Marven couldn't help but feel funny.

His aunt, who has been living in Orgeyon for so many years, is always a respectable object wherever she goes, but she must have never imagined that her heroism would be broken in Wrestvel.

Moreover, it was at Viola's hands.

Want to come, this time will definitely teach her a lesson.

Marven was thinking. The phone suddenly received a WeChat message. When he saw it, it turned out to be a video from Orvel. The thumbnail of the video showed that it was a dilapidated small room, and his aunt Cynthia was standing before the camera with a bitter face.

He knew that Orvel should have settled her, so he immediately got up, went to the bathroom, and clicked on the video.

The video began to play, and Orvel's voice came: "Master, take a look, this is the room prepared for Miss Cynthia! It's in the shantytown of the village in the city!"

In the video, it is a small room of less than 20 square meters. The room is very shabby. Apart from a bed, a simple wardrobe, a desk and a chair, there is almost nothing else.

Although this kind of self-built house is in poor condition, it has the advantage that the landlord has made a separate bathroom for each room, so that at least there is no need to queue for public toilets.

However, this toilet looks very ordinary, small and broken, and very dark.

As for the toilet, it is definitely not available. The landlord provided it with a very cheap squat toilet.

Cynthia stood in the middle of the room with a depressed face, and said angrily: "You show Marven, how can I live in this shabby place!"

While filming the video, Mr. Orvel said coldly: "Why can't you live? Master had lived on construction sites for several years. The conditions are much worse than this. If Master can live, why can't you?"

Cynthia was furious: "Don't compare me to him! I have lived for more than 40 years, and I have never experienced a hard day!"

Orvel sneered and said: "Congratulations, from now on, your seven-day dream tour is about to begin. Haven't you had a hard time ever? The next seven days, let you live it all at once!"

After that, Orvel said again: "Master, look at this environment, are you satisfied? If you think the conditions are still a bit superior, then I will find a worse one!"

Seeing this, Marven couldn't help laughing.

Although he is not very old, he knows human nature better than most people after so many years of playing outside and encountering so many people of all kinds.

Therefore, he most likes to punish the wicked from the root of human nature.

For example, Youngzheng of Wei's Pharmaceuticals, who always looked down upon Liang's mother who was born under the Changbai Mountains, disappointed others, and delayed others for a lifetime. What's more hateful is that if they delay others, it's fine. They have all passed away. In rants, such a person is completely bad from the root of human nature.

That being the case, letting him settle down under the Changbai Mountain for a lifetime is the best punishment for him.

It is also his best way of atonement.

Chapter 1956

This Aunt, Cynthia.

Born in the mansion of Orgeyon has grown up since she was a child and has enjoyed the glory and wealth all her life, always being arrogant, defiant, and arrogant.

That being the case, the best way to punish her is to let her live a hard life and severely frustrate her spirit!

Therefore, Marven sent a voice to Orvel: "Mr. Orvel, I think this environment is good, but you must make your people guard against it 24 hours a day, and never allow her to buy any goods online, nor allow her order any takeaway!"

"If she buys something, or orders takeaway, your people will stop it directly and absolutely can't give it to her!"

"As for her daily food, just let your people see the mood and buy her something from a small restaurant outside, but remember that the standard for a single day's food must never exceed fifty!"

At this moment, the shantytown of the village in the city.

Orvel used the phone speaker to play the voice that Marven had just sent.

Cynthia's face suddenly became even more ugly after hearing it!

She angrily said: "This is too much! Don't let me shop online, let me not order takeaway?!"

Mr. Orvel sneered: "I just won't let you order, what's the matter?"

Cynthia said angrily: "I want to call Marven!"

Orvel smiled and said: “Based on what I know about Master, if you make a call, the daily food standard will definitely not increase but decrease! You will definitely regret the call by then!”

Cynthia gritted her teeth and said, “You’re f*cking here to bluff me!”

After speaking, she immediately took out his mobile phone and called Marven.

Marven answered the phone, and Cynthia blurted out immediately: “Marven! You are too much, right?! You let me stay in Wrestvel for a long time and live in this kind of pig nest-like environment, and I will bear it! But why are you restricting my online shopping and ordering takeout?”

“Also! What good food can I eat for a food standard of fifty a day? What if I am malnourished during this period? What if I eat waste oil and cause heavy metal poisoning?”

Marven smiled slightly and said, “Auntie, is Mr. Orvel by your side? You turn on the speakerphone and I will tell him.”

Cynthia immediately turned on the speaker, and Marven said: “Mr. Orvel, can you hear me?”

Orvel’s voice soon came: “Master, I am here. Just give your orders!”

Marven gave a hum and said, “Auntie, my temper is still too strong!”

Having said that, he sighed and said, “Let’s do it, reduce her daily food standard from fifty to thirty. If she is still not satisfied, reduce it to twenty or ten. It’s really not good, one day. Five is also fine, two for steamed buns, one for pickled mustard, and the remaining two for some other tooth-fighting sacrifices!”

Orvel laughed out immediately: “OK, Master, I see!”

Cynthia suddenly collapsed, crying and said, “Marven, what do you mean?! If you don’t want to add a little bit to me, just forget it, why you deduct 20?!”

Marven said, “Auntie, it is all for your own good. Let you work hard, so that you can gain a little more experience and lessons after returning to society. But I think you are really insincere. The ancients said , The sky will descend to the people of Sri Lanka, you must first suffer from your mind, your muscles, and your body. Since you are not sincere and so stubborn, then I will increase my efforts to make you a better one soon. One of the pure people!”

Chapter 1957

Cynthia really didn’t expect that what Orvel said before turned out to be true.

She wanted to find Marven’s preferential treatment conditions, but she didn’t expect that not only did Marven ignore her, but also directly lowered her daily food standard from fifty to thirty.

At this moment, she experienced the same pain as Mrs. Xiao at this time.

I knew it would be such a result, so why bother to pretend to be this?

Orvel glanced at Cynthia, who was crying, and sneered, "What am I talking about? I said Master will definitely lower your food standards. You just don't believe it. Have you taken it now?"

Cynthia was black and did not speak.

She dared not speak anymore.

Because she knew that she said so many mistakes, maybe she said a few more words, every day she really has to eat steamed buns and pickles.

Seeing that she didn't dare to do it again, Orvel smiled and said, "Ms. Ye is here to enjoy the good time for seven days. There is nothing wrong, I will leave first."

Cynthia glared at Orvel fiercely. Seeing Orvel leaving the room, she couldn't help but burst into tears.

She immediately took out her cell phone and sent a video call to Zhongquan, Master who was far away in Orgeyon.

As soon as the video went through, Cynthia cried and said, "Dad! Marven, this b@stard humiliated me in every possible way! Look at what he did to me!"

With that, she switched cameras and took pictures of the situation in the room.

Zhongquan didn't expect that Marven would be so cruel to his own aunt. He directly arranged such a difficult environment for her, and he was somewhat dissatisfied in his heart.

He sighed: "Marven is indeed a bit overdone. Anyway, you are also his aunt..."

As he said, Zhongquan sighed again and said seriously: "However, Marven is of great use to the Ye family now, and nothing else, as long as he returns to the Ye family and marries the Gu family's daughter, the Ye family's strength is immediately It can go up a lot! If he can handle the Su family girl, it will be even more perfect..."

Hearing her father's sigh, Cynthia suddenly thought of what Marven had said to her on the helicopter.

He said that the eight heavenly kings of the Wu family died in his hands;

He said that Philip was dyingly ill, but was reborn because of him;

He even said that a series of earth-shattering events that happened to the three major families in Japan some time ago were all personally done by him...

In this way, Marven's strength is likely to far exceed everyone's cognition...

Thinking of this, Cynthia twitched in his heart, and murmured: "These things must never be let his father know! Otherwise, he will pay more attention to Marven b@stard! I, Cynthia, can't let him return to the Ye family by saying anything. ! Otherwise, once this kid returns to the Ye Family, there will be no place for me to stand in the Ye Family!"

So Cynthia immediately said: "Dad, let me tell you the truth, Marven is a cold-blooded stupid without affection! You think he is of the Ye family's blood, and you want him to return to the Ye family, but he doesn't leave his body at all. The family's blood is in the eyes. He can treat me like this aunt. If we return to the Ye family, let's make him a little bit dissatisfied, then he wants to bring the whole Ye family into trouble?"

Zhongquan became silent all of a sudden.

Cynthia's words also made him a little alert.

Everyone hopes that their subordinates can have a viable general, but the first thing to consider is a very realistic issue, which is whether they can suppress the opponent.

Chapter 1958

What Marven did today, in Zhongquan's view, was indeed a bit too much.

Even if Cynthia went to his mother-in-law without authorization, she had the fault first, as Cynthia's nephew, he shouldn't do this to his aunt.

He even forced his aunt to live in Wrestvel's dilapidated Village for a long time.

It can be seen that the Ye Family wants to tame Marven, let Marven re-identify his ancestors and return to the clan, and use it for the Ye Family. It is definitely not as easy as imagined.

Therefore, this matter must not be rushed, otherwise, it may be counterproductive.

After Zhongquan wanted to understand this, he opened his mouth and said: "Cynthia, after all, this matter is your fault first, so even if Marven is indeed a bit too much, but you don't need to completely turn your face with Marven. Let's be aggrieved. We will discuss this matter in the future."

Cynthia secretly breathed a sigh of relief and hurriedly said: "I know Dad, I can't accompany you during this time, especially during the New Year, I can't pay you a New Year..."

Zhongquan smiled slightly: "These are all trivial things, don't worry, dad is waiting for you to come back."

"Okay!" Cynthia nodded to the video camera while wiping tears.

At this time, in Zhongquan's picture, the eldest son, Andrew, stepped in and said a little anxiously: "Dad, I have a news."

Zhongquan frowned: "What news?"

Andrew said: "I heard that the Su family is buying all kinds of masters across Asia, and the price is very high. An ordinary martial arts master will be given tens of millions. Calculated in 100 million a year, it is estimated that the cost of investing in this alone will be over 10 billion. Many top players who have retired from the arena are planning to return to the arena!"

Zhongquan asked in surprise: "Why are you making such a big move?"

Andrew said: "Maybe it is to quickly make up for the loss of combat power in Japan. I heard that dozens of masters in the Su family have been sued by the Japanese prosecutors. No one of these masters wants to escape from prison."

Zhongquan nodded, he knew very well how important combat power is to the top family.

Take what happened to the Su family in Japan this time. If it weren't for their own large reserves of masters, it would be impossible to send nearly a hundred martial arts masters to Japan overnight.

What's more advantageous is that when this master arrives in Japan, he can directly destroy the Matsumoto family with the attitude of a strong dragon slashing the ground with a snake.

These masters, without guns, ammo, and bare hands, can burst out powerful combat effectiveness.

As long as you have a passport and visa, you can enter and leave any country at any time and maintain combat effectiveness at all times.

Such a person is the most important support for a large family to fight overseas.

The combat effectiveness of guns is certainly strong, but no family can transport people with guns from one country to another.

Therefore, assassins who use guns have severely limited combat effectiveness. Once they need to go overseas to perform missions without guns, they will almost lose their usefulness.

And the martial arts masters raised by top big families? Even in the country with the strictest gun control in the world, they can still guarantee combat effectiveness. This is the important point of masters.

Andrew said to Zhongquan again at this time: "I heard that Zhiyu, the eldest lady of the Su family, has been investigating a mysterious person across the country since she returned from Japan. The Su family even secretly offered a one billion price tag. To find information about this person."

"Oh?" Zhongquan asked in amazement: "What is this person's background? Is it the enemy of the Su family?"

"No." Andrew said: "I heard that it seems to be Zhiyu and Zhifei's lifesaver!"

Chapter 1959

"Zhifei's savior?!"

Hearing these words, the Old Master Ye suddenly asked in surprise: "Is that the mysterious person I mentioned at the beginning?"

"Yes!" Andrew nodded, "There was a rumor back then that Zhiyu and her brother were saved by a mysterious man when they were in Japan."

Elder Ye asked again: "The mysterious man saved their siblings in Japan, and Zhiyu and the Su family are looking for clues to him in China. Is this mysterious man a native of China?!"

Andrew said: "It looks like this! Otherwise, there is no need for the Su family to find a mysterious person in China who has appeared in Japan. Isn't that a boat for a sword?"

Elder Ye suddenly became excited!

He said excitedly: "No matter who the mysterious person is, at least one thing is certain. The strength of that mysterious person is absolutely so powerful that we can't understand it, or even incredible!"

"Yes!" Andrew also sighed: "He can kill multiple Iga Ninjas and rescue Zhiyu and Zhifei with his own power. This person's strength is absolutely against the sky!"

Elder Ye blurted out: "If such a talent can be used by the Ye Family, what fear will the Ye Family have in the future!"

After that, he immediately said to Andrew: "Andrew, you quickly order, closely monitor the progress of the Su family, and do everything possible to find this mysterious person before the Su family. If you can't get ahead, then At least you have to do your best to draw that mysterious person to our Ye family!"

Andrew nodded: "I know Dad!"

At this time, Cynthia, who had been silent in the video, had a very strange expression.

She suddenly remembered what Marven had said to her before. Could it be that the mysterious person the Su family was looking for was him? !

Thinking of this, she felt a chill in her back!

If Marven is really that mysterious person, then she can't let him return to Ye's house!

Originally from the Ye family's blood, and there was a marriage contract with Gu's family, these two trump cards were enough for Marven to exchange for a very high status in the Ye family.

If he had the identity of this mysterious master again, he would be invincible. At that time, she would be driven out of the Ye Family!

Just when Cynthia was thinking about it, Zhongquan gave Andrew instructions, and when he looked at the phone, he found that Cynthia had a strange expression, and asked in surprise: "Cynthia, what's wrong with you?"

Cynthia hurriedly said, "Ah, Dad, I'm fine, I was thinking about something just now."

Zhongquan nodded and sighed: "After you come back, you can rest early, and stay in Wrestvel for a few days. When you come back, Dad will pick you"

Cynthia hurriedly said, "Thank you Dad, I see!"

After hanging up the video, Cynthia couldn't help being afraid for a while.

At this moment, she really regretted it.

I shouldn't have come to Wrestvel to take a trip to this muddy water. Before I came, I never thought that Marven would be such a hard bone to chew, and I didn't expect that my nephew seemed to be a highly hidden top master!

If I had known this before, if I killed myself, I would never come.

Before Cynthia came, she didn't regard Marven as an enemy. She just felt that he was just an heir left behind by the Ye Family. Letting him go home would be a gift to him.

Moreover, after such people go back, they can only serve as the flag of the family, and they cannot pose any threat to people in the family.

But after coming to Wrestvel, she really realized that the bones of her nephew, who hadn't seen each other in more than ten years, were as hard as her second brother.

At this time, Cynthia slandered in her heart: "If Marven is just like the second brother, it's okay to say. What's more terrifying is that the second brother was a scholar who had hard bones, but his fists were not hard."

"And what about Marven?"

"Not only the bones are harder, but the fists are harder!"

Chapter 1960

"It seems that in the future, I will stay away from him as much as possible! Try not to let him have the opportunity to return to the Ye family!"

.....

At this moment.

Orgeyon, Su's family.

Zhiyu sat in front of the computer in the study, looking at the information gathered from all over the country.

Since returning from Japan, whether Zhiyu opened her eyes or closed her eyes, Marven was all in her mind.

She has trouble sleeping and eating all day because of Marven.

However, she didn't tell anyone else what she was thinking, even her brother or her mother.

What she originally wanted was to use her energy to find the mysterious person who saved her, and then thank him in person.

However, she tried for several days without finding any valuable clues.

Immediately afterward, in order to quickly replenish the missing strength of the Su family, Grandpa Chengfeng decided to search for a new group of masters at all costs.

Zhiyu immediately recommended the mysterious person to her grandfather. In her words at the time, if the Su family could find this mysterious person, this person would definitely be able to use one man against one hundred enemies, which would increase the Su family's strike power geometrically!

Chengfeng was naturally overjoyed and immediately instructed Zhiyu to find the mysterious man at all costs.

However, there is no way to find out the information of that mysterious person.

The Su family's informants have inquired from various sources in China and Japan, and no one has ever heard of such a powerful expert.

There is a huge roster among the martial arts masters.

Basically, there are top masters who have learned from, have a background, and are well-known.

However, Marven is not a person in martial arts, so he is not known to them at all.

In this way, it will be more difficult for the martial artist to figure out his relevant information.

What's more, there are almost none in the martial arts masters at this stage that fit the kind of strength Zhiyu described.

Domestic martial arts masters are not weaker than Japanese ninjas, and some people are even stronger than ninjas, but there is really no one who can face just a few ninjas and can completely wipe out the enemy himself unharmed.

Zhiyu's bitter search has no results, so she wants to find all the entry and exit records of the most recent period from the Japanese customs, and then make a selection based on nationality and approximate age group.

However, since the Su family committed the killing of the door in Japan, the Japanese Homeland Security Department has imposed a lot of stricter customs control over it.

In the past, the Su family could easily obtain the entry and exit records of the whole of Japan, but now, they can't get the least information even after racking their brains.

Zhiyu also wondered whether the mysterious master was of Chinese descent who settled in Japan. In that case, he might not be found in the immigration information.

However, Zhiyu was unwilling to stand still, so she decided to start with better-operated domestic ones.

While searching for clues about mysterious people in China, she is also doing everything possible to break through the layers of supervision in Japan, and strive to obtain Japan's entry and exit records and even immigration records as soon as possible.

However, Japan's data blockade is a bit strict, and it will be difficult to break through for a while.

When she was at a loss, a female friend who had a close relationship in Japan called her and said to her: "Zhiyu, I can't get the entry and exit information and immigration records from Japan for the time being, but I found you a curvilinear way. Whether this method is feasible depends on whether you have patience!"

Zhiyu blurted out, "You can tell me what the answer is, I have patience! Even if it is a needle in a haystack, I will find him!"

The other party smiled and said, "That's right. Although Japan's homeland security department has blocked customs records, it has not blocked the video surveillance of the airport. In addition to uploading it to the customs, I have also kept a copy of all the video surveillance of the airport. There is a way to get you a copy. If you have the patience to look for it bit by bit from countless surveillance videos in several airports, you may be able to find the clues of your lifesaver!"
