

The Amazing Son In-Law Chapter 1961-1970

Chapter 1961

Zhiyu knows that entry and exit records are confidential customs documents, but airport surveillance is not.

Therefore, she secretly thought in her heart: "If he has returned home from Japan by plane, then he will not be able to bypass the surveillance video at Japanese airports. As long as she read the video carefully, she will definitely be able to find his trace."

"It's just that the workload may be very huge..."

"Besides, brother and I are the only ones who have met benefactor, so at most I let brother come to help me. Others can't help if they want to."

Thinking of this, although Zhiyu felt that the opportunity was a little slim, she still didn't want to give up. She immediately said, "Please help me get the copy as soon as possible, and then send it to me using the Su family's exclusive network."

Massive data is very troublesome to transmit. Ordinary networks want to transmit surveillance videos from several airports and a large number of cameras for several days, the optical transmission will take several months.

However, the top family like the Su family has its own dedicated network and large data server, and the transmission speed is extremely fast, and it can all be transmitted in a day or two.

The other party immediately agreed and said: "I'll let someone sort it out, and I will start sending you the data tomorrow."

With that, she couldn't help reminding Zhiyu: "Zhiyu, there are so many surveillance videos, it may take a long time to watch them all, and if your savior does not return from Japan in the end, all your energy will be lost; if you make a little mistake or miss your lifesaver among the millions of passengers, then your energy will be wasted, so before you start, you must first think about it."

Zhiyu smiled slightly: "These are not problems! Even if I have to watch a year's surveillance video in front of the computer, I will definitely stick to it."

The other party sighed helplessly, and said, "Oh, well, it's the Zhiyu I know. You have this kind of unstoppable energy for reaching the goal, which I will never learn in my life... .."

Zhiyu smiled and said: "That's because you haven't encountered anything that can make you fail to achieve your goal and swear not to give up. If you do, you will be like me."

The other party laughed and joked: "What? You think you, a life-saver, as a prince charming?"

Zhiyu chuckled and said, "Prince Charming is nothing but a horseback rider. The lifesaver, can do much better than Prince Charming!"

“Tsk tsk tsk...” The other party kept smacking her lips, and said with emotion: “Then I congratulate you as soon as possible for finding your savior, and by the way, you will also solve the major marital affairs. If this is the case, take more time and energy to find him, and it is not a loss, after all, it is a great thing that kills two birds with one stone, perfect!”

Zhiyu actually blushed on the phone and blurted out: “What are you talking about! I just want to find the savior and thank him in person!”

“I don’t believe you!” The other party grinned and said, “If it’s just to thank him, didn’t you say thank you when he saved you?”

Zhiyu replied with some embarrassment: “What I said at the time...”

The other person said: “Since you said thank you at that time, why bother to find him out at this time? Is it really to say thank you in person again?”

Zhiyu said with a little shame: “In fact, it’s not just to thank him. The family is also looking for some top masters to cooperate with. I think this is a good opportunity to kill two birds with one stone. Not only can I thank him in person, but also help the family match up to see if the two parties have a chance to cooperate.”

The other party smiled and said: “If you want to do this, you will have three birds with one stone. Not only can you thank him in person, you can also ask him to cooperate with your family, and you can even get a good son-in-law for your family!”

Zhiyu felt her cheeks become a bit hot immediately, and couldn’t help but angrily said: “You really can’t vomit ivory from your dog’s mouth. I won’t talk nonsense with you, you quickly give me the information and prepare, and then I will start screening.”

Only then did the other party stop teasing, and said seriously: “I’ll make arrangements, but today it’s twenty-eighth Chinese New Year, and the next night is New Year’s Eve. Your family has so many rules during the Chinese New Year. Can you get over it?”

Zhiyu said: “If you are too busy, you have to be busy. You should prepare for me as soon as possible. Don’t delay.”

“Okay, I get it.”

Chapter 1962

Marven didn’t know that Zhiyu was doing everything possible to find him at this time.

He focused his attention on the preparations for the new year’s goods.

This is the Spring Festival that Marven has most anticipated since his parents passed away.

In the previous years, he had a hard time, and the Spring Festival was no different from usual. Not only did he not enjoy the warmth of family, but he felt sad because other people were reuniting with their families.

After marrying Avella, he has no interest in Chinese New Year, because, in the past, the whole family of Xiao's celebrated the New Year together, and Marven was naturally the object of everyone's sarcasm. He would be humiliated every time at the New Year's Eve dinner.

In contrast, this year's situation is much better, so this has become the Spring Festival that Marven has most anticipated in his heart since his parents passed away.

Early the next morning, the new year was twenty-nine.

The family ate at the dining table together. Marven listed all the items to be purchased to his wife and father-in-law, and made some adjustments based on everyone's opinions, and got a finalized version.

Because Viola's leg broke again, and Avella still insisted on finishing the last day's work, Marven and Dave became responsible buyers.

Dave and his son-in-law prepared, and after breakfast, they went out to the supermarket to purchase together.

Avella finished her breakfast and stood up and said, "Husband, Dad, Mom, I have to go to the company. Today is the last working day before the holiday. I have to sort out the situation of some projects at hand, and then have a meeting with workers and give out a New Year red envelope."

Viola murmured from the side, "What red envelopes do the employees need? Haven't they all been paid?"

Avella said earnestly: "Everyone has worked hard for the projects at hand for a long time. How can I not give a red envelope at the end of the year? Not only red envelopes, but also year-end awards."

Viola felt distressed and said, "This money can be saved obviously, and you have to give it to outsiders. I really don't know how to say it!"

Marven said at this time: "Mom, the company relies solely on the employees to work hard to get better and better. Seeing the New Year, if the boss did not express anything at first, the employees would lose hope. After the end of the year, when they come back and propose to resign, doesn't this company fail to function?"

Dave also agreed at this time: "My son-in-law is right. Your mother-in-law is going to die. If you really want her to be the boss, she must be more ruthless than that and the company won't run a week!"

Viola glared at him: "Dave, did you just use your mouth? I can try one more thing, I can still scratch your old face with a lame leg!"

Dave shrank his neck in fright, and said angrily: "I don't bother to argue with you!"

Avella shook her head helplessly, and said, "Okay, dad, go shopping with Marven. I have to go to work, too."

"Okay." Dave nodded and said: "You go first, we will leave in a while."

As he was talking, there was a doorbell outside, and Dave opened the video intercom and saw a few middle-aged men in suits standing in front of the camera.

The leader said respectfully: "Excuse me, is Master at home?"

It was Orvel who spoke.

And beside him, there are Zak Chen, Qin Gang, Solmon and Liang.

There seemed to be a few people behind them, but Dave couldn't see clearly, he could only see that there were men and women, old and young.

So, he hurriedly said to Marven: "Son-in-law, a lot of people with good looks have come to you!"

Chapter 1963

Marven had heard Orvel's voice through the speakers of the intercom system.

He didn't expect that Orvel would come to his home at this time, and listening to the meaning of the Old Master's words, it seemed that he was not the only one.

So he got up and said: "Dad, I'll go open the door."

Avella asked in amazement, "Marven, wouldn't it be the big figures who came to you to see Feng Shui?"

Marven smiled and said, "It must be them. Only they call me Master."

Avella shook his head helplessly, and said jokingly, "Master, I think you are the boss, it's almost the same!"

Marven raised his eyebrows: "It's also an ability to convince others who can fool you!"

After all, he stepped out and walked through the courtyard to the door.

The door opened, and Marven was stunned by the sight in front of him.

It turned out that Orvel, Zak Chen, Qin Gang, Solmon and Liang were not the only ones at the door.

Qin Gang also brought Aoxue and Steven;

Solmon also took Phil and Fred;

The red-faced Old Master Song unexpectedly came with Warnia and Honor.

The radiant Old Master Tianqi also took his granddaughter Zhovia to stand beside him.

Even Tailai, the richest man in Haicheng, rushed over with Marven's good brother Zhao Hao at the orphanage, and Zhao Hao, now Tailai's driver and assistant with an annual salary of several million, has become a favorite of Tailai's side.

With so many people, they drove dozens of cars, large and small, to park up along the large road at the door of Tomson A.

Before Marven came back to his senses, everyone at the same time clasped their fists to Marven and shouted respectfully: "Hello Master!"

With so many people shouting together, everyone in the entire villa area was shocked. Many people have already walked out of the terrace to check what happened.

When they saw so many top luxury cars, so many Wrestvel and Haicheng big figures gathered at the door of the a05 villa, they were all stunned!

At this time, Mrs. Xiao, who had been hungry all night, heard the movement and hurried to the second-floor terrace.

The terrace on the second floor was in the room where Noah and Jay lived. Theresa and Horiyah were also here to take care of them at this time. Hearing the movement outside, Theresa and Horiyah had already taken a step ahead of the Old Lady to take a look on the terrace.

When they saw so many savvy people at the door of Marven's house, Theresa and Horiyah's expressions were so ugly and dark.

At this time, the Old Lady also walked up and asked in surprise: "Why are there so many cars? What are you doing?"

Horiyah said sourly, "Don't you see it? They all came to Marven for New Year's greetings. Many of them are big people. Just see the Song family's father and Tailai, the richest man in Haicheng."

Theresa said with red eyes, "I see Solmon! And Phil..."

Phil, in the earliest days, was Theresa's fiance.

At that time, Marven was still the smelly rug in everyone's eyes, and Phil was the future good son-in-law who was content with the entire Xiao family.

Theresa watched that she was about to marry into that family, and she was also arrogant and above clouds.

At that time, Theresa was at the peak of her life.

However, not long after, Solmon, the head of the Wang family, directly annulled the marriage contract between her and Phil.

Chapter 1964

Although Theresa had been with Phil desperately for several years, and she was pregnant with his child, she was still left clean by him.

Later, Theresa became the concubine and plaything of Fredmen and Barena. Following them, instead of getting much benefit, she suffered a lot of crimes and ruined her reputation.

The current Theresa was even more miserable. Although she was still living in this luxurious Tomson First-Class villa, she was hungry all night, but she didn't even have the money to eat breakfast.

In this case, seeing Phil again, all kinds of scenes from that year appeared before her eyes, which made her feel extremely sad.

In a short while, Theresa's eyes were filled with tears, and then two lines of tears burst into her eyes.

She couldn't help but choked softly: "Phil...why did you not want me...Phil...what did I do wrong to make you leave so desperately? I... Phil..."

Speaking of this, Theresa was already crying!

Seeing her daughter cry like this, Horiyah was of course very distressed deep in her heart. She gently embraced her and comforted her: "Theresa, believe mom, you will definitely find a better man than Phil in the future!"

Theresa cried and said, "How could it be possible...My reputation is completely bad now. When people talk about me, they are just jokes, mocking me for not loving enough, and being Fredmen's plaything, a man older than my dad. He threw me to Barena after he was done..."

Having said that, Theresa turned around and glared at the complicated Old Lady, and said angrily: "It's all because of you! It's all due to the dead Old Lady! You forced me to seduce Fredmen! If it wasn't for you, My reputation cannot be broken! If it weren't for you, Phil and I might still have a chance! You ruined me!"

Mrs. Xiao was taken aback by Theresa's angry roar, she stepped back subconsciously, and said, "How can you blame me for this? Didn't you agree with Fredmen?"

Theresa scolded: "You bullsh*t! If you didn't force me, how could I agree?! You just wanted to let Fredmen use me in exchange for investment! You just wanted to sell my body in exchange for prosperity and wealth!"

Mrs. Xiao said angrily: "Theresa! You have to rely on your conscience! In this matter, could I benefit from it alone?"

After that, she pointed to Horiyah and said angrily: "Don't forget, Fredmen gave you five million back at the beginning, but in the end, it was cheaper for your parents! If you really want to say who betrayed your body in exchange for that Wealth, you cannot only count one! Your parents must also be included! You must also be included!"

Horiyah's expression suddenly became very ugly.

Although Mrs. Xiao's words were harsh, what she said was indeed the truth.

In the beginning, whether it was Mrs. Xiao, Horiyah, and Noah, they all liked Fredmen's ability and wealth.

Therefore, together they persuaded Theresa to enter Fredmen's room in the middle of the night.

And Theresa was not completely forced, to be more precise, it was half-push half self-motivation.

She broke up with Phil at the time, and the family's economic situation continued to deteriorate. She herself had long been dissatisfied with those poor days. Therefore, mixing with Fredmen was partly because of her own vanity.

Theresa was also blushing at this time.

she knows.

Everyone is responsible for this matter, including herself.

Just like a proverb, in an avalanche, no snowflake is innocent.

Thinking of this, she also lost the idea of continuing to entangle with Mrs. Xiao, squatting on the ground and crying.

Mrs. Xiao ignored her, but looked at the big luxury car at the door of Marven's house and the large group of big people in the upper class, and her heart was so sad...

Horiyah also had a sour taste in her heart!

She thought that Marven had sent her to the black coal kiln, and she was even more angry.

So he gritted her teeth and cursed: "Isn't Marven just a liar? What the h*ll! Master, master this b@stard! How come so many big people believe him? Really blind their dog eyes!"

Mrs. Xiao sighed deeply, and said with extreme regret and despair: "Hey!!! I knew Marven would have what he is today, and I wouldn't have driven the family out of what I said back then! Blind me!"

Chapter 1965

At this moment, at the entrance of Villa A05.

Marven looked at the crowd and asked with a bit of surprise: "Why are you all here?"

Orvel smiled and said at this time: "Master, the Chinese New Year will be coming soon. Everyone is thinking of coming to you in advance and giving you some new year goods by the way."

Zak Chen also nodded and said: "Master, everyone is afraid that taking turns will delay your time, so after negotiating in private, just came over together!"

Qin Gang echoed at this time: "Master, everyone has prepared some small gifts for you, and I hope you won't dislike it!"

"Yes!" Solmon also said hurriedly: "Master, you are a person with great supernatural powers. They are ordinary people like us, if the gifts prepared can't enter the eyes of your law, I hope you won't mind!"

Marven smiled slightly and said: "You still remember me, I am already very grateful, you don't have to spend money on me."

Old Mr. Song, stepped forward at this time and said seriously: "Master, you have the kindness to reinvent us. On the occasion of the Chinese New Year, we should be prepared to pay a visit. It is reasonable."

Marven arched his hands: "Mr. Song, That is so nice of you!"

Warnia, standing next to Old Song, wore a Chinese-style cheongsam jacket today, which vividly set off the hot figure and showed her feminine temperament impeccably.

Having not seen Marven for many days, Warnia missed him very much in her heart. When she saw Marven's eyes look at her, her pretty face suddenly became red.

What she thought of in her mind was the scene where she was in the car and offered her first kiss to Marven.

When she thought of this, her face became even more red. In order to divert her attention, she hurriedly replied with shame: "Master, I wish you a happy new year in advance!"

Aoxue said not to be outdone: "Master, Coach Ye, I also wish you a Happy New Year in advance, and I wish you all the best in the new year!"

Zhovia hurriedly said: "Master...I...I also wish you a Happy New Year..."

Warnia understood at this moment that the two little girls actually belonged to Marven.

At this moment, she couldn't help but sigh in her heart.

She knew very well that it was a very tormenting thing to like a married man like Marven. It seemed that these two little girls, like herself, suffered from lovesickness to Marven.

With a smile on his face, Marven expressed gratitude to the three ladies one by one.

Later, Tailai brought Zhao Hao over. Tailai put his hands together and said respectfully: "Master, since the last time I took your Rejuvenation Pill, this body has become stronger and powerful. Thanks to you for everything! I am really grateful!"

Marven smiled slightly: "President Tailai doesn't have to be so polite, after all, the Rejuvenating Pill was taken by you yourself with your strength, so don't thank me.

When Zhao Hao saw Marven at this time, his heart had already been overwhelmed.

Ever since Marven introduced him to Tailai as a driver and assistant, Zhao Hao has deeply realized that Marven is extraordinary.

However, he really didn't expect Marven's strength to be so strong.

His boss made a special trip to drive to Wrestvel to give Marven a New Year gift. This shocked him a bit, but after he came, he realized that the scene was even more shocking!

In Wrestvel, there are almost all figures with the greatest of reputation!

Moreover, they all showed such humility in front of Marven one by one, this scene is really staggering!

It was precisely because of the shock in his heart that Zhao Hao felt a little flustered when facing Marven.

Marven looked at Zhao Hao at this time and said with a smile, "Brother, how is everything going well recently?"

Chapter 1966

Zhao Hao hurriedly said, "Master, everything is fine with me lately! Thanks to you and President Tailai for taking care of me!"

When Marven heard this, he couldn't help getting serious, and said seriously: "Brother, everyone present can call me Master, but you can't!"

Zhao Hao said awkwardly, "Master...I...hey...including Mr. Taili, so many people respect you so much, how can I make an exception... .."

Marven walked up to him, patted him on the shoulder, and said very solemnly: "Brother, they call me Master because I have helped them more or less, but you are different!"

Zhao Hao hurriedly said: "I... I am also today thanks to your help... The help you brought to me is earth-shaking, and I have to respect you more than others. ...."

Marven said with a somewhat displeased expression: "Don't be fooling around with me! The two of us grew up in the orphanage together. Although we were not born by the same mother, in those years in the orphanage, between the two of us there was no difference between us!"

"After so many years, you and I supported each other, depended on each other, and shared weal and woe. I helped you. It is the brothers who pulled each other out. Why are you polite with me?"

When Zhao Hao heard these words, he felt ashamed in his heart as he was grateful.

He thought to himself: "I was always afraid that I would not be able to climb Marven, so I became more and more sincere and frightened in front of him, but the more so, the more alienated I and him, but Marven has always regarded me as a brother. , If I treat him with respect as a servant, he must be very uncomfortable..."

Thinking of this, Zhao Hao observed at it and said, "Marven, brother got it, brother, thank you!"

Marven smiled slightly and nodded: "This is the f*cking brother of Marven. If you call me Master next time, I will break the friendship directly!"

Zhao Hao hurriedly said, "Marven, don't worry, I will never call you Master again. Marven is not a Master in front of me, you are Zhao Hao's brother, brother for life!"

Marven nodded lightly, and said with satisfaction: "I am so happy to have you!"

At this time, Dave and Avella also walked out.

The two felt that if Marven's customers came to visit at home, of course they had to do a good job of hospitality, so they quickly cleaned up the living room at home and came out to invite the guests in to sit for a while.

But after they came out, the two people discovered that there were obviously more people outside than they expected!

What is even more frightening is that these people are almost all of Wrester's most prestigious group!

Especially when she saw Warnia, Avella suddenly felt a little inferior. She knew Warnia was also outside, so she had to put on makeup before coming out.

Usually, Avella goes out without makeup, seldom puts on makeup, and is not so elegant in dress, and today is no exception.

So, in front of Warnia who was dressed up, she suddenly seemed a little bleak.

Dave knew that his son-in-law was very capable now, and that his clients were all big shots, so seeing so many big shots made him feel nothing.

However, when he saw Tianqi, Dave hurriedly greeted him and said respectfully: "Oh, genius doctor Tianqi, you are here too! You are a life-saver, I should go down to pay you a New Year greeting..."

Tianqi couldn't help feeling a little embarrassed, because he knew very well that the high paraplegia caused by car accident was cured by Marven with magical medicine, and he had nothing to do with him.

Therefore, Dave respected him so much that he couldn't help being embarrassed, and hurriedly said: "Mr. Xiao, you are too polite. Master has the kindness of remaking me Shi, so I came to visit him this time!"

At this time, Orvel stepped up and hugged Dave. He bowed slightly and said respectfully: "Hello, Mr. Xiao! Orvel is here. I wish you a happy New Year in advance!"

Dave had several contacts with Orvel in Tianxiang Mansion, and he had already been very familiar with him, so he smiled and said, "You are too polite, Mr. Orvel, and I wish you a happy new year!"

Orvel was very flattered and said: "If you can't do it, you can call me Orvel, Mr. Xiao!"

Dave was very proud of his heart, and secretly said: "Oh, I Old Xiao has such a great face now?! Even the underground emperor of Wrestrvel, Mr. Orvel, is respectful in front of me, is it worth it?! Moreover, if so many big people come to pay New Year's greetings today, if it spreads out, don't know how many people will have their jaw dropped!"

Chapter 1967

In order not to neglect the guests, Marven invited everyone into the villa.

Everyone also hurriedly asked the accompanying people to take out the prepared gifts from the car, and then saw at least twenty or thirty people, holding various high-end gift boxes, lined up into the villa.

Not far away, Mrs. Xiao from Villa A04, her eyes straightened, and her mouth muttered: "This battle, which is an ordinary gift? This is simply the posture of officials from all over the ancient times lining up to pay tribute to the emperor!"

Horiyah felt so uncomfortable, she said: "This group of people are both rich and powerful. The gifts they give can not add up to less than 100 million?"

Theresa muttered with red eyes, "I'm afraid I can't stop at one hundred million. Solmon just gave away a villa and it cost more than one billion..."

"Hey..." Mrs. Xiao said with an extremely painful expression: "I can't do it anymore, I can't see it anymore, and I'll have a heart attack if I look at it..."

After speaking, she turned and entered the room.

Horiyah said angrily: "I look at it, hey."

Theresa didn't say a word, seeing Phil following Solmon into Marven's villa, she felt even more uncomfortable.

Jay was lying on the bed and wailing: "Mom...grandma...if you don't get something to eat, I will starve to death...you can't look at me. The wounded are lying in bed hungry. Regnar's men beat me and Dad to death. It seems that we are going to starve to death at home!"

Mrs. Xiao hurriedly said: "Theresa, didn't you say that you are going out to find a job today? Go out and have a look!"

After finishing speaking, she looked at Horiyah again, blurted out: "Horiyah! You have to find a job to support your family!"

Horiyah nodded, and said with a bit of anger: "I can go, but this house can't support idlers, you have to go if I go!"

"Me?!" Mrs. Xiao's speech was not smooth anymore, and she said angrily, "I...I'm so old...you let me go out to find a job?!"

Horiyah asked her back: "Why? What's so great about being older? You don't need to eat when you are older? If you make it clear that you don't need to eat, then you don't need to go out to work. Go to the north bedroom to open the window and open your mouth. Wait to drink Northwest Wind!"

"You...you bullsh*t!" Mrs. Xiao was furious: "I'm so old and don't let me eat. You are trying to force me to death!"

Horiyah said with a cold face: "The situation at home is so miserable now, anyone must find a way to make money to support the family. Noah and Jay are now injured. They can be temporarily exempted, but you can't!"

Mrs. Xiao angrily said, "It turned you back! It turned you back! I am so old, and you have to force me to work! You are killing me! Why did our Xiao family make you daughter-in-law? A wolf-hearted daughter-in-law! If God has eyes, and a sky thunder should drop you to death!"

Horiyah sneered and said, "Don't be haggling with me. I won't force you if you don't go out to work, but I won't be able to support you if I make money. You can do it yourself!"

Mrs. Xiao didn't dare to pretend to be forced at this time, and said embarrassedly: "We can't all go to work for the three of us, we have to leave one person to take care of Noah and Jay."

Horiyah said: "It's even more inappropriate for you to take care of them. They are now paralyzed in bed. You don't even have the strength to turn them over. What's the use of staying?"

With that said, Horiyah looked at Theresa and said, "Theresa, you stay and take care of your dad and your brother, and I will go out with your grandmother to find a job."

Theresa nodded gently: "Okay..."

At this time, Marven was at home.

Viola, with her right leg in a cast, was stunned by the sight in front of her.

Chapter 1968

The big men came to the house and didn't say anything, but all kinds of gifts just piled up as a hill in the living room.

Her excited mouth was almost grinning behind her ears, and she couldn't wait to rush to take apart these gifts one by one, but with so many big people here, she was really embarrassed.

As Marven's most heartfelt subordinate and the initiator of this collective visit, Orvel took out a piece of paper from his pocket and said loudly, "Master, I have a gift list here. It's over here, let me read it to you."

Before Marven spoke, Viola over there hurriedly said excitedly: "Oh, read it! Read it loudly!"

Orvel said hurriedly, "Ms. Viola, don't worry, I must say it louder!"

With that said, he cleared his throat and said loudly:

"Shangri-La's Zak Chen Craven, giving Master a set of Banshan Hot Spring Resort Villa, located in the Champs Elysées Hot Spring Hotel, worth 80 million!"

This sentence made Viola stunned!

Viola couldn't help but exclaimed with excitement in the depths of her heart: "Mom! One-shot is a set of 80 million hot spring villa, this...this is too bright! I really want to go to the Champs tonight. Experience the beautiful hot spring villa!"

However, immediately afterwards, she looked at her right leg, and muttered in her heart: "I still have a cast on my leg, so I'm afraid I won't be able to soak in the hot spring for a while? But it doesn't matter, anyway, Champs Elysees Hot Springs. I won't run, and it's never too late to go when my legs are better!"

Champs Elysées Hotel is an industry owned by Shangri-La.

Elsa also specially invited Marven and Avella to go there.

It is the best hot spring hotel in Wrestvel and even the province.

The Champs Elysées covers a large area. The entire foot of the mountain up to the mountainside in their industry. In addition to the hot spring hotel, there are several hot spring villas that are not for sale.

These hot spring villas are all built in the middle of the mountain. The villas have excellent scenery, exquisite architecture, and luxurious decoration. More importantly, these villas have natural hot spring springs, and there are hot springs throughout the year.

The only fly in the ointment is the remote location. After all, the natural hot springs are closely related to the geography and topography. The entire Champs Elysées hot spring hotel is built in the mountains, too far from the city and the commuting time is too long, so it is suitable for vacations, but not for long-term living.

Avella and Dave were also frightened by such a valuable gift, and they were all startled and speechless.

Zak Chen said at this time: "Master, the hot spring villa sent to you has always been a non-sale item of the Champs Elysées Hot Spring Hotel, and never entertains guests. The hot springs there are rich in minerals and are good for people. It has a health care function. In the future, you can often go on vacation with your wife, uncle, and aunt to relax. If you don't usually go, our professional housekeeper will take care of the villa and daily cleaning and maintenance. It is absolutely spotless!"

After all, Zak Chen said again: "The keys to the villa, the real estate certificate, and other related documents are all in the gift box. Please I ask Master to accept it!"

Marven nodded and smiled slightly: "Mr. Zak Chen always has a heart!"

Marven really didn't think the tens of millions of hot spring villas were too valuable, especially Zak Chen's own assets, which was nothing to him.

Avella was a little nervous and said in Marven's ear: "Husband, how can we accept such an expensive gift..."

Marven waved his hand and faintly said: "My wife, don't worry about this. I accept their gift, and naturally I will repay them in other ways."

Orvel looked at Marven at this time and asked respectfully: "Master, then I continue to read?"

Marven nodded: "Go on."

Chapter 1969

With Marven's approval, Orvel continued to speak loudly: "Mr. Song, gives Master a luxury yacht made in Italy and Sanlorenzo!"

"Yacht?!" Viola was the first to blurt out: "What kind of yacht? What kind of ship?"

Mr. Song said with a smile: "Ms. Viola has misunderstood. Sanlorenzo is a veteran European luxury yacht manufacturer. This yacht is more than 20 meters long and has three decks. It is very suitable for a family trip."

Viola was stunned and said, "You can get a lot of money for such a yacht, right?"

Honor on the side said: "Taking taxes into account, it's about 70 million."

"How much more?!"

Viola was stunned: "A ship is 70 million?! This is too scary?!"

Avella couldn't help saying, "Mr. Song, your gift is too expensive, we really can't...!"

Marven smiled slightly at this moment, made a gesture, interrupted Avella's words, and smiled slightly: "My wife, this is the heart of Mr. Song, so don't shirk it."

After that, he looked at Old Song and slightly arched his hands and said, "Mr. Song, I thank you!"

Mr. Song hurriedly said: "Oh, Master, I dare not be it! I worry if you like it or not!"

Afterwards, he said to Marvin: "The keys to the yacht and related documents are in the gift box, but the yacht is now parked at the pier of the Wrestvel Yacht Association. I have bought an exclusive berth for you. If you want to sail the yacht in the future, If you travel, or even go to sea along the Yangtze River, you can directly contact the staff of the Yacht Association."

Marvin nodded lightly and smiled: "I guess it won't be used for a while. I don't have a yacht driver's license, so let's talk about it when I have time to take the test."

Mr. Song hurriedly said, "Master, if you need to use a yacht, you can let Warnia or Honor help you sail. Both of them have a yacht driver's license."

Warnia said shyly: "Yeah, Master, if you have a need for a yacht, just tell me directly."

After that, she remembered something, and then said: "Oh, right, after the Chinese New Year, if you want to use a yacht, you can contact brother. I will go to Japan after the Chinese New Year. It may take a while for me to come back."

"Oh?" Marvin asked curiously: "Ms. Song is going to Japan for a trip or?"

Warnia said hurriedly: "I'm going to talk about business. The Song family is now preparing to get involved in the steel manufacturing industry and want to discuss some cooperation with Japan's Nippon Steel."

"Nippon Steel?" Marvin frowned and asked her: "Is this company strong?"

Warnia nodded and said, "Nippon Steel is one of the world's top steel companies and one of the world's largest steel companies."

Marvin asked curiously: "Who is the boss behind this steel company?"

Warnia said: "The big boss behind Nippon Steel is Sumitomo Group."

"Sumitomo Group?" Marvin smiled slightly: "I haven't heard of it."

Warnia laughed and said: "Sumitomo Group has a wide range of business, but most of them are in the industrial field, especially the heavy industry, which is really not closely related to daily life."

Marvin nodded lightly and said, "If you need help in Japan, you can contact me. I have a few acquaintances there."

Marvin did not say directly that he knew Takehiko and Nanako of the Ito family.

He doesn't want to let people know what he did in Japan some time ago, so he still tries to keep a low profile.

Warnia didn't think much, and said with a smile: "OK, Master, if you need it, I will contact you!"

At this time, Orvel continued to read the gift list.

“Mr. Tianqi will give Master a pair of blue and white dragon-shaped elephant ear bottles!”

Chapter 1970

Hearing this, Dave stood up suddenly and tremblingly asked: “What? Dragon-like elephant ear bottle?!”

Orvel nodded: “Yes, Mr. Xiao, it is indeed a pair of blue and white dragon-shaped elephant ear bottles!”

“Oh my God!”

Dave has always been fond of antique writing and playing. Although he is always fooled when buying things, he still knows the antique industry very well.

Dollar blue and white porcelain can be said to be one of the most expensive porcelain.

Any blue and white plate in the Dynasty can sell for millions.

If it is a large piece of blue and white, such as the well-known Guiguzi Xiashan blue and white can, the auction price more than ten years ago had exceeded 100 million, and now if it is brought out again, it will be at least 500 million.

Dave once heard of a blue and white dragon-shaped elephant ear bottle in Dynasty.

Many appreciation manuals published by Christie’s and Sotheby’s record similar blue and white porcelain.

It is conservatively estimated that it must be at a price of 30-50 million!

At this time, Zhovia took the initiative to open an exquisite mahogany gift box. The inner lining of the box was made of golden silk and satin.

And two beautiful blue and white porcelain vases are lying in the lining made of silk and satin.

Dave’s eyes are almost gone!

This is an antique unmatched!

The ultimate collection for antique lovers!

There is an antique priceless!

At this time, Dave couldn’t wait to step forward to pick up one of the bottles and play with it carefully.

However, he felt a little hairy when he thought of throwing a Wang Dynasty jade pot spring bottle.

You know, the price of this antique bottle is several times that of the Yuhuchun bottle!

Marven saw that the Old Master liked the bottle very much, so he smiled and said to Tianqi: "Mr. Shi, thank you for your gift. My father-in-law loves antiques the most in his life. I let him appreciate it up close."

Tianqi hurriedly said, "Master, please!"

Marven walked up to Zhovia, took out one of the elephant ear bottles, and then handed it to Dave. He smiled and said, "Dad, don't you like antiques? I will borrow flowers to present these bottles to you and give them to you."

When Dave heard this, his whole body trembled with excitement, and his heart had already reached the utmost excitement, but he was flattered on the face and said, "How can I accept it, this is too expensive?"

Viola was also a little jealous.

Although she doesn't know how much the blue and white elephant ear bottles are worth, she knows that the blue and white elephant ear bottles are not cheap, and it is estimated that this pair of bottles is worth tens of millions.

So, she thought sourly in her heart: "Marven gave me hundreds of thousands of cosmetics and hundreds of thousands of bags, and Dave, an old thing, turned out to be worth tens of millions of blue and white. Why is this old thing so privileged?"

When she was jealous, Marven smiled at Dave and said, "This is the intention of the genius doctor. As long as you keep it well and treat it as a collection in your home, don't sell it!"

Dave immediately patted his chest and said, "Good son-in-law, don't worry, even if I sell myself, I will never sell this pair of bottles!"

After that, he carefully took the blue and white elephant ear bottle from Marven's hands with both hands, and looked at the perfect hair color and enamel on it, tears filled his eyes with excitement.

Viola also breathed a sigh of relief at this time, thinking: "I'm an old thing like Dave, he can really get such a pair of treasures from Marven! It turns out that he can only store it but not sell it! That's meaningless."
