

The Amazing Son In-law Chapter 21-30

Chapter 21

In everyone's incredible eyes, Marven slowly stood up.

The eyes of the entire banquet hall focused on him in an instant.

"Marven, what are you doing! Sit down!" Viola quickly reminded him in fright.

He didn't look at what occasion it was! There are so many big men present, none of them dared to stand up, you Marven is a wasteful son-in-law, what makes him think the limelight at this time is for him?

Fred and Phil also glanced at each other, secretly saying in their hearts, d*mn, the chairman of the Emgrand Group would really be him, right?

But then, the two shook their heads again.

Impossible, if he is really the chairman of Emgrand, how could he be scolded by Viola?

"What are you rubbish! sit down in your place!" Jay shouted from the stage with a dark face.

Marven glanced at him coldly, then walked straight to Lori, completely ignoring everyone's horrified gaze, and whispered a few words in her ear.

While listening, Lori nodded slightly.

This scene made everyone's heart tighten instantly.

Lori! The vice-chairman of Emgrand Group, the famous beauty of Wrestrvel City! Marven, a wasteful son-in-law, how could he know her? And looking like this, the relationship between the two seems pretty good.

After speaking, Marven stepped out of the hall regardless of everyone's gaze, focused on him, he went out to chase Avella.

But Lori stood up, stepped onto the stage, took the microphone, and said in the blank eyes of everyone: "Hello everyone, this is Lori. Mr. Marven was outside the venue before and met our chairman. He brought me a world."

When everyone heard that Marven was not the chairman of Emgrand, they were relieved.

Fred Wang breathed a sigh of relief and whispered disdainfully: "It's just that he met someone once, so he tried desperately to cheat on the assistant. It's really rubbish."

Phil Wang shrugged and said with a smile: "This is how the little guy is."

At this time, Lori on the stage glanced at Mrs. Xiao, her face turned cold: "The chairman asked me to inform you."

"From now on, Emgrand Group terminates its cooperation with Xiao's, and the signed contract is declared invalid!"

"boom!"

The crowd exploded in an instant, and no one expected that Lori would say such a thing.

This sudden change made everyone stunned.

Old Mrs. Xiao paled instantly and asked eagerly: "Dear vice-chair, what is this? Is there anything in our Xiao family that is wrong?"

Today, she invited all the people in Aurora Hill with good repute, hoping to take this opportunity to become famous in Wrestrvel.

If under all the eyes of everyone, the Xiao family would be stepped on the soles of their feet if they cooperated.

Lori said: "This project was originally our chairman's approval of Ms. Avella before cooperating with you, but you made your own claim and asked an inexplicable person to take charge of this project. Sorry, we don't accept it!"

After speaking, Lori put down the microphone and walked out the door without looking back.

Old Mrs. Xiao's face was pale, and she slumped on the stage for an instant.

She never dreamed that her momentary cleverness would have ruined this golden opportunity for good!

Had she known this situation a long time ago, she would not have allow Jay to replace Avella's directorship.

Jay was also very at a loss this time, what's the matter? It seems that Lori deliberately targeted him, and he did not even offend her!

Jay couldn't help asking the Old Mrs. Xiao: "Grandma, the director's appointment has been announced, you won't regret it?"

Old Mrs. Xiao struggled to stand up, raised her hand and slapped him, angrily scolded: "b*stard stuff, you still don't want to miss the directorship, even at such a time!"

Chapter 22

After Marvin went out, he realized that Avella hadn't gone far, just squatting in an unmanned corner next to the hotel, crying aggrievedly.

He slowly approached, took off his coat, put on Avella, and said: "My wife, don't be sad, the director of the Xiao family is not a treasure, no matter it's inappropriate for your family to treat you like that."

"You don't understand, if I become the director, my parents will be able to raise their eyes in the Xiao family, how can grandma turn back," Avella whimpered.

Marven continued to persuade: "Maybe they will have to come and beg you to be the director. You are crying like this now, and you won't look pretty after a while on stage."

Avella choked and said, "How is it possible? Grandma has said everything, and there will be no chance of turning back. Leave me, let me be alone."

At this moment, Mrs. Xiao and Jay also ran out of the banquet hall.

The Lady Xiao was too old and out of breath when she ran. A large group of people behind her came out to watch the scene in excitement.

After Jay came out, he saw Marven and Avella.

He ran forward quickly, looked down at Avella with dim eyes, and blurted out: "Avella, hurry up and chase Miss Lori, let her not terminate cooperation with us!"

Avella looked blank: "Terminate cooperation? Why?"

Jay said angrily: "You are here pretending to be innocent. You must have instructed Miss Lori to embarrass me publicly. If you don't settle this matter for me, I can't spare you!"

Snapped!

The Old Mrs. Xiao who was on the side slapped Jay angrily again and said "You b@stard, how can you talk to your sister like that! She is the director of our Xiao Group!"

Jay was anxious: "Didn't grandma chose me as the director?"

The Old Mrs. Xiao said angrily: "If you hadn't given me Ecstasy, how could I change my mind temporarily? If you continue to be reluctant, get out of the Xiao family!"

After being smoked twice by the Lady Xiao, Jay was extremely angry, but he dared not speak, so he could only swallow his anger temporarily.

The Old Mrs. Xiao said to Avella again at this time: "Avella, grandma begs you, you are now the director of the Xiao family, hurry up and explain to Miss Lori, otherwise, our Xiao family will be in ruins!"

Avella looked at Marven blankly with doubts.

Marven shrugged and said, "I told you, they have to come and beg you to be the director in a while, you didn't believe me, look, your face is all messed up."

Avella blushed, wiped her tears, and said, "Then I will try to contact Emgrand."

After speaking, she dialed Lori's phone.

Everyone's eyes focused on her.

After a while, the phone was connected, and Avella said: "Hello, Miss Lori, grandma asked me to explain to you, I will be promoted to the director of the Xiao family, responsible for the cooperation with Emgrand, can you give us another chance? "

Lori chuckled and said, "If you are the director and can take the charge then there is no problem. The cooperation can continue, but if it is someone else, everything stays at the current status."

"Miss Lori thank you so much!"

Avella was always puzzled about this matter in her heart. From beginning to end, the Emgrand Group seemed to be here entirely to help her, which was too abnormal.

Lori said with a smile: "This is what our chairman meant. If there is a chance in the future, the chairman will explain it to you personally."

Avella was even more puzzled. Who was the chairman of the other party, and she had never seen him. Why did the other party help him everywhere?

"Then, can you please return to the banquet hall again?" Avella asked nervously.

The other party had left with anger, obviously irritated by the Xiao family. At this time, asking the other party to come back is a bit difficult.

But she didn't expect that Lori agreed resolutely.

Soon everyone saw that Lori's car had returned to the door of the hotel.

At this moment, everyone looked at Avella's gaze, all filled with horror and awe.

Chapter 23

When everyone returned to the banquet hall, the Lady Xiao took Avella's hand on the stage.

With an intimate gesture, she said, "I'm really sorry for just now, it was me who made a mistake, in fact, thanks to Avella this time, she is the outstanding descendant of our Xiao family. This time the cooperation between the Xiao family and the Emgrand resulted from the efforts of Avella. She really made great efforts."

Lori stood by her side, glanced at her disdainfully, waved her hand to stop her from speaking further, and said: "I will correct it. In this cooperation, Miss Avella has not only made great efforts, but completely it is made possible by her power, and has nothing to do with other people."

This is extremely rude, but everyone is accustomed to it. With the status of an emperor, even if Lori slaps the Lady Xiao in public, she dare not say anything.

The Old Mrs. Xiao nodded quickly and said: "Vice-chair Lori is right. For everything, the credit goes to Avella. From now on, Avella will be the director of the Xiao family's business! Fully responsible for the cooperation between the Xiao family and the Emgrand Group!"

Lori showed a slight smile and shook hands with Avella and said, "I hope we can cooperate happily in the future."

Avella was still a little at loss, and could only nod her confused head.

The audience burst into thunderous applause, and everyone looked at Avella's eyes, also full of enthusiasm.

This woman, who is on the list! The Emgrand Group treats her so seriously!

Avella herself was also confused. She turned her head to look at Marven. The situation at this time was exactly the same as what Marven had just said. Old Mrs. Xiao returned the position of director that should belong to her.

Until the banquet was over, Avella was still in a daze after returning home.

Recalling what Marven had said before, she couldn't help but feel a little puzzled. In the past few days, Marven seemed to have become a little different.

There seemed to be many things on his body that she didn't understand, like it was covered by layers of mist.

This night, Avella became famous in Wrestrvel!

Everyone knows that there is an outstanding junior from the Xiao family, and the Emgrand Group is on her back!

It seems that with her, the revitalization of the Xiao family is just around the corner

The next morning, Avella woke up early and hurried to the company refreshed.

Today is her first day as a director. She hopes that she can go all out to do this thing well.

After Marven got up, he started to do housework as always.

When Marven finished his housework and was about to go to the vegetable market to buy vegetables for lunch, he suddenly received a call from his mother-in-law Viola.

After answering the call, the mother-in-law's extremely anxious voice came from over there: "Marven, within ten minutes, you must rush to the safe road for me, otherwise I won't spare you when I go home!"

After that, she hung up the phone.

Marven was confused. The mother-in-law didn't say anything early in the morning. At this moment, she called suddenly, as if something urgent had happened.

Although Marven was very disgusted with his mother-in-law, he did not dare to neglect her orders. After hurriedly cleaning up, he went out to take a taxi and rushed to Safe Road.

When he got out of the car, he saw a group of grandpas and aunts surrounded aggressively at the door of a closed insurance company.

And his mother-in-law stood at the forefront of the team, holding a banner in her hand, shouting angrily: "Rubbish Harley, Fake platform, We Want Our Rights, and pay back my hard-earned money!"

Marven hurriedly stepped forward and asked: "Mom, you called me over, what's the matter?"

As he was speaking, the condemning slogans sounded in his ear again, the grandfathers and aunts shouted hoarsely that rang the eardrums of the passerby's.

Viola pulled Marven over, asked him to take her place, and then ordered: "Come on, shout this slogan for me, I have been yelling it all morning, and my voice has become hoars."

Chapter 24

Marven didn't know why, but he could only protest with a few uncles and aunts. When shouting slogans, he inquired with an uncle next to him from time to time, and then he understood what was going on.

It turned out that this Harley Insurance Co., Ltd. offered insurance products with extremely high return rates.

And this elderly were attracted by the high rate of return. Everyone bought a lot of insurance products under the company's name and became their customers.

This is the fixed time to pay dividends. Unexpectedly, when these elders and aunts came to withdraw cash, they discovered that the door of the company was closed, and only a few employees were at the door, using botched excuses to prevaricate everyone.

This gang of grandpas and aunts realized that they were deceived by the empty gloved Wang wolf.

No wonder the mother-in-law wanted to call him over in a hurry and asked him to participate with him.

Thinking of this, Marven grew big and couldn't help but ask his mother-in-law: "Mom, how much insurance did you buy?"

Viola said anxiously: "They told me that buying the insurance products will bring me a lot of dividends, my head got dizzy and I bought all of their products with all the money from home."

Marven was taken aback, "What? All the money from home used to buy insurance?"

After hearing this sentence, Viola immediately became irritated and cursed: "Just do you have a mouth? Do you think I am not embarrassed enough? Why speak so loudly?!"

As she spoke, she continued her carping and said, "If you had brought me some profit I would not have bought the products of this insurance company. With a wast son in law like you at the house, what else were my options for the money at home?"

This guy, it's okay when he does not support the family. But now he is laughing at her, as if he'd made fortunes with that money.

Immediately, she said to Marven: "I am telling you, keep chanting slogans here to help me, you can't stop for a moment!"

Marven couldn't help but nodded and said, "Okay mom."

At this moment, several aunts came over, looked up and down Marven, then asked Viola: "Sister Viola, is this your son-in-law?"

As they spoke, they scanned Marven's clothes again, shook their head, and laughed: "Why does he look so poor? he does not look like a son-in-law material from any angle."

"Yes, this dress is worn too many times! It can't compare to that of Lady Xiao!"

Some people are so good at disparaging, the ridicule in and out of the words is particularly harsh.

Marven didn't care. They were all old ladies who had fallen into the soil up to half of their bodies. Now they have lost their savings for a lifetime, so he doesn't need to exchange words with them.

Viola was also very angry at this time, and the more Marven looked at it, the more unpleasant she was. She blurted out: "Look at him, I'll let my daughter divorce him in a few days! Change her future with a new son-in-law!"

Marven sneered in his heart. If you add the rich second generations of Wrestvel in, it can't be compare with his half finger.

Viola was anxiously worried at this time, Marven was a waste, and at most he could shout slogans for her.

If she wants to invest back, she still needs someone with real ability to come and help solve it.

It's a pity that Bob's family who has been pursuing her daughter has gone bankrupt. Otherwise, She could ask them to help!

correct!

Viola suddenly remembered that Phil's brother, Fred, whom she met at the family banquet yesterday is her hope.

Judging from his attitude towards her daughter at the time, it is estimated that he had some thoughts about Avella.

Although the Wang family is not as good as the previous Jones family, it is still a big family. If she calls him over, there should be a way.

It just so happened that Fred Wang left his Business card yesterday, so she took her phone out and dialed Fred's number.

Chapter 25

The call got connected soon.

Viola said, "Hey, is it Fred? This is Clair's mother."

Ever since Fred Wang saw Avella at the banquet, he was shocked as a heavenly man and never forgot about her.

He was worried that he had no chance to get close to Avella, and it happened that Avella's mother called herself.

He speculated that Viola was in trouble, and of course he would not let go of this opportunity for courtesy.

So, he immediately greeted politely: "Aunt Viola, is everything Okay?"

"Well, there is something Auntie needs your help for."

Viola hurriedly said: "Fred, a few old sisters and I bought some wealth management products from an insurance company called Harley, and the wealth of the family has been invested in it, but now this company does not allow withdrawals. Can you find a way to help Auntie get the money back?"

After listening, Fred was overjoyed. He felt that it was time to perform and said confidently: "Auntie, don't worry, I will come to you now and I will definitely help you solve this matter!"

Viola was immediately excited, and hurriedly said, "Thank you so much!"

Hanging up the phone, she looked at Marven again and said angrily: "Some people don't have any abilities, just can't count on them. Besides shouting two slogans, what are they for? Utterly useless."

Marven sneered after listening, this mother-in-law was really snobbish and blind.

She called Fred for help?

This company has defrauded at least tens of millions or more of funds. Those who dare to swindle so much money must have a very strong backing. It is even possible that they are bigwigs in the underground world.. How could Fred Wang let scammers spit out the money?

The Wang family's strength is very average. After the Emgrand Group ceased cooperation, its strength has shrunk even more. With the Wang family's background, it is basically impossible to interfere in such a large financial fraud.

In fact, this little matter can be solved immediately by calling Zak Chen from Shangri-La.

After all, he is the spokesperson of the Ye family in Wrestrvel, and any Wrestrvel entrepreneur or big figure in black and Wang must give him enough face.

However, my mother-in-law is really hateful. Since she believes in Fred Wang, let Fred Wang help her. Let's see what he can do for her.

When someone saw Viola made a phone call, they immediately smiled, and immediately surrounded her and asked her if she had found any important figure to help them out?

Viola proudly said to a group of old ladies and men around her "Don't worry, I asked the eldest master of the Wang family to come and help. He will make some calls, and our hard-earned money will be returned hopefully."

Chapter 26

"Yeah! If my daughter could marry him, I would die of happiness!"

"Bah, stop dreaming! Even if you die, people won't look down on your girl!"

At this moment, Viola saw Fred Wang at once, and immediately ran forward, and said eagerly: "Oh, Fred, you are here, your aunt is going to die!"

The person here is Fred Wang.

Fred Wang smiled and said, "Auntie, I'm sorry, I have kept you waiting!"

Viola hurriedly said: "Oh, Fred, you are so polite. Auntie didn't wait for ten minutes. You came so fast!"

Fred Wang smiled and said, "I heard that you were in trouble, so I drove over and ran through several red lights along the way."

Viola looked smug, but asked with concern, "Isn't it troublesome to run so many red lights?"

"No." Fred Wang said calmly: "The traffic team in the city are all acquaintances, and a phone call can eliminate any violation."

After speaking, Fred Wang said again: "Let's talk about you! How much money have you been cheated off?"

Viola sighed and said, "A total of more than one million has been invested. It is said that this month's dividends can get 200,000, but the principal cannot be raised."

Fred Wang nodded and said in a boisterous way: "Don't worry, I will handle this matter. If I go out, I will definitely help you get the money back."

After speaking, he suddenly saw Marven standing behind Viola, and his face changed slightly.

Unexpectedly, Marven, an eye-catching waste, was there.

Since seeing Avella, Fred Wang's thoughts of her moved in his heart. After hearing his younger brother Phil Wang said that Avella should still be single, this thought in his heart was even stronger.

Therefore, seeing Avella's rubbish husband, he naturally sneered.

He deliberately smiled and said: "Oh, Brother Ye is here, do you have a way to help Aunt Viola get back the investment? Or do you give it a try first? You won't turn around and blame me for stealing your limelight."

Viola hurriedly said, "Let him try a bullsh*t, what can he do to help? He can just open his mouth and help shout some slogans! Fred, leave him alone."

Fred Wang nodded and said sarcastically: "Since Brother Ye doesn't have this ability, then I will give it a try!"

Marven smiled slightly and said: "Mr. Fred, come on, you can do it."

Fred Wang laughed disdainfully. At this time, the gang of grandpas and aunts around Viola gathered one by one, chanting on Viola, and said: "Viola, can you let this little handsome guy also help us! All of us were cheated of hard-earned money!"

Viola arrogantly said, "Oh, I can't be ask him for that. Fred is giving me a favor, but he doesn't know you."

Others pleaded with Fred Wang: "Mr. Wang, you are so great, please help us too!"

Fred Wang dismissed other people but saw that Viola loves petty things and cheapness, so he smiled and said, "Since everyone is Aunt's friends, then I can do you a favor."

When everyone was overjoyed, Fred Wang looked arrogantly and said: "It's just that I am helping you because of Aunt Viola. Therefore, you must pay Aunt 10% for the money I get for you. Is it acceptable?"

Others hurriedly said, "No problem! It's a lot better to get a return of 90 than nothing!"

As soon as Viola heard this, she was immediately happy!

The money adds up to tens of millions considering all. If Fred Wang can really help to get it back, wouldn't she make millions?

Chapter 27

Just when Viola was very excited, Fred Wang said loudly: "Uncles and aunts, don't worry, I will go to communicate with them now, just keep waiting for the good news."

Viola felt that she was backed by Fred Wang at this moment, and no one dared to provoke her, so she immediately blurted out: "Fred, I'll come with you!"

Marven hurriedly said to Viola: "Mom, you'd better not go there and join in the fun. In case Fred Wang can't solve this matter, you may be in trouble!"

Huh!" Viola said angrily: "Do you dare to question Mr. Fred's abilities?"

The other aunts and grandpas were all expecting that Fred Wang could help them get back their hard-earned money, and now Marven actually sang against everyone, naturally causing everyone dissatisfaction.

In the face of countless people's accusations, Marven said calmly: "Mom, it's okay for you to wait here. It's best not to join the negotiations."

Viola couldn't hear it at all, and immediately cursed: "Shut your stinky mouth! this is not the place for you to speak?!"

Fred Wang's face was also full of arrogance, and he laughed and said, "You're not good at it, but your jealousy is not small. Do you think I'm just like you, a Rubbish who just opens mouth and shouts slogans?"

Seeing that his mother-in-law did not listen to his persuasion, Marven didn't speak any more at all, and said lightly: "Okay, then I am waiting for the good news from Young Mr. Wang."

To his mother-in-law Viola, Marven is getting on her nerves. She is too snobbish, but often blinded by appearances. To put it plainly, she is the Lady Xiao with long hair and short insight.

Today's incident seems to be nothing more than a fraud, but after a little research, you know that the water behind is very deep. The mother-in-law has no vision, and she has to go to the muddy water herself. Then she can't help her elevated sense of importance.

Viola didn't know that Marven was kind, so she gave him a fierce look, and said to Fred Wang apologetically in the next second: "Mr. Fred, don't take it to your heart if he says this rubbish. Auntie absolutely believes in you. "

Fred Wang smiled triumphantly and said: "It's okay, auntie, I won't be inferior to a wimp."

Having said that, he immediately said vigorously: "Auntie, let's go over!"

"it is good!"

Fred Wang took Viola through the crowd and stepped to the door of Harley Insurance Company.

As soon as the two arrived at the door, he immediately said loudly to several employees who were blocking the door: "Go and tell your leader to immediately refund the money of these uncles and aunts, otherwise I will immediately let the lawyer team and the public security organ intervene. At that time, you and your boss will be arrested!"

Viola also echoed from the side: "Have you heard of these dogs? We are supported now! If your scam company does not refund the money, be careful that Young Mr. Wang is sending you all to prison!"

The young employee at the head was also a little nervous and hurriedly said, "I'm sorry, I'm just a security guard, and I'm not responsible for the specific business!"

Fred Wang said coldly: "Then call your boss and tell him that I am Fred Wang of the Wrestvel Royal Family! Let him come and deal with it personally, otherwise, he will face the consequences!"

While speaking, Fred Wang's face was full of arrogance.

Although Wang family is not top in Wrestvel, it is at least medium.

The boss of a scam company, after hearing his name, can he still save himself?

The young employee didn't know his depth and was a little scared, so he immediately called his boss.

Chapter 28

At this time, in the office of the chairman of Harley Insurance Company, the boss Harley Zhou was serving a middle-aged man in his forties with a flat face.

He smiled all over his face, took out a bank card from the drawer, handed it over respectfully, and said: "Fifth Lord, there are 30 million in this card. The password is your birthday. It is given to you this time. Please have a look at the dividends."

The middle-aged man is dressed in a Wang suit, looks a bit mad, but his eyes are not angry but majestic, and his aura is amazing.

If there were other people present, he would definitely recognize the identity of this middle-aged man.

He is Orvel Hong!

In the entire Wrestvel, everyone knows that Orvel Hong is the underground emperor here, and no one dares to mess with him!

Orvel Hong looked at Harley Zhou, smiled approvingly, and said, "Harley Zhou, I didn't expect you to be a good one, good, good!"

Harley Zhou hurriedly said, "Fifth Lord, what about the troublesome Lady Xiao downstairs?"

Orvel Hong said indifferently: "A bunch of old things, don't care about them. If they don't hear your words, I will arrange for the brethren to come over and give them some color to see!"

Harley Zhou breathed a sigh of relief and hurriedly said, "Thank you, Lord Orvel!"

Orvel Hong smiled and said: "In the future, just let go of this kind of business. As long as you can make money, I will help you with anything."

Harley Zhou was pleasantly surprised and humbled his face and said: "Thank you, Lord Orvel! With your words, I will continue to work harder and we will make a fortune together!"

Harley Zhou doesn't have a deep background in Wrestvel, but this personality has one advantage, that is, he has a good mind and can make crooked ways.

He engaged in financial management and defrauded money. Knowing that he could not hold down such a large amount of money, he asked Orvel for help, provided part of the illegal income to Orvel, and sought asylum from Orvel.

Orvel Hong calls the shots in Wrestvel, so he would naturally be safe and sound, and it was Orvel Hong who was the backer, so he does not have any worries about the future, and the fraudulent business was flourishing.

Just when Harley Zhou was excited about going to the Orvel line, his subordinates called and said in a convenient way: "Boss, something has happened! There is a guy who claims to be the young master of the Wang family, Fred Wang, he's demanding money immediately, otherwise, he will send you to prison!"

"d*mn, what about this?"

Harley Zhou frowned, and hurriedly said to Orvel Hong: "Orvel, there is a man who claims to be the Wrestvel King's family downstairs, who is leading the group of old men and old ladies to make trouble! He said that he only covered the sky in Wrestvel. Let us spit out all the money we collected, or we will be sent to prison"

Harley Zhou deliberately added fuel and jealousy in order to provoke Orvel Hong.

As he said, he bent down again and begged: "Fifth Lord, the Wang family has some power in our Wrestvel. If they hold on to me, I really can't afford to offend him. Please take action to help the little brother tide over this difficulty! "

"The King of Wrestvel?"

Orvel Hong snorted and said, "The little Wang family is not even a feather in my eyes! Even if he is in charge of the family, they have to bow down and salute when they see me! Now their junior dare to provoke me. When it comes to my head, I'm so tired and crooked!"

After all, Orvel Hong put Harley Zhou's filial bank card into his pocket, and said coldly: "Let's go, I want to see, what kind of lifeless thing he is? Orvel Hong only eats money. who's asking me to spit it out!"

Chapter 29

Fred Wang stood at the door of Harley Company with a proud face.

He knew that today is a good opportunity for him to show off his strength in front of Avella's mother, and he must do it well.

As long as the mother is dealt with, why worry about the daughter?

When the time comes, he will be able to take Avella, a famous beauty in Wrestvel, into his bag, and he's excited thinking about it!

So he said loudly: "Uncles and aunts, please rest assured, the boss of this scam company will come over and refund everyone soon!"

When everyone heard this, they immediately applauded, one by one, all excited and intolerably happy.

Only Marven looked at Fred Wang with a sneer on his face. This guy took himself too seriously, and he was afraid that he would die later.

When Fred Wang held his chin up and enjoyed the respect of everyone, the door of Harley Insurance Company was suddenly pushed open from the inside.

Later, they saw the boss Harley Zhou walking out together with a middle-aged man wearing a Wang suit.

Although the middle-aged man is a bit older, he has an amazing aura, it is Orvel Hong!

Behind Orvel Hong, there were several strong men who followed closely. These were all his personal bodyguards, one by one with extraordinary strength.

Orvel Hong's status is too high, so although many people in Wrestvel treat his name well, they have no chance to see him, so no one, including Fred Wang, recognizes him.

Everyone just recognized Harley Zhou, the boss of Harley Insurance.

Then the atmosphere in the crowd exploded instantly!

"Mom, Fred really called Mr. Zhou over! He is really amazing!"

"Yes, thanks to Sister Viola this time, we have hope for our money!"

"Sister Viola, such a good young man, he is definitely a good candidate to be a son-in-law by thousand times!"

Viola listened to the flattery of these old sisters, and was uncomfortable.

This Fred Wang really helped her to show off in front of a group of old sisters today.

Thinking of this, she smiled even more, looking at Fred Wang's eyes, she was indescribably satisfied.

At this time, Fred Wang walked forward triumphantly, with a lofty posture.

He did not know Harley Zhou, nor did he know Orvel Hong, but Harley Zhou seemed to respect Orvel Hong, so he mistook Orvel Hong for his boss.

So, he looked at Orvel Hong and said proudly: "Are you the boss of Harley Insurance Company?"

Orvel Hong said with a faint smile: "The boss is not me. I just help the boss. But if you have anything, you can tell me."

Fred Wang suddenly realized, and then smiled disdainfully: "A subordinate is a sh!t. You are not worthy of talking to me. Get out of here and let your boss come!"

Marven shook his head and looked at Fred Wang like an idiot.

The Wang suit man in front of him was amazing, and he had his subordinates following him. At first glance, he was the kind of ugly stuff, but Fred Wang ridiculed him so arrogantly, obviously seeking his own death.

Viola on the side also sneered and agreed: "Fre!, don't talk nonsense with this kind of shit, the one next to him is the boss of Harley Insurance!"

Harley Zhou was dumbfounded!

This Fred Wang, and this old woman are so courageous!

They even dared to insult Orvel Hong as a street dog and told him to go away. He really don't know how to write dead words!

In the whole Wrestvel, who would dare to insult Orvel Hong so boldly? !

Even if there were, after being furious, Orvel Hong thrown into the river to feed the fish!

Chapter 30

At the moment when Fred Wang's voice just fell, a strong subordinate behind Orvel Hong immediately took a step forward, grabbed Fred Wang's hair, and slapped him from left to right.

"You sh!t! You dare to scold Orvel Hong, are you the god?"

After finishing speaking, he grabbed Viola again, slapped her with a loud slap, and cursed: "Smelly lady, dare to scold Orvel Hong, believe it or not, I will tear your mouth open!"

boom!

When these words came out, both Fred Wang and Viola were struck by lightning!

What?

The man in Wang suit in front of them is actually the famous Orvel Hong of Wrestvel? !

And they were insulting him recklessly just now?

Thinking of this, the faces of the two of them became extremely pale in an instant, cold sweat broke out on their bodies, and they were scared to death.

Fred Wang reacted the fastest. He thumped and knelt directly in front of Orvel Hong. While kowtowing, he cried and pleaded: "Fifth Lord, I was wrong. I apologize to you! I was blind and didn't recognize you. , I opened my mouth to scold you! These d*mn old men and old ladies have nothing to do with me. Please, please spare my life!"

After he finished speaking, he knelt down, slapped himself and apologized again. He broke down and cried.

He really didn't expect that the backing the boss of this scam company was actually the famous Orvel Hong of Wrestvel!

Such a big man, let alone him, can't afford to offend even with his whole family behind!

He regrets now and wants to die!

He just wanted to take this opportunity to offer Avella's mother a courtesy, so that he has the opportunity to contact Avella.

Unexpectedly, before he got his wish, he would offend Orvel Hong to death!

If his father knew about this, he wouldn't have to kill himself?

At this scene, the group of grandparents around was shocked.

They also expected Fred Wang to help him get the money back, but who would have thought that in the next second, he would kneel directly on the ground and apologize to the man in Wang suit before him.

And Viola, who was quite proud just now, but now she was slapped a few times, embarrassed like a dead dog.

Orvel Hong snorted coldly and said to the people around him: "Since this guy has such a cheap mouth, you will give him 10,000 slaps in turn. When will you slap him ten thousand times?"

Fred Wang was so frightened hearing the 10,000 slaps in the face, he thought he'd be beaten to death.

At this time, Orvel Hong's men pointed to Viola, who was beaten up and spread out, and blurted out, "Fifth Lord, what about this Lady Xiao?"

Orvel Hong glanced at Viola in disgust, and said lightly: "Ten thousand too!"

Viola knelt on the ground with a frightened puff, and her whole body trembled violently. She was almost scared to death. She provokes Mr. Orvel, so can she still live?

At this moment, several of his subordinates stood up, some grabbed Fred Wang and some grabbed Viola, and immediately prepared to move their hands.

Marven has been watching this scene coldly in the crowd.

When he saw his mother-in-law being beaten, he didn't want to intervene, because his mother-in-law has always been so cheap, it should be a lesson to her.

However, if Orvel Hong's men slap her ten thousand times, if they don't beat her to death, they will at least maim her. Then how can he explain to his wife?

It would be very painful for his wife too!

He felt that he had no choice but to manage.

Just when a brawny man stretched his arms and was about to draw a mark on Viola's old face fiercely, Marven hurried forward and grabbed his wrist!

Someone exclaimed, "The eldest young master of the Wang family? Or sister, you are great, you can find such a great personality."

"Yes, then Young Mr. Wang must have a lot of contacts. To solve our problem, isn't it just a matter of a few words?"

"Sister, since you have such good contacts, why didn't you marry your daughter to someone like him, instead of giving your daughter to such a sh!t?"

Viola glanced at Marven disdainfully, and snorted coldly: "This kind of waste will be swept out by our Xiao family sooner or later!"

Marven didn't say a word, planning to wait for Fred Wang to come to see how he hit the wall.

Soon, a black Porsche slowly stopped in front of everyone.

A young man in a suit and leather shoes, with seemingly talented looks came out of the car.

Fred Wang is here.

The old men and women all around were sighing: "Oh, look at people, this is a young talent! Such a good son-in-law, I don't know who's daughter will be lucky in the future to be his wife."
