

The Amazing Son In-Law Chapter 2191-2200

Chapter 2191

When Zak Chen heard the order, he immediately blurted out without hesitation: "Okay Master Ye, I will arrange a plane to take the two of them to Lion Rock. When that time, they will be assigned to guard them 24 hours a day, and they will never have a chance to escape! "

Marven nodded in satisfaction, pointed to Hashimoto Kinxian next to him, and said, "By the way, send this Japanese friend over."

When Hashimoto heard this first, he was so frightened that he wept bitterly, and pleaded with sobs: "Mr. Ye, this matter was completely done by the father and son named Song. The two of them are the masterminds. I'm just a job. You can't say anything to send me to Lion Rock, please let me go!"

Marven sneered, "Hashimoto Jinxian, do you think you are not the mastermind, so you don't have to be responsible? I tell you, your nature is as bad as the two of them!"

After that, Marven told Zak Chen again: "Old Chen, after this Hashimoto arrived at the Lion Rock first, all treatments are treated the same as Song Tianming and Song Honor. There must be no partiality, understand?"

Zak Chen nodded without hesitation and said, "Master Ye, don't worry, I must make the arrangements properly!"

Marven turned his head to look at Song Jimo, the old man, and asked, "Master, are you satisfied with what I do with me?"

Father Song spent his entire life in the mall with a knife and decisive action. When he learned that Song Tianming and Song Honor were going to attack him, he secretly warned himself that once this matter was turned around by himself, he would never relent.

But when he really reached the point of view, he realized that he still couldn't be completely unfeeling.

After all, they are his own sons and grandsons. If they really kill them, it would be a family tragedy from a white-haired person to a black-haired person.

As the saying goes, tiger poison does not eat children. Although there have been sons killing their fathers over the years, few fathers killed their sons.

The same is true for Mr. Song.

Although life is boundless, but after all, it is hard to escape the word of layman.

What is a layman?

The layman is the one who has endless passions and desires.

At the critical moment, the unceasing affection of the flesh and blood is the trouble of Mr. Song.

It was precisely because of this that he could only hand over these two people to Marven.

Now, Marven decided to send them to Lion Mountain. Although the conditions were extremely difficult, in the final analysis, they still had their lives left.

This also let Old Man Song breathe a sigh of relief.

So, he hurriedly said to Marven respectfully: "Master Ye, no matter what decision you make, I don't have any comments!"

Marven nodded and asked Warnia Song again, "Wanting, do you have any comments? If you have any comments, just ask them."

Warnia Song also hurriedly said, "Master Ye, Wanting has no objection, everything is up to you!"

Marven said: "Since everyone has no objections, then follow this, Old Chen, let people take the three of them down, don't be an eyesore here."

Zak Chen immediately ordered several people in black: "Take the three of them under strict supervision! No mistakes are allowed, do you understand?"

Chapter 2192

Everyone hurriedly said, "I understand!"

After that, he escorted these three people out.

Song Tianming and Song Honor have been crying and begging for mercy. Song Tianming turned to look at Mrs. Song and cried: "Dad... please, for the sake of our father and son, help me and Master Ye beg for mercy. Master, please spare me! Otherwise I might die in Lion Rock, Dad!"

Old man Song felt a pain in his heart.

Marven said, let them stay in Lion Mountain for 20 years. Song Tianming has more than 50 years this year. When he went to the extremely underdeveloped and impoverished area of Lion Mountain, he might not be able to survive for 20 years.

It is possible that he would have died in Lion Rock before the 20-year deadline.

So now this look may be the last time the father and son looked at each other in their lives.

Song Honor's legs were limp at this time and he was dragged out by others. He pleaded bitterly: "Grandpa...I'm only in my twenties this year. I don't want the best time of my life to be confined to Lion Rock. Please help me...Grandpa!"

Father Song's expression was struggling and tangled, Marven shouted sharply at this time: "Give me all their mouths!"

Several people in black immediately gagged their mouths with something to make them speechless, and the scene immediately became much quieter.

Then, all three were dragged out.

Seeing this, Mr. Song sighed deeply, knowing that there was no possibility of maneuvering, as if he was more than ten years old at once.

Marven had a panoramic view of his performance, shook his head lightly, and said loudly, "Master Song, you understand the truth of raising tigers better than I do. You should not only consider yourself, but also Wanting. , If the troubles of these two people are not eliminated, someday in the future after you leave, the two of them must be Wanting's greatest threat!"

Having said that, Marven smiled slightly and continued: "As long as I, Marven, will not let the two of them really threaten Wanting. That is to say, if the two of them remain unresolved, they will treat Wanting again in the future. When I start, I will not let them go. So, speaking of it, imprisoning them in Lion Rock is not to protect Wanting, but to keep them alive. Otherwise, once the moths catch the fire, they will become ash!"

Mr. Song was stunned. He immediately looked at Warnia Song and hurriedly said to Marven, "Master Ye, you are right! Let them live and die in Lion Rock!"

After all, Mr. Song looked at Warnia Song again and said, "Wanting, since you have come back now, the position of chairman of the Song Group is naturally yours. From now on, you will continue to preside over the affairs of the Song Group. !"

Grandpa Song instructed: "Wanting, grandpa doesn't ask you to take the Song family group into a fierce fight. As long as you can stabilize the status quo and prevent the Song family group from going downhill, grandpa will be very satisfied, so you don't want to do it again. Let's talk about transnational cooperation. I would rather Soong Group not open up any overseas markets or cooperate with any overseas companies, and I don't want you to fall into a dangerous situation again, understand?"

Warnia Song nodded lightly, and said, "Grandpa, don't worry, I will definitely pay attention to personal safety in the future. In addition, I think we can continue to cooperate with overseas companies. There is no need to throw rats away because of this incident. ."

After speaking, she paused slightly, and then said: "This time, Master Ye helped me talk about Nippon Steel's cooperation. Nippon Steel's Chairman Shinwa Watanabe has signed a cooperation agreement with me in Japan. The content of the agreement Yes, the two parties will establish a joint venture to build a factory and invest at a 50-50 ratio, but Nippon Steel is willing to give 60% of the shares to our Song Group."

"What?!" As soon as this was said, everyone at the scene was dumbfounded and speechless.

Nippon Steel has always been very strong in foreign cooperation. They are even reluctant to give up 51% of the controlling stake. Even if the Song Group gives 60% of the income to Nippon Steel, Nippon Steel is still unwilling. Give up controlling rights.

Therefore, in the eyes of everyone on the scene, Nippon Steel is the most difficult bone to chew.

However, Warnia Song said that Nippon Steel is now not only willing to give up the controlling rights, but also willing to give up 10% of the shares to the Song Group. This is simply a dream!

Chapter 2193

Father Song originally thought that Warnia Song went to Japan to discuss cooperation this time, and encountered the cooperation of the Song family and outsiders. In order to prevent her from encountering such danger, he would rather Warnia Song give up the plan to expand overseas and cooperate with overseas.

Nippon Steel is a leader in the global steel industry. In this industry, their right to speak is extremely high. For companies like the Song Group, if they want to cooperate with others, they have to rush to ask.

Not only have to ask for it, but also prepare the land and all local relations, and then invite Nippon Steel to come and cooperate.

This feeling is tantamount to tidying up a bedroom in one's own house, and then rushing to other people's homes and asking them to stay for a few days.

Attitude cannot be said to be unhumble.

Generally speaking, the more unequal cooperation like this, the more unequal treaties must be signed.

One of the most common unequal treaties is to give a lot of money and get a small head, and let others make a small money and get a big head.

However, who could have imagined that Warnia Song would have subverted the balance between the Song Group and Nippon Steel, allowing Nippon Steel to pay a lot of money and take a small head. This was something that no one had ever imagined before.

However, they didn't dare directly question Warnia Song, the chairman, so they could only whisper to each other.

Soon, an old director stood up and said, "Chairman, as far as I know, Nippon Steel has never been willing to sacrifice the controlling stake. Will the other party fulfill the contract you mentioned? Or, Are there any hidden terms in this contract, or a more demanding gambling agreement?"

Many established capitalists like to set their opponents or partners in the contract.

Many entrepreneurs get generous investment from capitalists when they start their own businesses, and they are determined to do a big job.

Well done, naturally everyone is happy.

But if you don't do it well, it will be a big trouble.

Some investors require the investee to add an unlimited joint and several liability in the contract, not to mention that unlimited joint liability has only six characters, but the lack of power behind it can make the investee ruin.

Because once the unlimited joint and several liability is signed, if the transaction does not do well and loses money, the investor has the right to demand that the investee pays his own pocket and compensate all the investment money.

For example, Lao Luo, who used to be a mobile phone, signed unlimited joint and several liability, so after the failure of his business, he still owed up to 400 million in debt.

There are also many founders of companies who, because they cannot compensate investors, were eventually driven out of the companies they had worked so hard to create, and even went bankrupt and went to jail.

Therefore, the directors are also worried about whether there are any similar gambling clauses in the agreement signed by Warnia Song.

Warnia Song didn't explain much. She took out a contract from her backpack and said, "This is the original contract signed by Nippon Steel's Chairman Shinwa Watanabe with me. what is the problem."

The old director stretched out his hand to accept the contract, and a crowd of other people waited hurriedly around.

Chapter 2194

When everyone saw the contract, everyone's eyes became bigger and bigger.

This is indeed a formal contract, and the terms are clear and clear, there are no ambiguous marginal terms, and there is no hidden business risk content.

At the end, there is indeed the official seal of Nippon Steel and the autograph of Watanabe Shinka. It is indeed a true and valid contract.

At this moment, everyone couldn't help but be pleased.

The old director excitedly said, "Oh, I have never seen Nippon Steel sign a contract with such a big concession! This can be said to be unprecedented! The face of our Chairman Song is really great! A face, at least Worth two or three billion! Even higher!"

Others also agreed: "Yes, Chairman Song won such a favorable contract from Nippon Steel, which is almost unheard of in the history of Nippon Steel. If we announce this information to the outside world, the stock price will definitely be fast. Pull up!"

Someone looked at the time and blurted out: "The news of Chairman Song's safe return has probably been released by the media. This was originally a good news. Now there is this Nippon Steel contract. Announced to the public, those are two big benefits! When our stock resumes trading, it will definitely raise its daily limit for three or four consecutive times! The market value of the group can increase by 3 to 40%!"

"Chairman Song, you have really taken the Song Group forward this time!"

Warnia Song said very seriously at this time: "The reason why Nippon Steel's cooperation can be negotiated and the large preferential terms can be obtained is entirely because Master Ye helped match the bridge. Nippon Steel's chairman Watanabe Shinka also completely The agreement was signed because of Master Ye's face, so everything is dependent on Master Ye."

After that, she looked at Marven and said sincerely: "Master Ye, everything is thanks to you this time. If it weren't for you, I would have died in Japan; if it weren't for you, grandpa would have been poisoned. It ruined the brain; not to mention that you can still get such favorable conditions as Nippon Steel... Wanting is really grateful..."

Marven smiled slightly: "You don't need to be so polite, these are things that friends should do, just a little effort."

After saying this, Marven stood up and said, "Wanting, you just came back. There are a lot of things in the group waiting for you to decide. I won't bother you anymore. It just happened to be out a few days ago. I have to go back soon. Home."

When Warnia Song heard this, she immediately said with dismay: "Master Ye...I wonder if it is not convenient for you to have lunch together? You have done so much for us. We have not had the opportunity to thank you very much. ...."

Marven smiled and said, "Didn't you say that you don't need to be so polite? You can do your work first. You can eat anytime you want to eat. We can make an appointment when you are done with your work."

Mr. Song also said to the side: "Yes Wanting, Master Ye has left home for a few days for you, so he should go back soon and let his family rest assured."

Warnia Song nodded, "Master Ye, then I will send you out..."

"No need." Marven said, "Hurry up and continue to touch everyone about work while everyone is here. Now that you are back, Nippon Steel's cooperation has also been discussed. It is reasonable to say that one day should be held. The press conference is now, and we should hurry up to prepare and strive to increase our influence. It will benefit you and the Song Group.”

Warnia Song nodded gratefully and said, “Okay Master Ye, Wanting knows, then you go slowly, Wanting will arrange a banquet another day, and you will definitely come over by then...”

Marven smiled and said, “Well, I will definitely come then.”

Mr. Song hurriedly bowed deeply and said respectfully, “Master Ye, you go slowly...”

Marven stepped out of the report hall, and both Zak Chen and Hong Wu waited respectfully outside the door.

Seeing him come out, Zak Chen hurried forward and said in a low voice: “Master, the car is ready, should I take you home or?”

Marven said lightly: “Well, go home.”

Hong Wu, who was on the side, also ran over and asked for instructions: “Master Ye, your aunt has been in the village in the city for the ninth day. For these two days, she has been crying and crying all the time to go back, causing the neighbors in the village to call 110 to complain. It’s been several rounds, do you want to let her go?”

Chapter 2195

When Marven heard this, his whole person was slightly astonished, and asked, “Why haven’t you let her go after nine days? Didn’t you say it for seven days?”

Hong Wu said with some embarrassment, “Master Ye, I think you have to nod my side to let people go. I’m not good at advocating...”

Zak Chen exclaimed, “Hong Wu, why haven’t you let go? Miss this person is very temperamental. If you don’t let her go when the time comes, be careful that she turns around and retaliates against you!”

Hong Wu smiled, scratched his head and said, “Um...I didn’t think, Master Ye had been saving Miss Song in Japan a few days ago, and then he took a boat back all the way back. It must be very busy, so I didn’t I called Master Ye to ask about this. I want to tell you when you come back.”

Marven nodded and said, “Okay, then let her go.”

Hong Wu hurriedly said, “Okay, Master Ye, I will make arrangements.”

Zak Chen said to Marven at this time: “Master, I think you’d better go and tell the eldest lady that it is your intention to delay her release for two days, otherwise, once she returns to Orgeyon, she will definitely find Hong Five revenge.”

Hong Wu said without hesitation: "Get revenge on me? Let her let her go! I am the one who died once, Hong Wu, I won't be afraid of her!"

Zak Chen waved her hand and said solemnly: "You don't understand the eldest lady's style of acting. She is a person who bears special grudges and has various methods. If the young master offends her, she certainly can't do anything to the young master, but if you offend her With her, then she is not only looking for trouble for you, it is very likely that even your family and friends will not let it go."

Hearing this, Hong Wuyi suddenly became a little nervous.

But he didn't want Marven to look down on him, so he bit his head and said, "It's okay, I am not scared, Hong Wu!"

Zak Chen couldn't help sighing.

He knew Cynthia Ye's character too well.

Marven had originally let Cynthia Ye stay here for seven days, but Hong Wu let her stay for nine days, then she would definitely be very strong.

Marven has the strength and the old man is partial. She certainly dare not do anything to Marven, but she will never let Hong Wu go.

Otherwise, the anger she received in Wrestvel would have no place to spread.

Therefore, out of concern for Hong Wu, he suggested that Marven help him carry the pot.

After all, Marven had offended Cynthia Ye a long time ago, and Marven's mother-in-law, Viola, gave Cynthia Ye a beating. With such a big hatred here, it would seem trivial to detain Cynthia Ye for two more days.

Marven laughed at this time and said, "Anyway, if there are too many lice, don't bite, I should go and meet my aunt myself!"

When Hong Wuyi heard this, he knew that Marven was going to block this for himself, and he was immediately grateful.

So, he hurriedly bowed and said respectfully: "I'm sorry Master Ye, Hong Wu is causing you trouble."

Marven waved his hand: "Eh, don't say that! After all, you are all doing things for me, how can you say that it is causing me trouble."

After all, Marven said to Zak Chen, "Old Chen, prepare the car, let's go together!"

"Good master!"

Cynthia Ye was cursing his mother in the rental house at this time.

“Marven! You bastard who speaks no words! Seven days have passed, why didn’t you let me out!”

Chapter 2196

“You have Marven’s dog legs! Don’t let me go out, right? When I go out, I will settle accounts with you one by one!”

“Do you really think I’m Cynthia Ye muddled? Quickly let me out!!!”

Cynthia Ye became more excited as he scolded, and coughed non-stop: “Cough cough cough...cough cough cough...If you don’t let me out, I will turn around and throw you all into the Yangtze River to feed the fish. Go! I want to kill all of you one by one, so that you can never live beyond life!”

No wonder Cynthia Ye was hysterical. For nine days, living in such a place where the lowest-end population lived, she had completely collapsed.

In addition, Wrestvel is located to the south of the Yangtze River, and the winter is humid. The rental house she lives in has no air conditioning or heating. Every day, she can only wipe tears on the bed wrapped in a damp quilt.

From the first second of moving in, she hurriedly escaped after expecting the expiration of the seven days.

For Cynthia Ye, this was not only anger, but also sheer fear.

She was afraid that Marven would regret it all at once, the seven-day period would be invalidated, and then would not give herself a clear date, so she kept putting herself under house arrest.

Therefore, she screamed like crazy every day, just to attract the attention of neighbors around her, to attract 110 attention, to put pressure on Marven and Marven’s dog legs, and let them release themselves as soon as possible.

However, she didn’t know that Hong Wu had moved all the neighbors around yesterday.

This self-built building, including the landlord, has a total of 30 residents. Now, except for Cynthia Ye, everyone is enjoying it in the free five-star hotel.

Until her voice was almost hoarse, no one paid any attention to her, not even the neighbors or police officers who came to ask questions.

Cynthia Ye, who was extremely depressed, immediately took out his mobile phone and sent a video message to his father, Ye Zhongquan, who was far away in Orgeyon.

As soon as the video came through, Cynthia Ye cried and said, “Dad! You let that bastard Marven let me go... I really can’t stand it anymore... Don’t let me go. I just die here...uuuuuu...”

He knows Cynthia Ye's character very well, knowing that Cynthia Ye is absolutely impossible to commit suicide or self-harm, so he said seriously: "Changmin! Don't be so excited! Isn't it just two days after that? Be patient, Chen'er I'm sure I won't keep you locked up, maybe I will let you back in these two days."

Cynthia Ye cried and said, "Dad! You don't know how I came over these nine days! When I grew up, when did I suffer such a crime, Dad! If you don't go to that bastard Marven, he won't let me go now, tomorrow It may not be released. What if he keeps keeping me here?"

As she said, she pleaded again, "Dad, I beg you, just give him a call and let him let me go back!"

Ye Zhongquan said seriously: "Chang Min, I finally asked Gu Yanzhong to persuade Chen'er and promised to come back to participate in the ancestor worship ceremony on Ching Ming Festival. This matter is extremely important to the Ye family. There can be no difference in what you say. If it is because of you, As a result of Chen'er changing his mind again, that is definitely a big loss for the Ye Family!"

Cynthia Ye understood now.

It turned out that the old man was unwilling to put pressure on Marven, mainly because he was unwilling to offend Marven for himself!

When he thought that his father was unreliable, Cynthia Ye was very sad, and cried, "Dad! What if Marven doesn't let me go, then what should I do?"

The old man hurriedly said, "Oh, Changmin, if Chen'er doesn't let you go on Ching Ming Festival, Dad will definitely ask him for an explanation."

Cynthia Ye collapsed immediately: "Dad! Tomb-sweeping Festival is going to April, and it will be nearly two months away!"

Chapter 2197

Cynthia Ye didn't want to continue this kind of hard days.

If you really have to wait until the Ching Ming Festival to go back, it is no different from killing her.

Ye Zhongquan couldn't help but comforted: "Okay, Chang Min, just take your temper and wait a few more days. If Chen'er is not willing to let you go, I will call him."

Cynthia Ye naturally had 10,000 grievances in his heart, so he didn't dare to say more.

She secretly thought in her heart: "I can see it now. In the eyes of my father, Marven is the most important person in the Ye family."

“After all, once he really marries Gu Qiuyi, Gu Yanzhong’s daughter, then he will be one of the heirs of the Gu family’s trillion-dollar fortune. This will greatly help the Ye family.”

“Under this situation, how can my married daughter be compared to Marven in terms of importance in the eyes of my father?”

“Hey, it seems I can only break my teeth and swallow in my stomach.”

So she could only say angrily: “Good dad, I know... Then I will wait patiently for a few more days. If Marven doesn’t say let me go in three or five days, then you But be sure to call him and talk...”

As she said, her nose sore, and she sobbed.

Ye Zhongquan comforted: “Okay, don’t worry, three days, if Chen’er doesn’t let you go after three days, Dad will call him himself!”

“Okay, hang up.”

With the termination of the video call, the tears in Cynthia Ye’s eyes could no longer stop, pattering down.

At this moment, I suddenly heard a knock on the door.

Cynthia Ye jumped up from the bed, and ran to the door in few steps and pulled the door open.

Before she could see the people outside, she cursed unbearably, “You bastards, when are you going to let me out?”

Marven looked at Cynthia Ye, who had a dull panel and swollen eye bags, frowned, and said, “Auntie, the weather in Wrestvel is so humid and cold. You have been here for nine days. Haven’t this anger been suppressed?”

When Cynthia Ye saw that it was Marven, he immediately asked annoyed: “Marven! You said you would let me leave for seven days, but my eyes have been locked here for nine days by your people, why didn’t you let me go? !”

After all, she saw Hong Wu standing next to Marven and angrily reprimanded: “It’s this bastard, who has detained me for two days in private, it’s damned!”

Marven said coldly: “I meant to keep you for two more days.”

“You mean?!”

Cynthia Ye asked indignantly: “You obviously said 7 days, why turned into 9 days? Why?”

Marven snorted and said faintly, "Are you my aunt? It's not easy to come here, how can you leave in only 7 days? Whatever you say, you can stay for two days. Are you right?"

Cynthia Ye was about to explode with Marven's scornful attitude, and angrily reprimanded: "Marven! You don't want to be fake with me! I don't know you yet? I tell you, you better not Do something with me, let me go back quickly!"

Marven shook his head lightly, sighed and said, "It seems that in nine days, you can't suppress your anger at all. Orgeyon's sky is dry and dry. If you are so angry, you will definitely be more serious when you go back. According to me, You should continue to stay in Wrestvel for a few more days to completely extinguish the anger before leaving!"

After that, he immediately said to Hong Wu next to him: "Hong Wu!"

Chapter 2198

Marven smiled and said, "My aunt still needs to stay in Wrestvel for a few more days. During this time, I have to trouble you to continue to watch her strictly. Everything is the same as before."

Hong Wu hurriedly asked, "Master Ye, how many days did you say...how many days did you tell?"

Marven thought for a while and laughed: "So, let's go for 7 days. It will be a week to make up the whole account. If these 7 days are not enough, it proves that my aunt is too angry, then we have to give her. Here is a big treatment."

Hong Wu smiled and said, "Good Master Liao Ye, I know!"

What Marven thought at this time was: "You, Cynthia Ye, who thinks you are Ye's parents and daughter, dare to come to Wrestvel to be a blessing like a queen mother, and you still don't repent. If you are stubborn, don't blame my subordinates. Ruthless, I don't believe that today I can't cure you!"

Hearing Marven's words, Cynthia Ye's face instantly turned pale!

Her tone instantly softened, and she begged with sobs, "Marven! You can't do this! I have been tortured for the past nine days so that I don't look like a human being. Do you know what life I've had these nine days? Have you eaten? It doesn't matter if you use oil or water, there is no facial cleanser, no mask, not even an eye cream..."

"My current panel is in poor condition. It will take at least one month to bring it back. If you shut me down for another seven days, then my panel will be over..."

Marven put away the smile on his face and said solemnly, "My good aunt, you still don't understand why I want you to stay in Wrestvel and stay here!"

"I let you stay here, so that you can put away your temper and learn to be a human being with your tail sandwiched. If you can do it, I will let you go; if you can't, I will let you stay until you can do it. End!"

“As for whether your panel is good or bad, what does it have to do with me?”

Cynthia Ye was extremely resentful, but on the surface he still begged with aggrieved expression: “Chen’er, I am your aunt, we are family, how can you treat me like this...”

Marven smiled and said, “Oh, you are starting to treat me as family now?? Why didn’t you treat me as family when you came from Orgeyon to tell me? When you ran to my mother-in-law to speak out, why? Didn’t you consider me family?”

Cynthia Ye was extremely embarrassed, and quibbled: “I...I’m also doing it for you...”

Marven smiled and said, “So you did everything for my own good!”

Cynthia Ye said flatly, “Oh, of course! I’m your aunt, I’m not good for you, for whom?”

Marven clapped his hands and smiled: “That’s a coincidence, aunt, I am doing this now for your own good! You must not let down my filial piety to you!”

Continue to say: “I now give you two choices!”

“In these seven days, you are not allowed to scold people, you must not go crazy, you are not allowed to chirp and yell here!”

“If you behave well, after seven days, I will let people let you go!”

After listening to Cynthia Ye, he hurriedly asked, “What about the second choice?”

Marven said coldly, “The second option is to stay here for another month! In this month, if you want to swear, you will swear. If you want to go crazy, you will go mad. Scream, I’ll look at my mood after a month!”

“If I am in a good mood, then you can go straight back.”

“But if I am in a bad mood, I am embarrassed, I may have to keep you for a while and do my best as a landlord!”

Chapter 2199

Cynthia Ye really took it.

Although she still hated Marven in her heart, after Marven’s words, she did not dare to continue to bargain with Marven.

She has realized that Marven’s character and acting style cannot be suppressed by herself.

In addition, Wrestvel is Marven's territory, and the old man is also facing Marven now, he has no other way except forbearance.

So, she could only suppress all the anger and dissatisfaction in her heart, and honestly said: "Okay...I choose the first one..."

Marven nodded, and then said to Hong Wu, "Hong Wu, you have heard it all. In the next seven days, you must have your people strictly supervise me. If there are more yelling and screaming, Let me know as soon as possible!"

Hong Wu hurriedly stood up straight and said loudly, "Master Ye, don't worry, I must be watched carefully!"

Marven gave a hum, and then said, "If she performs well, as soon as the seven days are up, she will be taken to the airport directly, and there is no need to specifically ask me for instructions."

"Good Master Ye!"

Marven looked at Cynthia Ye again and said seriously: "Auntie, it is not my purpose to keep you in Wrestvel. It is the key to let you learn to respect others. I have already said what you need to say, so you can do it for yourself."

After speaking, I didn't bother to listen to what Cynthia Ye said, turned around and went out.

Cynthia Ye was extremely angry, but he dared not show any dissatisfaction.

She didn't even dare to vent her emotions by shouting, for fear that Marven's men would not be able to get along with her.

Leaving the village in the city, Hong Wu said to Marven very gratefully and ashamedly: "Master Ye, I didn't get things done by myself, and I want you to wipe my butt. I'm really sorry, I'm causing you trouble... .."

In Hong Wu's heart, he really felt ashamed.

Marven said that he would release Cynthia Ye after 7 days, but after the 7-day deadline, he did not dare to release him directly, but wanted to wait for Marven to return and report to Marven before releasing.

However, I didn't think about it at the time, so I offended Cynthia Ye and what would happen.

For Hong Wu, people like Cynthia Ye are definitely big people with great supernatural powers. If she wants to rectify Hong Wu and Hong Wu's family, Hong Wu has no ability to resist at all.

So he was very grateful that Marven came over at this time and carried this pot for himself.

Moreover, he is equally grateful to Zak Chen.

Had it not been for Zak Chen's reminder, he might have never thought of this.

It is very likely that when Cynthia Ye retaliated, he still hadn't figured out why.

Seeing him thanking himself, Marven waved his hand and said, "You are doing things for me, so you don't have to be so polite with me."

After finishing talking, he looked at Zak Chen on the side and said, "Old Chen, Su Ruo is over there, you must keep an eye on me, and also help me pay attention to the current movement of the Su family."

Zak Chen nodded immediately and said, "Master, don't worry, I will arrange Orgeyon's eyeliner to help me keep an eye on the Su family."

Marven said, "Okay, Hong Wu, let's go, Lao Chen drove me home."

Marven sat in Zak Chen's Rolls-Royce, and the first thing was to call Ito Nanako, who was in Japan.

On the one hand, I want to report her safety, on the other hand, I want to inquire about the situation in Japan.

Chapter 2200

After all, Su Ruo's escape from such an important prisoner is probably unacceptable to the Japanese Metropolitan Police Department, the Japanese Self-Defense Forces, and the entire Japanese nation.

As soon as the phone was connected, Ito Nanako's voice came over: "Marven-jun, have you already arrived in Wrestrvel?"

Marven smiled and said, "Yeah, how do you know?"

Nanako Ito smiled and said, "I was following the news in Wrestrvel and found that some media was promoting the news that Ms. Song has returned. Since Ms. Song has returned to Wrestrvel, Marvenjun must have arrived."

"Yes." Marven smiled slightly and said: "We only arrived in the morning, and we rushed to the Song Group as soon as we got back, so I am embarrassed to report peace to you."

Ito Nanako smiled and said, "Marven-kun is too polite. You don't have to contact me as soon as you have business affairs. As long as you are like this, you can tell me when you are done."

Marven sighed in his heart, this Ito Nanako is really gentle and considerate. If anyone marries such a woman in the future, that would be a blessing for a lifetime.

Thinking in his heart, he couldn't help but shook his head, drove the thought out of his mind, and asked, "Nanako, is there any action in Tokyo?"

“Have.”

Nanako Ito said: “A major incident happened in Tokyo the night before. Su Ruoli, the first criminal who killed the Matsumoto family, escaped from prison! This incident only broke out yesterday afternoon, saying that Su Ruoli was dropped. The whole person has evaporated, and the Metropolitan Police Department and the Self-Defense Forces are going crazy, and they are conducting carpet searches across the country.”

While talking, Nanako Ito said again: “The impact of this incident in Japan is very bad. The director of the Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department has already taken the blame and resigned this morning. A friend of my father’s, a high-ranking member of the Tokyo Homeland Security Department, was in danger. , Took over the post of Director of the Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department.”

Marven couldn’t help but laugh secretly when he heard this.

This Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department is really unlucky.

This incident, at first glance, was that the Su family was secretly engaged with the top officials of the Japanese Self-Defense Forces.

According to the confession of the captain of the ship Su Ruoli last time, this incident was that the Japanese Self-Defense Force first handed over the people to the Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department, and then placed them together with the Su’s family from the Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department. The person was replaced, and then the pot was thrown to the Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department.

They originally wanted the Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department to take the blame, and then the Self-Defense Forces would catch Su Ruoli again, so as to enhance the influence of the Japanese Self-Defense Force in the country.

But I didn’t expect that in the middle of this matter, Marven suddenly popped out and brought Su Ruoli back to the country.

In this way, the loss of the Japanese Self-Defense Forces is not too big. After all, the Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department is carrying the pot, and they are just emptying out.

But the Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department is really bad.

People are theirs, and the responsibility rests with them.

If they fail to catch Su Ruoli, they would be a shameful criminal in the Japanese judicial field and a fair criminal in Japan.

So Marven said to Ito Nanako: “Your captain and crew are still on the way back. After they return, they should tell you that Su Ruoli has been caught by me.”

Ito Nanako asked in surprise, “Ah?! Marvenjun, why did you catch Su Ruoli? You two know each other?”

Marven smiled and said: "I have some personal grievances with her. After sailing that day, she wanted to kill me at sea, but unfortunately she was not as skilled as humans and was caught by me.

Ito Nanako hurriedly asked, "Then Marven-kun, are you okay?"

"I'm fine." Marven smiled: "Now Su Ruoli is in my hands, but I still hope you keep it secret for me."

Ito Nanako said without hesitation: "Marven-kun, please rest assured, I will keep it secret for you!"

Marven said again: "Oh, yes, Nanako, you just said that the newly appointed head of the Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department is your father's friend?"

Marven smiled and said, "Then I think it's your face, give him a big gift!"
