

The Amazing Son In-Law Chapter 2201-2210

Chapter 2201

When Ito Nanako heard this, she asked in surprise, “Marven-kun, you...what kind of gift are you going to give him?”

Marven smiled and said, “Presumably he is still in a hurry for not knowing why Su Ruoli disappeared and why he was dropped by someone?”

Nanako Ito said: “This is indeed the case. My dad said that the uncle is under great pressure now because it is difficult to do this kind of desperate task. The main reason is that the expectations of the people are too high. If you do it well, everyone will be happy, but if you do it It’s not good. It is very likely to be angered by the people.”

Marven agreed and said, “Yes, this kind of thing is a double-edged sword. If you don’t use it well, you will hurt yourself.”

While speaking, Marven said with a smile: “But ah, the gift I gave him can make him turn this double-edged sword into a single-edged sword!”

Ito Nanako asked in amazement, “Marven-kun, what do you mean by this? A double-edged sword has become a single-edged sword?”

“Yes.” Marven said with a smile: “In other words, with my gift, he doesn’t have to worry about harming himself if this sword is not used well.”

Nanako Ito hurriedly said, “Marven-kun, what exactly is this great gift you are talking about?”

Marven smiled and said, “You told him that the reason why Su Ruoli was dropped is that the Su family and the Japanese Self-Defense Forces colluded completely. It was their two sides that they had a civet cat for the prince, and then they gave it to him. Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department.”

“Ah?!” Ito Nanako’s voice was extremely surprised: “Marven-kun, what you said is true?! The Su family, really colluded with the Self-Defense Forces?”

Marven asked her: “When did I lie to you?”

Ito Nanako hurriedly explained, “Marven-kun, Nanako didn’t mean that... Nanako just thought... this thing is too subversive! How can the Self-Defense Force, as the Japanese army, be so absurd? What’s coming?”

Marven smiled and said, “Hey, say a thousand things and ten thousand. The reason why the Su family and the Self-Defense Force flies and stalks each other, is not for profit! The main reason is that the Su family’s energy is too large, so you can cover the sky with one hand. Dad’s friend, let him focus on breakthroughs from the Self-Defense Forces, and he will definitely make significant progress.”

After speaking, Marven said again: "As long as you, uncle, can find real evidence of collusion between the Self-Defense Forces and the Su family, even if there is no way to capture Su Ruoli back, you can still fight a beautiful turnaround on behalf of the Metropolitan Police Department!"

Ito Nanako also knew very well that before Marven didn't tell him about it, the key point of this matter was whether his uncle could smoothly arrest Su Ruoli.

But now, the key point of this matter has immediately changed.

As long as the uncle finds absolute evidence that it is indeed the Su family and the Self-Defense Force that replaced Su Ruoli, the Metropolitan Police Department can instantly get rid of all responsibilities, and all the gangsters will be dumped to the Su family and the Japanese Self-Defense Force!

Thinking of this, Ito Nanako hurriedly said with joy: "Marven-kun, then I will give my uncle first, thank you for this great gift! As long as the trouble is solved, I will let that uncle thank Marven-kun very much! He personally came to thank Marvenjun!"

Marven smiled and said: "You don't have to be so polite, as long as I go to Japan in the future, or if there is any place in Japan that can be used for him, it is enough for him to be polite."

Ito Nanako blurted out: "Marven-kun, don't worry! My uncle has always been very affectionate and righteous. If he can really come back with Marven-jun's help this time, he will definitely remember Marven-kun's kindness!"

Marven smiled and said, "Then I will reveal a little more information. You must ask him to check the Maritime Self-Defense Force that went to sea last night. The inner ghost must be out of this group of people. Let him take these people. Grab all of them for a sudden trial, and you will definitely find a breakthrough!"

Nanako Ito thought for a moment, and said: "The level of the Self-Defense Force is higher than that of the Metropolitan Police Department. If you arrest people directly, it may be difficult to push, and the Self-Defense Force will definitely interfere."

Chapter 2202

Marven smiled and said, "Isn't he from the homeland security department? As far as I know, homeland security is the most important thing for any country. Therefore, people in the homeland security department must be at a higher level than the military. You Let him ask his former colleague or leader to help, and the Homeland Security Department will come forward to arrest people in the Self-Defense Force. I believe the Self-Defense Force has absolutely no guts to interfere."

After a pause, Marven said again: "After the homeland security department catches the person, they can be handed over to the Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department for interrogation. No matter how many people are arrested, they will all be isolated and interrogated separately. The key clue!"

Ito Nanako couldn't help exclaiming, "Marven-kun, your method is really great! Let me tell him! Thank you for my uncle first!"

Marven smiled and said: "Okay, you can tell him quickly, I'm just waiting to see this great drama of the Jedi reversal!"

Marven only revealed to Ito Nanako that the Su family colluded with the Self-Defense Forces and exchanged for Su Ruoli, but did not tell her that the whole thing was that the Su family and the Self-Defense Forces played the game together. On the surface, it was to let people go, but in fact it was left-handed. Right hand these inside stories.

This is mainly because these words do not have much meaning when they come out of his mouth.

Moreover, the more clues you give, the easier it is to interfere with the opponent's concentration.

Therefore, he only talked about the secret trade between the Su family and the Self-Defense Forces, and the rest, let the uncle of Ito Nanako follow the clues he gave, go in-depth, and let him dig out the background by himself. It is more lethal.

At this moment.

Orgeyon, Su Family Mansion.

Su Ruoli and the accompanying crew members hadn't heard any news for so long, making Su Chengfeng anxious.

Zynn Su was also worried about this matter.

It's just that Zynn Su didn't know the inside story of the whole thing.

He thought that the Su family had an accident while rescuing Su Ruoli.

So he asked Su Chengfeng a little anxiously: "Dad, what the hell is going on? Didn't our people take Ruoli back home by the waterway? Suddenly all the news disappeared, and only the ship was caught by the Japanese Self-Defense Forces. Intercepted, where did Ruoli go?"

Su Chengfeng said depressed, "How do I know? I know as much about the whole thing as you do. You ask me, how can I answer you?"

Zynn Su saw that his father's tone was a little annoyed, and he hurriedly apologized: "Dad, you calm down, and I am not targeting you... It's just that this fact is too strange. Li, this heart can't come down!"

Su Chengfeng said coldly: "I have sent someone to Japan to investigate this matter. Once I have any information, I will sync it to you as soon as possible."

Zynn Su sighed worriedly, and said, "Dad, who did you communicate with the Japanese Self-Defense Force? How about you give me contact information, I will call him and ask him to see if there is anything we ignore. Clues to the end."

As soon as Su Chengfeng heard this, he became annoyed, and said to himself: "I will give you the contact information? The grandson of the Japanese Self-Defense Force now thinks I have played with him, and is chasing after me asking me to give him an explanation. He called, wouldn't Lao Tzu's overall plan become clear to the world?"

Thinking of this, he said with a black face: "I said, I have sent someone to investigate, and information will be sent to you simultaneously. Do you have any comments on my arrangements?"

Chapter 2203

Seeing his father a little angry, Zynn Su hurriedly stood up, bowed and said, "Dad, calm down your anger. I didn't mean that. I just worried about Ruoli... Anyway, Ruoli is my flesh and blood. , Her life and death are unknown, her whereabouts are unknown, I am really too anxious..."

Elder Su looked at him coldly, and said word by word: "Being abiding, you must have the strong heart of Taishan collapse before you do big things, and the disappearance of an illegitimate girl will make you panic like this? So what? If my old man dies, can you still manage the Su family?!"

As soon as Zynn Su heard this, his whole person was instantly excited!

He murmured in his heart: "The old man has begun to doubt my heart and my ability. This is not a good sign!"

"If I have been on Ruoli this matter and behave too nervously, the old man will definitely think that I am weak, not strong enough, and cannot be promoted to the position of Su Family Patriarch..."

"If it is because of Ruoli's matter that affects the old man's judgment of his successor, then it is really not worth the gain..."

Thinking of this, Zynn Su said with an awe-inspiring expression: "Dad! Don't worry! No matter how this matter turns out, I will never let this matter affect me!"

Elder Su looked at him suspiciously, and said coldly, "Will it affect you? It's not your mouth that has the final say, but my old man's eyes have the final say!"

Zynn Su hurriedly said, "Dad, you are right! I will show you with practical actions!"

Elder Su gave a hum and waved his hand: "Okay, you can go out."

Zynn Su respectfully said: "Good dad, I will go out first..."

Elder Su coldly reminded: "If Li is still alive, then I believe he will contact you. If she contacts you, you must tell me as soon as possible!"

Zynn Su said without hesitation: "Dad, don't worry, if you just contact me, I will report to you as soon as possible!"

Elder Su gave a hum and waved his hand: "Go."

At this time, Zynn Su's back was already wet with cold sweat.

After living in the rich family for a long time, he increasingly felt that the rich family is no different from the ancient palace.

The lord of the wealthy family is the ancient ninth-five lord, and his heir is the prince below.

Although he has been appointed by the old man as the "prince" who will inherit the Su family in the future, the old man still holds the power, and he must always be cautious and walking on thin ice!

Otherwise, it is very likely that he did not say a good word and angered him, and then he was mercilessly dismissed!

There are so many princes who were deposed because of their words and behaviors against the Lord in ancient times!

During the Western Han Dynasty, Emperor Han Jing deposed Prince Li Liu Rong;

During the Eastern Han Dynasty, the Han Zhang emperor Liu Jiang deposed the prince Liu Qing;

During the Three Kingdoms period, Sun Quan deposed the prince Sun He;

Chapter 2204

Li Chengqian, the eldest son of Li Shimin, Emperor Taizong of the Tang Dynasty, was also abolished because of his rebellion against his father;

The worst thing is to count Aixinjueluo Yinfeng, the prince of Emperor Kangxi in the Qing Dynasty. He is the brother of Yongzheng Emperor Aixinjueluo Yinzhen. This buddy was abandoned by Emperor Kangxi and was put under house arrest until death. , Can be described as extremely miserable.

Zynn Su was also worried that if he caused the old man's dissatisfaction because of Su Ruoli's affairs, and if the old man abolished himself, his loss would be extremely heavy, and most of his life's efforts would be in vain.

Thinking of this, Zynn Su decided that regarding Su Ruoli, he must control his emotions as much as possible in front of the old man, and must not let the old man have any feelings of dissatisfaction with him!

The daughter is important, but the position of the Su Family Patriarch is even more important.

What's more, this daughter is still her own illegitimate daughter!

Here, the old man Su rushed into Zynn Su and made a fire, and he was more or less worried.

In fact, the main reason why he got angry with Su Shou Dao was mainly to hide his guilty conscience.

After all, he made the decision to betray Su Ruoli.

The old man had already settled an account. The crimes committed by Su Ruoli in Japan are extremely heinous. I really want to buy the relevant personnel to release her. Not to mention the huge cost, it is easy to offend the Japanese government.

Therefore, he planned to cooperate with the Japanese Self-Defense Forces, get Su Ruoli out by himself, and then let the Self-Defense Forces capture him back and sell the Self-Defense Forces a favor.

After all, the Japanese Self-Defense Force still has a lot of energy in the Japanese government. As long as it has a good relationship with the Self-Defense Force, it will be very convenient to develop in Japan and cooperate with the Japanese government in the future.

However, the old man never dreamed that such a big change would happen to the original seamless plan.

Su Ruoli's disappearance put him in a dilemma now.

On the one hand, he did not know how to explain to the Japanese Self-Defense Forces and how to eliminate the indignation of the Japanese people towards the Su family;

On the other hand, he didn't know whether Su Ruoli was alive or dead. If he was still alive, would he already know what he was doing secretly? What should he do if she knows it and seeks revenge from herself in the future? ?

While being upset, his most trusted subordinate hurried over and said in a low voice: "Master, Honda Masaji of the Japanese Self-Defense Forces called again. He said that he would give us 24 hours. If we can't within 24 hours If Su Ruoli is handed over to them, the $1 billion deposit we gave them will not come back..."

"Also, Honda Shoji is very angry now. He thinks we are playing with them on purpose, so he let it out, if we don't hand over Su Ruoli, then he will have enemies with us and let us be careful in everything."

Elder Su sighed and cursed very annoyedly: "Damn! Where did Su Ruoli go? A great living person, he can't disappear out of thin air!"

The subordinate hurriedly said, "Now all the police in Japan are looking for the whereabouts of Su Ruoli. The Self-Defense Forces are also investigating all passing ships at sea. If Li is still in Japan, it is only a matter of time before she is found. Leaving Japan, then she must have left Japan by water. Based on the time since her disappearance, she should have returned to China."

Elder Su frowned tightly and said coldly: "If it is the former, it would be nice to say, but if it is the latter, then it will be troublesome! She has no reason not to contact the Su family when she returns to China, unless she already knows the truth. ! In that case, we will be a bit tricky in the future!"

After that, he immediately ordered: “Wang Liang, you immediately send someone to monitor the He family. If Su Ruoli returns to China, if you don’t contact us, she will definitely contact her family and closely monitor all the He’s movements. Report any disturbances to me immediately!”

Chapter 2205

At this moment, Tokyo, Japan.

Forty-eight-year-old Suzuki Tomohisa was standing in front of the floor-to-ceiling windows of the office where he had just taken office, unable to do anything.

He is the new director of the Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department.

Prior to this, he was a middle-level senior in the Homeland Security Department. He was very well-known in the Homeland Security Department because he was very good at investigating and had a very hard wrist.

This time, Su Ruoli was found to have dropped the package, and the whole Japan was shocked. The Japanese government was overwhelmed by this, and the Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department became a target of public criticism.

There is really no way, the Japanese government can only let Suzuki Tomohisa take orders.

However, Suzuki Tomohisa didn’t want to take this mess either.

As a wise man, he generally stays away from such cases that shock the whole country.

Because cracking such a case is certainly very successful, but if you fail, you will definitely disappoint the people of the whole country.

For so many years, Suzuki Tomohisa has relied on a steady and steady fight, a little bit of experience, success stories, and his own reputation.

Therefore, he likes to take on tasks that are not so challenging and difficult.

He didn’t want to interfere with such a challenging and difficult task.

Because, it was hard for me to rely on a steady and steady fight until today, and I can continue to maintain a steady and steady style until retirement.

In that case, you will be able to retreat and reap the admiration of the people across the country.

Now this extremely difficult task, being able to complete it will certainly make myself a big step forward.

But if it is not done, it will also waste the situation and status that I have gained over the years.

It is like a gambler who has won a lot of money and plans to leave the game with the money after playing a few cards.

However, at this moment, the dealer asked him to bet on Stud and put in all the money he had won before.

Only fools are willing to do such things.

But Suzuki Tomohisa couldn't help it.

After all, he works in the national security department. After all, he is a national civil servant. What the Japanese government wants him to do, he has no room for bargaining.

Now, it is a foreign woman he has never met that determines the future trajectory of his life.

And he only knew that this woman was Su Ruoli, who was the main murderer of the Matsumoto family. As long as he could catch her, he would be famous throughout Japan; but if he could not catch her, he would disappoint the whole Japanese people. Become a sinner in the eyes of the Japanese people.

As for where is Su Ruoli? Is it still alive? He has no clues at all.

Ten thousand steps back and said, even if I can't find Su Ruoli, I must at least find out how she was brought away under everyone's eyes.

Now that the double has been poisoned and died, and several people responsible for her transportation have disappeared for no reason. The Metropolitan Police Department could not find any valuable clues.

Just when he scratched his scalp and didn't know where to start, his deputy pushed in and said embarrassingly, "Mr. Suzuki, there are many media reporters outside, not just our domestic NHK and Asahi Shimbun. There are also many top overseas media including BB, they all want to interview you..."

"Interview me?" Suzuki Tomohisa said with a black face, "I just took office, what can I interview?"

The deputy said, "They want to know the progress of Su Ruoli's disappearance..."

Chapter 2206

Suzuki Chihisa angrily said: "You help me tell them that there is no progress in this matter. If there is any substantial progress, then I will definitely announce it to the national and even the world media through the press conference."

The deputy nodded: "Okay Mr. Suzuki, then I will reply to them first!"

Tomohisa Suzuki stopped him and said, "Oh yes, from now on, no media reporter is allowed to enter the Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department without invitation or permission!"

"Okay, I know!"

After the deputy went out, Tomohisa Suzuki rubbed his temples distractedly, and said to himself: "Hey...As long as you are in danger, you have never had any good things! This case has such a great influence. Not only the people of the whole country are paying attention, but even overseas media are paying attention. If you don't handle it well, your reputation may be ruined. It's fucking tricky!"

Just thinking about it, the phone rang suddenly.

Hearing the ringing of the cell phone, his scalp suddenly numbed, and his veins jumped suddenly.

What he is most afraid of now is answering the phone, not just that various media outlets try their best to find out his mobile phone and want to interview him over the phone.

There are many leaders of government departments who are constantly asking about the progress of the investigation of the entire case.

He is troubled by it.

When I helped her look at the screen of her mobile phone, she realized that it was her brother's daughter, Nanako Ito.

The Suzuki family and the Ito family were originally family friends.

He and Ito Yuhiko have been close friends since they were young, and they also attended the same university. Although they are not brothers, they are not much worse than their brothers.

Therefore, Ito Nanako seemed to him as his half daughter.

Seeing that it was Ito Nanako's phone call, his irritable mood was greatly relieved. He connected the phone and squeezed a little smile, and asked, "Nanako, why did you think of calling me?"

Nanako Ito hurriedly said, "Uncle Suzuki, I heard that you recently transferred to the Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department to investigate the case of Su Ruoli's disappearance?"

"Yes." Tomohisa Suzuki asked, "Have you heard of Nanako?"

"Yes..." Ito Nanako said, "Uncle Suzuki, have you found any useful clues?"

Tomohisa Suzuki sighed, "So far, there is no clue. This Su Ruoli is like the world has evaporated."

Nanako Ito hesitated for a moment, and said, "Uncle Suzuki, I have a very good friend. When I called me just now, he revealed a little clue to me, so I called you quickly. Helped."

When Tomohisa Suzuki heard this, he immediately asked excitedly: "Nanako, what you said is true? Who is your friend? What clue did he give you?"

Nanako Ito solemnly said, "Uncle Suzuki, I'm sorry about the identity of my friend, I can't tell you."

While speaking, Ito Nanako said again: "As for the clue he gave me...he told me that the reason why Su Ruoli was quietly transferred was not the problem with the Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department. It came from the Su family and the Japanese Self-Defense Forces."

“Japan Self-Defense Force?” Tomohisa Suzuki asked in amazement, “Is the Self-Defense Force also involved in this matter?”

“That’s right.” Ito Nanako said: “My friend said that the Su family and the Self-Defense Forces united, and Su Ruo left the package, and then deliberately dumped the pot to the Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department.”

Suzuki Tomohisa hurriedly asked, “Then what is their purpose? Do you want to rescue Su Ruo and return to Su’s house?”

“No.” Ito Nanako said: “Their purpose is to first throw Su Ruoli’s scapegoat to the Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department, and then the Japanese Self-Defense Force will capture Su Ruoli from the sea and give all the credit to the Self-Defense Force. “

“What?!” Suzuki Tomohisa was dumbfounded, and blurted out, “Nanako...you...what you said...is true?!”

Nanako Ito said seriously: “This is what my friend told me. I believe him. He said that if you want to seize this clue, you can use your relationship with the national security department to take the Japanese sea that was patrolled at Tokyo Port yesterday. The members of the Self-Defense Forces are all taken away for quarantine review, and there should be a breakthrough!”

Chapter 2207

Ito Nanako’s words overturned all the speculations and inferences of Suzuki Tomohisa about the whole matter.

He never dreamed that the Japanese Self-Defense Forces were also involved in this kind of thing, and a strong anger suddenly came to his mind!

Immediately, Tomohisa Suzuki gritted his teeth and said, “Nanako, thank you and your friends for reminding me. I will definitely bring all the relevant persons responsible for the trial as soon as possible!”

Nanako Ito smiled and said, “Uncle Suzuki, I hope this clue can help you.”

Suzuki Tomohisa said confidently, “Nanako, if this clue is true, it really helped me a lot!”

After all, Suzuki Tomohisa hurriedly said, “Nanako, I won’t tell you anymore, I have to arrange for arrest!”

“Good Uncle Suzuki!”

Tomohisa Suzuki hung up the phone and immediately contacted his old leader of the Homeland Security Department.

The clues provided by Ito Nanako are of great importance. If the Self-Defense Forces really participate in the removal of Bao Su Ruoli, this is not only a national scandal, but also a major homeland security incident, so it must be thoroughly investigated.

The leaders of Japan's homeland security department also paid great attention to this matter after hearing about it, and almost immediately sent a very high-level homeland security expert to fully cooperate with Suzuki Tomohisa to conduct a thorough investigation of this matter.

The relevant person in charge of the Self-Defense Force at this time does not know that he has been exposed.

They are constantly putting pressure on the Su family, forcing them to hand over Su Ruoli.

The people of the whole country are paying attention to this case now. As long as the Self-Defense Forces can arrest Su Ruoli and bring him to justice, they can make a great contribution.

However, even if the Su family is unwilling to hand over Su Ruoli, it does not matter. After all, the Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department is responsible for this matter, and the senior level of the Self-Defense Force does not have to bear any consequences, and there is a billion-dollar deposit as compensation.

In short, the Self-Defense Force feels that although what he did this time is not a successful big deal, it is definitely a deal that will not lose money.

However, they did not expect that the United Nations Land Security Department of the Metropolitan Police Department had already targeted them!

An invisible big net has been slowly spreading towards part of the high-level Japanese Self-Defense Forces!

At this time, Marven had just returned home.

Pushing the door and entering, I heard the restaurant is very lively.

Avella was chatting with people. Hearing the door opening, he hurriedly came out to check. When Marven came back, he said with joy, "Husband! Why did you come back without saying hello or making a sound?!"

Marven smiled and said, "I didn't happen to be busy with my business. A customer was in Japan and said that he was going back by private jet, so I just took a ride back."

Avella nodded, stepped forward and took his hand, smiled and said, "Husband, it takes two or three hours for you to fly from Japan. Surely you didn't eat at noon?"

Marven smiled and said, "No, I'll go home as soon as I'm done."

Avella smiled and said, "Then you came back just right. Ruolin also just came back from Orgeyon today. I asked her to come to eat at home. We just turned on the red wine, so hurry up and eat!"

With that, she took Marven and walked into the restaurant.

In the restaurant, Elsa Dong was chatting with Dave and Viola. When Avella came in with Marven's hand, her expression immediately became surprised!

She went back to Orgeyon for a few days during the Chinese New Year holiday and missed Marven for a few days, so she couldn't wait as soon as she got off the plane this morning and came here to visit Avella with gifts.

Said to come to see Avella , but what he wanted was to see Marven.

Chapter 2208

However, it was discovered after coming that Marven was not at home.

It turned out that Marven went to Japan a few days ago because of an emergency, and has not returned.

This made Elsa Dong feel a little stunned, and her originally high mood instantly dimmed a lot.

Just half an hour ago, Avella 's family left her at home for lunch. She still hesitated, thinking that Marven was not at home. At this time, staying at Avella 's home for lunch would waste a good opportunity to be close to Marven. .

She wanted to say that she would just wait for the next visit, but she couldn't hold back Avella 's enthusiasm, but she had to agree to the kindness.

But she really didn't expect that Marven would come back before eating this meal!

Therefore, at this moment, Elsa Dong looked at Marven with a look of excitement.

Dave and Viola were naturally very happy to see Marven returned.

Dave's Calligraphy and Painting Association is resting these days. He faces Viola at home every day, and he is almost annoying to death. Seeing Marven come back, he is naturally very happy.

As for Viola, she was even more happy. When she saw Marven, she said happily, "Oh my dear son-in-law, you can be counted as coming back after so many days, don't you know how much mom missed you these days! "

With that said, his eyes couldn't help but looked at Marven's hand.

When Marven went to other places recently, she always brought her all kinds of high-end gifts back, so she also looked forward to what gifts Marven would bring to herself this time.

However, Marven was empty-handed at this time, and it didn't look like he had prepared a present.

Viola was somewhat disappointed in her heart, but she was too embarrassed to show it. After all, her current attitude towards Marven had changed drastically from before.

She felt that Marven was an out-and-out good son-in-law.

Even if Marven didn't bring her a gift this time, she was not upset except for a little disappointment.

At this time, Marven also realized that when he came back in a hurry and didn't prepare a small gift for Viola, Viola would definitely feel a little lost in his heart.

So he walked up to Viola, sat down beside her, smiled and said, "Mom, I'm so sorry. This time I wanted to buy some gifts for you in Japan to bring back, but suddenly a friend wanted to take a private jet. When I returned to China, I temporarily used his Shun Fan, and I didn't have time to buy gifts."

Viola hurriedly waved his hand: "Oh, my son-in-law, you are already very happy if you have mom and mom in your heart. As for gifts, there is no need to buy them every time!"

Marven nodded and smiled casually: "Mom, I will send you 200,000 yuan on WeChat in a moment. If you take it and buy anything, it's just a little bit of care for you!"

As soon as Viola heard this, the whole person asked with excitement, "Oh my god, my son-in-law! What you said...what you said is true?!"

Marven smiled and said, "Can this be fake? Mom, wait a moment, I will transfer the money.

After all, he took out his mobile phone and directly transferred 200,000 cash to Viola via WeChat.

Viola received the WeChat push, opened it, and it was Marven who gave him 200,000 yuan, so he hurriedly clicked to receive it excitedly, clapped his hands happily, and smiled: "Oh! What is my life, Viola? I found a good son-in-law!"

Dave on the side shook his head repeatedly and said to Marven, "My son-in-law, in the future, give your mother a little less money. If she has a little money, she will suffer. You know that since she broke her leg again, until now, How many things have you bought online? A room is almost filled with her!"

Viola glared at him and scolded, "Dave, take care of your mouth and don't spit out stinky farts here, what's the matter with you! I think you are jealous of my son-in-law being so kind to me!"

Dave said angrily, "You just fart!"

Viola curled his lips and said, "What's the matter? I fart? I fart, where did your mouth move or something?"

Dave's angry old face flushed, and he snorted coldly, "I really don't bother to take care of a vulgar woman like you!"

Chapter 2209

Seeing that Dave and Viola were about to choke again, Avella hurriedly came out and finished the game: "Oh, Mom, dad, can you not always pinch up as soon as you talk? Marven just came back, and Ruo Lin is here, so don't let people watch the joke ..."

Dave looked at Viola and snorted coldly, "I don't know you as much as you look at the face of a girl!"

Viola said disdainfully, "Look at what you said, it's like I want to be familiar with you."

After all, Viola turned his head to the side and stopped looking at Dave.

At this time, Elsa Dong said to Avella in embarrassment: "By the way, Avella, Gu Qiuyi will come to Wrosvel for a concert next month. Let's go and watch it together?"

Avella hurriedly smiled: "Marven said he wants to accompany me. He knew Gu Qiuyi and said that he could get tickets for the front row."

Elsa Dong looked at Marven in shock and asked, "Marven, do you know Gu Qiuyi?!"

Marven nodded: "You know, Miss Gu is one of my clients. I have helped her see Feng Shui before."

Elsa Dong blurted out: "Mom, it's so good?! Then you must be familiar with Miss Gu, can you find me a ticket for the front row? I will pay you twice!"

Having said that, Elsa Dong was afraid that Marven would not agree, so she folded her hands and pleaded: "Marven, like Avella, I have liked Gu Qiuyi for a long time. I especially want to sit in the first row and watch her concert..."

Speaking of this, Elsa Dong sighed and said, "But the front row tickets for her concert are too difficult to buy. As long as she opens the concert, the rich second generation from all over the country will swarm like flies. I've grabbed all the good seats. I've won it several times without success, so I can only ask for your help..."

Marven couldn't help feeling big when he heard this.

I first agreed to Gu Qiuyi that she would go to her concert, and then promised his wife Avella that she would take her to Gu Qiuyi's concert.

Avella was his wife, and Gu Qiuyi was her fiancée who had been married since she was a child. Taking his wife to see his fiancée's concert was very uncomfortable in itself. I didn't expect Elsa Dong to join in the fun at this time!

Elsa Dong liked Marven's things, Marven herself had known for a long time.

And he also knows that Elsa Dong has a fiery personality and courage. When she was in the hot spring with her and her wife, she dared to run to her while her wife was asleep and confessed. If she was there at Gu Qiuyi's concert, it would not be true. Know how messy it will be...

So Marven said embarrassedly: "Ruolin, I'm really sorry, I may not be able to help you with this matter, because I have already greeted Miss Gu, and Miss Gu said that at most two tickets can be solved for me."

“As you know, the relationship between me and Miss Gu is just the client relationship of Party A and Party B. It is very interesting that people can solve two tickets for me. I am really not embarrassed to ask someone more..”

When Elsa Dong heard this, she didn't have too much doubt in her heart.

She thought to herself: “Gu Qiuyi's concert tickets are hard to find, and the seats in the front row are hard to change.”

“Marven just helped Gu Qiuyi watch feng shui. It is indeed very rare that people can promise him two tickets for the front row. No matter how much he asks for it, it seems that Marven is a bit careless. I can't let Marven do Help me ask for tickets and be looked down upon!”

Thinking of this, she hurriedly said: “Then I will think of a way myself. If I can't get a ticket for the front row, then I will get a ticket for the first five rows and I will be satisfied.”

Marven was also slightly relieved when he heard this.

He felt that if he couldn't prevent Elsa Dong from going to the concert, it would be a good thing for Elsa Dong to sit a little further away from her and his wife.

At least, I can be less stressed when the time comes.

Marven knew very well that if she asked Gu Qiuyi for three tickets, she would definitely not refuse, and she would definitely give three consecutive seats.

Chapter 2210

What if Elsa Dong insists on sitting next to herself?

Therefore, if she is determined not to agree to her request, let her find a way to get the ticket. The best situation is that she can't get the first row seat, but stepping back, if she gets the first row As long as she doesn't sit next to her, she has nothing to worry about.

At this time, Elsa Dong said to Avella again: “Avella , do you want to go shopping together in the afternoon?”

Avella glanced at Marven, and whispered in her ear: “Ruo Lin, I still don't want to go shopping. I'm going to work in two days. Marven has just returned from a few days after going out. I want to spend more time at home. he.”

Elsa Dong was shocked.

She could see that when Avella said this, it was entirely from the heart.

This made Elsa Dong realize that Avella , who has always been less sensitive to feelings, might have truly fallen in love with Marven.

This made her very sad.

She used to feel that Avella married Marven only under the pressure of his grandfather. From an emotional point of view, she definitely did not love Marven.

In that case, digging a corner by yourself will feel at ease.

However, if your girlfriend really fell in love with Marven, wouldn't they both be happy?

If that were the case, it would indeed seem a bit immoral to grab love with a sword.

At this moment, Elsa Dong wondered if she would give up pursuing Marven.

If she gave up pursuing Marven, there would be no need for her to stay in Wrestvel.

After all, the chairman of the Emgrand Group has not shown up until now, and Elsa Dong's family has also given up the idea of letting her catch this line.

This time Elsa Dong went back to the New Year, and the Dong family hoped that she would quit her job at Emgrand Group and return to Orgeyon for development.

But Elsa Dong said she didn't want to resign because she didn't want to give up Marven.

But at this moment, Elsa Dong felt a little shaken in her heart.

At a certain moment, she even felt that she might as well leave Wrestvel and return to Orgeyon to develop well.

In this case, not only can I keep my girlfriend's relationship with Avella, but also my career and relationship will not be delayed.

After all, no matter how much energy she puts into Marven, it is difficult to get the return she wants. In the end, it is very likely that the bamboo basket will be exhausted.

However, thinking of Marven's many pasts of saving her own, Elsa Dong's strong feeling of admiration could not be restrained.

She felt that if she gave up Marven, she might not find a man who could make her heart move in her life.

After thinking about it, Elsa Dong decided: "I want to stay in Wrestvel and continue to fight!"

"If Marven was willing to accept me, then even if I was cast aside by the people of the world, I would never hesitate!"

"However, if one day it is confirmed that I am pregnant, then I will quit completely, return to Orgeyon without hesitation, and never see Marven again!"
