

The Amazing Son In-Law Chapter 2251-2260

Chapter 2251

“You don’t have a cell phone?!”

Marven felt very unbelievable about Theresa’s words.

These days, even the aunts who set up street stalls have smartphones, and Theresa, a young and fashionable girl, doesn’t even have a mobile phone. This is really incredible.

Theresa saw Marven’s face full of surprise, and the whole person was even more embarrassed, and he kept saying: “Brother-in-law...I...I...My phone was previously... .. was taken away by Regnar Wu...”

Theresa said, lowering her head in shame.

After these words, she really felt that she couldn’t hold her face at all.

The entire Xiao family is indeed now at an end.

I can’t even use a mobile phone, it has to be what it is like to be poor...

When Marven heard this, he suddenly understood.

After Regnar Wu returned to him, he hated the Xiao family. He knew that he was not dealing with the Xiao family, so naturally he was going to kill the family.

In fact, this kind of thing, I only need to say hello to Regnar Wu, Regnar Wu will definitely restore their previous living standards, and even continue to invest in the Xiao family to bring the Xiao family back to life.

After all, it only takes tens of millions to revitalize the Xiao family. Although Regnar Wu has lost most of his fortune, after all, the lean camel is bigger than a horse, and a little leaking out of his fingers is enough for the Xiao family to eat and drink.

However, Marven did not intend to do this.

Today, the Xiao family is definitely on their own account, especially the old lady and Noah Xiao, who have been deliberately deliberately antagonizing Marven and his family.

Therefore, they must be punished.

Thinking of this, Marven made up his mind to give Theresa a little favor at most, which was a reward for her to know how to return, sincerely apologize to herself, and call her brother-in-law.

Marven has always been a clear-cut person.

As long as the crime was not a capital crime, a certain amount of forgiveness can be given on the basis of serious repentance.

For example, Regnar Wu's family, although Wu Qi is a scumbag, but in the final analysis, the crime is not to death. Although Regnar Wu and his eldest son Roger Wu are domineering, they also did not commit a capital crime.

Therefore, the three of them, although there are many hardships, have survived to the present.

However, Regnar Wu's brother-in-law Xue Nanshan has done all bad things and lost his conscience. This kind of person can say nothing to keep him, even if he decides to do good for a lifetime, he cannot keep him, because he is already unforgivable.

At this moment, Marven rummaged through his pockets, found a fifty-dollar banknote, handed it to Theresa, and said, "Well, let's take a taxi for the fifty dollars."

Theresa hesitated a bit, wondering whether he should take the fifty yuan.

Although it was only fifty yuan, for her, it was a lot of money and it could play a big role.

Her current work day is only two hundred yuan. In addition to food, she has to buy some basic medicine for Noah Xiao and Jay.

In fact, after these two people are abolished, each person needs at least tens of thousands of treatment fees to recover quickly, but because they can't pay, they can only rely on a little bit of physical cultivation, and the speed is slow. a lot of.

Coupled with the lack of nutrition at all, the current situation of the two people may not really be able to get out of bed and walk after a year.

Therefore, Theresa also hopes to make as much money as possible, even if it is only a few dozen dollars more, at least he can buy two catties of spare ribs for her father and brother, or buy two big bones to make soup and drink.

So, she bowed to Marven and said sincerely, "Thank you brother-in-law...I am indeed short of money now, so I won't be polite to you..."

After all, he took the fifty yuan with both hands.

Marven nodded, and said, "Take a taxi, you can get it for ten yuan."

Although Theresa was a little bit reluctant, since Marven had said so, she did not dare to disobey, and quickly said, "Good brother-in-law, thank you brother-in-law!"

Marven gave a hum, and asked her, "When do you finish get off work?"

Theresa whispered softly: "Customers who visit the house usually start from 10 o'clock in the morning and go to more than 7 o'clock in the morning, so we don't get off work until 7:30."

Marven nodded and said, "Okay, then hurry up and go, I'm leaving too."

Chapter 2252

Theresa hurriedly bowed again and said, "Brother-in-law, slow down. Be safe on the road."

"Well, let's go."

Marven waved her hand, twisted the accelerator of the battery car, and left quickly.

Theresa looked at Marven's back and was filled with emotion.

At this moment, what she hopes most is not how much money she will make or the favor of the rich.

What she hopes most is to be able to sit in the back seat of Marven's battery car.

Because she felt that the back seat must look very happy and very at ease.

Marven rode a battery car to Zak Chen's hotel.

Zak Chen had already waited at the door in person.

Seeing Marven riding over, he hurriedly stepped forward and said, "Oh, master, your identity is really not suitable for riding this kind of electric bike anymore. Why didn't you drive the car Qin Gang and Solmon Wang gave you before? You don't like supercars.?"

Marven nodded: "That kind of car is not practical, and it is really too arrogant. As long as it is driven out, everyone will be chased by everyone to watch and take pictures. I don't like the high-profile feeling.

Zak Chen hurriedly said, "Then I should arrange a low-key and luxurious car for you? What do you think of Phaeton?"

Marven waved his hand: "No, I'm used to riding an electric bike. Wrester is not that big. In such a small area in the city, I can run it on an electric bike, but I haven't charged it these days. It seems that the battery is almost empty. Yes, you will arrange for someone to charge me later."

As he said, he parked the electric car at the door and urged: "Go, take me to see Su Ruoli."

Zak Chen hurriedly said to a valet parking brother next to him: "Hurry up and park Mr. Ye's electric car, wipe the car inside and out, and then recharge it."

"Good President Chen!"

The little brother responded and hurried over to push the electric car away.

Marven and Zak Chen stepped into the hotel, and Zak Chen took him directly to the top floor of the hotel.

The top floor of the hotel is the administrative layer, which is specially prepared for big bosses and big people.

The characteristic of the administrative layer is that the area is relatively independent, and when the hotel is designed, several administrative areas have been built on the administrative floor. Each administrative floor has only one entrance, one elevator room, and one stairwell, between other administrative floors. Thickened reinforced concrete walls are also used to partition.

This is not only safer and more private, but also more convenient for security personnel to carry out their work.

Otherwise, if it is an ordinary floor, there are several elevators, several sets of stairs, and the air corridor connecting lines, the route is complicated, and it is difficult for big people to live in for security.

Su Ruoli and others were placed in one of the administrative areas, and Zak Chen also arranged a lot of confidants to guard here to ensure that nothing went wrong.

At this time, Su Ruoli was wearing a corset and sports underwear sent by the waitress. In the living room of the room, he was running the internal formula for internal strength training.

For martial arts masters like her, talent is far from enough, and daily practice is also essential.

Only with ten or twenty years of hard work without slack can it be possible to become a martial artist.

However, Su Ruoli now feels that he has never been able to settle down and concentrate on training.

Because, as long as she tried to sink her heart, she couldn't help but think of Marven in her mind.

Just when she couldn't find the feeling, the doorbell rang.

At this moment, she intuitively felt that Marven might be here, and she was suddenly happy.

Then, she rushed to the door in two steps and opened the door directly.

When she saw Marven standing outside the door, she couldn't help but smiled and blurted out: "Mr. Ye, you are finally here!"

After speaking, she suddenly realized that she was wearing only sports underwear, and her entire neck and chest were covered with fragrant sweat. She screamed in fright and blurted out: "Oh! Mr. Ye, wait a minute!"

As soon as the voice fell, he quickly closed the door...

Chapter 2253

Marven actually hadn't had time to see Su Ruoli's perfect figure and curve clearly before she closed the door.

At this time, Su Ruoli was ashamed and impatient, she quickly found a bathrobe and put it on, then blushed and ran back to open the door.

Facing Marven, her face was red as if there were two sunrise clouds, and she said shyly: "I'm sorry Ye Gongzi, just now I...I just opened the door too abruptly..."

Although Su Ruoli is a cruel martial arts master, emotionally, she is still a virgin who has never been tempted by the opposite sex.

Therefore, when facing Marven, her embarrassment made her look like a martial arts master.

Marven was somewhat embarrassed at this time.

Su Ruoli is the same as Qin Aoxue, the little pepper of the Qin family, because they have received professional training all the year round, so both of them have excellent figures. Therefore, although the incident happened suddenly and hastily, it really feasted his eyes.

It's just that Qin Aoxue didn't have the natural glamorous temperament of Su Ruoli.

To put it bluntly, after getting acquainted with Qin Aoxue, she is like the little girl next door that all men like.

But Su Ruoli had absolutely no such temperament.

It wasn't because she was somewhat cramped in front of Marven. In fact, her image in front of people always carried the taste of being far-sighted and not indecent, and even brought a cold and dangerous feeling to most men.

After adjusting his mentality slightly, Marven asked Su Ruoli: "Is Miss Su still satisfied with her stay here?"

Su Ruoli hurriedly said: "Very satisfied...I heard that this is the best hotel in Wrester, but I didn't expect Master Ye to be so polite...I'll cause you trouble..."

Marven waved his hand: "It won't be troublesome. After all, Old Chen is in full charge of this hotel. Asking him to arrange a few rooms is just a matter of effort."

Su Ruoli realized that Marven was still standing at the door, so he hurriedly moved away, made a gesture of inviting, and said, "Master Ye, please come in and sit down!"

Marven nodded and stepped into the room.

Because it was a luxurious executive suite, Su Ruoli directly invited Marven to sit on the sofa in the living room.

As soon as Marven sat down, she hurriedly used the tea from the hotel room to make a cup of tea for Marven and handed it to him, and said respectfully, "Master Ye, please have tea."

Marven smiled slightly, thanked him, and then said, "Ms. Su doesn't know if you watch TV?"

"No." Su Ruoli stroked the hair between the temples with a somewhat unnatural expression, and stammered: "My... last night... last night actually... I haven't slept well, I fell asleep in the early morning, and then I woke up and did a training session, and then you came..."

Marven nodded and said, "I will probably tell you about it. Yesterday, Japan's national security issued a notice in which it disclosed your grandfather Su Chengfeng's activities with the Japanese Self-Defense Forces."

Su Ruoli said with a bit of resentment: "He is not my grandpa...I don't have such a grandpa..."

Marven said, "I can understand your mood."

Chapter 2254

Su Ruoli said embarrassedly, "I'm sorry Young Master Ye, I shouldn't interrupt you just now, you continue..."

Marven said: "But not long after, the media discovered that your father Zynn Su took a plane overnight to Australia. Then the media changed the direction of the wind, saying that in fact, it was not your grandfather Su Chengfeng who betrayed you, but your father Zynn Su. He said that he betrayed you to kill his mouth and to bury the secret that you were her illegitimate daughter forever."

Su Ruoli looked pale and said, "This...this is not impossible..."

Marven asked her, "Which one do you believe more?"

Su Ruoli thought about it for a few minutes before speaking, "Master Ye, I even believe that Su Chengfeng betrayed me."

Marven looked at her with interest and asked, "Oh? Why?"

Su Ruoli said earnestly: "I have been by my father's side for several years. Although he has a very fierce workmanship, he has a deep affection for his close relatives. He is very concerned about Su Zhifei and Su Zhiyu, and knows me. After realizing his true identity, he was also very caring about me. I think he shouldn't kill me and kill me. If he really wants to kill me, he shouldn't leave me in Su's house after knowing that I am his daughter."

Having said that, she analyzed: "Su Chengfeng is a very legendary successful businessman from the old generation. He looks like Hong Kong's Li Jiacheng and is kind, but in fact, he is a very A cruel person."

"Moreover, his heart is cruel, regardless of objects, no matter who it is, as long as it touches his interests, he will not let it go! Even his grandson is the same!"

"So, I think Su Chengfeng is more likely to betray me!"

Marven nodded in agreement, and said, "My opinion is the same as you. Although I don't know how the father and son are, from the sequence of events and the logic behind it, the mastermind is Su Chengfeng. The odds are greater. Zynn Su went to Australia overnight. It was actually a moving target that helped Su Chengfeng attract firepower, and it was a moving target that could only be beaten, could not fight back, and could not return his mouth."

Su Ruoli could not help sighing: "Su Chengfeng has always held the power of the Su family. Although my father is the eldest son and a quasi-heir, he has no real rights in the Su family because the key figures in every aspect of the Su family directly deal with Su Chengfeng. Responsible and report to Su Chengfeng."

"My father didn't dare to cultivate his own power at all, because Su Chengfeng was extremely sensitive to this matter. If my father cultivated his own power under his nose, he would be very angry and might even deprive my father of his power directly. Heir's power."

"So, no matter how you look at this matter from any aspect, Su Chengfeng must be behind the scenes..."

Speaking of this, Su Ruoli said with a dim expression: "However, whether my father was involved in it and how much he participated in it, I don't know this. He may not know it from beginning to end, or he may know but No objection..."

Marven asked her, "Next, what are your plans?"

Su Ruoli hurriedly said, "If Li dare not have any plans, when Marvenrescued him, he already said that, everything followed Ye Gongzi's instructions..."

Marven nodded and asked her, "If one day, I want you to help me deal with the Su family, would you like it?"

Su Ruoli said without hesitation: "I am willing to deal with the Su family! From my mother to me, I have been working hard to serve the Su family, and even ready to sacrifice for the Su family at all times, but I never dreamed that the Su family was so unrelenting towards us. This hatred, I must To report! "

With that said, she looked at Marven and said with a little pleading: "Young Master Ye, if you can't ask you for something?"

Marven nodded: "Say."

Su Ruoli hurriedly said, "Master Ye, you let me deal with the Su family, Su Chengfeng and the other Su family. I have no objection, and I can't ask for it, but I don't want to fight with my father and my two half brothers and sisters. Meet...Apart from the three of them, anyone with the surname Su is an enemy in my eyes!"

Chapter 2255

Su Ruoli was unwilling to attack his biological father and his half-brothers and sisters. Not only was Marven not unhappy, but he was relieved.

In fact, if a person can really attack his brothers and sisters, or even his biological father, Marven must have a strong guard against such people.

Because in his opinion, no matter how bad a person is, he cannot be without humanity. If a person is truly without humanity, even if he obeys his own words today, he will still be able to stab him directly into his heart tomorrow.

Therefore, in his opinion, although Su Ruoli has destroyed the Matsumoto family, she is still not inhuman.

The reason for the act of exterminating the door was to execute the order.

Just like a soldier, no matter what order his superior commander gives him, he, as a qualified soldier, must obey.

Otherwise, he is not a qualified soldier.

So Marven didn't have any opinion on this, and he said, "We two have a deep hatred with the Su family. You hate Su Chengfeng, and I hate Zynn Su. You need Su Chengfeng to give you an explanation, and I also need Su. Shou Dao gave me an explanation, so the two of us have to work together as hard as possible when facing the Su family."

Su Ruoli hesitated for a moment and asked, "Master Ye, do you hate my father because of the Anti-Leaf Alliance back then?"

Marven nodded and said coldly: "Back then, Zynn Su raised the banner of the Anti-Ye Alliance and organized a group of people to target my father with all their strength. Although I still don't know how old his father's death is, how big it is with him and the Anti-Ye Alliance Relationship, but with the words "Anti-Leaf Alliance" alone, he is my enemy!"

Su Ruoli asked again, "Master Ye, would you kill my father because of the anti-Ye alliance back then?"

Marven thought for a few seconds, and said with a serious face: "If Zynn Su's anti-leaf alliance was not the direct murderer of my parents, or did not directly participate in the murder of my parents, then I would not kill Matsumoto like Zynn Su. If the family killed innocent people like that, I will punish him reasonably based on his actual crimes."

Speaking of this, Marven's expression flashed coldly, and he sternly said: "However, if he has an unshirkable responsibility for the death of my parents, then I must take his dog's life and use his neck to top the head. Come to pay tribute to my tragic parents!"

Su Ruoli nodded gently.

Although, 10,000 in her heart did not want Marven to meet her own father in battle one day.

But she also knew very well in her heart that she didn't have the ability to control this matter, let alone the qualifications to control it.

Not only was Marven much stronger than himself, but Marven even saved his life, and he was not qualified to intervene in any decision to avenge his parents.

Therefore, she can only pray silently in her heart, praying to her father Zynn Su, and don't be the culprit who killed Marven's parents.

Otherwise, with Marven's strength, it would be easy to kill him.

Thinking of this, Su Ruoli looked at Marven and thought over and over again, but still asked, "Master Ye, when can I contact my mother?"

Marven said: "It's not possible for the time being. Wait a minute. The main reason is that your current identity is too sensitive. News about you is raging all over Asia. The Japanese government is also eager to arrest you and convict you. The news that you're still alive leaks out, and I can't keep you."

After all, Marven said again: "I suggest you wait patiently. When the time is right, I will let you contact your mother."

Su Ruoli nodded gently, and said respectfully: "Okay Young Master Ye, Ruoli will follow your instructions..."

Marven gave a hum, and said, "These days, you will have a good rest here."

Su Ruoli hurriedly said, "Good Master Ye."

Marven remembered something and asked curiously, "Oh, yes, when I just came in, I saw you as if you were training?"

Su Ruoli remembered that she was wearing only sports tube tops and sports shorts, and she nodded in embarrassment, and said, "Going back to Master Ye, I usually practice qigong every day."

Marven asked curiously: "You martial arts masters, what do you usually do when you practice?"

Su Ruoli replied truthfully: "I practice the Xingyiquan passed down by the He family every morning."

Marven asked curiously, "Xingyiquan? Is it unique to the He family?"

"It doesn't count." Su Ruoli replied truthfully: "Actually, Xingyi Quan is Neijiaquan, and Neijiaquan is not unique to He Jia."

Because Ye Jiazhu has the inheritance of martial arts, Marven learned Wing Chun from his father when he was young.

Chapter 2256

However, Wing Chun is just a set of relatively ordinary boxing techniques and martial arts, not internal boxing.

In comparison, the rank of Neijiaquan is generally higher than that of ordinary boxing.

Because ordinary boxing is actually a kind of fighting technique. Whether it is Chinese Wing Chun, Japanese karate or Korean Taekwondo, they are all fighting techniques, but the people who create these techniques have different ways of looking at problems. , So the fighting skills created are also different.

But Neijiaquan is different.

The main practice of Neijiaquan is not the physical skills, but the chain of internal strength.

The so-called qi sinking dantian refers to the internal strength of internal strength exercises.

In contrast, Neijiaquan is much more advanced than ordinary boxing, and its overall strength is also stronger.

It is precisely because of cultivating the chain inner family boxing all the year round that Su Ruoli's skill is able to surpass most of his peers and become a leader.

However, the whole set of Xingyiquan she practiced was a thousand miles away from Marven's Nine Profound Heaven Classics.

Marven wanted to mention her a little bit, so he said, "Miss Su, I want to give you a pulse. I wonder if it is convenient?"

Su Ruoli said without hesitation: "Of course, Master Ye, please!"

After that, she handed her right hand to Marven.

Marven's finger was gently placed on Su Ruoli's veins, a trace of spiritual energy passed through the veins and into Su Ruoli's body.

The spiritual energy wandered through Su Ruo Li's body, and Marven immediately discovered that Su Ruo's eight channels of the odd meridian in his body had only opened up the Ren Du two channels.

The two channels of Ren and Du are actually the collective name of the Ren and Du channels.

The Ren and Du channels are part of the eight channels of the odd meridian.

There are eight Qi meridians and eight channels, namely Ren, Du, Chong, Band, Yin Qiao, Yang Qiao, Yin and Yang.

The reason they are said to be the eight meridians of odd meridians is mainly because, for most people, these eight meridians are naturally unconnected.

The traditional Chinese martial arts in internal martial arts and the Taoist chain-cultivation method are all about practicing Qi.

This qi is stored in the body and sinks in the dantian. When it moves, it passes through the eight meridians.

Therefore, whether or not the eight channels of the odd meridian are opened up and how much is connected directly relates to the person's strength.

To put it bluntly, if a person is an internal combustion engine, then the gas in the dantian is the fuel when the internal combustion engine is running.

The Qijing Eight Channels are the eight pipelines that supply fuel to the internal combustion engine. If none of the eight pipelines are opened, then this person is a complete ordinary person.

If one or two of these eight points are connected, this person's strength can rise a lot.

If you get through the eight, you will almost reach the pinnacle of the inner family repair chain.

Su Ruoli has only opened up the two channels of Ren and Du, and there are still six channels left.

It's a pity that it is impossible to get through the Eight Meridians of the Qi Meridian in the traditional inner family practice.

Taking the Xingyiquan of the He family as an example, for hundreds of years, only one ancestor of the He family has ever opened up four of the eight channels of the Qijing.

For the rest, the best will only get through three.

In the current He family, only Su Ruoli's grandfather He Hongsheng can open up the three meridians. In the 40 years since he opened up the three meridians, the He family has never had a second...

More, in fact, only one can get through in a lifetime.

Chapter 2257

Su Ruoli is only in his early twenties this year, and has already opened up the two lines of Ren and Du.

This is already a top-notch existence among the young people of the Ren family and other major martial arts families.

Moreover, Su Ruoli did not dare to hope that he could get through the third meridian.

Her biggest wish now is to strive to make her two lines of Ren and Du more smooth.

Because there are multiple dimensions in the measurement of the internal masters.

How many odd meridians and eight meridians are connected is just one of them.

The second of these is to see whose meridians are more smooth.

Just like Su Ruoli, she got through the Ren channel at the age of 15 and the governor channel at the age of 20.

According to the judging standards of people in martial arts, the unobstructed degree of the eight channels of the odd meridian, from one to ten, is divided into ten percent.

Su Ruoli first opened up the Ren Vessel, so her Ren Vessel's smoothness has reached 40%;

However, it didn't take long for her to get through the Governor Vessel, and the current smoothness of the Governor Vessel has not exceeded 20%.

After investigating Su Ruoli's cultivation level, Marven couldn't help feeling a little bit emotional.

If you didn't get the Nine Profound Heavenly Sutras, relying on the Wing Chun boxing you learned when you were young, let alone getting through the Ren Du Channel, even the Ren Channel would not be possible.

In that case, in front of Su Ruoli, he was as weak as a vegetable chicken.

But precisely because I have obtained the Nine Profound Heaven Scriptures, mastered the use of aura, and supplemented with a lot of rejuvenation pills to enhance my strength, my current strength not only crushes the warriors who have broken through the two channels of Ren Du, it is even a strange scripture. A martial arts master who has all eight meridians is not qualified to fight himself.

After all, compared to internal energy, Aura is simply a crushing dimensionality reduction blow.

It is like the absolute advantage of hot weapons over cold weapons.

Marven had the intention to mention Su Ruoli a little bit, so he used that ray of spiritual energy to directly increase Su Ruoli's Ren Vessel from 40% to 100%.

Su Ruoli at this time had already clearly felt the difference.

This feeling is very obvious to her.

Before, it was as if I had been in a bad cold, my nose was mostly blocked, and it was very difficult to breathe.

But now, my breathing became very smooth in an instant, and I felt that compared to before, it was simply one place at a time!

She looked at Marven in shock, and blurted out, "Ye...Young Master Ye, what...what did you do to me? How could my Ren Vessel be all through instantly... .."

Marven smiled indifferently, and said, "I see that your Ren Vessel is not smooth enough, so I will help you through it."

"what?!"

Su Ruoli was shocked as if struck by lightning!

As a person who has been practicing martial arts for more than ten years, she is very aware of the importance of meridian patency.

People in martial arts pay the most attention to opening up the number of meridians, and they have been smooth. The two are horizontal and vertical, and one is indispensable.

Because the Ren channel is the first channel of the eight meridians and the foundation of martial art, whether and to what extent the next seven meridians can be opened depends almost entirely on how strong the foundation laid by the Ren channel is.

Therefore, she has always hoped to increase the smoothness of the Ren Vessel to another level.

Even if it only increased from 40% to 50%, it was a remarkable improvement!

But she couldn't think of it. Marven only gave her own pulse for such a short time, and then quietly increased the smoothness of her own pulse from 40% to 100%!

For people in martial arts, one meridian can reach ten percent smoothness, which means that this meridian has become fully functional.

Meridian Dacheng, in the realm of martial arts, is a realm that only exists in legends!

According to genealogical records, even the ancestor of the He family who opened up the four meridians did not achieve great success in his Ren Channel, but only reached the realm of 80%.

Now, Marven helped Su Ruoli raise the Ren Vessel to 100%, which is simply helping her strengthen the foundation of martial arts more than twice!

Chapter 2258

This not only makes her current strength take a big step forward, but also makes her future martial arts journey much smoother!

With the great Ren Mai as the foundation, her martial arts will be more effective in the future!

Su Ruoli was extremely excited, but also shocked in her heart!

"Marven just gave me a pulse lightly, and he can bring such a huge improvement to my cultivation. How strong is his strength?!"

"Ren Mai Dacheng is equivalent to hitting the foundation of martial arts to the extreme. This is something I could not even think of in this life... It is also an achievement that is extremely difficult for all martial arts to achieve in a lifetime... ."

"But, in Marven's hands, it's just as easy as moving your fingers..."

"This...this is nothing short of gold..."

"However, this kind of supernatural power is nothing more than smoothness in Marven's mouth..."

“How powerful is Marven to achieve such an incredible level?!”

“It seems that my previous knowledge of Marven is far from enough...”

“Before, I thought he should be stronger, but I only know today that his strength is far more than that! Even, it is far beyond what I can imagine...”

Thinking of this, she felt more fortunate in her acquaintance with Marven.

Although the first half of this acquaintance was not pleasant, since Marven rescued himself, this man has been using practical actions to subvert his worldview.

If it hadn't been for knowing Marven, it would have been impossible for him to have such good luck! ?

Immediately, she knelt on the ground with a thud, and choked with emotion, “Master Ye, your great kindness, if it is unforgettable forever, please accept it...”

After finishing speaking, he leaned down directly and knocked his head heavily.

Marven said calmly: “It's just a matter of raising your hand, you don't have to give this big gift.”

Su Ruoli said solemnly: “Young Master Ye, the good luck you gave Ruoli, many martial artists can hardly cultivate for a lifetime. This kind of grace is unforgettable!”

Marven smiled slightly: “Spend time to improve the smoothness of the Governor Vessel, and try to get through the Chong Vessel. This is the most important thing for you right now. It happens that you can't go out during this time, so you should practice in the hotel.”

Su Ruoli hurriedly said, “Good Young Master Ye, Ruoli must go all out and try not to let you down!”

Marven nodded, stood up and said: “Okay, you continue to practice, I will go back first.”

Su Ruoli asked subconsciously, “Master Ye, you are leaving now?”

Marven gave a hum, and said casually: “I have to buy some food and go home to cook. If I linger for a while, it will delay my wife's lunch.”

Su Ruo was shocked in the ecstasy, and at the same time filled with loss, he blurted out and asked, “Master Ye, are you married?!”

Marven nodded: “I have been married for four years.”

Su Ruoli was shocked and said, “The Ye family is also the second largest family in the country. How come I have never heard the news of the Ye family's grandson...”

Marven laughed at himself: "My son of the Ye family, I have lived outside for 19 years. The Ye family only came to me a year ago. Before that, I had been married and joined a family in Wrestvel. My son-in-law is here."

"what?!"

Su Ruoli felt that his three views were completely subverted by Marven again.

"I heard about the disappearance of Ye Changying's son in Orgeyon."

"However, I can't even imagine that the dragon and phoenix among people like Marven would actually be the son-in-law in Wrestvel!"

"Let's not say that he is the descendant of the Ye family, the only son of the famous Ye Changying, but his outstanding attainments in martial arts are enough to attract all martial arts people!"

"Don't look at those martial arts masters, who are usually respected by major families. If Marven, a top master with great magical powers, is willing to start a sect, countless martial arts masters will definitely squeeze their heads to worship under his door, wholeheartedly serving him. ..."

"So, as long as he wants to, he can become a respected object anytime..."

"Why would such a man who can endure the sky be willing to be a door-to-door son-in-law in Wrestvel?!"

Chapter 2259

Just when Su Ruoli was so excited about the good fortune that Marven sent her to, and was surprised by Marven's identity as a son-in-law, Marven said indifferently, "If you have any needs, directly talk to Zak Chen. , He will help you implement it, so I will leave first."

Su Ruoli said quickly, "Master Ye, I will see you off!"

Su Ruoli sent Marven to the door of the room, and Marven said in a convenient way: "Stay."

Su Ruoli nodded respectfully, bowed deeply, and said gratefully, "Master Ye, thank you!"

Marven smiled slightly: "Don't worry about it."

Having said that, he immediately left.

Seeing Marven's back figure out of his administrative district, Su Ruoli felt a moment of loss in his heart.

Closing the door, she murmured involuntarily: "Marven really has great magical powers. My mother and grandpa have taken me to practice hard for so many years, and they have never given me such good luck. Even grandpa himself has not been able to Ren Mai has achieved great success, but all of this seems to be effortless in front of Young Master Ye. If it were not for the help of Young Master Ye, I would not have reached such a realm in my life..."

Thinking of this, Su Ruoli's eyes were already full of tears.

The He family are all martial idiots.

His greatest pursuit is martial arts in his life.

Su Ruoli's grandfather's greatest wish is to one day open up the four meridians and restore the glory of the He family.

It's a pity that he is now in his old age, and he still can't find a way to break through. Over the years, as he grows older, his strength has been somewhat uncontrollable decline, and there is no hope for a breakthrough.

Originally, Su Ruoli's mother, He Yingxiu, was the most promising descendant of the He family. At a young age, she was infinitely close to breaking through the third meridian.

At that time, her grandfather determined that He Yingxiu would surely achieve a breakthrough within five years, becoming the first person in the He family to break through the three meridians before the age of thirty in nearly a hundred years.

But it is a pity that at the most critical stage, she was seriously injured to save Zynn Su. The most serious thing is that she broke an arm for Zynn Su.

In martial arts novels, there are often one-armed heroes, such as the one-armed god Ni, Princess Changping, and the magical eagle hero Yang Guo.

But after all, they are all martial arts works, and they cannot be true.

The real masters of the inner family do not have the ability to fly over the wall and beat the bull in the air.

No matter how the inner strength of the inner masters is trained, the real transformation into the lethality against the enemy depends on the limbs.

One of the limbs is missing, and the strength is directly lost by a quarter.

This still does not consider coordination.

In fact, if a person loses one arm, the ability of the other arm will be greatly compromised due to lack of coordination.

Therefore, even though He Yingxiu is a martial arts genius, her talent can never make up for her body's shortcomings, so her strength has no room for improvement over the years.

It can be said that the revitalization hope of the entire He family rests on Su Ruoli.

Although her surname was Su, the He family never regarded her as an outsider.

She is of the He family's flesh and blood, grew up in the He family, and practiced the He family's Xingyi Quan, so she is the son of the He family.

When He Yingxiu gave birth to Su Ruoli in October, Patriarch Luther's first thought was that the child was born with the surname He.

Anyway, she is the illegitimate daughter of Zynn Su, and the He family is not going to let Zynn Su know about this. Naturally, it is reasonable and natural to let her surname.

However, He Yingxiu insisted that her surname be Su.

The reason is that He Yingxiu's feelings towards Zynn Su in his heart.

She felt that even if she quietly gave birth to Zynn Su's child, she was not going to tell Zynn Su, but out of respect for Zynn Su, she still wanted the child to follow his surname Su.

He Yingxiu's father, Luther, couldn't help but compromise her.

However, Luther also made a request that Su Ruoli could not have the surname He, but if she gave birth to a boy in the future, she must have a surname He.

Chapter 2260

He Yingxiu agreed. She felt that in the future, Su Ruo must be asked to recruit her. After all, He's family is not a waiting generation, and it is not difficult to recruit a son-in-law.

From these things, it can be seen that the He Family attaches great importance to Su Ruoli. It is not difficult to explain why Su Ruoli also desires to allow the He Family to re-emerge in the martial arts.

Especially this time the Su family fell into trouble, and Su Ruoli lost all confidence and affection for the Su family.

She had already made a plan in her heart. When the turmoil of this incident passed and when she could return to the He family, she would immediately change her surname to He and try her best to help the lintel of the He family!

At the same time, she also intends to persuade Grandpa to let the whole He family be loyal to Marven, not only to repay this great favor, but also to have a better good fortune in the future.

At this moment.

Marven left the hotel administrative area, and Zak Chen was waiting at the door.

Seeing Marven coming, he hurried forward and said respectfully, "Master, how are you talking to Miss Su?"

Marven said calmly: “The talk was pretty good. She will stay in the hotel for this period of time. You will help me take care of her and other people, but it’s the point I said before. Don’t let them communicate with the outside world, only allow them Watch TV and answer calls from service staff.”

Zak Chen nodded hurriedly and said, “Master, don’t worry, I will arrange it.”

With that said, he hurriedly handed a rectangular packing box to Marven and said, “Master, this is the new phone you asked me to buy.”

Before Marven entered Su Ruo and left the room, he had instructed Zak Chen to arrange someone to buy a new mobile phone, so Zak Chen asked someone to buy the latest top-matched iPhone.

The reason why Marven asked Zak Chen to arrange someone to buy a mobile phone was mainly because he wanted to go to the Pearl River Lijing where Theresa worked and give her this mobile phone when he returned.

Then, transfer some money to her WeChat or Alipay to make her life less embarrassing for some time in the future.

This is his consistent principle of being a man. People respect me and I respect others.

Theresa looked down on him for so many years, so Marven didn’t have any softness or tenderness to her before.

But now that he has sincerely admitted his mistake and called him his brother-in-law sincerely, he naturally has to express himself.

If you respect me and obey me, I will let you benefit from it. This is the key quality of becoming a master.

And those who you respect me, obey me, and I am not willing to benefit you, are basically difficult to achieve true success.

Some bosses, even if they have thousands of possessions, can hardly escape a word.

Even if his relatives, friends and subordinates treat him respectfully and work hard for him, he is still reluctant to give each other the benefits he deserves.

There are also some bosses who like to do things like hiding all the birds, crossing the river and demolishing bridges.

Such a person will sooner or later lose the support of everyone, lose the help of his confidant, and become a lonely person.

Once deficient in morals and helpless, naturally there is no chance to become a master.

Those well-known entrepreneurs who have really grown bigger, without exception, all follow the law of “successful to me,” and one person gains the Tao and rises to heaven.

Only in this way can we gain the support of others and make our own career bigger and bigger.

This is the essence of the four words “those who follow me prosper”.

At this time, Marven got the phone and said to Zak Chen, “Okay, Lao Chen, I’m leaving.”

Zak Chen blurted out, “Master, I will take you down!”

Marven said lightly: “No, you go and do your job, don’t worry about me.”

Zak Chen hurriedly smiled and said, “I just want to go down, so I’m on the way.”

Marven nodded, did not say more...
