

The Amazing Son In-Law Chapter 2271-2280

Chapter 2271

It was the first time Liu Zonghui met someone like Marven.

He doesn't fight, doesn't swear, and he has a smile on his face. He looks more civilized than anyone, but a mouth is to eat human bones.

Fifteen and five million? How can he get so much money?

Regardless of whether he has opened a ceremonial company, he always buys the best for prostitution, and he does not make less money, but for people like him, the more money he makes, the more he spends.

Originally, these people who have been in the gray world all have a natural instinct to have wine and to be drunk, and to have money and not spend more time.

Therefore, although Liu Zonghui usually makes a lot of money, he does spend a lot of money outside.

He can make at least a few million in a year, but he can't hold back his spending money and extravagance, so he will have at most 1.8 million in his hands at the end of the year.

All of Liu Zonghui's savings totaled only three or four million yuan. At this time, Marven asked him to return 15.5 million yuan as soon as he opened his mouth. He couldn't get so much money even if he sold his kidneys.

So he cried and pleaded, "Master Ye, let me tell you the truth, I really don't have so much money..."

As soon as Ma Zhongliang heard this, he kicked him up and scolded, "Fuck! Don't you want to face? Master Ye gave you a solution to the problem, and you are still crying here? Do I have to take you? Are you satisfied with death?"

Liu Zonghui trembled: "No... Brother Zhongliang, I really don't cry poor, I really can't afford that much money..."

Ma Zhongliang scolded, "Can't you pay? If you don't pay, I will scrap your legs!"

Liu Zonghui trembled in fright, then glared at Chen Xiaofei, and cursed angrily: "It's all to blame for you, a bitch, who keeps out and makes trouble for Lao Tzu all day long!"

After that, he said to Marven again: "Master Ye, the matters of the Overlord Clause are handled by this Chen Xiaofei alone. You have to find her to settle the accounts!"

When Chen Xiaofei heard this, her whole body was frightened, and she hurriedly said, "Liu Zonghui! You are too shameless? These things are all your ideas. I am just a subordinate who runs errands for you and helps you out. You Give it to me at this moment, do you still have a conscience?"

After speaking, she hurriedly said to Marvin: “Mr. Ye, this Shangmei etiquette company was built by Liu Zonghui. I used to be a lady who accompanied me in KTV. He accepted me as a lover and said that he would take me to make money. That’s why I was tricked into this business. Strictly speaking, I, like Theresa, are victims!”

“Fuck your mother!” Liu Zonghui blurted out, “Chen Xiaofei, you don’t pretend to be white lotus flowers here, what the hell are you, who doesn’t know on Wrestvel Road?”

“Don’t you fucking sell it?!”

“It doesn’t matter if you sell it out. When you see your mother Sang making money, you want to stand on your own. You jumped out and wanted to dig the corner of the previous mother Sang. You committed a big taboo!”

“People threatened to destroy your face with sulfuric acid and drive you to desperation. Then you ran over and begged me to protect you and beg me to take you out of that circle!”

“If it weren’t for me, you would have been disfigured long ago! You even ran out to bite me back then, do you have a conscience?”

Chen Xiaofei said in a flustered manner: “You... don’t talk nonsense, these are all made up by you!”

Marven shouted coldly at this time: “Shut up all of you!”

Chen Xiaofei shrank her neck in fright, and immediately closed her mouth with interest.

Marven glared at her, and said coldly, “Miss Chen, it doesn’t make any sense to throw it away in a hurry. When I and Liu finally settled the accounts, I will naturally give you a clear calculation.”

Chen Xiaofei hurriedly knelt down in fright, and begged: “Mr. Ye, I...I was really forced...please see that I am a woman. Don’t be like me. ...’

Chapter 2272

Ma Zhongliang, who was on the side, heard this and walked forward, slapped her face severely.

Before Chen Xiaofei recovered from the beating, he pulled Chen Xiaofei by the hair, dragged her to Liu Zonghui, kicked her down next to Liu Zonghui, and said coldly, “You the fuck I am quite capable, and dare to play moral kidnapping with Master Ye? Master Ye is a real dragon on earth. Under normal circumstances, he does not beat women, but I am not so particular about Ma Zhongliang! No matter how damn it is, I will ruin you now. Rong!”

Chen Xiaofei was so scared that she didn’t dare to speak any more.

She really wanted to play a moral kidnapping for Marvin, first to highlight the point that she was a female class, so that Marvin could not do anything to herself.

But she didn’t expect that Marvin really didn’t do anything to herself, but Ma Zhongliang didn’t take it at all...

At this time, Ma Zhongliang looked at Marven and said respectfully: "Master Ye, how to clean up these two bastards, please give orders!"

Marven said indifferently: "First come one by one, first talk about what they owe me money."

Liu Zonghui has realized at this time that this matter is basically impossible to be good today.

If I don't hurriedly pray for Marven's forgiveness, I still don't know how much he will suffer.

So he hurriedly said respectfully: "Master Ye, I have a total of more than 3.7 million deposits, and I will give you all. I only ask you to raise your hands and forgive me this time..."

Chen Xiaofei on the side also hurriedly said: "Mr. Ye, I...I also have a deposit of more than 700,000 yuan, and I am willing to pay you all, please let me go..."

Marven waved his hand: "You two add up to less than five million. This difference is a bit far? You see, this moment has delayed you for several minutes, and the benefits will soon exceed 20 million, so I advise you to pay all the money as soon as possible, otherwise the interest has been running here, and for you, the pressure to pay the money will definitely increase."

As soon as Liu Zonghui heard this, he immediately cried and said, "Master Ye...I really don't have that much money... You just stripped me alive, and I can't get 2000. If you come out, please raise your hands high..."

Chen Xiaofei also cried and said, "Yeah, Mr. Ye, I really don't have that much money...More than 700,000 yuan is all my belongings..."

Marven smiled and said, "When you cheated those girls, they must have begged you to raise your hands high? Did you raise them?"

The two dared not speak anymore.

In the past, when they pit little girls, they didn't care about each other's life or death.

If you don't have money, you will be honest.

The two of them would even force the company's contracted courtesy lady to accompany the wine and sleep for money.

At that time, they never ignored anyone's plea.

Seeing that they both stopped talking, Marven sneered, and said, "Since the money you owe me has exceeded 20 million, which is far beyond your actual repayment ability, you will have to give it to you in other ways. I'll find it back!"

Liu Zonghui tremblingly asked: "Ye...Master Ye, how do you want us to find a supplement..."

Marven sneered: "People say that you spend money to eliminate disasters. Since you can't pay, you have to suffer a little bit!"

Ma Zhongliang on the side suddenly felt that he had reached Marven's spot in an instant!

In the past, when Marven dealt with Liu Guang, Liu Ming, father and son, and several masters in the Wu family, what Marven liked most was to engrave on each other's forehead!

So he immediately said to Marven, "Master Ye! Just say, what words do you want to engrave on their foreheads, I have a knife!"

Chapter 2273

As soon as Liu Zonghui and Chen Xiaofei heard that Marven likes to engrave on people's foreheads, they immediately thought of Liu Guang and Liu Ming, the father and son who everyone in Wrester knew about!

The father and son were a sensation in the city and even the whole country.

First, Liu Ming was engraved with the words "poor hang" on his forehead because he offended a mysterious big man.

Then Liu Guang, Liu Ming's old son, wanted to avenge Liu Ming, but he also offended the mysterious big man, so the four characters of the father of the poor were carved on his forehead.

This is not over yet.

What really made the father and son famous all over the country was actually the cross talk about the Wu family they said together.

The cross talk they said by the father and son completely offended the Wu family. There are rumors. In fact, they did not dare to offend the Wu family at all. The reason why they recorded such a cross talk was completely coerced.

It was not clear to everyone before that he was threatened by someone who dared to offend the Wu family. Now, Liu Zonghui figured it out. It turned out that it was Master Ye that both Liu Guang and Liu Ming had offended.

Now, Liu Guang and Liu Ming's fate, I am afraid it will be his turn.

As soon as he thought of this, Liu Zonghui felt an inexplicable pain in his forehead.

It was as if someone had carved words on his forehead with a knife.

Just when he was at a loss, Marven on the side said to Ma Zhongliang: "Forget the lettering. The mistakes these two people made were not to look down on people, but to deceive and dominate the market and force the good to be a prostitute. For such a person, he must be changed. solution."

Ma Zhongliang hurriedly and respectfully asked, "Master Ye, how do you want to solve these two people? As long as you say something, I will make arrangements!"

Marven nodded and asked him, "Do you have a KTV nightclub or other place under your hand?"

Ma Zhongliang blurted out without hesitation: "Master Ye, this is what we have eaten! There are six KTV nightclubs, Orvel Hong assigned to me!"

Marven said: "Okay, let this Chen Xiaofei go to the bar to accompany her. Doesn't she like to force the little girl to accompany the wine at night? Just now I have to force my sister-in-law to accompany the wine, so let her try it herself. With this kind of taste, don't give her a penny of the money she earns, when will she save up to five million, and when will she be free!"

As soon as Chen Xiaofei heard this, she was so frightened that she collapsed instantly. She knelt on the ground and cried and said, "Mr. Ye, please forgive me this time for the sake of my confusion. Kind of beauty, going to a KTV to accompany a drink can make at most three or four hundred yuan, five million yuan...How long do I have to earn to be a head..."

Marven said coldly: "Why? You knew you were uncomfortable when you were on your own. Then when you forced others to accompany you, why didn't you think about the feelings of others? I will let you know what is meant by Do unto others, do not impose on others!"

Chen Xiaofei cried and said, "Mr. Ye...I did do a lot of wrong things before, but...but I have some restraint. Generally speaking, I'm a fool at best. Hundreds of thousands, how can you pit me five million so much..."

Marven said calmly: "If you think 5 million is too much, then we can adjust it to 10 million. If you think 10 million is too much, then we can adjust to 20 million."

Chen Xiaofei almost collapsed when he heard this...

She cried with blood in her heart: "This Marven, the method is too ruthless!"

Chapter 2274

"One opening is five million. If he really does what he said, I will at least accompany 10 years of wine in KTV for nothing!"

"Isn't this killing me?!"

Seeing Chen Xiaofei not speaking, Marven said coldly, "Since you don't agree, then I will directly increase the price for you. I will increase the price to 10 million at the beginning. At that time, Ma Zhongliang and Hong Wu will stare at you together, without earning enough 1,000. Wan, even if you are the king of heaven, I don't want to save you! I will give you three seconds to think about it!"

After all, Marven started the countdown directly.

"three two....."

Just when Marven was about to count to "one", Chen Xiaofei no longer dared to bargain. She cried and said, "Mr. Ye, I promise, I promise..."

After that, when thinking of her own destiny, she was about to cry in despair like those girls who were forced to KTV by herself.

At this time, Marven looked at Liu Zonghui, smiled indifferently, and said, "Mr. Liu, Mr. Chen has already made arrangements here, and it's time for you to arrange a way out."

Liu Zonghui thought desperately in his heart: "This Chen Xiaofei is so miserable. I'm sure there is no good fruit for me. If I don't think of a solution, wouldn't it be all in my life?"

Thinking of this, he squatted his head desperately and begged: "Master Ye, in the future, I am willing to saddle you and be a cow and a horse. I only ask you to forgive me this time...please... .."

Marven waved his hand: "Don't tell me it's useless. When you two were embarrassed and raped innocent women, why didn't you think of forgiving them once?"

Speaking of this, Marven sneered: "Since Chen Xiaofei will go to KTV to accompany him, then you should go to KTV to be the turtle father. Just like her, when will you earn five million, and when will you be free? , The two of you can be regarded as double-staying and double-flying, and no one has abandoned anyone."

"Being a tortoise?!" Liu Zonghui's face turned pale when he heard this word.

Gui Gong was a man who did groceries in a brothel in ancient times. To put it bluntly, he couldn't even count as the security guard of the nursing home.

Generally speaking, the dirtiest, tiring, and most indiscriminate work done by Mr. Tortoise is the role of handing toilet paper to the guests who wash their hands at the door of the toilet in the modern KTV. It can be said that it is in the entire KTV. , Not even the guard dog...

Thinking of this, Liu Zonghui burst into tears, and choked up: "Master Ye, leave me by your side as a dog. No matter what you order in the future, I won't have any delay. Please don't send me to a KTV to go to Guido...I also spend some time on the road, and I know some people on Wrestvel Road, and KTV is the most frequented by Taoists. Place, if you see me there, my old face can't hold back..."

Marven smiled and said, "What are you afraid of? When you become a tortoise in the future, you will put a small tray next to the KTV sink with a few banknotes in it, and then when you hand over tissues to the guests, ask the guests to spend, aren't you? Have you ever been mixed up on the road? There are many acquaintances and many friends. Everyone will take care of your business and give you more tips when you see you become a tortoise. Maybe you can make five million faster than Chen Xiaofei."

"I...I..." Liu Zonghui just wanted to hit his head to death on the concrete floor.

He cried desperately in his heart: "Think of me, Liu Zonghui. On Wrestvel Road, he is the number one person in size and size. Although he is not comparable to Ma Zhongliang, he is at least in the upper-middle hexagram!"

“Now, let me be the No. 1 person in KTV to be the tortoise. Wouldn’t it be the laughingstock of the entire Wrestvel Road?!”

“Besides, when I used to be arrogant and domineering, I didn’t have fewer enemies!”

“If I ran into this in KTV in the future, they found me nodding and bowing at the door of the toilet and handing tissues to the guests, wouldn’t I be beaten as a dead dog?!”

Chapter 2275

Seeing Liu Zonghui’s silence for a long time, Ma Zhongliang stepped forward and kicked him angrily. He cursed, “Grass! You are a dog who doesn’t know how to lift up. Master Ye will give you a way to survive. You fucking don’t hurry up and kowtow.” Thanks? Really wait until you are sent to the Zak Chen kennel to feed the dogs, you fucking cried without tears!”

When Liu Zonghui heard this, he shivered in shock!

Who doesn’t know about Orvel Hong’s dog farm?

It is said that there are dozens or even hundreds of fierce purebred fighting dogs.

Others say that Hong Wu has thrown his enemies into the kennel to feed the dogs.

If this is really sent to a kennel, let alone alive, even a whole body will not be mixed...

Thinking of this, Liu Zonghui was desperate deep in his heart.

To be honest, let him be the tortoise, to some extent, it would be better to kill him.

But, if you really want to say let him die, he doesn’t have the courage.

He choked in his heart and sighed, “Even though it is shameful to be the tortoise, his life is bleak, but it is better to die than to live...”

“I really want to hit me to death here, and I feel so terrified in my heart...”

“Moreover, Master Ye in front of me is not something I can contend with...”

“Even Orvel Hong treats him respectfully. I am a kind of thing, in front of him, he can only be regarded as a broken fish and shrimp. Now he is willing to spare my life and let me go to KTV to be the turtle father. On the one hand, if I don’t respond quickly, if he changes his mind, then I really have to regret it...”

Therefore, Liu Zonghui quickly choked with gratitude and said, “Master Ye...Thank you for not killing...I, Liu Zonghui, must follow your instructions and go to the KTV to be an honest turtle. Work hard to make money and repay your interest...”

After that, he hurriedly said: “By the way, Master Ye, give me an account. I will first transfer all the three million dollars I have to you... The remaining five million, I will be After getting on the turtle, I will slowly return it to you...”

Seeing that this guy accepted his punishment, Marven nodded in satisfaction and said coldly, "The money you make is all the hard-earned money pitted from those little girls. It is earned without conscience. If I take your money, it means that I have also become part of that group of girls who harmed me."

Liu Zonghui was overjoyed when he heard that Marven didn't want to take his own money.

It doesn't matter if you are a tortoise, as long as you can save more than three million deposits, you can at least live a well-off life!

But before he was happy, Marven said to Theresa, "Theresa, I have a task for you."

Theresa has been by the side, watching Marven move her mouth to determine the future fate of Liu Zonghui and Chen Xiaofei, the worship of him in her heart has reached a point where there is nothing to add, and the look in his eyes is like seeing a god.

Now that Marven said that she was going to give herself a task, she was flattered and said excitedly: "Brother-in-law, if you have anything to do with you, Theresa will definitely go all out!"

Marven nodded and said, "From today, I want you to take over the Shangmei etiquette company. You will be responsible for this company in the future. As for the company's shares, let Liu Zonghui transfer all of it to your name today. "

"Ah?!" Theresa said in surprise: "Sister...brother-in-law...you let me accept Shangmei? But...but I don't know how to run a company... .."

Chapter 2276

Marven said earnestly: "As long as you are serious, responsible, and at the same time worthy of your conscience, it doesn't matter if you don't do well."

After speaking, he said again: "I will let them both transfer all their deposits to Shangmei's account. As for how to use the money, after you take over the company, you must sign all the company's money. The overlord clauses are found, and the unequal clauses on each girl are unconditionally lifted, and then the money is distributed to them as compensation according to the number of years they are forced to sign the contract. The distribution rules must be fair and reasonable!"

When Theresa heard this, she almost nodded her head without hesitation and said, "Good brother-in-law, I will definitely send this money to them in a fair and reasonable manner!"

"Very good." Marven nodded with satisfaction: "After you compensate them for the money, you should make it clear to them that the company is next to you, and that the company's subsequent operations, sharing, payment and other processes are clear. All will be open and transparent. If they are still willing to continue to be courtesy ladies, then continue to cooperate with the company and sign equal employment contracts! As long as you implement these points well, I believe they will not refuse."

"In this way, after you take over this company, you will have a stable team, and then take some etiquette work, I believe the company will definitely be profitable."

Theresa heard this and said very seriously: “Brother-in-law, you are right. As long as you sign an equality agreement with everyone, everyone will be very willing to sign with the company!”

Speaking of this, she continued with some empathy: “After all, it’s really hard to be a hostess by yourself. Every morning you have to spend a long time washing, making up, and dressing, and then an event is often from morning to night, so , It’s impossible to talk about cooperation and expand relationships at other times during the daily activities...”

“For those of us who are courtesy ladies, the best way to cooperate is to have a reliable company to help us undertake activities everywhere, and then make reasonable arrangements, scheduling and coordination for us.”

“In this way, everyone is also willing to let the company take a draw from their own labor remuneration. Employees and the company cooperate with each other and get what they need, so that they can do better and better.”

During this time, Theresa had a hard life.

The hard work is because she has changed from a lady who never touched the sun with her fingers and never came out to do things to make money, to a laborer who rushed around every day to make a living.

It is precisely because of her actual participation in labor that she can learn about an industry and discover problems in an industry down-to-earth.

After she worked as a lady of etiquette for a while, she also figured out the ups and downs of the lady of etiquette.

At this moment, she thought to herself: “The little girls who are like me being a lady of etiquette, all of them have no background and helpless bottom. They earn their rewards by hard work every day. Since everyone has chosen this line, They are all prepared to endure hardships and suffer fatigue, so they are not afraid of hardships or tiredness...”

“But what we are afraid of is meeting an unreliable company...”

“Like Liu Zonghui’s Shangmei etiquette company, the work arranged for everyone is very heavy, but the compensation is very small...”

“It’s enough to give very little. Liu Zonghui and Chen Xiaofei are still not satisfied. They want to further squeeze the surplus value of our little girls, so they use various overlord clauses and contract traps to cheat us, and even force us to make money. Push into the fire pit...”

“If we can find a reliable company, the company and its employees will support each other, even if they are a little bit tired, everyone will have no complaints...”

“It’s a pity that the group of Miss Etiquette is indeed too weak and too easy to be bullied! So most of the bosses in this industry, like Liu Zonghui, are not greedy enough, and do everything possible to exploit us little girls who have no background.”

“So, as long as we are still in this industry, we can only jump from this pit and into that pit.”

“But now my brother-in-law gave me a chance to run an etiquette company. If I do it hard and work hard, let alone how much money I can make, at least, I can ensure that the girls who work with me will not be The company is bullied, and no longer is desperately squeezed out of surplus value by the company...”

Thinking of this, Theresa’s heart began to feel a little passionate.

She looked at Marven with admiration and determination, and said confidently: “Brother-in-law, thank you for giving me this opportunity. I will definitely go all out and try not to let you down!”

Chapter 2277

Marven has known Theresa for so long, and for the first time today, it is the first time to see this expression on Theresa’s face that he is determined to do a good job.

She didn’t really have this kind of energy before.

In the past, she was young, impetuous, ostentatious, and disliked the poor and loved the rich.

But now she, after experiencing some hardships in life, has a lot of calmness.

This point made Marven a little relieved.

The Xiao family is certainly hateful, but these people are all blood relatives of his wife Avella .

Therefore, this is also the real reason why Marven has not engaged them to death.

Otherwise, with the patience of the Xiao family, I don’t know how many deaths have been made.

Now that Theresa has the determination to correct evil, then might as well give her a chance.

However, given the opportunity, she can’t completely let her decide the company alone.

So Marven said to Theresa: “After you take over the Shangmei etiquette company, remember to remember your original aspirations, and don’t just let the company make a little money and leave you alone.”

Theresa nodded repeatedly, and said firmly: “Brother-in-law, don’t worry, I will definitely remember your enlightenment and teachings...”

Marven gave a hum, and continued: “After Liu Zonghui and Chen Xiaofei’s money is paid to the company’s account, you leave half a million in the account as operating capital, and you receive 10,000 yuan a month for the basic company, and then find An accountant manages the accounts. Every month, I will let someone check the accounts to see if you use public funds for private purposes.”

Theresa said without hesitation: "Brother-in-law, I will never do any small actions. You can supervise me all the time. If you find that my mind is wrong, please chase me away at any time!"

Marven nodded and said, "In addition, if you buy three domestically-made commercial vehicles for the company, you can buy a 10-seater or 13-seater domestic car. The price-effectiveness ratio is high. The new price should be only 100,000 yuan. Left and right, and then hire three drivers to take the girls out for running activities, so that no matter whether it is windy, rainy or severely cold or hot, the girls will be less guilty. Since you came from this step, you should be more compassionate. Their hard work."

Theresa's moved tears became a thread.

Although she has been a talented lady of etiquette for a short time, she has tasted enough of her hard work.

Real estates in some suburbs are far away and inconvenient for public transportation. It may take more than an hour to go back and forth to go back and forth, but the taxi is too expensive, and the income from participating in the activity may not be enough for the taxi fare.

In addition, the weather is very cold now, and it's very late at dawn, so she sometimes has to go out after five o'clock, only she knows how hard it is.

If the company can equip everyone with a car and drive them to take everyone to the event, it will be a very practical and good benefit for every lady of etiquette.

Therefore, Marven's ability to take this into consideration really moved her heart.

Liu Zonghui on the side listened to Marven's simple words with his own ears, and handed over his company to others, and he collapsed deep in his heart.

Although he was full of resentment, he didn't even dare to let go of a fart at this time.

He now wants to understand it. The next thing he needs to do is to transfer all the money to the company, then hand over the company to others, and then go to KTV to be the turtle father with a breeze.

Chapter 2278

If the tortoise is ready, he still has a chance to regain his freedom soon.

Otherwise, you might really have to work in KTV for a lifetime.

You can't be in your 60s or 70s, with gray hair, still handing out toilet paper to male customers at the toilet door? That's too damn bad.

At this time, Ma Zhongliang on the side saw Liu Zonghui's face with a dead father's depression, and felt a little sympathetic in his heart.

Thinking of this, he sighed in his heart: "Although Liu Zonghui almost caused me a catastrophe today, at any rate, he is still a friend of mine. He has always treated me with respect and respect, and even arranged for my favorite girl. I still owe him a favor..."

"And just now, in order to protect myself, I immediately beat him up and threatened to abolish him. Thinking about it now, in my heart, it's true that the damn is a bit sad. If this is spread outside, outside People in Wiki would also say that Ma Zhongliang is not kind, and if something happens, he will betray his friends..."

"Furthermore, Master Ye's whole person is really too bad. Let Liu Zonghui go to KTV to be the tortoise. This is equivalent to letting a company leader with an annual salary of one million go to clean the toilet. Everyone on the road loves face. Who is this kind of thing? I can bear it..."

At this point, Ma Zhongliang took advantage of Marven's talking to Theresa at this time, so he approached Liu Zonghui and said in a low voice, "Hey, Zong Hui, don't feel too depressed in your heart. You can have this ending today. High fragrance..."

When Liu Zonghui heard this, tears flowed down. He stiffened the urge to cry and asked in a choked voice, "Brother Zhongliang...I've been here for the fuck, or am I burning incense?" "

Ma Zhongliang nodded earnestly and said, "Don't say you are a small boss who behaves badly all day long and forced his good for prostitution. Before, there was a boss whose company was valued at more than one billion yuan and was about to be listed on the GEM. No one has ever done your job. This kind of conscientious business is because I was blinded and pretended to be forced by Master Ye, and now he fucks carrying cement at the construction site! Master Ye can say, when will it be carried for 20 years, and when will it be finished! You Tell me who is worse than him?"

Liu Zonghui was taken aback.

Ma Zhongliang continued, "So, just think about it, is it because the tortoise is light in KTV for ten years, or is it going to the construction site to carry cement for twenty years?"

"Sleeping day..."

As soon as Liu Zonghui heard this, he quickly wiped away his tears, and choked up, "If you say this, you should be more comfortable as a turtle..."

"Still!" Ma Zhongliang sighed, "So let me say, you are good! It doesn't matter if the money is gone, there is still life, arms and legs, there are so many people who have offended Master Ye before. There are really few people who can end up like you, just that's not enough? What bike do you want?"

Liu Zonghui nodded like garlic: "Brother Zhongliang, you are right...I...I...hey...I admit..."

Ma Zhongliang nodded lightly and continued, "Well, it's your concubine to blame. Damn, it's not good for her to offend Master Ye. Isn't it going to die?"

Liu Zonghui gritted his teeth and nodded.

When it comes to Chen Xiaofei, he really hates it!

So she gritted her teeth and cursed in her heart: “Chen Xiaofei of the dog day, you are more than defeated if you do not succeed! I knew you would cause such a disaster for Lao Tzu. I would rather not sleep with you and send you to KTV to accompany you! , Lao Tzu will not suffer this catastrophe today...”

“Hey, it’s a pity that there is no such thing as “knowing before” in everything. After all, there is no turning back in life.

Thinking of this, he looked at Ma Zhongliang and pleaded with tears: “Brother Zhongliang, in the future, my brother will be doing a job with you in your place. You must cover me a little bit...”

Ma Zhongliang turned his back to Marven, quietly patted his chest, and said seriously, “Zong Hui, don’t worry, brother will take care of you quietly!”

Chapter 2279

Ma Zhongliang knew very well in his heart that Marven was punishing Liu Zonghui to be the turtle master in KTV. If he helped and followed him upright, it would be equivalent to opposing Marven.

He must have no such guts.

Therefore, the solution he can think of is to take care of Liu Zonghui a little bit quietly and appropriately in the future, and it can only be a little bit.

For example, if you go to the bathroom at a KTV and meet him handing a tissue at the door, don’t give five dollars if you can give ten dollars, don’t give ten dollars if you give twenty dollars.

Even if it is above fifty, if Marven feels that he is obviously generating income for Liu Zonghui, he might find himself in trouble again.

After Marven and Theresa set the direction for the operation of the etiquette company, he said to Ma Zhongliang: “Little Ma, you take Theresa and Liu Zonghui to handle the company transfer in the afternoon, and stare at Liu Zonghui and Chen Xiaofei to transfer the money to the company account. .”

Ma Zhongliang quickly nodded and bowed and said, “Master Ye, don’t worry, it’s all over to me!”

Marven nodded, looked at Ma Zhongliang, and said coldly, “I won’t settle accounts with you for today’s affairs. In the future, you should be alert to yourself. Don’t think that you are number one in Wrestrvel and help others regardless of cause and effect. Fight, kill, and let me know that you dare to do this kind of help and abuse, I will let you go to be the tortoise with Liu Zonghui, do you understand?”

Ma Zhongliang trembled in fright, and blurted out, “Master Ye, don’t worry, if I do this kind of thing again, I will meet you!”

Marven snorted coldly: “Being in the underground world, you have to do your duty. Bars, KTVs, and nightclubs are too many serious ways to make money. Don’t bully the market, bully men and women, otherwise, I will teach Hong Wu together! “

Ma Zhongliang hurriedly bowed and said, "Master Ye, your lesson is that you must keep in mind next..."

Marven ignored him, turned around and said to Theresa, "Theresa, just do what I ask, take over the company, do things, and behave well. Don't let me down!"

Theresa choked with tears: "Good brother-in-law...I will definitely go all out..."

Marven nodded: "Okay, do it well, I will find you to find out the situation in a few days, and I will leave first."

Theresa said gratefully, "Brother-in-law, go slowly..."

Ma Zhongliang hurried to the side and bowed and said, "Master Ye, go slowly!"

Marven was ready to leave. Thinking of something, he took out his cloth bag for grocery shopping from the basket of the electric car, and then took out a brand new unopened iPhone from the cloth bag.

He handed the mobile phone to Theresa and said, "The mobile phone is for you. In modern society, people in modern society cannot do many things without a mobile phone, and you are about to be the boss of the company, and you need a mobile phone. Contact the business and communicate with the team."

Theresa never dreamed that Marven even bought herself a mobile phone, which really moved her to the extreme.

"Marven gave me money to ride in the car in the morning, and saw me being bullied just now and helped me. They all happened to help me by chance..."

"But this phone is not easy!"

"He knew that I didn't have a mobile phone, so he wanted to give me a mobile phone, so he bought it! It was bought specifically for me!"

At this moment, Theresa was moved with nothing to add.

Chapter 2280

She looked at Marven, and she felt like Rukun was in her throat. She wanted to talk, but couldn't say anything.

Marven was completely stunned when she saw her, so he didn't tell her any more, he just put the phone into her hand, and said to Ma Zhongliang, "Little Ma, if you need to use a lady of etiquette for your friends and partners in the future, , Remember to take care of Theresa's business, do you understand?"

Without saying anything, Ma Zhongliang immediately said boldly: "Master Ye, don't worry, after Miss Theresa opens, I will help her publicize it! I think Ma Zhongliang is somewhat thin on Wrestvel Road, and my friends must also I will give you this face and ensure that Ms. Theresa's etiquette company will be too busy for business!"

As he said, he hurriedly said again: "By the way, Master Ye, tomorrow is the anniversary celebration of the opening of several KTVs under my umbrella. I just happen to invite a group of etiquette ladies, and then I will ask Miss Theresa to help!"

Marven asked him with interest: "Oh? What a coincidence? Tomorrow is the opening anniversary celebration?"

"Yes!" Ma Zhongliang smiled, "Why don't you say that Master Ye is a real dragon on earth, no matter who is okay, you will be around you in secret!"

Marven knew that he had deliberately flattered himself to please himself, but he didn't say much, and instead said to Theresa, "Theresa, you must arrange Ma Zhongliang's activities tomorrow. The first business of your new company, strive to be a good start!"

Theresa nodded hurriedly and said, "Brother-in-law, don't worry, I will arrange it!"

Marven gave a hum, and said to Ma Zhongliang: "You people on the road are rough in their work, and their overall quality is not good. Tomorrow the lady of etiquette will come over, you must take care of their mouths, hands and feet, and don't provoke any moles Miss manners, do you understand?"

Ma Zhongliang said immediately: "Master Ye, don't worry, who the hell dare to make a wrong idea with Miss Theresa's person, I fucking castrate him immediately!"

Marven nodded in satisfaction, and said to Theresa: "Oh, by the way, Theresa, I have one more thing to ask you."

Theresa hurriedly said, "Brother-in-law, tell me!"

Marven said seriously, "Don't tell anyone about this matter today, including your grandma, your parents, and your brother, including your sister Avella, do you understand?"

"Huh?" Theresa asked in surprise, "Brother-in-law, why can't you tell me? You have helped me so much. Grandma, Dad, and brother will definitely appreciate you when they know about it..."

Marven said calmly: "I don't need them to be grateful, nor do I need their flattery, and I am not helping you to make you feel me, but because you are indeed better than before and can sincerely call me brother-in-law. You respect me a foot, I respect you a foot, nothing more."

After speaking, Marven said again: "As for your grandma, your father, and Jay, I don't want to have any unnecessary involvement with them. In the beginning, it is better to have more things than less, so only you know this. I know, if you reveal to them, then I can only stop all this, understand?"

When Theresa heard this, although she felt a little disappointed, she nodded honestly and said, "Good brother-in-law, I know, don't worry, I won't talk about this to anyone..."

Marven looked at Ma Zhongliang again, and said coldly: "You are the same. You keep me tight-lipped. If anyone dares to say that Theresa is my sister-in-law, I dare to say that I brought this company from Liu Zonghui. She, I will send him to the kennel to experience the experience!"

Ma Zhongliang and the others all looked tense and hurriedly agreed.

Marven was satisfied, and said: "Okay, so be it, I'll go now."

After speaking, Marven twisted the throttle, and the little eDonkey jumped out quickly.

Seeing him leaving, Theresa was so busy shouting from behind, "Goodbye brother-in-law! Thank you brother-in-law!"
