

The Amazing Son In-Law Chapter 2301-2310

Chapter 2301

“what?!”

Su Zhiyu heard that Grandpa told herself not to look anymore, and asked incomprehensibly, “Grandpa, why?”

Du Zhenhua said vaguely: “It won’t be any good for you to keep looking, so it’s better to just forget it.”

Su Zhiyu frowned and said persistently, “Grandpa, what I am looking for is my savior and brother. He has saved our lives! So I will look for him anyway, even if I can’t find him. , I will not give up either!”

Du Zhenhua was a little anxious and said solemnly: “It’s not whether you can find him, or whether you can find him! It’s a question of your own future safety!”

Su Zhiyu asked suspiciously, “My future is safe? What does this have to do with my future?”

Du Zhenhua said seriously: “Master Lai said, you are in conflict with his fate, and his fate is much harder and higher than yours, so it’s nothing if you don’t find him. Once you find him, it’s like a moth. Fight the fire, you are the one who is injured in the end!”

Su Zhiyu immediately retorted: “Grandpa, I don’t mean anything against your old man, but I think that what Master Lai said is pure nonsense!”

As she said, she continued without hesitation: “My benefactor saved my life. If it is true that Master Lai said, I am a moth and he is a raging fire, then why instead of being burned to death by him, I was He saved it? I see Master Lai, just talking about it!”

Du Zhenhua sighed and said, “Hey! How can you change this kind of fate? It’s true that he saved you, but that was before! Master Lai counted for you, it is the future!”

Su Zhiyu retorted without hesitation: “I don’t care what will not come in the future. I only know that he saved my life. I want to find him and thank him face to face. It’s that simple. Even if I and him really die it doesn’t matter if you are in conflict, the big deal is that I will return this life to him.”

Du Zhenhua rarely reprimanded: “Knowing fish! Don’t talk nonsense here! What Master Lai said is not a joke, you must listen? Ah!”

Su Zhiyu shook his head and said firmly: “These are all pseudo-scientific feudal superstitions, I don’t listen!”

Du Haiqing said with a serious face: “Knowing fish, the gossip of the Book of Changes is the supreme wisdom of the ancestors. It is by no means a feudal superstition. Moreover, Master Lai is the most famous Feng Shui master in the world. You must have a heart of awe. Yes!”

After all, Du Haiqing also said very solemnly: "In my opinion, you don't want to keep searching anymore, stop here!"

Su Zhiyu? I was anxious, and said with red eyes, "Mom. Why do you believe in these things? You are also graduated from a prestigious university. You should believe in science!"

Du Haiqing said very seriously: "Knowing fish, how do you know that the Yijing gossip is not science?"

Su Zhiyu blurted out: "It's all a bunch of feudal superstitions. What science is there? If there is a basis, why not tell me directly where to find my benefactor? He just told me about the conflicting fate and fate. I don't want to believe in such things!"

Du Haiqing said solemnly: "The Book of Changes and Gossip are a set of philosophies that the ancients derived after years of observing, learning, summarizing, and summarizing the heavens and the earth, all things, the stars and the sea, and it can even be said to be science!"

"Have you ever thought about it, why could the Maya accurately calculate every solar eclipse in the 21st century more than 3,000 years ago?"

Chapter 2302

"What's even more powerful is that the calendar they calculated is almost exactly the same as the legislation calculated by modern science. The error is even as small as every five thousand years, only one day away. Do you think this is also feudal superstition?"

Su Zhiyu suddenly didn't know how to refute it, so she could only make a strong statement: "There is no actual basis for this kind of thing. I will definitely not believe it anyway!"

Du Haiqing sighed at this time, and said in a serious tone: "When our generation was young, we had a more objective understanding of Eastern and Western culture. We never blindly believed that the West was better or the East was better, but used Look at the problem with an objective and dialectical perspective, but with your generation of children born in the 1990s and even after the zeros, Western culture has begun to take full advantage."

"You believe in science and the Internet, but you don't believe in the essence of the ancestors for thousands of years. The set of things left by the ancestors has gradually entered the category of old feudal superstitions. This in itself is a kind of A manifestation of ignorance!"

Su Zhiyu retorted with some dissatisfaction: "According to the old ancestors, does everything have a so-called fate? Is it that what I eat today and where I go are all destined long ago?"

Du Haiqing said seriously: "You think that everything in the world has no fate, and everything is my fate. I can't help it, but have you ever thought about it, as small as a piece of gravel, as large as the entire universe, using its own set of rules to continue. The more you look at its operation, the more it's fate is unchangeable!"

Su Zhiyu immediately asked: "Mom, tell me, what is the lifespan of a gravel? It may stay in the desert, become a member of thousands of gravels, sink into the river, or be carried into the sea by the river. It is more likely to be made into a piece of glass by humans and mixed into a piece of concrete by humans. Does the fate count for each piece of gravel?"

Du Haiqing shook his head and said, "I just said that fate should be viewed from a macro perspective, and must not be considered from a micro perspective."

"If you use a microscopic perspective, you will feel that the gravel is very small and not worth mentioning, and there are so many gravel in the world, it is impossible to plan a different destiny for each gravel."

"But do you know how many sun-like stars are in the universe?"

Su Zhiyu looked blank.

Du Haiqing said earnestly: "Knowing fish, if you look at the microscopic view, the gravel is always too small to be worth mentioning, but if you look at the macroscopic view, you will find that even though the entire earth and the entire universe are just like gravel. , Not even as good as a gravel."

After all, Du Haiqing continued, "Don't you young people like to talk about science? Then I can tell you that there are about two trillion galaxies in the observable range and educated speculation range in the universe. , It's two trillion!"

"And every galaxy has at least hundreds of billions or even trillions of stars. The sun is just one of the hundreds of billions of stars in the Milky Way. In the entire galaxy, the sun is too ordinary to be ordinary. In the entire universe, The sun is not as good as a gravel on the earth."

"The stars in the universe like the sun add up more than the gravel on the earth, but you think there is too much gravel, so a small gravel is not worthy of life, then I ask you, one is more A star that is a hundred times larger than the earth is just a cosmic gravel in the universe. Is it worthy of life?"

Du Haiqing's words made Su Zhiyu as if struck by lightning, and he couldn't say a word.

She had never used such a perspective to understand the whole world. She just tried to think about the entire macro universe in her mind, and she immediately felt her insignificance and ignorance.

If the sun is just the gravel in the universe, then the earth can only be counted as a cosmic dust.

If human beings are so small that they need to live in a cosmic dust, then what are human beings?

How much of the so-called science that humans can detect in this cosmic dust can represent everything in the world?

Chapter 2303

Seeing that Su Zhiyu no longer spoke to refute, Du Haiqing sighed and said in a very serious voice: "Zhiyu, you have to know that all stars in more than two trillion galaxies have their own set. It operates regularly, not to mention the lives of billions of people?"

After all, she folded her hands together and said sincerely: "I used to go to temples to burn incense and worship Buddha. Both of you and your father thought I was a feudal superstition, but it was said in Buddhism that there is a world in one piece of sand!"

"Even if it's just a gravel, its interior is infinite!"

"In comparison, a galaxy is just a grain of sand in the universe, but it also contains another vast world."

"The Book of Changes is to tell people a truth. Everything in the universe, from the dust to the stars, has its own laws. You can't understand it, but you can't blaspheme. Do you understand?"

Su Zhiyu nodded hurriedly, and said softly and obediently: "Mom, I understand, I'm sorry, I was really too shallow before, I don't understand Yijing gossip, nor do I understand the number of fate..."

Du Haiqing smiled slightly and said, "Everything in the world has rules. As long as you find its rules, you can see its past, present and future."

"It's as if the ancients learned the laws behind the celestial phenomena, so they gradually mastered the ability to predict the weather;

"It's like astronomers now have mastered the law of execution of the sun and moon, so they can accurately predict every solar eclipse and lunar eclipse in the future, and can even calculate every solar eclipse and eclipse tens of thousands of years ago. Lunar eclipse

"The essence of the Book of Changes is to summarize the laws between the heavens and the earth and all things and human beings."

"Once you master this law, you can see one thing, one's past, present, and future."

"Since Master Lai advises you not to look again, then you should be honest and obedient and stop looking for it anymore. Both you and your brother are my life. Last time you had an accident in Japan, I almost had a heart attack. So in the future, I cannot accept that any accidents happen to you again."

Su Zhiyu asked subconsciously: "Mom...do you think Master Lai is wrong?"

As she said, she hurriedly explained: "I don't doubt Yijing gossip. I just think this kind of thing is like doing a math problem. A little mistake will result in a big deviation. Thousands of miles..."

Du Haiqing shook his head and said earnestly: "The earth revolves around the sun. It takes a year to revolve, but there is never any deviation. And the solar system revolves around the center of the entire Milky Way, and it takes 250 million years to revolve. , There will still be no deviation, this is the rigor of the law!"

"The laws of the Book of Changes are as precise as astronomy, and Master Lai is the most profound master in the study of the Book of Changes and gossip. Without one, there can be no mistakes!"

“Since he said you are moths fighting the fire, then you have to stay away from the fire honestly, the farther the better! If you are disobedient and insist on finding him, then I will let your dad send you abroad now !”

With that said, Du Haiqing said again: “Anyway, Harvard Business School will start in August, and there is still half a year left. If you are not obedient, go there soon!”

“Don’t damn!” Su Zhiyu hurriedly blurted out, “Now you let me go to the United States alone. When I got there, the school did not open, the dormitory was not open, and I was unfamiliar with the place, so it was not convenient to do anything... ..”

Du Haiqing said seriously: “There is nothing inconvenient. Your dad bought a villa near Harvard University last year. After you go there, you can live there. There are housekeepers, servants, and life assistants. It will be very convenient for you to get there. Yes, if it doesn’t work, I can accompany you.”

Su Zhiyu heard this and hurriedly begged: “Mom, I don’t want to go to the United States yet...Then I will listen to you, can you not find it?”

When he said this, Su Zhiyu was full of unwillingness in his heart...

“In my heart, naturally there are 10,000 people who are unwilling to give up looking for a savior...”

Chapter 2304

“But, my mother is so absolute now. From what I know about her, although she is usually very gentle, once she makes a decision, there is basically no room for mediation...”

“So, if I still blindly look for my benefactor, my mother will definitely send me to America as she said...”

“At that time, when I am in the United States, thousands of miles away from China, it will be even more impossible to find my benefactor...”

“So, I can only lie and hold my mother... and then secretly continue to look for my benefactor...”

Du Haiqing didn’t know what her daughter was thinking at this time. Hearing that she was indeed willing to give up searching, he was relieved.

So she looked at Su Zhifei and said seriously: “Zhifei, you are called by this name because you want you to know right from wrong and distinguish right from wrong. Your sister has the stakes in this matter. Mom told you just now. It’s very clear, so for the sake of her life, you must keep in mind that you must never find someone for her secretly. Do you understand?”

When Su Zhifei heard this, he immediately said: “Mom, don’t worry, I am a person who has always been in awe of our traditional Chinese culture. Since the master has said so, then I will definitely not help Zhiyu! “

Su Zhifei said the truth.

Now some young people, because they have accepted the impact of Western culture, they blindly criticize the traditional Chinese culture.

Among them, the worst attacked is traditional Chinese medicine.

Su Zhifei was in an angry youth, and he was somewhat biased towards Chinese medicine. He always felt that Chinese medicine lacked scientific basis and clinical experiments.

But when he was nineteen years old, he once had a low-grade fever that lasted for more than a month. In the hospital, he did all the tests that he could do, and basically tried all the antibiotics, but nothing happened. effect.

Finally, in desperation, he accompanied his family to visit a famous doctor. After the famous doctor diagnosed him, he said that he was invaded by damp evil. He gave him acupuncture on the spot, and gave him a decoction of medicine. It's all right after that.

Since then, Su Zhifei has understood that everything can always exist, there must be its truth.

Chinese medicine has been developed along with Chinese civilization for five thousand years. The wisdom contained in it has actually been denied by oneself as a kid?

Therefore, since then, he has become more awed by traditional culture.

The same goes for the gossip of the Book of Changes.

Su Zhiyu felt even more desperate when he heard this.

She knew that if her brother couldn't help herself, then she would really lose all the help. In this case, would she still have a chance to find her father?

Ever since she was rescued in Japan, she would think of Marven countless times every day, and remember all the details of her rescue.

It can be said that Marven has been deeply rooted for her.

So, even if it was really moths fighting the fire, deep down, she didn't want to stop.

At this time, Du Haiqing looked at Su Zhiyu, and said in a tone that could not be refuted: "Zhiyu, Mom wants to stay in Wrestvel for a while. During this time, you will stay with me in Wrestvel, so you don't have to go anywhere!"

Chapter 2305

Du Haiqing really wanted to live in Wrestvel for a while.

Not only because she missed Ye Changying, but also because she really liked this warm and humid riverside ancient city.

In addition, she was also thinking about the old house that Ye Changying once rented.

She wants to stay in Wrestvel, buy the house, and renovate it again.

If there is nothing special in the future, she is even willing to settle in Wrestvel.

Du Haiqing finally got married with Zynn Su because he saw his beloved man marry another woman and lost confidence and expectation in the relationship.

But after getting married, she and Zynn Su only have family affection and no love.

With the exposure of Zynn Su's betrayal of her, her affection for Zynn Su has almost disappeared.

So, but she hasn't divorced Zynn Su yet, but she has made a decision in her heart that she will no longer force herself for other people.

From this moment on, she even wanted to live according to her own ideas.

Settling in Wrestvel is the first step.

Su Zhiyu heard that her mother had let herself stay in Wrestvel, so she was naturally unwilling in her heart.

She thought to herself: "Whether it is the Su or Du family, the main sphere of influence is in Orgeyon. Only in Orgeyon can I have the opportunity to mobilize more resources to help me find my benefactor."

"However, if I stay with my mother in Wrestvel, I won't have any resources to mobilize!"

"Moreover, my mother is so strongly opposed to me looking for my benefactor, and I will be under her nose in the future, and there is no chance to find my benefactor..."

Thinking of this, Su Zhiyu was extremely depressed, so she didn't immediately respond to her mother's words.

Seeing that her expression was full of hesitation and unwillingness, Du Haiqing couldn't help but frown, and asked, "What? Seeing what you mean, I'm not going to agree?"

Su Zhiyu hurriedly said, "No, mother, I actually want to stay with you in Wrestvel, but to be honest, I'm afraid that my life in Wrestvel will be unused after a long time..."

Du Haiqing nodded and asked, "Just tell me, why are you not used to it?"

Su Zhiyu broke his fingers and said, "Look, the winter in Orgeyon is always dry, but Wrestvel is very humid..."

Du Haiqing said immediately: "It doesn't matter, then let someone install the best central dehumidification system in your room, and then we can check the weather conditions in Orgeyon in real time. What is the air humidity in Orgeyon? Make sure that the air humidity in your room is How much, if the air humidity in Orgeyon is 10%, then keep your room at 10%, which is definitely not worse than a percentage point!”

Su Zhiyu got big for a while, and hurriedly said: “Not only the air humidity, but also the living habits. I’m not too accustomed to eating here...”

Du Haiqing waved his hand and said, “It doesn’t matter, Mom will send you a chef from Orgeyon. When you are at home, don’t you like the food made by the chef at home? It just so happens that your dad is also going to Australia now, and the chef is at home. I’m still idle, I will let him come over tomorrow, oh no, let him come over today, so that you can eat familiar meals tomorrow morning.”

Su Zhiyu said awkwardly, “Um...Mom...I can stay here with you, but my brother still has to go back. You called the chef to Wrestvel, my brother. What should I do after I go back?”

Before Du Haiqing could speak, Su Zhifei immediately stated his position very resolutely: “It’s okay! I’m okay! The big deal is that I will eat out every day. Anyway, I will be a bachelor to solve the problem, and the whole family will not be hungry if one person is full!”

Chapter 2306

After that, Su Zhifei said again: “Oh yes, I will not leave Wrestvel for the time being. Miss Gu’s concert is about to begin. I want to stay in Wrestvel to make some preparations for the concert, and wait until the concert is over. go.”

Su Zhiyu didn’t expect that his elder brother would really just fall into trouble at this time!

She glared at Su Zhifei angrily, and said to Du Haiqing: “Mom, I didn’t bring enough clothes this time, and the daily necessities that I use. If I stay in Wrestvel for three or five days, It’s fair enough. If you stay for a long time, it will be very troublesome...”

Du Haiqing said indifferently: “It’s simple. The aunts in the family are also free. I will ask them to pack all your personal items and bring them together.”

After talking, Du Haiqing said again: “If you have any dissatisfaction, you can tell Mom that Mom will help you solve it all. If you feel that the layout and decoration of the room are not satisfied, it does not matter. Mom can put your room in your house. All the decoration and furniture in the house were taken down and shipped by air, and then restored to the original shape. Do you have any other questions? If you have other questions, as long as you raise them, Mom will solve them for you.”

Su Zhiyu is really helpless.

Unexpectedly, my mother was so decisive that she would not give herself any chance at all.

So, she nodded her head very aggrievedly, and said helplessly: “Okay mom, I see, I have no other questions, so let’s do everything as you said...”

Du Haiqing relaxed, smiled slightly, and said, “You, don’t always think about finding that benefactor every day. Stay with your mother in Wrestvel. After you start school, if there is nothing wrong with your mother, go to the United States to give You should accompany you, when you finish the MBA, and when will we mothers come back.”

Su Zhiyu knew that Mom was guarding herself everywhere, not allowing herself a chance to continue searching for her benefactor secretly.

So, she nodded helplessly and said: “Okay, I will listen to you...”

Du Haiqing finally breathed a sigh of relief.

She thought to herself: “As long as I keep Zhiyu in Wrestvel and keep a close eye on her at the same time, she shouldn’t run into the man who is in conflict with her and who can make her moths fly into the fire!”

“In this case, after these months, after she went to study in the United States, the hope of finding that person would be even slimmer!”

“Perhaps after a while, she will slowly forget about it...”

However, Du Haiqing underestimated Su Zhiyu’s determination.

Moreover, although Su Zhiyu has a very different personality from Du Haiqing, she has the same persistence and stubbornness as Du Haiqing in her bones.

Du Haiqing loved Ye Changying for many years. Although Ye Changying refused her many times, she never gave up, and no one persuaded her to be useful.

Su Zhiyu wanted to find Marven, even if everyone blocked her, she still insisted.

Du Haiqing never dreamed that what Su Zhiyu always wanted to find was the young man riding an electric bicycle that he met at the gate of Ye Changying’s former residence today.

The Tomson Yipin where the young man lives now is only 35 kilometers away from them in a straight line.

She didn’t even know. She thought that by leaving Su Zhiyu in Wrestvel, it was the fate of Su Zhiyu avoiding moths to fight the fire.

But the fact is just the opposite!

Her decision, ???, has left Su Zhiyu around the fire...

Chapter 2307

When Su Zhiyu temporarily hid his inner impulse and decided to stay in Wrestvel, Theresa was still busy in Shangmei etiquette company.

At this time, it was evening, and Theresa officially took over the Shangmei etiquette company this afternoon.

In order not to disappoint Marven, she immediately took an afternoon to carefully count all the accounts of Shangmei etiquette company since its establishment.

She first listed the list of all the etiquette ladies who were cheated by Shangmei etiquette company, and then evaluated their losses based on the records of their participation in the activities, and then calculated the total amount of compensation to be paid.

After that, she contacted all the etiquette ladies who had worked together and had worked together, and asked them to return to the company for a meeting. At the same time, she also asked people to help. They also asked the ladies who had left the job and were forced to go to KTV by the former boss Liu Zonghui Came back.

At dinner time, the entire Shangmei etiquette company has been surrounded by the ladies of etiquette.

At present, there are more than one hundred hostesses working in Shangmei etiquette company.

In addition to those who ran away, redeemed their lives, and were forced to go to KTV, now there are nearly 300 people who have squeezed into the company.

Most of these ladies are between 18 and 25 years old. Few are over 25. I can't say that everyone is beautiful, but most of them are relatively good-looking.

Moreover, the height of these ceremonial ladies is at least 1.65 meters tall, and each body is well-proportioned. Compared with most professions, the overall external conditions are relatively high.

Nearly three hundred young and beautiful girls, put together are like three hundred super-large sparrows, chattering non-stop.

They were all informed that the Shangmei etiquette company had changed ownership and asked them to come over to settle all accounts, but they did not understand why Liu Zonghui was so profitable as this company, why he suddenly changed hands.

In addition, they also want to know how the company asks themselves to come back and settle the bill.

Especially those who have been away from the company for a period of time are even more surprised. They dare not hope that the company can make up all the money owed to them before.

Seeing so many people, Theresa was also a little nervous.

Although she had never run a company, she had seen some of the world in the Xiao Group at first, and she was better than the girls present.

So she calmed her mind and said into the microphone: "You guys, please be quiet, we are going to have a meeting now."

Everyone gradually calmed down, staring at Theresa one by one, waiting for her to follow along.

Theresa cleared her throat and said seriously: "First of all, I must announce to you that all the shares of Shangmei etiquette Company have been transferred to my name. What I have in my hand is the photocopy of the various confirmations of the changes made by the industrial and commercial department. You can circulate the version, and you can also check the current industrial and commercial registration information of the etiquette company on the industrial and commercial website to see if the shareholder above has been changed from Liu Zonghui to Theresa."

The few girls sitting in the front row of the meeting room immediately took the photocopied files and circulated them. Many of them took out their mobile phones directly and inquired about the business registration information.

From this look, everyone immediately understood that Theresa had become the boss of Shangmei etiquette company!

People who didn't know Theresa began to wonder what this girl came from, and she could become the new owner of Shangmei etiquette company.

Those girls who have worked with Theresa are even more puzzled.

They don't understand why Liu Zonghui, who cannibalized people without spitting out bones, would transfer the company to Theresa.

Chapter 2308

Seeing that everyone has received this message, Theresa continued: "I call everyone here today. There are a few things to announce to you."

"The first thing is that Liu Zonghui and Chen Xiaofei have paid back part of the money they have scammed everyone for so long!"

As soon as this was said, the scene was in an uproar!

A girl blurted out and asked, "What?! Liu Zonghui and Chen Xiaofei have returned the money?! Really? They have been peeling the skin over the past two weeks, and they have returned the money?! How is this possible?!"

Theresa said seriously: "This is indeed true. The two of them have been sent to KTV to make atonement for their crimes because of their wickedness and wickedness. Ma Zhongliang goes to work in his premises. It is estimated that he will start to work tonight. If you have an acquaintance working there, you can call to ask."

Several courtesy ladies hurriedly took out their mobile phones at the scene. Some chose to send text messages while others chose to make a call.

Soon, there was a girl exclaiming: "Mom! Liu Zonghui and Chen Xiaofei, two bastards, actually went to work in KTV! This is too hateful!"

"Yes, yes, one of my sisters also told me, it's definitely the two of them!"

A girl who knew Theresa hurriedly asked: "Theresa, what is your brother-in-law's background? How come you have such a great skill that even Liu Zonghui can move?"

"My brother-in-law..." Theresa groaned, and brought her involuntarily, and said somewhat admiringly: "My brother-in-law is a hero!"

All the girls present have been bullied and squeezed by Liu Zonghui.

It can be said that I hate him long ago.

Therefore, after hearing this message, they cheered and applauded for a while.

Theresa waited for everyone's applause to finally stop before she said, "The second thing is the distribution of this money."

"Liu Zonghui and Chen Xiaofei returned a total of about 4 million yuan. Except for the 500,000 yuan reserved for the company's subsequent operating funds, the remaining 3.5 million will be returned to everyone present."

When everyone heard this, they were shocked and dumbfounded!

They really didn't expect that the first thing that Theresa took over the company was to return the huge amount of 3.5 million yuan to them...

Theresa continued at this time: "I have calculated the specific refund ratio. Of course, this amount of money is not enough to make up for all the losses of everyone, but it can still bring you a certain amount of compensation. The compensation list and the corresponding amount are publicly shown. If you have no problems, after signing and confirming, our finance will pay you immediately."

After speaking, Theresa said again: "To be honest, we have already withdrawn 3.5 million cash from our bank account this afternoon."

Afterwards, Theresa winked at Finance not far away, and immediately afterwards, Finance went to the next office to call in a few powerful men with Kong Wu.

Each of these brawny men held a huge suitcase in their hands, and then they spread the suitcase on the conference table on the podium, revealing bundles of red banknotes inside.

Nearly 300 girls immediately yelled in excitement, and some even yelled, "Long live Theresa!"

Immediately afterwards, thunderous applause resounded on the scene.

At this moment, Theresa has won the favor and support of the girls on the scene, and has successfully taken the first step to take over the Shangmei etiquette company...

Chapter 2309

Surrounded by thunderous applause and applause, Theresa was also a little embarrassed. She settled her mind and continued: "The third thing is that our Shangmei etiquette company will continue to operate in a brand-new model. The operation idea is like this..."

There were nearly three hundred girls in the audience, and they all looked forward to her next content at this moment.

Theresa said earnestly: "First of all, Shangmei Etiquette Company will continue to provide etiquette services for major enterprises, institutions and self-employed individuals in Wrestvel as before. We are all girls, and we all have almost the same experience, so everyone counts. I am sisters. If the sisters want to continue to engage in this industry, I hope I can choose to continue to cooperate with Shang Mei,"

"Secondly, I hereby solemnly promise to the sisters that if the sisters choose to continue to cooperate with Shang Mei, Shang Mei will never squeeze the sisters' labor and the corresponding labor results as before!"

"Next, we will adopt an open and transparent pure sharing model to cooperate with the sisters!"

"The specific terms of cooperation are: the company is responsible for coordinating and arranging the work for the sisters, and at the same time, open and transparently share the commission with the sisters. For each commission for attending an event, the company only draws 20% as operating funds, and the remaining 80% is Give it to individuals!"

When I heard that an individual could get 80% of the commission, the girls in the audience cheered excitedly!

In the industry, there is no company that can give such a large percentage of commission sharing!

The normal mode of cooperation is usually five to five. People like Liu Zonghui generally only give 20% to 30% to the lady of etiquette. Not only does the score are small, but it also threatens and lures the lady of etiquette to sign the deed. Once the deed is signed , Miss Etiquette can only get about 10% at most.

In contrast, the ratio given by Theresa is simply the conscience of the industry!

In fact, Theresa herself feels that this share ratio is simply too high, so high that after the company deducts operating costs, financial costs, and support line labor costs, the remaining profit margin is very thin, and even 5% may not be guaranteed.

However, she felt that she could not live up to Marven's expectations of her.

If he was also reduced to someone like Liu Zonghui, thinking about squeezing employees, then Marven would definitely be disappointed in himself.

Therefore, she made such a bold decision.

At the same time, she also had a belief in her heart that supported her.

“As long as I do it well, do it with my heart, and make a memorial, then there will be more and more courtesy ladies under Shangmei’s company, and more and more activities will be undertaken. Although the profit rate is reduced a lot, once I put the whole cake Bigger, then the company’s profits are still very, very impressive.”

“To use the most direct analogy, if you make 10 million a year, the profit rate is 20%. Then the profit is 2 million. However, if you can make 100 million a year, the profit rate is only 5%, and the net profit is five. Millions!”

“So, I must not be blindsided, I must take a longer-term view! I must use more salary sharing to attract these girls to work with me wholeheartedly, and at the same time attract more other girls to join Shangmei Company!”

“My first goal is to make Shangmei Company the largest etiquette company in Wrestrvel!”

“I must go all out to achieve this goal and let my brother-in-law look at me with admiration!”

At this time, the girls in the audience were completely attracted by Theresa’s words!

The company is transparent, the division is high, and Theresa is willing to use the money Liu Zonghui eats out to compensate everyone. This also makes everyone trust her very much.

Therefore, almost every girl made a decision deep in her heart.

At this time, Theresa continued: “The company currently has 500,000 operating funds on the account. I have ordered three 13-seater commercial vehicles to be used as free shuttle buses for company employees.”

With that, she said with some shame: “However, because the funds are currently limited, most of the funds are used to compensate the sisters, so we can only buy three cars now...”

“If we have a larger number of employees in the future, even if the three cars run back and forth, they may not be able to meet the needs of many people...”

Chapter 2310

“In that case, when we start working, some employees may not be able to enjoy the shuttle service...”

“Our shuttle bus will give priority to providing services to employees who are far away, early or late.”

“But I will promise to my sisters that after the company makes money in the future, we will continue to buy more buses!”

“Ultimately, we will set up a fleet of our own. We will be able to ensure that every event and every sister will be picked up by a car no matter the cold or the heat, whether it is wind or rain!

Speaking of this, thunderous applause rang out again!

Many girls have red eyes with excitement!

They choose to be ceremonial ladies because they don't have a good survival method.

Moreover, their family conditions are not very good.

Every day I wake up in the dark and make so much hard money in the wind and rain, and I will be bullied wherever I go.

Being bullied by the boss in the company; going out to pick up activities, but also being bullied by Party A.

In short, almost no one respected them, and no one thought about them.

However, Theresa's words deeply touched their hearts and made them feel warm, loved and cared for for the first time!

So, someone immediately stood up and said excitedly: "Sister Theresa, I will do it with you in the future!"

"Yes, Sister Theresa, I will follow you in the future!"

"I graduated from high school and started working as a courtesy lady to help my family pay off debts. After six years of doing it, I have eaten all the ups and downs, but I haven't tasted any sweetness. What Sister Theresa said just now made me feel sweet It's silly, so count me!"

"Yes! No company has ever treated us as human beings. Now Sister Theresa treats us as sisters. Why can we hesitate? I will join as well!"

With these people's heartfelt statements, everyone on the scene was ignited!

All of them are scrambling to express their opinions and firmly choose to join!

Theresa could not hide his excitement and said, "Okay! Then let's first ask for the intentions of the sisters. If you are interested, please raise your hands if you are interested in continuing to work in Shangmei etiquette company!"

In an instant, the audience swish swish, and raised three or four hundred hands!

The reason why there are so many hands is that many girls raised their hands high in excitement because they were too excited!

Theresa glanced at it and found that almost no one did not raise their hands at the scene, and everyone raised their hands high, with full of excitement and expectations on their faces.

On their faces, there is no hesitation, no entanglement, no half-push, and some are all excited and pious.

It can be seen that each of them has a heartfelt desire to join this brand-new Shangmei etiquette company!
