

The Amazing Son In-Law Chapter 2311-2320

Chapter 2311

With the support of all the etiquette ladies, Theresa successfully took the first step to take over the Shangmei etiquette company.

She had been busy at the company until very late before she managed to catch the last bus, dragged her exhausted body, and returned to the Tomson Yipin Villa.

Since Theresa went out to work, the Xiao family barely need to go hungry. They have some rice at home. They dare not say that they can let the old lady Xiao, Xiao Changgan and Jay eat vegetables and meat, at least they are hungry. Being able to steam a pot of white rice barely satisfies hunger.

When Theresa returned home, Mrs. Xiao had just finished serving Xiao Changgan and Jay to eat white rice. She made half a bowl of rice with boiling water, sprinkled some salt into it, and ate it alone.

Seeing Theresa's return, she couldn't help complaining a bit: "Theresa, why did you come back so late today? I was at home to serve your dad and your brother. I was so tired to death, you didn't say to get off work early and help me."

Theresa said a little apologetically, "I'm sorry, grandma, the company has a lot of business, so it's been a little longer..."

Old Mrs. Xiao said dissatisfied, "Isn't it just being a courtesy lady? When it's over, I come back with money. How can I be so late?"

Jay lying on the bed couldn't help but say, "Yes, Theresa, I especially want to eat a bowl of preserved egg and lean meat porridge today. I also said that when you make money back earlier, you can buy half a catty of pork and two more. As for the preserved egg, I have been waiting until now..."

Xiao Changgan, who was lying next to Jay, sighed and said, "Theresa, Dad always had cramps these past two days, and it hurts as soon as he pumps up, and it won't get better for a while. It seems to be malnourished during this time. The calcium deficiency is severe, can you think of a way to buy a box of calcium tablets for Dad?"

Seeing the pitiful appearance of her father and brother, Theresa felt very distressed. She wanted to tell them all of her experience today and let them know that Marven gave herself a good opportunity to manage. A company pays itself a monthly salary of 10,000 yuan.

However, when she thought of Marven's confession that she didn't want to grow up and keep herself silent, she resisted the impulse, suppressed the matter, and said, "Dad, brother, you two will stick to it, the company will adjust for me. I'm a manager, and I can earn 10,000 yuan a month. I'll ask the finance company tomorrow to advance half a month's salary, and then I'll definitely improve our family's living conditions."

Noah Xiao asked in surprise, "Theresa, what you said is true?! Are you really a manager in the company?!"

Jay also hurriedly asked, "Theresa, is it really 10,000 yuan a month?!"

Theresa nodded and said seriously: "It's really 10,000 yuan a month."

With that said, she took out the latest Apple mobile phone that Marven bought for her, and said gratefully: "The boss sees that I don't have a mobile phone and work is inconvenient. He even gave me one specially..."

"I'll go!" Jay became excited, and blurted out: "Sister! You are going to be so prosperous! With more than 10,000 mobile phones, your boss will give it away. It's so generous!"

The old lady Xiao who was on the side also burst into tears with excitement. She choked up and said: "If Theresa can really get 10,000 yuan a month, it will be more than 300 yuan a day. With so much money, our family will live too much better!"

With that said, Mrs. Xiao calculated: "The current pork is only 20 yuan a catty, ordinary rice is about three yuan a catty, our family of four, a catty of pork, two catties of rice a day, buy some more Vegetables and other things, at most 70 or 80 yuan for food, buy a few bottles of milk every day to supplement calcium, 100 yuan is enough, Chang Gan and Jay can also take a little medicine to speed up recovery, one day Even if you spend another one hundred dollars, there will still be one hundred balances!"

Chapter 2312

Jay burst into tears: "Grandma, I can finally eat some meat every day..."

"Yeah..." Mrs. Xiao sighed, and then said, "When you and your dad recover, you will both find a job. I dare not expect to make a lot of money, but you two, Earning five or six thousand a month is always more than enough. At that time, our family will have an income of fifteen thousand and six in a month. On that day, we will be able to survive this day!"

Theresa felt melancholy when she heard this.

She thought to herself: "The former Xiao family didn't dare to say that they were rich, but at least they had tens of millions or even hundreds of millions of assets..."

"At that time, the family had to eat tens of thousands of dollars or more for a month."

"But everyone was not satisfied at that time. They always felt that their life was not good enough, and they tried every means to climb the dragon and the phoenix..."

"Now, after experiencing so many things, the family's demands for life have also fallen steeply."

"It was never enough to eat well before, but now, as long as you can eat one meal a day and save a little savings every day, in the eyes of the family, it is already a dreamy day..."

"Although it's sad to think of it, it's really ironic..."

When thinking of this, Theresa's mind appeared like Marven, and she thought: "Marven is still the most practical person. Even the poorest days, he can live on the ground. When he becomes the upper class in Wresvel When admiring Master Ye, he can live with Avella without forgetting his original aspirations and steadfastly..."

At this point, she took out her phone and quietly added Marven's WeChat.

Marven had just eaten at this time, and Qin Gang called him a voice call. After the call was connected, he respectfully said: "Master Ye, Aoxue told me, you let me have a dinner at home to entertain everyone. I don't know what time you compare. Convenience?"

Marven said, "It's already Thursday today, so we will tentatively schedule Friday night. What do you think?"

Qin Gang said respectfully: "There is no problem with the next time. Everything depends on your time, Master Ye."

Marven gave a hum, and said, "Then make it Friday night. You help me invite everyone."

Qin Gang hurriedly said, "Master Ye, I will tell you the number of people, and see if you are right."

"it is good."

Qin Gang said: "First, Ms. Song of the Song family and Mrs. Song, then Shi Tianqi, the genius doctor, then Zak Chen, President Chen, Haicheng's richest man Li Tailai, Orvel Hong, Solmon Wang of the Wang family, and Wei Liang of Jiuxuan Pharmaceutical."

Chapter 2313

Marven said: "Remember to invite Lori, the vice chairman of Emgrand Group."

Qin Gang said immediately, "Okay Master Ye, I will call Vice Lori and say a few moments later."

Marven said, "Then trouble you to arrange it for me."

Qin Gang immediately reverently said, "Master Ye, you and I need to be so polite! If you have anything, please let me know!"

Marven snorted and said with a smile: "I will go there a few hours in advance, give Aoxue some guidance, and give you a small gift by the way."

Qin Gang's excited voice trembled when he heard this. He realized that Marven might be sending himself back to the spring pill. With excitement that could not be restrained, he blurted out: "Master Ye! Thank you so much. Up!"

Marven smiled slightly: "You are polite, let's see you tomorrow."

"Okay Master Ye, see you tomorrow!"

Marven hung up Qin Gang's voice call, and suddenly saw a new friend in the WeChat address book.

He clicked on it and found that it was Theresa who had sent a friend application, so he clicked to pass the verification.

Immediately afterwards, Theresa immediately sent a sentence: "Brother-in-law, I have already settled down on the company side. There are almost three hundred courtesy ladies who are willing to cooperate with the company, and I will report to you!"

Marven was also a little surprised by the number of people, thinking that Theresa should have done a good job, so he replied: "Very good, keep going."

Theresa hurriedly said, "Good brother-in-law, I will definitely go all out!"

Immediately afterwards, he sent another sentence: "Brother-in-law, I have something to apply to you..."

Marven asked, "Just tell me."

Theresa said, "Brother-in-law, there are more places to spend money at home. I want to advance half a month's salary with you in advance, okay?"

Marven knew that she must have some difficulties, so he readily agreed and replied: "No problem, just say hello to the finance."

Theresa immediately sent a grateful expression, saying, "Thank you brother-in-law!"

Chapter 2314

Marven didn't have much thoughts about Theresa.

Originally, she was just looking at her sincerely regretful attitude, wanting to help her a little, give her some money, and let her solve the current dilemma.

But after discovering that she was being bullied, and also discovering that Liu Zonghui and Chen Xiaofei were bullying too much, Marven had more or less thoughts of eliminating harm for the people.

Therefore, he smoothly handed Liu Zonghui's Shangmei etiquette company to Theresa to operate.

However, Marven was still a little wary and caring about Theresa in his heart, so he gave Theresa a rule that although she had to manage the entire company, she could only get a monthly salary of 10,000 yuan.

The reason for this is to limit her income and rights, and let her do things peacefully, instead of disappearing all of a sudden.

Theresa didn't think so much. Marven was able to help her to the present level. She was very satisfied deep in her heart. All she thought about right now was to work hard and do a good job in Shangmei etiquette company.

Adhering to the idea that more is worse than less, Marven did not tell his wife Avella this matter.

Moreover, Avella was indeed too busy recently. After eating, he ran to the study to continue working without daring to delay at all.

Avella has now begun to prepare for the renovation bidding for the six-star hotel of the Emgrand Group. She is in a period of rising career, and she is also surprisingly ambitious. In her words, she now particularly hopes to share some of the burden of supporting the family for Marven. .

Seeing that his wife was off work, Marven had to work overtime, and he felt a little distressed.

So he washed some fruits and brought them upstairs to the study.

In the study, Avella was immersed in the computer at the desk drawing a design.

Seeing her attentive, Marven was afraid that her sudden appearance would scare her, so he coughed lightly and attracted Avella 's attention.

“Ahem, Avella .”

Avella heard the sound, looked back at Marven, and smiled: “Husband, why are you here?”

Marven walked up to the front, put the fruit on the desk, and said, “I washed some fruit for you. You eat more. If you work in front of the computer for so long every day, there will be more or less radiation. Eat more fruit to supplement vitamins. Can reduce the harm of radiation.”

Avella smiled sweetly and said, “Thank you husband!”

After finishing speaking, I picked up the largest and reddest strawberry from the fruit bowl. I didn't eat it myself, but I stuffed it directly to Marven's mouth, and said with a smile, “My husband, you eat this!”

Marven smiled and said, “I have eaten it a long time ago. You can eat it yourself, don't worry about me.”

Avella pretended to be angry and pouted, “If you don't eat, then I won't eat either.”

After speaking, he murmured angrily, “You don't even eat when they bring it to your mouth. This is too sad...”

Upon hearing this, Marven hurriedly opened his mouth and swallowed both the strawberry and Avella 's two fingers into his mouth. Not only that, but also deliberately used a little force to bite her fingers.

Chapter 2315

“Oh!” Avella exclaimed, only then realized that Marven had come to a surprise attack on herself. She hurriedly pretended to be horrified and said: “Ah! I kindly fed the puppy to something, but the puppy bit!”

Marven opened his mouth, while eating strawberries, he said vaguely: "Okay, say that my husband is a puppy, then what are you?"

Avella snorted proudly and said, "I am feeding the puppy, and of course I am the owner of the puppy!"

Marven smiled and said, "If I were a puppy, then you would be the bone in my mouth."

Avella smiled and said, "How can you compare people to bones like this..."

Marven said seriously: "Don't you know that the puppy is the most protective of the food? A bone is stuck in his mouth, and the sky will not loosen when the sky falls. If anyone dares to snatch it, it must fight hard!"

Seeing Marven's seriousness, Avella was very moved, and couldn't help but said shyly: "If this is the case, then I will reluctantly be a bone, let you hold it!"

Marven laughed and said, "Don't just talk and eat some fruit first."

Avella nodded, picked up two more strawberries, first stuffed one into Marven's mouth, and then he put the second one in his mouth and took a bite.

Marven looked at her computer screen and found that a very large prototype of the design had been constructed on the design software. He couldn't help but ask her: "My wife, you have to do the design for such a big project?"

Avella said: "Not really. What I am doing now is just a sketch, because when I bid, I don't need to make a very detailed design plan. It mainly reflects a general idea."

"When we wait for the bid, we need to give this design plan and a more detailed decoration budget quotation to the past. However, my studio now has relatively few staff. For such a large project, everyone has to move on, so I come. Mainly responsible for drawing, others focus on integrating suppliers of various materials and actuarial project cost. This amount of engineering is really huge. At least hundreds of suppliers have to be connected to thousands of single products."

Marven nodded, and said distressedly: "Don't be too tired. Pay attention to the combination of work and rest."

Avella smiled and said, "Don't worry, just these few days, after finishing these few days, package and submit the entire tender file, and then wait for the internal review of Emgrand Group. If it passes, I will quickly expand the recruiting team. If it fails, It's just a practice."

With that, Avella said earnestly: "If my project is completed, then you won't have to work so hard in the future and make money alone to support the family."

"Our family's overall expenses are very high now. The villa property costs are more than 100,000 yuan a year, let alone other things."

“Most of the profits made by my studio before have been invested in expansion, and I have never been able to subsidize the family and cannot share it for you, so this time I have to strive to win this project and make some contributions to my family!”

Marven knows Avella’s character very well. She never cared about money, and she didn’t have any requirements for food, clothing, housing and transportation. The reason why she wants to start a business and make money now is ultimately for her family.

So he said softly from the bottom of his heart: “My wife, thank you!”

Avella said seriously: “I want to thank you. For so long, you have been supporting you at home. My parents and I are holding back you...”

Marven hurriedly said, “What are you talking about? It is only right for my husband to make money to support the family. For the first three years of marriage, I didn’t make a penny, so I did laundry and cook at home. You never disliked me. I now bear more. It’s nothing at all.”

Avella smiled and said sincerely: “It is the most important that we two always understand and tolerate each other like this. It is more meaningful than making money. Just like before, although you don’t make a penny, you always do housework in an orderly manner. Take care of me in all aspects, which is more important than making money.”

Chapter 2316

What Marven is most grateful to Avella for is that she has never disliked her apparent origin during these years of marriage.

After all, a person whose parents died at the age of eight, grew up in an orphanage, only has a high school diploma recognized by the state, and has nothing, almost penniless, can not be regarded as a high-quality wedding object anywhere. .

However, she, the number one beauty in Wrevel, still married herself without complaint, and she married for four years.

In the past four years, countless people have encouraged her and forced her to divorce herself. She has not wavered even once.

From this alone, Marven was grateful to her in his heart.

During the recent period, Marven also wanted to find an opportunity to confess his life experience to Avella, but he was a little hesitant when he thought of the fact that his parents hadn’t reported their grievances or even the cause of their parents’ death could not be ascertained.

Now, all he can find out is an anti-leaf alliance.

When his parents were still in Orgeyon, the Anti-Ye Alliance did a lot of things against them, but in his childhood memory, his parents decided to leave the Ye family not because of the Anti-Ye Alliance, but because of his father Ye Changying. He had a big quarrel with his grandfather Ye Zhongquan about something.

After that quarrel, the parents decided to leave the Ye family and a family of three to come to Wrestvel to live an ordinary life.

But soon after coming to Wrestvel, his parents died unexpectedly.

However, Marven has always believed that the death of his parents was not accidental, and that there must be a murderer behind this.

It's just that he now has no clue as to who killed his parents.

First of all, he didn't know whether the Ye family was an enemy or a friend;

Secondly, he did not know what role the Su family played in this matter;

Once again, he remembered that Leon said that his father had offended the Rothschild family that dominated Europe and the United States at the time, so he is not sure whether the Rothschild family killed his parents.

There are wolves in the front, tigers in the back, and a fierce behemoth on the other side of the ocean. Although Marven has some strength now, he still feels like walking on thin ice.

The Ye family, what is known, what is hidden, what is hidden, and what is tucked away, all assets add up to at least trillions;

The Su family not only has more assets than the Ye family, but the overall strength is stronger than that of the Ye family. Although it has suffered a serious setback recently, it still cannot be underestimated.

Trillions of RMB sounds like a fantasy, but in fact, looking at the world, trillions of RMB family assets are nothing at all.

On the global ranking of the richest people, the number one is Amazon founder Jeff Bezos, whose personal assets are equivalent to more than one trillion yuan.

Moreover, this is only to be seen. No rich man will publish all his assets. What is published is often just the tip of the iceberg.

As for the giant-like Rothschild family, it can already be called a wealthy country.

Chapter 2317

There have been countless rumors about the Rothschild family in Europe and North America for a century.

Some people say that they dominate half of Europe, some say that more than half of Europe, and even half of the United States is under their control.

They are almost everywhere in Europe and the United States. The most profitable bank is theirs, the most profitable oil refinery is also theirs, the largest shipping group is still theirs, and even the largest military industrial enterprise is theirs.

The railway transportation that promoted the industrial revolution in Europe and the United States was also under the control of this family. As for precious minerals such as gold and diamonds, they are their traditional strengths.

A rough estimate is that the entire family's assets are at least several trillion dollars.

In other words, a Rothschild has more than ten times the assets of the Ye family.

Even more frightening is that Rothschild, as an old Jewish family, has a great influence in European and American politics. The big men on Wall Street are almost all Jews. Almost all the lifeblood of the United States is in their hands. Therefore, Such a family can even promote a war between countries behind the scenes!

In front of these families, Marven's current assets and strength are not worth mentioning.

If at this time, his identity is leaked from the outside, I don't know what kind of storm it will cause.

In this situation, Marven really did not dare to confide in Avella.

He felt that at least he had to wait for him to figure out the cause of his parents' death, figure out whether the Ye family was an enemy or a friend, figure out whether he had a deep hatred with the Rothschild family.

Avella didn't know what the husband next to him was thinking about at this time. While eating fruit, she said with a look of expectation: "My husband, if I can win this project, you won't have so much pressure in the future. "

Marven said seriously: "I don't have any pressure myself. I am still very easy to make money now, so you don't need to have any pressure. If this project is too tired, then don't participate in the bidding. Preparing to bid is so tired. If you really win this project, I'm afraid it will be even more tiring."

Avella smiled and said, "If you are tired, you should be tired. You can't refuse to develop because you are afraid of being tired. If the company can become bigger and stronger, I can divide a lot of work and concentrate on management. It will be too tiring. The most tiring is the studio model. As the boss and the employee, I have to do everything myself."

Marven nodded in agreement: "This is indeed the case. The most feared thing is that the two identities get mixed together."

Avella smiled slightly and said, "Okay, you don't have to feel sorry for me. I will continue to make pictures here. You can go back to the bedroom and rest first."

Marven said: "Then, my wife, you should be busy first, so I won't bother you. Remember to call me if you need it."

At the same time, the excited Qin Gang was calling the objects Marven wanted to invite one by one.

Most of these people are his old acquaintances and old friends, so it is very easy to get in touch with each other. They called them one by one and told everyone about the matter. Everyone was very excited.

Marven had only given medicine on a large scale once.

At that time, everyone received his favor and got a magic medicine in their eyes.

Chapter 2318

This time, Marven wanted to give medicine again, and they were naturally full of joy.

Li Tailai, who was in Haizhou, heard that Marven was going to treat him, and even immediately asked Zhao Hao, his friend at the Marven Welfare Institute, to drive and drive him to Wrestvel overnight.

Li Tailai also owns a lot of real estate in Wrestvel, so he plans to stay in Wrestvel overnight, so as not to delay his schedule tomorrow in case of an emergency.

The main reason why he values it so much is because this opportunity is too rare in his eyes.

The only person who has not received Qin Gang's notice is Lori of the Emgrand Group.

It was not that Qin Gang had forgotten her, mainly because Qin Gang did not have Lori's contact information.

Before Marven took over the Emgrand Group, Lori had always been the vice chairman of the Emgrand Group.

She is not the eldest lady of a big family, nor is she a wealthy and powerful second-generation rich, she is completely a very capable career woman who can climb up on her own.

Therefore, she basically doesn't mix with the so-called high society like Wrestvel.

Like Zak Chen, Solmon Wang, Qin Gang and Warnia Song, although she knew each other, she had never been familiar with them.

And people like Zak Chen and Solmon Wang had already formed a small circle around Marven by their side.

People in this small circle all have a very good relationship with Marven, and they know Marven's abilities, so they regard Marven as a standard and treat him respectfully.

So Qin Gang called Marven and respectfully said, "Master Ye, everyone I have already notified everyone. Time is okay, but Lori has been very low-key, and I have never had her contact information. , Do you think it is not convenient for you to give me her phone number?"

Marven said: "Forget it, I'll just call her."

After hanging up Qin Gang's phone, Marven called Lori.

As soon as the phone was connected, Lori asked respectfully on the other end: "Chairman, what's your order?"

Marven couldn't help but frowned slightly. Normally, Lori would call herself Young Master in private. Now it's off work, why does she call her chairman? Is it not convenient for her to speak now?

Thinking of this, Marven also said very politely: "Deputy Lori, I want to ask if you have time tomorrow night? I have a dinner and I want to invite you to come over."

Lori hesitated for a moment, and said a little apologetically: "Chairman, I'm really sorry, I can't confirm the time yet, can I reply to you tomorrow?"

Marven was puzzled, and asked, "Vice Lori, have you encountered anything?"

Lori said unnaturally: "There is no chairman, but the guests are here to entertain, so..."

Marven smiled slightly and said: "Okay, let's call again tomorrow. If it is inconvenient for you, it doesn't matter, we can make an appointment another day.

Chapter 2319

At this moment, the inpatient department of Wrestvel People's Hospital.

As the best general hospital in Wrestvel and even the whole province, it is overcrowded at any time.

No matter which department, the beds are not free.

Not only is there a lot of people living here, but many patients also line up at home waiting for hospital beds for treatment.

In the intensive care unit of the nephrology department, lying on the bed is a man who is unconscious and full of tubes. He is about 50 years old.

On the side of the hospital bed, there was also a middle-aged woman of the same age sitting. The appearance of this woman was five points similar to Lori.

The outside of the intensive care room is a small living room and family rest area. After all, it is the intensive care room with the best conditions. The internal layout is very similar to a hotel suite.

At this moment, two young men, one man and one woman, were standing in the meeting room.

The woman is Lori, the vice chairman of the Emgrand Group, and across from her is a blond white man with a hooked nose.

As soon as Lori hung up Marven's phone, the man with a hooked nose spoke to Lori with a smile on his face, speaking in substandard Mandarin, "Lori, I think my uncle's condition will not be delayed for too long. Huaxia Law The sale of organs is also expressly prohibited. Now, no one except me can find a suitable match for uncle."

Lori looked at him and pleaded bitterly: "Walter, I beg you to help me set up a line for the sake of classmates. How much money do you need to contact the kidney source in the United States? I will double the amount. Just treat it as your referral fee, okay?"

The man called Walter sneered, "Lori, you wouldn't think that I have worked so hard to make you a difference?"

As he said, he said very seriously: "Lori, I actually liked you very much when I was a classmate, but at that time, I was not financially independent and did not take over family affairs. My family did not allow me to find a foreign woman. I dare not pursue you under their noses..."

Speaking of this, he laughed and said triumphantly: "Hahaha, but now I am married and I have just been sent to Huaxia to take charge of Huaxia's business. They can no longer control me!"

"Moreover, the family is determined to enter the Huaxia market this time. I may stay in China for at least ten years..."

Lori frowned and asked him, "Walter, what do you want to say?"

Walter covered his chest, pretending to be heartbroken and said, "Lori, if I can't get you in the next ten years, how lonely and lonely I should be..."

Lori said coldly: "Walter! For the sake of your classmates, I ask you to show respect!"

Walter smiled lightly and said, "I'm sorry, I just like to go straight!"

Chapter 2320

"Lori, as long as you are willing to leave the Emgrand Group, join my company, and be my vice chairman and lover, then I will immediately let someone use my private jet to send you the kidney source. You promised me today, uncle You can get a new kidney tomorrow, what do you think?"

"You are shameless!" Lori gritted his teeth and said angrily: "Walter, what's the difference between you and taking advantage of the fire?! And you are already married and have children. If you do this, are you worthy of your wife and children?"

Walter curled his lips and said nonchalantly: "People like me get married just to fulfill the mission of the family. I will marry whoever the family asks me to marry. As long as I marry the woman they let me marry, they won't do it anymore. Involved in my private life."

Having said that, he smiled indifferently: "As for children, it doesn't matter. They are still young. When they grow up, I will make them realize that money is more important than anything. When the time comes, they will also I can understand who I am now."

As soon as the voice fell, Walter remembered something, and hurriedly said, "Oh yes, if you become my lover, you will also give birth to me. After all, I don't like any contraceptive measures. Besides, I have always If you want a mixed-race child, it's a pity that the family tradition has always demanded purity of blood, which is really troublesome..."

At this point, Walter laughed and said triumphantly: "But, if they are illegitimate children and don't involve inheriting the family property, they will just open one eye and close one eye, and they won't pursue too much."

Lori roared angrily: "Walter, I really didn't expect you to be such a shameless beast!"

Walter laughed and said, "eOn Lori, everyone is grown up, shame is a shit? Look at those who are full of benevolence and morality every day, who is not a full-bellied male thieves and prostitutes?"

"If you follow me, come to work for my company, and use the real estate experience you have accumulated in the Emgrand Group and the confidential information you have in the Emgrand Group to help me expand the Chinese market, then I will give you twice the amount of the Emgrand Group The salary package will give you an extra 5 million in bonus every year!"

"In this way, your annual income is ten to twenty million yuan!"

"If you can help me secretly hollow out the Emgrand Group's industry and let me annex the Emgrand Group at a price of less than 50 billion, then I will give you 100 million at a time!"

"There is even better. When the time comes, our two offices will only be separated by a wall, and then we can quietly open up the two rooms, make a secret door, and build a cabinet outside the secret door. Unconsciously, I went to the other party's office!"

"In this way, I can sneak into your office at any time during working hours and spend time with you. What a perfect thing? Don't you be moved?"

Lori stepped back, bypassing Walter, walked to the door of the room and opened the door, and scolded angrily: "Walter, I don't want to see you, please get out of here!!!"

Walter sneered: "Lori, you let me go, I can go anytime, but your father, it seems that you can't hold on for too long, so I advise you to consider my conditions."

Lori gritted her teeth and said, "I won't think about it! Don't daydream here! Get out, or I will call the police now!"

Walter spread his hands, curled his lips and said, "OK, OK, don't be so excited. Although your father's condition is very serious, you should still have one month to think about it. I have been in Wrestvel recently. You figured it out. If you do, you can contact me at any time!"

After finishing talking, he straightened the collar of his suit, blinked provocatively at Lori, and smiled:
“My dear, then I’ll leave.”
