

The Amazing Son In-Law Chapter 2801-2810

Chapter 2801

Marven smiled slightly and said in his heart: "Although the time I went out this time is not long, the distance I went is really far.

A trip to Syria is 6000 kilometers, which is worth one and a half round trips from Wrestvel to Japan."

But naturally, he couldn't tell them that he had gone to Syria, so he smiled and said: "This time I went to Haicheng, not far away, and it took only three hours to drive."

"Haicheng..." Dave asked curiously: "According to that, your client this time is Tailai, the richest man in Haicheng?"

Marven borrowed the donkey from Po and said with a smile: "Dad's guess is really accurate!"

Dave chuckled, "Old man's brain is not covered!"

Viola curled her lips on the side: "Just your mind, what can't you do, what's not enough to eat, and you still have a face?"

Dave was impatient, and blurted out: "I said, Viola! I didn't ask you right now? What are you doing with this?"

Viola said disdainfully: "Why? I'm still committing a crime, to tell the truth? This family doesn't have my voice yet?"

Marven said hurriedly: "Mom, Dad, you two shouldn't just seize the opportunity and quarrel, it hurts your feelings."

Viola hurriedly said, "Hey, good son-in-law, let me interrupt, I don't have any feelings with Dave anymore. After all, we are separated."

Dave hummed: "Hey, you can be regarded as saying something, and I have no relationship with you. We are now neighbors at best."

Viola immediately slapped the table and shouted angrily: "Dave, did I give you a face? Let me say, you have three sentences waiting here. Have you become more skilled?"

Marven hurriedly finished the game: "Oh mom, don't be angry, isn't Dad just jocking?"

After finishing speaking, he quickly looked at Dave, winking his eyes, and said: "Dad, you just finished eating, and you are idle.

Or you can go for a run. Now the weather is getting warmer. It's helpful to go for a run by the river. It's so fun to digest and keep fit."

The meaning of Marven's words was to let Dave go to Meiqing.

Doesn't Meiqing like to go for a run by the river? It happened that Dave used his words to find Meiqing.

But as soon as Dave heard that he should go for a run by the river, he waved his hand and said,

"I'm not going... my calf is still pumping and painful. It's definitely not going to be better after ten and a half months!"

Chapter 2802

Viola heard Dave say that his calf was still pumping pain, and immediately frowned and asked: "Dave, did you go for a run behind me?"

Dave retorted, "What does it mean to carry you on my back? If I take a walk, I have to report to you?"

Viola snorted coldly: "Half of your body is buried in the loess. What are you still running for?"

What do you do for running?

Do you want to rejuvenate your second spring?"

Dave said impatiently: "Does it have anything to do with you? What are you asking so much for?"

After that, he glanced at the crutches placed on the dining table next to Viola, and sarcastically said,

"Why, your legs are not working well, so I am not allowed to go out for a walk?"

Marven heard it loudly and said: "Dad and Mom, you two should not argue with each other much. The more you talk like this the more frustrated you two will end up."

Avella said without looking back while cooking the noodles: "Husband, you don't know how I got through this meal.

They have been pinching here for more than an hour, but I can't persuade them. It's..."

Viola said angrily at this time: "I didn't mean to find his fault. The key point is that this guy speaks too annoyingly.

My worst thing is this leg. I broke it twice. He doesn't care about me at all. Forget it, who is still being ridiculed here, who are you bullying?"

Dave said coldly: "What does your broken leg have to do with me?"

I didn't break it for you. Besides, you have been talking with me for a long time, and you didn't mention your leg at that time.

Son, don't engage in moral kidnapping here."

Viola said desperately, "I am morally kidnapped? Dave, you are really discouraged!

You forgot that you were paralyzed when you were driven by Junwei's arrangement. How did I wait for you in the hospital?

I was busy doing it for you. If you're busy, will you leave me alone?"

Dave said disdainfully:

"I don't know? When I was injured, who was busy looking for a genius doctor?"

With that, Dave pointed to Marven next to him, and said loudly:

"My good son-in-law Marven found it for me! If it weren't for him, I would still be lying on the bed now."

Immediately afterward, Dave looked at Viola and asked,

"You said you were busy, what were you busy with? Were you busy with cheating girls? You think I don't know?"

Chapter 2803

"Don't f@rt!" Viola was uncovered, and suddenly shouted: "Which eye did you see me cheating my girl?"

Dave curled his lips and said, "Pretend, right? In the beginning, I was cured by the genius doctor.

The doctor said that I would be hospitalized for another two days of observation and pay fewer hospitalization fees.

What happened? You just took away the girl's cheque. Yes, if I remember correctly, the amount on the cheque was at least 170,000, right?"

Viola suddenly didn't know how to refute, her expression was green and white.

Dave sneered at this moment: "If I learn from you, after your broken leg, the first thing I do is to ask a girl to cheat some money, but I am not that kind of person.

I am a qualified person. , Understand?"

Viola was anxious. She picked up the crutches and smashed Dave with them. She still cursed and said: "Quality? I will let you talk about the quality and see if I don't interrupt your leg!"

Marven hurriedly stopped her, and said with a bit of anger, "Oh, it's all fine! You can't say anything, right?"

Just when I got home, you two performed the martial arts at home, don't forget that Avella and I are still there. ."

When Viola saw that Marven was a little angry, she hurriedly laughed and said, “Good son-in-law, don’t be angry, it’s not against you, it’s all against Dave this dog.

Dave originally wanted to fight her a few more words, but Marven seemed unhappy when he thought about it, so he just sat a little farther, and muttered: “I don’t know what you do.”

Viola stared angrily, and Marven said directly at this moment: “It’s OK, mom, don’t stay here and don’t let it go.

Let it go, you must be annoying to recuperate at home these days, or I will let my friend prepares a VIP card for you at Shangri-La tomorrow.

From now on, you can go to the SPA there every day, and you can just relax and enjoy a bit.”

As soon as Viola heard this, her brows were instantly delighted, and she cheered and said, “My God! Son-in-law, are you for real?

I heard that the spa at Shangri-La is the most expensive and high-end SPA in Wrestvel, just do whatever you want.

It costs thousands or tens of thousands of dollars to order any item!”

Marven smiled and said: “Shangri-La is the best hotel in Wrestvel after all. Spas are all integrated with the hotel. Naturally, the grades cannot be low, but the money is not a problem.

Their President happens to be my client. I can ask for an internal price even if I go to him, maybe I can get a free one.”

Chapter 2804

“Oh, that’s great!” Viola was very excited, and said excitedly: “Good son-in-law, then you will help mom to contact him tomorrow morning?

Mom is really tired of staying at home these days, if I can go to a SPA sooner. Relaxation is not only good for physical and mental health, it might also be helpful for the recovery of my legs!”

Marven nodded and said,

“I’ll help you ask, but the premise is that you don’t quarrel with Dad anymore.”

Viola said without hesitation:

“Good son-in-law, don’t worry, I don’t even bother to be familiar with him. From now on, I will count myself as losing if I look at him right away!”

Marven did not delay, immediately took out his mobile phone, sent a WeChat voice to Zak Chen, and said:

“Mr. Zak Chen, please do one thing, my mother-in-law wants a SPA VIP card for Shangri-La. Can you arrange it?”

Now, it’s best if all options are free.”

Zak Chen responded to the message almost in seconds: “Master Ye, VIP cards are all trivial matters.

Wait a moment, I will personally send you home.”

Marven said: “Mr. Zak Chen, you don’t need to take a trip in person, just arrange for a subordinate to send it over.”

Zak Chen hurriedly said:

“Master Ye, you are welcome, I just want to go out to do something, pass by Tomson, and deliver it right away.”

Marven knew that he definitely couldn’t be on the way, but when he saw that he insisted on bringing it in person, he didn’t insist, and said to him:

“Then you will be very hard to come by, Mr. Zak Chen.”

“Master, you are polite.”

When Viola heard this, the whole person flushed with excitement, and said excitedly:

“Mom, my son-in-law just has faced, dear, Mr. Zak Chen from Shangri-La will personally give the VIP card to this call. It’s incredible!”

After speaking, she hurriedly asked Marven: “Good son-in-law, can this card be used casually without spending money?”

Marven smiled slightly: “It should be, the details will not be known until President arrives.”

Viola was already so happy to fly, stretched both hands to the left for a while, and then to the right, still not forgetting to throw a wave-like curve, and said with joy:

“The SPA at Shangri-La can’t be visited once a year by most people. If I can have a free VIP card, I will go every day from now on.

I will simply go after breakfast every morning and come back at night!”

Dave curled his lips and said, “You can just move over and live there.”

Viola stopped quarreling with him, and said with a smile:

“Do you think I don’t want to? If you are the only old b@stard at home, I will definitely move in there and not come back.”

After she finished speaking, she changed the conversation and said with a flattering smile:

“But there are still my good son-in-law and my good daughter at home, don’t say anything else, I have to make breakfast for my good son-in-law every day, so I like being here. You just know to reach out and open your mouth to eat, I have never seen you moving a leg to do anything for my good son-in-law.”

Chapter 2805

As Dave heard this, he was a little agitated and wanted to say something, but he thought he couldn’t find a good reason to refute with his voice.

“I haven’t made any contributions to this family, despite the fact that I haven’t been a demon all the time like you...”

“Through Teng Teng Antique, I had previously made a fortune from Ervin.

I figured it would be a decent way to make a fortune, but who would have known there would be none after that...”

“Even the sc.umbag Ervin was enthralled. He used to be there every time I went to Antique Street, but I haven’t seen him in a long time!

“Do not say that I am unable to locate Ervin’s number. Later, with the mindset of picking things up, I began collecting antiques, but I ended up losing a lot of money.

I paid thousands of dollars to buy it, but I didn’t gain a lot of money. People opened their mouths and gave me a dollar or two as soon as I went to a professional organization to ask for a price, so it was basically a complete loss.”

“I later formed the Calligraphy and Painting Society, and I was involved in the organization’s affairs every day.”

Despite the fact that I am doing well in the association, it is mostly based on prestige and qualifications.

It’s completely pointless when it comes to making money...”

As a result, Dave thought about it and realized, with emotion in his heart, that “Wow, so I seem to be very lackluster.”

Marven, my good son-in-law, bought me a car, assisted me in pretending, assisted me in slapping my forehead, and followed me around every day.

But, but I haven’t helped him in any way...”

Dave felt more guilty in his heart for a while.

“Marven, what do you think is appropriate for Dad in this situation?” he said awkwardly to Marven.

“Dad, don’t you mix well in the Calligraphy and Painting Association?” Marven asked, laughing.

“You and mom don’t have to worry about making money,”

Marven said, waving his hand. You two will retire with peace of mind or do anything you enjoy for this family I and Avella are enough.

If you insist, Painting and calligraphy are two things that come to mind.

The connection is very powerful.

It corresponds to your interests. It can also help you develop your feelings and make new friends. “Why don’t you try it?”

“This is always free food at home, and Dad’s heart is still disturbed,” Dave confessed, a little ashamed.

Chapter 2806

“Oh, Dave, do you realize that you are eating for free?” Viola sarcastically asked. I believe you have no self-awareness!”

“Mom, it’s all a family,” Marven hurriedly said. There is no such thing as a free lunch. Will you have to go out with father in the future to be self-reliant and self-sufficient?”

“Oh, my son-in-law, that’s not what mom intended,” Viola waved her hand when she realized this.

Mom simply believes that Dave does not work every day and does not do housework. It reminds me of a slap master. “Adequate.....”

Despite her desire to mock Dave, Viola did not want to put herself in danger.

If Marven honestly asked her to go out and find something to do, she will no longer have such a fun leisure time.

“In this way, she will be responsible for mopping the kitchen, sweeping the floor, and cleaning the table to carry out the garbage in the future,”

Dave added hastily. All will be mine!”

Marven helplessly shook his head, but it was rude to Dave. It just so happened that the villa was very big, making cleaning a big task.

After all, Marven had been living in the orphanage since he was eight years old, so he wasn’t used to asking the aunt.

The young master’s problem is that he isn’t used to seeing anyone waiting for him.

Viola's heart became a little more balanced after seeing Dave taking the initiative to contract housework, so she didn't bother to argue with him any longer.

She is now awaiting Zak Chen's arrival because Zak Chen has promised to give Marven a SPA VIP card from Shangri-La, which is what she is most worried about right now.

After a few minutes, Avella cooked the noodles, removed them from the pot, and quickly dipped them in cold water before placing them in a bowl with his garlic moss fried pork gravy and chopsticks.

"Husband, how about my craft?" Avella said with a smile as he approached him.

"It smells really sweet, it must be delicious!" Marven exclaimed after giving it a good sniff.

He took a sip of this soup as soon as he finished speaking.

He was pleasantly surprised by this flavor.

The taste of fried pork with garlic moss is excellent, the garlic moss is very fresh, and the heat is well balanced, so the taste is excellent, and Avella cuts the pork belly into diced meat and stirs the rich meat aroma in the pot. The initial garlic moss scent is mixed in, which is very appealing.

Chapter 2807

Furthermore, the noodles are perfectly cooked, and the hardness is just right. At first glance, it appears to be cooked with a pinch of salt and then precisely passed through cold water, resulting in fragrant and solid noodles.

"Mom, what you do here is very wonderful!" Marven couldn't help but exclaim as he ate. Why didn't I realize you had such a valuable skill?"

"In the past, you used to cook," Avella admitted, "and I rarely get started in the kitchen." Since you like it, I'll try to cook for you more often in the future!"

"That's awesome!" Marven said with a light nod and a smile. But, my wife, don't get too busy cooking. Isn't the Emgrand Group's schedule jam-packed? It's preferable to focus on your job."

"I'll take care of the change," Avella said quickly.

"You eat quickly," she said after speaking, "and if there isn't enough, there will be noodles in the cup."

"Wow!" exclaims the speaker.

"The noodles made by my wife are really the best I have ever eaten!" Marven exclaimed after finishing two large bowls of noodles and wiping his lips.

"Next time," Avella said, smiling sweetly and comfortingly, "I'll make you some other braised meat to try!"

"It's nice to dare to love," Marven said with a smile.

The doorbell rang unexpectedly while he was speaking.

Viola was the first to respond, exclaiming, "Oh! I'll open the door for President Zak Chen, who must have come to deliver the VIP card!"

After speaking, she bolted.

"I, too, will come out and take a look," Marven said as he stood up.

"Dad, there are visitors at home," Avella said to Dave. "Let's go to the living room and say hello together."

"All right." Dave was also eager to meet Zak Chen, so he followed Marven out the door.

Viola had already opened the door over there as soon as the three of them entered the living room, and Zak Chen was the one who came in.

"Hello, Madam, I am Zak Chen from Shangri-La," Zak Chen said politely at the time.

"Oh, Mr. Zak Chen, please come in, please come in!" Viola hurriedly gave up the room, made an inviting gesture, and said with a smile.

"Then I will trouble you, Madam," Zak Chen said quickly.

With that said, he saw Marven walking over as soon as he walked in, so he hurriedly said politely, "Master Wade!"

"It's very embarrassing to make you have a hard time running," Marven said with a small nod.

"Not a big deal, don't be so polite with me master," Zak Chen said, flattered.

"Master Wade, these are two Shangri-La unlimited SPA VIP cards, which are for Ms. Viola," he said politely as he quickly took two Shangri-La personalized premium envelopes from his pocket and handed the cards to Marven.

Chapter 2808

Viola's face was fixed when she saw these two envelopes.

The most important thing for a woman of her age is to keep her body in good shape.

It is nothing more than body skincare and body control, to put it simply.

For many middle-aged women, body management is a daunting job.

After all, if you want to shape your body, you must engage in physical activity. Many individuals are unable to keep up due to laziness or a lack of motivation.

The skin care, on the other hand, is much simpler.

You go down to the salon and sit down on the bunk. You don't need to be concerned about anything.

Many light-skinned, delicate little girls welcomed them with a selection of high-end skin care items.

It's the equivalent of having a massage because you have taken care of the whole body's skin.

As a result, affluent and wealthy wives, in general, enjoy visiting beauty and health salons.

The price and cost of this high-end beauty SPA, on the other hand, are extremely high.

In general, a full-body treatment would set you back at least 5,000 yuan.

Furthermore, 5,000 yuan is just the basic equipment; first, the time will be short, and second, the skin care product brands used for care will be fairly common.

In general, a full-body SPA with a top-tier skin care brand will set you back tens of thousands of dollars.

The price will be approaching if you use a super first-line brand, such as the caviar skin care product that Marvin originally gave to Viola.

A hundred thousand dollars.

Viola didn't have the confidence or courage to go to Shangri-La for SPA when she was the best in the past.

Nowadays, Zak Chen's unlimited number and unlimited amount of VIP cards brought directly to top locations such as Shangri-La is simply one move that fully meets all of Viola's skin care needs. She couldn't help but be ecstatic.

Avella, on the other hand, was extremely embarrassed and said, "Mr. Zak Chen, I am extremely embarrassed to accept such a costly gift..."

"Mrs. Wade, you are welcome. Two VIP cards are nothing for Shangri-La, but Master Wade has supported us in Shangri-La all the time.

If it weren't for Master adjusting the Feng Shui for us, I'm sure Shangri-La would have long been in negative business.

Bankruptcy was imminent," Zak Chen said with a smile.

While Zak Chen's words were merely propaganda, Avella, Dave, and Viola were persuaded.

Chapter 2809

After all, they assume that Marvin's promotion to Master status in Aurous Hill was due to his knowledge of Feng Shui, as many wealthy families sought his assistance. The words of Zak Chen were not a concern.

However, Avella continued to believe there was no validity, so he said euphemistically, "Really, I am very busy every day and don't have much time to go to SPA or return my card. As for the other, I will first Thank you for my mother!"

"Wife, don't be shy about this little thing. Don't tell me if you have time. You and mom can hold the card first.

If you have time later, you can directly visit them," Marvin said with a smile.

"Mr. Zak Chen, the next time I come to Shangri-La to see Feng Shui, you don't need to pay me anymore," he said to Zak Chen after speaking to his wife.

"Then how embarrassed Master!" Zak Chen exclaimed, hurriedly and courteously.

"Well, I should consider it.

I will accept it," Marvin said, waving his hand. "President Zak Chen should not shirk this matter any longer."

"If this is the case, then I'm better off respecting my life!" Zak Chen said after borrowing the donkey.

"By the way, President, I have something to ask you for help with, I don't know if it's okay?"

Dave, who had been silent for a while, said, a little embarrassedly.

"Mr. Xiao, please say!" Zak Chen hurriedly said.

"That's it..." Dave coughed and said, "Our Aurous Hill Painting and Calligraphy Association recently wanted to hold a painting exhibition, but the venue has yet to be determined.

Originally, I wanted to go to Treasures Pavilion, but there was a kidnapping and bombing case some time ago, and the citizens were a little panicked there after the incident. If we still want to go there.

"No problem," Zak Chen said with a smile, "we have several banquet halls in Shangri-La, as well as a sky garden, which you can simply take out for your use if you don't have time."

"Hey, didn't Sky Garden say it's wrong to outsource the field?" Dave exclaimed, excitedly.

"Will it create trouble for President Zak Chen if I choose that?"

"There is nothing to worry about," Zak Chen said quickly.

"The sky garden is big and tastefully decorated, and it will undoubtedly contribute to the exhibition's efficiency. Mr. Xiao doesn't need to be so polite!"

"Wow! Thank you very much, Mr. Zak Chen!" exclaimed Dave, his face beaming.

“By the way, President, do you know if there is an estimated sum for the cost of this sky garden?” he inquired after he had finished speaking.

“Mr. Xiao, I heard you are now the executive vice president of the Painting and Calligraphy Association?” Zak Chen asked, smiling.

“It’s already nice to be able to sit in this role,” Zak Chen said solemnly. “Mr. Xiao doesn’t have to be so modest.”

“Since Mr. Xiao is the executive vice president of the Calligraphy and Painting Association, this is my own business,” he said again.

“Of course, I can’t raise money for my own business, so I have people arrange the place for free use by the Calligraphy and Painting Association.”

Chapter 2810

Mr. Zak Chen, you have really helped us... To be frank, our Painting and Calligraphy Association has been relatively tight lately, and this expense has been compressing...” Dave was pleasantly surprised.

“In the future, if the Calligraphy and Painting Association wants venues or even funding for any events, you can contact me directly,”

Zak Chen said with a smile, handing Dave a business card.

Dave was flattered and repeatedly thanked him, “Wow, thank you very much!”

“Ah, by the way, Master, I still have something to do, so I won’t bother too much,” Zak Chen said, looking at the time.

“So I’ll give it to you,” Marven grinned as he nodded.

“Oh, Mr. Zak Chen, you can be considered to know the door this time,” Viola said, smiling. “You must come often in the future!”

“Okay, okay, Master Wade and Madam Viola, please stay, I can go by myself,” Zak Chen said quickly and respectfully.

“Then I won’t send you off,” Marven smiled, not being polite.

Viola couldn’t wait to tell Marven, “Good son-in-law, show me the VIP card quickly?” as soon as Zak Chen had left she uttered.

Marven handed her an envelope.

Viola was ecstatic when she opened it. She danced with delight as soon as she opened it. When Marven saw her smile, she shook her head helplessly.

late in the evening

Zhiyu stayed up late chatting with the excited family before retiring to her specially prepared bed.

She couldn't stop thinking about Marven's presence as soon as she laid down.

Her girlish heart easily overflowed with girlish shyness, fantasy, and hope for the future when she thought of Marven.

Given the fact that Marven had many ties with her family and that Marven's own situation was also peculiar,

Zhiyu was not discouraged because she was halfway to finding him.

In any case, this is a positive development.

However, if you really want to be good, you will have a long way to go.

The duration, on the other hand, is irrelevant.

Zhiyu had the impression that she should either wait or try slowly.

A knock on the door rang just as she was about to leave.

"Who?" she unintentionally inquired.

"Zhiyu, it's me," Zhifei declared.

"You wait a moment, brother," Zhiyu said hurriedly.

She quickly got up and put on her dressing gown after speaking, then opened the room door.

"Brother, is there something going on at this late hour?"

She inquired as she approached Zhifei outside the house.

"Zhiyu, is it convenient for you to talk?" Zhifei asked, looking around and purposely lowering his voice.

"Convenient," Zhiyu said, thinking that her brother was concerned about her and wanted to speak to her, so she easily gave up time and invited Zhifei in.

She had no idea that her elder brother had experienced earth-shattering changes during the time she was rescued by Marven...
