

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 301-310

Chapter 301

After WeChat was sent, Marven kept receiving all kinds of replies.

The first reply was Warnia: "Mr. Ye, don't worry, I will come to congratulate you tomorrow!"

Then Qin Gang said, "Thank you for the invitation Mr. Ye, and I will definitely come and join tomorrow!"

Solmon Wang said: "Mr. Ye, I will bring and my nephew to congratulate you tomorrow. By the way, let these two little rascals face you in repentance."

Everyone was excited about Marven's invitation, thinking it was a good opportunity to get closer to Mr. Ye.

Avella originally had some regrets about the opening ceremony tomorrow, but never thought that her husband had already prepared a grand show for her!

Back home, Avella washed and rested early, preparing for the opening ceremony tomorrow morning.

Marven also slept very early, and he was thinking about how to make his wife the most concerned woman in Wrester tomorrow.

The next day.

Today is Avella's scheduled opening day.

Because she didn't have much money and was just starting out, Avella rented the company's office address in the slightly remote Wing Star Building.

Although the Wing Star Building is the property of a subsidiary of the Emgrand Group, it is really not worth mentioning. The Emgrand Group generally does not bother to operate it on its own, so it is leased to some intermediary companies.

Originally, Marven wanted to say something to Lori, asking her to vacate one of the floors of the Wing Star Building directly for his wife as a studio address.

But thinking about it, he was afraid of explaining it to Avella, so she let her spend her own money to rent a small office.

Avella and Marven stood at the door of the office at this time, waiting for the guests to arrive.

Yesterday, Avella sent invitation letters to some of the partners who were in Xiao's house before, and even plucked up the courage to send one to the Emgrand Group, but she was still a little nervous and didn't know these guests will come.

She lacks strength. If even the opening ceremony is deserted, then the circle will look down on her company even more.

Seeing her nervousness, Marven comforted her: "My wife, it's still early. It is estimated that when the time comes, all the guests will arrive. Don't worry."

The scheduled opening time is ten o'clock in the morning, just after nine o'clock at this time, it is normal for no one.

But not long after, Avella's cell phone rang suddenly.

After she picked it up, she found out that it was the phone from the front desk of the building, saying that it was the Xiao family's visit, so let her know in advance.

Marven also heard the voice on the phone and asked in surprise: "Xiao family? What are they doing here? You sent them an invitation letter?"

Avella shook her head and said, "I was like that with them before. Why would I invite them over? Maybe they want to see a joke. The front desk said that grandma came here in person and brought uncle and family. Don't create any conflict."

Marven nodded and said with a smile: "As long as they don't look for trouble, I will definitely not go to conflict with them on this happy day."

Chapter 302

Avella nodded worriedly.

Immediately afterwards, she saw Old Mrs. Xiao walking over from the outside passage with Noah Xiao, Jay, and Theresa on crutches.

Jay, who has beaten up some time ago and caught in the police station, had just been redeemed by the Lady Xiao with money, so at this moment Jay saw Marven and his face was full of resentment towards him.

But Marven didn't bother to care about him.

Today is a big day for the opening of the business, and he doesn't want to have any conflict with them, so as long as this group of people does not go too far, he will not take the initiative to provoke them.

Theresa walked to the front, sneered, and said: "Avella, you don't even say hello when you see your grandma, are you too unfilial?"

Avella said indifferently: "You have kicked us out of the Xiao family. It stands to reason that we have nothing to do now!"

"b@stard!" Old Mrs. Xiao jabbed her crutches to the ground and said angrily, "You are the blood of the Xiao family, so you are born to be from the Xiao family, and when you die, you are also the ghost of the Xiao family!"

Marven said coldly at this time: "Some people speak too much. They said they were kicked out of their homes, and they no longer recognize them as members of the Xiao family. Now they say that they belong to the Xiao family. Is this not too contradictory?"

Jay gritted his teeth and said: "When grandma speaks, it doesn't suit a waste like you to interrupt!"

Marven looked at him, and asked, "Did you not get beaten enough last time? Do you want me to loosen your muscles?!"

Jay's neck shrank, and he immediately persuaded.

When he robbed the villa last time, he had already seen Marven's strength, let alone one himself, even ten of them would not be his opponent, so he should be honest.

At this time, Avella pursed her mouth, turned her head to look at Mrs. Xiao, and said, "Sorry, we didn't invite you at today's opening ceremony. Please leave as soon as possible."

"Opening ceremony?" Mrs. Xiao said disdainfully: "Avella, you wouldn't think that if your small workshop opens, there will really be customers to join us?"

Noah Xiao on the side also chuckled and said, "I heard that you still sent an invitation letter to the Emgrand Group with a shy face? You don't want to think about how it is possible for a small workshop like yours to enter the eyes of the Emgrand Group."

"Yes." The Old Mrs. Xiao took the conversation back again, and said with a look of consolation: "Avella, the family doesn't talk about two families, the couple quarreled at the head of the bed, and the end of the bed was reconciled as before, let alone you, It's my granddaughter, you have my blood in your body, why fight with me?"

With that said, the Old Mrs. Xiao went further and said: "Look at you, you are working on such a dilapidated studio by yourself. It requires money and resources, and there are no resources. Why not return to the Xiao Group, and grandma will let you be the director, and you work with your grandmother. In the future, I will give you an account of the shares of the Xiao Group, and even let you take over as the head. What do you think?"

The Xiao family is in a very difficult situation recently.

Emgrand broke off their cooperation with them, blocked them, and the Wang family came to divorce again, and Jay couldn't support the wall with mud.

Mrs. Xiao's only hope at this time was to bring Avella back to work within the group to make a breakthrough in business.

Maybe Avella could get the Emgrand Group's contract back, so that other partners would come to cooperate with them one after another, and the situation would be reversed in no time.

However, Mrs. Xiao did not expect that Avella will shake her head calmly in rejection. She said, "I am not interested, I just want to do my own thing."

Noah Xiao coldly snorted, "Avella, I would advise you to be respectful. Do you see how desolate you are when you opened here today? Does anyone congratulate you? That's what you want to start a business? I think you are 80% still destined to failure. Start a business, then go bankrupt, is this what you want?"

Marven's expression was full of disdain and sarcasm and said: "Is there anyone here to congratulate, what to do with you? As long as you want to know, the entire Wrestvel dignitaries will come to congratulate Avella!"

Chapter 303

Hearing what Marven said, Jay smiled contemptuously, and said sarcastically: "Marven, just pretend, you just know a few s*umbags, do you really think you are a big man? I really don't believe you. Can the powerful person really come here!"

Theresa on the side could not help but snorted: "Marven, this waste, is best at bragging. If there is no one to congratulate on the opening ceremony today, tomorrow this studio will become Wrestvel's laughing stock. I see how you will take orders!"

When Avella heard her, even though she didn't say anything on the surface, she still couldn't help but worry.

The opening ceremony, to put it bluntly, is a ceremony that embodies the network resources.

If there are many customers, it proves that the company has a strong network and strength can be reflected, especially if there are big people, then many people will be very face-off when they hear about this.

But if there is no customer, wouldn't it be telling others that her company has no resources and no connections? How can anyone cooperate with this kind of company?

If Emgrand Group could send someone to participate in the opening today, it would have added a lot of brilliance to his company, but Avella was not sure whether Emgrand Group would take care of her.

Old Mrs. Xiao said at this time: "Avella, this is about to be 10 o'clock, and there is no guest. I don't think anyone has any interest in this small workshop. I advise you to return to the Xiao Group to work. It's better to help the Xiao family steadily in the future than to come out and be cold-eyed."

After knowing that Avella's company was about to open, the Xiao family also had exchanges with some of the partners who had good relationships before. After they knew that Avella was from the Xiao family, they all said that they would not come to the opening ceremony. I will never cooperate with Avella's studio in the future.

Therefore, Mrs. Xiao dared to pack tickets, and there won't be any capable guests here today.

At that time, Avella will naturally feel frustrated when she sees no one in her studio, and she will be able to handle her better in the future!

At this moment, Avella was indeed very anxious, biting her lower lip, worried.

Marven, who was next to her, shook her hand and said seriously: "Wife, even if there is no guest today, what can be done? It is enough to have me here!"

Avella looked at him moved, and nodded lightly, feeling that he was more at ease.

However, the Old Mrs. Xiao sneered: "Marven, you take yourself too seriously, what use are you here? Can you find a big person to join Avella's studio? Can you give Avella a favor? Is the studio looking for a cooperation order? Without the support of the Xiao Group, you will sooner or later drive yourself to a dead end!

Marven said arrogantly: "Avella's company will definitely get better and better! Let alone a Xiao Group that is on the verge of bankruptcy, even the Xiao Group in its previous heyday is nothing in front of Avella. What's the matter! Why is it difficult to surpass you at first?"

"What a big tone!"

The Old Mrs. Xiao heard that Marven actually said that the Xiao Group was on the verge of bankruptcy, and also said that Avella could easily surpass the Xiao Group in its heyday, feeling that the whole person was greatly insulted!

She angrily threw her crutches to the ground, and said: "You are just a rubbish who entered our Xiao family, how dare you say anything here?"

Marven smiled slightly: "You said I'm not ashamed? Ha ha, I'm just telling the truth. If you don't believe me, just wait and see!"

Jay sneered a few times and said, "Okay, Marven, I'm waiting for you to become a big company."

As time passed by, the time for karma was getting closer and closer.

Avella's heart became more and more flustered, and he kept looking at his watch, staring outside blankly.

Seeing her situation, Marven comforted a few words, but it had no effect.

Chapter 304

But he was not in a hurry. Since he had sent an invitation letter to the Emgrand, it was impossible for Lori to not come.

The reason why she hasn't arrived yet, is she probably preparing a gift!

Noah Xiao put on a posture of leaning on the old and selling the old, and said, "How about it, do you still think you have any connections?"

It's almost ten o'clock. If there were to be any guests, they would have come long ago.

And now the front door is empty, obviously the dust has settled, and no one will appear again.

Theresa also gloated and said: "Dad, this waste said, there is not a guest, it does not matter, it is enough to have him alone. He really doesn't know where his status can go, does he really think he's the most powerful in Wrestvel?"

At this moment, suddenly a voice from the front desk was deliberately raised from a distance.

"Tailai, the richest man in Haicheng, President is visiting"

Tailai?

Marven was a little puzzled. Since the last time the Wang family banquet where he brought the lightning strikes on the spot, he has never seen Tailai again. Today, his wife opened the business and did not invite him. Why did she come?

The Xiao family was also dumbfounded!

Tailai? The richest man in Haicheng next door is very strong. How could he come here?

After Tailai entered the door, he ran straight to the office where Marven was standing.

The Xiao family was surprised for a while, and glanced at each other. Noah Xiao took a step forward and said, "I just met a businessman from Haicheng a few days ago. He said that he has been walking closer to Tailai. He introduced me to Tailai?"

After speaking, Noah Xiao sorted his clothes and greeted him forward.

Old Mrs. Xiao didn't dare to pretend to be big, and walked out behind.

As soon as the fat-headed and big-eared Tailai approached, he hurriedly moved to Marven's side. He didn't pay attention to Noah Xiao who came up, and said with great surprise: "Mr. Marven finally caught up."

In the eyes of everyone's incomparable surprise, Marven nodded slightly and said, "Why are you here?"

Tailai hurriedly said respectfully: "Mr. Marven, your wife opened the business today, how can I not come to join you!"

At this time, Noah Xiao came to the front and interjected with excitement: "Mr. Li, you are here, let's go and talk inside. As you stand here and talk, it's not appropriate"

Tailai was getting close to Marven, but was suddenly interrupted. The smiling face suddenly became gloomy, and the air of a long-time high-ranking person exuded. He squinted at Noah Xiao and said coldly: "What are you? Did you not see me talking to Mr. Marven?"

Noah Xiao was very embarrassed, dumbfounded, and subconsciously asked: "I am Noah Xiao from the Xiao family, I was introduced to you by President Ma from Haicheng?"

Tailai frowned slightly and said disdainfully: "I don't know you, let alone Mr. Ma. I came here today to congratulate Mrs. Ye's company!"

Chapter 305

Tailai's words shocked the Xiao family.

He actually made a special trip to congratulate Avella? !

This is the richest man in Haichen!

Marven and Avella, when did they catch such a line? !

Noah Xiao was shocked in his heart, and he didn't expect that the other party would be so rude to him, he would swear, and he couldn't hold his face, he hurriedly backed a few steps with interest, and stood aside.

With a face full of doubt, Theresa asked Jay next to her in a low voice, saying, "This fat man is really the richest man in Haicheng? Does it feel like an actor has been invited? How can the richest man treat a Rubbish with respect"

Jay shook his head and replied in a low voice, "I don't think it looks like it."

None of the people present had seen Tailai.

But Tailai, who was kneeling and licking Marven in front of him, and Tailai, who was rumored to behave badly, were not alone at all.

At this time, Tailai took out an exquisite box from his bag, handed it to Avella, smiled respectfully and said, "Congratulations to Mrs. Ye's company for opening. This is a little bit of my heart, please accept it."

Avella was a little at a loss. She didn't invite Tailai, didn't even know Tailai, and didn't know if she should accept this gift.

Marven smiled slightly and said, "My wife, this is President Li's heart, accept it."

Avella then took the box, and after thanking him, she put away the present.

But she heard Theresa say: "Avella, President Li gave a gift, would you let us see it?"

"Yes, Li is always a big boss with a fortune of hundreds of billions, and the gifts he gives are definitely not ordinary." Jay also said.

Avella looked at Marven before opening the gift box under everyone's attention.

Inside the exquisite gift box, there is a crystal-clear jade pendant.

This pendant has no impurities, the whole body is emerald green, and it looks extremely transparent under the light.

Old Mrs. Xiao also stared at this pendant closely, her two old eyes were completely sinking into it.

She has already seen that this pendant is exactly the “clear breeze and bright moon” at the Orgeyon auction some time ago!

At that time, it was sold at a high price of 50 million. It is said that it was bought by a huge man in Haicheng, but she did not expect that man to be Tailai.

She looked at the pendant and her eyes were red.

If the Xiao family had such a pendant, it would be enough to fight a turnaround!

Theresa also said with some jealousy: “I didn’t expect someone to come, I don’t know what sh!t luck was, they met President Li”

As soon as she finished speaking, she heard the front desk of the building shout: “Ms. Avella has a congratulatory gift!”

Immediately afterward, a rumbling sound came from outside.

Everyone walked out of the building together, looked up, and saw that the square of the building had been cleared, and a huge helicopter was slowly descending.

Immediately afterwards, the staff of the entire building became busy.

One flower basket after another, one gift after another, were moved from the helicopter to the door of Avella’s office.

Chapter 306

The people in the entire building are boiling, but it’s just a company opening, so there can be such a big scene, even the helicopter has been dispatched!

The crowd poked their heads and looked at the few people standing in front of the company.

Avella looked at all of it with a sense of loss. Although she invited some people, they didn’t have much friendship with her. Besides, she didn’t know anyone who was able to fly, in a helicopter.

Someone in the crowd exclaimed: “Isn’t that flower basket limited to the legendary Tiffany? It seems that this flower basket is worth more than one million!”

“Wow, look at the flowers in these flower baskets. They seem to have never been seen before! This is too pretty!”

“That’s a Dutch tulip! The top Dutch tulip is similar to our domestic bluegrass. It is very expensive. Any one costs thousands or even tens of thousands. There are also blue enchantresses and Juliet roses that are all top in the world. These precious flowers! These flowers cannot be cultivated in our country. They can only be transported by air from abroad!”

“No wonder the helicopter was dispatched! It is estimated that after being transported to the airport from abroad, it was directly transported here by helicopter!”

“Looking at it this way, a flower basket is worth one million for Tiffany’s basket alone, and the precious flowers in it may also cost one million.”

“There are a total of 20 baskets worth more than 40 million here?”

“Oh my God, this is the real ho! An opening ceremony, more than 40 million gift baskets alone?!”

“Yeah! And these flowers won’t survive for long. I’m afraid they will wither after a few days. This is too extravagant.”

The Old Mrs. Xiao on the side couldn’t help swallowing.

She also likes planting flowers, and planted a lot of all kinds of flowers in the courtyard of Xiao’s villa.

However, she has always been reluctant to buy the world’s rare flowers.

Especially the most classic red and Wang tulips in the Netherlands, one plant costs nearly 10,000.

Theresa’s eyes straightened, and she whispered: “Grandma, I remember that you really liked the Dutch tulips, but in the end I was not willing to buy them. I could only buy a few hundred Henan tulips. How do these people give Avella gave such a valuable gift!”

When the Lady Xiao thought of her Henan tulips, it was a thousand miles away from others’ Dutch tulips!

As a result, she was even more jealous, and she couldn’t help but wonder if she could take a few away when she leaves, and plant them in her garden to see if they could survive.

At this moment, someone outside shouted:

“Ms. Lori, Vice Chairman of Emgrand Group, Ms. Warnia, Patriarch Solmon Wang, Patriarch Qin Gang, and genius Doctor Tianqi, congratulations on the opening of Madame Ye’s company, and wish the company a prosperous business!”

Not only the Xiao family was shocked, but even the entire staff of the Wing Star Building were shocked!

Although they are an industry under the Emgrand Group, the Emgrand Group seldom intervenes. They didn’t expect that the vice chairman of the group and so many Wrestvel big figures came to this humble building for the opening of Avella’s company!

So many big people gathered in the Wing Star Building, which is also a brilliant thing for the Wing Star Building.

This also made many people wonder in their hearts: What is the background of this newly opened company, and how can so many bigwigs congratulate them at the same time.

The members of the Xiao family were also dumbfounded. Everyone wondered in their hearts: How much face is this Avella? !

Avella herself was stunned, and just hearing these names made her very panicked.

After all, the entire Xiao family is now in despair, and Avella also knows very well that he can only be regarded as a newcomer who has just started a business and is poor, and has no foundation in Wrestvel.

So, how could these big shots personally join in for the opening ceremony?

Could it be because of her husband Marven? !

Chapter 307

At this time, the crowd of onlookers quickly gave up a passage.

Two beautiful women, Lori and Warnia, walking side by side from outside, wearing very decent formal attire and smiling.

Behind them, Solmon Wang took Phil and Fred Wang, Qin Gang took Aoxue and Steven, Tianqi took Zhovia, and walked in.

And Mr. Orvel followed all of them.

Theresa looked at this scene with a face full of disbelief.

Among these people, no matter which one is, it is rare to see big people.

Unexpectedly, she would gather here to celebrate Avella, which really made her feel extremely uncomfortable!

Before that, she also had her own pride. She was also a young lady, the rich lady, and one of the most outstanding young people in Wrestvel City.

She has an outstanding appearance and good figure, and she is also a proper goddess in the upper class of Wrestvel.

She has been competing with her cousin everywhere for so many years.

She thought that she had found a good husband and could crush her cousin in all aspects, but now, everything she has is compared to Avella.

Her current self is actually different from her!

“Avella, what kind of sh!t luck did you have?!” Theresa looked at Avella with undisguised jealousy.

Avella ignored her, because she herself was in a daze at this time.

She couldn’t help looking at Marven, and asked in a low voice, “You invited these people?”

Marven nodded, and said, “These people, I have shown them Feng Shui and pointed out their fortunes. It can be regarded as a little friendship.”

Avella feels her head is huge

She has told Marven many times, don’t make that kind of thing to deceive people, he didn’t listen, on the contrary, he deceived more and more, and he was a little man who couldn’t afford to offend.

Wouldn’t it be bad luck if it was discovered one day?

She wanted to persuade Marven, but before she could speak, Lori and Warnia had already walked to the front.

Warnia spoke first.

She glanced at Avella unobtrusively, then smiled, stretched out her hand and said: “Congratulations to Madam Ye’s company for opening. If the Song family has design needs in the future, we’ll ask for your help!”

Obviously she was here to deliver the business, and he said that she would ask her for help. The Xiao family was simply dumbfounded. How can Avella make Miss Song so humble?

Avella stretched out her hand nervously, shook Warnia’s, and said flattered: “Thank you Miss Song!”

While talking, Warnia was looking at her, and she was also looking at Warnia.

Warnia was almost the same as Avella in appearance and figure, but the noble temperament that Warnia was born with was incomparable to Avella.

Thinking of this, Avella couldn’t help feeling a little inferior.

Warnia said at this time: “Mrs. Ye, you are Mr. Ye’s wife, and you are the benefactor of Warnia, so you and I must not be polite!”

Chapter 308

Sure enough, I came here looking at Marven’s face

Hearing this, Avella couldn’t help but glance at Marven, who was greeted by others, feeling a little jealous in his heart.

My husband, who could make Miss Song Family attach so much importance, he really became more and more invisible.

Afterward, Lori also came forward, shook hands with Avella, and smiled: "Mrs. Ye, congratulations on your successful business. Our Emgrand Group has several projects and we are waiting to cooperate with you!"

"Really?!" Avella was shocked!

At the beginning, the Xiao family was able to get the Emgrand Group's 60 million contracts, which was enough to make the whole family excited. If she could get the Emgrand Group's 6 million contracts, she would be very popular!

Lori smiled slightly at this time and said, "Of course it is true Mrs. Ye. We now have a total of almost 300 million in renovation projects. If Mrs. Ye can afford it, then we will assign it to you!"

The Xiao family next to them are almost jealous!

A three-billion-dollar renovation project? !

All to Avella? !

The Emgrand Group was squeezed by the door, right?

A company like theirs, come to kneel and lick a little Avella? !

In these three hundred million projects, even if it can give the Xiao family thirty million, it is enough for the Xiao family to stand up!

The Old Mrs. Xiao felt extremely uncomfortable. She knew that Avella had such great ability. Even if she kneeled down for her, she would stay in Xiao's house!

At this point in her mind, she secretly swears in her heart: I have to get Avella back for anything this time! Get the Emgrand Group's project back!

At this moment, Solmon Wang also brought his son Fred and nephew Phil up.

As soon as Solmon Wang arrived, he respectfully clasped his fists and said: "Mrs. Ye, we also wish you a good business and good fortune! In addition, if the Wang Group has any decoration business in the future, it will be given to you!"

Avella was flattered and hurriedly said, "Thank you, Mr. Wang."

Phil and Fred Wang also stepped forward, bowing deeply and respectfully saying: "Mrs. Ye, congratulations on your opening!"

The two of them were already honest and submissive, and the liver trembled when they heard Marven's name. In addition, the family was now blessed by Marven, so they really felt sincere about Avella. respect.

At this time, Theresa, who was not far away, had an extremely tangled expression as she watched the Wang family approach.

She saw Phil, whom she had always loved so much, and felt bitter and unbearable. Originally, she should have been married to him, become his wife, and Wang's daughter-in-law.

However, now, he is even stranger to her. Not only has he blocked all her contact information, but he doesn't even bother to look at her.

What made her even more unacceptable was that even Phil, whom she loved so much, had to bow his head and respectfully talk to Avella. In such a comparison, she was simply thrown into outer space by Avella!

Seeing this, Theresa finally couldn't help it, stepped forward, grabbed Phil's arm, and said with tears: "Phil! Phil! Why haven't you been in contact with me lately?"

Phil's face became cold, and he took his arm out of Theresa's hand and said coldly: "Sorry, we have nothing to do with you anymore. I am here to congratulate Mr. Ye and Madam Ye, please respect me a little!"

"Me? Respect?!" When Theresa heard this, her whole body almost collapsed, her tears kept falling, and she shouted: "Phil! I have been with you for so many years, and I am your fiancée. I have also been pregnant with your child. Now you let me show respect. You played with me, you then dump me. Do you respect me?!"

Chapter 309

Theresa's heart was extremely sad and painful at this time.

The beautiful sustenance of the rest of her life was once placed on Phil alone.

But unexpectedly, Phil pushed her into the abyss with his own hands!

What made her even more unacceptable was that Phil not only played with and abandoned her, but even showed such a strong dislike in front of so many people!

This almost made her run away!

Facing her crying question, Phil said coldly with a gloomy expression: "Don't mess around here. It's normal to fall in love and break up. Is there any respect or disrespect?"

Seeing that Theresa seemed to be making trouble at this time, Marven stepped over.

When Phil saw Marven, his face paled in fright, for fear that Marven would be dissatisfied with this scene, and quickly explained: "Mr. Ye, don't be surprised, this shameless b*tch, you must leave her yelling here."

Theresa really did not expect that in the past, Phil was quite fond of her, but now, his attitude towards her is like a slap in the face.

Moreover, Phil actually said that she was a shameless b*tch in order to curry favor with Marven!

This made her feel extremely upset!

All her patience has completely broken the limit at this moment, and she shouted hysterically: "Are you guys blindly admitting to wrong?! What kind of thing is Marven? But just a wasteful son-in-law! What are you guys? Everyone has to kneel and lick him?! Why?!"

Phil was shocked, slapped her face, and cursed: "Shut up, b*tch! What kind of a bird are you, and how dare you comment on Mr. Ye? Believe it or not, I will kill you!"

Seeing the humiliation of her precious granddaughter, Mrs. Xiao was also very dissatisfied in her heart. She stepped forward and said coldly: "Mr. Wang, restrain your nephew! Don't deceive too much!"

"Too much deception?!" Solmon Wang squinted at her and said with a sneer: "To tell you the truth, if it wasn't for Mrs. Ye's company to open today and the day when he was overjoyed, I wouldn't have seen blood. With what she said just now, I would beat her on the leg. broken!"

After finishing talking, Solmon Wang stared at Mrs. Xiao again, and said coldly: "Also, what are you? Let me restrain my nephew? Don't think I don't know, I indulged Jay and snatched the villa that I gave to Mr. Ye. , It's you, old witch! I didn't bother you. I wanted to give Mr. Ye and Madam Ye's face. You can say one more nonsense. Believe it or not, I'll fight with you?"

Old Mrs. Xiao had a cold back and her legs suddenly began to tremble.

She is accustomed to being domineering in the Xiao family, and when she come out she wants to assume the posture of a patron, but now she has lost power!

What's more, even if she didn't lose his power, in front of Solmon Wang, she was not qualified to point at him.

If Solmon Wang is really going to rush to beat her now, she really has no way

The Old Mrs. Xiao was flustered, and hurriedly blurted out: "Wang the Lady Xiao who is worried about it for a while. Please don't be familiar with me."

Solmon Wang looked at her in disgust, and said, "Hurry up and go!"

Old Mrs. Xiao walked away immediately.

However, Theresa suffered repeated blows, and at this time had lost her mind.

She suddenly rushed in front of Phil, hugged Phil, crying and begging: "Phil, why are you so indifferent to me?! I have always loved you, I love you very much! The body, my heart, everything about me is yours. Why do you want to divorce me? I beg you, give me another chance, OK, let's start from the beginning, OK?"

Seeing that she suddenly jumped up and hugged him, Phil hurriedly struggled, tried to break free, couldn't help but feel annoyed.

Chapter 310

He knew very well in his heart that he was deceived by the Xiao family's mentally handicapped people and almost offended Mr. Ye. Fortunately, Mr. Ye had a large number of adults, so he didn't continue to target him, otherwise he might have harmed the entire Wang family.

Now, this Theresa still has the face to find him to get back together?

Isn't this f*cking pulling him into the fire pit?

Thinking of this, Phil pushed Theresa to the ground and kicked her in the stomach, yelling: "Theresa! From today, you will roll as far as you can go. If you entangle, I swear to God that I will kill you!"

Theresa was struck by lightning immediately, and her whole body was dumbfounded.

Looking at Phil, there was no way to connect with Phil who was in love with her before.

Although Avella was always dissatisfied with Theresa, she was still her own cousin. Seeing that she was insulted like this, she couldn't see it. So she said to Phil: "Mr. Wang, you and Theresa are either If you love it, even if you can't be a lover, you can't be an enemy, right?"

As soon as these words came out, Phil immediately bowed in trepidation and fear: "Mrs. Ye, what you taught us! It was improperly handled underneath. Please forgive me!"

Theresa did not expect that Phil would be so cruel and merciless to her, yet so respectful of Avella

She turned her head to look at Avella, not only did she not feel grateful, but hated her for being a shareholder!

A voice yelled in her heart: It was Avella, this btch! blame this btch for making me into the field where she is today!

Had it not been for this btch, and this btch's waste husband, she would have married Phil long ago!

She could have lived the happy life of Mrs. Wang a long time ago, and at the same time, he can help the Xiao family to a higher level, and the entire Xiao family will not be reduced to the present situation!

Blame you!

Blame you! !

Blame you! ! !

You b*tch! ! !

Thinking of this, Theresa with a disheveled hair jumped up suddenly, and suddenly pinched towards Avella full of hatred.

“b*tch! I strangled you! It was you who killed me! I want to strangle you!!!”

Seeing her suddenly walk towards her, Avella’s eyes were full of blood-red, and she was shocked and hurriedly hid back.

Marven’s face was cold, and he was about to shoot Theresa, but saw that Mr. Orvel had already rushed out at this time, slapped Theresa hard on the face, and slapped her to the ground.

Mr. Orvel was very angry, and said, “Who are you? You even dared to beat Madam Ye. I will kill you now!”

While speaking, Mr. Orvel said hello to the back: “Come here, take out this b*tch who has offended Mrs. Ye, and kill her first!”

As soon as Mr. Orvel’s words fell, two burly men in black immediately ran out from behind, pulled Theresa up, and dragged her out.

Noah Xiao hurriedly rushed over, begging: “The little girl is ignorant, please forgive her.”

The killing intent in Mr. Orvel’s eyes was vertical and horizontal: “What kind of thing are you! No more chirp, I will kill you too!”
