

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 311-320

Chapter 311

Noah Xiao was frightened by Mr. Orvel.

He had no doubt about Mr. Orvel's words. For such a person who has been in the underground for years and unified the entire Wrester underground world, killing two people could not be hard.

Seeing that these two brawny men were about to take Theresa away, Noah Xiao was very anxious, and he asked Avella for help: "Avella, please beg for mercy. After all, it is your sister. How can you look at her taken away?"

Avella felt a little unbearable, and said to the two strong men: "Don't make things difficult for her. Theresa was also confused for a while and didn't mean to hurt me."

Although Avella was a little disgusted with Theresa, she was a cousin after all, so how could she be beaten to death?

Hearing what she said, Mr. Orvel turned to look at Marven, waiting for Marven to give orders.

Marven smiled slightly and said: "Do what my wife says."

Mr. Orvel said, "Since Madam Ye has spoken, let them live!"

Marven nodded and said to Mrs. Xiao: "I said it a long time ago. You are not welcome here. If you are acquainted, just go by yourself. Otherwise, I will let Mr. Orvel's people beat you out!"

Old Mrs. Xiao trembled with anger, and the road was unsteady, but she didn't dare to stay here, she could only leave quickly with the help of Noah Xiao, for fear of being beaten.

Theresa was still in a state of despair and screamed: "I won't go! I won't go! I'm going to strangle that b*tch Avella! Let go of me and let me strangle her!"

Mr. Orvel kicked her with a black face, and kicked her to the ground directly, yelling: "Cut off your tongue, if you don't stop talking nonsense!"

Seeing that his sister was about to cause a catastrophe, Jay hurriedly stepped forward to help her up and said, "Sister, let's go home!"

The Lady Xiao sighed repeatedly. Today, she wanted to mock Avella. By the way, she would give her a little pressure and induce her to return to the Xiao family. Unexpectedly, Avella today is no longer in the same language. There are so many big people backing her. The Xiao family is completely unable to trick her back

When she left, Mrs. Xiao felt extremely uncomfortable. If she knew today, why bother? Now Avella is unwilling to return to the Xiao family. The Xiao family has lost the last straw, and it seems that only bankruptcy is left for them to have it in their fate.

After the Xiao family left in disgrace, Avella was relieved.

However, the lively atmosphere on the scene quickly made her nervous again.

The people here are all big people, but the place here is very small and the reception is not very convenient.

Just thinking about it, many staff from Wing Star Building ran over to entertain them with meals, drinks and drinks.

After all, it is the property of the Emgrand Group. With a call from Lori, the group immediately put aside all their work and gathered around Avella's studio to help.

Lori came to Avella and said, "Mrs. Ye, Wing Star Building is the property of our Emgrand Group. Since you choose to start a business here, we naturally have to show something."

Then, she greeted a middle-aged person and said, "This is Xu Bo, the manager of Wing Star Building. I have already told him that in the future, the office on this floor will gradually be invited to quit and leave it to your company. ."

Avella hurriedly waved her hand, flattered and said, "Lori, you don't need to be so polite. I have a studio now. I can't use such a large place, and the cost of such a large place is too high, I can't afford it."

Xu Bo hurriedly handed over a check for 180,000 and said to Avella, "Mrs. Ye, this is your prepaid one-year office rent. From now on, all the rent, utilities, property fees, Air conditioning and heating costs are all borne by us!"

Chapter 312

Avella nervously said: "Oh, this works so well"

Marven took her hand at this time and said with a smile: "Wife, since Lori has the heart to help you, why do you refuse on her Lori's face?"

Avella hurriedly said, "I'm not refuting Lori's face, I just think it's too embarrassing."

Marven took the check from Xu Bo and put it in Avella's hand, saying: "Since Lori and Xu said that it is free, then you should take the money. Emgrand Group is a large group with a market value of hundreds of billions. Why would you care about your rent? Besides, I will work with you in the future. You can't be so dismissive, right?"

Marven's words made Avella's heart lose.

Indeed, the Emgrand Group is the largest company in Wrestvel. Just one company is comparable in scale to the entire Song family.

If she had to meet Lori because of the 180,000 rent, it would probably make Lori feel uncomfortable.

So she nodded hurriedly and said gratefully: "Lori, thank you so much!"

Lori smiled slightly: "Everyone is a partner, and it is okay to help each other."

Avella nodded hurriedly, and then handed the check to Marven, saying: "The dress I wear has no pockets. You can put this check for me."

"Okay!" Marven slipped the check into his pocket and said to Avella, "Go, I'll take you to say hello to Miss Song. They have several renovation projects in the Song family recently. You can talk to her more."

Avella responded, but she didn't want to chat with Warnia.

Because she is indeed a little inferior in front of Warnia.

More importantly, she always felt that behind Warnia's generous and intellectual smile, there seemed to be some hostility hidden.

It is said that a woman's intuition is the most accurate. Deep down in Warnia's heart, she was thinking that one day she would be able to bring Marven, the son-in-law, from Xiaos to Song's house, so she would faintly be hostile.

And Avella was already aware of Warnia's deeply hidden hostility.

It's just that she hasn't figured out the source of this hostility yet.

At this time, Avella checked the time. It was already past ten o'clock, and her parents hadn't arrived yet.

So she quietly told Marven: "Marven, Mom and Dad have not arrived yet, you call them and ask where they are."

Marven nodded and said, "Maybe there is a traffic jam on the road."

He and Avella got up early because they had to clean up the office and prepare for reception. Before going out, they also agreed with the old wife and mother-in-law to come to the company before ten o'clock and attend the opening ceremony together.

But now more than ten minutes have passed, and they haven't seen the shadow of the two old men.

Marven took out his cell phone, and just about to make a call, he heard Avella's cell phone ring.

Avella saw that her mother Viola was calling, and she immediately answered the phone.

As soon as the phone was connected, Viola's anxious voice came: "Avella, there was a car accident on our way here, and your dad is injured and he is in the People's Hospital. Come here!"

Chapter 313

"What?!" Avella was shocked, and immediately asked, "How is Dad's injury? Which hospital is it in?"

Viola's voice trembled, hurriedly, still crying, and said: "At Wrestvel People's Hospital, your dad was knocked into a coma. Come here!"

Avella didn't expect that at the first moment, she was still celebrating the grand opening with joy, but the next second, she suddenly received such a bad news.

She said anxiously: "Okay, I'll come over immediately!"

Marven heard the call between the two clearly and realized the seriousness of the matter.

Afterwards, without saying anything, he immediately said to everyone present: "Everyone sits by yourself for a while, Avella and I are going out!"

Under normal circumstances, it is a very rude behavior for the host to leave the guests aside, but these people are Marven's fans, so naturally they have no opinion on Marven.

So Marven drove his wife Avella straight to Wrestvel People's Hospital.

When they arrived at the hospital, Marven and Avella went all the way to the ICU ward of the hospital.

Pushing the door in, Marven saw at a glance that Dave was lying on the hospital bed, his eyes closed tightly, and he was unconscious.

As for the mother-in-law Viola, she was sitting in front of the hospital bed with bloodstains on her body, her face pale, and she looked lost.

Avella's pretty face turned pale, her eye circles instantly red and swollen, she rushed over and asked anxiously, "Mom, what's wrong with dad?"

Viola's eyes were red and said, "Your dad took me to attend your opening ceremony and was hit by a muck truck running through a red light. Now his situation is very dangerous."

Avella hurriedly asked the doctor making rounds in the ward: "Doctor, how is my father's condition?"

The doctor said, "Don't worry, he is not in danger for the time being."

Avella and Marven breathed a sigh of relief when they heard that Dave was not in danger.

Unexpectedly, the doctor hesitated at this moment and said again: "But"

Avella couldn't help asking: "But what?"

The doctor sighed and said, "However, the patient has injured his spine and will face high paraplegia when he wakes up."

High paraplegia, that is, paralysis from the neck down.

In that case, a human would become a living dead with no abilities, only slightly better than a vegetable.

When she heard that her dad might face high paraplegia,

Avella's eyes were dark, and she only felt that the sky was spinning for a while, if it weren't for Marven's quick eyes and hands to support her, she would collapse to the ground.

If her father, Dave, really becomes paraplegic, it means that he can only lie on the bed in the future, can't do anything, and completely lose his ability to live!

This kind of life, for a person, is simply better than death!

She hurriedly asked: "Doctor, can a spinal injury be cured?"

The doctor shook his head and said: "Basically, there is no cure. At least there are no cases of high paraplegia cured in the world. The most common is that the patient has recovered to the point where the patient can sit up by himself, and the rest is basically powerless, so You have to be mentally prepared"

Hearing this, Avella couldn't help crying like rain, and it was pear blossoms with rain.

Then, she choked up and asked Viola, "Mom, are you okay?"

Chapter 314

Viola looked pale and said, "Hey, I'm fine, but my head hurts a bit. The doctor said that there was basically no major problem after the examination. It was mainly your dad. The muck truck hit his side at the time."

As she said, she cried all of a sudden.

Her husband may be paraplegic at a high position, which is also a fatal blow to her.

Marven asked carefully to find out that the muck truck that ran the red light had already escaped after the incident. The mother-in-law and the Old Master both fell into a coma when the accident happened, and could not see the approximate visual characteristics of the license plate number.

Subsequently, the two were sent to the hospital by kind passers-bys.

Viola's situation was better. Sitting in the passenger seat, she was just unconscious when she was hit at the beginning. At most, she was stippled and suffered some minor injuries. She woke up after arriving at the hospital.

But the Old Master sat in the driving position and took most of the impact, so he was not so lucky, and he was hit by a muck truck.

Marven couldn't help sighing: god doesn't have long eyes either.

This Old Master, although he usually likes to brag, he doesn't understand and has to pretend to be an expert, but to the bottom of his heart, he is not a bad person, he is just a little useless.

As a result, Dave is currently paraplegic in a high position. If he does not take action, he will be basically cold for the rest of his life.

On the contrary, mother-in-law is not only a standard snobbery, she is also a half-shrew, a stinky Lady who wants to sell her daughters and begs for glory, and she has no morals or limits in her life.

The results of it? She has nothing to do.

Thinking of this, Marven sighed, thinking evilly in his heart, why isn't the person who was knocked into a paraplegic, his mother-in-law Viola?

If she bumped into a high paraplegia, she will save a lot of worry in the future when she is in Xiao's family.

At this moment, the door of the ICU ward opened, and two figures walked in from outside.

When Marven saw the young man walking in the forefront, his face suddenly became cold. The person here was Gao Junwei, who was hit hard by himself at the car show yesterday.

And behind him, there was a middle-aged man carrying a medicine chest with a big red cross on it.

Avella couldn't help asking: "Mom, why did he come?"

Viola said, "I asked him to come. Junwei knew the dean of this hospital. He was visiting relatives here when we were admitted. He saw that I and your dad were injured, so he arranged for your dad to the ICU ward."

After speaking, she immediately changed her face, greeted him with a smile on her face, and exclaimed affectionately: "Junwei, you have been busy running up and down just now. You have worked hard, come and have a rest!"

Gao Junwei smiled slightly and said, "It's okay, Auntie, I'm not tired."

As he said, he suddenly saw Marven standing behind Viola, his face changed slightly.

Unexpectedly, Marven, an eye-catching waste, was actually there.

Yesterday at the auto show, it was because Marven was in the middle of it, that made him lose face in front of Avella.

Since then, he hated Marven deeply.

And he didn't think Marven Rubbish would be really awesome, so he wanted to find a chance to pierce his disguise.

Now that the enemy meets, he is naturally jealous, and at the same time, he is even thinking about regaining his face before Avella and regain her favor.

At this time, Viola sighed, wiped away her tears, and said: "Junwei, the doctor said just now that your Uncle Xiao may be paralyzed in bed for the rest of his life. How can this make me live?"

Gao Junwei hurriedly pointed to the middle-aged man behind him and introduced to Viola: "Auntie, don't worry! This is Zhongjing Liu, the famous doctor Zhongjing Liu. He is a famous traditional medicine doctor in the country. I specially invited him to come to see uncle. He is a great healer! Uncle will be able to heal with him!"

Chapter 315

As soon as Viola heard that the other party was a well-known expert in the country, she was immediately excited and said hurriedly: "Oh, Junwei, thank you so much! Thank you also, Doctor Zhongjing!"

Gao Junwei smiled slightly and said calmly: "Auntie, you are welcome, this is what I should do.

After speaking, he turned around and respectfully said to Zhongjing Liu behind him: "Mr. Zhongjing, Uncle Xiao's illness, I'm bothering you."

Hearing this, Zhongjing Liu took a step forward, smiled slightly, and said confidently: "Don't worry, isn't the patient hurting the spine? Although it is difficult to heal, it is still very easy for me."

The doctor in charge of the hospital asked in surprise: "As far as I know, there is no good solution for spinal injuries in the world. Even the richest people in the world can only lie on the bed after they have injured their spine. With cord sclerosis, you can only sit in a wheelchair for the rest of your life, with only three fingers you can move. Why are you so confident?"

Zhongjing Liu smiled and said arrogantly: "Because I have a magical medicine, as long as I give it to the patient, the patient will recover soon."

After speaking, he carefully took out half a crystal clear pill from the medicine cabinet.

Holding the pill, Zhongjing Liu looked arrogantly and said, "Look, this is the magical medicine I developed! After eating it, let alone a spinal injury, it is nothing to say to restore a vegetative person to normal!"

Avella, who has been crying silently, couldn't help but ask: "Does this medicine really work?"

"Of course!" Zhongjing Liu said with a proud face, stroking his beard, "I am the world's number one magic drug maker. It was made with the essence of life and painstaking effort by an expert with great magical powers before driving to the west. , Priceless, if it weren't for Mr. Gao's face, I would never take this medicine out."

Marven looked at the half-pill in Zhongjing Liu's hand, and he was immediately happy.

Isn't this just the semi-finished products that he prepared to heal Dave?

This medicinal property is actually one-tenth of the actual finished product. Although it is not bad, it is no problem for general injuries and serious illnesses, but it is a bit less potent.

It was also fortunate that Zhongjing Liu treated it like a treasure, and even took it out carefully, for fear that it would be broken and damaged.

But in Marven's eyes, this medicine is a gadget he refining at will, as much as he wants!

Thinking of this, he sneered even more.

If it were the magic medicine that he refined for the second time, it could indeed heal the Old Master's spine and make him recover as before.

However, this half-finished product in Zhongjing Liu's hands is definitely not good.

So Marven couldn't help but shook his head and said, "Forget it, Dr. Zhongjing, you can't cure father-in-law's disease with your medicine."

Gao Junwei next to him immediately sarcastically said: "Marven, how you dare to question the authority of Doctor Zhongjing here?!"

Zhongjing Liu seemed to hear a big joke, and said: "Boy, what do you know? Even the famous traditional medicine expert Tianqi, his injuries were cured by my magic medicine. This traditional medicine leader is convinced that It's ridiculous that you can't say it's a suspicious magic drug!"

When this word came out, everyone present was shocked!

Who is Tianqi?

He is the undisputed expert of the traditional medicine circle. He has extremely superb medical skills and he has treated countless people throughout his life. Even if you are rich and powerful, it is difficult to invite him out!

But now, he was helpless with his own body, but the magical medicine developed by the magical doctor Zhongjing was directly cured? !

But Marven said that the medicine was not effective at this moment. Isn't this a joke?

Chapter 316

After hearing this, Viola was furious and immediately cursed: "Marven, you are a useless rubbish, what kind of stuff you are, don't you know it?!"

As she said, the more she looked at Marven, the more displeased she was, and she said, "Don't be here to delay the treatment by Doctor Zhongjing, hurry up!"

Marven frowned. At the same time, he couldn't help but slander in his heart: Could it be that Zhongjing Liu was the first to buy the medicine from Ervin Jones?

If this is the case, the one who resold one of the medicines to Tianqi at a high price of five million is probably also him.

It seems that Zhongjing Liu is still a profitable businessman in his bones!

This Gao Junwei invited him out of the mountain for fear that he did not spend less.

At this time, Gao Junwei also thought he had grasped Marven's handle, and sneered: "Marven, you are a Rubbish, and you can't help with anything. You are quite nonsense?!"

As he said, he pretended to suddenly realize, and said, "Oh, I can understand it, you question the genius Doctor Zhongjing, you don't want to see Uncle Xiao heal!"

"Hehe, am I talking nonsense?"

Marven can tolerate the unreasonable troubles of his mother-in-law, but it does not mean that he also puts Gao Junwei in his eyes, and immediately sneered: "I know Tianqi, why haven't I heard him say that his illness was cured by this idiot?"

Gao Junwei laughed and said, "Marven, you are really funny when you talk, and you know Tianqi. Why don't you say that you know the president of the United States?!"

When Zhongjing Liu heard Marven say that he was a sh!t quack, his face was also very ugly.

Afterwards, he reprimanded with the appearance of an expert: "You young man, you are not very capable, and your tone is not small. It is estimated that you have never read a medical book, and dare you to say that I am a quack?!"

As he said, he pointed at Marven arrogantly and said: "You, apologize to me now! Otherwise, I won't save this patient!"

Viola paled with fright, and blurted out: "Marven, do you want to kill my husband?! What is your intention?! Do you want to kill my husband first, and then kill me, you? To monopolize our property?!"

Marven's face was green.

I monopolize your property? Does your family have any property?

Your family is now, I'm afraid it won't even be able to take out a few million, just an ordinary three-bedroom apartment, is it worth my exclusive possession?

Marven doesn't know how to spend tens of billions in the bank, and there are 100 million cheques honored by Warnia in his pocket. She says he wants to monopolize the family's property? !

It's really the biggest joke in the world!

Gao Junwei also added fuel and jealousy to the side: "Auntie, I think this Marven is indeed plotting wrong, you must take precautions, otherwise, in the future, you will really be trapped by such a Wang-eyed wolf!"

Avella couldn't help but said, "Marven, let the genius Doctor Zhongjing try."

Unexpectedly, the genius Doctor Zhongjing was forced by this fashion, and coldly snorted: "Boy, if you don't kneel and kowtow to me today, this patient, he really won't be cured!"

Unexpectedly, as soon as he finished saying this, a cold voice suddenly sounded from outside the door: "Who is it that dared to let Mr. Ye kneel down for him? You are impatient!"

Chapter 317

As the voice came in, they saw a middle-aged man wearing a Tailored suit stepping into the ward.

At the moment when Gao Junwei and Liu Zhongjing saw this middle-aged man, their expressions changed drastically and they were shocked!

The dignified Wrestvel underground king Orvel!

What's happening here? !

Why did he get here?

Gao Junwei and the two hadn't reacted yet, and the next scene made them dumbfounded, and the whole person was struck by lightning!

At the door of the ward, there were a few more people rushing in. It was Lori, Vice Chairman of Emgrand Group, Solmon Wang, Patriarch of the Wang Family, Qin Gang Patriarch of the Qin Family, Tailai, the richest man in Haicheng, Tianqi, the dean of traditional medicine, and others!

These bigwigs, who have an important status in Wrestvel and Haicheng, walked directly to Marven, bowed together, and cried respectfully: "Mr. Ye!"

Marven asked, "Why are you here?"

Orvel said respectfully: "Mr. Ye, we heard that your father-in-law was in a car accident, so we hurried over to come and visit. I hope you don't mind."

Marven smiled slightly, and said, "You are so kind."

He said these words casually, but just these simple words made these big men like treasures, their faces flushed, and their bodies were so excited that they couldn't stop shaking slightly.

Seeing such a scene, Viola looked ashamed and said to her heart: "It's over, Marven, a liar, is getting more and more deceived. Now so many big guys treat Marven respectfully, in case his deception is exposed one day, Isn't this family going to die?"

She doesn't believe that Marven really has any abilities. She knew Marven's past was very clear. She became an orphan at the age of eight and went to a welfare home. Wipe the glass, and was later brought back by the Xiao family father to marry Avella.

If he is really capable, how can he be so stubborn?

Gao Junwei was dumbfounded, especially when he saw Warnia, it was even more incredible!

This is the famous Song family youngest progeny!

In front of the Song family, his Gao family was not even a bullsh*t, even his father had no right to see Warnia!

But at this moment, Warnia, who is beautiful and moving, is actually respectful of Marven's Rubbish?

How can that be? !

Gao Junwei couldn't understand why Marven was a wasteful, what is worthy of such a condescending wealthy lady worth hundreds of billions!

As a result, he couldn't help being surprised anymore and blurted out: "Miss Song, have you admitted the wrong person? Marven is the Rubbish?!"

Warnia's face became cold, and she shouted: "Who gave you the courage to question Mr. Ye here?!"

Qin Gang on the side also gave a cold smile and shouted to Gao Junwei: "Mr. Ye is the only true dragon in the world, with unimaginable fairy methods. How can you say this?"

Solmon Wang, Patriarch of the Wang Family, scolded coldly: "Yes, Mr. Ye is highly respected and famous in Wrestrvel. How could his name be something you can call with such lowly words?!"

Chapter 318

Orvel's eyes were cold, and he said, "I'm all looking at Mr. Ye's horse's head. You dare to be disrespectful to him, that is, if you are our enemy, if you dare to speak wildly, your legs and feet will be interrupted!"

Under the scolding of everyone, Gao Junwei's face turned blue and Wang, and his whole person was shocked and speechless.

At this moment, Tianqi yelled coldly and said, "Zhongjing Liu, come over here!"

Upon hearing this, Zhongjing Liu was panicked.

Others don't know, but he knows whether his miraculous medicine has cured Tianqi's illness. Now that he sees the righteous master, he has to wear his lies.

But at this moment, he could only bite the bullet and step forward and respectfully said: "Old Shi."

Tianqi angrily rebuked, "I just heard you say that you cured my disease with the medicine in your hand?"

Zhongjing Liu panicked and said: "Old Shi, I am not covering up and bragging, please forgive me."

In fact, Zhongjing Liu knew very well that after he sold the medicine to Tianqi, Tianqi made it clear that the medicine was very powerful and relieved his injuries, but it was still far from a cure.

The reason why he said just now that this medicine cured Tianqi was mainly to pretend to force himself.

However, he never dreamed that Tianqi would appear here.

At this moment, facing Tianqi, he was extremely nervous. Although he is also a well-known traditional medicine doctor, he is still far behind Tianqi. Tianqi is the president of the traditional medicine Association. If he provokes him, he would say something. He can remove him from the TCM circle.

In that way, all the hard work of my life will be lost.

Tianqi was not prepared to forgive Zhongjing Liu so easily. He looked at Zhongjing Liu and said coldly: "You have offended Mr. Ye, don't you hurry up and apologize!"

Zhongjing Liu was so angry, what the h*ll? Want to apologize to a little boy? Why? Even if he brags, it doesn't mean he is worse than Marven!

Thinking of this, he stubbornly said: "Old Shi, I admit that I brag about you, but this kid with the name Ye speaks wildly and insults my magical medicine. Why should I apologize to him?"

Tianqi had a dark face, and after leading him aside, he whispered: "You idiot! Do you know that the magic medicine in your hand is made by Mr. Ye? How dare you talk like that about him?"

"What?" Zhongjing Liu cried out in disbelief: "This magical medicine was made by Marven?"

Tianqi said coldly: "To tell you the truth, Mr. Ye has refined a magical medicine with better effects a few days ago. My old wounds are cured by Mr. Ye's magical medicine! You dare to question his level?!"

Zhongjing Liu panicked and couldn't choose his way. His sweat continued to flow. He hurriedly explained: "Master, I didn't know that the magic medicine was made by Mr. Ye. If I knew it earlier, how could I dare to do this."

Unexpectedly, before he finished speaking, Tianqi said coldly: "It's late! After this incident, I will suggest the health department to permanently revoke your medical qualification certificate!"

As soon as he said this, Zhongjing Liu's face instantly became extremely pale, and his body was suddenly cold and sweaty, and he was scared to death.

Then, he reacted with a plop, kneeling directly in front of Marven, kowtow, crying and begging: "Mr. Ye, I am wrong, I apologize to you! I lied to everyone, this magic medicine I didn't develop it at all, I bought it. I don't know if it can cure high paraplegia. I just took it out and flicked it out. I have no eye to see it and bumped into you. Please, please spare my life! "

After he finished speaking, he knelt down, slapped himself and apologized again, breaking down and crying.

Chapter 319

At this scene, Gao Junwei was even more stunned to see Avella and Viola's mother and daughter in shock.

Viola also expected this magical Doctor Zhongjing to help her husband, but who would have thought that he would kneel down and apologize to Marven.

Gao Junwei's face was pale, and he clenched his hands tightly, only to feel that Marven's face was completely stepped under his feet.

But he didn't believe in Marven's great ability, and he was unwilling to bow his head to this waste.

Unexpectedly, at this moment, Orvel suddenly sneered at him and asked Marven for instructions: "Mr. Ye, what should I do with this man?"

He was in front of Marven, but he didn't dare to make claims, otherwise, he would attack Gao Junwei's previous attitude towards Marven, and he would deal with the opponent to death.

Marven said calmly: "You can figure it out by yourself."

After Orvel heard this, he was about to say that people would beat him up, but Qin Gang frowned and asked: "The man has a big status, I heard Limo say that you were the one who embarrassed Mr. Ye at the auto show yesterday. Right?"

"Ah, no, that's not me"

Gao Junwei panicked completely.

Although he suffered a big loss yesterday, in the final analysis it was his trouble finding Marven. Now it seems that people have to settle two accounts together.

When Orvel heard this, he suddenly sneered and said: "Okay, it turns out that you, a dog with no eyesight, felt sorry for Mr. Ye yesterday! Okay, I will let you know the cost of having trouble with Mr. Ye!"

After that, he immediately ordered his opponent: "Come on, throw this unopenable thing down the window!"

Gao Junwei was so scared that he did not dare to hold on anymore. He knelt on the ground and cried out, "Mr. Marven, I was wrong. I apologize to you. I don't dare anymore. Please forgive me. This time"

Marven sneered and said, "Aren't you quite capable? What do you want me to do with this waste?"

Gao Junwei cried loudly with his nose and tears: “Marven, I was really wrong, I am a Rubbish! I am a rag! I am the biggest smelly rag in the world! Please raise your hand let me go once.”

Marven kicked him away and said coldly, “Have you heard a word? You didn’t respond to me before, but now I can’t afford you.”

After that, he shouted to Mr. Orvel: “What are you drowsy at?!”

Mr. Orvel’s expression stunned, and he hurriedly ordered his subordinates: “Have you been so f*cking stunned? Even if you are stunned, you also jump down for me!”

Without saying anything, several of Orvel’s men immediately lifted Gao Junwei up, and with a scream, they threw him out the window.

Avella suddenly covered her mouth, her heart pounding, and her mind went blank.

This is the third floor. What if Gao Junwei falls down?

Thinking of this, she and Viola rushed out the window.

However, Gao Junwei’s condition was life-threatening, just clutching his legs on the lawn and screaming constantly.

Because he happened to be in the hospital, a doctor arrived soon and sent him to emergency.

Avella also breathed a sigh of relief. Recently, Gao Junwei has been leaning on her, and he has repeatedly insulted Marven, which made her a little disgusted.

Now that the other party has clearly broken his leg, it seems that he will not come back to pester her for a while.

Marven took advantage of this moment, quietly walked to Tianqi, took out a pill he refined for the second time from his pocket, and whispered: “Mr. Shi, you will give it to me later. The Old Master treated the illness and then gave him this medicine.”

Chapter 320

In fact, on the way to the hospital, Marven planned to personally treat the Old Master.

With the pills he refined, he could heal a spine injury without any effort.

However, after he arrived at the hospital, he discovered that Gao Junwei had invited the genius Doctor Zhongjing. With these two people disrupting the situation, his mother-in-law Viola would never let him interfere.

Moreover, he was also worried that if he took out the magic medicine, it would make his wife and mother-in-law confused, and it would be difficult to explain it.

Now that Tianqi is here, it couldn’t be more convenient for him to handle this matter.

With the help of Tianqi, a master of traditional medicine, to heal the Old Master, he can definitely explain the past.

After all, Tianqi has a huge reputation, and he can also be convinced that he can perform medical miracles.

Tianqi understood his thoughts, but was surprised to ask: "Mr. Ye, spinal injury is a not a common problem in Chinese and Western medicine. There is no way to overcome it now. Can your magical medicine really cure it?"

After speaking, he said apologetically: "Sorry, Mr. Ye, I didn't mean to doubt your magic drug, but I was a little nervous. This is really beyond my understanding."

Marven said lightly: "Don't worry, this medicine can repair the damage to the spine."

Tianqi was surprised and said: "Oh, if your father-in-law is cured, this will be a medical miracle. If it spreads out, it will shock the whole world. How can I dare to take such a reputation."

Marven said indifferently: "You should know that I am not a person who seeks a reputation. Besides, I am not involved in the medical profession. Therefore, it is not appropriate for me to do this kind of thing. It is you. If you can cure the spine with traditional medicine. It spreads out, this is a great miracle of our Chinese TCM, and it will surely make the whole world look at TCM with admiration, so you should stop rejecting it."

When Tianqi heard this, he nodded immediately, took the pill, and respectfully said: "Mr. Ye, I obey!"

Marven suddenly remembered something and hurriedly said, "By the way, only half the capsule is needed to treat spinal injuries, and the remaining half will be given to you."

Tianqi trembled all over

Can half a capsule cure high paraplegia caused by spinal injury? This is amazing, right? !

What made him even more excited was that Marven was actually willing to give the remaining half to him.

This is simply a great reward!

After all, the medicine that Mr. Ye gave him last time had already been taken by himself.

Although he healed the old wounds that he had never healed in his life, his fate with that magical medicine only lasted a moment.

Now, everyone else still had the magic medicine given by Mr. Ye, but his was gone.

Tianqi himself felt a little regretful, but he knew that Marven was so kind to him, and before he repaid him, he was really embarrassed to talk to Marven again.

But now, Marven actually wants to give him half of the remaining medicine for the treatment!

This made him extremely excited and moved.

If you have this half, you will have one more life-saving support in the future!

Tianqi was so excited that he could not wait to kneel to Marven immediately.

With two chokes, Tianqi burst into tears and nodded again and again: "Mr. Ye's great kindness, I will never forget!"

Marven gave him a calm look, and then said: "Okay, go for treatment, don't make my wife anxious."
