

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 321-330

Chapter 321

At this moment, Avella was very worried about her father's injury.

She had never expected that Zhongjing Liu, whom Gao Junwei had invited, was actually a quack doctor.

Now that Zhongjing Liu has been seen through, who can heal her father's spine throughout Wrestrvel?

Just thinking about it, Marven walked to her with Tianqi and introduced: "Avella, this is a famous doctor, Tianqi is experienced, he can heal our dad's injury."

When Avella and Viola heard this, they were overjoyed!

The mother and daughter never dreamed that Tianqi, a top traditional medicine doctor, would be willing to treat Dave.

Avella hurriedly said, "Mr. Tianqi, my dad's illness, I beg you to cure him for us!"

Tianqi smiled slightly and said: "Mrs. Ye, please rest assured, Mr. Ye has the grace of reinventing me, I will definitely go all out."

After finishing speaking, he stepped up to Dave who was lying on the hospital bed, took out the pill, cut half of it very carefully, and put half of the medicine into Dave's mouth with the eyes of everyone expecting.

Everyone held their breath.

Although the original doctor at the hospital did not believe that traditional medicine could cure the spinal injury, after all, he was the famous Tianqi. This made him vaguely feel that a miracle might really happen.

Warnia, Solmon Wang, Qin Gang, and Mr. Orvel all got Marven's magical medicine, so they recognized the origin of this medicine at a glance. They also want to know at this moment, how amazing is this magical medicine? Can it deal with high paraplegia?

Afterwards, Dave's body trembled slightly, and his face that was originally extremely pale began to flush at this moment, and his closed eyes slowly opened at the same time.

When Dave opened his eyes, he only felt a shock. The whole body was warm, and he was indescribably comfortable.

Moreover, the painful feeling deep into the bone marrow is slowly disappearing!

He subconsciously tried to sit up, and at this moment, a scene that stunned everyone!

Dave actually relied on his own strength to sit up from the hospital bed!

Everyone present was shocked after seeing such a scene!

Avella covered her small mouth and cried with joy. Tianqi is indeed a master of traditional medicine. He has rejuvenated her father's high paraplegia. He really cured him!

And Orvel and others witnessed Dave's recovery as before, and they admired Marven even more!

They knew that half of the pill Dave ate was the magical medicine refined by Marven, and they had obtained them all. Now they saw that the pill had such a mighty power! High paraplegia can be cured with only half a capsule, and all of them are excited with no addition!

At the same time, they couldn't help but sigh in their hearts: Mr. Ye is really a god and man!

The pill prepared by his hand can cure even high paraplegia instantly. It is a life-saving medicine!

And Tianqi was shocked and about to faint!

This is really a medical miracle! Even if it is an American, it is impossible to cure high paraplegia. However, it was cured with only half a magic drug!

Thinking of this, he was so excited that he couldn't help but put the remaining half in his clothes inner pocket carefully.

This is an extra half magical medicine that Mr. Ye rewarded himself! Be sure to keep it safe!

Chapter 322

At this time, Dave felt the astonishing changes in his body, and his expression was incredulous.

He vaguely remembered that he had been hit by a car accident and he couldn't move all his body.

But now, how does it feel as if this incident has never happened before? The feeling of his body turned out to be so good that it couldn't be better, even better than before the injury!

What is going on here?

Thinking of this, Dave was suddenly confused.

He couldn't help asking Avella, "Avella, what's wrong with me?!"

Avella recovered and hurriedly cried and said, "Dad, you were almost paralyzed in a car accident, thanks to the genius doctor."

After all, she stepped up to Tianqi and said gratefully: "Thank you so much for this, genius doctor. If it weren't for you, my dad would really be helpless."

After that, she had a pretty face and solemnly, and she wanted to bend over to thank Tianqi.

Tianqi hurriedly helped her up. He actually wanted to say: I want to thank Mr. Ye. Without Mr. Ye's medicine, her father can't be cured by himself. Even, her father's recovery depends on Mr. Ye's magical medicine...

However, when he thought that Marven didn't want to expose his strength, Tianqi had no choice but to bite the bullet and say, "Mrs. Ye, it's just a small matter. You don't need to be so polite."

If it weren't for the magical medicine of Mr. Ye, even a Master of traditional medicine would have no cure for high-level paraplegia.

The doctor in charge of the hospital was also stunned. He looked at Tianqi and said tremblingly: "Mr. Shi, you have created a world-class medical miracle! You can get a Nobel prize in medicine just by using your medicine. This is a great event for the benefit of all mankind!"

Tianqi smiled awkwardly, and said: "If you are serious, the Old Master only got the magic medicine by accident. Otherwise, even if I have great skills, I will not be able to restore the paralyzed person to normal."

The attending doctor sighed: "Your magic medicine is a medical miracle in itself! If mass production is possible, I don't know how many people will benefit!"

Tianqi shook his head and said, "My magical medicine was refined by someone with great magical powers. It is extremely rare in the world. I only have the last half left, let alone mass production."

The attending doctor sighed and said, "That's really a shame."

Avella hurriedly stepped forward at this time and asked the attending doctor: "Doctor, how long will my father be discharged from the hospital in the current situation?"

The attending doctor said: "Well, I just took a look at Mr. Xiao's condition. The spinal injury has been repaired, and other injuries to the body have recovered very well. However, I still recommend that you observe him in the hospital for a few days first. Let Mr. Xiao take a good rest."

Tianqi on the side also spoke: "Yes, Mrs. Ye, usually injured, three points depend on treatment, seven points on support, so I suggest that Mr. Xiao not be in a hurry to leave the hospital, and take a few days in the hospital before taking leave."

Avella nodded hurriedly and said, "Then lets him be hospitalized for a few days first!"

Upon hearing this, Marven said to Tianqi, Warnia and the others: "Thank you for running to see my father-in-law, thank you! But my father-in-law has recovered from his illness, let him rest quietly."

Everyone nodded hurriedly.

Now that Mr. Ye has spoken, it is natural to leave as soon as possible so as not to cause chaos.

So Warnia, Tianqi, Qin Gang, Solmon Wang, Orvel and others respectfully bid farewell to Marven.

When Marven sent them out first, Viola, his mother-in-law, said to Avella very worriedly: "Avella, Marven is useless rubbish, and now he is more capable of deceiving people! So many big people are being played around by him, this is the rhythm of death!"

Chapter 323

Hearing this warning from her mother, Avella also felt embarrassed.

She also thinks that Marven's feng shui style is close to these big figures, in fact, it is equivalent to walking a tightrope in the Grand Canyon, which is very dangerous.

There were some soothsayers masters who deceived many celebrities before, but after the storm, they were united and killed.

If Marven continues like this, it really doesn't matter what will happen in the future.

Viola saw that Avella was also worried, and knew that she had succeeded in moving her, and hurried on the railroad while it was hot: "After your dad is discharged from the hospital, you must divorce him quickly! Otherwise, wait someday this group will know they have been fooled by him, but our family still has to suffer as a whole?"

As he said, Viola added: "You didn't look at that Gao Junwei? He was thrown downstairs without saying a few words. Marven lied to them so badly, and I didn't know how to die by then!"

Avella said displeasedly: "Mom, Marven just asked a genius doctor to save dad, how can you say such a thing? Isn't this crossing the river to demolish the bridge?"

"Why can't you say?" Viola said angrily: "Do you know that his current situation is just like I had invested in financial insurance at the time, and there may be a thunderstorm someday! Once a thunderstorm occurs, it will be nothing here. Nothing, all gone!"

Avella said very seriously: "Mom, no matter what, I will not choose to divorce Marven."

That's what she said, but Avella couldn't help but feel worried.

She wasn't afraid that Marven would hurt her and the Xiao family in the future, but she was worried that Marven would be in danger of being retaliated by these big figures of the city.

Thinking of this, she felt that she must persuade Marven to stop letting him fool others by relying on superstition, lest he would ask for trouble in the future.

When Viola heard this, she said angrily: "You kid! You really want to piss me off!"

As soon as the voice fell, Marven returned after sending everyone.

Viola wanted to say something more, the attending doctor said at this time: "Yes, please go through a hospitalization procedure soon, and we will start follow-up rehabilitation and nursing."

“Okay!” Avella turned her head and said to Marven, “Is the one hundred and eighty thousand cheque that Lori refunded just now with you?”

“Yes.” Marven nodded and said, “Then I will pay the money!”

After speaking, Marven turned around and left the ward again.

Avella’s mother, Viola, when she heard that there were 180,000 checks, hurriedly asked: “Check? What check? Where did the check come from?”

Avella said: “It was Lori of the Emgrand Group who refunded my office rent, and they gave me the office in Wing Star Building for free.”

Viola said excitedly: “Is there such a good thing? Oh! This time you saved 180,000!”

After finishing speaking, she hurriedly asked the doctor: “By the way, how much do we have to pay for hospitalization?”

The attending doctor said: “Because the patient has recovered, all that is left is rehabilitation and nursing care. In fact, it is not much money. Only two thousand a day is enough. You can pay a deposit of 20,000 first.”

When Viola heard that he only needed to pay 20,000, she immediately moved her mind. The check was 180,000! 160,000 can be left!

Thinking of this, she hurriedly said to Avella: “I’ll go to Marven, I’ll go for the payment!”

After speaking, she hurried out to catch up.

Marven was walking to the payment office at this time, and suddenly heard a rush of footsteps behind him, turning his head, mother-in-law Viola was already there.

Viola stood still in front of him and ordered out of breath: “Marven, bring the check, and I’ll pay the fee!”

Marven didn’t know that she was greedy for the remaining 160,000, so he said, “Mom, you can go back and accompany Dad. I will pay the fee.”

Viola glared at him and said angrily: “Why are you such a nonsense? I said, I’ll go, you take out the check and go back to the ward to help Avella!”

Chapter 324

Marven shrugged helplessly, took out the check from his pocket and handed it to her, saying, “Mom, here is the check.”

Viola took the check excitedly, and ran to the payment office with joy.

Seeing that she was so anxious, Marven knew that she was planning to spend money, sighed, and turned back to the ward.

After returning, Avella asked curiously: "Did my mother catch up with you?"

Marven nodded: "Mom is going to leave the check and said she will pay the money."

"Okay." Avella also looked helpless.

She knows that her mother has always been greedy for money and is absolutely open to money. Knowing that there is a refund of the 180,000 rent, she will definitely make some ideas.

But she is not good to say anything. After all, her mother is such a person. If she disagrees, she will definitely cry and hang herself.

At this time, Viola rushed to the payment office, slapped the cheque in front of the toll collector, and said: "I'll pay Dave's hospitalization fee."

The toll collector nodded, opened the file, saw the hospitalization information, and said: "It is enough to pay 20,000, refund more and less makeup."

"Okay." Viola couldn't hide her excitement and said: "Pay with this check, and send the rest to my personal card."

After finishing speaking, she took out her bank card, handed it over, and said: "Just punch into this card, don't rush."

The toll collector gave a hum, picked up the check and glanced at it, suddenly stunned!

Viola was stunned when she saw her, thinking that she was deliberately sabotaged, and said angrily: "What's the matter with you? You should deal with it quickly! I still have something to do!"

The toll collector came back to her senses. Seeing Viola's face was impatient, she was also a little angry, and threw the check directly on Viola's face, and said angrily: "I think you are a patient from the psychiatric department. Right? Take a check for 100 million to pay the hospital bill?! Didn't take medicine today?"

"What? One hundred million?!" Viola frowned, lowered her head and picked up the check on the ground, and when she glanced at it, she was shocked by the large number of "0" on the check!

While counting, she muttered to herself: "One, ten, one hundred, one thousand, ten thousand, one hundred thousand, one million, ten million, one hundred million"

Counting here, she was blinded and blurted out: "It's a hundred million! This is a fortune!"

The toll collector could not hide his anger and said: "I said you are sick? Where did you get a mischievous cheque and dare to come to me to lie? Believe it or not, I will call 110 to catch you and go to jail for fraud!"

Only then did Viola come back to her senses, and suddenly she was frightened in a cold sweat.

Oh my God!

Almost something big happened!

How could this one hundred million check be true!

The daughter clearly said that it was 180,000, and this one hundred million cheque must have belonged to Marvin!

This d*mn stinky silk, it's okay to lie to the big guys and be addicted to it, and he carries a fake 100 million check with him! I almost pit myself!

I really don't know if this guy is intentional or unintentional! But this is all evidence of his deception!

No way! Marvin dared to cheat me, he must take this check, in front of daughter, face him symptomatically!

Whatever she says today, she has to ask her daughter to divorce this big liar!

Chapter 325

Marvin was in the ward, speaking with his wife Avella, and Dave.

At this time, the door of the ward was kicked open with a bang.

The mother-in-law Viola rushed in fiercely.

As soon as she came in, Viola took the one-billion-dollar check in her hand, and while shaking it loudly, she cursed: "Marvin! You b@stard, even you dare to cheat?!"

Marvin was stunned, and asked in surprise: "Mom, which one are you singing? When did I lie to you?"

Viola ignored him, ran to Avella, and complained: "Daughter! You have to divorce this big liar! This guy is uneasy and unkind! He wants to cheat your mother!"

Avella was also puzzled and asked, "Mom, what's the matter?"

Viola handed the check to Avella, and said angrily: "Look! Your husband rag actually gave me a fake check worth 100 million! The cashier at the hospital almost called police and got me arrested. Called me a scammer!"

"f*ck..."

Marvin felt a little bit in his heart, this...this one hundred million cheque, Warnia honored him...

d*mn, it must have been put in the pocket and confused with the 180,000 checks!

It's over!

How to explain this?

Avella took a look at the check at this time, his face suddenly hard to look, he blurted out: "Marven, what is going on with this 100 million fake check? Are you now engaged in fraud?"

Marven hurriedly explained: "Oh wife, it is a misunderstanding!"

Avella frowned and asked, "What the h*ll is going on? Explain clearly to me!"

Viola said to the side: "I need to ask? This check must be a prop he brought with him to deceive people! He accidentally gave it to me! Humph! Fortunately, it was given to me! If it is really used to deceive people, The police can't catch him and shoot him?"

After finishing speaking, she looked at Avella again, and said distressedly: "Avella, this Rubbish goes out and dares to defraud 100 million. You dare to believe such a courage? If you don't divorce him, our whole family will be killed by him! "

Avella's face also turned cold, looking at Marven, and said, "Marven, if you don't explain this clearly, I'll really consider divorcing you! You are poor, I can accept it. But if you don't follow the right path, steal and kidnap, then I can't get through with you!"

Marven turned his mind and hurriedly said aggrieved: "My wife, let me be honest with you, this one hundred million cheque, I actually bought it from the funeral store..."

"Funeral store?!" Avella and Viola were both taken aback and asked: "What's the matter?"

Marven had no choice but to sigh: "Didn't my Old Master die when I was eight? He asked me to have a dream two days ago, saying that he had no money to spend and was bullied by others, so I had to give him everything. Burn some money..."

Having said that, Marven continued to sigh and said, "I dare not delay, so I went to the funeral shop and asked. People recommended this kind of check to me, saying that one is worth one hundred million, and one is worth more than a dozen of the previous Ming banknotes. Bundled, energy-saving and environmentally friendly, so I bought one for ten, thinking that I burned it at the intersection at night, but I didn't expect that I just took the wrong one and gave this to mother..."

Avella asked suspiciously: "What you said is true?"

Marven hurriedly nodded: "It's true! Think about it, how good everyone is these years! Who would be cheated by a check of 100 million? A check of 100 million can't even cheat a hospital cashier... ."

Avella thought about it, and what Marven said was indeed the truth.

No one would believe a one-hundred-million-Dollar cheque, and it is not suitable for use as a fraud tool.

Chapter 326

Thinking of this, she eased her expression a bit, handed him the check, and said, "install it, and burn it for your dad at night. Don't confuse us anymore! In case of an oolong, you may have to Something happened!"

Marven also hurriedly nodded: "Don't worry, my wife, I know, I must pay attention!"

After speaking, he hurriedly drew out another check for 180,000, handed it to Viola, and said, "Mom, this check is true, here it is!"

After speaking, he hurriedly flattered and said: "Fortunately, you found out early, or if I really burn this check, we will lose a lot!"

Viola glared at him, if it weren't for the check, she was unwilling to let him go.

However, who would have trouble with money? Take this check, and the remaining 160,000 can be her own!

Seeing she accepted the check, Marven sighed with relief. He was not careful and almost had a big deal. Fortunately, his brain reacted faster.

But having said that, mother-in-law is really clever and was mistaken by cleverness. If she knew that this one hundred million cheque was true, she would be annoyed to jump straight from this window!

Just as he breathed a sigh of relief, an old and anxious voice suddenly came from outside the ward door: "Dave, Dave! My son, how are you! Mom is here to see you!"

Upon hearing this, Marven frowned.

After that, he saw the Old Mrs. Xiao walking in with a cane, Noah Xiao, Jay, and Theresa.

Old Mrs. Xiao had an anxious and distressed face, her eyes were red, and she seemed to have just cried.

As soon as she walked in, she couldn't help crying, and hurriedly walked to Dave who was lying on the hospital bed, and said with tears: "Dave, mom heard that you were in a car accident and was so scared that I almost died of a heart attack. I rushed to see you, how are you doing now?"

Although Avella was a little disgusted with these people, she felt that she was visiting her father after all, and she couldn't refute the face, so she took a step forward for a hundred years and said, "Grandma, dad is all right. Marven's injuries have already been treated. He is healed."

The Old Mrs. Xiao breathed a sigh of relief and said, "That's good, that's good."

Dave also said a little embarrassingly: "Mom, don't worry, I will die."

In fact, Dave also complained to the Lady Xiao in his heart.

However, in addition to complaints, there are still family affections.

After all, she is his own mother, how can he really have no feelings at all?

At this moment, seeing his mother caring about him so much and crying like this, he was also moved.

Old Mrs. Xiao burst into tears, and she reprimanded herself and said: "I blame Dave, and I don't care about you so much. After knowing that you have an accident, your mother feels regretful. I am really afraid that you will be injured. Mom's misunderstanding is gone"

With that, the Lady Xiao was already crying bitterly, and choked with sobs: "Dave, for so many years, in fact, mom didn't care about you. Mom just always wanted you to be a good man, so she was deliberately harsh on you and hoped that you could grow up quickly. , It's all hard work for mom to be alone. Don't blame mom."

Dave suddenly felt his heart tighten, and he burst into tears unconsciously.

He had always complained to the Lady Xiao before, why did she love his brother so much but not him?

Why do you always encourage your brother, but to yourself, no matter what you do is wrong?

This matter has become a knot of his heart for so many years.

But today, when Mom said so tearfully, he suddenly felt that the knot in his heart seemed to loosen a lot.

Chapter 327

Marven frowned.

He is not from the Xiao family, and there is no such so-called family bondage, so he can tell at a glance that the Old Mrs. Xiao is doing a bitter trick.

The Xiao family is now in a desperate situation, and if it can't be relieved, the Xiao Group will fall apart, and the Lady Xiao will instantly fall to the bottom.

She is a person who loves face all her life and would rather die than accept that she is poor and destitute, so she will definitely rack her brains to find a way to turn around.

She had bullied and lured Avella before, but Avella never gave her any chance.

She also used money to try to find a breakthrough from Viola, but Viola failed to convince Avella.

Now, she began to aim at Dave, and was ready to use a bitter trick to find a breakthrough from Dave!

This may also be her last resort.

Dave was already fooled at this time.

He felt his heart knot untied, and the respect and love for his mother appeared in his heart.

So, he shed tears and said: “Mom, I don’t actually blame you in my heart. I know that I am not up to date. I am not as capable as my elder brother, nor as strong as my elder brother. I have disappointed you, sorry”

Old Mrs. Xiao grabbed his hand, and while holding it tightly, she choked and said, “Good son, you can understand Mom’s painstaking efforts. Even if Mom is dead now, it’s worth it!”

The old Xiao standing by the side hurriedly stepped forward and sobbed: “Mom, don’t keep talking about death. Dave and I have lost our dad, so I can’t say anything without mom!”

While wiping her tears, Mrs. Xiao said gratifiedly: “You brothers have me in your hearts. Even if I die, I will be smiling on death bed!”

Then she said, “You guys, you must be brothers together! Only brothers can be together! The old saying goes well: Brothers are united, and the benefits are broken! If the two of you can tie together and do it well, what will the Xiao family worry about? Can’t it be strong?!”

Noah Xiao nodded repeatedly: “Mom, you are right, I have been taught! From now on, I will work together with Dave to make the Xiao family bigger and stronger!”

Dave’s expression was also a bit agitated, and he was on the set at first glance.

Marven couldn’t help sighing, the Lady Xiao is really a good trickster! The effort of three or two paragraphs has already brought Dave into the ditch!

really!

Dave was also instigated by her and his elder brother’s words, and was moved and said, “Don’t worry, mom, I will definitely work together with elder brother!”

When Mrs. Xiao heard this, she became excited and blurted out: “Good! Good! Great!”

At this time, the Lady Xiao said to Jay and Theresa, who had been keeping their heads down and silent, “You two, quickly apologize to Avella and Marven! Although you and Avella are not brothers and sisters, there is a relationship between cousins, everyone’s blood is thicker than water, how can you always treat Avella and Marven so excessively?”

With that said, the Lady Xiao looked at Theresa and shouted: “Theresa! Especially you! At the opening ceremony today, do you still want to do something with your cousin? Don’t give it to your sister quickly apologize!”

The two brothers and sisters immediately bowed deeply and said in a very pious voice: “Avella, we were wrong before! Please forgive us! We will never do anything against you in the future!”

Avella was also a little caught off guard. She had never seen Jay and Theresa apologize softly. These two brothers and sisters have been stabbing their heads and facing each other life and death for so many years.

However, seeing that both of them had apologized, Avella also kindly said, "Forget the past."

Mrs. Xiao was overjoyed and immediately said to Avella: "Avella, your dad's body is still in the recovery stage, so he must be recuperated. Although Xiao's villa is a bit older, the environment is better than that of the resident they live in. There are a lot of strong buildings, how about you all move back to live?"

Chapter 328

Noah Xiao also hurriedly agreed: "Yes, Avella, your father's health is important, not only to have a good environment, but also to have a good mood! So, you just listen to your grandma's arrangements, come back and live, I will Ask a few nanny to take care of your father 24 hours a day!"

Dave was lying on the hospital bed. After hearing this, he was immediately moved.

When he was moved, his heart was a little shaken, his brain was hot, and he couldn't help but ask Avella, "Avella, let's move back."

Avella was also a little tangled at once.

For a while, she would not be able to figure out whether grandma was like this out of truth or falsehood.

But seeing grandma, dad, uncle, mother and son holding hands and crying together, I was more or less moved.

Moreover, for the sake of her father's recovery, if he can return to Xiao's house with a good environment, a good mood, and proper care, he will definitely be able to recover faster and better.

Viola also persuaded at this time: "Avella, what a great opportunity! What are you still trying to do? Hurry up and agree!"

Avella was a little hesitant at first, but when she saw that her parents were persuading , on the spur of the moment, she said, "Well then, just move back."

Old Mrs. Xiao's expression was immediately happy, and her heart was extremely excited.

It's done!

Hahaha!

Sure enough!

Sure enough, life is still old and spicy, Dave is just a Rubbish, Viola is a money addict who sees money, Marven is a Rubbish who can only deceive people, Avella seems to be a bit capable, but its not impossible tricked her. Has the bitter trick been completely settled?

Thinking of this, Mrs. Xiao couldn't be more proud of it!

Noah Xiao couldn't help but quietly give the Lady Xiao a thumbs up, and his admiration for his mother at this time was like a torrential river.

Mother is indeed an old world. This drama is almost at the textbook level. It starts with younger brother Dave as a breakthrough, and then curves to save the country and impress Avella. It is perfect!

Seeing that his wife was going to be fooled, Marven hurriedly said, "Grandma, uncle, it's natural to move back to live in the first place, it's no problem.

Jay frowned, and shouted coldly, "But what? Our Xiao family's affairs, what's the matter with you? Don't you talk too much?!"

Old Mrs. Xiao raised her hand and slapped Jay, and shouted angrily: "How do you talk to your brother-in-law?! Keep your bullsh*t to yourself?!"

With this slap, Jay was stunned, and immediately understood.

d*mn it! he almost got into trouble because he couldn't help but mock Marven!

If he really can't help it, and ridicule Marven, revealing the truth of repentance on the surface but no correction in the heart, then the perfect plan of grandma's use of bitter tricks to trick Avella's family back may be revealed!

Thinking of this, he panicked and immediately said to Marven: "I'm sorry, brother-in-law, it's my mouth! It's my mouth! Please forgive me!"

As he said, he slapped himself twice, appearing extremely sincere.

Marven couldn't help but sneered in his heart, okay, the Xiao family really gave up everything in order to act in this bitter drama.

Chapter 329

In order to expose the true colors of this group of people, Marven said: "I just said that it is okay to move back to live. After all, they are all a family, but now Avella's studio is already in operation, so I have to say in advance. She won't go back to work in the Xiao Group again!"

"What?!" The Old Mrs. Xiao suddenly seemed to have been stepped on her tail, and instantly jumped up and said: "How can it be done! I said, not only do the family need to live together, but the energy must also be used! Back to the Xiao family, but not to the Xiao Group?"

Marven smiled and said, "Grandma, you just said that it was for the convenience of taking care of father-in-law, that's why you invited our family back. It doesn't matter if we go back, we also agreed, but going back to the Xiao Group is not the same as going home. Right?"

"No!" Mrs. Xiao said categorically, "Since she has returned to the Xiao family, she must return to work in the Xiao Group at first!"

After that, she continued to flicker Avella, saying: "Avella, your company has just opened, and there is no business yet. It is very difficult to run a company by yourself. How can you handle it? It is better to shut down the company. Back to the Xiao Group, in that case, your life will definitely be more comfortable and easier!"

Avella also smelled an unusual smell from Mrs. Xiao's words.

It seems that Marven is right. The Lady Xiao's desire for her family to return to the Xiao family is a fake, but it is true that she wants to return to the Xiao Group!

In this case, Mrs. Xiao tossed over and over again, in fact, she was trying everything she could to get her back.

Then all her performance just now should be all performances, right?

Thinking of this, her back felt cold!

If Marven hadn't reacted quickly, she might have been fooled!

So she hurriedly said to Mrs. Xiao: "Grandma, I am very grateful that you have invited our family back to live, but Marven is right. Going back to live, and going back to work are two different things, not to be confused, so I have to solemnly tell you that I can go back to live, but it is impossible to return to the Xiao Group. I want to run my own studio."

Seeing Avella so determined, the Old Mrs. Xiao hated Marven in her heart!

She had done so much work and acted in so many plays, but Marven was not confused by a word!

This is d*mn it!

She hurriedly played the bitter trick again, crying, and said: "Avella, do you hate grandma so much? Go home to live and come back to work. Our family strives to create a new situation and a new height. This is not perfect. Is it the situation? Why do you have to guard your own studio?"

After speaking, she wiped her tears and asked: "Aren't you willing to forgive grandma now?"

Avella said seriously: "Grandma, this matter has nothing to do with forgiveness or not forgiveness. It's just that I understand one thing now. Sending someone under the fence is not the answer. The best way is to have a world of your own, even if it's just an eave that can shelter from the wind and rain, and it's much better than sending someone under a fence. Therefore, I chose to start my own business instead of returning to the Xiao Group!

Dave and Viola comforted one after another: "Avella, why are you still so stubborn? How nice to go back! Much better than your own business!"

Avella said without hesitation: "Dad and Mom, this is my own personal decision. Don't say it anymore. You can't change my attention."

Mrs. Xiao knew that victory or defeat was in one fell swoop!

If Avella was unwilling to go back, it would be useless to talk about Dave and Viola as cumbersome and rubbish.

Therefore, she could only grit her teeth secretly and at the same time used her own assassin!

Chapter 330

She walked to Avella tremblingly, and knelt directly in front of her with a plop!

Everyone in the house was stunned!

Who would have thought that the Old Mrs. Xiao, who has always been aloof and arrogant, would kneel down for Avella!

This is really subverting their three views too!

Even Noah Xiao didn't expect that his mother would be so willing to pay for it to deceive Avella when they went back!

She wants to be strong all her life, and she wants to control others and let others kneel to her. When did she kneel to others?

Avella was also caught off guard, and said hurriedly: "Grandma, what are you doing? Please get up and say something!"

Old Mrs. Xiao knelt in front of her and said apologetically: "Avella, it was grandma's fault before, grandma apologizes to you! Just forgive grandma and come back to Xiao's house to help. Xiao's family can't live without you! If not, You, the Xiao family is really over, grandma begs you, come back!"

At this moment, Mrs. Xiao's attitude towards Avella has changed drastically. She no longer has the arrogance and reliance on the face to sell her terms. It is just endless regrets and pleadings.

The current Xiao family is already in danger. She feels that even if she kneels down and begs, she must beg Avella back to the Xiao family.

Otherwise, the huge family business will really be ruined in her own hands.

When Noah Xiao saw the Old Mrs. Xiao, he knelt down and begged along with her, his expression changed, and he took Jay and Theresa, followed by kneeling to the ground, begging Avella.

Seeing such a scene, Avella suddenly felt a little at a loss.

She never expected that the Old Mrs. Xiao, who regarded her face as more important than her own life, could kneel down and apologize to her in front of so many people.

It seems that the Xiao family nowadays is really exhausted.

Seeing that Avella was still indifferent, the Lady Xiao was still in tears, begging to say: "Avella, you can have pity for your poor grandma, Xiao family can't live without you, please come back!"

After she finished speaking, she knelt on the ground and knocked directly at Avella three times, unspeakably miserable, as if she was about to kneel to death on the spot.

"I knew so, why bother?"

At this time, Marven walked up to the Old Mrs. Xiao and said coldly: "Grandma, thank you very much for coming to visit my father-in-law, but it is impossible for us to return to the Xiao Group."

With that said, he issued an eviction order and said: "Please leave now!"

The Old Mrs. Xiao couldn't stop the tears, and said angrily: "Marven, when you had nothing to join my Xiao family, we gave you food, drink, clothing, and housing, didn't you have it? Can you be a little grateful? At this time, do you still want to split our Xiao family?"

Marven smiled faintly and said, "I'm sorry, grandma, the one who feeds me is Avella and my father-in-law and mother-in-law. You have not given me anything except mocking me and calling me waste. Why should I be grateful?"

After that, Marven's face turned dark, and he coldly snorted: "Don't think I don't know what your plan is. You want to trick Avella back with bitter tricks, let Avella help the Xiao Group to cooperate, and revitalize the Xiao Group. Am I wrong?"
