

The Amazing Son In-Law Chapter 3531-3540

Chapter 3531

These members of the Cataclysmic Front, although they were all very afraid of Marven's strength, but at this moment, they could not bear to see such a miserable and desperate appearance of Joseph.

After all, almost all of them had received favors from him, and could not sit back and do nothing with peace of mind.

What's more, if Marven hadn't let go, not only would Joseph have no chance of escaping death, it would be difficult for his men to survive as well.

Therefore, one after another, they all knelt on the ground, hoping to do more for Joseph, and came together to plead for Marven's forgiveness.

Seeing so many experts of the Cataclysmic Front all kneeling on the ground in front of Marven and kowtowing to him, Zhongquan's heart was incomparably excited.

From this scene, he saw the hope of the rise of the Ye family, and, this rise, say not just at the domestic level, this can make the Ye family number one in the whole world.

On the opposite side of him, Chengfeng, who was standing alone in the place, had panicked to the extreme deep inside.

All the people of the Cataclysmic Front had all knelt down, and now, on this side of the camp, he was the only one still standing.

He didn't know whether he should continue to stand here or hurry up and kneel down along with the people of the Cataclysmic Front.

It was certainly inappropriate for a person to stand alone.

However, asking him to kneel down for Marven, this seemed even more inappropriate.

After all, he was the family head of the Su Family, and originally it was already humiliating to wear mourning for Joseph's parents, now if he were to kneel down for Marven again, wouldn't that be even more humiliating?

Just when he didn't know what to do, a member of the Cataclysmic Front beside him directly dragged him down to the ground.

Chengfeng fell headfirst and was just about to get up when he was slapped in the face by the man, cursing in a low voice:

"You old ba5tard! We all kneeled down to plead for the Lord of the Front, why don't you kneel? Hurry up and kneel down for me!"

With this slap, Chengfeng's face immediately swelled up, and the pain was excruciating.

Although he was 10,000 times angry in his heart, he didn't dare to show anything.

After all, in this situation, he didn't have any right to say anything at all, and he could only take it when others smacked him.

At this moment, all the soldiers of the Cataclysmic Front were staring at Marven with eyes filled with tears, they were all waiting for his final response.

Marven looked at Joseph's miserable appearance and said indifferently, "So many people pleaded for you, I can see that they all sincerely support you,"

"But you brought them to Yeling Mountain to send them to their deaths because of your own selfish interests, don't you, the so-called Supreme Commander, feel ashamed in your heart?"

Joseph choked with pain and said, "Ashamed I am now very ashamed, not only of in front of the brothers of the Cataclysmic Front, ashamed in front of my parents, but also of you, Mr. Ye, and your parents"

Said, he looked up to Zynn as well as Liona, choked: "Uncle, Aunt, I let you two plead for me, I also feel very ashamed"

Zynn let out a long sigh and did not speak.

At this moment, he did not know what to say in response to Joseph.

Chapter 3532

Joseph immediately looked at Marven, said seriously: "Mr. Ye, if you despise me, also do not need me to waste your time, then I can die to repent for the sin,"

"If I die here today, can make you satisfied, can make you calm down, then I am willing to die immediately, not to live even for a second!"

"And I am willing to die in the wilderness, let the insects and beasts gnaw, I only ask you, Mr. Ye, to give me a favorable hand, let my parents go back into the ground in peace!"

Marven frowned slightly, then looked at Luther and asked, "Mr. He, did you bring a knife when you went out today?"

Luther said respectfully, "Back to Mr. Ye, with one!"

After saying that, he took out a short, sharp blade from his waist and handed it to Marven.

Marven took the short blade, then threw it in front of Joseph, and said indifferently:

"Since you are a filial son, for sake of that, I promise you! After your death, I will not bury you or your parents' remains or expose them to the wilderness,"

“Instead, I will repay your grievances with virtue and bury you and your parents together, so you can go on your way in peace!”

Hearing these words, a relaxed smile finally appeared on Joseph’s face, while he looked at Marven, his expression also carried full gratitude.

Afterwards, he once again bent down and gave him a heavy kowtow.

This time, he bent down for a long time before pushing up his upper body and said with immense gratitude, “Thank you Mr. Ye for your great kindness and repaying your grievances with virtue.”

“This kindness of Mr. Ye, I, Joseph, cannot repay in this life, I would like to be a cow and a horse in my next life to repay Mr. Ye’s kindness!”

After saying that, he reached out and took the short blade in his hand.

Just as he was about to point the tip of the blade at his heart, intending to stab it hard, a group of men from Cataclysmic Front almost collapsed, and a large group of people cried out, “Supreme Commander! Don’t do it!”

Joseph looked back at his most loyal men and said with a smile, “Brothers and sisters, I am the one who has implicated you today, so please forgive me!”

“In addition, you remember, after my death, the Cataclysmic Front is automatically disbanded, all of you must not be enemies with Mr. Ye, or with the Ye family,”

“If you are still engaged in the mercenary industry, you must not enter China again in this life, can you remember?”

Hearing these words, all the people had already cried.

They knew that Joseph was ready to die, and this instruction was his final farewell!

Someone choked up and said, “Supreme Commander we can agree to everything else, but why don’t you let us enter China again? If we can’t enter China again, we won’t even have a chance to pay our respects to your grave!”

Joseph smiled lightly and said, “It is enough for the brothers to have this heart, whether they pay respects or not, it doesn’t matter.”

Mr. Ye is kind enough to let us reunite down there, so I can finally spend some time with my parents and make up for my regrets in the past 20 years. You don’t have to come all the way to see me.”

At this point in Joseph’s speech, nearly a hundred members of the Cataclysmic Front had already cried.

These top mercenaries, who normally kill without blinking, were all as fragile as a child of three or five years old.

They know that now the momentum of the Front has gone, the big picture has been decided, Joseph is already sure to die.

Joseph has even given Marven's order to kill himself as a great grace, which shows how completely the Cataclysmic Front has lost this time.

Now, no one can save Joseph's life, because everyone's life is in Marven's hands.

And Marven, it looks like he is not prepared to let Joseph live at all.

Joseph smiled faintly and said to his men: "Ladies and gentlemen, our worlds are dividing after a long time. For a long time, you have worked hard with me, for many years! Today I am done with you all, so let's say goodbye!"

After saying that, Joseph raised his short blade and thrust it at his heart.

Chapter 3533

Although Joseph's meridians were destroyed, wielding a knife to kill himself was still more than enough for him.

He used all his strength in this slash, and it was fierce because he only wanted to use this slash to end his life simply and quickly.

The reason why he wanted to be crisp is because he didn't want so many people to watch him twitch in place for a long time before he died a miserable death.

At this moment, he has long been ready to die.

And many soldiers of the Cataclysmic Front, also understand that all this has become a foregone conclusion, no one is able to return to the past.

But at the moment when the short blade in the hands of Joseph pierced his mourning clothes, cutting the skin of his chest and almost pierced his heart, Marven's toe kicked lightly, and an aura surged into the short blade from the tip of his foot.

Immediately after, just as Joseph actually stabbed the short blade towards his heart, the short blade suddenly turned into pieces in front of his chest, instantly cracked and dissipated in the air!

At this moment, everyone was dumbfounded, and Joseph himself could not believe it!

He found that the short blade in his hand disappeared, and when he looked down, all that was left was some fine dust-like powder in the palm of his hands!

His entire brain did not react, why did the blade turn into powder with Marven's touch, secondly he doesn't understand why Marven at this time suddenly saved him.

He subconsciously raised his head, looking at a bemused Marven, subconsciously asked: “Ye Mr. Ye you this is

Marven said indifferently: “Yesterday when Harmen came to the door, my grandfather had told him about a past event.”

Saying that, Marven looked at Joseph and spoke, “Do you know what my father said back then when he heard that your father had jumped to his death?”

Joseph shook his head gently with a blank expression and said in a low voice: “I don’t know please Mr. Ye elaborate!”

Marven turned to look in the direction of his parents’ tomb in the distance and said softly: “My father said that he did not kill Arthur, but Arthur died because of his own actions.”

“Even though he won over your father justly, but after hearing about your father’s death, he still felt guilty about it, the so-called compassionate people, said should be his kind of person.”

Joseph ashamed incomparable said: “Your father he indeed had the love and righteousness back then I was young, but also heard many rumors about him, many people mentioned him are very admired

“Yes!” Marven nodded, and then said lightly: “Joseph, you are considered very filial, but in my eyes, only a half filial son, do you know why?”

Joseph shook his head and said, “I would like to hear more about it

Marven said seriously: “Filial obedience, if only to understand the word to avenge their parents, or for their parents to die, is not a little one-sided, because you ignore the more important heritage!”

“We have a five-thousand-year-old history, if you have to condense it down, it is actually nothing more than the word heritage!”

“Inheritance, broken down to see, is the inheritance and transmission, in the end, each person should do to carry on, not letting everything you have now to nobody after yourself.”

“People say that they should inherit the philosophy and wisdom of the old ancestors for the past sage;”

“Ordinary people may not be able to reach the height of learning of the saints, at least to learn to have a teacher, to pass on the knowledge you learned from your teachers, your parents, and elders, and give it to your descendants;”

“Even if you can’t even learn to be a teacher, at the very least, you should continue to pass on the bloodline passed down to you by your parents, instead of breaking your own family’s descendants.”

Speaking of this, Marven saw Joseph once again in tears, so then a slight beat, continued: “Think about it, you flow, not just your parents’ bloodline, but your parents two families, thousands of years all the way down the bloodline!”

“These bloodlines have survived countless wars and disasters, and now, they are going to be broken in your body. Do you think your parents will forgive you if you go to see them and accompany them like this?”

Hearing this, Joseph already sobbed, so ashamed that he did not even dare to look up.

Chapter 3534

Marven noticed the change in his eyes and continued, “You have no children, if you die, what can you do even if you have these brothers?”

“When they are alive, because you have benefited them, they may still come to sweep at the graves of you and your parents, and when they die, their children have not even seen you before they will come a long way to sweep the graves of your family to pay tribute.”

“In this way, after a number of years, the grave of your family, becomes no different from a mass grave.”

“If there is land acquisition and development, natural and man-made disasters, your family’s ashes are not collected.”

“In that case, what’s the difference between that and bones being thrown to the ground?”

Hearing this, Joseph deeply lowered his head, his whole body trembled violently, and tears kept rolling and dripping on the ground.

He also wanted to live very much.

However, he was afraid that Marven would not let him live, nor would he let his brothers live, plus to keep his parents’ decency and peace, he could only choose to die.

However, a thought suddenly surged in his heart, “Marven just suddenly turned the short blade in my hand into pieces, could it be, could it be that he intended to spare my life?!”

However, soon, Joseph sighed in his heart, “I’m afraid I’m overthinking it, I’ve been so disrespectful to his parents, how could he spare my life? If I were in his place, then I would have killed myself long ago

Marven then went on to say, “Joseph, you should know that people inherently die, but try to be remembered after death in order to prove that they once existed in this world.”

“Those sages and martyrs, thousands of years after their death, are still remembered, this is the highest level of meaning for people to live one life;”

“Even if ordinary people cannot become sages and martyrs, they can at least leave their names on their family tree, so that their children and grandchildren can remember them,”

“Just like my Ye family, the family tree has been passed down for hundreds of years, and every ancestor has a name on the family tree, this is proof that they existed, and as long as my Ye family is prosperous, their names will never be forgotten!”

Speaking of this, Marven looked at Joseph and said indifferently, “However, if you die today, your parents’ names, will also be buried in the earth with you!”

“Perhaps you, as the Lord of the Cataclysmic Front, will still be remembered for decades after your death, but who will remember your parents? They are just thrown into the long river of history, never to be remembered again, how sad is that?”

Joseph was extremely ashamed at this moment!

Originally, he was ready to die generously, but now he suddenly felt that if he died like this, he would not have the face to meet his parents and the ancestors of the Wan family after his death!

Marven’s words, to him, is simply to kill the heart!

It made him suffer 10,000 times more than death!

Originally, he still felt that death was a kind of relief, a kind of self-redemption.

But now he realizes that death is not a relief, not redemption, but a shame to his parents and ancestors!

Because his death would make his parents, as well as his ancestors, completely disappear in the river of history!

It will also make the family, which has been through thousands of years of suffering, completely dissipate!

The entire family would have no evidence or meaning of existence left!

Thinking of this, his heart was worse than death.

So he raised his head and looked at Marven with his extremely red and swollen eyes, looking at him with great devotion, and loudly begged respectfully, “Mr. Ye! I am willing to give everything!”

“I only beg you to be generous and give me a chance to do my filial duty! I swear by my parents and the ancestors of the Wan family that I will do my utmost to serve Mr. Ye in this life, and I will not stop until I die!!!”

Marven knew that if he was going to kill Joseph, he had to kill him cleanly, but if he didn’t kill him and wanted to take him as his own, he had to let him break and stand afterward!

After all, this person is the head of the Cataclysmic Front, a person in the overseas twenty years, can fight down such a size of the foundation, is definitely not an insignificant existence among the people.

If he just relies on strong pressure and coercion to subdue him, then the pride and disobedience in his bones must still be there, and after a number of years of lying in wait, he will definitely release his inner color and stand against him again.

Therefore, the best way is to break this person's confidence to zilch!

Don't you think you are very powerful? Then my strength can force you to break your own meridians without a fight!

Don't you think that it doesn't matter if you fail, that a single death can solve a thousand sorrows?

Then I'll show you that death is the most painful, most remorseful, most defeated, most cowardly choice in this world!

When you are blocked with no way out, all your pride and self-confidence will be dissipated.

As the saying goes, a hundred refinements become steel! Repeatedly quenched, repeatedly hammered, repeatedly destroyed and rebuilt, before it can be made into a sharp blade!

So, Marven waved his hand at Joseph and said indifferently: "It's just that! I have just taken over the affairs of the Ye family, the future is really short of manpower,"

"Since you have such a heart, I can spare your life, give you a chance to fulfill your filial piety, but you and all of your Cataclysmic Front must be loyal to me! In this life and in this world, you must not disobey any of my orders!"

After saying that, Marven looked at Joseph and the soldiers behind him and asked in a stern voice, "Are you willing?"

Chapter 3535

Hearing that Marven was willing to let him go, Joseph's emotions, excited to the point of almost collapsing.

But he still resisted the urge to cry out in pain and shouted without hesitation, "Mr. Ye, I am willing!"

A group of soldiers from the Cataclysmic Front reacted and shouted excitedly at the same time, "We are also willing!"

In a flash, the response sounded like a mountainous roar!

Everyone else on the scene looked dumbfounded!

No one expected that Marven would spare Joseph's life and at the same time take the entire Cataclysmic Front under his command!

Many people didn't understand why Marven didn't relent until the last moment when he had cut his veins and was ready to commit suicide.

And, before letting go, he also slammed Joseph's decision to die a generous death.

In fact, what Marven played was a typical psychological tactic.

The same bowl of rice, given when the opponent is hungry, and the opponent is dying of hunger, the effect is very different.

Moreover, the reason why Marven slammed his decision to chose death was to destroy his last piece of confidence and dignity.

Because, at the moment of deciding to commit suicide, Joseph's heart, was relieved, and even deep inside his heart, there must still be a sense of sadness of generosity to death.

If this sense of sadness is not completely knocked out of him, then he will still consider going to die as a kind of glory in the future.

In some respects, Joseph is very much like a Japanese samurai, a samurai who truly believes in the spirit of Bushido, and Don Giovanni has a similarity, regardless of his strength, the bones are proud and not afraid of death.

If a person is not afraid of death, you can easily defeat him, it is not so simple to convince him.

Because at any time he will think, although the strength of the old man can not accept a defeat, the big deal is taking a knife to cut open the belly, after the cut he can also fall from a celebrated reputation.

So, in this case, it is necessary to make him understand a core truth: do you think you are a great hero after cutting open the abdomen?

No, even if you disemboweled, you're still a big douche!

Once he knows that even death can not solve the problem at hand, all his pride will completely collapse.

This is the fundamental reason why Marven wanted to push him to the extreme.

Judging from the immediate effect, Marven had already achieved his goal.

From now on, Joseph and his Cataclysmic Front would definitely be loyal and obedient to Marven's orders.

Marven's men and friends, each one of them had been excited to the extreme.

Today was really the most unforgettable day for them in their lives.

This is no longer as simple as setting the ground to death, this is the ground to become a Buddha, the ground to become a saint, the ground to become a dragon!

Philip was so excited that he burst into tears. He looked at Changying's tomb and murmured, "Brother Ye, your son has become a dragon today, and not only has he conquered the Cataclysmic Front, but he has also become the head of the Ye family in a short time.

Leon's feelings were the same as Philip's.

He was a loyal servant of Changying and had lived until now for this day, so his eyes were already full of tears without realizing it.

The Ye family, on the other hand, has mixed feelings at this time.

The joy is that a great crisis completely dissipated.

The worry is, Marven just seems to be with a casual sentence, elated himself to the throne of Ye family?

Especially Andrew and others, they immediately smacked out a slightly different flavor from what Marven had just said to Joseph.

The company's main goal is to provide the best possible service to its customers. Could be he wants to sit directly on the position of the Ye family head today?

But but the old man clearly let him take over the Ye family affairs, for the time being, when this crisis is passed, he has to return the power to the old man obediently ah! This son of a b!tch is ready to push the boat directly to the top?

Chapter 3536

The other Ye family members, also penetrated this layer of meaning, for a time, except for Laila, everyone's heart was depressed to the extreme.

To Andrew, he would rather have Yeling be trampled by the Cataclysmic Front.

If the old man would rather die than give in, he would also rather have Joseph directly kill the old man, and then he himself, as the first in line heir of the Ye family, immediately announce his acceptance of all of Joseph's conditions.

In this way, he could become the head of the shrunken by half Ye family.

But even if the Ye family shrinks by half, it is still in the top three in the country.

With the Ye family shrunken and himself on top, the deal felt worth it.

Because he thought the same as Marven, the Ye family has been peaceful for so many years, the old man has been sitting at the head of the family for so many years.

If there is not a strong external force to break the structure of the family, it is difficult for others to influence the position of the old man.

However, the last thing he wants to see is this current situation.

Joseph cooled off, and as a result, Marven came up.

And Marven means so strong, he became the Ye family head, including Andrew other people, will instantly lose all the right to speak.

In the future, they will only be able to beg for food under the hands of Marven!

Elder Ye's heart was also a bit hard to bear at this time.

He was a human being, so how could he not know what Marven meant by his words just now.

Now, Marven returned to the Ye family, and defeated the Cataclysmic Front on the Yeling Mountain with his own strength.

At this time, Marven wanted to take charge of the Ye family's affairs and become the family head, no one dared to say a word, including him.

However, in just one sentence, he was directly pulled down, Zhongquan's heart was naturally more or less depressed.

He thought sadly in his heart: "When Song Taizu Zhao Kuangyin released his military power, he at least invited everyone to a meal and gave them a toast."

"How come I am robbed of my position with a conversation with someone else? At least say hello to me directly also can....."

Zhongquan feels like he is at home to entertain his grandson who has been away from home for many years, told him to treat this place as his own home and not be polite.

But his grandson, in the blink of an eye, found a maid, said: "This is my own home from now on, the home is too big for me to manage, you stay and help me "

This feeling, indeed, is difficult for him to accept.

Although he has made up his mind to pass the Ye family to Marven in the future, but he would prefer it to be in a gradual way.

He gradually reuses Marven, gradually cultivates him, while himself releasing a little bit of power to him at the same time, and then a little bit to help him on the horse.

In this way, the transition of power is smooth and he can continue to sit steadily in the position of the Ye family head for a few more years.

However, Zhongquan also knows, Marven, with such strength, simply does not need him to support the horse.

Sighing and lamenting as well as depressed and unhappy, but Zhongquan also gradually thought out of the box.

He knew that only Marven could bring the Ye family to the top of the world.

In front of this goal, even if he continues to dominate the position of the family head, what is the point of it?

Rather, it is better to simply, let Marven take over as soon as possible!

In this way, they can also win more goodwill from him!

After all, those ancient emperors who lived to abdicate, life was not so dashing, if he can make Marven more favorable, in the future even if he can not take charge of the Ye family power, that high and low must also be a mascot like the existence of the number two person!

Thinking of this, Zhongquan's heart finally comfortable a lot.

However, before his expression relaxed along with his mood, Andrew who had been quietly observing his father's face, found that his father seemed a bit depressed and immediately knew that the old man must have an opinion about Marven in his heart.

So, he immediately stepped forward and said in a low voice: "Dad! Marven is trying to usurp the throne! When did he take over the big and small affairs of our Ye family? Isn't this a clear attempt to take away your power?"

Zhongquan turned his face and stared at him with eyes wide open, slapping him directly!

The slap directly made Andrew's eyes black!

At that moment, he only heard the old man's righteous anger roar: "Ba5tard! How dare you provoke my relationship with Marven! What the hell is your intention?"

"I'll put my words here today! All of you Ye family descendants listen to me clearly: from today onwards, the position of Ye family head belongs to Marven Ye!"

Chapter 3537

No one expected that the aged old man Ye would suddenly say something like this like a thunderbolt.

This is the first time that the old man has spoken such words, everyone knows that just now, this guy Andrew must be back to the old man to complain.

Wanted to say some bad things about Marven to sow discord, did not expect the old man righteous slap in response.

What's even more shocking is that Elder Ye suddenly announced that he would officially pass the Ye family to Marven!

In this instant, Marven's men and friends, each and every one of them was incomparably excited and even on the verge of cheering out.

The vast majority of the Ye family members, on the other hand, were all crying and mourning, much more ugly than the moment when Harmen brought a coffin to the door.

The old man reigned, each of them can get a lot of oil and water in the business of the Ye family, plus the huge annual dividends and bonuses, everyone lived a very comfortable life.

However, everyone knows that once Marven became the head of the family, it is basically over.

With Marven's iron-blooded character, how could they make money? He seems to have a strong financial focus, he will not give them any extra space.

Andrew is even more in grief and anger, he choked in his heart:

"What kind of fcking thing is this? I came to remind the old man of the loss of power, but the old man gave me a slap in the face, and gave the family headship to Marven.

Zhongquan looked at Andrew at this time, what he thought in his heart was: "Originally it was snatched away from me, the family head position by Marven without a sound, and I didn't even earn the chance of giving up the position on my own initiative."

"I am worried about finding an opportunity to promote the relationship with him, and you came to my door."

"Even if you are my own son, so what? Do you think I don't know what you have in mind? You asked Morgan to buy mourning clothes overnight, I knew about it last night!"

"Ba5tard, you want me to beg for forgiveness after my old bones are slaughtered by the Cataclysmic Front, right? In the future, when Marven is in charge of the Ye family, you'll have a good time!"

Andrew did not know what was in the old man's mind, he only knew one thing, he was afraid that he would be finished in the future.

At this time, Marven heard that the old man wants to pass the family head title directly to him, his heart is also slightly surprised.

But after careful thought, he probably figured out what the old man had in mind.

The reason why he just said so to Joseph is to directly name himself, he will be responsible for the Ye family's big and small affairs, which is equal to directly become the actual power holder.

The old man must know that there is no way to return to heaven, now take the initiative to give way to show goodwill, but also to earn a favor.

In the end, they are all human beings.

As for Andrew, must be the old man as a stepping stone.

This time, he stepped on Joseph to the top, the old man stepped on Andrew to step down, it must be said that there are similarities and differences.

So, Marven said, "In the future, with me, the Ye family will be able to continue to develop and create glory again!"

Zhongquan stepped forward, grabbed Marven's hand, and said excitedly, "Marven, from now on, you alone will be in charge of all the affairs of the Ye family,"

"I believe that in your hands, the Ye family will be able to stand at the top of the world!"

Marven nodded heavily and said seriously, "I will do my best!"

Chapter 3538

After saying that, he looked at the Ye family's uncles and brothers and said lightly, "Moreover, the Ye family has lived in peace for so many years,"

"Many people's bones have gone soft, I have to take this opportunity of the ancestral festival to give them a good calcium supplement!"

Subsequently, Marven said to Luther: "Mr. He, please keep an eye on everyone in the Ye family, whoever dares to quietly throw things out of their bodies, especially mourning clothes and other things, tie them up for me on the spot!"

The vast majority of the Ye family heard these words and were immediately scared to death.

Because they were still carrying mourning clothes in their clothes, just now Marven's process of subjugating the Cataclysmic Front was so shocking that these people completely forgot about the mourning clothes.

Only when Marven said so did they remember that they still had a bomb tugged on them.

The gang immediately panicked, not knowing what Marven planned to do to them next.

At this time, Marven did not pay attention to the Ye family, but looked at the crowd of Front soldiers kneeling in front of him.

In the middle of them, there was a shivering old man, who was also kneeling on the ground, but kept looking left and right, seemingly looking for an opportunity to bolt.

This person, is the Su family head, Chengfeng.

At this time his intestines are almost regretted, heart lamented: "Had I known that this Joseph in front of Marven was such a waste, invited me to Waderest, I would never fcuking come ah"

“The result is good, my own fucking wearing mourning followed so far, the result to this unexpectedly jumped into the fire pit

“Now I do not know how to end, I do not know if I can find an opportunity to quietly bail out

Just when Chengfeng inwardly depressed, Marven pointed to the crowd also wearing mourning kneeling there, indiscriminately, he said indifferently:

“Chengfeng, you old dog also do not think of slipping away, honestly kneel well, I still have to settle accounts with you slowly!”

Chengfeng heard this, scared, and pleaded: “Mr. Ye Mr. Ye this here is nothing to do with me ah, I I just came to pay my respects to Mr. and Mrs. Wan, I don’t mean anything else!”

Marven frowned: “Come, you explain to me, you worship Wan couple, why come to my Ye family ancestral tomb?”

“I I

Chengfeng immediately did not know how to explain, panicked trembling, as if instantly got Parkinson’s.

Marven questioned him: “What? Dare to come to my Ye family ancestral tomb in mourning, do not have the guts to admit that you came to see the show?”

Chengfeng cried, forcibly defended: “Mr. Ye, you really misunderstood me, I did not mean it

Marven sneered, “You came expecting to see a big show, but the stage collapsed, right? I ask you, now regret it?”

Chengfeng’s expression is worse than a dead father, stammered and said, “Mr. Ye I I really did not come to see the show I my son Zynn and Wan couple were very close,”

“So I came to pay my respects, but also out of love, just did not expect to happen so many things this is all a misunderstanding, misunderstanding ah

“Misunderstanding?” Marven coldly questioned: “At this time, you still think of strong words, I think you the Su family head’s intelligence is not high!”

Chengfeng about to die, in the heart, lamented: “This is not the problem of my IQ, is that I really have no good reason ah

Seeing his uncomfortable expression, Marven pointed at the soldier of the Front beside Chengfeng and said coldly, “You, slap his mouth for me fiercely!”

“Your subordinate follows orders!” After that man finished, he grabbed Chengfeng’s collar and slapped him several times on his face.

Chengfeng was not used to this and cried out, “I am the head of the Su family! I am a global business elite! I am a global business elite! How can you treat me with such impunity!”

Marven sneered and said indifferently, "The Su family head? Sorry, you used to be, but now you're not!"

Chapter 3539

Marven's words scared Chengfeng.

The more frightened he was, the louder he roared: "On what grounds?! I've been the Su family head for so many years, why should I not be if you say I'm not anymore?!"

"What qualifications do you have to ask about the affairs of my Su family? I am the master of the Su Family, and I have to be the one to decide all the affairs of the Family!"

Marven said disdainfully, "Of course I am not qualified to meddle in the affairs of your Su Family, but you are now in Yeling, I can't control the Su Family, but I can control you!"

Chengfeng said stiffly, "You can't control me either! I'm free to come and go, who are you to control me?"

Marven said in a cold voice: "Just because you came to the Yeling Mountain of the Ye family today in mourning! If you didn't come, I won't make it difficult for you,"

"And if the Su family still has any discontent in the future, we have plenty of opportunities to have a real competition in various fields, but your fault is that you took the initiative to come to the door since you are here, everything is up to me!"

He said, he sternly shouted, he pointed his finger towards Zhiyu and said to him: "Chengfeng! I now give you two choices, first, the family headship legally passed to Zhiyu, then you go to the Maldives to find an island to retire, when you die, you are put in a coffin and brought back!"

Speaking of this, Marven's voice suddenly raised a few points, sneering: "The second choice, is that I immediately send you and your eldest son Zynn together to Syria,"

"But I have to remind you that the quality of life in that place, and the Maldives is not comparable, and you can rest assured that with my contacts there,"

"Once you go there, it is impossible to come back alive, even if you die, it is impossible to get your body back! Like you are never ever coming back."

Chengfeng's heart stuttered, subconsciously said: "You you are kidnapping! Do you know that I am a big name in the world of elite people? You dare to kidnap me?"

Marven laughed: "I don't care to kidnap you, a bad old man."

After saying that, he looked at Joseph and spoke, "Go back and arrange for someone to send him to Hamid's place, and I will also say hello to the government forces at that time, so that they can release the captured men of the Cataclysmic Front."

Joseph immediately said respectfully, "My subordinate follows orders!"

Marven then looked at Chengfeng and spoke, "As you can see, I, Marven, have always been law-abiding, how could I kidnap a bad old man like you? But if the Cataclysmic Front strikes, then you'll have to fend for yourself."

"I" Chengfeng was scared and trembled all at once, and said offhandedly, "Marven you... ..you are simply shameless! You are not as bright and open as your father Changying was back then!"

"If your father were here today, he would certainly not make things difficult for an old man like me!"

Marven said in a stern voice with a cold expression, "My father was too open and honest back then, that's why he was targeted by your bunch of trash.

After saying that, Marven said with some impatience, "Since you have so much fcuking nonsense, then I'll assume that you choose the second one."

Then, he said to a few of the Cataclysmic Front soldiers: "A few of you give him to me, tied up, wait until Syria, hand him over to Hamid, tell Hamid also do not untie him,"

"Take him directly to the top of the mountain to set up a pillar, strip him nak3d, and put him at the top. He will eat, drink, sleep and do all things there!"

Chapter 3540

Several soldiers of the Cataclysmic Front immediately said respectfully, "Your subordinates follow orders!"

When Chengfeng heard this, he couldn't help but shiver and said, "I'm not going to Syria! I won't go!"

Marven said impatiently, "Gag him first, and then tie him to the white jade pillar of the pagoda! Tomorrow, send him away with Zynn!"

When Zynn heard this, he was terrified and hurriedly said, "Dad! You can't go to Syria, that place is a poor mountain nest, and every day there is a constant battle, it is 10,000 times more painful than prison!"

For Zynn, he did not want to go back for the millionth time.

However, he also knew in his heart that even if he begged Marven, Marven could not change his mind.

The only way to save him from going back to Syria was to hurry up and let his daughter Zhiyu become the head of the Su family.

Because Marven had once said that if Zhiyu could become the head of the family, Zynn could come back.

Just now, when he heard that Marven wanted the old man to step aside, the first possibility that came to his mind, and the only one, was that Marven wanted his daughter Zhiyu to sit as the Su family head.

But just when he felt that his time was coming, he did not expect that the old man would dare to disobey Marven's wishes.

Chengfeng was also in disarray at this time.

He previously thought that he was at least the head of the top domestic family, Marven words are nothing and he cannot get him abroad, or if this spreads, the Ye family will certainly become a target.

However, Marven is not a fool, he himself certainly can not openly kidnap Chengfeng, so simply let the Cataclysmic Front to take action.

This is a kind of mercenary organization that even dares to fight in civil wars in other countries, let alone a mere Chengfeng.

So, at this time, Chengfeng's heart was already panicked to the extreme.

Zynn was afraid that Chengfeng would annoy Marven and end up in a wooden boat, so he shouted out loud: "Dad! You must not think that Marven is joking with you! I have been sent to Syria by him for a long time!"

"Look at me now, I'm so fucking skinny! And not only did he kidnap me, but Shoude is also held in a dog pound for several months, and has not yet had the chance to be released!"

"If you do not give in, Marven will definitely send you to Syria, on your body now, if really sent to Syria, can live for a year and a half is a high incense!"

Chengfeng listened to these, only to feel the liver tremble.

Only then did he finally understand that Marven was able to subdue even the Cataclysmic Front and dare to kidnap even his own two sons, so he couldn't just be scaring him.

If really sent to Syria, then really have a great ability also can not escape back, that Hamid's ability he heard, and even the Cataclysmic Front can not attack him, if he was really sent there, with the Su family's ability to protect the courtyard, it is impossible to save himself.

In that case, the only thing that awaits him is death!

At this moment, those several soldiers of the Cataclysmic Front had grabbed him by the arms, and one of them took out a towel that he didn't know what it was for, and directly tried to stuff it into his mouth.

At this moment, Chengfeng's face was white with fear, his eyes were wide open, and he said in despair: "Don't tie me up! I choose the first one! I'll choose the first one!"

After saying that, he looked at Marven and choked, "Mr. Ye, I am willing to give up the family headship to Zhiyu, so please give me a chance! I'll sign all the paperwork and move to the Maldives!"

“And the Maldives” Marven said in a cold voice: “Long ago I let you choose you did not choose, and now the conditions have changed! The Maldives is not a choice anymore, so do not think about it, there is a country in Africa called Madagascar, do you want to know in advance?!”
