

The Amazing Son In-Law Chapter 3591-3600

Chapter 3591

At this moment, William was ready to welcome 3 billion euros as well as a Concorde.

Everyone on the scene, except for Marven, was staring at the dealer's hand with bated breath.

This card will determine the destination of the table of billions of euros.

And William and Olivia, are both winning.

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to its customers.

The dealer at this time picked up a card and suddenly turned it over and threw it in front of William.

At this instant, William had not seen what the card was, the whole person has been struck by lightning!

Because he saw that his own card was red!

Marven's four aces were already there, and if William had to win, it had to be a flush.

The ace of spades was already in Marven's hand, so if William wanted to win, the fifth card could and must be the nine of spades!

All those who have made gold flushes know that it is extremely rare to get a three-of-a-kind flush, let alone a five-of-a-kind flush.

However, William was not worried at all.

The reason is that he knew that his friend, the dealer, could make any card that he wanted for himself make available.

So, he had already concluded that this card was definitely the nine of spades!

However, once the card was red, then William didn't even need to see what points it actually was to be absolutely sure that the hand was his to lose!

In addition to Marven and Helena, the rest of them were either William's fiancée or William's friends.

So when they saw that the bottom card was actually a red one, everyone couldn't help but let out an extremely regretful cry of surprise!

Olivia was about to have a heart attack!

I thought that William had caught a big hand and was thinking about how to celebrate later, but had never thought that he would turn around and lose so much!

All of a sudden, this future Nordic Queen, the whole person is nervous to the extreme, she in the heart murmured:

“How can this be how can this be why is not the 9 of spades... . why on earth is not the 9 of spades!!!”

William was even more confused, a huge difference of billions of euros in the opposite direction, so that his entire brain was blank, he subconsciously roared out of his mouth:

“This how is this possible? This is absolutely impossible! My card should be the 9 of spades, how can it be the 6 of diamonds!!! Who changed my card away?”

Marven immediately put away the original appearance of that scatterbrain and looked at William and sneered coldly: “And never this card is your father huh? You let it be the 9 of spades, and it will be a 9 of spades?”

William was mad and looked at his friend the dealer and cursed, “It’s you! You played me on purpose, didn’t you! What advantage did he give you? How dare you screw me like this?”

Marven said in a cold voice: “William, you are a little too irresponsible, right?”

“This is the first time I’ve met you guys today, and I don’t even know this friend who’s guesting as a dealer. I just lost to you so many times, have I ever blamed the dealer?”

William had already lost his normal thinking, he was a completely broken gambler, gritting his teeth and saying, “Don’t you fcuking come with me! I told him a long time ago to help me make cards and let me win!”

“But he just make me lose on the most important hand! This must be a fcuking conspiracy! Marven! It must be you!”

The crowd was stunned, and only then did the other runners understand that William had conspired with the card dealer.

Chapter 3592

William was furious at this time, the whole person completely lost rationality, he now decided that this card dealer turned to Marven’s side and eat himself to death, so naturally, in his heart, he is extremely indignant.

But how could he have imagined that a single word would have sold him out?

Marven stood up at this time and said coldly: “Oh! So you fcuking cheated with others! Do you know the rules of the gambling table, cheating to cut off the hand!”

Only then did William suddenly woke up!

Realizing that he had said the wrong thing, he immediately denied it and said, “I didn’t cheat! I was just talking nonsense!”

Marven sneered: "Nonsense, right? Good!"

Marven said, looked at the dealer, and questioned in a stern voice: "You! Tell us everything!"

The card dealer hurriedly said: "William invited me here today, just wanted me to help him in the gambling game, and let him win a sum of money."

"He has done this more than once, every time winning at least hundreds of millions of euros into the account, this time I was also instructed by him, so I helped him cheat"

Marven looked at William and asked in a cold voice: "Come, what else do you have to say?"

William did not know how to respond for a while, and just then, he suddenly glanced at the IOU on the table.

Today, he originally won one billion, now he lost in a two billion IOU, which is equal to not only did not win Marven's money but also owed him one billion himself.

But he felt that all the evidence of the debt is in the IOU!

As long as that IOU is gone, the account, naturally, does not count!

As long as the IOU is destroyed, then the big deal is that you play a night for nothing!

So, he thought he was quick to suddenly reach out and grab the IOU, crazy to stuff it into his mouth!

But his so-called swift, in the eyes of Marven, has been as slow as an ant.

At the moment when William wanted to stuff the note into his mouth, he suddenly felt his wrist, was grabbed by someone!

Immediately after that, an extremely crisp breaking sound suddenly came from his right wrist!

Click!

He only felt a sharp pain coming from his right wrist, and when he looked up, he found that his wrist was connected to his entire arm, with only a layer of skin and flesh remaining.

The bones had long since broken, and even the broken bone stubble had pierced the skin, and blood was gushing out in a steady stream.

Marven had already taken the note away from his hand and said in a cold voice: "Really Mr. William? Cheating is not enough, lose the money and want to eat the note, you are the real fucking black eat black huh!"

Saying that, Marven warned him with full intent: "If you want to renege, the next one to break off like this will be the one in your pants!"

William was on the verge of collapse, the cold sweat caused by the severe pain, snapping down his entire face.

He knew that he had planted a hard one today, and finally understood that Marven had actually been pretending to be a pig and eating a tiger before.

But he was also really afraid that Marven would have his roots ruined.

So, he could only grit his teeth and concede, and spoke: "Okay! Marven! You're awesome! I submit to you!"

Marven sneered: "Don't convince me, I don't need you to convince me either, just pay me the 2 billion euros first! It's written in black and white, I won't spare you even if there's one point missing!"

"What?!" William roared in anger, "I just won you a billion! Now that I lost you two billion, at best, I owe you one billion!"

Marven said with a straight face: "You don't have to be a ra5cal with me here, all the chips on that table are mine now, who did you win by a billion?"

Saying that, Marven smiled contemptuously and said, "Besides, chips are just a plastic toy, not money, while this kind of note written on paper and signed, is the real meaning of money, don't you understand?"

William was furious and said, "Marven! Are you still a human being? So many people here can testify for me! They are all eyewitnesses!"

Marven nodded: "No problem, you have your eyewitnesses, I have my ironclad evidence!"

After that, Marven said: "Why don't we just do this, tomorrow in the Nordic local court, you call your witnesses to the court, I'll show the note in court, see how the court sentence!"

He also said: "In addition, we also let the people of Europe to judge, whether you owe me two billion euros in black and white is justified, or you joined others to try to harm me, but in the end, you eat the dust in one fell swoop more justified!"

William heard these words, the whole person was scared white.

And Marven had not finished.

He looked at William, continued: "Oh yes, by the way, also let the Nordic judicial department know,"

"You cheated on the gambling game, trying to win me three billion euros plus a plane, such a big thing, according to the Nordic law, I wonder how many years you will be sentenced?"

Chapter 3593

At this moment, William's entire inner defense has completely collapsed.

He knows very well in his heart that once this kind of thing really goes to court, he must be the one to lose, and it must be a miserable defeat!

Not to mention his own handwritten IOU, now in Marven's hands, alone as a descendant of the Rothschild family, but also as the fiancé of the Nordic Queen's upcoming wedding, would use the card game to cheat people, this one thing, it is enough to ruin completely his reputation.

What's more, this pit is three billion euros plus a plane!

If this gets out, I'm afraid it could become the world's largest gambling fraud! The family reputation is absolutely going to dogs!

For the European royal family and the big families, the most important thing is reputation.

If a member of the royal family, even if he is a prince, as long as he has done something that the royal family is not allowed to do, and it is made public, the royal family will definitely deprive him of his royal status and expel him from the palace in order to maintain their credibility.

There is an example of the prince in Great Britain who was removed from the royal family.

Therefore, if this matter broke out, William and Olivia's wedding is absolutely impossible to continue to hold.

And, once such a disgraceful thing gets out, it's a disgrace to the entire Rothschild family!

They are a third-tier family, usually not at all concerned by the core members of the family.

But once this international scandal comes out, the core members of the Rothschild family will be furious!

At that time, William's entire family, I'm afraid, will experience the end!

In addition, there is a more terrible thing.

In Europe, cheating while gambling is the same as a fraud! It is criminal fraud!

The amount of money that William defrauded is definitely extremely huge, and it must put him in jail!

As soon as he thought of this came, he immediately poofed on his knees, crying and begging: "Marven I was wrong I should not cheat to hurt you please!"

"For the sake of my wedding tomorrow, spare me If this matter really goes out, my life can be ruined!"

Marven nodded and casually said, "Then let it ruin, what does it have to do with me?"

William kneeled on the ground and kowtowed, crying, and said, "Marven please remember that I am only a first offender, give me another chance I really know that I am wrong, I will also let my family find a way to help me repay this gambling debt."

"I just beg you to be able to lift up your hand and let me off the hook"

Marven laughed: "You have to understand one thing, now you owe me this 2 billion is written in black and white, as long as I go to court to sue you, you are sure to pay me back, in that case, then why do I have to be noble to you?"

William nearly desperate, crying, "Marven what in the end you have to do to forgive me? How on earth can you not take this matter to court?"

Marven smiled blandly and said, "This matter depends on the sincerity of your family."

Chapter 3594

After that, Marven looked at Olivia and said, "Olivia, William's parents should be in the first-floor banquet hall drinking with your parents, now William caused such a big thing,"

"I think he can't solve it, so it's hard for you to run, call William's parents up, and see how William's family is going to solve this matter."

Olivia is also close to collapse at this point.

She will get married tomorrow, this matter has been made known to the world, tomorrow the whole country and even the whole of Europe people will pay attention to their wedding ceremony.

If at this time, her fiancé spread such a big scandal and also gets arrested by the judicial department, then her reputation as the future queen will be ruined in advance!

Therefore, she, like William, could not allow making this matter public.

So, she hurriedly said to Marven: "Mr. Ye, please wait a moment, I'm going to ask William's parents to come up!"

After saying that, she hurriedly ran out.

At this moment, inside the banquet hall.

Richard Iliad, was pushing glasses together with George Ruthschild.

Aman Ramovich, who had been slapped by Marven, had long since gone to his room unhappily, and their wives had also gone to their rooms first because they were not strong enough to drink.

In the banquet hall, these two men were left to drink a glass of wine.

Both of them are in a very good mood, after all, tomorrow is a good day for the two's children's wedding, after the wedding in a short time, Olivia will be able to ascend the throne to become the Queen.

At that time, William as her husband, will also be officially enthroned as a Prince.

At that time, with the title of Prince, William, will certainly be in the Rothschild family fame.

Perhaps, their entire family will be able to squeeze into the second rung of the overall family hierarchy.

Just as the two were happily drinking, Olivia ran down quickly, panting and saying, "Dad! Uncle George! You guys get up and come to the second floor! William is in big trouble!"

"Trouble?" William's father, George, asked with a surprised look on his face, "Didn't you youngsters go to play cards? What kind of trouble could William be in?"

Olivia cried and said, "William is bent on setting up a game for Marven, and a friend of his joint cheating to pit Marven, the result was Marven recognized, and he also lost to Marven two billion euros, and now Marven is making a fuss to go to court with it....."

"What?!" George felt dizzy, said: "He is eating what ambition leopard courage, how dare to cheat and pit Marven? And also make such a big mess..... I told him not to mess with that surname Ye?"

Olivia is also regretful, said: "William was thinking that this thing can certainly go unnoticed, both to win Marven a sum of money, but also have the opportunity to get Concorde from him, but I did not expect him to end up losing to him two billion"

George listened to the fast collapse.

Two billion euros is how big an amount of money, it is naturally, needless to say, the key is that this matter, in this situation now, if Marven really wants to stab him out, then his son is completely finished.

In Europe, if a person's reputation is bankrupt, then everything about him will also be bankrupt.

Moreover, for such a large amount of money, jail time is afraid to sit from now until his eightieth birthday!

He is such a son, say what can not let him go to jail!

Therefore, George first realized that the most important thing right now is that they can not let Marven make this matter public!

To do everything possible to reconcile with Marven!

So, he hurriedly got up and said, "Take me there! I'll go talk to Marven!"

Richard also said nervously, "I'll come with you!"

Soon, the two of them ran into the chess room on the second floor, together with Olivia.

As soon as they entered the room, they saw William, who had broken one of his hands, was kneeling on the floor crying bitterly.

And Marven, at this time, was standing in front of him with his shoulders clasped, with an arrogant face.

George entered the door, did not dare to care about his son, hurriedly came to the front of Marven, said in a low voice:

“Mr. Ye, I think I did not teach my son properly, did not expect this rebellious son would do such a treacherous thing, but I hope you can forgive “

Marven asked him: “He is your son, not my son, why should I forgive him here?”

Chapter 3595

Seeing that Marven did not buy his plea, George hurriedly said:

“Mr. Ye, my son has made a mistake, I as a father will definitely find a way to make up for it, I will do my best to solve the problem, please do not be so angry!”

Marven nodded and said, “Since you have this attitude, then I will not talk nonsense with you, your son dared to pit me cunningly, and wanted to pit me for 3 billion euros at one time, plus a Concorde.”

“I have never encountered such a ruthless attack in my life, this matter, how do you plan to solve it?”

George was suddenly full of cold sweat.

He also did not expect that his son was so bold.

Three billion euros and a Concorde This is not fucking gambling to come, this is eating people alive!

Before he could think of how to give Marven a satisfactory answer, Marven shook the two billion euros IOU in his hand and said indifferently:

“And this IOU is written by your son himself, he owes me two billion euros, this debt, how do you plan to pay it?”

George immediately wiped his head full of sweat, such a large amount, and the other party is still the Ye family, he immediately realized that if this matter is not resolved, his son is likely to sit throughout his life at the bottom of the jail!

Moreover, tomorrow is his wedding day with Olivia, if he went in, it would be nothing.

So, now everything has to be the big picture, so George clenched his teeth and said: “Mr. Ye this two billion euro debt, I I pay for my son! Please be generous, please be generous!”

George is already hemorrhaging money this time!

Two billion euros, is 20% of his family's entire assets, a one-time take out to Marven, the loss will be extremely heavy.

But now in this situation, it is no longer possible for George to hesitate.

With a little hesitation, this matter may be irreversible.

Marven at this time is not at all satisfied, but full of disdain said: "Even if you pay me 2 billion euros, it only solves the matter of debt, how can he cheat to plunder me?"

"You should know that this note is written in black and white by your son himself, and there is also his handprint,"

"Even if I sue in the court, you are still going to return this money to me, and I believe that the court here, is certainly able to help me to do justice."

After saying that, Marven deliberately looked at Olivia, and then said aloud: "And I still don't know if there are still William's accomplices in your gang!"

"I will hand this matter over to the local judicial authorities, I believe they will be able to find out the truth!"

Seeing that Marven wanted to stab the matter out, George was so nervous that his blood pressure rose and his brain became dizzy.

Not only him, but even Olivia was also about to collapse!

Her heart nervous incomparable secretly thought: "this time to do the game to pit Marven, although it was William's idea, but I also knew from the beginning, and also discussed with William."

"Even the implementation of the criminal acts of the site is provided by me, and even I have long been clear with William one and a half share of the spoils ratio, so in the legal level, I am definitely considered his accomplice"

"If Marven really exposes this matter, and the matter to the judicial system to solve the words, the judicial system must first put William to trial!"

"And William this kind of neutral and useless stinking fool, when the time comes, will certainly soon give me up"

"If it is known that the future queen has made a game to cheat others of huge sums of money, then I will definitely not have a chance to inherit the throne"

Chapter 3596

Olivia, whose heart was beating in her throat, hurried to her father Richard's side, whispering in his ear and crying, "Dad this thing no matter what should not get out of this room,"

“Because this thing, I, I planned with William, once he is caught, he will certainly give me up, then I am completely finished

Richard heard these words, his eyes suddenly black, almost fell to the ground.

He could not easily slow down, gritted his teeth, and stared at Olivia, questioned in a low voice: “What the hell is your brain made of?”

“A person who is about to inherit the throne and become the queen, how dare she participate in this kind of cheating gambling game, you you are trying to make me die!”

Richard is really going crazy.

Although the royal family is very popular in the region, but to put it bluntly, this is a family of mascots, in law, there are no privileges.

And the actual operation of these countries, all are in the hands of democratic governments.

Cabinet, Parliament is the real manager of this country, the royal family has no actual power, once the royal family broke the law, the Nordic judiciary will not harbor them.

Once he thinks of this, Richard hurriedly interceded and said: “Mr. Ye, of course, William is wrong!”

“Of course he should be punished! But also please see George’s positive attitude to solve the problem, do not see eye to eye with him

The Rothschild family will take out a portion of the compensation for you as a private settlement, what do you think?”

Once George heard this, he also immediately nodded repeatedly and begged: “Mr. Ye, you say a number, as long as within the scope of what we can afford, we will never hesitate!”

Marven grunted and said, “Do you think this matter can be solved by taking money? Do you think my Ye family is short of money? We have given hundreds of billions of euros to the Cataclysmic Front, what is money to me?”

Saying that, his expression gradually became cold, sternly said: “I just want to take my fucking revenge now!”

“Since I was a kid, no one has ever dared to screw me like this! Last time, an unscrupulous person stole my bank card and transferred more than 20 billion RMB from me, I thought she was already bold and unmatched, but today someone wants to cheat me out of 3 billion euros and a Concorde!”

“Your William has a lot of guts!”

When George heard these words, he got a jolt, then kicked William, who was kneeling on the ground, down, then rushed up, pulled up his collar, and slapped him seven or eight times in the face.

While beating, he cursed: "You're a ba5tard who can do nothing well, even not good enough to do anything! I have to beat you to death today to give you a taste of your own medicine!"

William's eyes were starry and tears were flowing, but he didn't dare to say a word.

He knew that he had made big trouble, if he did not let Marven satisfied today, he would be all finished.

So, now the beating, he can only grit their teeth and bear it.

After George had slapped seven or eight times, he looked up at Marven and saw that Marven's expression did not care at all, so he knew that he must not be relieved.

So, he gritted his teeth and slapped him a dozen more times, causing his cheeks to fill with blood.

Seeing that William was almost unconscious, George had to stop and turn to Marven and begged: "Mr. Ye, I can't beat him anymore"

"If I keep on beating him, he won't be able to hold his wedding tomorrow Please spare him for the sake of his condition"

Marven sneered: "Your son stabbed such a big thing, you still think about the wedding? Your heart is big enough huh!"

"I advise you to seize the time, while it is not yet the wedding day, directly announce the postponement of the wedding,"

"Wait for him to be released from prison to make up for it, by then Olivia can still fall into an infatuation absolute reputation!"

Speaking of which, Marven said with a longing face: "You think about it! A young girl, waiting for her beloved out of prison, until the seventy or eighty years old! How touching is this love story?"

"And in the end, when the two gray-haired couple, trembling, hold hands in the marriage hall, to announce to the world that they have finally come to fruition, everyone will be moved by it!

"If you look at the whole world, I'm afraid there is no other example of this kind, right? In my opinion, it can definitely become a love story comparable to "Romeo and Juliet"!"

Chapter 3597

Olivia was buried by Marven's words this time, embarrassed, she wanted to snap a hole in the floor with her toes and drill herself down to the first floor.

And what bull5hit "Romeo and Juliet", how could she wait for William to get out of jail?

She now only hate him, can't wait to clear all relations with him!

Otherwise, he will go to jail, she is also not going to end well after that!

William's father George, how can he not hear Marven's sarcasm and ridicule, seeing he is now completely unwilling to cooperate, his heart has been terrified to the extreme.

He looked at Marven and begged bitterly, "Mr. Ye, this matter is my fault for not teaching my son properly, as long as you name your conditions, no matter how difficult it is, I will find a way to meet your demands!"

Marven ignored him, but looked at William and said in a cold voice:

"William if you want me to raise hand, first of all, you must immediately give an honest account of the causes and consequences of the whole matter."

"This includes who you actually made this decision with, and how many of the people at the scene, in addition to the dealer, are your accomplices!"

William hurriedly said: "No no no only the dealer is my accomplice he has previous experience of dealing in Las Vegas casino for a lot of years as a dealer, with good gambling skills"

"He and I sometimes join hands in such parties to get some cash. This matter from beginning to end is between the two of us, there is no third person's involvement."

Marven said in a cold voice: "Are you telling the truth? I warn you, if you have half a word not telling the truth, I immediately will call the police to deal with you!"

"When the time comes, I will also let the Ye family pressure the Nordic judicial system to demand a strict sentence for you!"

Saying that, Marven added: "And you have to think clearly, if you are arrested by the police, then you may have to stay in jail for the rest of your life!"

"At that time, I don't care who the person you want to defend is, but you may not even have the chance to see her, by then others will still be able to live their own dashing life, while you, you will only be able to stay looking out the iron window."

George heard Marven's words, three or two steps to William, another slap fiercely on his face, angrily shouted:

"What time is it still do not tell the truth, do you really want to go to prison? It doesn't matter if you go to jail yourself, but don't drag our whole family down!"

Deep inside, William panicked, and subconsciously cried, "I'm telling you! I'm telling you! I'm telling you now! The planner of this matter is Olivia and me, we two together discussed this matter"

Olivia heard these words, suddenly furious: "William! Don't you spit in the mouth! This is all your idea, what does it have to do with me?"

William said aggrieved: "It's true that I came up with the idea, but you were also very supportive!"

“And you also said, no matter how much money I earn 10%, I have to share half of you, if I can win Marven’s that Concorde, that plane is also half yours.....”

Chapter 3598

“What nonsense!” Olivia didn’t expect that William would sell all of her out because he was afraid of being investigated deeply!

She was so angry that she yelled, “William! You’re still trying to bring me down at a time like this, I’ve lost my sight! Tomorrow’s wedding is not necessary, from now on I have no relationship with you!”

Marven looked at Olivia and sneered, “Olivia, if the police find that you are indeed William’s accomplice, then you can’t get married even if you want to, even if you are an accessory, I’m afraid you will have to go to jail for a few years!”

When Olivia heard this, she burst into tears and begged, “Mr. Ye, you and I have no enmity, there is no need to ruin my future, right?”

“Or else you make a price! No matter how much it is, as long as it is within the royal family’s affordability, the royal family is willing to compensate you!”

George saw Olivia said so, also hastened to take a position: “Mr. Ye, I also mean, how do you want to be satisfied, how can you be willing to go for a private settlement, you can make a price! As long as we can afford to pay, we will do it!”

He pointed to William and Olivia and choked, “Look, these two children are still very young, and Olivia will soon become the Queen, then if this matter is stirred up, these two children’s lives will be ruined!”

Marven stroked his chin for a moment of silence and laughed: “You are right, they are still very young, really want to ruin their future, my heart is also a bit sad.”

He sighed and said, “Hey! Looking at you all so pious, this matter I can choose a private settlement, but it depends on the attitude of your two families to solve the problem.”

Once Marven said this, the two families immediately understood the meaning of his words.

Since it depends on the attitude, it is natural to show sincerity.

So, William’s father, George, immediately said, “Mr. Ye, don’t worry, as long as you are willing to give me a favorable hand, I will immediately pay you the two billion euros!”

When he said this, George’s heart was dripping blood.

Their family has a total of ten billion euros in assets and originally promised the Nordic royal family to invest a large amount of money in the royal family’s industry after the marriage.

Now, William stabbed such a big basket, the two billion euros, which has far exceeded their family’s cash flow reserves.

George could only take the money he was going to invest in the royal family after the wedding and pay out to Marven first.

When Marven heard this, he could not help but frown and asked him, "Your son originally owes me two billion, it's written in black and white,"

"You as his father, it's only natural to pay this debt for him, why are you still licking your face and begging me for a higher hand?"

George did not expect that two billion euros can not make Marven satisfied, can only ask him: "Ye Mr. Ye you, in the end, how'd you be satisfied?"

Marven said indifferently: "If you want me to raise my hand, then in addition to the two billion, you must also come up with some more sincerity."

George was so nervous that his voice trembled a little and asked softly: "Ye Mr. Ye how much do you really want?"

Marven lightly said: "I do not want more, in addition to the two billion euros owed, and then take three billion euros as spiritual compensation, five billion also sounds some."

George's eyes black, said offhand: "Mr. Ye five five billion euros is is not too much"

Marven asked rhetorically, "Is it too much?"

George almost collapsed and choked, "Mr. Ye five billion euros is indeed too much we where we can get so much money"

Marven looked at Olivia and said indifferently, "Olivia, since you are also involved in this matter, the five billion euros, then the two of you will pay together!"

"As for how much each family contributes, you negotiate a ratio yourselves! Half an hour later, I want to see five billion euros in my account!"

Olivia listened, froze, and said puzzled: "Marven this matter, the William family is already willing to pay, how can we still let the royal family also pay for it in this matter, you can't earn double money, right?"

Marven nodded, said with a smile: "Olivia, you're really right, this matter, I just want to earn a double share of the money!"

Chapter 3599

Marven has now taken these two people to death.

Neither William nor Olivia can bear the consequences of this matter if exposed to the public.

Therefore, they will definitely do their best to find a way to solve this problem.

Five billion euros is a lot, but for them, if they tighten their belts, they can get it out.

Therefore, Marven felt that sometimes it is to force the enemies, if you do not force them, you do not know how much money they can actually come up with.

Olivia's father, Richard, at this time, whole person is nervous beyond measure.

He knows that Marven has now seized the soft underbelly of his family, if this matter is really exposed, the royal majesty will be gone.

At that time, the nation could not allow Olivia, a member of the royal family suspected of crimes, to inherit the throne.

In the same way, they are not likely to allow him to inherit the throne, after all, they are Olivia's real father.

At that time, the most qualified to inherit the throne instead becomes Helena who has been at Marven's side without speaking!

Richard must not allow such a thing to happen!

So, he did not hesitate to say: "Mr. Ye! This matter is indeed my incompetence in teaching my daughter"

"We are willing to actively resolve this matter, please wait a moment, I will discuss it with the Rothschild family!"

Marven nodded and said blandly: "You guys can discuss it, I'll give you half an hour, tell me the result after half an hour."

Richard hurriedly said, "Yes, yes! Mr. Ye you please wait a moment"

After saying that, he immediately looked at William's father George and spoke, "George, let's talk about this matter in private!"

George also hastily agreed, so he respectfully said to Marven: "Mr. Ye, let's go out and discuss it first, and give you a satisfactory answer as soon as possible!"

Marven waved his hand, "You guys just discuss it here, I'll go out with Helena to see the Queen, she wants to spend more time with the old woman."

No one took Helena's desire to go see the Queen seriously.

They only thought of hurrying up and settling the solution now.

So Richard then said without hesitation, "Mr. Ye, you and Helena can go up directly, and after we negotiate a result here, I will personally go to the ward to see you!"

“Okay!” Marven nodded slightly, then he said to Helena: “Helena, let’s go.”

Helena hurriedly followed behind Marven and quickly walked out of the chess room.

As soon as Marven left, William went crazy and rushed up to beat up his dealer friend, cursing angrily as he did so, “How dare you fcuking screw me! I’ll k!!! you!”

His father, George, hurriedly stopped him and yelled, “William! The most important thing now is to find a solution as soon as possible! You don’t want to make any trouble here!”

William had to stop moving.

Chapter 3600

Richard said to the others at this time, “Gentlemen, please give us a space to be alone, we have some matters to discuss.”

The people naturally knew the huge problems these two families were currently facing, so they left.

The dealer who was psychologically impressed by Marven was like a lost soul, so he was taken out by the others.

After there were only four people left, George said, “Gentlemen, we must first reach a consensus, that is, we must stabilize Marven tonight,”

“Say nothing to let him poke out this matter, otherwise our two families will be all finished!”

Richard sighed and said, “Marven is asking for 5 billion euros, this is 10,000 times scarier than bandits! Where are we going to get so much money for him?”

Olivia looked at William and said in exasperation, “William! This matter is all your fault for being greedy! Now Marven wants five billion euros in compensation, and I think you have to pay for all of it!”

“I’ll pay for all of it?” When William heard this, he exploded and said sternly: “Olivia, when you said you wanted half of the money before, I didn’t have a single complaint, but now you want to dump the whole pot on me?”

Richard spoke up at this time: “William! There’s no point in arguing at this point!”

“Both you and Olivia must work together to get through this, otherwise tomorrow at dawn will be the moment when you and our two families will be discredited!”

After saying that, he looked at George and said through clenched teeth, “Marven asked for five billion euros, we, the Iliad family, can offer at most one billion euros, the rest, please excuse us.”

George sighed.

The Scandinavian royal family is only willing to pay one billion, which left him with a bit of a funding gap indeed.

But, their willingness to pay is already very good, after all, he understands the actual situation of the royal family, taking out one billion cash is definitely their limit.

However, four billion euros in cash is also an impossible task for him.

With his family's current financial situation, the most he could come up with today would be three billion euros.

If he wanted to take out four billion, he would have to get rid of some of his assets first, and this was not something that could be solved overnight.

So, he spoke: "I simply can't afford to settle four billion euros right now, that's nearly five billion dollars! Where am I going to get so much cash?"

Richard asked him, "Then what is the most you can come up with?"

George blurted out, "At most, it's three billion euros!"

As soon as Richard heard this, he immediately sighed and said, "George, if you expect us to come up with two billion euros, then I can tell you clearly that it's simply not possible!"

"It's not that I'm not willing to share with you, but I simply can't get that much cash! All the assets of the royal family combined are only about three billion euros."

"And a large part of that is under my mother's name, and until she dies, no one can touch that asset!"

George also knew that Richard's words were true, so he asked him powerlessly: "Then what to do? Do we just tell Marven that we can't get that much money together?"

"Definitely not" Richard said off the cuff: "If you tell Marven, then he will turn around and stab the matter out, we will be finished!"

Olivia gritted her teeth and said, "I can't do it, I'll just kill Marven! Once and for all!"

"How can this be done" Richard exclaimed, saying, "If we kill him, the Ye family will never let us go! Don't you forget, now the Ye family people still have the backing of the Front!"

Olivia said with an incomparably gloomy expression, "The best solution to this matter is to kill Marven!"

"Kill him, then find a way to disguise it as an accident, as long as we do it flawlessly and the others can keep the secret, the Ye family people can't possibly do anything to us!"

William also seemed to have grabbed the straw at this time and said offhandedly,

"I think Olivia's solution is very feasible! If we kill him, we won't have to pay 5 billion euros!"

“As long as we handle it cleverly so that no one can find out any actual clues, this matter can be muddled through!”

Olivia’s eyes were thick with the killing intent and coldly said, “We have some special talents in the royal family, and there are many experts who are proficient in the assassination.

She continued: “After Marven dies, we fake the scene as a fall to his death, and then tell the Ye family that Marven and Helena committed adultery!”

“And when Marven went through the window into Helena’s room at night, he lost his footing and fell to his death!”

Speaking of this, the corners of Olivia’s mouth rose slightly, sneering:

“He did not even bring a bodyguard this time, and also in our territory, if we want to kill him, it is as easy as moving a hand!”
