

The Amazing Son In-Law Chapter 3871-3880

Chapter 3871

Dave was oblivious to the fact that he had just inadvertently sold his daughter and son-in-law out of the whole thing.

On the contrary, he felt that he had done a great job today, and had gotten his daughter and son-in-law a single business each.

This can not be blamed on his stupidity, after all, he could not know that the so-called 'Zhan Feier' in front of him, the real identity is Stella, but also hundreds of billions of dollars of the top family's first lady.

Moreover, he didn't know that Zhan Feier had rushed to Wrestrvel before the Rejuvenation Pill auction, just to find Marven.

As the meal proceeded, Stella was in a great mood.

In the subsequent meal, she did not mention feng shui and decoration, and everything she talked about was closely related to the art exhibition as if feng shui and decoration were really just a random topic to talk about.

After the meal, in the farewell, Dave first can not resist, asked Stella: "Miss Zhan, you talked earlier about feng shui and decoration matters, sure do you need it?"

"If you're sure, I will tell my daughter and son-in-law when I get home."

"Sure!" Stella nodded with a smile and said seriously, "How about this Mr. Xiao, you first help me make an appointment with your son-in-law, let him have time to help me look at the feng shui,"

"If the feng shui of this house is fine, I will then talk to your daughter about the subsequent decoration needs,"

"If this house has feng shui problems, then I will simply change the set, anyway, it is only a matter of tens of millions of dollars."

Stella did not deliberately show off, deliberately Versailles, in Wrestrvel to buy a set of tens of millions, thousands of square feet of single-family houses,"

"In the eyes of the local people in Wrestrvel, almost to the head, but for Stella, just like ordinary people to the tourist attractions, casually buy a souvenir.

Moreover, Stella does not want to meet with Marven, followed by Marven's wife, it is better to line up the couple first, if she can not break through Marven from the front, then from his wife's side take a detour.

Dave also felt that people Stella said no problem, first look at the feng shui, if no problem with feng shui before decoration, this logic is reasonable, justified, and convincing.

So, he said with a smile, "Okay, okay, I'll talk to my son-in-law later, and let him take the time to go and give you a look!"

Stella nodded hastily, handed Dave a business card, and said with a smile, "Vice President Xiao, this is my business card, if your son-in-law is okay with it, please ask him to contact me."

Dave said with a smile, "No problem, I'll talk to him when I get home!"

Back home, Dave was in a good mood, parked his car, and whistled all the way into the house.

Marven, Avella, and Viola had just eaten dinner, and when Viola saw Dave enter the house, she immediately beckoned him, "Dave, come and put away the dining table!"

Dave was stunned and said with a black face, "Why should I clean up the meal you three ate? Why don't you clean up?"

Viola glared at him and said angrily, "You are out so late, let you do some housework should I not?"

Saying that, Viola with a dissatisfied face muttered: "all day and night in the outside of what the bullsh!t association, I have not seen you bring a few million home, what is the use if still not a waste?"

"And your level, outsiders do not know, I still can not know? In the old days, the idiom of "to fill up the number with a few" is a true reflection of you,"

"Just like you still have the courage to represent Wrestvel to Korea for exchange? We're lucky if you don't disgrace Wrestvel!"

Recently, Viola's mood has been a bit low.

The main reason for her low mood was that the last time Dave told her about going to Korea for cultural exchange, made Viola was somewhat jealous in her heart, and also somewhat inferior.

Chapter 3872

For so many years of marriage, she was the one who was always scolding Dave, after all, for so many years, he could not do anything.

And was ostracized in the Xiao family, so Viola scolded him at all times, and it was all in the name of the division.

It is also because of Dave's lack of success that gave her the strength to keep criticizing him and mocking him.

But how could she have imagined that Dave, who had spent most of his life doing nothing, would suddenly have a second spring in his old age?

Although Viola mocked him that the painting and calligraphy association vice president is of little use, but in actuality, her heart actually knows very well.

This vice president actually has some weight.

This kind of cultural association of the top, body has a very special cultural aura, the city leaders have to give a few face.

However, Viola in front of Dave has had a strong lifetime, at this time he is doing something better, so she deliberately mocked him.

Dave was originally upset by Viola's mockery, and was about to retort, when he heard her say that he was not up to par, that she was indiscriminate.

She immediately poked his innermost humility and sensitivity.

Today, in front of Pollard, Dave has had such a feeling.

He also clearly realized that he really did not have any real ability, so it was hard to mix to be the executive vice president of the Painting and Calligraphy Association, but in the end, he was still a water product.

However, being so sarcastic by Viola deeply stung his self-esteem, and he immediately retorted: "Do you think I am the vice president who eats rice? In this position, not only can I broaden my horizons, but also enhance my network!"

He added: "By the way, I met an overseas Chinese today, and she is a big tycoon! Her family donated tens of millions of dollars worth of paintings and calligraphy to our painting and calligraphy association,"

"And they are willing to sponsor 50 million dollars for us to open a local art exhibition in Wrester! If we make such connections, we may be of great use in the future!"

Viola said, "What are you bragging about, according to you, they donated 100 million to your painting and calligraphy society alone?"

"I don't believe who would have nothing better to do than to donate money to your Painting and Calligraphy Society!"

Dave blurted out, "What do you know? There are a lot of rich people in this world, many rich people donate and sponsor everywhere, what's a little donation in the cultural field?"

With that, Dave looked like he was taking credit and said, "By the way, because I met this overseas Chinese, I also got a business deal for Marven and Avella!"

"If I didn't join the Painting and Calligraphy Association, could I have such an opportunity?"

Viola frowned and asked, "Doing business for Marven and Avella? What kind of business?"

Marven also looked surprised: "Yes dad, I don't do business either."

Dave said to Marven, "Good son-in-law, haven't you been reading feng shui for people? The overseas Chinese I met today just bought a villa in Wrestrvel,"

"And when we were chatting over dinner, she happened to mention that she wanted to ask a feng shui master to take a look at it, and when I heard this,"

"I definitely had to help our own family members, after all, the water will not flow to the outsiders, so I recommended you to her."

"You usually go to those rich people to see feng shui, each time you earn a couple of million?"

"This time, this overseas Chinese, also seems to be rich, when you directly quote her two or three million, I guess she will not hesitate to agree."

When Viola heard this, she was immediately delighted and said to Marven: "Good son-in-law, this is a good deal, you don't even have to go overseas, just slip around in our Wrestrvel, you can earn a few million!"

Marven smiled, and for a while did not know how to answer the question.

Although he had been telling his family that he was going out to see feng shui for customers, in fact, he had not taken any similar orders, and that was all an excuse to go out of town.

Chapter 3873

Originally Marven felt that his excuse was reasonable and seamless, but he did not expect that his old man Dave had introduced him to a client now.

He did not care about the millions, but the key seems to be that he could not refuse, otherwise, in the future to use the excuse of reading feng shui, it is obviously a little unjustified.

So, he had to nod and say, "Okay dad, you give me her contact information, I'll contact her tomorrow."

Dave handed over a business card and said, "Here, this is this Miss Zhan, you give her a call tomorrow and mention my name and she will know."

Marven got the business card and casually glanced at it and found that there was only a name and a string of numbers on it.

The name was Zhan Feier, and the phone number was a domestic phone number beginning with 159.

Moreover, this business card also emits a faint smell of ink, it seems to be just printed out.

He did not think much about it, took out his cell phone and took a picture of the business card, then returned it to Dave.

He intends to contact this Zhan Feier tomorrow to give her a feng shui reading, so that this matter can be dealt with.

The next day, after Marven had breakfast, Dave reminded him, "Marven, don't forget to give Miss Zhan a call."

Marven nodded and said, "I'll contact Miss Zhan after I drop Avella off at the office."

Dave said, "You don't need to send Avella, I will drive her to the company later, just as I also need to go to the association early,"

"Let Avella leave the car for you, in case Miss Zhan is in a hurry, you can drive there directly."

Avella also nodded and said, "Husband, this Miss Zhan has invested so much money in their painting and calligraphy association,"

"So she is also considered a valuable person of the painting and calligraphy association, so please pay more attention to this matter."

Saying that: "You see if the workload is not too big, do not charge people money."

When Viola heard this, she said, "Avella, what are you talking about, brothers have to settle accounts, let alone strangers?"

After saying that, he hurriedly said to Marven: "Good son-in-law, you do not listen to Avella, the money must be received, we do not do that for face even do not want the money silly thing!"

Marven looked at Avella and said with a smile, "Don't worry about your husband, I know what's in your heart."

Viola said: "Good son-in-law, you can't be stupid! We can't have a problem with anyone but money!"

"And this is not a small amount, it can easily be millions!"

Marven laughed, "Okay mom, I know, don't worry."

Saying that, Marven quietly gave Avella a reassuring look.

It's just a couple of million, and Marven really doesn't care about it, so there's no harm in sending a favor along with the water.

After eating, Avella intended to leave in Dave's car, Marven remembered the amulet he made before.

So he took out two of them and handed them to father and daughter and said, "Dad, Avella, this is the amulet that can keep you safe in and out, so you two should take one with you."

Dave asked curiously, "Amulets? Where did it come from? Why does it look like made out of shells?"

Marven laughed: "It's made of shellfish, it doesn't really have any effect, it's just for luck."

Avella took this small and delicate amulet and said in awe, "This luster is so beautiful! I'm afraid that ordinary shells do not have such a good texture!"

Marven laughed: "Who knows, it might be some kind of uncommon shell."

Saying that, he hurriedly said, "You guys often drive out, so carrying it with you is considered to be prepared."

Avella nodded and smiled, "I'll put it on a string and hang it on my phone! It can also be a decorative item!"

Chapter 3874

"Okay." Marven laughed: "I should have known I would have put the string on for you guys first."

Behind him, Viola said with some dissatisfaction, "Good son-in-law, why don't you give one of these amulets to mom!"

Marven laughed: "Mom, this is to ensure the safety of entry and exit, you do not go out recently, with it, it is also a burden, I think it is better to get you two gold bricks the most real, but also as dumbbells fitness."

Viola, herself is not interested in what amulet, but found that Dave and Avella have, she does not have, there is some imbalance in her heart.

Coupled with the fear that they are treated differently by Marven, so only to complain with a sentence.

Once she heard Marven say that he was willing to give her two more gold bricks, the original imbalance in her heart instantly dissipated.

Moreover, she even felt that the amulets must be wholesale from the small commodity market, to say not more than a few dollars a dozen dollars, which can compare to the value of two gold bricks.

This is a big profit!

So, she immediately clapped her hands happily and said: "Oh, that's really good! Anyway, my legs are not yet well and I won't go out for a while, so it's a waste to give me the amulet of safety. Thank you, my good son-in-law!"

Avella, seeing her mother's wealth-obsessed look, shook her head helplessly and carefully put away the amulet given by Marven before she said softly to Marven, "Honey, then Dad and I will leave first."

"Okay." Marven nodded and said to Dave, "Dad, remember to take the amulet with you, don't lose it."

Dave also put the amulet in his pocket, nodded, and said, "Hey, don't worry, you can't lose it!"

Father and daughter drove away, Marven stood in the courtyard and made a phone call directly to Zhan Feier, also known as Stella.

Stella has been waiting for his call since last night, and didn't even sleep much all night.

This cell phone number, she had her assistant Martina buy a new phone to install this card, because it is a new number, not many people know, so she heard the phone ring, she immediately got excited.

Marven opened his mouth and asked, "Hello, is this Miss Zhan Feier?"

Hearing Marven's voice, Stella immediately concluded that this voice was the same voice she had heard when she first met Marven at the hotel.

She immediately knew Marven's identity, but still pretended to be calm and asked, "May I ask who you are?"

Marven then said, "Hello, my name is Marven Ye, Dave Xiao is my father-in-law."

Stella said with a sudden realization, "You are the master who reads feng shui, as Vice President Xiao said, right?"

Marven smiled slightly: "I can't say master, I just know a little bit, I don't know what specific needs Miss Zhan has for feng shui?"

Stella then said, "This is the case, I just bought a second-hand villa in Wrestvel, I have not started redecorating yet, I want to ask Mr. Ye to help me see how the feng shui of this villa is."

Marven laughed: "If it is to see the feng shui of the house foundation, most people look at the feng shui first before buying a house,"

"Miss Zhan's house has already been bought, if there are any problems with the feng shui of the house foundation, it may be more troublesome to change it."

Stella laughed: "It does not matter, if the feng shui of this house does not work, then temporarily put it aside, when the time to bother Mr. Ye to help choose another set of feng shui it would be better."

Marven saw that the other party was indeed rich and generous, so he did not say more, so he asked her: "Miss Zhan what is the location of your villa? If you see what time is convenient, I will go over and show you."

Stella said: "The villa is in the Water Cloud Villas, I don't know if Mr. Ye has any impression, as for the time, I can go anytime, now is also not a problem."

Marven thought, he had nothing to do in the morning, so he might as well just get this done, so he said, "I know the Water Cloud Villa, why don't I drive there now?"

“Good!” Stella hurriedly said: “Then I am also heading there, we will meet later at the entrance!”

“No problem, see you later.” The company’s main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to the market.

The water cloud Villa is on the edge of the suburban Wrestvel Reservoir, a few dozen kilometers away from the city, slightly remote, Marven had been to the water cloud Villa twice before.

Because Qin Gang’s villa is in this neighborhood, so he was familiar with the way, directly just drive out of town, and then drive in the direction of the water cloud Villa.

Chapter 3875

When Marven arrived at the Water Cloud Villa, Stella had not yet arrived.

Marven gave her a call and heard her say that there was still ten minutes to drive, so he simply waited at the entrance of the community.

Originally, he wanted to say hello to Qin Gang at his home, but thinking that there was not that much time, he decided not to bother.

Ten minutes later, a low-profile Cadillac sedan drove up to Marven’s side.

The car just stopped, the rear door opened, a young woman, only in her early twenties, stepped out of the car.

Seeing Stella’s first glance, Marven felt a little stunning, because this woman not only looks delicate, tall, and s3xy, the whole person gives a person’s temperament, there is a valiant posture.

Stella looked at Marven, who was standing at the front of the car, and knew at a glance that this was the same Master Ye that she had seen at the hotel a few days ago

And at this moment, her heart was completely relieved as she walked up to Marven and said with a smile, “You must be Mr. Ye, right?”

Marven smiled faintly and said blandly, “Miss Zhan, right? I’m Marven Ye.”

Stella took the initiative to extend her hand to Marven and graciously said, “Hello Mr. Ye, I’m Zhan Feier.”

Marven nodded and shook her hand gently before getting straight to the point and said, “Miss Zhan, let’s take a look at your villa now.”

“Okay!” Stella said with a smile, “Mr. Ye please.”

At this time, a man and a woman came down from the front row of the Cadillac, the man was Stella’s bodyguard, and the woman was her assistant Martina.

Martina spoke up at this time, “Miss, let’s accompany you inside.”

Stella waved her hand and said, “No, you two just wait for me in the car, I’ll go in with Mr. Ye.”

The bodyguard said, “Miss, the master instructed me to protect your safety outside at all times, I will go in with you, it will not affect you and Mr. Ye.”

Marven took a look at the bodyguard, and with just one glance, he noticed that the bodyguard was actually a martial artist, and his strength was not small, he had already reached the strength of a six-star martial artist.

This makes Marven can’t help but be a little surprised, thinking: “This Zhan Feier going out, there is a six-star martial artist bodyguard with her,”

“This is already the strength of the Front’s four battle commander level, according to the price of the Front before, any of the four battle commanders out of the mountain, the cost of a day must be tens of millions of dollars,”

“Zhan Feier can hire a six-star martial artist as a bodyguard, it seems, her family Strength must be extraordinary!”

The reason why she didn’t want her bodyguard to follow was that she didn’t think there would be any danger here.

And she thought that she was using another identity to get in touch with Marven, after all, so she had to be very careful in this situation so as not to reveal her foot, so she should try not to bring others along.

So, she said in a tone of voice that left no doubt: “This city has very good security, and this daytime, and in this high-end community, there will certainly be no danger, you two do not need to say much, just wait for me in the car.”

After saying that, she didn’t wait for the two to respond and said directly to Marven: “Mr. Ye, let’s go!”

“Okay.” Marven nodded, and then entered the gate of Villa with Stella.

And Stella’s bodyguards and assistants really didn’t follow them anymore.

Chapter 3876

After entering the Villa, Stella took Marven directly to the lake.

The biggest selling point of the Water Cloud Villa is that it is located halfway up the mountain and on the shore of the City Reservoir.

This place is surrounded by mountains and water, the environment and scenery are excellent, living here is definitely a paradise experience.

However, the only regret is that it is far from the city, really if the peak period in and out of the city, the traffic is more inconvenient.

Marven came over this morning, is considered the reverse peak, but also better, if the evening after work, along the way more trouble waiting.

In the water cloud Villa, the most expensive building is immediately adjacent to the reservoir side of the villa, a total of only five, two of which were bought by Qin Gang, and cost a lot of money to build and transform into a set.

Seeing that the two were getting closer to the reservoir, Marven said with a smile, "Miss Zhan bought the waterfront mansion, right?"

"Right." Stella nodded and smiled, saying, "It is said that the best houses here are these ones facing the water, and I don't know if there are any precautions in feng shui."

In fact, after Martina bought a house here, she didn't know the exact location at all, Martina reported to her, and she didn't care very much.

However, after finally making an appointment with Marven yesterday, she had Martina bring her over last night to familiarize herself with the interior of the Water Cloud Villa and the location as well.

Marven at this moment blandly smiled: "In feng shui, the mountain is a symbol of power, while water is a symbol of wealth, depending on the mountain and water, in feng shui pay attention to water in the front,"

"The mountain in the back, in this way, it means that there is wealth in the front, the back of the mountain, naturally is the best choice."

"Moreover, the pattern of the Water Cloud Villa is very good, the waterfront mansion in front of the water, just in front of the low and high trend, and sitting north facing south, full of light, is definitely a feng shui treasure."

Speaking of this, Marven could not help but laugh: "If I had known that Miss Zhan bought the waterfront mansion here, then I would not have had to come here at all, the feng shui would not have had any problems."

Stella said with a smile: "How can it be. Mr. Ye, you are a feng shui master, you must have a lot of unique insights into feng shui,"

"I hope you can help me take a closer look to see my house in the internal and external structure and decoration, there is no room for further improvement,"

"I am not looking for prosperity, mainly because I hope that the elderly at home can be healthy and free from disasters."

Marven nodded and said, "For this we will indeed have to go in and take a look at it specifically."

As she spoke, Stella led Marven to the door of a familiar mansion, the very same mansion of Qin Gang's family.

Before Marven could ask her, she took out a magnetic card and swiped it at the access control outside the gate, and the gate automatically opened inward from both sides.

Marven couldn't help but stare and asked her, "Miss Zhan, did you buy this mansion?"

"Yes." Stella nodded and asked curiously, "Mr. Ye is familiar with this mansion?"

Marven was surprised in his heart, wondering why Qin Gang had actually sold this mansion, and he hadn't heard any rumors about this matter.

However, he thought about it, Qin Gang is his friend, not his staff, it is impossible to sell a villa and say hello to himself.

So, he said to Stella without showing his voice: "I've heard of this mansion before, it is said to be two sets of single-family villas converted,"

"and it can be seen outside that the area and floor space of this villa is much larger than other villas."

"Right." Stella laughed: "Heard from the original owner, it is indeed two sets of mansions converted, I heard that it was bought early before, when there was not much control over the villa alteration and addition, but now it is not."

Chapter 3877

Marven nodded and smiled, said: "Now the management of the illegal construction and alteration of the management is very strict, and the development of technology is getting faster and faster,"

"The survey means also special, now the villa area, often engage in aerial photography mapping, there are illegal construction and alteration, aerial photography can be compared at once,"

"Once found, will be directly required to rectify, but these very early change However have long ago changed, long ago became an established fact, so it will no longer require rectification."

Speaking of this, Marven lamented, "Miss Zhan this villa, has been considered an orphan, now very few, and it will be difficult to have in the future."

Stella nodded and said, "The house as a whole is not bad, but the two things that give me the most headache are too far and too old, it is said that this villa is more than 20 years old,"

"Although the original owner renovated it a few years ago, but still some age, if it is to be completely transformed, the amount of work is still very large."

Saying that, she thought of something and asked curiously, "Mr. Ye, I heard Vice President Xiao say that your wife is the one who does the renovation? I wonder if she is interested in taking over the renovation of this villa of mine?"

Stella mentioned his wife Avella, Marven did not feel there was anything wrong.

After all, Dave had told people all about the situation last night.

However, seeing that Stella has such a large mansion to renovate, Marven immediately said to her: "My wife recently has more projects on hand, I guess it is already at full capacity,"

"And if you redecorate all here, the workload is too large, I guess she can not take it even if she wants to, when the time comes, Miss Zhan can look at other renovation companies."

Stella gently nodded, smiled: "If I have the opportunity, I will go to your her company to see it, if she can take it then it is best, can not take it does not matter."

Said, Stella afraid of Marven's heart, added: "Xiao vice president yesterday have greeted with me, in this matter if I directly find someone else, I am afraid he would mind."

In one sentence, Stella put the reason on Dave's body, and it was very natural and reasonable.

After all, it was Dave who took the initiative to recommend Avella's decoration company to Stella yesterday.

So it was only reasonable for Stella to meet with Avella on Dave's behalf and give priority to this project to Avella for cooperation.

Hearing this, Marven's heart is more or less worried.

He is worried about the energy of his wife.

He knew that Avella could not be idle, so he suggested that she start a business, but he did not expect that after starting the business, she became a workaholic, working almost all year round.

It was because he saw that she was too busy working that he did not want her to continue to take on new projects.

But as Stella said, she also had to give Dave a face, so he still had to go and talk to Avella.

Marven also knew in his heart that if Avella really wanted to take on this project, he could not oppose it.

So, he said helplessly, "Miss Zhan, let's just take a look at the villa first."

Stella nodded and gladly said, "Okay Mr. Ye, please come in."

Once inside the villa, Marven found that most of the Qin family's furniture was still here, only that the more personal items had all completely disappeared.

While leading Marven inside, Stella introduced to Marven, "This furniture and appliances are basically left behind by the previous original owner,"

"But I plan to send them directly to the recycling company to have them all emptied, and then the original decoration will all be torn down and renovated."

Chapter 3878

In fact, Stella did not care about this villa.

The reason why she bought this villa was that she guessed that Marven might be a feng shui master, so she bought the villa first, leaving a convenient front to approach him.

So she originally did not intend to decorate and did not even intend to live in.

However, after knowing that Marven's wife Avella opened a decoration company, she moved to decorate, but not to live, take the opportunity to get acquainted with Avella.

After listening, Marven said seriously: "Since Miss Zhan intends to completely redecorate, that actually now the internal feng shui is not so important,"

"The overall feng shui of the house is no problem, as for the internal future feng shui problems, you need to set your side after the design plan, and then according to the specific arrangements on the design plan, you need to make specific adjustments."

Speaking of this, Marven added: "However, since Miss Zhan is hoping that the elderly living here can be healthy, get rid of diseases and disasters, then I can give you some directions and suggestions."

Stella was busy saying, "Mr. Ye, please speak."

Marven said seriously: "The best room for the elderly is chosen in a set of mansions of the Yannian position, and as far as possible, arranged on the first floor,"

"So that more grounded qi; room as far as possible to choose the east, and there should be windows, as the so-called purple qi east, beneficial to health qi;"

"In addition, the room must not be too large, because in feng shui, smaller rooms gather qi, otherwise the room too large, it will lose the energy of the occupants, and the room decoration, must be less natural stone."

Stella asked, "Mr. Ye, I can probably understand everything else, but why do you want to use less stone?"

Marven explained, "From feng shui, stone material word, and wealth is harmonious, the feng shui is naturally good, but the stone is cold Yin, not suitable for the bedroom, it will affect the body."

Saying that he added: "The old ancestors had after all limited scientific backing, they can through feng shui, deduced that the stone has an impact on the body, but can not make a scientific explanation."

"But I saw a report some time ago, saying that all natural stone is radioactive, and the radioactivity of the stone will produce a radioactive substance called radon gas,"

"Which is colorless and tasteless, confirmed by the World Health Organization, has a strong carcinogenic effect on the human body, and is one of the main culprits causing lung cancer,"

“Second only to cigarettes, more stone in the room, night and day with people here, it is like the release of chronic poison over the years,”

“The impact on the human body is nonstop, but most people do not know anything about it, even if they really have lung cancer, but also do not think that lung cancer is likely to be because of the natural stone at home.”

Speaking here, Marven could not help but sigh: “So from here we can see that our old ancestors were indeed very wise, although they did not have scientific theories, and advanced technology,”

“But they were able to comprehend a set of ways to understand the universe through their remarkable ability, they were able to deduce the impact of natural stone on the body hundreds of thousands of years ago,”

“After hundreds of tof years later, scientists detected the culprit, and also confirmed that our old ancestors had extremely advanced judgment in this matter.”

Stella also couldn't help but exclaim: “I usually focus on economics and management, I don't know much about science and technology, and this is the first time I heard about radon gas,”

“But from what Mr. Ye said, the old ancestors did have extraordinary wisdom, which further proves that feng shui divination is not nonsense.”

Marven said with a smile, “Miss Zhan is so young, it is reasonable to say that she should not care about feng shui.”

Stella shook her head very seriously and said, “I've actually always been very reverent of feng shui divination as well as I Ching Bagua, although I don't know much about it,”

“But I really believe it, this may also be related to my childhood being influenced by my grandfather.”

Marven nodded and laughed: “These years, the young people who believe in feng shui in China have become less and less.”

Speaking of this, Marven added: “Miss Zhan, at present, can look at basically is so much, this set of mansion external feng shui excellent, internal a little attention, will certainly be able to smoothen it out.”

Stella nodded slightly and asked: “Mr. Ye, how do you charge for feng shui reading? Do I give you a check or is a direct transfer appropriate?”

Marven waved his hand and said indifferently, “It's not very troublesome, Miss Zhan doesn't need to be so polite, besides, my father-in-law's painting and calligraphy association also got a lot of help from you, so consider it a courtesy!”

Chapter 3879

Stella knows better than anyone that Marven could not care about the millions of commission for feng shui reading.

After all, just one Pill could be worth tens of billions of RMB, or even tens of billions of dollars, not to mention the possibility that he is the owner behind JX Pharmaceuticals.

If that's the case, JX Pharmaceutical's annual net profit may be at the level of billions of dollars, for such a person, how could he care about a few million.

So, Stella also quickly guessed why he wanted to establish an image of a feng shui master in front of his family, since it was not for money, then there must be other reasons.

Most likely, it was to buy time and space for another layer of his identity.

So, she then said to him: "Mr. Ye, I don't know how to repay such a big favor owed to you, but the future is long, I hope we can have more courtesy in the future!"

"If there is anything you need in the future, please don't be polite to me, Mr. Ye!"

Marven nodded slightly and smiled, "Miss Zhan, since there is nothing more to do here, let's go back."

Stella busily said, "Okay Mr. Ye."

Subsequently, Marven walked out of the Water Cloud Villa with Stella.

When they reached the entrance of the Villa, Stella asked, "Mr. Ye, do you have time at noon? Why don't I treat you to a casual meal?"

Marven smiled and politely declined, "No need, Miss Zhan, I have something to do later, let's eat together some other day."

Hearing this, Stella did not continue to fight and said with a smile, "Mr. Ye, I am definitely going to stay in Wrestvel for a while anyway,"

"If I have the chance some other time, I will invite you and your wife to have dinner together."

Marven smiled politely, nodded, and said, "In that case, then I will leave first."

Stella nodded and said, "Take care, Mr. Ye."

After seeing Marven get into the BMW and drive away, Stella then got into her Cadillac.

As soon as she got inside, she asked her driver and bodyguard, "Mr. Luo, did you see how strong that Marven was just now?"

The person whom Stella called Mr. Luo was Stella's personal bodyguard, Tony Luo.

Tony is 45 years old this year, but because his strength is very strong and his physical quality is far beyond normal people, he looked like a middle-aged man around 30 years old.

Tony has been with Stella for more than three years, although he is very strong, but to Stella, in addition to respect, there is admiration.

In Tony's eyes, Stella is the most outstanding one in this generation of the Fei family, and following her side is an excellent choice for him.

At this moment, while starting the car, Tony said respectfully, "Back to Miss, I can't tell the strength of that man, he is either not a martial artist or his strength is above me."

Stella was surprised and said, "The possibility of being above you is very small, right?"

"After all, he's only in his twenties, I haven't heard of anyone who can become a six-star martial artist at the age of twenty or so."

Tony said seriously, "After the cultivation level is high to a certain level, the age cannot be seen from the outside,"

"My master is seventy-eight years old this year, but he looks like he is only forty years old."

Stella shook her head and said, "I've read all of Marven's information, he is really only in his twenties."

After a little thought, Tony said, "Then it is more likely that he is not a martial artist, otherwise, once he enters the door of a martial artist,"

"I will be able to see through his cultivation level."

Stella nodded gently and said, "Although this person is not very old, but he gives me a very mysterious feeling, it is very difficult to see through."

Martina, who was sitting on the passenger side, said, "Miss, I just found a very interesting thing."

Stella asked curiously, "What is it?"

Chapter 3880

Martina said, "Marven drove that car, the car length, wheelbase, tire width, headlights configuration, are the top BMW,"

"I just compared, this car is last year's top model BMW 760, but the sticker behind the car, that is BMW 520."

Stella faintly froze, then laughed: "It seems that he really is not the usual low profile, driving a BMW to cover up."

She remembered something and said to Martina: "Martina, use your phone to connect to the car recorder and find out if you have just captured Marven's appearance."

Martina smiled and handed the phone to Stella, saying, “Miss, just now when you and Marven went in, I have already directed the pictures from the car recorder, and I have selected some clearer shots, take a look.”

Stella said appreciatively, “You can do it, Martina, you are getting better and better.”

Martina smiled: “Miss, following you, the speed of progress is very fast.”

Stella smiled faintly and took the phone to look through it carefully.

Since it was Marven who arrived first just now, and was waiting outside the car, the Cadillac captured very clear image data as it approached him, and the photos intercepted by Martina were also very clear.

Stella said with satisfaction, “I have to go see FDA’s Smith and show him these photos to see if that Director was this man when he was negotiating with JX Pharmaceutical at that time.”

Saying that, she said to Martina, “Martina, contact Smith for me, ask him to come out to meet, and say I have something I want to ask him face to face.”

“Okay!”

.....

Meanwhile.

Marven was driving back on the way, and kept feeling what thing was not quite right.

In his mind, that driver of Stella’s suddenly came to his mind and it dawned on him.

What was not right was that this young woman was able to carry a six-star martial artist by her side.

This was almost the strongest bodyguard he had seen so far.

To be able to have a six-star martial artist to stay around as a bodyguard, from this perspective alone, the strength of the family behind this Zhan Feier was probably far above the Ye family.

If the Ye family can have a six-star martial artist pressure, when the Cataclysmic Front’s Harmen, would not dare to bring the coffin directly to the Ye family residence.

And there is a very important key point, that is, Zhan Feier is still very young, by no means the head of the family.

If even she can afford a six-star martial artist as a bodyguard, then the family mastered experts, it is not just a six-star martial artist so simple.

It is even possible to have more than one six-star martial artist, or even a higher-level martial artist.

According to the market price of the six-star martial artist of the Cataclysmic Front, at least 200 million dollars a year to start.

Moreover, the six-star martial artists of the Front are used to lead soldiers in wars as great generals, so it is impossible to accept employment alone, so it is even more unlikely to serve as bodyguards for people.

If a family keeps three or five six-star martial artists, the cost of that year might be more than a billion dollars.

This amount is an absolutely staggering astronomical figure, how many big families in the country are worth hundreds of billions of dollars, the net profit at the end of the year is not a billion dollars.

Take the Song Group, although it has a market value of a hundred billion, but the net profit of a year to the end, only three to five billion yuan, and this is still the case when the market is good.

If Warnia is allowed to hire a six-star martial artist, the cost of this one person may catch up with half of the net profit of the entire Song Group.

Thinking of this, he immediately called Joseph.

As soon as the phone was connected, Marven directly instructed, "Joseph, check if there is a Chinese family with the surname Zhan in France, and by the way, check how strong this family is!"
