

The Amazing Son In-Law Chapter 4001-4010

Chapter 4001

When Stella heard this, she couldn't help but laugh dumbly.

She really didn't expect that Marven's means of making money would be unstoppable.

A simple treadmill, even the top brands are only a few thousand dollars, the highest is only 10,000 dollars.

But Marven just provide a few days to use, will charge almost 100,000 dollars.

Can really be said to be expensive out of the sky.

This is a standard Shangri-La slaughterhouse for the rich, and there are so many different names that you can't imagine."

Stella quickly spoke comfortingly:

"Grandpa this money is actually nothing at all, you do not have to worry too much."

"Yes." Douglas said resentfully, "I also understand the truth that if you come, you will be safe,"

"But I just didn't expect them to be so bottomless, it's really a bit subversive."

After saying that, Douglas asked, "Stella, based on my actual experience here,"

"I feel that the boss behind the scenes is money-minded,"

"Profit-oriented treacherous businessman, no mercy when engaging in a humane offensive with such people."

Stella thought for a moment and said, "Grandpa, according to my observation,"

"This Master Ye behind the scenes does not look like a profit-oriented person,"

"Otherwise it would not have been possible to hide his identity,"

"I guess he just wants to take advantage of this opportunity to knock these rich people."

She said, "You also said that Grandpa Lai once got a Rejuvenation Pill from him because of chance,"

"And he never asked Grandpa Lai for a penny, according to the current trend,"

"The price of the Rejuvenation Pill at the auction is sure to exceed ten billion dollars,"

"And a person who can give away ten billion dollars casually,"

“How to look like a profit-oriented person.....”

Then, Stella continued: “He is now trying to get money from you, the most is one person 10 million yuan up and down,”

“Two hundred people counted only two billion yuan, converted into more than three hundred million dollars,”

“Even the actual value of the Rejuvenation Pill is less than one-thirtieth,”

“So I guess he is deliberately trying to make things difficult for you, to kill your prestige.”

Douglas hesitated and said with some approval,

“Your analysis is also reasonable, after all, the Rejuvenation Pill is worth a lot of money,”

“Don’t look at me, I have received a lot of favors from your grandpa Lai, even if it were me,”

“I wouldn’t be willing to give something worth ten billion dollars to your him.”

Stella smiled faintly and said with relief,

“So grandpa you should not have too many negative emotions,”

“You must try to be low key and humble at Shangri-La,”

“Never get into any arguments with their staff,”

“As for my side everything seems to be going relatively smoothly at the moment, and the results are worth looking forward to.”

“Good!” Douglas was in a much more relaxed mood and said with a smile,

“Stella, it seems that you have also improved a lot during this period of time,”

“Your previous character was not as low-key and calm as it is now.”

Stella smiled and said seriously, “Grandpa, at the beginning when I came to China,”

“I still had a strong sense of superiority in my heart,”

“I always felt that I could plan everything, but when I came to Wrosvell,”

“I realized what it means that there are people outside of our sphere,”

“And there is heaven outside of the horizon!”

“The real strongest people are often hidden in the city, and usually do not show half of their side,”

“So you have to keep a low profile and humility at all times.”

Speaking of this, she couldn't help but sigh, “It's just a pity that I still understand this truth a little late,”

“If I could have understood it a little earlier, Mr. Luo might not have disappeared”

Douglas thought of the missing Tony and couldn't help but sigh lightly and said,

“I have already given Mr. Luo's family $100 million in settlement money, if I can't find his whereabouts,”

“I will give his family another large sum of money so that they will have no worries in their lives.”

Stella said, “That's all we can do for now.”

After saying that, she looked at the time and spoke,

“Grandpa, you should take a good rest first,”

“I will continue to mediate outside for these two days as well, and when the auction is over, no matter what the result is,”

“I will find a way to arrange for you to meet with that Master Ye.”

“Good!” Douglas said, “Call me if there is something,”

“But I guess I won't be allowed to take my cell phone by the day of the auction,”

“If there is anything, just wait until the auction is over.”

“Okay.”

Chapter 4002

At the same time, Zak Chen made a detailed report to Marven, telling him,

“Young master, at present, all the registrants who participated in the auction,”

“Without missing a single one, all are at Shangri-La,”

“And the other twenty alternates ranked from 201 to 220 will arrive in Wrestvel tomorrow one after another.”

Marven nodded slightly and instructed,

“These alternates should not be charged for their accommodation-related expenses,”

“They will most likely have to accompany the runners,”

“And I’m afraid they won’t even be qualified to enter the venue by then.”

“Okay young master,” Zak Chen answered, and hurriedly asked again,

“Young master, are we going to let them make a trip for nothing this time?”

“Many of them are coming from overseas, so it’s quite hard to come all the way here for nothing.”

Marven thought for a moment and said,

“How about this, if they don’t have a chance to replace the others,”

“Arrange for them to go through the security check on the day of the auction,”

“But they can only observe, not raise their cards to participate in the auction,”

“So they also have a chance to see the effect of the Rejuvenation Pill,”

“After all, many of these people are running for this.”

Due to the flurry of these rich people, Marven’s anticipation for this auction also became more and more.

He didn’t know now, after such a series of hype by himself,”

“What kind of price the Rejuvenation Pill could fetch.

But there was one thing he knew very well.

As long as he let those rich people see with their own eyes the effect of others taking the Rejuvenation Pill on the spot at this auction.

Every one of them would explode with enthusiasm for the Rejuvenation Pill 10,000 times more powerful than it is now.

Because up to now, the vast majority of the top tycoons who attended the auction had only heard about the effects of the Pill.

They did not have the opportunity to witness the magic of it with their own eyes.

The reason why many people knew that their assets could only barely make it to the bottom of the two hundred people.

But they still wanted to come to the auction and it was to see with their own eyes how miraculous the Rejuvenation Pill really was.

Therefore, this auction will definitely shake the entire upper class.

And after this auction, the Rejuvenation Pill will be the most precious and sought-after thing in the entire upper-class society.

At that time, Marven will also be able to make the Rejuvenation Pill in his hand, to bring out the maximum value.

With it in his hand would be enough to bring the Ye family one step closer to the top of the world.

Zak Chen also felt that Marven's solution was very humane at this time, so he immediately said,

"Then I'll have someone arrange 20 chairs in the last row and set up a special viewing area,"

"And gather them all there to watch when the time comes."

"Good." Marven nodded gently and asked, "Has the old man arrived in Wrestvel?"

Zak Chen knew that the old master he was talking about must be his grandfather, so he hurriedly said,

"The Elder master has arrived, and I arranged for him to check into the executive building,"

"But on a separate floor from the other two VIPs."

Marven asked him, "Mr. Lai and the last empress of Northern Europe have also arrived?"

Zak Chen nodded and said, "Yes young master, both have arrived."

Marven then said, "Call Mr. Lai's room for me and ask if it's convenient for him to meet now,"

"If it's convenient, I'll come over and pay my respects."

Chapter 4003

After checking in at the administration building, Qinghua had been waiting for Marven to contact him.

This time when he came to Wrestvel, he knew that he did not have the financial strength to compete with these top tycoons.

So the only purpose of this visit was to meet Marven.

Therefore, when Zak Chen contacted him, he said without thinking,

"Please tell Young Master Ye that I am waiting for him at any time."

Hearing this, Marven did not delay and directly let Zak Chen take him to the administration building to Qinghua's room.

As soon as they met, Marven said respectfully, "Mr. Lai, we meet again."

Qinghua hurriedly bowed his hands while bowing, and said respectfully,

"Young Master Ye, accept my salute!"

Marven reached out to support him and said under his breath,

"Mr. Lai is too polite, how can I accept your big salute!"

Qinghua said with a straight face,

"Young Master Ye, your fate is above mine, and you have benefited me,"

"It is only right for me to bow to you."

After saying that he continued, "Young Master Ye, please come in and talk!"

Marven nodded and turned to Zak Chen and said,

"Mr. Chen, I'll have a few words with Mr. Lai, you can go back."

Zak Chen said respectfully, "Okay young master."

After saying that, he also said to Qinghua, "Mr. Lai, junior will leave first."

Qinghua arched his hand at him, "Take care, Mr. Chen."

After Zak Chen left, Marven followed Qinghua and walked into the room he had checked into.

It was an executive luxury suite with an area of more than two hundred square meters.

And the living room alone took up nearly one hundred square feet.

At this time, on the coffee table in the living room, there was already a set of a purple sand tea-set.

In addition, there was also an incense burner made of bronze.

Qinghua invited Marven to sit down on the sofa, while he himself boiled water to prepare tea.

While taking out a palm-sized piece of wood, and then used a delicate silver knife to gently scrape off some powder on that piece of wood.

Subsequently, he took out a set of exquisite copper tools,

The first tool will be incensed stove ash flattened and compacted.

And then poured the powder scraped off the wood on top of the incense ash, with tools pressed into a lotus shape.

Marven recognized the set he used, which is the famous seal incense.

Most people who like to burn incense directly buy processed incense or ready-made ones.

But there are still some sophisticated people who like to press seal incense by themselves.

Most of the seal incense is made from the trimmings of incense wood or old sandalwood,

Which is considered waste and not too costly.

However, what Qinghua used was a large piece of incense wood, which was quite surprising to Marven.

Because the price of large pieces of incense wood, in the market is still very high,

If the price by gram weight, much more expensive than gold.

If such a piece of incense wood, carved into Buddhist images such as Buddha, Bodhisattva, or Doumu,

At least can be sold for hundreds of thousands to start.

At this moment, while using a match to ignite the seal incense pressed into the shape of a lotus flower,

Qinghua said to Marven with a smile,

“Young Master Ye, you should not be repelled by the smell of incense, right?”

Marven smiled slightly and looked at the smoke that rose into the air,

And also smelled the unique aroma when the incense was ignited and felt extraordinarily relaxed.

“I like seal incense, and the price of incense in the US has been stable for decades,”

“Until your mother’s seal incense became popular in high society.”

“The price of incense in the United States has increased more than five times within a year.”

Chapter 4004

Marven asked curiously, “Has Mr. Lai ever met my mother?”

“I have.” Mr. Lai nodded slightly and said seriously,

“Young Master Ye, in fact, I have been friends with your maternal great-grandfather for many years,”

“And when we met, your grandfather was still in infancy,”

“I was invited by your maternal great-grandfather to drink your mother’s full moon wine.”

Marven’s maternal great-grandfather, his grandfather’s father, was the founder of the An family.

However, Marven had not met this maternal great-grandfather.

And when he died, Marven was not even born yet.

Hearing Mr. Lai tell this hidden story, Marven was surprised and asked,

“Mr. Lai, you and my maternal great-grandfather were friends?”

“Right.” Qinghua smiled lightly and explained, “Your maternal great-grandfather was similar to me in age,”

“And I met him in 1938 when we went to America on the same ship.

“So that’s how it is!” Marven said, stood up, and bowed to Qinghua.

Qinghua hurriedly got up and said somewhat flattered,

“Young Master Ye, you are the order of the Dragon Grid,”

“How can you bow to me it should be me bowing to you!”

Marven seriously said, “You and my maternal great-grandfather were close friends,”

“So naturally you are also my elder, and it is only right for me, as a junior, to salute you!”

Qinghua said very seriously, “Young Master Ye,”

“I believe in the heavenly destiny, in terms of destiny, you are the king and I am the subject,”

“Even if I am over a hundred years old, I am still a subject when I see you.”

Marven saw his firm attitude, so he stopped arguing with him and said,

“Mr. Lai, then let’s save this set of manners and just consider it as a forgotten friendship, what do you think?”

Qinghua was slightly stunned, then he nodded with a smile and said,

“Fine, fine, since Young Master Ye has said so, I will obey.”

Afterward, the two of them resumed their seats.

When Marven remembered something, he asked Qinghua:

“Mr. Lai, you helped me promote the Rejuvenation Pill in North America,”

“I wonder if my grandfather has ever inquired with you?”

“Your grandfather” said Qinghua, couldn’t help but laugh:

“He doesn’t believe in fate, when he was young he used to hang ‘my fate is up to me, not up to heaven’ on his room wall.”

“I believe that even if he was interested in the Rejuvenation Pill,”

“He wouldn’t have come to me to ask about it.”

After saying that, he curiously asked Marven,

“Young Master Ye, you must have all the registration lists in your hand,”

“I wonder if there could be any An family members who have signed up to participate?”

“No.” Marven shook his head and said,

“There is no one surnamed An in all the registration information.”

Qinghua nodded his head and smiled, and spoke,

“Your grandfather has a very arrogant personality, and most likely won’t come to this kind of event,”

“Unless he is allowed to know the efficacy of the Rejuvenation Pill first, otherwise he won’t come personally.”

After saying that, he looked at Marven and exclaimed,

“But then again, Young Master Ye, the rule that the successful bidder must take the Rejuvenation Pill on the spot is really amazing,”

“Not only does it allow all the participants of the auction to witness the miraculous efficacy of the Rejuvenation Pill,”

“But it also makes all the big shots who want to get the Rejuvenation Pill have to show up in person!”

“I believe that when the next Rejuvenation Pill auction is held,”

“Many hidden giants will come out of their own accord!”

Having said that, Qinghua looked at Marven and said seriously,

“Maybe next year’s auction, your grandfather will appear in the registration list!”

Chapter 4005

In fact, deep inside, Marven had been looking forward to meeting his grandfather at the auction of the Rejuvenation Pill.

However, he did not know why he had such a thought.

It was because he hadn't actually thought about identifying with his grandfather's family.

And talking about Marven's grandfather, Qinghua seemed to have suddenly come to life and said with a smile,

"I'm not going to hide from you, Young Master Ye,"

"I'm really looking forward to your grandfather coming to the Rejuvenation Pill auction."

Marven asked curiously, "What makes Elder Mr. Lai say that?"

Qinghua said with a smile, "Your grandfather has been in the United States for too long and has westernized too much,"

"Believing only in the so-called science in everything and treating all traditions as dregs."

Marven nodded and said, "That's understandable, I've heard my mother talk about it,"

"Grandfather was definitely considered a top academic back then too, a Stanford graduate with high aptitude."

Qinghua nodded and laughed:

"That's right, he grew up with a purely Western education and a rebellious personality,"

"He would analyze everything with a dialectical perspective, deny everything beforehand, and then slowly seek proof,"

"So his life, it was like he was fighting against the whole world,"

"Although he was not a fan of traditional culture,"

"But one has to admit that he was indeed a very remarkable businessman."

Speaking here, Qinghua said playfully: "But well"

"The older a person is, the less hostility and indignation in his bones,"

"Once he shakes hands with the world, his previous vision of the world will change,"

"Just as many physicists spend their lives trying to prove that in the world there is no God,"

“No Creator, there are only the unchanging laws of physics.”

“However, when they are old and see through everything,”

“They instead firmly believe that behind everything in the world, there must be a creator,”

“Only that he may not appear in the form of a man or a god,”

“This is because they see the various profound physical laws as well as the laws of the universe too thoroughly,”

“And the more thoroughly they see, the more they feel that the laws between the universe and everything are so clever that it can’t be just a coincidence.”

He looked at Marven and said seriously, “If I remember correctly,”

“Your grandfather is also over eighty years old this year,”

“I believe he has also begun to reacquaint himself with the world,”

“Maybe he will also be like the other two hundred people who are fascinated by the Rejuvenation pill.”

Marven smiled faintly and said,

“If he asks you about the Rejuvenation Pill one day, please don’t tell him about my situation.”

Qinghua was busy saying, “That’s natural!”

After saying that, he couldn’t help but ask,

“Young Master Ye, have you ever thought about meeting with your grandfather?”

Marven shook his head, “For the time being, I don’t have that intention.”

Saying that, Marven added: “Actually, I have had very little interactions with Grandpa’s family,”

“And as far as I remember, Grandpa and my mother’s relationship has always been somewhat strained,”

“So Grandpa image in my memory is rarely good, plus I haven’t seen them for so many years,”

“So I don’t have much emotional foundation with them.”

Qinghua expressed understanding nodded and sighed:

“With your grandfather’s character, your mother was bent on marrying your father back then,”

“Which must have made him very angry, but he should be over eighty years old this year,”

“I think he should have a new sense of many things, perhaps his biggest wish now maybe to see you.”

Marven smiled to himself and said, “They probably thought I was dead a long time ago.”

Chapter 4006

“No way.” Qinghua seriously said,

“People of your grandfather’s status have extremely high requirements for the authenticity of the information,”

“Even compared to the police, it is more than ever, think about it,”

“If there is not enough evidence to prove that a person is really dead,”

“The police will only define him as missing, I believe your grandfather must be the same.”

Marven nodded expressionlessly and said, “Then let them continue to think that I am missing.”

Qinghua hesitated for a moment before he looked at Marven and said seriously,

“Young Master Ye, there is something I don’t know if I should say.”

Marven said, “Elder Mr. Lai, you don’t have to be so polite, there is no harm in saying anything.”

Qinghua said, “Although you have broken out of the trap of the dragon trapped in the shallows,”

“But to get back the original dragon frame belongs to you is not the end!”

“The Southern Dynasty’s “Chronicle of the Difference” has recorded that the water viper (huī) five hundred years into jiao,”

“Jiao a thousand years turns into a dragon, dragon another five hundred years transforms into the horned dragon,”

“A thousand years into Ying Long, which means that the dragon frame is not really the highest fate, above this, there are two-horned dragon and Ying Long.”

Marven’s mind instantly floated to the content of the “Nine Profound Heavenly Scriptures”.

Which did have a record of viper, Jiao, dragon, as well as the horned dragon, Ying Long.

The horned dragon, Ying Long, in fact, is the higher level of the dragon.

At this moment Qinghua continued, “If you want to stand on top of the world, the last few steps are especially important.”

“And the An family is the best choice to reach the top of those last steps!”

“So, you may want to meet with your grandfather earlier, and maybe it will open up a new situation.”

“The An family?” Marven couldn’t help but frown, and then laughed to himself,

“Better forget it, if I want to reach the top, I should be able to do so by myself.”

For Marven, he had never first, in the future, had to rely on his grandfather’s family’s help.

In his opinion, he accepted the Ye family, on the one hand, the Ye family really owes a lot to his family of three.

On the other hand, the Ye family is really the life’s work of his father,

Not to mention his surname Ye, which makes him the descendants of the Ye family.

He has to take the power of the Ye family into his own hands, in terms of love and reason, in terms of grace and grievance.

However, on Grandpa’s side, Marven does not have such thoughts.

After all, he felt that grandfather did not owe anything to his parents.

And people surnamed An, his own surname Ye, how to say they are outsiders,

And how can go to grandfather’s family as a step up.

What’s more, the An family is one of the world’s top three families and the internal composition must be very complex.

His own families, they may not be able to understand, and what to take advantage of the An family.

However, Qinghua said very seriously: “Young master Ye, is the 72 changes of the Monkey King,”

“But also must rely on the precious band to become the Great Sage of Heaven,”

“There are ten thousand blades in the world, but the golden hoop stick only that is one!”

Marven then said seriously, “Maybe I am not a Sage of Heaven in the first place,”

“So this golden hoop stick may not be of much use to me.”

Qinghua shook his head and said, “Young Master Ye, many things have actually been predestined long ago,”

“The sooner you know the direction, the sooner you can achieve your goal.”

Marven smiled faintly and said, “Elder Mr. Lai, although I also know some I Ching and Bagua,”

“But I do not believe that all this is destined, I want to achieve this goal, I can still achieve without the An family.”

Saying that Marven added:

“This is like the Monkey King, I believe he can still become the Great Sage of Heaven even without the golden hoop stick.”

Qinghua shook his head with a smile and said lightly,

“Young Master Ye, the existence of destiny is all-encompassing,”

“In other words, not only is Monkey King destined to become the Great Sage of Heaven,”

He is likewise destined to pick up the golden hoop stick, and so are you.”

Saying that Qinghua gave a profound smile:

“Young Master Ye, the original story of the Journey to the West has recorded,”

“The Dragon King told Monkey King, a few days before he went to the Dragon Palace,”

“The golden hoop stick began to ‘haze brightly, steaming greatly’,”

“Which means that it may not be Monkey King chose the Golden Hoop Stick,”

“It is likely that The golden hoop stick chose the Monkey King!”

Chapter 4007

Qinghua’s words made Marven ponder.

What he was thinking about was not whether he should borrow the energy of his grandfather’s family for himself in the future.

What he was thinking about was that the higher the world went, the narrower the road became.

And if he wanted the Ye family to stand at the top of the world, then someday in the future, he was bound to meet the An family on a narrow road.

He couldn’t help but think, if one day in the future, really meet with the An family, then the An family will be the enemy or friends.

After all, the An family is now one of the three top families in the world.

Marven wants to realize his father’s last wish back then, it is inevitable that the Ye family will stand higher than these three big families.

If the three great families do not want to see a rising star above them, that may also trigger a battle of life and death between the new king and the old king.

Seeing Marven's sudden silence, Qinghua guessed what was in Marven's mind, so he said seriously: "Young Master Ye, the top three families, Rothschild in the world has a full three hundred years of roots,"

"Its scale has long exceeded the majority of countries in the world, so powerful that no one can see its full picture,"

"And the Middle East Saudi royal family has behind it the entire country as a Support,"

"Regardless of the financial and material strength of the military, a general family can not be compared,"

"So the An family in the three families, its strength is weakest."

The An family is the most powerful Chinese family in the world, but it is the weakest one in the situation of the three countries,"

And over the years, the other two families have always had the intention to suppress the An family and squeeze it out of the three families list."

"You and the An family will have great benefits."

Marven smiled slightly without denying it and said, "Thank you, Mr. Lai, for your reminder, one day in the future,"

"I will definitely have to face the An family, let's wait until the moment we actually meet."

Knowing that Marven had his own thoughts, Qinghua gently nodded and said,

"If Young Master Ye wants to meet with the An family at any time, I can help you make a connection."

"Okay!" Marven thanked, "Then thank you, Mr. Lai!"

Qinghua waved his hand, then changed the subject and said to Marven: "By the way, Young Master Ye,"

"I have another unrequited request, I hope you can do me a favor."

Marven said without thinking, "Mr. Lai, please speak."

Qinghua hesitated for a moment and sighed, "I have a good friend named Douglas Fei,"

"And he is one of the two hundred participants in this auction."

Marven smiled faintly and nodded, "I know this person and have seen his information."

In fact, Marven not only knew Douglas, but also knew his granddaughter, Stella.

However, Marven did not mention in front of Qinghua that he knew of Stella's existence.

Qinghua sighed lightly at this time and said seriously: "On the way here,"

"I gave old Fei to calculate a trigram, the trigram shows that he came to Wrestrvel this time, the future is somewhat dangerous"

Speaking of this, Qinghua said with some self-reproach, "He was influenced by me before he decided to come to Wrestrvel to participate in the auction,"

"If he encountered any danger because of this, I cannot stop from blaming myself,"

"So I would like to ask Young Master Ye to pay a little attention to him,"

"In case something happens suddenly, I would also like to ask Young Master Ye to give a helping hand."

Chapter 4008

Marven could not help but frown and asked, "Mr. Lai, I wonder if you have any more detailed clues?"

"For example, which aspect of the menace you just said, exactly? Is it that you need to keep an eye out for accidents,"

"Or do you need me to keep an eye out for assassinations by miscreants?"

Qinghua smiled to himself and said, "The trigrams can only tell the good and bad, can not see more detailed content,"

"His trigrams have good and bad, exactly what kind of the result is, I can not say."

Then, Qinghua said: "But he will not stay in Wrestrvel for too long, after participating in the auction,"

"Whether success or failure, I'm afraid to return to the United States immediately, so only a few days I need to face the young master Ye some trouble."

Marven nodded and said, "Since there is a bad omen in the trigram, I guess he might not be able to win the auction of the Rejuvenation Pill."

Qinghua heard this, slightly frozen, and then dumbly lost his smile and said, "You are right, this kind of miracle medicine, if anyone can get it,"

"The trigram is bound to be a great auspicious illumination, it seems that Douglas this time is not destined with Rejuvenation Pill"

Speaking here, Qinghua said with some sighs, "He is old, probably the oldest one in the two hundred people who participated in the Rejuvenation Pill auction this time,"

“If he can’t get the Rejuvenation Pill this time, I’m afraid there won’t be much time in the future.”

Hearing this, Marven had a little more admiration for Stella.

This woman did have a way, at least she herself had already made a decision under her favor offensive.

If her grandfather could not auction the Rejuvenation Pill, he would send him half a Blood Dispersing Heart Saving Pill.

So that he could live for two more years.

Combined with Qinghua’s words, it is basically certain that this Douglas even if this time in Wrestvel, the body suddenly had an accident.

With half of the blood rescue pills, I am afraid that there is only a shock.

At the same time Marven felt in his heart that if he didn’t return the favor and kept owing Stella, he would be very twisted.

This is the brilliant thing about Stella.

At this time, he suddenly felt that, since this is the case, then he should not prevent himself from playing a hand with Stella, also considered a tooth for a tooth.

So, with a faint smile at the corner of his mouth, he said to Qinghua, “Don’t worry, Mr. Lai, I will pay more attention.”

Qinghua rushed at Marven and arched his hand, respectfully saying, “I thank Young Master Ye.”

.....

After chatting with Qinghua a few times and drinking a few cups of tea, Marven said goodbye and left.

After leaving Qinghua’s room, he directly took out his cell phone and called Stella.

Stella was taking a bath in the bathtub of the presidential suite when she suddenly received a call from Marven.

She was stunned, then she sat up and adjusted her breathing before she picked up the phone and said with a smile,

“Mr. Ye, why do you want to call me at this time?”

Marven smiled and asked her, “Is Miss Zhan busy?”

Stella smiled and said, “No, what are Mr. Ye’s instructions?”

Marven then said, "Here's the thing, I know Miss Zhan must have helped a lot behind the scenes about Avella going to the master class in the United States

And I owe you such a big favor, so I am indeed a bit ashamed."

Stella's face was overjoyed, but her tone was very calm and she said,

"Mr. Ye, you must not be so polite, we are all friends, this little thing is nothing to worry about."

Marven smiled and said, "Miss Zhan, it just so happens that there is a very private auction at Shangri-La the day after tomorrow,"

"I happen to have a VIP invitation in my hand, if you are interested, you can come and take a look at it then."

When Stella heard this, her whole body was stunned speechless.

Chapter 4009

Stella originally thought that Marven would never take the initiative to reveal his identity in front of her.

Much less take the initiative to mention any information related to the Rejuvenation Pill.

She even thought that if her grandfather has no luck from this auction.

She would definitely have to take the initiative to beg Marven with a thick skin, and then she would have to go out of her way to talk things out.

However, she never dreamed that Marven would take the initiative to invite her, to attend the auction of the Rejuvenation Pill!

Moreover, it was a VIP pass!

This moment, then hit her by surprise

At this moment, she felt that all her planning and rhythm had been instantly disrupted by Marven's sudden invitation.

She didn't even know what exactly Marven's purpose was in doing so.

Is it true that he simply wanted to invite her to this auction, or did he detect her motives long ago?

So he deliberately took advantage of the situation.

So, she didn't know how to react for a while.

Just when she was at a loss for words, Marven asked a follow-up question:

"Miss Zhan, are you not interested in this kind of auction?"

“In fact, you don’t have to worry too much, I’m not a trustee who helps auctions pull in customers,”

“I just think this auction might be more interesting, so I want to invite you,”

“As a guest who came from afar, to come over and enjoy it, and also kill some boring time.”

Saying that, Marven gave a laugh and said,

“After all, I am married, if I am inviting you to watch a movie,”

“It is more or less inappropriate, but it does not matter if Miss Zhan is not interested, do not have any psychological burden.”

Marven’s words eased Stella’s nervousness and she hurriedly said, “No, no, I’m still quite interested in this kind of occasion.”

Saying that, in order not to show that she knew something about this auction.

She even pretended to be curious and asked, “Mr. Ye, may I ask what this auction you are talking about is about?”

Marven knew that Stella was acting, so he casually laughed and said,

“Most of them are some antique paintings and calligraphy,”

“Other than that, there is a very magical effect medicine, I wonder if Miss Zhan is willing to appreciate the face?”

Stella’s heart is very contradictory because her grandfather has taken Karl to live in Shangri-La.

So, when it is about her joining the auction, she is not a psychological burden.

However, now that a VIP seat was suddenly available, she naturally wanted to go in and see what it was like.

However, she was worried that if she went, she would be bumped into by some acquaintances.

Other than that, Elder Lai recognizes her, so if she meets him in front of Marven, she wouldn’t know how to round up.

Thinking of this, she realized that she still had to take the big picture into account.

Must not expose her true identity in front of Marven before the auction started.

So she said to him: “Mr. Ye, I’m quite interested in the auction,”

“But I’m still more or less uncomfortable with the occasion of throwing my head in the air

Chapter 4010

Marven smiled, "This is something Miss Zhan need not worry about,"

"As a VIP, you can choose to sit in the VIP seats in the first row,"

"Or you can choose to sit in the VIP box on the second floor,"

"If you like to keep a low profile, then you can sit in the VIP box."

Stella relaxed a little, in that case, the only one she needed to worry about was Mr. Lai.

So, she curiously asked, "Mr. Ye, this auction you are talking about,"

"How many VIPs are there in total, will other VIPs also sit in the VIP box then?"

Marven knew what she was worried about and immediately said,

"Miss Zhan don't worry, there are only four VIPs in total this time,"

"And you are the fourth, except for you, all other VIPs will sit in the first row then, and you won't have any interactions with them"

"If you choose the VIP box."

Stella was relieved, in that case, she basically had nothing to worry about.

So she smiled and said, "That's great, I don't like to show my face,"

"But I'd like to see the world! This arrangement is really good!"

Saying that, she deliberately asked, "By the way, Mr. Ye, is this auction organized by you?"

"No." Marven said casually: "How can I afford to hold any auction,"

"I just know the organizer and promised to do them a small favor, so I got a VIP entrance ticket from them."

Saying that, he added: "Miss Zhan, the auction will officially start at eight o'clock the night after tomorrow,"

"You will arrive at the entrance of Shangri-La at seven o'clock the evening after tomorrow, and I will pick you up to enter."

"Okay!" Stella hastily agreed and smiled, "Then I'll see you the day after tomorrow, Mr. Ye!"

Marven said, "Okay, see you the day after tomorrow."

Saying that, he added: "Right Miss Zhan, this matter, please don't tell anyone, especially Avella."

When Stella heard this, she did not feel surprised.

Because she had long known that Marven was an extremely low-profile person.

Especially to his family, who had been hiding extremely deep, Avella did not even know him as much as she did.

So, she readily agreed and said, "Mr. Ye, don't worry, I won't tell anyone else."

"That's good." He said with a smile, "Miss Zhan, then let's see you the day after tomorrow, I won't bother you much, goodbye."

"Okay Mr. Ye, bye."

After hanging up the phone, Stella was in an extraordinarily exciting mood.

Holding the phone and shouting excitedly several times, the shouting even startled Martina who was a wall away.

Martina took the room card and swiped open the door, rushed into the bathroom.

Saw Stella standing naked in the bathtub excited hands dancing.

Immediately stunned and puzzled she asked: "Miss, what is wrong with you"

Stella said with a smile, "Martina, Marven just called me!"

"What's so exciting about a phone call" Martina asked awkwardly,

"Miss, I don't think you like that Marven, do you"

Stella was busy saying, "Don't talk nonsense! I'm not excited because he called me,"

"It's because he called to invite me to attend the auction of the Rejuvenation Pill! And that too as a VIP!"

"Ah?!" Martina asked in shock, "Marven Didn't he always hide his identity? Why is he so quick to invite you to the auction?"

Stella laughed: "He didn't reveal his identity either,"

"He just said he happened to have a VIP invitation in his hand,"

"He didn't say the auction was his organization, let alone that the Rejuvenation Pill is his."

Martina nodded gently and asked, "Miss, then why would Marven invite you to the auction?"

Stella thought about it and said, "He probably just wants to return a favor for Avella!"

"I helped Avella solve the quota for the master class,"

"And gave her a good opportunity to get in touch with the world's top interior designers and become a famous designer,"

"So he must want to return the favor."

Martina did not suspect, but said with some concern,

"Miss, do you think he wants to use this VIP invitation to pay back all the favors you have done during this period of time at once?"

"I don't think so." Stella shook her head and said,

"In Marven's tone, his invitation to the auction is similar in nature to inviting me to watch a movie,"

"So he definitely won't use this to pay off his favor debt."

Martina slightly relieved spoke: "In this case it is okay"

"Not only can you go and witness the auction, but you can also find yourself a good pedestal,"

"In case Master fails to get the Rejuvenation Pill,"

"You can directly tell him after the auction that you also want to buy one after seeing the miraculous effects of the Rejuvenation Pill,"

"And see if he might sell one to you privately!"
