

The Amazing Son In-Law Chapter 4571-4580

Chapter 4571

Gerard was instantly furious, he whipped up his cigar, smashed it at his feet,

And slapped the lady on the face with a flick of his hand.

Then, ignoring her shocked look, he pointed at her and scolded her:

“Bella, don’t take a fcuking step! Do you think I don’t know that”

“You always went to see that dead old woman behind my back for so many years?”

“It’s for the sake of the husband and wife relationship, just bear with you!”

“It’s okay if you don’t know how to be grateful,”

“But now you are righteously running to ask me to forgive Hogan,”

“What the hell do you want to do? Do you want to run with him again? ?!”

Bella Fang is Hogan’s, first love.

When she was young, she was once known as the goddess of Hong Kong,

Causing countless rich and elites to bow down under her pomegranate skirt.

When Hogan went to study in the United States, she separated from him.

Then, Gerard, with the aura of the top rich man and the generosity of spending a lot of money,

Turned her into his lover with his affluence.

At that time, Bella almost owned the whole world in terms of material things.

She could take a luxury private jet in the early morning to feed the pigeons in the square in London,

And take the same plane to the romantic Aegean Sea in the evening.

When she woke up, she could choose to go shopping in New York or the luxury mall in Tokyo.

If she was not in a hurry, she could take Gerard’s private cruise

And go from Hong Kong to the Maldives in the Indian Ocean or Tahiti in the South Pacific.

In short, at that time, what she wanted was at her fingertips.

But even so, after Hogan returned to Hong Kong,
Her old relationship with him was on the verge of breaking out.
At that time, she realized that even though she had all the material things,
There was still a vacuum in her heart that could never be filled, and that vacuum was Hogan.
So, when she and Hogan eloped to the United States,
The whole of Hong Kong couldn't understand why she left so decisively.
But after she arrived in the United States, she gradually realized...
That although the vacuum in her heart was filled, almost all the other things were missing too.
She could no longer find an impromptu destination on the world map,
After sleeping until she woke up naturally,
And she couldn't enjoy the world's most expensive and top goods and services like before.
At that moment, she realized what she had given up.
What she gave up was not Gerard, but all the extremes accumulated in all walks of life,
After the development of human civilization and society for thousands of years.
The private jet that she used to fly on had condensed for her,
The world's most cutting-edge civil aviation technology and the best interior decoration materials,
And the same was true of the cruise ship she used to take.
The clothes she wore were almost all the most expensive ready-to-wear in the commodity world,
And they are all carefully crafted by top designers;
And the jewelry she wore might have been also the rarest and scarcest part of the world.
Just even the mattress she once slept on was a work of art,
Made by a group of Swedish craftsmen, hand-picked from horsetails and goats.
Her basic necessities, food, and drink expenses were all the best in the world.
However, after she eloped with Hogan, she realized that even though they were both on a plane,

Sitting in a cramped economy class for more than ten hours turned out to be so painful.

As for cruise ships, it was a completely different world, all products, were out of reach for common people.

But now, her clothes were no longer luxury products tailored for her by top French,

British and Italian designers, but by the women workers in third world countries,

Stepping on the sewing machine that smelled of engine oil in a huge chaotic assembly line,

All the same cheap clothing made for millions of people.

Chapter 4572

At that moment, Bella realized what a stupid choice she had made.

It was also at that moment that she decided to do everything possible to return to Gerard.

Fortunately, after she came back, Gerard re-accepted her regardless of previous suspicions,

And even married her in an open and honest way.

For the next 20 years, she has been enjoying the best of everything in this world, just as she was back then.

However, Hogan was still a vacuum deep in her heart that could not be filled.

However, the more realistic Bella understood a truth:

Some vacancies can actually not be filled.

However, it was precisely because of the existence of this vacuum that,

When she knew that Hogan was going to be sent back,

And even when countless people were gearing up to take his life,

She still couldn't accept it, so she rushed to Gerard aggressively to ask for an explanation.

However, she overestimated her status in Gerard's mind.

And also underestimated hatred for Hogan in Gerard's mind.

The slap on her face made her panic for a while.

Because she was afraid that she would lose everything around her.

So, she hurriedly explained to Gerard:

“Gerard...don’t get me wrong...I really have no other meaning...I just...”

Gerard said coldly: “Don’t say it! I don’t want to hear what you mean and what not,”

“I just want to tell you that you are not allowed to mention anything,”

“Related to Hogan in front of me in the future, otherwise, you will go as far as you can!”

Bella was terrified.

She knew that although Gerard liked her and had a strong possessiveness towards her,

She had always been wary of him.

Although she is married to him, she has always been insulated from him in terms of assets.

Before Gerard married her, he had already made her sign an agreement,

To voluntarily give up all the common property of the husband and wife.

Therefore, as long as Gerard divorces her, she has no choice but to leave the house.

So, while weeping, she said to him, “I was wrong, Gerard...”

“Don’t worry... I will never make you angry again...”

Gerard nodded expressionlessly and said coldly:

“Mrs. Han should still be waiting for you.”

Bella said quickly: “Yes... Mrs. Han is still waiting for me at the racecourse...”

“Then I will go first, what do you want to eat at night,”

“I will ask the servant to make it ready.”

“No need.” Gerard waved his hand:

“I’m a little annoyed now, and I want to be alone for a while.”

Bella said with sincerity and fear: “Okay...then I’ll go first...”

After speaking, she turned around quickly and left in a panic.

The next day.

New York morning.

When Avella opened her eyes, Marven was still sleeping soundly beside her.

She didn't know that he went out alone last night and didn't come back until before dawn.

After getting up, she asked the hotel's food and beverage department to bring breakfast.

Just as Marven came out of the bedroom, she asked with a smile, "How did you sleep, husband?"

"It's good." Marven smiled and replied casually.

One sentence, in fact, he didn't sleep at all, just lying on the bed,

Thinking about things related to that mysterious organization.

Avella greeted him and said, "Breakfast is here, come and eat it!"

Marven nodded, and just as the two sat down at the dining table, Viola made a video call to Avella.

As soon as the call got connected, Avella looked at Viola in the video and asked with a smile,

"Mom, why did you call me so early?"

"Mom really misses you... You don't know how lonely Mom is at home after you and Marven left,"

"I really don't want to stay in this home by myself for a minute..."

Chapter 4573

On the other hand, Viola shed tears at the camera,

While carefully throwing the eye drops into a blind spot that the video could not capture.

At the other end of the video, Avella saw her mother crying and thought because she was lonely,

And she felt distressed, and said subconsciously, "Mom, why don't you go on a trip first?"

"Didn't Marven give you half a million? Go with a high-end tour group,"

"And have a good time for a while, and when you have had enough, you should come back."

When Viola heard this, she said in her heart, "The girl's idea is very good,"

"The key point is how can I still have money to travel? "..."

Thinking of this, she wiped away her tears and choked up, and said,

“Avella...Mom doesn't want to go out to enjoy now...Mom just misses you...”

Avella said helplessly: “Mom, there are still more than 20 days for the course,”

“And I won't be able to come back for a while...”

Actually, Avella never thought about whether Viola could come to the United States.

But she subconsciously felt that it would not be very convenient for her mother to come to the United States.

The first is to apply for a visa. The US visa is a little more troublesome.

You have to go to the embassy for an interview, and there is a certain risk of being rejected.

Besides, she also knew her mother's noisy character.

If she came to the United States, she and Marven might not have a safe life.

Avella can say it herself, after all, Viola is her mother,

Even if it is a little noisy and miscellaneous, she can accept it.

But she was afraid that Marven would feel uncomfortable.

Therefore, she did not dare to ask her mother to come over without permission.

However, Marven came over very readily at this time, smiled at the video, and said,

“Mom, if you feel too lonely at home, apply for a visa to come and enjoy in the United States.”

Avella heard this, the words were incredible,

She really did not expect that Marven could agree to let her mother come over without thinking.

Viola didn't expect Marven's words to be so straightforward,

And immediately exploded with excitement here, and exclaimed excitedly:

“Oh, good son-in-law! Is what you said true, good son-in-law?!”

“Of course.” Marven laughed He said: “We have enough rooms here, and you will have a place to stay when you come.”

Viola immediately blurted out: “That's great!”

“I happen to have a friend who has channels in the embassy, they said soon I can get the visa!”

Avella asked in surprise: “Mom, do you know friends who have channels in the embassy?”

Viola smiled unnaturally and said, “Hey, it’s me who used to play mahjong, with people.”

“One of them has a daughter working in the embassy,”

“And she said she can help me go through the back door!”

Avella did not doubt and said, “Mom, if you get the visa, let me know, and I will buy you a plane ticket.”

Viola hurriedly said: “Hey nooo, no, my good son-in-law gave me so much pocket money,”

“How can I let you buy a plane ticket for your mother, then I will buy it myself,”

“You can just wait to pick me up at the airport!”

Marven reminded: “Mom, If you are afraid of the trouble of connecting flights,”

“Fly directly to New York. We will pick you up in New York.”

“If you want to be faster, you can transfer to Providence.”

Viola said, “I will definitely let the private jet land in Providence.”

“If I could fly to Providence, who would go to New York to toss around...”

However, she naturally couldn’t say it clearly, so she quickly said:

“You two should wait for me in Providence, I will transfer and pass by then.”

“Save you the trouble of going all the way to New York to pick me up.”

“Okay!” Marven said without hesitation, “Then we’ll be waiting for you here!”

Chapter 4574

Avella was also very happy, and hurriedly said, “Mom, After your itinerary is set,”

“Remember to tell us, we will pick you up from the airport in advance!”

“Okay!” Viola was very proud of his her, and said with a smile, “Mom will tell you when it’s done!”

After hanging up, Avella hurriedly asked Marven, “Husband, mom won’t cause you any trouble,”

“When she comes to the United States? She has a different nature, and I’m afraid your mood will be affected.”

“No.” Marven said with a smile: “It’s good for Mom to come to America,”

“And she can accompany you by the way. You’ve been away from home for so long, so you must miss her very much.”

Avella nodded lightly and said, “I’ve grown up so much,”

“And I haven’t been so far away from home for so long. She must be worried about it.”

Marven smiled and said, “Our hotel room here is so big for two people.”

“It’s really empty to live in, and it’ll be a little more lively when Mom comes.”

Seeing that Marven really didn’t mind,

Avella breathed a sigh of relief and said softly, “Husband, thank you!”

...

The next morning.

Viola has already obtained a visa to the United States.

The person from the jewelry company confirmed to her that the departure time of the plane was this afternoon,

So Viola changed into her most beautiful clothes at noon,

Carried the Hermes bought by Marven and took the commercial car provided by the jewelry company to Wrestvel Airport.

At the airport, Viola experienced the high-end courtesy of VIP building boarding for the first time.

The luxury business car took her to the apron alone.

Two beautiful ground staff helped her carry her luggage and escorted her to board the private jet ready for the United States.

This Gulfstream G650 is a business jet owned by the Song Group.

This time, Warnia specially transferred this plane to Viola to fly alone.

The interior of the plane is naturally extremely luxurious,

Making Viola feel as if she has entered a palace in the sky as soon as she set her foot in.

The huge and luxurious cabin, with only her as a passenger,

Made her feel that her vanity was infinitely enlarged.

Just as she sat down on the extremely soft oversized reclining chair,

Three beautiful female flight attendants stepped forward.

The three of them bowed deeply to Viola first, and then,

Under the leadership of the female flight attendant,

Squatted down in front of her in a half-kneeling posture and looked up at her.

The first flight attendant said, "Dear Madam, welcome to this flight."

"This flight is a direct flight from Wrestrvel to Providence, the United States."

"The flight time is about fifteen hours. I am the flight attendant on this flight."

"Ma'am, these two people beside me are the flight attendants of our crew,"

"The three of us will serve you alone during the next flight,"

"And you can give any orders at any time if you need anything."

Viola suddenly had a clue With a feeling of her soul being out of the body,

Se said with a refreshing look: "Oh, it's really hard for you!"

The steward said very modestly: "This is what we should do."

At this time, in the cockpit, two pilots also came over, and the two of them bowed slightly to Viola,

And then one of them said, "Ma'am, I am the captain of this flight, and this person next to me is my second-in-command."

"We will do our best to ensure the safety, timeliness, and your comfort during the flight."

"The plane has applied for a VIP channel, and you can cut the queue to take off at any time."

"If you are ready, we can launch it at any time."

"If you still want to rest for a while, we will wait for your instructions in the cabin."

Viola happily closed her mouth and blurted out:

"No wonder you fly 1.2 million at a time! It's an emperor-like enjoyment!"

She quickly waved her hand. Said: "I'm all ready, let's take off as soon as possible!"

The captain nodded immediately and said, "Okay, Ma'am, we'll apply for the take-off now!"

Viola suddenly thought of something, and quickly said: "Oh, wait wait wait."

While talking, she took out her mobile phone from her bag and said to a few people,

"Oh, I was so excited just now that I forgot to take a video and leave a memory,"

"So we can do it once more?"

Chapter 4575

The captain said without hesitation: "Okay, Ma'am, then I'll report to you again."

Viola shook her head and said, "No, it doesn't start with you."

After speaking, she pointed to the flight attendant and smiled. Then she said, "It starts with her!"

Viola has a pungent personality, but the essence of this comes from being strong.

She has lived for fifty years, and was looked down upon most of the time,

Especially after marrying into the Xiao family.

The contempt of her husband's family and the cowardice of her husband,

Once made her self-esteem trampled, which not only made her character more aggressive,

But also aggravated her ultimate pursuit of respect.

Now, she has finally taken a private jet. She naturally wants to enjoy such a high-end feeling and leave a memory.

More importantly, she has to show off in the circle of friends.

And the crew members are naturally very cooperative.

After all, they are flying such flights. The income of serving Viola alone is several times that of serving a few hundred people on a whole civil airliner.

Naturally, Viola should be worshipped as a Lafayette.

After filming the video contentedly, in order not to expose it in front of her family,

Viola specially organized a group to block Marven, Avella, and her husband,

And then posted a circle of friends with the text: "Taking a private jet to travel."

"The feeling is different, there is a royal atmosphere everywhere!"

After posting on the Moments, she subconsciously asked the flight attendant:

“Hey, waiter, will there be no internet after we take off?”

The flight attendant hurriedly said: “There is no network at the critical stage of the plane’s take-off and climb,”

“But after the plane is stable, I will turn on the cabin WiFi for you,”

“And then you will be able to connect to the Internet.”

Viola nodded with satisfaction and smiled:

“Okay, then tell the captain and take off quickly.”

After speaking, she thought happily: “The circle of friends has been sent out,”

“And I will connect to the Internet after I get to the sky for a while,”

“And it is estimated that many people will see it, won’t they be envy to death?”

Thinking of this, she put her phone aside and looked at the scenery outside the window in a wonderful mood.

The plane quickly cut in line to take off, straight into the sky.

About half an hour later, the plane rose to a cruising altitude of 11,000 kilometers.

The stewardess turned on the cabin WiFi and said to Viola:

“Ma’am, our WiFi has been turned on, you can now connect to the Internet,”

“And the WiFi name is your name. There is no password.”

Viola immediately took out her mobile phone, connected to WiFi,

And then couldn’t wait to open WeChat, wanting to see how big the prompt in the circle of friends would show.

However, after she opened it, she found that the circle of friends didn’t even have a prompt!

This also means that it has been so long since she posted it in her circle of friends,

And no one has liked or commented on it.

She couldn’t help but mutter in her heart:

“Is there a problem with this network? It’s impossible for more than half an hour, and no one has commented!”

Thinking of this, she couldn’t help asking the stewardess:

“Do you have a wireless network? What’s the problem?”

“It shows that it is connected here, but it doesn’t seem to be connected to the Internet!”

The stewardess hurriedly said, “It shouldn’t be, Ma’am, we are all using the satellite network,”

“although the Internet speed is a little slower, but the signal is very good, and the connection is very stable.”

Viola was about to speak when a circle prompt popped up in the circle of friends,

And there was a number 1 in the red circle.

She hurried to check, and the notifications immediately became 2.

She was instantly overjoyed and thought, “Finally someone commented on the old lady’s circle of friends!”

So, she quickly clicked in, which didn’t make her mad.

The two are from Horiyah.

One is Horiyah’s like, the other is her comment, the content is: Sister have a smooth journey!

Chapter 4576

Viola was suddenly very depressed.

Being able to receive likes and comments from Horiyah proves that there is definitely no problem with the Internet on the plane.

It also proves that no one else has commented on her post since they took off for so long.

This made Viola very angry, and couldn’t help but scolded in his heart:

“Danm! I usually take pictures of broken flowers in the park,”

“And I can’t hold my hands firmly, and many people like them.”

“Why is it that I am sitting in a private plane, these people don’t even give a compliment?!”

“Danm, jealous! It must be because of jealousy!”

After the flight time, Viola was almost in no mood to sleep.

She would open her Moments every once in a while to take a look,

But until the plane flew over the United States, her Moments still only had one like and one comment from Horiyah.

This made her almost drop her phone several times, but in the end, she had to accept the reality.

So she could only comfort herself from the bottom of her heart:

“Hey, besides family members, how many good people can there be in the circle of friends?”

“They are all good guys who can’t see others! Hmph, if you don’t give me a compliment,”

“I will pull it down, you think.”

“Going to the United States on a private plane, do I still need your likes? It’s ridiculous!”

While thinking, she quietly opened her phone and glanced at it.

When she found that there were still no likes and comments in the circle of friends,

She was even more annoyed. She threw her phone aside and closed her eyes.

After more than ten hours of flight,

Viola’s Gulfstream G650 finally landed at Providence Airport in the United States.

At this time, it was more than ten o’clock in the evening, American time.

Marven and Avella had just finished watching Sara’s second concert in Boston and were driving back to Providence.

In fact, Marven knew about Viola’s movements for a long time,

And he received the news as soon as the plane landed.

However, he also knew that Viola dared not let him and Avella know that she came by private plane,

So she would definitely wait to get off the plane before contacting Avella.

Marven is not worried about Viola going through the customs alone.

After all, she also went to university and must have basic conversation skills.

Half an hour later, Avella’s cell phone suddenly received a call from the United States.

She didn’t think too much, just picked up the phone and said, “Hi.”

On the other end of the phone, Viola's excited voice came: "Avella! It's me! I'm in the United States!"

Avella Hearing her mother's voice was stunned,

And it took a long time for her to recover and blurt out:

"Mom, when did you arrive in the United States? Why didn't you tell us before you set off?!"

Viola laughed: "I wanted to surprise you and Marven!"

"Besides, the flight time is so long, if I tell you in advance,"

"You will definitely worry about me, so I decided to fly over first!"

Avella discovered for the first time, that Mom has become sensible too... Knowing to think about others...

But how could she know that Viola did this because she was actually afraid they would know that she is out of money.

So, Avella hurriedly asked her: "Mom, where are you?"

"Is it the New York airport? Marven and I will pick you up now!"

Viola said: "I'm not in New York, I'm in your Providence. Where are you!"

"Ah?" Avella said in surprise: "Mom, did you come here on a special plane?"

"Yes." Viola said nonsense: "Didn't you say you would come to New York first,"

"I'll do it myself I'm on a connecting flight."

Avella asked again, "Have you gone through the customs? Have you finished the immigration formalities?"

"It's done." Viola said, "I'm in the airport lobby, can you come to pick me up now?"

"If not If it's convenient, I can take a taxi, but I'm in a hurry,"

"So I didn't go to the bank to exchange dollars, so I still asked the flight attendant for the coins for the call, and you can pay for the fare for your mother."

Avella didn't have much thought. After thinking about it, she blurted out and asked Marven:

"Husband, Mom has arrived at the airport, how far are we from the airport? Is it convenient to pick her up?"

“Convenient.” Marven glanced at the navigation and said,

“Convenient, going from here we will be in the airport in ten minutes.”

Avella hurriedly said: “Mom, Marven, and I are on our way,”

“And it’s only ten minutes away from you. If you wait for us at the airport for a while, we’ll pick you up!”

Viola was naturally overjoyed, and blurted out: “Oh, that’s great! Mom is waiting for you here!”

Chapter 4577

Twenty minutes later, Marven and Avella received Viola at the airport.

After a long absence, seeing Avella and Marven, Viola was extremely excited, and said cheerfully:

“Hey, Avella, Marven, during this time, your mother was about to die!”

Avella said with a smile: “I thought You must be very comfortable when you are at home by yourself.”

Viola smiled and said, “Comfort is a different matter, but it’s so lonely to be alone all the time!”

After speaking, she said angrily, “When I came to the United States this time,”

“I forgot to exchange to US dollars and forgot to bring my bank card back home,”

Avella didn’t think much, and said with a smile: “Mom, you came to the United States to find us,”

“How can we let you pay? Don’t worry about the money, just stay here.”

Marven also interjected: “Yes, Mom, you are in the United States,”

“We must not let you spend your money, electronic payment here is different.”

“It’s convenient, I’ll give you a visa credit card and get you some cash.”

After speaking, he said again: “By the way, the law and order is not very good,”

“So you must not carry too much cash when you go out.”

When Viola heard that Marven was going to give her a card and cash,

Her eyes lit up with excitement, and she said excitedly, “You really deserve to be a good son-in-law,”

“Otherwise everyone would say that a son-in-law is half a son.”

“But having a son-in-law as filial as you is more reliable than having a son!”

Marven smiled slightly, noncommittal.

He knew Viola's character too well, and regardless of her fiery enthusiasm,
He wanted to make a hole in the sky, but as long as he gave her a little favor,
Her attitude would immediately take a 180-degree turn.

Therefore, Viola can be pinched for a small amount of money,
Which is also a very cost-effective deal for Marven.

Later, the two drove her to the hotel.

When Viola entered the presidential suite, she was speechless, in utter shock.

She ran around the room for a few laps, but couldn't understand the layout of the entire suite,

So she kept exclaiming: "Oh my god, this presidential suite is too big!"

"Only you two live here for so many days? What a waste!"

Avella said helplessly: "I didn't know that Marven booked such a big room, it's really too wasteful..."

Marven smiled at this time: "It's okay, I can make money. Is it not just for spending?"

"Besides, this cost is not too big, and the income from going to show people the feng shui,"

"Is more than enough to live here for a few months."

Viola couldn't close her mouth and praised: "It's still my son-in-law is amazing!"

"He is making money like a printing machine!"

Avella said hurriedly: "Mom, it's not easy for Marven to make money,"

"He's running around everywhere, and he even went to New York a few days ago to show people Feng Shui. "

Huh!" Viola exclaimed: "Does my son-in-law do business in the United States? It's really amazing!"

Marven said casually: "It's all based on some friends to introduce each other,"

"Because they believe in me, so they also keep introducing me to some new customers."

"Generally, as long as it is a customer introduced by a friend, I will try my best to pick up the next one,"

"Not only to make money but also to not be able to refute my friend's face,"

“Otherwise my friend kindly introduces me to his client, and if I didn’t take orders from others,”

“It becomes difficult for this friend who gets caught in the middle.”

Viola nodded in agreement and said: “My son-in-law is right, people do it out of face for us.”

“When introducing customers to us, not only can we not shirk,”

“But we have to serve them well so that they can introduce more customers to us!”

Avella said helplessly: “Husband, you should talk to your friends and let them know.”

“They will introduce fewer clients to you in the future so that it can be easier for you to handle.”

Before Marven could speak, Viola blurted out: “Good son-in-law,”

“You can’t just think about relaxation at such a young age!”

“Don’t listen to her, Young people just have to have a positive and hard-working heart.”

“How can they lie down in their twenties? In modern society,”

“Money is hard to earn and it is hard to eat.”

“The most important thing is to earn more money and keep it in the bank account!”

Chapter 4578

Avella said: “Mom, what I mean is let Marven take fewer orders,”

“I am not asking him to lie down all day doing nothing.....”

Viola said seriously: “It is the right way to make more money while you are young.”

“If you don’t work hard when you are young, it will be too late to work hard when you are old!”

“Don’t be like your father, you will be confused all your life!”

Avella didn’t know how to refute it.

At this time, Marven suddenly received a call from Joseph.

So he immediately pressed the answer button and said, “Hello, Mr. Wan.”

Joseph on the other end of the phone immediately said,

“Hello, may I speak to Master Ye! I was introduced by President Chen.”

“I would like to ask you to see the feng shui of my house.”

Marven hurriedly said: "Oh, so it's Mr. Chen's friend!"

"Hello, I don't know what's going on in your house?"

Joseph said: "My house is on Shixun Road in Hong Kong,"

"It is a villa with an area of about 8,000 square meters."

"Recently, my family members are getting injured or falling ill for no reason."

"Many things are not in order, so I feel that there should be a problem with Feng Shui,"

"So I want to ask for a Feng Shui. I wanted to see a master and Mr. Chen recommended you to me,"

"Saying that you are very professional in this field!"

Marven asked in surprise: "Your home is Hong Kong?"

"Yes." Joseph asked, "I don't know Master Ye, do you have the time recently?"

"If so, I hope you can come over in person, my current situation is really urgent..."

Marven said, "Mr. Chen may not have told you that I am in the United States now."

"Not in Wrosvell, coming to Hong Kong may be a bit troublesome."

Joseph on the other end of the phone hurriedly said,

"Master Ye, I hope you will take the time to come and help me adjust anyway,"

"Otherwise, I am afraid that my family will be in much trouble."

Avella could vaguely hear Joseph's voice in the telephone receiver,

And when she learned that someone from Hong Kong wanted to invite her husband to see Feng Shui,

She looked at Marven nervously, not knowing what he would do next Will he agree.

Marven was also embarrassed at this time, and said,

"I recently have come to the United States with my wife for her studies,"

"And it may not be convenient to come to Hong Kong..."

The other party immediately said: "Master Ye, President Chen has been telling me,"

"Saying Not only are you highly accomplished in Feng Shui,"

“But you are also very warm-hearted. I am really in an urgency right now, you can’t help me...”

Marven hesitated for a moment, then said, “Well, I’ll discuss it with my wife first. I’ll answer you later.”

Joseph hurriedly said: “Master Ye, please make sure to make it clear to Mrs. Ye that this matter is about human life,”

“But you must agree! As for the remuneration, don’t worry, I will double it for you!”

Marven said: “Okay... I’ll pass it on to her.”

After that, he hung up the phone and said to Avella,

“Wife, President Issac Chen from Wrestvel, he introduced a client who is from Hong Kong.”

“There is some problem with Feng Shui at home. It is said that it is quite serious,”

“I’ve heard it all... Since it’s all about human life, how can I stop you from going...”

Marven understood and said quickly, “Wife, you are so kind!”

“Since that’s the case, then I’ll tell him! I have a flight ticket to Hong Kong tomorrow morning!”

Avella nodded and said helplessly: “Since the situation is very urgent,”

“Then you should go earlier, just as mom is here, she can accompany me, You don’t have to worry about us here.”

Viola said without hesitation: “Yes, good son-in-law, career is the most important thing,”

“If you have something to do, just go to work, Avella has me to accompany her, don’t worry!”

Marven said: “Then Thank you for your hard work, Mom.”

Viola hurriedly said: “You have to be so polite to mom! Really!”

After speaking, she did not forget to remind Marven:

“Good son-in-law, what specialties are there in Hong Kong, remember to bring some for Mom!”

Chapter 4579

After agreeing with Avella to go to Hong Kong, Marven called Joseph.

As soon as the call was made, Joseph asked on the other end of the phone,

“Master Ye, have you discussed this with your wife? I wonder if you can come over to help?”

Marven said, "I have already discussed it with my wife. You are lucky,"

"It just so happens that my mother-in-law has just arrived in the United States,"

"She can now help me take care of my wife, otherwise I really couldn't come there to help you."

Joseph hurriedly said: "That's great! Mr. Ye, what time is right for you,"

"I will arrange a business jet from the United States to bring you over!"

Marven shied away: "There is no need for a business jet, I can just buy a ticket."

Joseph said, "If you come here on a connecting flight,"

"It will take at least 20 hours or even longer,"

"And it may not be possible to buy the earliest air ticket, business jet is faster!"

Marven murmured: "That's right, it's urgent now, the sooner the better."

"That's alright, then you have to work hard to arrange the plane, and I can leave early tomorrow."

"Okay!" Joseph said without hesitation, "Then I'll arrange it,"

"You can take off at eight o'clock in the morning local time, right?"

"No Question!"

Joseph said excitedly: "That's great, Master Ye! I'll pick you up at the airport!"

Marven said, "Then let's meet in Hong Kong!"

After that, he and Joseph said goodbye, then hanging up the phone, he said to Avella:

"Wife, the situation of this client's house is more urgent, and I may be leaving early tomorrow."

Avella said with a reluctant expression and a little distressed:

"Early in the morning. It's too hard to catch a plane..."

Marven smiled and said, "It's nothing more than getting up early, no hard work,"

"This client seems to be very powerful, he said that he would arrange a business jet for me,"

"Tomorrow morning, I will fly directly from here to Hong Kong and sleep all the way there."

Viola on the side heard Marven talking about the business jet, and quickly said:

“Yes, yes! The business jet is very comfortable! That single sofa in front, it can massage, heat, and ventilate.”

“Even you can go to the back bedroom to sleep when you are tired,”

“The big bed is more comfortable than the bed at home!”

“Besides, the flight attendant in there are good ones!”

Avella couldn't help but said: “Mom, have you been on a business jet,”

“You say it as if you have been on a plane like that...”

Viola knew that she had said something wrong, and quickly changed her tune:

“Look at what I said, Mom has never eaten pork and has never seen a pig run?”

“You can always see pictures of people taking private planes on TV,”

“And it's like a luxury hotel room, as comfortable as one can imagine.”

Avella shook her head helplessly, and turned to Marven,

“Husband, then I'll take you to the airport tomorrow morning.”

Marven didn't refuse, nodded, and said,

“Okay, then the hard-working wife will take me there.”

The next day.

Avella's alarm clock rang at six o'clock.

She and Marven got up, had a simple breakfast, and drove to the airport.

After Marven drove the car to the airport and parked it at the entrance of the airport,

He said to Avella: “Wife, don't take me in, just drive back.”

Avella said reluctantly: “I still want to send you in.”

Chapter 4580

Marven smiled and said: “You can only send me to the security check.”

“Besides, they arranged a business jet for me, I will directly go to the VIP channel,”

“And I don't even have to queue, so you taking me in,”

“It’s just a few steps before I get in, so don’t bother.”

Seeing Marvin insisting, Avella nodded: “Well then, husband, please pay attention to safety,”

“Take care of diet and daily life, eat on time, do you understand?”

Marvin said with a smile: “Okay, I understand, don’t worry! When I finish things,”

“I will come back to accompany you as soon as possible!”

“Okay!” Avella nodded heavily, and then said, “You hurry in,”

“Aren’t you taking off at eight o’clock? It’s only half an hour now.”

“Okay.” Marvin got out of the car and waited for her to sit in the car, he waved to her and said,

“Wife, I’ll go first, you drive carefully on the way back.”

Avella nodded obediently, and said softly, “Tell me in advance when you’re done.”

“I’ll pick you up at the airport when you come back.”

“Okay!”

Marvin watched Avella drive away, then turned around and walked into the airport.

After a simple security check, he boarded the business jet arranged by Joseph.

At 8:00 sharp, the plane took off on time and flew toward Hong Kong at high speed.

Fourteen hours later, it is already ten o’clock in the morning in Hong Kong.

Marvin’s business jet was more than an hour away from Hong Kong.

So, he called Melba and told her that he was going to Hong Kong soon,

And asked her to notify Gerard to meet him at the airport.

Gerard was still sleeping soundly at home.

Ever since he asked the USCIS to start the deportation process for Hogan,

He has been a little overexcited. It is hard to fall asleep in bed every night. The shame he suffered.

If it wasn’t for the fact that the whole of Hong Kong knew of his hatred of Hogan,

He would have liked to execute that ba5tard himself.

After all, only in that way could he completely relieve his hatred.

At this time, he was in a strange dream. In the dream, Hogan was finally deported back to Hong Kong.

In order to witness Hogan's tragic death, he deliberately came to the airport to wait.

When Hogan walked out of the airport, passers-by all pulled out their guns and aimed them at Hogan.

Gerard was naturally excited. He couldn't wait to see Hogan being shot to death,

But at this moment, everyone's guns suddenly turned around and aimed at him.

Just when he was stunned, Hogan suddenly sneered at him and then waved his hand slightly.

Immediately afterward, the gun-wielding killers pulled the triggers,

And the bullets hit him frantically, causing him to scream and sit up straight.

Bella was doing her makeup in the bathroom at the moment, when she heard the movement,

She hurried over and asked nervously, "What's wrong with you, Gerard? Are you having a nightmare?"

"It's okay...Dream and reality are reversed..."

Just as he was talking, his phone suddenly rang.

He grabbed it and found that it was Melba who was calling,

So he immediately pressed the answer button and said,

"Hello, Mr. Watt! You called so early, what are your orders?"

Melba said on the other end of the phone,

"Mr. Liu, my assistant will arrive in Hong Kong in an hour,"

"If it's convenient for you, you'd better pick him up at the airport."

Gerard was naturally very upset when Melba asked him to pick up her assistant.

In his opinion, when Melba's assistant arrives, it's almost enough to find a hotel to entertain this guy,

But she wants him to go to the airport to pick him up. Isn't this a bit too much?

At this moment, Melba said again: "By the way, Mr. Liu, I forgot to tell you before that this assistant of mine is appointed by the two major shareholders of ISU Shipping,"

"Miss Ito and Miss Su, and he is better than me in many matters."

“He has more right to speak. If President Liu wants to promote the cooperation between us,”

“Please be sure to do a good job of reception.”
