

The Amazing Son In-Law Chapter 741-750

Chapter 741

It's not just Donghai who is angry.

Wuxin is also angry!

This "cross talk" between Liu Guang and Liu Ming almost crushed and humiliated the entire Wu family on the ground!

Even after the humiliation was over, the father and son pissed on them!

Which makes them even more unacceptable!

This cross talk was spread to YouTube and it was made it public all over the Internet!

Since the Wu family is the first family in the south of the Yangtze River, it can be regarded as having a good face in the country, so this cross talk so openly mocked them, satirized them, and insulted them, and it exploded in the circle of netizens!

On the one hand, netizens are curious, what is the origin of these two foreheads? who dare to insult the Wu family so much, isn't this like looking for death?

On the other hand, netizens also like to watch this kind of big family drama, so everyone started to pay attention to this video, so it immediately got a huge amount of attention.

Now the whole network is spreading this cross talk frantically. Countless people reposted, liked, commented, and even reposted it on Instagram, Facebook, WeChat Moments and WhatsApp Groups. The popularity is extremely high.

Donghai almost got Parkinson's anger, so he immediately took out his cell phone and called his local underground spokesperson in Suzhou. As soon as he came up, he said, "I want the lives of Liu Guang and Liu Ming! Today! I want it tonight!"

The other party was surprised and asked, "Mr. Donghai, is it because of the YouTube video?"

"Why are you so fcking bullshit?!" When Donghai heard that he also mentioned the YouTube video, he knew that this matter had spread so much, he blurted out: "Find them both tonight, kill them both, I'll give you 20 million, if you can't find them or kill them, I'll fcking kill you!"

"Okay, Mr. Donghai, I'll take ten carts to Wrestvel overnight, and find them at earliest, kill them both, and give this breath to Mr. Donghai!"

But Donghai didn't know. At this moment, Liu Guang's family had already drove on the highway overnight and rushed all the way to Orgeyon.

After arrangements were made to kill Liu Guang and his son, Donghai immediately called a friend.

As soon as he came up, he said to the other party: "Xuwen, did you see that video on YouTube?"

"I saw it." The other party couldn't help asking: "Old Wu, what's the background of this person, dare to fight against you like this?"

Donghai said coldly: "Just leave it alone, I have sent someone to kill them. I called you to ask you for a favor."

"Say it."

Donghai said: "I have 30 million. Please help me contact the public relations company and the operations of YouTube, and help me delete this video. It is best to block the entire network and don't let it spread again!"

Now, celebrities and entrepreneurs all have special crisis public relations.

Once the videos broke out on the Internet, one can immediately spend a lot of money on it, and all kinds of online searches and news can be removed.

Therefore, what Donghai thought at this time was to quickly spend money to remove all the videos. After the removal, there will be no new transmissions, so after a while, netizens will naturally forget about this.

Or, when someone else's news breaks out, everyone's eyes will be attracted by the other person, and then they will be relieved.

The other party thought for a while and said, "Old Wu, you have too much influence in this matter. If you want to completely suppress it, 30 million is not enough!"

Donghai immediately said: "Then you make an offer! How much can you suppress it for!"

The other party hesitated for a while and said: "Well, I won't say 100 million, don't say 50 million, you give me 70 million, I promise to delete this video permanently on YouTube!"

"Okay!" Donghai blurted out: "I will arrange for someone to make money now!"

Soon, Donghai arranged his own finances and immediately remitted 70 million to the other company.

While Donghai was waiting for the helicopter, the video was deleted on YouTube.

At this moment, Marven was in the kitchen, cooking while watching the volume of YouTube play and likes soaring.

Liu Ming's phone is in front of him, and his YouTube account is about to explode at this time!

Marven liked his black humor very much, and felt that it was a very murderous punishment for the Wu family.

Chapter 742

However, when the number of likes exceeded 1.5 million, his YouTube suddenly prompted: "Your account has been permanently banned for posting illegal videos!"

Marven frowned suddenly.

What the h*ll?

Permanent ban?

He immediately took out his mobile phone and searched for the cross talk between Liu Guang and his son, and found that the entire site had been deleted cleanly!

He suddenly realized that this must be Donghai who spent money to do crisis deletion public relations!

Oh sh!t!

Marven didn't expect that Donghai could still use this method to curb the spread of the video, and he was suddenly a little annoyed.

After thinking about it, he took out his cell phone and called Stephen Thompson who was far away in Orgeyon.

If Zak Chen is only one of the many spokespersons of the Ye family, then Stephen Thompson is the only steward of the Ye family.

In other words, in the entire Ye family, except for the Old Ye, he is the oldest.

After the phone call, Stephen Thompson immediately said respectfully: "Hello Mr. Ye you haven't called me for a long time."

Marven gave a hum, and said, "I call you now. I want to ask you for help."

Stephen Thompson hurriedly said: "Mr. Ye you are serious. You are the young master of the Ye family, and I am a servant. If you have anything to do, just tell me!"

Marven said, "I want to ask you, how much is YouTube local operations worth now?"

Stephen Thompson thought for a while, and said: "If you calculate it based on the valuation, there are some elements of false reporting. The declared valuation should be about 130 billion."

Marven asked again: "If you buy it directly? How much is the price?"

Stephen Thompson said: "If the price is one price, it will be between 80 billion and 90 billion."

Marven asked again: "Can you buy YouTube local operations for me?"

“Yes!” Stephen Thompson said immediately: “Mr. Ye wait a moment, I will let people contact the boss of YouTube. I believe he will not refuse the offer from the Ye family.”

Marven said in his heart, as long as it is bought, he would put that crosstalk on the homepage of YouTube users across the country, asking them to open YouTube, and they would see that crosstalk.

Don't the Wu family want to delete the video? He f*cking bought this video company directly, Now how would they delete it!

At this time, Donghai didn't know that Marven had already started to buy YouTube local operations.

He scribbled on the YouTube several times, and finally heaved a sigh of relief after finding that there was no cross talk.

However, his anger towards Liu Guang and Liu Ming did not diminish at all.

Moreover, he thought carefully about the details.

Liu Ming had long been engraved with the word “poor hang” on his forehead. He knew this, but Liu Guang's forehead had not been engraved before. When he saw him today, he was fine.

In other words, this video should have been shot after Jones Zizhou was defeated and abandoned by Marven.

Moreover, in the video, the father and son laughed more ugly than they cried. It should be the cross talk that someone threatened them to film.

Anyway, who threatened them?

It seems that there is only one possibility, and that is Marven!

Thinking of this, Donghai gritted his teeth bitterly!

The surname is Ye, I will kill you one day!

Otherwise, I will be called a person in vain!

Chapter 743

Just when Donghai finally breathed a sigh of relief because YouTube's video was deleted, he never dreamed that YouTube had already completed the transaction with Ye's in Orgeyon.

Orgeyon Ye's acquired YouTube local operations wholly-owned by RMB 85 billion.

Before this news was released, the Ye family had already begun to take over YouTube's operations.

The first thing they did was to restore Liu Ming's deleted account, as well as the deleted hot video.

Immediately afterwards, the technicians through the setting, let all the notifications section users across the country, the first time they turn on the notifications section, they will see this cross talk directly on the home screen!

Donghai didn't know that things had changed a hundred and eighty degrees. When he was waiting for the helicopter to come over, he suddenly received another call from Wu Qi.

Wu Qi yelled in panic on the phone: "Dad, what's going on, why are all the cross talks when the notifications section is turned on?! Now the number of likes has exceeded two million, I asked many people, their steep When the sound is turned on, it is the cross talk!"

"What?!" Donghai exclaimed suddenly and blurted out: "Are you sure? I just spent 70 million to solve this problem, there is no reason to come up again!"

Wu Qi said confidently: "Of course I'm sure. I saw it myself. As long as you turn on the notifications section, it's that section. I also asked several people that their notifications section is like this. Dad, what should I do now... .."

Donghai said with a black face, "Let me see what is going on!"

After speaking, he immediately hung up and asked Wuxin to turn on YouTube.

really!

As soon as YouTube is turned on, it is the crosstalk by Liu Guang and Liu Ming by default!

He was so angry that he immediately called the person who was in crisis public relations, and blurted out: "Xuwen, are you playing me so much? How come the video is released again?! And all users will see it by default! "

The other party said embarrassingly: "Oh, Mr. Wu, I just received the news. You can't blame me for this. The main reason is that Orgeyon Ye's family just bought YouTube and paid 85 billion in cash. The other party did not hesitate. They just sold it..."

"What are you talking about?!" Donghai went crazy and exclaimed: "The Ye family bought YouTube whole?"

"That's right!" Xuwen said embarrassingly, "Just now, they contacted YouTube's boss directly and quoted a cash purchase price for the local operations. The other party agreed without hesitation. You know, the world recently The economy is not so good. The entrepreneurs who start their own businesses want to get rid of their hands and realize it. At such a high price, they are paid directly in one lump sum, and there is no resistance at all..."

As he said, the other party hurriedly said: "Old Wu, don't be angry, the 70 million, I will leave it as it is, and I will immediately let the finance call you back! This time I'm really sorry, brother, I can do nothing!"

Donghai was shocked!

What is the Ye Family's purpose?

So how can a big family smash with a small character like himself?

He didn't offend the Ye family much! It's nothing more than five of his dogs, who injured Ye's servants in Shangri-La. Is it necessary to revenge so frantically?

In order to make a fool of him, even bought YouTube directly? !

At this moment, Donghai still didn't want to believe that Marven's son-in-law would have anything to do with Orgeyon Ye family.

In his mind, he instinctively felt that these were completely two things.

One is that he offended Marven, Marven injured his subordinates, and recorded a cross talk between Liu Guang and Liu Ming;

One was that his subordinates offended the Ye family, and the Ye family protected their calves. Starting from Zak Chen to Ye family, they began to have trouble with them.

It must be a coincidence that these two incidents collided together. It should be that the Ye family saw this video and wanted to use this video to humiliate the Wu family, but found out that they had deleted the video by crisis PR, so they simply put it up again by buying the local YouTube operations.

Eighty-five billion in cash, only they can take it, this boldness is indeed a top big family!

Chapter 744

Even though the Wu family's assets are around 200 billion, the proportion of cash is actually not so much, at most less than 10 billion.

A family is like a family. If a family has 2 million assets, it does not mean that they have 2 million cash. The house may be worth 1.3 million, a car worth 200,000, and Miscellaneous other things are worth two hundred thousand, and finally there are two hundred thousand in cash.

With so many assets and cash, there are only two million.

Therefore, the Wu family has a net worth of 200 billion, and the real cash proportion is not much.

If they were to buy YouTube for 85 billion, they would have to sell nearly half of their assets.

However, the Ye family is different.

No one knows exactly how much assets and cash the Ye family has. In short, they bought things with a lot of money.

The imperial group of 100 billion, buy it when they say buy; the notifications section of 85 billion, buy it when they say it!

Donghai was a little frightened in his heart. The Ye family was so willing to spend the capital to deal with the Wu family. Could it be that they were going to fight the Wu family to the end?

If this is the case, wouldn't the Wu family want to be cool?

Just as he was panicking, there was a roar from far and near in the sky.

The helicopter arranged by his father is here.

This is a heavy civilian helicopter with a large fuselage that can accommodate at least ten people. This time, not only will Donghai and his son be taken away, but also Jones Zizhou's five wastes will be taken away.

Donghai saw that the helicopter had hovered over his head and was slowly descending, his flustered heart eased slightly.

For him, it is more important that nothing goes home now.

For big things, he can wait to go home before slowly discussing solutions.

At this moment, Zak Chen stepped out of the Shangri-La Hotel.

Behind him were dozens of black-clothed bodyguards, with a murderous look on their faces.

Donghai trembled for a while when he saw this scene.

He originally thought that the Ye family might not really want to rip apart with the Wu family, it was likely that Zak Chen was good at making opinions.

However, the news that the Ye Family bought YouTube directly made him realize that this was not Zak Chen's advocacy, but that the entire Ye Family was targeting the Wu Family!

That's why he was flustered, limped up to meet him, nodded and bowed his head and said, "Mr. Zak Chen, we will get out of here. It won't delay you too long. Please forgive me, and I ask you to talk to the Ye family. To say a few good things, thousands of mistakes are all the fault of the Wu family. The Wu family will definitely go to Orgeyon to apologize in a few days. I also ask the Ye family to have a lot of them. Don't be familiar with our kind of rag family... .."

Donghai is really scared.

In order to use a video to humiliate the Wu family, the Ye family can buy YouTube for 85 billion. If the Ye family really wants to kill the Wu family, they don't know what terrifying power they will use!

Zak Chen looked at Donghai coldly at this time, and said contemptuously: "Just you, are you worthy to go to the Ye family to make an apology? Don't look at what you count as a thing!"

Donghai's face suddenly flushed red!

Yes, I don't deserve to visit Ye's house...

At this time, Zak Chen yelled in a cold voice: "Let your helicopter roll further from me, don't fall on my Shangri-La site, otherwise, I will have your helicopter dismantled, and then you and your son's other working limbs!"

Chapter 745

Donghai is about to collapse!

The helicopter is now overhead. Just let it fall, and the people inside will lift up their father and son and these five dead dogs, and they can take off in less than ten minutes, and they can take their son home.

However, Zak Chen was not even willing to give him this convenience!

He couldn't help begging: "Mr. Zak Chen, you don't think our father and son are already miserable enough, so please raise your hands and let us get on the plane back to Suzhou! Your great kindness, Wu will never forget!"

Zak Chen snorted coldly, "It's close to me? You don't take a picture of yourself without soaking urine, is it worth it?"

After speaking, Zak Chen waved his hand: "I have already said what I have said. As long as the plane lands, I will have the pilot pull down and break his leg. Don't want the plane. You and your son, don't want the other leg?"

Donghai was desperate.

He knew that Zak Chen's resolute attitude was absolutely impossible to give himself this face.

So he could only sigh, and tearfully said: "Mr. Zak Chen, wait a minute, I'll call the pilot..."

As he said, he limped to the side and asked for the contact information of the pilot from the general aviation company to get through the phone.

The pilot received his call and hurriedly said: "Hello, Mr. Donghai, I am ready to land now! Please wait a moment!"

Donghai hurriedly said, "Don't land! Shangri-La will not let the plane land here!"

After speaking, he hurriedly asked: "Is there any place to land near here? My son and I have inconvenient legs and feet, and can't be too far away!"

"Oh..." the pilot said embarrassedly: "Mr. Donghai, this is the city. Except for the square at the entrance of Shangri-La, only the apron on the top of the Shangri-La building I can land."

"That won't work either!" Donghai said, "You have to avoid Shangri-La's place."

The pilot said: "This... there is an elementary school two kilometers away. We can apply to land on the playground of that elementary school. This is the nearest place."

"Two kilometers?!" Donghai hesitated.

Both himself and his son were lame, and both their right legs were scrapped and they could not drive the car.

Is it not too far to walk over?

Moreover, there are these five dead dogs as well for them to carry!

Thinking of this, he hurriedly asked: "How many people are there on your plane?"

"Three."

Donghai hurriedly said, "That way, I will give you 10,000 per person. After you land the plane at that elementary school, take a taxi and pick us up. There are seven of us and our legs and feet are not very good."

The other party thought for a while and said, "Okay, Mr. Donghai, wait a moment, we will pick you up after landing."

The helicopter hovered overhead for a moment, then climbed and flew away.

Donghai wiped away tears and said to Zak Chen: "Mr. Zak Chen, are you satisfied now?"

Zak Chen looked at him disgustedly: "Take your son and get out, don't appear in front of me like a fly, ever again!"

Chapter 746

After speaking, Zak Chen turned and left.

Donghai squatted on the spot, crying silently, covering his face.

The dignity of a lifetime has been trampled down today!

What the h*ll does it mean to live for this purpose?

The point is, how can he make up the Ye Family? Even if this hatred is as deep as the sea today, there is no way to repay it.

Is there anything more painful than this?

By the way, there is more!

On the notifications section, the cross talk between the Liu family and his son is still spreading wildly. Now the number of likes has reached more than three million, which is almost all over the Internet...

Ten minutes later, two helicopter pilots and a mechanic rushed over by taxi.

Donghai finally saw the savior of his life.

The three people got him and his son Wuxin in the car first, and then the five dead dogs in the car. The driver pulled them to the primary school playground where the helicopter was parked. The three people got all the seven people in the car. After that, the plane took off in the dark and hurried to Suzhou.

When the Wu family man and his son came to Wrestvel, they came by private jet. They were extremely high-profile and arrogant!

But who could have imagined that when the two of them left, they broke their hands and feet and suffered humiliation, like a bereaved dog!

In the cabin of the plane, Donghai and Wuxin, father and son, looked at the bustling night view of Wrestvel, embracing and crying!

No one thought that this trip to Wrestvel would end in such a bleak situation!

The father and son cried for a long time, and finally eased their emotions. Wuxin clutched his severed hand and said angrily: "Dad, I don't understand. Marven's Rubbish is just the son-in-law of a small family. How come there is such a strong strength, Jones Zizhou and the five of them are not even his opponents!"

As he said, he said angrily: "I don't know why, I always have a feeling that the Ye family is targeting us, not because Jones Zizhou's Rubbish wounded the Shangri-La people, but as if the Ye family was helping Marven assist. same!"

Donghai's expression was pale, and he said, "You think too much! Marven is just a live-in son-in-law with a stronger personal strength. He may have practiced with an expert before, but he is absolutely impossible to have anything to do with the Ye Family! "

Wuxin said: "Then why did the Ye family help him?! And they are all named Ye, are they distant relatives?"

Donghai shook his head and said, "Do you see how well the Ye family protects the calf? Even the security guards and lobby managers do not allow anyone to bully, and they can even turn their faces with the Wu family for this reason! If Marven really belongs to the Ye family A distant relative, how could the Ye family sit back and watch him as the live-in son-in-law in Wrestvel?"

Immediately, Donghai said: "I heard that this Marven was very humiliated in his wife's family. The key point is that his wife's family is not even a third-rate family. If he is really a distant relative of the Ye family, the Ye family must be early So he took action to put his wife's obedience to his family!"

Speaking of this, Donghai regretted it in his heart and blurted out: "If I knew Marven had such a strong personal strength, so I directly mobilized a dozen or twenty masters and killed him at once! This will be done once and for all! There will be so many troubles behind!"

When he mentioned Marven, Wuxin felt bitter in his heart, and hurriedly asked, “Dad, what shall we do with Marven next? Everything today is due to that Marven! If it weren’t for him to abolish With these five wastes of Jones Zizhou, they can’t offend Zak Chen, and the Ye family can’t offend them as well! They definitely can’t spare him!”

Donghai said coldly: “The current situation is already very unfavorable to us. It is not a wise move to deal with Marven now. When we return to Suzhou, we will keep a low profile for a while, and wait for the turmoil to pass, and then consider the long-term plan!”

Wuxin was shocked, and blurted out: “Dad, Marven made our Wu family lose face in front of the people of the whole country, so just forget it?”

Donghai said with a cold face, “How could it be forgotten?! Anyone who dares to offend our Wu family must pay the price of their lives! Marven must be dealt with for severed hand and the dignity of my Wu family, I must let him pay for his bloody hands! Let him die without a place to bury!!”

Chapter 747

Before Marven was cooking, Stephen Thompson called and told him that YouTube local operations have already been bought.

He turned on YouTube and saw that the video has been restored, and it is indeed the first one to open on the screen for all users. The number of likes has grown rapidly, and now it has exceeded 5 million.

This makes him feel happy.

What he want is this feeling!

It seemed that the Wu family was really uncomfortable now.

This video, it will at least hang on YouTube for a while. The Wu family must be uncomfortable, but they definitely have nothing to do.

When the meal was ready, Marven put away his mobile phone and came out of the kitchen with the food. Only then did he discover that his wife Avella had also returned and was sitting in the living room looking at the phone.

Not only Avella was looking at his cell phone, but his father-in-law Dave and his mother-in-law Viola were all looking at the cell phone.

Viola sighed as she watched, “The Liu family and the two masters are really brave, so speaking of the Wu family, can’t the Wu family kill them?”

Avella looked very nervous.

She recognized Liu Ming in the video.

The poor hanging on Liu Ming’s forehead was the one that she watched.

At first, she went to the hot springs with her husband Marven and her girlfriend Elsa. They had a little conflict with Liu Ming in the parking lot. Later, Mr. Orvel suddenly appeared and helped Marven beat Liu Ming severely.

Later, it was also Marven who asked Mr. Orvel to engrave the words “poor hanging” on his forehead.

Now, in the video, Liu Ming’s father had “Father of the Poor hanging” engraved on his forehead. She thought of Marven all of a sudden, and felt that this matter seemed related to Marven.

So, when she saw Marven coming out of the kitchen with food, she hurriedly walked to him and asked him in a low voice, “Marven, tell me the truth, are you conflicting with Liu Ming and his father again?”

“No!” Marven lied: “I haven’t seen them at all!”

“Really?” Avella frowned, remembering that when he saw Marven on Warnia’s Rolls Royce in the kitchen this morning, he couldn’t help feeling jealous again.

So she asked in a low voice, “Then I ask you, when you went out this morning, why was the Miss Song picking you up?”

Marven was stunned, and immediately said seriously: “She came to pick me up because today her grandfather invited me to his birthday banquet.”

“Really?” Avella didn’t quite believe it.

Marven hurriedly said: “Why would I lie to you? Didn’t I tell you that there is a friend who is going to have a birthday, he is the Old Master of the Song family.”

Avella had a taste in her heart and mumbled and asked, “Why is Warnia so good to you? She even drove to the door to pick you up. I think she even gave you the car door. It’s very respectful. Does she like you? Huh?”

“Hey...” Marven laughed and said: “Wife, who is your husband, a rag who doesn’t even have a job, and it’s a fool to show others Feng Shui or something. A few people, but they don’t make the Song family like them? What kind of family is the Song family, the first family in Wrestvel! Think about how they can look at me, not to mention, I am a married person, in the Wrestvel, who doesn’t know me, the soft rice king...”

Avella hurriedly said: “Don’t be so presumptuous of yourself!”

Marven smiled and said: “I didn’t slander myself. Isn’t this all the truth? Many people see me, and they just talk rubbish, rag, eating soft rice, and the son-in-law. Actually, I’ve been used to it for a long time.”

Avella said earnestly: “Anyway, you are my husband, you are not a waste, nor are you eating leftovers.”

Marven nodded and said, “My wife knows how to appreciate me. I think in Wrestvel, the person who appreciates me most is you.”

Chapter 748

After speaking, Marven said again: "So you see, Miss Song, how can she look at rag like me?"

Avella couldn't help saying: "But...but I think she really respects you! She took the initiative to get off the car and open the door for you!"

Marven snorted and said: "She respects me because her grandfather believes in me. Her grandfather is getting older and he believes in Feng Shui fortune and fate more and more, and I am the one he trusts, so he respects me. Naturally, his granddaughter should be polite to me too. If she neglects me, her grandfather will blame her.

Avella nodded slightly.

Marven's explanation seemed to be believable.

Everything can be said and explained.

Thinking of this, she dispelled a lot of doubts in her heart.

In fact, she was in a bad mood all day today.

When shopping with Elsa, she also seemed a little uninterested and worried.

The main reason was that she always felt that Warnia seemed to really mean something to Marven.

Otherwise, a woman has the strongest sixth sense!

She just looked from a distance and felt that Warnia seemed to like Marven.

And it really made her guess right!

Fortunately, Marven's brain reacted quickly, and he immediately dealt with her doubts in her heart.

In fact, Marven knows Warnia's affection for him deep in his heart.

He is not a fool either, he also feels many things, he can see that Warnia must have a heart for him, and this intention is very strong.

Of course, he didn't have any thoughts of betraying Avella, so to Warnia, he had always pretended to be stupid, pretending to be confused.

Fortunately, Warnia was more graceful and restrained, and did not take the initiative to express her feelings to him, so she gave him space to pretend to be confused.

At this time, Avella felt much more relieved and said, "You, don't interact too closely with these upper-class people in the future. When they believe you, they will hold you, and when they don't believe you, they will throw you away. If they lose you, if they really want to throw you, you are likely to suffer a big loss.”

Marven nodded hurriedly and said seriously: “My wife, don’t worry, I will try to keep my distance from them in the future.”

Seeing his sincere attitude, Avella was a little relieved.

At this time, the mother-in-law Viola came over with her mobile phone and muttered impatiently to Marven: “Can’t you still eat? You run out every day without a sh!t, and everything about grocery shopping and cooking is delayed! Me and your dad I’ve been waiting hungry for a long time!”

Marven hurriedly said: “Mom, there is something wrong today, but you can rest assured that I will not delay buying vegetables and cooking in the future.”

“You better remember what you said!” Viola snorted coldly, her face full of discomfort.

In fact, she had always resented Marven for what he asked Lian to donate the money last time.

There were two million in it that belonged to her, but now it was completely lost.

She has no money now, and can’t go out and play with the old sisters. She can only stay at home by herself every day to make her sulking, so Marven is even more unpleasant.

At this time, Dave walked over and suddenly asked, “By the way, Marven, when will our Tomson first-class villa be finished?”

Chapter 749

When Dave asked about the villa, he actually wanted to help Marven.

He knew his wife’s temperament and personality, plus she had recently taken gunpowder, so Dave was also afraid that she would catch Marven, and kept sarcasm at him.

In Dave’s eyes, his son-in-law is really saving his life time and time again, so he now treats Marven as a son-in-law, a real one.

In addition, as the saying goes, a son-in-law is half a son, so when he saw Marven being scolded, he even felt sorry for his son-in-law.

However, when he asked about the villa, Viola’s attention was suddenly attracted!

She looked at Marven and blurted out: “Yeah, when will the villa be renovated and when we can move in? When I move in, I will leave a separate room with a mahjong machine so that it can be occupied by my friends. , I asked my friend to play Mahjong in my villa!”

Marven thought to himself, playing mahjong? Do you have money to lose? Living in a large villa worth more than 100 million, you find someone to come to your house to play mahjong, and then you can’t afford to lose two thousands. Are you not ashamed?

However, he certainly couldn't say this directly to his mother-in-law, that is, he just mocked her in his heart.

Thinking of this, Marven didn't bother to be familiar with his mother-in-law, and said lightly: "I saw Solmon Wang today. He said that the villa is basically covered, but furniture and appliances are missing. If we want to move in, we can buy some furniture. Put home appliances in, and then can move."

"Great!" Dave was very happy when he heard that the villa could be available to live in.

Viola on the side was also very excited, haha laughed and said, "Okay, okay, okay! I'm finally getting rid of this broken house!"

With that, she suddenly recovered.

Buy furniture and appliances? !

What the h*ll!

Didn't the villa have any furniture or appliances? !

All the money made Marven donate the Hope Project, so what kind of purchase can they get? !

Thinking of this, Viola's expression immediately became ugly, and she said coldly: "That Solmon Wang is too much, so expensive villas are given away, furniture and appliances are not provided, let us buy it ourselves?! Why so miser! "

When Avella heard this, she reluctantly said: "Oh, mom, why are you like this? People gifted a villa worth more than 100 million, are you still not satisfied?"

Marven immediately understood Viola's desperate look.

The mother-in-law must be afraid that Avella and Dave will know that she has no money!

Therefore, Marven deliberately said: "Mom, what Solmon Wang gave was a villa, not furniture and appliances. Besides, this furniture and appliances should be selected according to personal preference. If they give it to you, if you don't like it, there will be so many troubles. Where to put the furniture?"

Viola made a strong argument: "Why don't I like the gift? As long as it is free, I like it!"

Dave took the conversation and said, "Oh, it's okay for us to buy the furniture we like. Tomorrow, we will go to the furniture store and take a look. If we have any furniture we like, we don't need the money. Ah, after all, we still have more than two million in our family. Buying some good furniture and home appliances can not use more than one million at most."

Viola panicked suddenly and blurted out: "What to buy? Don't buy it! Let that Solmon Wang give it to us!"

After she finished speaking, she said to Marven annoyed: “You call that Solmon Wang, what the h*ll are you doing? The car is delivered, how can you drive it without adding a tank of gas? Let him be matched and we will move past!”

Marven deliberately said: “Mom, this is not possible. Mr. Wang regrets that he should not give such an expensive villa. He told me in the past two days that he wanted to change to a smaller and more partial villa for me.”

Chapter 750

“What the h*ll?” Viola was anxious, cursing: “What kind of dog thing is this? Can you ask to return the gift from someone?”

Marven opened his hands: “After all, it was something that was given by someone else, even if someone repents and doesn’t want to give it away, what can we do? We can’t compare with Wang’s family!”

Viola said angrily, “How can it be like this! It’s a b@stard to send the villa without the furniture!”

Dave said: “Okay! You should be content too, stop twittering here, take out our money, and buy furniture tomorrow! After buying furniture, I will find a moving company to move next week!”

Viola panicked and said, “No! If you don’t talk about furniture, you can’t move it!”

“What are you talking about?” Dave frowned and asked, “I buy the furniture we use ourselves. What else can I say?”

“I...I...” Viola said in a panic: “I don’t want to buy it! If you want to buy it, you can buy it yourself!”

Dave blurted out: “What nonsense are you talking about, how can I have the money to buy furniture? My son-in-law gave me the money for my dinner party!”

“What?!” Viola blew up all of a sudden, blurted out: “Marven, where did you get the 20,000?!”

Marven said: “Private money.”

“Private money?” Viola said annoyed: “If you eat in our house, live in our house, and use our house, you still dare to hide your private money?! Say, how much private house money you have, all will be kept by me! “

Viola is now insane and desperate to make money. Hearing that Marven has private money, she immediately became greedy!

Marven said indifferently at this time: “Mom, I didn’t save much money for my private house. I just occasionally showed people to see Feng Shui and made some money. Didn’t this I bought two BMWs? I don’t have much money anymore. .”

Viola hurriedly asked, “How much money do you have?”

Marven shrugged: “Maybe there is less than 10,000, seven or eight thousand!”

“Give it to me!” Viola blurted out: “You are not allowed to save a penny of private money in the future!”

Avella couldn't see it anymore, and said coldly, “Mom, why do you always bully Marven for! It's not easy for him to save some money, and it's just a little bit in total. You still wonder if you have More than two million?!”

Viola was speechless.

How can she have more than two million?

So she could only say angrily: “Well, let's move when the time comes. Let's move the old furniture in our house and use it first!”

“Huh?” Dave was stunned, and said, “Do you know how big the villa is? There are three floors above ground and two floors underground. The total area is more than 1,000 square meters. There are more than 100 points in our house. Put this piece of furniture in. What does it show?”

With that, Dave pointed to his own fabric sofa and said: “Just put this broken sofa in a living room of the boss of Tomson. What's the matter? Wouldn't it be an ant riding an elephant?”

Viola was very guilty and made strong words: “You know what a bullsh*t? This saves money! Otherwise, just buy some furniture and appliances for the villa, and it will cost more than one million! Spending so much money is just for vanity? People can't live their lives!”

Dave was stunned...

He has vanity? He can't live? What face does Viola have to say to him like this?
