

The Amazing Son In-Law Chapter 811-820

Chapter 811

Viola observed at the numbers on the cash machine screen, shocked.

At this moment, she felt that the whole world had collapsed.

She was shocked and she didn't understand why Marven had a deposit of more than 20 billion!

"How is this possible? Twenty billion! I am crazy or Marven is crazy! Where did he get so much money?"

Viola's hands are shaking, 20 billion! Not two hundred, not two million!

She had never dreamed of so much money in her life!

Where did Marven get so much money? Could it be that he fooled Bill Gates?

At this moment, Viola's first thought was to call Marven and ask what was going on.

But the next moment, she suddenly realized that it was impossible!

Isn't it exposed when you call?

Before Marven knew it, she had to get as much of his money as possible and get it into his card!

Thinking of this, she immediately clicked on the transfer function and entered her bank account number. Then, when she entered the transfer amount, she hesitated slightly.

After a while, she looked excited, and entered 21,900,000,000 in the amount column!

A total of 21.9 billion, Viola plans to credit all of it to his account.

She didn't bother to worry about how Marven got the money.

But the money was seen by her, it was all her own!

Fighting with the Lady Xiao and Dave for a lifetime, isn't it just for a little money to provide for the elderly?

After the previous two million was gone, she fully understood how painful it was to lose money.

So, now, seeing the money, she has only a strong possessive desire in her heart.

With all this money, what can she worry about in life?

The life that she had never dreamed of before seems to have begun to wave to her.

So, she immediately pressed the confirmation button with emotion.

21.9 billion!

It's all mine!

I, Viola, have a chance to become a billionaire!

At this moment of ecstasy in her heart, a prompt popped up on the screen: "Automated teller machine transfers. The maximum transfer amount in a single day is 1 million, and the maximum cash withdrawal amount in a single day is 100,000. If you need a higher amount of financial Service, please go to the counter with your card!"

"Oh sh!t!"

Viola scolded: "The single-day limit is only 1 million, which is enough to do an egg? You can transfer 365 million away without falling a day! Wouldn't it be better to transfer 21.9 billion away by this method? Won't it take decades!"

Thinking of this, Viola immediately chose to withdraw the card, and then went into the bank with the card!

No, today, no matter what, all the money must be transferred away! So as not to have many dreams at night!

Chapter 812

Viola's style of work is tornadoes, wherever she goes, no penny must be left!

Afterwards, Viola walked towards the bank lobby with excitement.

As soon as she walked in, an enthusiastic young woman said to her: "Hello, what kind of business is going on? I'll help you get an account."

Viola shook the black gold card in her hand and couldn't wait to say: "I want to make a transfer!"

When the young woman saw the black gold card in her hand, she was shocked!

All Citibank staff have undergone professional training before taking up their posts. In the training class, there is a section dedicated to explaining the black gold card!

This black gold card is the highest standard of Citibank. It is limited to one hundred issued in the world, and only five in China!

Everyone holding a black gold card is a super VIP guest of Citibank, no matter it is any executive of Citibank, he will serve him respectfully when he sees it!

She never expected that the legendary Black Gold Card would appear in the second-tier city of Wrestvel!

So she hurriedly stepped forward, bowed very respectfully ninety degrees, and blurted out: “Dear distinguished guest, please follow me to the VIP reception room! I will ask our president to come over and handle the business for you personally!”

When Viola heard that she was a distinguished guest, she immediately felt the strong pleasure of pretending to be successful from her scalp to her toes, so she immediately urged and laughed: “Hurry up and take me over! Neglect me, be careful I let Your president fire you!”

The other party panicked and said hurriedly: “Please don’t be angry, please follow me!”

The young woman invited Viola to the VIP room, and immediately asked the service staff in the VIP room to pour water for Viola, and then ran to the president’s office quickly, and hurriedly pushed the door in without knocking on the door, and said, “President , President! Here is a VIP client!”

The bank president frowned, very dissatisfied with the staff’s act of pushing the door without knocking, and shouted coldly: “What does the fuss look like? If people see it, they think how rough our bank staff are!”

The young woman said breathlessly: “President, the VIPs with black gold cards is here to handle business!”

The president suddenly sat up from the chair, his eyes widened, his breathing was short, and he blurted out and asked, “What? Say it again!”

The young woman said, “The Black Gold VIP guest is here! She is in the VIP room! Come and take a look!”

“My God!” The governor felt a whirlwind feeling: “The VIP of the Black Gold Card? Are you sure it is the Black Gold Card? Only five of the gadgets have been issued nationwide, and I have never seen the real thing!”

“I’m sure!” the young woman said confidently: “We talked about the black gold card during our training. I will definitely not read it wrong!”

The manager hurriedly straightened his collar and quickly got up and ran out.

Black gold card VIP, that is the VIP of VIPs, the super VIP of VIP, who has this card, who is not a super rich person worth hundreds of billions?

It is said that the five cards issued nationwide are all given to top families, one each for the three top families of Orgeyon and the two top families of Zhonghai, and there is no more!

Don’t know which family member came with the black gold card today? Ye family, Su family, or Zhonghai Xue family? Or the other two families?

The president rushed to the VIP room, opened the door respectfully, and saw Viola sitting on the sofa.

At this time, Viola had the illusion of the Empress, arrogantly tilting her legs.

At the thought of immediately becoming a super rich with 21.9 billion in cash, Viola was so excited that she almost became incontinent.

The president could not see the depth of Viola, but he also recognized the black gold card in her hand, so he hurriedly stepped forward, bowed and said, "Hello, honorable black gold card guest, I am the president of the bank. Li Dongtao, you just call me Dongtao."

Viola gave an arrogant hum, and said contemptuously: "Oh, Dongtao, you just came here, I want to transfer money, but you sh!t ATMs say I can only transfer one million a day, it's not the f*ck What about bullshit? I have more than 20 billion in Kali, and can only transfer 1 million a day. Can I transfer it till death?"

Dongtao hurriedly apologized and said, "Dear distinguished guest, I'm really sorry. This ATM is for ordinary people to put it bluntly. Think about it, it's just a boxy machine with limited capacity. If you put it to death, you can't put a lot of money. How can it match your status as a VIP of the Black Gold Card?"

As he said, he hurriedly complimented: "A super VIP like you, to any Citibank, as long as you show the black gold card, it is the top VIP treatment. The president personally entertains you, how can we stand your noble body? Operate in front of the ATM!"

Chapter 813

Hearing what Dongtao said, Viola felt a lot of comfort immediately.

It turns out that ATMs are for ordinary people!

Hahaha, ordinary people, aren't they just poor people?

This Dongtao is right. Like herself, a super rich who is about to have tens of billions of assets, how can her distinguished body stand in front of an ATM to operate that sh!t?

Thinking of this, Viola stretched happily and said to Dongtao: "Yes, Dongtao, you have a future!"

"Where you award, you passed the award!" President Dongtao respectfully said: "If you want to handle the transfer business, I can do it for you personally."

After speaking, he immediately sat opposite Viola and turned on the computer dedicated to the VIP room.

After the computer was turned on, he asked Viola: "Madam, which account and how much are you going to transfer to?"

Viola took out a bank card of her own, handed it to him together with the black gold card, and opened her mouth: "From this premium card, transfer me 21.9 billion to this Wang ICBC card. in!"

Dongtao was so frightened that he almost urinated.

"Madam...Are you sure you want to transfer 21.9 billion?!"

Viola nodded, and said impatiently: "Yes, what the h*ll, I have to do it quickly, have you heard it? Otherwise, I will smash your bank!"

Dongtao swallowed, and subconsciously took the premium card, put the chip up and inserted it into the card reader, and then said to Viola: "Please enter your password."

Viola raised her hand and entered Marven's lunar birthday on the password keyboard.

The password is correct.

Later, Dongtao also saw the account balance, which was indeed more than 21.9 billion.

He was shocked in his heart.

Unexpectedly, a middle-aged woman who took out a black gold card would have more than 20 billion in it. What a woman!

However, he is just the president of a small branch in Wrestvel, and his authority is not enough to check the identity of the owner of the black gold card, so he doesn't know whose name the card is issued for.

But the black gold card is like this.

Most people cannot find out the true identity of the owner of the black gold card. As long as someone withdraws money from the black gold card, there is no need to ask how much to withdraw, because the privacy of the black gold card owner must be fully respected.

Moreover, the black gold card is never afraid of stealing it.

Because in this world, no matter how courageous a thief is, he will retract his hand in shock when he sees the black gold card.

Once someone steals the black gold card and steals the money in the card, with the strength of the black gold card owner, this person is absolutely lifeless to spend the money.

This is the same as if the credit card amount of a rich person is extremely high, but without a password.

For those who are rich, there is no need to set a password on a credit card. Whoever dares to steal it, the bank and the police are the first to let him go.

The black gold card of Marven was sent to him by Darren, and the password was set at the beginning. Because this card was rarely used, Marven never changed the password.

When Darren gave this card to Marven, the password of the card was Marven's birthday in the lunar calendar, and Viola guessed it by mistake.

Now, Viola wants to take away all the money in this card.

Because Dongtao did not have the authority to check the identity of the card owner, he could not determine who Viola was. Moreover, out of respect for the owner of the black gold card, he could only do business.

Thinking of this, he complimented: "Are you sure you want to transfer 21.9 billion to this ICBC card, right?"

Viola said impatiently: "I'm sure, what are your ink marks? Hurry up!"

Dongtao was taken aback and nodded hurriedly and said, "Okay, I'll help you handle it!"

Afterwards, he immediately entered Viola's account on the computer.

After confirming that it was correct, he clicked Confirm, and then said to Viola: "Please enter your password again to confirm."

Viola can't wait to enter the password.

Chapter 814

Dongtao said immediately: "I am reminding that the money has been transferred out."

Viola hurriedly turned on the phone, opened her mobile bank, went in and took a look, and asked in surprise, "Why haven't it arrived?"

Dongtao hurriedly said: "Don't worry, this is 21.9 billion after all. The banking system has to repeatedly confirm such a large amount and report it to the central bank for the record, so it will take a while to get the account."

Viola was a little impatient, and asked: "Are you f*cking bullshitting with me? Have to wait? How long will it take?!"

Dongtao said: "This is uncertain. If it is fast, it will take tens of minutes, if it is slow, it will be up to one working day."

Viola said angrily: "Why is it going to take so long! Let it be faster, or I will let you Citibank fire you!"

Dongtao said helplessly: "This is not something I can control, it's the central bank's decision. Even if you go to the court to sue me, I can't help it..."

Viola saw that Dongtao was indeed unable to affect this speed, and said angrily: "I knew it was so slow. I would transfer a million first, and then transfer the rest. I am really mad at myself now!"

Dongtao hurriedly said, "You can wait here for a while and have a look."

She was already scratching her heart at this time.

21.9 billion!

She felt uncomfortable when the account arrived one second late.

But she has no other way, she can only wait.

So she said coldly: "I'm waiting here, go and pour me a cup of coffee! Want the best one!"

Dongtao hurriedly said: "I'll go and pour it for you!"

.....

At this moment.

After Marven came out of the kitchen, Dave waved at him, smiled and said, "Good son-in-law, come sit down and have a cup of tea."

"Okay." There was no one at home, and Marven didn't be polite with Dave, so he sat directly in front of him.

Dave hurriedly poured him a cup of tea, and said with a smile: "Oh, thanks to your blessing, I have the opportunity to sit in this big villa and drink tea. Come and taste it."

Marven nodded, smiled and said, "Thank you Dad."

After speaking, he picked up the teacup and took a bite, shaking his head secretly.

Dave really didn't have much money, and he lived relatively cheaply. The tea was worth up to three hundred a kilogram, and he still enjoyed drinking it.

Dave smiled and said at this time: "This tea is a good thing. I secretly bought it from the granddaughter of a tea farmer on WeChat. It was 5,000 a kilogram. I was not willing to buy more, so I bought two taels. I usually don't want to drink it. "

Marven asked in surprise: "The tea farmer's granddaughter? It's not the grandfather who is sick and has no money to see a doctor, and sells his top-quality tea cheaply?"

"Oh, how do you know?" Dave smiled and said: "Good tea is also to be picked up, and the opportunity is rare. If you drink it well, I will get you some when I look back."

Marven sighed helplessly, and said, "Dad, you have cheated people. Those are all routines, not true."

"How is it possible?" Dave said with a serious face, "I'm so good with little girls! There are still many videos and photos in the circle of friends."

Marven smiled and said, "It's all fabricated fake materials. Maybe it's a big guy who is talking with you."

When speaking, Marven also secretly thought in his heart that Dave had indeed had a hard time, he had never seen any good things.

The tea that he drank with his father when he was young was not sold by two pounds, but by grams, and no tea was cheaper than gold.

However, this kind of good thing, father-in-law must have never tasted it. It seems that he has a chance to make some good tea for him, so that he will also have a long experience.

At this moment, his mobile phone suddenly received a text message.

“Dear Mr. Marven, your black gold card account was successfully transferred out of RMB 21,900,000,000.00 at 15:02 today.”

Marven frowned when he saw this text message.

Chapter 815

Marven, who had always been calm, couldn't help being dumbfounded when he saw this short breath!

In his Citibank Black Gold Card, there are a total of a little over 21.9 billion in deposits.

Among them, when Darren first sent the card, there were 10 billion in it;

Then he pitted Kobayashi Pharmaceutical twice. The first time he pitted Kobayashi's president Masao Kobayashi for 10 billion. After his death, Masao Kobayashi pitted his second son for a billion;

A few days ago, Mr. Song gave him another one-billion-dollar card. He had nowhere to deal with it, so he put the money into this card.

The total revenue is 22 billion.

But I didn't spend a lot of money, so in total he still has 21.9 billion plus tens of millions of change.

Now they were transferred away at 21.9 billion. Who did it? !

The first thing he thought of was the Ye Family.

Could it be that he was reluctant to return to Ye's house for so long, and that Ye's family took back the money in his card?

Then the big family won't take away his own money, right?

Ye family is unlikely, then it might be stolen!

However, the black gold card is said to have very powerful chip encryption and the possibility of forgery is extremely low, so it is possible that the card has been stolen!

Thinking of this, he immediately put down his teacup and walked to the second floor.

Dave hurriedly asked, “Marven, where are you going? Great tea, go after drinking?”

Marven waved his hand: "Dad, I have something urgent to deal with. I will get you some real good tea to taste."

After speaking, the person ran up the stairs.

Dave sighed and sighed: "Hey, this kid, you don't know how to drink such good tea. What kind of real good tea can you make for me? Don't let people fool you and burn you up."

Marven rushed back to the room at this time, the first thing was to look for his black gold card in his coat.

Some coats, sure enough!

d*mn it.

This is a bit of a pull.

The security of Tomson Villa is so good, who can steal his card?

Besides, if they steal the card, they don't know the password! The password is his birthday, even if they try, it must be someone who knows him before they have the chance to try it out...

At this time, a familiar face suddenly popped out of his mind.

Viola!

It's definitely her!

When Marven thought of this, his expression immediately went cold.

"Okay, you usually make a bad habit, just forget it, and steal the money?"

The point is, she is so bold! 21.9 billion, she is not scared after seeing it? Her heart is so dark!

Thinking of this, he immediately took out his cell phone and called Darren.

On the other side of the phone, Darren's old and steady voice came: "Mr. Ye what's your order?"

Marven said coldly: "My black gold card is stolen, and the money inside is also taken away."

Darren hurriedly asked, "Mr. Ye how many are there in total?"

Marven said: "21.9 billion!"

"So many?!" Darren was surprised. It didn't take long for the 10 billion to be given to Marven, how could it become 21.9 billion so quickly? The speed of making money is impressive, Mr. Ye is too awesome, right?

However, he was not overly surprised, but hurriedly and professionally judged: "So much money is transferred out, the central bank will definitely check it first. That is to say, the money is now out of your card to the central bank's settlement center. After the approval, the money will be released to the other party. The amount is so large that it will probably take at least an hour. Mr. Ye how long has your money been out?"

Marven said: "A few minutes, not too long."

Chapter 816

Darren breathed a sigh of relief and said, "That's good, the Ye family cooperates very closely with the central bank. I say hello, and the money will be returned to your card."

"Okay." Marven also relieved a little.

Two minutes after hanging up the phone, Marven received another text message on his cell phone:

"Dear Mr. Marven, RMB 21,900,000,000.00 will be credited to your Black Gold Card account at 15:06 today."

Marven breathed a sigh of relief when the money came back.

But then another serious problem came to mind.

Viola stole his card.

Tried out his own password.

She also saw the amazing balance in his card.

If Avella knew about this incident, how to explain it to her? !

Thinking of this, Marven's expression grew colder.

Viola, thinking that she is Avella's mother. He has endured her for so long, but she is really playing too much today.

He must not let her go easily today!

So he immediately called Zak Chen again.

On the other end of the phone, Zak Chen's voice rang respectfully: "Mr. Ye what's your order?"

Marven said angrily: "My mother-in-law died, stole my black gold card, and ransacked me 21.9 billion. I am going to teach her a lesson. Please help me contact the relevant department and cooperate."

Zak Chen said immediately, "Mr. Ye please give me your orders!"

Marven immediately informed Zak Chen of his arrangements, and said: "You must make arrangements for me, don't go on a business trip, understand?"

"Understood Master!"

Citibank VIP room.

Viola refreshed her mobile banking over and over again.

In mobile banking at this time, there was only a pitiful 0.32.

All she was thinking about was that the 21.9 billion hurriedly arrive, so that she could instantly reach the pinnacle of her life!

However, after brushing for a long time, ten minutes passed, and the money has not arrived yet.

She couldn't help being a little irritable, and was about to scold that Dongtao, when she suddenly received a call from a friend.

"Hey, Viola, are you going to make a face tomorrow? We are going to form a group and go together."

Viola disdainfully said, "Making face? What kind of face? What kind of face do I have, and making faces with you? What the h*ll do you think?"

The voice of the other party immediately changed: "What do you mean by talking that way?"

Viola sneered: "What do I mean? I tell you that going to a beauty salon to do facials is what people like you do, and I want to buy the beauty salon directly and serve me alone. I will not follow you in the future. This kind of person draws a line!"

The other party said in disbelief: "Viola, are you crazy? Just you, and you still bought the beauty salon? Are you dreaming!"

Viola shook her head and said with a sense of superiority: "I have nothing to say with you, poor, I tell you, Viola is now different from what I used to be. You can't imagine the money I have in this life."

The other party sneered and said, "I think you should take medicine!"

After speaking, she directly hung up the phone.

Viola didn't care when she was hung up. Now she's floating all over, like this kind of poor friend, don't need to touch her, if she sees her in the future. .

So she drank a sip of the top Blue Mountain coffee and watched Dongtao scolded: "Hurry up, do it faster! This Lady's money hasn't arrived yet, what are you doing? Believe it or not, I'll call you tomorrow. Don't do it?"

Dongtao was very annoyed by Viola's arrogant attitude, but he could only bite the bullet and said: "Madam, please wait a moment, the central bank will take time to deal with it!"

Viola said unreasonably: "I don't care about your sh!t reasons, you can find out what happened there, otherwise I will just give millions to kill you!"

Chapter 817

Dongtao was frightened by Viola, and could only say helplessly: "Then I will help you look at our progress. If it has been reported to the central bank, I can't find the rest."

Viola was anxious, so she splashed coffee on his face and cursed: "Hurry up, what's this all? Your mother is going to die!"

Dongtao was screaming when he was hot on face. Fortunately, the coffee was not very hot, otherwise he would have to be disfigured.

He was furious, but he really didn't dare to provoke such a big woman, so he could only humbly say: "Wait a minute, I will help you see the progress."

After that, after entering the system and checking, he said in surprise: "No! This money shows that the central bank has returned it."

"What is it? Where did you go?"

Dongtao said: "Your black gold card has been returned to the account."

"What?" Viola slapped Dongtao when she went up, cursing: "What's the matter with you b@stard? Why is my money returned again?!"

Dongtao, an Old Master who was aggrieved, cried and cried, "Madam, I really don't know...this is returned by the central bank, not by me... ."

"f*ck your mother!" Viola slapped the table and yelled, "Hurry up and transfer it to me again! Maybe I will break this bank!"

At this time, Viola was full of hurriedly getting the 21.9 billion. Even if her mother stood in front of her, she would kick away without hesitation.

She thought that the money was coming soon, but she never dreamed that the central bank returned the money again. What the h*ll? Cheating?

At this moment, there was a rush of footsteps outside the VIP room.

Immediately afterwards, the door was kicked open. A group of police officers with guns and live ammunition quickly rushed in and asked: "Who used the black gold card to transfer the money just now?!"

Dongtao was frightened, and pointed to Viola tremblingly and said: "This lady, is there any problem?"

The police ignored him and said directly to Viola: "What's your name?"

When Viola saw the police coming, she was shocked and panicked.

what happened? Marven called the police?

I am his mother-in-law! Should it be illegal for a mother-in-law to take money from her son-in-law?

Just when she was stunned, the police questioned again: "What is your name!"

"I...I..." Viola said flusteredly: "My name is Viola..."

The police said coldly: "Viola, right? You are now officially arrested by us for being suspected of participating in a major bank fraud case!"

After that, he shouted to the two people around him: "Handcuff me and take it away!"

When Viola heard this, her face paled in fright, and she blurted out: "Police officer, misunderstanding, I just came to transfer the account, the card is not mine, and I have not defrauded the bank!"

Officer said coldly: "Let's say these things when you arrive in the interrogation room. As servants of the people, we will not wrong any good person, but we will never let any bad person go."

Chapter 818

Viola hurriedly shouted: "This card is not mine, this card belongs to my son-in-law, and my son-in-law's name is Marven! Are you misunderstanding?"

Officer said coldly: "I'm telling you, this card was forged by an overseas high-tech criminal group! It was specially used to defraud banks of huge amounts of money! This transnational case, we have joined the International Criminal Police Organization of 23 countries and it has been investigated. It's been two years, and now it's finally time for you, the fox, to show the feet! Now that the evidence is there, you still dare to quibble?!"

Viola suddenly collapsed!

d*mn, that card is forged? !

"He just said it!"

Marven, this d*mn stinky silk, how could he have 21.9 billion so much money!

It turned out to be a f*cking lie!

The point is, listening to the police, this card seems to be involved in a major transnational case? !

Joint tracing by Interpol in 23 countries? This battle is too big, right? If they really think she did it, they can't shoot her?

Thinking of this, Viola knelt on the ground with a puff, and tremblingly cried: "Comrades, you really wronged me. I'm an ordinary law-abiding citizen. This card was given to me by my d*mn son-in-law, the son-in-law is idle all day long and is cheated everywhere. You must catch him and give me my innocence!"

After she finished speaking, she hurriedly said: "This Marven is now in Tomson Villa a05. Go and take him away. It's better to sentence him to life imprisonment! I don't like to see this b@stard again in my life.!"

The leading policeman snorted coldly: "You are shaking the pot quickly! We don't know Marven, we only know that you used this card. You used this card to defraud Citibank 219. Fortunately, we discovered it early and intercepted the transfer in time. Otherwise, you would succeed! You will wait to sit in prison this time!"

Viola collapsed completely, and she slumped on the ground and cried loudly: "Comrade police, I am really innocent, I am wronged!"

Just as she was talking, a cup of tea was suddenly poured on Viola's face. Dongtao rushed up and kicked Viola to the ground with a single kick. Then he rushed up crazy and slammed her face, shouting hysterically. "d*mn, you liar, I'm also a bank leader, you screamed at me, poured coffee on my face, and slapped me in the face, I'll kill you!"

The two young policemen hurriedly pulled Dongtao away, when Viola was already bloodied and terrible.

The police headed at this time said: "Okay, take the people in the car and go back to the bureau for the trial!"

Viola, with a blood-stained face, was dragged by two policemen, her legs slid on the ground, and her mouth was crazy and shouted in a torn voice: "I'm wronged! The card is not mine! The card is Marven's. b@stard! What are you doing with me? Why don't you catch that b@stard?"

The people in the whole bank lobby were staring at this scene dumbfounded. Viola couldn't care about the embarrassment. The wow-wow rusher shouted: "Help! I was wronged! You must testify for me! "

Everyone froze, testify? What proof do they know her?

At this time, the policeman leading the team said coldly: "I tell you, even if you have a skyrocket, it's useless! When you arrive at the police station, there is a longer interrogation waiting for you. I advise you to keep your strength!"

The blood-stained Viola was like a Rakshasa, desperately breaking free from the restraint of the police and the handcuffs, and shouted: "Let me make a call! I want to call my daughter! Let my daughter bring the liar over to accept the crime. Turn yourself himself in, then you will know that I am innocent!"

The policeman took the phone out of her pocket directly and said coldly: "You are the main suspect in a major transnational criminal case. During our interrogation and handling of the case, you have no right to contact anyone!"

After that, he turned off Viola's cellphone and shouted to the two policemen who were dragging her: "Hurry up and get her in the car, hurry up!"

The two of them moved directly to the left and right, lifted Viola, carried her out of the bank lobby, and stuffed it into the back seat of the police car.

Immediately, a group of police cars roared to the police station!

Chapter 819

Wrestvel Police Station.

As soon as Viola arrived, she was directly taken to the crime team for interrogation.

Seeing the words "criminal group", Viola trembled in shock.

Being taken all the way to the interrogation room of the police station, Viola had already panicked and was about to collapse, and the whole body was no longer arrogant, like a cock that was defeated.

In the interrogation room, the incandescent light shone on Viola's face.

Sitting on the opposite side were several police officers from the crime team.

One of them said coldly to Viola: "The criminal suspect, Viola, you are now the first suspect and the only suspect of an overseas high-tech criminal gang. You must truthfully explain your criminal process, otherwise, what is waiting for you will be is a just trial."

At this moment, Viola immediately started crying: "Comrade, you caught the wrong person, Marven is the suspect...No, he is a criminal, I am a good citizen who abides by the law, the card I stole it from his pocket, not me."

The police officer frowned and said, "You said it was your son-in-law, will we believe it? It's stuck on you, and you took it to the bank to withdraw money. You are the biggest suspect!"

Another police officer beside him sneered and said: "I see this Viola, because the situation has been revealed, do you want to pull son-in-law to top the bag?"

After that, he observed at Viola and said coldly: "You can even do such a frenzied thing. It's too inhuman, right?"

Viola shouted wronged: "What I said is true. My son-in-law Marven is really a liar. He is best at scams and abductions, and he is definitely a criminal!"

The police officer slapped the table and said angrily: "I think you are the criminal! I'll say it again, be lenient in confession and strict in resistance."

Viola cried anxiously: "Comrade police, I have already confessed...If half of what I said is false, I will be thundered!"

The policeman shouted angrily: "This is the police station, do you think it is a temple? Give me a swear to the heavens? I tell you! Hurry up and explain your upper family, next family, and accomplices, and link your organization's crime chain Let me explain everything clearly! Now the International Criminal Police of 23 other countries require you to be taken back to the country for investigation. If you resist to the end, we will hand you over to the US police and let them take you to the US for interrogation. Let me tell you that the American police are very violent in law enforcement. They often use torture to extract confessions. Say it all for your own blessings!"

Viola wailed in fright: "Police officer, I was really wronged. How can I go to my next home? I stole a bank card from my son-in-law, and then I was arrested here, please. Don't hand me over to the American police..."

The police officer stood up and said to others: "The criminal Viola has a rampant attitude. She refuses to explain the crimes of forging bank cards and transnational fraud. First, put her in the detention center and wait for further investigation."

Viola was frightened and cried, and went straight to the ground, and started to splash: "If I don't go to the detention center, you can't wrong the good people. If you wrong me, I will die with you!"

The police officer looked at Viola, who was lying on the ground and reluctant to get up, and said coldly: "Put her up for me and close the detention center directly!"

"Yes!"

The others immediately set up Viola like a dead pig, and it was useless for Viola to cry for father and mother, and sent directly to the Wrestvel City Detention Center.

.....

There are three detention centers in Wrestvel, which specialize in administrative and criminal detention, as well as prisoners who have not yet been tried or have a short sentence.

After the trial, prisoners with longer sentences are directly transferred to prison to serve their sentences.

Chapter 820

The three detention centers in Wrestvel perform their duties. One is dedicated to detaining male suspects, one is dedicated to detaining female suspects, and the other is dedicated to detaining juvenile detainees.

After the four members of the Xiao family were arrested in the afternoon, they were sent to two detention centers.

The Old Mrs. Xiao and Theresa went to the women's detention center, while Noah and Jay went to the men's detention center.

When she first entered the cell, Mrs. Xiao was still very uncomfortable. After being locked in, she sat on a simple bed, thinking about her experience during this time.

During this period of time, it was the greatest catastrophe for Mrs. Xiao and the Xiao family. Mrs. Xiao's life's hard work and coffins were all sealed by the court, and her son refused to let her live in the Tomson Villa, and called her to the police. Grasping the prison, these things made her think more and more angrily.

Sitting cross-legged on the cot, thinking of the painful place, she slapped the bed in despair, crying loudly: "What a sin I have done, my family is bankrupt, my son doesn't support me, and my daughter-in-law has sent me to the detention center, this goddamn unfilial son! This is to make me die in the detention center!"

Theresa sat aside, also angry and sad, and cried and said, "Grandma, Second Uncle never used to be like this. He used to obey you and never dared to resist. Why is he so cruel now..."

Old Mrs. Xiao coldly snorted, and said angrily: "It's not Viola's vixen who suffered a thousand swords! This vixen has been uneasy since she got married to our Xiao family. If it weren't for her to stop him this time, second uncle I guess I agreed to let us live in!"

With that said, the Lady Xiao felt sad again, wiped a cloud of tears, and cried: "I'm really too fateful. When I go there and meet the Old Master, if he knows I was forced by my daughter-in-law Dead, don't know how much he feel sorry for me..."

The grandfather and grandson were in the prison cell, mourning in their hearts and crying.

Because the Lady Xiao is too old, the inmates in the same cell rarely see anyone who is still in the detention center at such an age, so they came to inquire curiously.

Among them was a tall and strong middle-aged woman who had been squatting in this cell for three months. She was the boss of this cell. She walked up to her and asked, "Lady Xiao, is your daughter-in-law so bad? Put you in the detention center? What is going on?"

"Yeah, what's the matter? Tell us about it?"

When someone asked questions, other prisoners in the cell also gathered in front of Mrs. Xiao.

They were originally a group of old ladies who love gossip, and their favorite gossip is the short stories of the parents, so they all hurriedly came to the front, pricked their ears, and waited to hear the following.

At this time, Mrs. Xiao had nowhere to vent the evil fire that was holding her stomach.

Hearing so many people coming to inquire, she cried and cried: "I tell you, my life is really bitter! My daughter-in-law is simply not human, she and her shameless Rubbish son-in-law, constantly Framed us, made us a big family in Wrestvel with a big face, step by step pushing us to bankruptcy, let us owe a debt, even our house was taken away by the court.”

The fat woman said coldly: “Why is there such a bad person?”

Old Mrs. Xiao flushed suddenly, and said angrily: “They are so bad, they are so bad!”

“My grandchildren and I were driven out by the court to be homeless, but their family bought a Tomson first-class villa, worth more than one billion!”

“Our family has nowhere to go, but their family of four sleeps in more than a dozen bedrooms!”

“I thought they were my own sons and daughters-in-law. No matter what, they wouldn’t see me living on the street? So I went to run to them. Who knows, they not only beat me, scolded me, kicked me, but also called the police. Saying that I broke into the homes and provoked troubles, and let the police arrest us all!”

As soon as the fat woman heard this, she clenched her fists and said angrily: “I, Gena, hate the b@stard who disrespects the elderly the most in my life! If it weren’t for my brother-in-law, my mother-in-law, my mother could not commit suicide by drinking pesticide! So I was sentenced to ten months in detention because after my mother died, I blasted my brother-in-law!”

Speaking of this, Gena’s eyes were already filled with anger and tears. She gritted her teeth and said: “Lady Xiao, don’t cry. If I have a chance to see your daughter-in-law, I will hammer her to death for you!”
