

The Amazing Son In-Law Chapter 861-870

Chapter 861

Shangri-La's meal was a joy for the guests. Marven's father-in-law was naturally very happy, and Meiqing was also in a very good mood. Her husband passed away some time ago, and she has been a little sad. At this time, it feels like the rain has passed the day. .

Paul looked very pleased when he saw his mother in such a good mood.

As for Marven, he just hit the Old Master who felt sorry for him.

Because Meiqing is so good, he can't imagine how many old men in Wrestrvel will pursue her crazy after such a beautiful, temperament, single and golden Lady Xiao returns to Wrestrvel. It is estimated that the old man will only be troubled in the future. Increase, not decrease.

The mother and son came to China on the plane for so long, and their bodies were already a little tired, so after dinner, Dave and Marven sent them to the room they had opened in Shangri-La without too much interruption.

When he arrived at the guest room department, Dave was again irritated, because Meiqing and her son both opened super luxurious executive suites.

Shangri-La's luxurious executive suite is second only to the presidential suite. It can accommodate four people and the rent per night is tens of thousands. It can be said to be very luxurious. You can live in this type of room if you can go out, and it's a set per person. The financial capacity of Meiqing's family is very strong.

After bidding farewell, Marven and Dave left the hotel together.

As soon as he left the hotel door, Dave couldn't help but take a deep breath, then he couldn't help but sigh again.

Marven sighed with emotion when he saw him next to him, and couldn't help asking: "Dad, what are you sighing for?"

Dave said with a sad face: "I really didn't expect it. I really didn't expect Meiqing to have such a good life in the United States. I didn't expect that their family even had a law firm of their own. Compared with her, I am really useless..."

Marven smiled slightly and comforted: "Dad, I don't think Aunt has any intention of despising you, and Aunt is really low-key and very humble. She is definitely not that kind of special material woman. Don't worry too much about these material gaps."

Dave sighed, and said helplessly: "I understand what you are saying, but as a man, I always feel that such a face is particularly shameful."

Marven said with a smile: "Dad, you think too much. Look at me. When Avella and I got married, I had nothing. I wanted money without money, status without status, ability without ability, status without status. At that time, the gap between me and Avella was much larger than the gap between you and Aunt, but Avella didn't get along well with me?"

Dave was stunned suddenly, and after thinking about it carefully, it was really true.

He thinks so much now, it doesn't make any sense, because with his current ability and current family background, it is impossible to surpass Meiqing.

Is it because he can't surpass her, he can never be with her?

of course not!

Dave could see that after so many years, Meiqing still has feelings for him, and she also said when she was at the airport, even if she was riding a 28 bicycle to pick him up, she would not have any opinion.

This is enough to see that Meiqing doesn't care about material things.

Thinking of this, he finally breathed a sigh of relief.

But then, another problem came to his mind.

Chapter 862

He suddenly turned his head and looked at Marven, and asked worriedly: "Marven, do you think your mother can come back in this life?"

Marven couldn't help but asked him awkwardly: "Do you think I should say yes? Or not?"

Dave was startled slightly, and said in embarrassment, "Hey, in fact, I know that you have very big opinions on your mother just like me in your heart, right?"

Marven said hurriedly, "Dad, I haven't said this before!"

Dave hurriedly said: "Let's talk, you don't have to hide with me. After all, Avella is not here, what can we say, can't you?"

Marven knew what Dave was thinking.

He must be looking for a comrade in arms now.

Because he didn't want his mother-in-law to come back, but his wife was very eager to find her mother to return home as soon as possible.

Therefore, a psychological confrontation formed between the father and daughter.

The current situation is 1:1, and he acts as a neutral party, so now the Old Master urgently needs to win him over.

After all, there are only three people left in a family. If two people want that woman not to come back, then his psychological appeal will take the lead.

So, he looked at Marven and further induced: "Marven, your mother has scolded you every day for the past few years, and even asked Avella to divorce you repeatedly. I see it all! To be honest, Many times, as an Old Master, I feel sad for you. As the saying goes, a son-in-law is half a son! When did you mother treat you as half a son? You are not as good as an outsider in her heart! "

Marven looked at Dave with a sincere face, and said seriously: "Dad, mom will come back or not, it doesn't depend on whether we two want her back, even if neither of us wants her back, she might be there tonight. Suddenly return home, maybe even when Aunt is cooking, she suddenly rush into the kitchen to fight with Aunt. The legs are on Mom's body. If we really want to come back, we can't stop her. Can we?"

In fact, Marven himself can decide everything about Viola, but he can only say that to Dave.

As soon as Marven said this, Dave's face immediately became extremely frightened. He looked at Marven and asked with a trembling voice: "You said this would not be so coincidental? Ask your Aunt to eat at home tonight, if Your mother suddenly came back at this time, and the house must be fried. According to your mother's character, she is going to kill people..."

Seeing that Dave was so frightened and worried, Marven hurriedly said: "Dad, I don't think Mom will be back tonight, so please feel free to invite Aunt to home for dinner."

Dave was said to be scared by him, and blurted out, "How can you be sure that your mother won't come back? Like you just said, the legs are on her body. What if she does come back? "

Marven, in his panic now, smiled calmly and said: "Don't worry, Dad, I promise you that Mom will not come back tonight. If she comes back tonight, I will turn her head off and kick her for you."

Dave hurriedly said: "Oh, I don't want her head. I want your Aunt to be able to eat a meal in our house with peace of mind."

After that, Dave said again: "I thought of a good way, good son-in-law, you must help me!"

Marven smiled and asked, "Dad, tell me, what is the good way? What do you want me to do?"

Dave hurriedly said: "After your Aunt arrives in the afternoon, I will lock the door of the villa from the inside. In the meantime, if your mother comes back, you will go out and help me with it. You are strong, even if you carry her, You have to carry her away. If you can't carry her, you will knock her out! In any case, you must never let her come in and meet your Aunt!"

Chapter 863

Marven had never thought that his old man would be such a devil before.

But he can also understand the feelings of the Old Master.

After all, his first girlfriend that he haven't seen for more than 20 years, and she is still so perfect now. If she were his own, she would not dare to make any mistakes in this matter.

Moreover, Viola's character is indeed a super time bomb. Once such a person initiates a fire, it is possible that the power of nuclear weapons will really burst out.

So there is nothing wrong with him being so cautious.

But he didn't know that Viola was currently in the detention center, suffering from inhuman torture. If she didn't nod her head, she would never come out.

Dave and son-in-law drove home, and Avella had just returned.

Upon seeing her, Marven hurriedly asked: "My wife, have you gone to the police station? What did the police say, is there any news about mom?"

Avella's face was a little pale and said: "The police told me that they have issued a notice of assistance in the whole city, and even communicated with the person in charge of the Blue Sky Rescue Team, but the current feedback is that no one has seen her. I couldn't find any clues about her whereabouts."

Viola was taken away by the police directly when she was withdrawing money from the bank. Zak Chen had already said hello, so it was definitely impossible for them to reveal any clues.

And when Viola was at the bank, she was always in the VIP reception room, so in the process, she didn't contact any outsiders at all. Zak Chen at the bank also said hello, so the outside world could not have any clues. Blue sky It is impossible for the rescue team to find her.

He comforted Avella and said, "My wife, don't worry. Mom hasn't been missing for more than 24 hours. We can wait a little longer."

Dave on the side also hurriedly agreed: "Yes, Avella, your mother only went out yesterday afternoon, and now it's barely a day and a night, so I don't think you need to worry too much."

Avella shook her head and resolutely said: "No, I must go and look for her again, otherwise I will always feel uneasy."

After speaking, she looked at Marven and blurted out: "Marven, you will help me look around in the afternoon and inquire everywhere, especially in places like the chess room of Mahjong Hall. My mother likes to go to that kind of place."

Marven immediately agreed and said, "Then I will look for her!"

Avella hurriedly ordered: "You must never deal with errands like yesterday, and then come back to deceive me!"

Marven promised again and again, "My wife, don't worry, I will definitely not. Today I will be careful and look for Mom in all the mahjong halls and chess rooms in Wrestrvel!"

Avella immediately said, "Then in every one of them must take a picture for me when you look around!"

Avella felt a little depressed when she thought of last night when he said he was going to find her mother, but in the end he went to eat and drink with his dad.

Although she knew that all of this should be Dad's idea, she was still a little disappointed in her heart.

Chapter 864

Marven hurriedly asked her: "Wife, where are you going to find this afternoon?"

Avella said: "I am going to meet my mother's friends, as well as the beauty salon where they often go, and the club where they often go to spa."

Dave hurriedly said at this time: "Avella, Dad will not go out to see your mother in the afternoon, because Dad invited Dad's old classmates to eat at home, and my old classmate wants to show her hand to our family, so I will go in the afternoon. Buy some ingredients, and then tidy up the house and prepare."

Avella asked in astonishment: "Dad, haven't you and your old classmates already had dinner at noon? Why do you have to make another appointment at night?"

Dave explained: "Eating at noon is at noon, and noon has already passed. People have returned home from a long distance, so we should always invite others to sit at home and have a home-cooked meal. This is to entertain friends. The serious way!"

Avella said angrily: "Dad, even if you want to entertain classmates, you have to divide the time. Now that mom is missing, why are you still in the mood to invite your old classmates to eat at home? You can't wait for mom to come home. Will you treat them afterwards? After all, my mother is also your old classmate. Wouldn't it be better for you three old classmates to meet?"

"What a sh!t." Dave muttered in his heart: It is because your mother is missing that I feel in the mood, and I have the courage to invite my old classmates to eat at home, otherwise I would be killed, I would not have the guts.

However, he must not say this in front of his daughter, so he hurriedly waved his hand and said, "Oh, you don't understand. She has been to the United States for more than 20 years. She has finally returned. I will definitely do my best as a landlord. One thing must be done on the day when someone comes back to have a sense of ritual! How can someone wait for someone to come back for a few days before picking up others? What is it? Others will think that your dad can't handle things. ."

Then, Dave said again: "And they did not come back alone. She also brought her son with her. The son is about the same age as you and Marven, and he is still a well-known American barrister who runs a Well-known law firms, you young people know each other, and there may be great benefits in the future. How rare is this opportunity!"

Avella said angrily: "I don't think there is anything rare. I don't want to know your classmate and your classmate's son. I just want to find my mother as soon as possible and bring her home."

Dave couldn't help but scolded, "Why are your kid so ignorant? It's just a dinner, can't you not find her later? Don't you eat dinner anymore? I think you are clearly trying to fight against your dad! "

"I don't!" Avella said anxiously: "I just don't feel in the mood to meet strangers at this time, and I am not in the mood to meet strangers."

Dave said angrily: "That's Dad's old classmate, even if you look at your dad's face, you can't say such things!"

In fact, there was something in Dave's subconscious that he didn't say, and he didn't dare to say it.

The sentence is: If your mother doesn't come back in this life, my old classmate is probably your stepmother! Her son may be your brother in the future! It's always good to meet in advance!

Marven also persuaded at this time: "Yes, my wife, Aunt is Dad's old classmate after all. Dad should try his best to be a landlord. As children, we must also cooperate with each other."

After all, he hurriedly said: "Well, let's go find mom in the afternoon. Anyway, I don't need to cook tonight. Aunt is here to cook. Then let Dad go shopping in the afternoon, and then Aunt will Come to cook at home, we will come back to eat directly after we finish looking for mom, we can go out to look for after dinner, then it won't take up our time to find mom too much, don't you think?"

Avella also felt that her speech was a bit heavy just now, and was worried about how to end the scene. Seeing that Marven was coming to fight the fire at this time, she followed his words, nodded and said, "That's it, just as you say."

Dave let out a sigh of relief, and couldn't help but give Marven a grateful look...

Chapter 865

At this moment, in Wrestvel Detention Center.

Viola watched everyone finish their lunch, and watched Gena finish her lunch, almost collapsed in sadness.

She hasn't eaten anything for more than 24 hours, and after a few more beatings, she was forced to sleep all night in a cold and humid toilet. Now she is dizzy with hunger, and she is on the verge of fainting.

But she dared not express any dissatisfaction, because Gena might come up to beat her again at any time.

Old Mrs. Xiao had a small appetite, and after she was full, half of the rice was left in the lunch box.

She deliberately carried the lunch box, paced to Viola, handed the lunch box to Viola, and asked with a smile: "You haven't eaten anything for one night a day. It's uncomfortable to go hungry? Would you like to have two bites?"

Viola looked at the Lady Xiao incredulously, and asked cautiously: "Mom, do you really let me eat it?"

The Old Mrs. Xiao nodded and said, "Seeing that you have been hungry for so long, I still feel uncomfortable. As long as you don't think I am dirty, just eat my leftovers."

The food at noon in the detention center was not good, just a stew and a rice, and there was nothing fishy in the stew.

But even so, Viola was still drooling when she smelled the scent of the food.

She still cares about whether the Lady Xiao is dirty or not. As long as she eats a bite, she can accept it as long as she doesn't let herself lick from the ground.

So she hurriedly said gratefully: "Thank you mom, thank you!"

After speaking, she had to reach out to pick up the Lady Xiao's lunch box.

Just when her hand touched the lunch box, the Lady Xiao directly dumped all the leftovers and rice soup on her head.

Afterwards, the Old Mrs. Xiao looked at her and sneered: "You don't think I am dirty, I think you are dirty, you are a shameless b@stard woman who deserves to eat my leftovers. Pooh. If I throw it away or feed the dog, it won't be for you!"

Only then did Viola realize that she was being tricked by the Lady Xiao. She didn't care about wiping off the food on her head. She broke down and cried: "When will you stop to torture me? I've been so miserable, why are you still? Can't you let me go? Even though we two have not dealt with each other for so many years, have I hit you? Have I touched you? But what did you do to me? You want to kill me!"

Mrs. Xiao coldly snorted, and said disdainfully: "Do you have to beat me before I can beat you? If you are in awe of me and are honest and polite, invite me into Tomson's villa, would I still do this to you?"

Viola cried and said, "I know I was wrong. I really know I was wrong. If I have a chance to go out, I will use the eight-lift sedan chair to carry you back to the villa of Tomson, and I will give the best Room for you to live in."

After speaking, Viola said again: "Didn't I have written you a letter? You just have to wait until your 15-day detention period expires and take that letter to find Avella, she will definitely be in the first-grade Tomson arranged a room for you in my villa! You can enjoy the good fortune in Tomson, why are you still having trouble with me now?"

Old Mrs. Xiao gritted her teeth, directly used the aluminum lunch box, slammed it on top of her head, and said sharply: "Why am I having trouble with you? I tell you, I can't wait to kill you! Don't say beat you. Pause, even if I kill you and take your skin off, I won't get rid of my hatred! I have come here in my life, when have I suffered such humiliation? All this is thanks to you, you think I will forgive you?"

Chapter 866

After that, the Old Mrs. Xiao immediately shouted to Theresa: "Theresa, come here, our take her to the bathroom and washes away the food on her head with cold water! Otherwise, later in case she ate secretly behind us, On the contrary, it is cheaper for her!"

Viola shouted in horror: "It's almost winter now! You are going to wash my head with cold water, you are going to kill me!"

Gena, who had been watching the excitement by the side, suddenly said coldly: "Stop the d*mn talking nonsense, otherwise, not only will the Lady Xiao use cold water to wash your head, I will also give you a shower with cold water!"

Viola was so frightened that she could only cry loudly while letting her grandma and granddaughter drag her into the bathroom.

Immediately afterwards, Theresa put her head under the faucet of the mop pool and screwed the faucet to the maximum without hesitation!

The cold tap water directly washed Viola's head, leaving her brain blank, followed by the biting cold, which made her swing all over.

She was holding her head full of cold water, looking at the grinning Old Mrs. Xiao, begging: "Mom, I beg you, give me a towel, or I will really freeze to death!"

The Old Mrs. Xiao sneered: "Just you still want a towel, do you deserve it? If you really freeze to death, it will be a good thing. You will free yourself, and I will also relieve my hatred!"

As she said, she looked at Viola and said sarcastically, "Or you can just cooperate. If you die, it's a hundred!"

Viola collapsed on the ground and cried loudly. The Lady Xiao glanced at her in disgust, and said to Theresa: "Let this b*tch cry here, let's go!"

Theresa also said happily: "btch! Your good days have just begun! Now it's to clean up you. When I finish cleaning up your old btch, I will definitely find a chance to clean up that little b*tch Avella!"

Avella never dreamed that her wonderful mother was being tortured to death by her grandma and her cousin.

Because her father Dave was unwilling to come out to find her mother, she could only split up with Marven planner, one to find the chess and card room and the other to the beauty salon.

Marven got the car key from the Old Master, and was about to get into the Old Master's car, and went to the chess and card room to look around. Avella grabbed him and asked in a low voice: "Marven, I ask you, What is the specific situation of that old classmate and Dad?"

Marven asked curiously: "Wife, what do you want to know?"

Avella said: "I want to know her appearance, temperament and personality, as well as her family situation, relationship situation, and her future plans after returning to China."

Marven said truthfully: "That Aunt is really very beautiful, has a very good temperament, and her personality feels very low-key and humble, and very very friendly. As for her family situation, her husband was very simple. Has passed away, now she and her son are dependent on each other."

After speaking, Marven hurriedly changed his words: "It can't be said that it is dependent on each other. After all, the mother and son are still very powerful. I heard that they have opened a very large law firm, and it is designed for the world's top 500 companies. They have already moved their businesses back to Wrestvel, and their future plans are definitely to prepare for retirement in Wrestvel."

"what?!"

Avella was shocked and said: "Good looks, good temperament, and perfect personality. More importantly, she is widowed and gold... Isn't this the diamond king among middle-aged aunts?"

Marven nodded and said seriously: "It is indeed the fifth king of the diamond, but this Aunt does not look like an aunt at all, more like an older sister."

Avella asked in surprise, "Is it so exaggerated? How big does it look like?"

Marven said: "Looking at it is only thirty-seven or eight years old, up to forty."

"Real or fake?!"

Avella's face was unbelievable, she rarely saw a woman who was 50 years old, she would look like thirty-seven or eighteen.

Even a movie star is not so outrageous, right?

Marven said seriously: "I didn't make any jokes with you at all. Aunt looks really young."

Avella exclaimed: "So exaggerated?"

Marven smiled calmly and said, "It just so happens that she will come to eat at home tonight, you will know when you meet."

Avella no longer doubted Marven's words. She said anxiously: "This woman is father's first love. Now she is widowed and the conditions are so good. It just so happens that the relationship between my father and my mother is so unstable and even more angry. The human thing is that my mother is still missing at this time. Wouldn't it be necessary for this woman to take advantage of this?!"

Marven smiled a little embarrassedly and said, "Wife, that's not what we can manage as children. After all, parents also have their freedom. As children, we can only respect, not objection."

Avella suddenly became impatient. Although she knew that her mother was not a good and virtuous woman, she was also her own mother after all. How could she want to see her mother abandoned by her father?

Thinking of this, her heart became even more eager, eager to find her mother quickly and take her home.

So she hurriedly said to Marven: "Oh, it's getting late. Let's start separately. You must do as much as possible this afternoon. You must arrange all the chess and card rooms. You must take the picture of mother, carefully. Go and ask every owner and every customer in the store."

Marven said: "I don't have a picture of mother."

For Viola, Marven was too late to hide, how could he keep any photos of her in his mobile phone.

Avella hurriedly said, "I will immediately send you the ID photo my mother took some time ago!"

After Marven drove out of home, he started near his home and shuttled between the chess and card rooms.

Every time he went to the entrance of a chess and card room, he would take a photo of the front entrance of the chess and card room, then another photo of the chess and card room, and then send the two photos to his wife to prove that he had been there.

Whenever Avella asked him how it turned out, his rhetoric was the same: the boss said that he had never seen this person, and the guests said that they had never seen this person.

Although he didn't really ask, he knew the result must be like this.

Avella looked at the various feedbacks he kept sending. On the one hand, she knew that Marven was indeed helping her find mother, but on the other hand, she couldn't find any clues for a long time, and her heart became more and more anxious.

It is said that the best time to solve a disappearance case is the 24 hours before the disappearance. If a clue can be found in these 24 hours, there is a higher probability that the person will be found.

Chapter 868

At this time, 24 hours had passed since Viola disappeared.

So Avella was also very worried and nervous now, so she went to the beauty salons and clubs that Viola often went to without stopping.

She came to one of the beauty salons, took the picture of Viola and asked the boss: "Hello, have you seen the woman in the photo?"

The boss looked at Viola's picture and said in surprise: "Oh, isn't this Sister Viola?"

Avella asked in surprise, "Do you know my mother?"

The boss smiled and said, "So you are Sister Viola's daughter. Sister Viola used to be a frequent visitor to me, but I haven't seen her much these days. Sister Viola used to come to me with friends. What's the matter? Has she disappeared?"

Avella nodded and asked, "Then do you know her friends? Can you give me a contact method?"

The boss suddenly thought of something and blurted out: "Oh, a friend of Sister Viola's is making a face with me now, should I call her out and ask?"

Avella said gratefully, "Thank you so much, for your hard work!"

"You're welcome, you should."

The boss smiled slightly, picked up the walkie-talkie, and said: "Lili, you call Sister Wang, just say Sister Viola's daughter has come to Sister Viola, and I want to ask her face to face."

A response came quickly from the intercom: "Okay, Sister Wang said this will come."

Avella waited for a while and saw a fat, very rich and burly woman walking out with a mask on her face.

This woman's face is a bit too fat, so the entire mask is a little bit too much, and it looks somewhat funny.

But Avella didn't mean to laugh. She just looked at each other expectantly, hoping to get some information and clues from her mother.

That Wang Sister walked up to Avella, looked her up and down, and asked, "Are you Viola's daughter?"

Avella hurriedly said respectfully: "Hello Aunt Wang, I am Viola's daughter, I would like to ask you, have you seen my mother since yesterday?"

"d*mn!" Sister Wang snorted angrily: "Friends like your mother, we can't afford it!"

Avella hurriedly asked: "Aunt Wang, what do you mean by this? Does my mother have any conflicts with you?"

Sister Wang curled her lips and said, "How dare I have any conflicts with the old horse? I just called her to make a face with her yesterday afternoon, but do you know how your mother spoke?"

Avella hurriedly asked, "Aunt Wang, what did my mother say at the time?"

Sister Wang scolded angrily: "What kind of identity your mother said at the time, how could she have facials with me? She also said that people like us do facials in a beauty salon. She wants to buy the beauty salon directly. Come down, serve her alone, and said that she wants to draw a line with us!"

After speaking, Sister Wang looked at Avella and asked angrily: "Talk to yourself, is your mother going too far?"

"Everyone is a friend. I kindly asked her to come out and make a face together. She was so sarcastic and ridiculed me. She also said that I was a poor woman and said that she had wealth that I could not imagine in my life! What does she mean? She got rich? Can't look at our poor sisters?"

"If you don't look at me, just don't contact me. What are you doing to harm someone? I f*cking provoke you? Why did you come up to harm me? You really mad at me!"

Chapter 869

Sister Wang said annoyedly, the already tight mask on her face was collapsed by her twisted facial muscles.

She looked at the mask on the ground, feeling distressed.

Thinking of yesterday's events, she felt even more depressed to death.

Although she and Viola are not so good friends, they all have a good friendship. They often play together, make faces together, and often play cards together.

Friends like this, everyone has a lot of each other, and they usually greet each other with a polite smile, and no one will embarrass anyone, but Viola was on the phone yesterday and ridiculed her so badly that she was so angry that she didn't sleep last night.

Avella was puzzled, why did her mother talk to Sister Wang like this? She doesn't have much money, but she has been very low-key recently. Did she find any windfall yesterday?

She also said that she would buy a beauty salon and serve herself alone, which proves that this windfall is not a small amount.

But the problem came again, even if she really got a windfall, there is no need to evaporate!

what on earth is this kind of happenings?

The more Avella thought about it, the more she didn't understand.

At this time, the angry sister Wang asked, "What? Your mother is missing?"

Avella hurriedly nodded and said, "Yes! She hasn't come back since she went out at noon yesterday, and she couldn't get through the phone, WeChat didn't reply, and the video couldn't get through. It's been a day and a night!"

Sister Wang was stunned, and then snorted and said: "It may be that after your mother got rich, not only did she do with old friends like us, but even you and your dad, so she chose to evaporate. Got it."

As she said, Sister Wang sighed slightly and said, "I feel much better after hearing what you say. Viola can't even look down on her husband and daughter, or even poor sisters like us. It's also normal."

Avella felt a little bit in his heart.

She thought of her aunt Horiyah.

Horiyah evaporated with more than 15 million people at the time. It is said that she still raised her little Wang face outside and eloped with her.

If mother really got a windfall, would she be the same as Horiyah?

Thinking of this, Avella suddenly felt nervous.

She hurriedly asked Sister Wang again: "Aunt Wang, do you know any other clues?"

Sister Wang waved her hand and said, "I just made a phone call with your mother. From then to now, I have never contacted her again, and there is no news about her."

Avella could only say gratefully: "Thank you Aunt Wang."

Sister Wang said indifferently: "You don't need to be polite, but I should thank you. I was quite flustered in my heart. Listening to you, I suddenly feel better."

Avella could only say sincerely to Sister Wang: "Aunt Wang, I'm really sorry, I apologize to you for my mother."

Sister Wang waved her hand and said seriously: "You don't need to apologize. If your mother can't be found, then forget it. But if you can find her, you tell her not to show up in front of me in the future, otherwise I don't care about her. How rich she is, I will smoke her with a big mouth."

Avella nodded awkwardly, and after thanking her again, she hurriedly left the beauty salon.

After coming out, Avella has been thinking about this issue.

According to mom's character. If she really talked to Sister Wang like that on the phone, it would prove that she was really rich, otherwise she would definitely not dare to talk like that.

But she remember that at noon yesterday, mother wanted to ask Dad for money and went to the beauty salon to make a face. Later, she went to Marvin to ask for it, but Marvin didn't give her anything.

Chapter 870

In other words, mother was penniless.

So why didn't she miss that Aunt Wang while on the phone not long afterwards, in the tone of a nouveau riche?

To say that in such a short period of time, she suddenly became rich?

Where does the money come from?

Taking a step back, even if she is really rich, why should she disappear?

Is it really because she hate her and father when she has money?

It's not impossible with her mother's personality, but she has been thinking of Tomson for a long time.

Even if she did get a fortune by accident, it stands to reason that she should hide the money quietly, and then continue to come back to enjoy the luxurious Tomson Villa. This is in line with her mother's behavioral style.

It wasn't that after getting a sum of money, the world evaporated immediately, and she couldn't even live in the Tomson villa, not to mention that she didn't even live in the Tomson villa to sleep.

The more Avella thought about it, the more she felt that this matter was strange and very contradictory, and there was a strange and unexplainable aura everywhere.

However, the clues stopped abruptly when they arrived at Aunt Wang, and for the time being, she couldn't continue to explore other clues.

Therefore, to solve these mysteries, more clues must be found.

Once the mystery is solved, then the whereabouts of mother will be clear.

Otherwise, she may never find where her mother is.

Marven drove around Wrestrvel City, thinking about his mother-in-law.

He saw his wife getting more and more anxious, and he didn't want his wife to suffer such torture from the bottom of his heart.

But now he hasn't figured out exactly what method should be used to release Viola.

As he drove through an intersection, he saw the eye-catching words on the intersection billboard: "All the people mobilize, resolutely crack down on MLM and MLM behavior in disguise, completely eradicate the soil for MLM survival, and build a safe and harmonious Wrestrvel!"

Seeing this slogan, Marven suddenly had a plan.

So he immediately called Zak Chen and asked, "How is my mother-in-law in the detention center recently?"

Zak Chen respectfully said: "Mr. Ye your mother-in-law suffered a bit in the detention center. It seems that everyone in the cell is not pleasing to her eyes, so she has to be treated."

Marven snorted and said, "She used to scold Old Lady so badly before, and this Lady has such a grudge. This time, she will definitely not let her go easily. It is normal for her to suffer a bit."

Zak Chen asked, "Mr. Ye do you think about how to solve this problem? With all due respect, your mother-in-law has suffered so much in it. If you let her out, she will definitely not give up, the first thing. It must be trouble for you."

Marven smiled and said, "Don't worry about this. I already have a general plan, but I still need your cooperation. You must cooperate with me and act in a big show."

Zak Chen hurriedly said, "Mr. Ye you can just ask if you have any questions."

Marven smiled indifferently: "I am not ready to let her out now, I will contact you when I want."

"OK Master!"
