

Dragon Husband Chapter Chapter 1879

Chapter 1879 The world is crazy

In the name of madness, he lives his whole life.

Hearing this name, the people at the scene fell into an inexplicable emotion.

William knew in his heart that the more foolish he was, the more persistent he was.

It seems that this person is not easy to deal with.

Unless it can open his heart and break his obsession.

“If you want to get the little goddess, you must first get his approval.” Xu Rushuang said.

“How can I get his consent?” William asked.

“If it was normal, he would not agree at all. But after getting my sister’s permission, he has to go through the test set by him. If he can pass his test, then he will naturally be able to get the little goddess.” Xu Rushuang said.

William couldn’t help but smile bitterly.

This is going on and on, not only does Xiao Wangqing need to withstand the test of integration and competition for control, but even himself has to go through some kind of ghost test.

For a while, William began to doubt whether Yu Shizhi was sincere.

“What test?” William finally asked.

“Three passes!” Xu Rushuang said lightly.

At this time, a living ghost replaced Xu Rushuang and explained to William in a low voice: “William, this is a dead rule left by that idiot in the world, and no one can change it. The so-called passing three levels is to break through his arrangements. The first level is called Jie Bing Chuan Xin Guan, the second level is called Cang Yan Shattering Soul Level, and the third level is called Bi Xue Washing Love Level.”

“The so-called Jiebing through the heart pass is that in this stage, there are extremely cold ice all around, and then the ice will turn into thousands of arrows and shoot at you. You can’t dodge or dodge, you can only use your body to resist it. After an hour, if you don’t die, you can continue to pass the second level after a day of rest.”

“And the second level is completely different from the first level. The first level is extreme cold, and the second level is extreme inflammation. The flames in this level won’t burn your body, but it can burn your soul. You need to stay in it for half an hour. If you don’t die or faint for half an hour, you will pass the test. After a day’s rest, you will continue to the third test.”

The one-handed ghost stopped when he said this.

And Wiliam was still looking at the living ghost, “Keep talking.”

One-handed ghost shook his head helplessly, and said, “That’s all the information, the third level, the bloodbath, no one has seen it, and no one knows the rules...”

Wiliam felt a chill in his heart, and asked back: “In other words, during the years of guarding the little goddess in the world, has no one passed his three levels? Don’t even know what the third level is?”

Xu Rushuang sighed, agreeing with Wiliam’s inference, “Yeah, the first and second levels are so-called ice and fire, and the body of a normal warrior can’t bear it at all. The first level was fine, many years ago. , there is a smart doorman, he collected some equipment that can resist the cold and increase the defense and wear it on his body, but he successfully passed the first level.”

“Then, what’s really scary is the second level, the flame that directly burns the soul. We have never seen or heard of it, and we don’t know how the mortal idiot came out. So what you said just now is half right and half wrong. Don’t talk about passing the third level. , no one has passed through the second level, so naturally I don’t know what the third level looks like.”

Speaking of which, Xu Rushi seemed a little embarrassed, and said to Wiliam, “Wiliam, it’s not that I’m trying to make things difficult for you on purpose, that’s what the rules are. And that old man doesn’t know how to speak.”

“I understand.” Wiliam first expressed his understanding, and then said, “How many people have you tried these three tests over the years?”

Xu Rushuang did the math, and said, “The mortal world should have been guarding the level for more than 60 years. In the past 60 years, there have been more than 20 people who have tried it, but they have all failed. Especially in the past few years. In 2018, we have all given up on acquiring the Little Heavenly Maiden. If you do it well, you won’t have to worry about the danger that the Little Heavenly Maiden will be out of control after it is activated.”

“Okay, then show me.” Wiliam took the initiative to walk out of the room.

Xu Rushuang followed closely and asked, “Are you going to start the three levels now?”

“Well. If you have to go this way sooner or later, why not go earlier to save time.” William said lightly.

Xu Rushuang looked at William in amazement. This young man had lived for more than 20 years, but he was as transparent and open-minded as a centenarian.

“Then I’ll immediately ask someone to bring those cold-resistant and defense-increasing equipment for you to use.” Xu Rushuang said immediately in order to show her sincerity.

But William shook his head and refused, “No need, just go over there.”

Xu Rushuang frowned and said to William, “William, don’t think that you are a martial artist, and then you can be arrogant. You don’t know how powerful the human world is. If you are not careful, you will die there. I forgot to tell you just now that over the past sixty years, twenty-five of us have tried to walk through three levels, no one has passed through, and twenty-three have been buried among them.”

Su Emei, who was on the side, was speechless, and her heart was beating fiercely.

She couldn’t help persuading William: “William, otherwise you should listen to the sect master. She is also for your own good. Something is better than nothing, right? We don’t want you to be in danger.”

Seeing the concerned eyes of Su Emei and the others, William finally nodded and said, “Okay, then William will thank you for your concern.”

William is not a person who is not approachable and does not understand the world.

If he should appreciate it, he will not forcibly refuse it for no reason.

Xu Rushuang’s face looked a little better now. She called a doorman and ordered to pick up the equipment, and then took William and walked towards an underground place.

Underground Palace!

William entered the underground of Yu Shizhu, only to feel that his eyes were suddenly enlightened, and he felt shocked.

Where is the basement, it is the underground palace.

The area is much larger than that of the royal family on the ground.

In this underground palace, people come and go, just like another world.

And in it, the fragrance of medicine, the roar of animals, etc. filled it.

When Wiliam looked around, it was full of materials, and even in the dark, there were cold iron cages, and only a pair of red eyes could be seen inside.

Xu Rushuang smiled and explained: "Our work is quite special, so it's all arranged underground. Don't take offense. Let's go."

Xu Rushuang led Wiliam to the door of a small door, and said to Wiliam: "Pushing the door in is the first of the three levels. Wiliam, tell me honestly, do you have the confidence to walk through it? If you don't have confidence, I will naturally help you think of other ways. After all, this is a favor owed to you by our Yushizhiren, and I don't want to see you hurt. Do you have anything to say?"

Just as a last word...

Wiliam smiled slightly at this time and said softly, "I will tell you what the third level is!"
