

Dragon Husband Chapter Chapter 1883

Chapter 1883 Shame

The three of them were in a mess in the collective wind.

This Elder Dongfeng, He Yu before, He Gong later...

He was obviously the first to stand up and didn't believe that Wiliam could pass the border, and kept saying that he would stay where he was and wait for Wiliam to come out sideways.

As a result, here we are.

It turned out that he had been optimistic about Wiliam from the beginning, was it still great?

Now he is the first to rush to the second pass to wait for Wiliam?

This attitude is reversed, and you are not afraid of flashing your old waist?

Xu Rushuang and Su Emei glanced at each other with a sense of disgust and shame in their eyes.

How could Yu Shizhi have such a disrespectful elder?

No, he is not a man of the world, absolutely not!

Yu Shizhi people still need a face!

For the first time, Xu Rushuang felt that it made sense that Yu Shizhi had always emphasized the need for face and dignity.

"That, Wiliam, I'm embarrassed, I made you laugh." Xu Rushuang said to Wiliam embarrassedly.

Wiliam shook his head amusingly, expressing that he didn't care about the reversal of Elder Dongfeng's attitude.

At this time, a gust of wind passed!

"Wiliam, the old man is back!" When the man arrived, the voice floated over first.

Su Emei broke out in cold sweat.

This old man is not ashamed, why is he back?

What the hell are you going to do?

Xu Rushuang was even more angry, "Elder Dongfeng, pay attention to your words and deeds!"

But don't embarrass us again.

But the old man Dongfeng didn't care about Xu Rushuang's words at all, looked at Wiliam and said, "I suddenly thought of something, every time I pass a level, there will be a day of rest, I'm afraid you will all go to rest, I have a The excited heart slowly cools down, it's not beautiful. Wiliam, are you going to rest? "

When the old man Dongfeng said this, Xu Rushuang suddenly realized.

There seems to be this rule.

According to the previous point of view, everyone is half-crippled if they go in, and for them, a day is better than nothing.

But Naihe encountered a monster like Wiliam and broke through the barrier unscathed.

Under the huge shock, they all forgot about taking a day off.

This Elder Dongfeng finally said something human.

But Su Emei complained silently in his heart, it must be because this old man didn't want to wait for him to cool down, instead of really caring about Wiliam.

Su Emei thought of this, and quickly said to Wiliam: "Wiliam, otherwise we should go out and rest for a day. The second level of Cang Yan's Soul Breaking Test is not as easy to deal with as the first level. It is said that the flame can burn the soul! Although you We passed the first level very smoothly, but we must not take it lightly. We should guard against arrogance and impetuosity, and go out to get something to protect the soul, so we should have more insurance. We should keep a low profile as a human being. "

The elder Dongfeng on the side suddenly asked, "Does our sect have any equipment to protect the soul?"

Xu Rushuang and Su Emei's expressions froze, and three words were written on their expressions: Hold back!

Embarrassing.

The equipment for protecting the soul is rare in the world.

Not to mention the imperial control of the world, even the entire nine sects may not have it.

“I don’t think I should take a break. Anyway, I’m not injured and I don’t need any effort. I should be still full of blood.” Wiliam thought for a while and said.

“But, are you confident?” Su Emei asked worriedly.

“You’re asking, will Wiliam have no confidence? Pass the first pass without damage, and the second pass can be captured naturally, isn’t it Wiliam?” The old man Dongfeng seemed to suddenly become Wiliam’s brain-crazy fan, and then Su Emei Say it.

“You hold back!” Xu Rushuang said what was in his heart this time, almost pointing at Elder Dongfeng’s face and scolding.

“You should have confidence.” Wiliam said lightly.

This sentence made Su Emei and Xu Rushi face look at each other.

“What does it mean to have? Yes, yes, no, no. Don’t scare us!” Su Emei said gloomily.

“Didn’t you tell me to keep a low profile? If I say I’m confident, you should scold me again.” Wiliam said naturally.

Su Emei almost spat out a mouthful of old blood.

And she can’t wait to spray Wiliam’s face.

Retribution!

I shouldn’t have said anything low-key to this kid before!

With his cool temperament and rude tone, can he keep a low profile?

Low-key for him, does not exist.

“Hahaha, good work! I knew you would disappoint me! The old man is waiting for you in front! When you triumph, the old man will sing a song for you!” Elder Dongfeng patted Wiliam’s shoulder hard, his body again Like a gust of wind disappeared.

Sing loudly...

Wiliam’s eyebrows jumped a few times involuntarily.

He suddenly felt that his interest in breaking through the barrier had fallen to the bottom of the valley.

Think about that picture, hot eyes, can't bear to look directly!

"William, don't worry about him, then adjust it." Xu Rushuang patted William's shoulder with an unnatural look.

William nodded and took a deep breath, "It's adjusted, then I'll go."

Su Emei's head buzzed.

Take a deep breath, even if it's adjusted?

Well, let him go.

William walked to the door, slowly opened the door, and walked in.

Outside the door, Xu Rushuang's more unnatural voice came, "Come on, I, I'm also optimistic about you..."

William's footsteps staggered and he almost fell to the ground.

Crazy one by one.

How about a face?

And Su Emei, who was outside the door, quickly opened a distance from his suzerain, and felt like a dog in his heart!

It's over, the sect master has also fallen, and the sense of shame is abandoned like this?

Elder Dongfeng is poisonous!

It will be contagious!

And William pushed the door and walked in, and he saw a desolate red world!

Under his feet, the magma was bubbling up, and the whole world was steaming hot.

However, in it, the body does not feel any heat!

On the contrary, it was his own head that instantly became as uncomfortable as a needle stick.

"The second pass, Cang Yan's Soul Breaking Pass. Walk on the Cang Yan platform and hold out for 30 minutes to pass the pass." The indifferent voice of the mortal idiot resounded in the sky again.

Indifference is also mixed with a little anger.

William looked around and saw a single-plank bridge under his feet, leading directly to a quaint stone platform.

That should be the Cang Yantai that the mortal idiots said.

William slowly stepped forward and walked towards Cang Yantai.

The voice of the human world is still talking: "As soon as you enter the Cang Yantai, the burning pain in your soul is a thousand times stronger than now! For decades, no one can beat it. If you don't have the confidence to give up, I can send you away."

William knew long ago that no one could pass this level.

It's a bit interesting, what kind of material is that Cang Yantai made of?

If it is an ordinary person, I am afraid that the soul will be burned to the ground.

William walked step by step, and the voice of human idiot gradually disappeared.

But just as William's footsteps were about to step onto the stage, the voice of the human idiot suddenly rang out, as if he suddenly thought of something.

"and many more!"

William's footsteps stopped.

"No, you must not destroy Cang Yantai, otherwise it will be considered a failure..." The voice of the human world seemed to be somewhat unconfident at this moment, and there was a sense of arrogance.
