

Dragon Husband Chapter Chapter 1889

Chapter 1889 Draw the ground as a prison

The idiot in the world really had good intentions and wanted to send William through the border.

His consciousness could clearly perceive that William, who was in the love-washing pool, actually let the love-washing water wash away, but the thoughts in his mind did not change at all.

This makes the idiot seniors quite speechless.

His first reaction was that William was strongly resisting.

Such a worry-free child, he has to speak and remind himself.

“Hey, you touched me? What do you mean?”

“How did I hear it was Mogao Grottoes?”

“I can’t hear you beep beep.”

A group of deaf old people whispered outside the door.

Su Emei was dizzy and didn’t bother to pay attention to them.

But William, who was inside the door, still closed his eyes and said lightly, “I’ve relaxed. If you don’t believe me, check it out.”

Already relaxed?

Senior Human Chi doesn’t believe it, and then carefully perceives William’s consciousness.

Sure enough, in William’s consciousness, there was no sense of resistance at all.

But, if there is no resistance, why is this happening?

How to wash the love and wash the love, this is more and more love?

He also made Lao Tzu’s pool of water amorous?

This unscientific!

People who don't believe in evil, integrate their own consciousness into the love-washing pool, and increase the infiltration of the love-washing pool.

Heartbroken for a little furry boy.

After the human world's ignorance was integrated, his whole person was also emptied.

He was slowly guiding William's consciousness.

Relax, relax.

Breathe, breathe.

Give up and leave, forget what should be forgotten, and let go of what should be thrown away.

Until the human world was a little confused, he felt that William should be about the same.

At this time, he wanted to get out of his consciousness.

However, he suddenly found that his consciousness was a little bit inseparable for a while.

Love pool!

It was gradually out of his control!

When I realize this, the whole person is not good!

Depend on!

This kid really came to play with my mentality!

In the last level, this little scum just absorbed the fire of his own soul.

Now this level is coming again!

I want to mess up my love pool!

The consciousness of human idiots struggled in the washing pool.

However, in this love-washing pool, every thought is like a word of love.

The more you struggle, the more you fall.

Gradually, the mortal idiot senior became completely confused.

It was as if the three thousand worlds around him had been wrapped in a lock of love.

Completely lost and unable to get out.

Human idiots can't be found anymore.

This pool of love water has changed.

It's no longer the ruthless look it used to be.

And become passionate and infatuated.

William actually didn't know how to do this.

He really just let himself go.

Let the brush in your mind struggle with a pool of water.

William has this confidence in his heart.

I want him to forget Bai Fengxue, unless it is a forced and devastating blow.

Any guidance should not work for him.

Therefore, William is also verifying this.

He believed that his feelings for Feng Xue, even if the sea was dry and the rocks were rotten, would always end from the same.

It is not something that can be easily washed away by a small amount of love water.

And the result was the same, the three words Bai Fengxue in his mind became more and more profound and unforgettable.

On the contrary, this pool of love water seems to have also felt William's heavy mountain and sea love, and was gradually assimilated.

William's love infiltrated into the love-washing water, and the water became passionate.

Infiltrated in the human world, in a daze, an extremely vague back appeared in his mind.

This back, as if there was a brush, scribbled a vertical stroke in his mind at will.

This stroke is vertical, thick and thick, and it looks like the back of a person.

However, the water in the washing pool is constantly washing this stroke.

Completely different from before.

The previous love water is slowly scouring the brush marks, and I want to dilute it.

But now the washing of love water, it seems to have become an awl.

It's like a craftsman with enthusiasm, slowly chiseling the vertical.

Slowly, slowly.

That vertical gradually has a little outline.

Like the back of a woman.

The lines on the back are elegant and calm, brushed and smooth.

The mortal idiot showed a very uncomfortable look, frowning tightly.

As if this back figure was enough to take away everything from him.

Time passed without knowing it.

The people outside were irritable.

"Why is there no sound?"

"Why is the idiot in the world silent, isn't he the one who likes beep beep the most?"

Su Emei couldn't see the current situation either, biting his lower lip silently.

In the human mind, the back figure gradually became clear.

As if the back figure would move, it slowly turned around.

The vague facial features began to show up.

Gradually turned into a woman's face.

It can be seen that this woman is also considered a natural beauty.

Until this time, the head of the human idiot banged.

He has been struggling, but has also been falling.

He had absolutely no idea that things would happen to this extent.

It was originally a trial for William, but in the end it turned into a devotion to him.

that woman.

That woman!

The more he struggled, until the water in the washing pool completely drowned his head.

He was completely lost in the image of that woman.

How did the idiots in the world come here over the years?

He was obsessively guarding these three levels, guarding the little heavenly girl left by Miss Su.

He is a man and an infatuated lover, who cannot escape the pain and sinking of love.

Therefore, in order to save himself, the mortal idiot has explored such a method.

Bleeding love.

This blue blood washes love, and the first thing to wash is the love of human infatuation.

With this pool of love water, he can gradually forget some things in the past and make himself less tormented.

but now.

The water in the love bath has completely changed.

turned into amorous water.

These waters tempted him madly, and even returned to him the things he had forgotten before, the forgotten people.

At this moment, the mortal idiot senior went crazy.

Miss Su!

Why do you torture me like this!

And I, why should I imprison myself like this!

infatuation.

angry.

unwilling.

desire.

Tens of thousands of emotions instantly climbed into the consciousness of the human idiot, turning him into a monster like a demon.

He's really going crazy.

At this time, the water in the washing pool seemed to be boiling.

also reached a peak.

The water splashed everywhere, as if it had exploded.

Only then did William slowly open his eyes.

In my mind, the three words Bai Fengxue slowly disappeared.

But it wasn't because William had forgotten.

But because William knew that this level was over.

But, the result is victory or defeat.

William showed a smile.

At this moment, is victory or defeat important to him?

And victory or defeat, to that person, does it matter?
