

His True Colors Chapter 1041-1050

Chapter 1041

Fei Lingsheng's words were equivalent to giving the emperor a step down, although the noble emperor didn't need it, but considering the strength of Han 3000's realm, if he really wanted to fight hard against Han 3000, even if he could kill Han 3000, he might have to pay a big price, and exposing the secrets of the Imperial Dragon Hall in front of Fei Lingsheng wasn't a good thing for him.

"Now is indeed the time to use people, Sovereign Han, I can forgive you for your disrespect to me." After saying these words, the emperor withdrew his suppression of Han Qianli.

On the surface, Han Qianqian did not look different, but his heart was relieved, his back was already wet with sweat, and if he hadn't been prepared and eaten a Sacred Chestnut before, he would never have been able to act so relaxed when facing the pressure exerted by the emperor.

It seemed that it wasn't unreasonable for the Extreme Master Realm to fear the Emperor, the strength he had shown in the Imperial Dragon Hall was indeed powerful, and this was without showing his true strength.

But these little thoughts of Han Qianli's were unknown to the others, including the Emperor, all of whom were shocked at Han Qianli's true realm, and were also wondering how powerful Han Qianli was that he was able to stay in front of the Emperor in the slightest.

"I want to read the secret book, I don't mean to offend the emperor, but I want to despite understand the Lin Long and figure out a way to deal with it." Han Giangli explained.

"But you should know that no one else is qualified to enter the Hidden Book Pavilion except me," The emperor said.

"During special times, you should naturally be treated in a special way, and the entire Imperial Court is yours, so aren't you in charge of the rules of the Hidden Book Pavilion?" Han Giangli said, but at this time, he was showing some respect, like slapping the emperor and then giving him candy.

The emperor was somewhat moved by Han Qianli's words, the entire imperial court was his, and the rules of the Hidden Book Pavilion should naturally be set by him.

And now was indeed a special time, once the Linlong was allowed to leave the Dark Forest, it would definitely be much harder to deal with it, although he had gone through all the books and hadn't found a way, but one person's power and ideas were limited after all, so perhaps if they were allowed to take a look, they could really think of a way?

But having had an unpleasant encounter with Han Qianxiang before, the emperor would feel like he had no face if he agreed too readily.

"I'll give this matter some thought," The emperor said.

"I hope that the emperor will hurry up, the sooner the better, after all, the Lunar Dragon won't wait for us to think of a way to deal with it before it leaves the Dark Forest." Han Giangli said.

Fei Lingsheng looked helplessly at Han Qianqian, the emperor had obviously given in, and this guy was still ungrateful for his gain.

"Don't worry, the formation of the Dark Forest is still able to trap the Linlong for some time, in the short term, it won't be able to break out of the Dark Forest, and it will need time to recover its strength after a long slumber." Fei Lingsheng said.

"Restore strength?" Han Qianli was stunned and said to the emperor again, "Since the Linlong is in a weakened stage right now, it's all the more reason for us to hurry up."

Fei Lingsheng's words were meant to make Han Third Thousand not push too hard, but he didn't expect that Han Third Thousand would seize the opportunity to tell the emperor to hurry up, but what he said seemed to make sense, so Fei Lingsheng didn't refute it.

"I'll be quick, there's nothing else, so you guys leave first," The emperor said.

Since he had already given the eviction order, Han 3,000 could only leave first, but he was already very confident about this matter, and if the emperor hadn't agreed, he wouldn't have said anything to consider such words.

Leaving the main hall, Fei Lingsheng said to Han Qianli with an admiring face, "You're the first to dare to anger the Emperor in the Imperial Dragon Hall, and what I didn't expect is that you survived."

"This shows that the Emperor is generous and he knows how much of a crisis the situation is, so naturally he won't make things difficult for me." Han Giangli said with a smile.

"It's too late to start kissing the emperor's ass, even if you deal with the Lin Long, the emperor won't let you off the hook." Fei Lingsheng reminded.

Han Giangli knew that the beam had already been closed, that an unresolvable conflict had formed between him and the emperor, and that the emperor would definitely find a way to deal with him once the Linlong's crisis was resolved.

After all, the emperor was above all others and would not allow anyone to offend, let alone allow a threat to exist.

The precedent was the White Spirit Family back then.

But since Han Qianqian would do this, it meant that he didn't care about it at all.

Ruling over the three kingdoms, there would be a battle between him and the emperor sooner or later, and the existence of such a conflict would instead make it seem more natural.

Han Giangli had come this time not only to deal with the Linlong, but also to pave the way for the future.

Of course, all of these conditions had to be based on solving the trouble that was the Lin Long, otherwise everything was empty talk.

"You were able to keep your face under the oppression of the emperor, it looks like I've underestimated your strength." Fei Lingsheng began probing Han Qianli again, wanting to know Han Qianli's true realm.

Han Three Thousand Thousand said, "Fei Lingsheng, you used to live in my house for a long time, but now that you're a landlord, shouldn't you do what you're supposed to do?"

"Just want to go to my house, do we need to beat around the bush like this?" Fei Lingsheng said disdainfully.

Han Qianli cheerfully said to Zhantai Liuyue, "Let's go, go see what the Extreme Master's home is like, you haven't lived in the Extreme Master's home in your entire life, right?"

Zhantai Liuyue didn't dare to speak, although she was the Patriarch of the Piao Miao Sect, she didn't dare to be as bold as Han Qianli in front of a strong man like Fei Lingsheng.

But to be able to live in Fei Lingsheng's home, this was indeed a wonderful thing for Zhantai Liuyue, something that she wouldn't have dared to think about if it had been put in the past.

And if this matter was known to the other sects, the Misty Sect's status among the sects would definitely be even higher.

"Thank you, Senior Fei, for taking me in." Zhantai Liuyue said to Fei Lingsheng with a grateful face.

"Thank you for what, it's all due, but when Senior Fei used to pretend to be a beggar, he didn't miss out on hanging around my house." Han Qianli said in a gloomy manner, deliberately turning a corner to mock Fei Lingsheng.

Fei Lingsheng could only pretend not to hear it, and if it were anyone else, Fei Lingsheng could be angry and furious, but in the face of Han Qianqian, she couldn't be angry and had no desire to be angry at all, not knowing if it was because Han Qianqian's realm was powerful or because she had lied to Han Qianqian before, so she didn't have the right to be angry.

Only when she arrived at Fei Lingsheng's house did Han 3000 realize one thing, what about that guy called Yi Qingshan, was he unable to help and was ruthlessly kicked out by Fei Lingsheng?

Chapter 1042

Imperial Dragon Hall.

After Han Qianli and the others left, the emperor said to his henchman, "What do you think of this Han Qianli."

"Arrogant and uncaring." Very briefly in two words, the heartbeat critiqued Han Three Thousand, and very clearly, because that was how Han Three Thousand had behaved in the palace, and even the heartbeat would have hated to kill Han Three Thousand if it wasn't for the fact that there was indeed a crisis of the Linlong awakening right now.

"Even Fei Lingsheng wouldn't dare to ignore me, this guy still has some guts, and his realm, even I can't even test it out." The emperor said with a sigh.

In the Imperial Dragon Hall, he possessed more strength than the Extreme Master realm, but when he deliberately used his momentum to oppress Han Qianli, Han Qianli was able to do so without changing his face, which made the emperor's heart fiercely shocked, although he didn't use all of his strength, but Han Qianli's cloudy appearance was enough to show how powerful Han Qianli was.

"Empyrean, you're not really going to let him go to the Hidden Book Pavilion, are you?" The henchman couldn't help but ask, although it was an urgent moment, in his opinion, the rules of the Hidden Book Pavilion could not be changed, it was after all a place where only emperors could go, what was Han Giangli, just a mere sect master of the first sect, how could he offend the emperor's heavenly authority?

The emperor looked a little hesitant, but he didn't directly reject Han Qianxiang, because the current situation was indeed very serious, the awakening of the Lin Long meant that Xuanyuan World would once again face a great crisis.

The last time the Lunar Dragon awakened, the entire Xuanyuan World's cultivation world almost fell, after thousands of years of recuperation, it was hard to breathe, the Xuanyuan World at this time, absolutely could not let the Lunar Dragon leave the Dark Forest, otherwise, the entire Xuanyuan World would be destroyed.

Between the destruction of the world and letting Han Qianli enter the Hidden Book Pavilion, it was clearly the latter that was more acceptable.

"Do you know that even if the three countries worked together, it would be impossible to deal with the Linlong," Empyrean said.

"Empyrean, aren't you afraid that he has other agendas? The Hidden Book Pavilion, however, has many precious books and even cultivation secrets, so perhaps he's just going to take this opportunity to read those cultivation secrets." The henchman said.

"It doesn't matter what to look at, the important thing is to be able to find a way to deal with the Lunar Dragon, with just me alone, there might really be something missing, the great drama is currently going on, I can't be paranoid about it, otherwise, you and I will all die under the claws of the Lunar Dragon someday in the future." The emperor said with a sigh.

He had actually made up his mind after he said the words of consideration to Han Qianli, otherwise he would have just rejected Han Qianli.

The beloved nodded helplessly, death was something no one was willing to face, and in the face of death, many rules could be put down and could be cared for, after all, what use were the rules if their lives were gone?

"This matter should be done in secret, otherwise I'm afraid it will cause discontent among others." The heartthrob cautiously reminded the emperor.

The emperor nodded, there were so many strong people in the Royal Dragon Hall, many of them, besides caring about their status, there were others who cared about the secret cultivation methods of the Hidden Book Pavilion, if Han Qianli's entry into the Hidden Book Pavilion was known to others, it would definitely cause those people to be discontented, and then more rumors would arise, and the Royal Dragon Hall might have to lose their hearts.

"Tonight, you go and inform Han Qianxiang to come to the Imperial Dragon Hall." The emperor commanded.

"Yes [New Pens Gallery www.avracity.com]."

The night was late.

The night of the Royal Dragon Palace was exceptionally quiet, because in this city, there wouldn't be any nocturnal activities, most of the cultivators would choose to cultivate at this time, so the Royal Dragon Palace had established a curfew, no one was allowed to make noises after nightfall, so much so that the Royal Dragon Palace, the center of the imperial court, didn't even have a place for nighttime entertainment.

Such a quiet place should have been more conducive to resting, but Han Giangli was lying on his bed tossing and turning, an inexplicable feeling of uncertainty born in his heart, as if something was about to happen.

"Could it be that something has happened to Cloud City?" Han Qianqiang who couldn't sleep simply sat up, being able to make him have such a restless feeling, he couldn't think of any other situation other than Cloud City.

But the current Cloud City should be stable, almost all the powers were under his command, Mo Yang was in control of the situation in Cloud City, and there was also Nangong Boling, a large wealthy man who could influence the world economy, so there shouldn't be any problems.

Moreover, before Han Qianqian left, he even asked Zhuang Tang's disciples to protect Su Yingxia and Han Nian, after eating the Sacred Chestnut, their two realms would definitely advance by leaps and bounds, even if someone in the apocalypse wanted to do something to Su Yingxia's mother and daughter, it would never be that easy.

"How could this be." Han Giangli took a deep breath, but inside, he could never settle down.

At this moment, a very special scent appeared at the Fei Ling Sheng gate, very faint, but it was coming straight at Han Three Thousand.

When he arrived outside the door and saw that the visitor was the emperor's henchman, Han Three Thousand roughly guessed his intention.

"Patriarch Han, I hope for understanding for the late-night interruption." The heartthrob said to Han Qianli, and although it was meant as an apology, his tone and gesture in no way seemed like an apology; after all, he was the emperor's sidekick, and he wouldn't grovel to the sidekick.

"Has the emperor already considered this?" Han Marchand asked.

"This matter can't be known to anyone else, so I hope that Patriarch Han will understand." The henchman said.

Han Giang nodded, it was, after all, a place where only the emperor could go, and if others knew that the emperor had compromised and allowed bystanders to enter the Hidden Book Pavilion, there would definitely be a lot of commotion.

"Let's go, I will never mention this matter to anyone." Han Giangli said.

At this moment, a voice suddenly came from the wall, "Can you still hide this from me?"

Seeing Fei Lingsheng on the wall, Han Qianli faintly smiled, it was naturally impossible to hide this matter from her, and I'm afraid Fei Lingsheng found out about this heartthrob's appearance before he did.

"Senior Fei, the emperor has said that if it disturbs senior Fei, he will ask senior Fei to come along." The heart belly said to Fei Lingsheng.

Only then did Fei Lingsheng nodded in satisfaction, leaping off the wall and walking over to Han Giang, "I have to thank Patriarch Han for such treatment."

"Yeah, how are you going to thank me? After all, you wouldn't be able to enjoy such an honor without me." Han Qianli smiled.

Fei Lingsheng stared at Han Qianqian fiercely and said, "I'm just being polite with you, and you're taking it seriously?"

"Is it not the truth, what I say? Senior Fei, you can't be unreasonable." Han Giangli said.

Chapter 1043

In terms of playing with his mouth, Fei Lingsheng was absolutely no match for Han Qianqian, and Fei Lingsheng didn't dare to just use his strength to fight Han Qianqian, so in this situation, Fei Lingsheng chose to shut up, which was the best way to deal with Han Qianqian.

Han Qianqian didn't think it was a big deal, Fei Lingsheng had done something wrong, and it was normal for him to not argue with him when he was justifiably disadvantaged.

But in the eyes of that heartthrob, it was a bit frightening to watch.

Fei Lingsheng was an Extreme Master realm powerhouse no matter what, even the emperor usually had to give a few slivers of face, but Han Qianqian acted as if he didn't care about Fei Lingsheng at all and was repeatedly defeated by Fei Lingsheng, which was a bit unbelievable.

Could it be that Fei Lingsheng had already fought Han 3,000 and wasn't a match for Han 3,000, and that was why she had allowed Han 3,000 to ridicule her?

This was a very important message that the heartbeat would definitely report to the emperor.

Arriving at the palace once more, the emperor didn't say much, and Fei Lingsheng's appearance was expected by him.

"Two, please follow me." After saying that, the emperor directly led the two to the Book Collection Pavilion.

The so-called Hidden Book Pavilion was actually a seemingly very ordinary pavilion that was even a bit shabby in Han Qianli's eyes.

Such an important and forbidden place, but a house that looked unremarkable, it didn't look like an important place at all, except that it was a bit more heavily guarded.

"Senior Fei, you haven't been to a place like this before," Han Qianqian said to Fei Lingsheng with a smile.

Fei Lingsheng knew what Han Qianqian wanted to say and said directly, "Yeah, if it wasn't for you, I wouldn't have been able to come in this life, don't worry, I'll thank you properly when I have the chance."

"Hehe." Han Qianli smiled faintly and said, "There's no need for thanks, Senior Fei owes me so much, so why don't you promise me a request."

Fei Lingsheng looked at Han Qianqian with a wary face, this guy was not some kind of a saves lamp, his request was definitely not simple and must not be easily agreed to.

"What request?" Ferris asked.

"I haven't thought about it yet, how about I tell you later when I think of it." Han Qianli said.

Fei Lingsheng snorted coldly and said, "Don't even think about it."

"Don't worry, I'll never let you do anything to hurt the world, after all, I'm a good citizen and can't do those things," Han Giangli said.

At this time, the party of three had arrived in front of the attic.

The emperor turned to the two and said, "This is the Hidden Book Pavilion, and I hope that the two of you can keep today's matter a secret."

"Emperor, please rest assured that I will absolutely keep my mouth shut, and if this matter does get out, it has absolutely nothing to do with me." Han Qianli said.

That made Fei Ling angry to the point of lividity, he had left out the relationship, so wasn't he saying that if it leaked out, it would have something to do with her?

"What do you mean, Han 3,000?" Ferris said with a cold face.

"Literally." Han Giang said without hiding the fact that he was purposely angry at Fei Lingsheng, because up until now, Han Giang hadn't forgiven Fei Lingsheng for appearing next to him as a beggar.

Walking into the library, although the outside looked ordinary, entering the inside was a completely different world, it was like coming to a library, the only difference was that the value of these secret books was not something that could be compared to ordinary books, and only emperors were qualified to look through them, virtually raising the compelling nature of these books again.

"Empyrean, where are the books related to the Lin Long?" Han Qianli asked the emperor.

The emperor led the two of them to a row of bookshelves and said, "This row is the Ancient Secret Book, all the records about the Linlong are in there."

Han Qianli nodded, no longer wasting any more time, and picked up a copy to flip through.

Fei Ling'er wasn't willing to show her weakness, after all, she was still very curious about the books in this library, only the emperor had been able to come in before, so Fei Ling'er could only hold back even if she was curious, but since she had the chance to come here today, she naturally had to read it all, after all, this kind of opportunity might not be available in the future.

The emperor had already read through these secret dictionaries, so he waited at the side.

While Han Qianqian was immersed in the secret dictionary, Phoenix Mountain quietly welcomed an unexpected visitor.

Yi Qingshan left the Royal Dragon Hall in order to hold Jiang Ying Ying hostage while Han Qianqian was away, to trade her life for the Sacred Chestnut in Han Qianqian's hands.

To Yi Qingshan, the temptation of the Sacred Chestnut was incomparably great, even though he knew that the Xuanyuan World was in crisis at the moment due to the awakening of the Linlong, but this did not affect Yi Qingshan's selfishness in the slightest.

To him, he didn't care what reason Han Qianqian had for going to the Imperial Dragon Palace, even if he was to deal with the Lin Long, so what?

As long as he could make his realm stronger and have a chance to break through the God Realm, even if the Lunar Dragon awoke, Yi Qingshan felt that he had the means to save his own life, and the worst that could happen was that he could find the spatial tunnel and leave the Xuanyuan World while they were dueling with the Lunar Dragon.

If he could become stronger, Yi Qingshan wouldn't care about anything else.

"Who are you." When Yi Qingshan swaggered to the foot of the mountain, he was immediately stopped by the gatekeeper.

"Get lost if you don't want to die, little brat, you even dare to stop me." Yi Qingshan said disdainfully.

"This is the Three Thousand Year Sect, it's not something you can just barge into, I advise you"

Before the child's voice could be heard, Yi Qingshan was impatient and struck out, only to see a beam of light strike, and the child's flesh exploded, not even a whole corpse.

The remaining one saw this kind of scene and was paralyzed with fear, but even so, Yi Qingshan didn't let him go.

"A mere civilian, attempting to change his fate against the heavens? Do you really think that if he takes you in, you can become cultivators?" After saying that, Yi Qingshan killed another person without hesitation.

In a few moments, slaughtering two lives, and they were children, but Yi Qingshan acted as if nothing had happened.

"People of the Three Thousand Year Sect, listen up, your death god has arrived, come out quickly to be killed." Yi Qingshan directly let out a shout, since Han Three Thousand Clansmen wasn't here, there was no one here that he was worth worrying about, and he didn't bother to go from room to room to find out which room Jiang Ying Ying was staying in, letting Jiang Ying Ying show herself was the best way to save time.

Yi Qingshan's voice resounded throughout Phoenix Mountain, and Huang Snapdragon and the others were instantly alerted.

Snapdragon Huang, who had bounced out of bed, was furious and was the first to arrive at the foot of the mountain.

When he saw what happened to the two gatekeeper children, he was so angry that Snapdragon Huang was furious.

"It's you!" When Snapdragon Huang saw the appearance of the visitor, he gritted his teeth for a moment, wasn't this guy, Fei Ling'er's brother? How did he suddenly appear here and kill the Three Thousand Clansmen.

Chapter 1044

"If you don't want more people to die, then quickly let Jiang Yingying out." Yi Qingshan said indifferently.

"What are you looking for my aunt for?" Snapdragon Huang was puzzled, and at the same time he was a little worried, this guy k*lled two people as soon as he arrived, he was obviously a bad visitor, and his master wasn't in the sect, so he didn't know what his realm was, and whether he would be able to stop him.

"Don't waste my time, or else I'll have to bloodbath the Three Thousand Sect." Yi Qingshan said coldly, since he was going to capture Jiang Yingying, he was destined to be hostile to Han Third Thousand, so Yi Qingshan didn't care how many people he killed, as long as he could get the Sacred Chestnut, he was willing to do anything.

At this time, people arrived at the foot of the mountain one after another, even the crowd of the Piao Miao Sect had arrived.

"Who are you, how dare you mess around in the Three Thousand Year Sect, do you know who the Sovereign of the Three Thousand Year Sect is." Yan Qing Hua looked at the two children's flesh and blood corpses and became furious.

Han Three Thousand Year's reputation in the Imperial Court was now well known, so how could anyone still dare to find trouble with the Three Thousand Year Sect?

Could it be that this guy didn't know about Han Qianqian's battle against the twenty-eight guests of the Ximen Family?

"I know you're from the Misty Sect, and I advise you not to get involved in this matter, or else there will no longer be a Misty Sect in the Imperial Court in the future." Yi Qingshan said.

"What a big mouth, I'd like to see what you're capable of." After Yan Qing Hua finished speaking, she immediately prepared to make her move.

However, when she was just about to move, she discovered that she was imprisoned in place by a force that prevented her from moving at all, which caused Yan Qing Hua to reveal an incredulous expression.

It was only under absolute realm suppression that such a situation was possible.

In other words, the realm of this fellow in front of her was much higher than hers!

This made Yan Qing Hua start to worry, after all, Han Qianxiang wasn't in the clan, if this guy was a Nine Lantern realm powerhouse, who in the clan could rival him?

"I told you to mind your own business." Yi Qingshan scoffed.

"Who the hell are you." Yan Qing Hua asked through gritted teeth.

"Yi Qingshan, the Extreme Master of the Xia Kingdom, you haven't heard of him, right?" Yi Qingshan had a smug look on his face, he enjoyed being worshipped so much that when he was in the Xia Kingdom, he would often go in and out of occasions and never kept a low profile, self-reporting was something Yi Qingshan would do almost every day, he wanted to see the expressions of admiration from those people, and even more so, he wanted to see the posture of those dignitaries when they bowed before him.

"You are Yi Qingshan!" Yan Qing Hua's face instantly turned pale.

This was an Extreme Master realm powerhouse!

Even if Han 3000 was there, he wouldn't necessarily be a match for him, not to mention that Han 3000 wasn't even within the clan.

But he was a strong man of the Xia Kingdom, so why would he appear in the imperial court, and the Three Thousand Year Sect had just been established, so even if he had an enemy, he should be within the imperial court.

"The Three Thousand Year Sect has no grudge against you, what do you want?" Yan Qing Hua was puzzled.

"I'm going to take Jiang Yingying away, and I'll kill anyone who stops me." Yi Qingshan said directly.

"If you take me away, we'll have to see if you have the ability to do so." At this moment, Jiang Yingying walked out from the crowd.

Huang Snap Yong subconsciously blocked Jiang Ying Ying at the first opportunity and said in a low voice, "Senior Aunt, this guy is not a good person, what are you doing out here."

Jiang Yingying gently pushed away Snapdragon Huang, looked straight at Yi Qingshan and said, "She's from the Misty Sect, no matter what you're here for, it has nothing to do with them, let them go first."

"As long as you're willing to come with me, I won't kill anyone else," Yi Qingshan said.

"In your eyes, is my brother the only strong one? So you could only show up after he left?" Jiang Ying Ying said faintly.

Yi Qingshan was indeed afraid of Han 3000, which he didn't have to hide, and said directly, "Yes, I do not want to fight him, so I can only come while he's not here, so what, now that he's not here, whether everyone in this clan lives or dies is just a matter for me to decide with a thought."

"Underestimate me, you will pay the price." Jiang Ying Ying said coldly.

Yi Qingshan was stunned for a moment, then he laughed.

Although it was true that when the battle against the 28 guests of the Ximen Family was fought that day, Jiang Ying Ying had indeed made a move, but in Yi Qingshan's opinion, Jiang Ying Ying had only helped in some insignificant way, and she did not play an absolute factor in the occupation, not to mention, how could he put a woman in his eyes when he was a powerful Extreme Master?

An accident like Fei Lingsheng was not something that everyone could have, and there was only one Fei Lingsheng in this Xuanyuan World.

"Little girl, you have a big mouth, and it looks like you'll have to suffer a bit before you'll know how powerful I am." Yi Qingshan said.

Knowing that the other party was an Extreme Master realm powerhouse, Jiang Ying Ying didn't dare to slow down, it was still a bit hard for her to deal with this kind of powerhouse with her current strength, but it didn't mean that Jiang Ying Ying would restrain herself.

This battlefield, however, must not be near Phoenix Mountain, or else it would definitely be a calamity, she didn't want to destroy the newly established Three Thousand Sect.

"If you want to capture me, come with me." After saying that, Jiang Ying Ying made a lifelong leap, and her entire body was like a meteor.

Yi Qingshan was slightly shocked and hurried to catch up with Jiang Yingying.

"Senior Aunt." Huang Snap Yong shouted at this situation, but it was too late and he could only stomp his feet in place in a hurry.

"How can Shishu fight him, he's an Extreme Master realm powerhouse, what to do, what to do now." Huang Snapdragon was like ants on a hot pan, agitated, in his eyes, the Extreme Master Realm powerhouse was like a god, although he didn't deny that Jiang Ying Ying was powerful, he also didn't think that Jiang Ying Ying would be a match for Yi Qingshan.

"Now we must find a way to inform your master." Yan Qing Hua walked up to Snapdragon Huang and said.

Snapdragon Huang said, "It's too late for such a long journey, even if we notify our master."

Yan Qing Hua also knew that time was a big problem, Han Qianqian was far away from the Imperial Dragon Hall, it was almost impossible to rush back to save Jiang Yingying, but other than that, there was no other way, even if they all joined together, they would not be able to be a match for Yi Qingshan.

"This is the only way, hurry up, your exotic beasts can help you hurry faster." Yan Qing Hua said.

Thinking of the Winged Tiger, Huang Snapdragon descended from the sky with a single thought.

Having exotic beasts that could fly could indeed save a lot of time in hurrying, and it was the only effective and feasible way to do so.

"Old Chang Chang, the clan will trouble you." After saying that, Huang Snapdragon flew away on a winged tiger.

Yan Qing Hua took a deep breath and said to his clan disciples, "Bury the bodies of these two first, and warn the other clan disciples that they are not allowed to leave the mountain."

Chapter 1045

Huang Snap Yong took the winged tiger and drove desperately towards the Royal Dragon Palace, not daring to stop for a moment out of concern for Jiang Yingying.

After a whole day and night of sleeplessness, Huang Snap Yong finally arrived at the Palace of the Royal Dragon.

But for Huang Snap Yong, who was new to the Royal Dragon Palace, he knew nothing of the rules here, no matter who he was, no matter how powerful the exotic beast he possessed, no matter how powerful the realm, he couldn't fly in the Palace of the Royal Dragon.

Therefore, Huang Snap Yong was pressed directly into the prison before he even saw Han Qianqian.

For Huang Snap Yong, who was only at the Five Lantern Realm, the Royal Dragon Palace was full of experts, so naturally it wasn't something he could go on a rampage.

"Let me out, I'm Han Qianxiang's disciple and I want to see him." In the big prison, Huang Snap Yong shouted hoarsely, but no one would pay any attention to him at all.

At this time, Han Three Thousand Thousand was still immersed in the Hidden Book Pavilion.

The Imperial Dragon Messenger had been mentioned by a certain textbook, but it was only some mere words without much other hints, but there was another matter that aroused Han Three Thousand's curiosity.

Ever since going to the apocalypse and learning about the forbidden space tunnel, Han Three Thousand had been curious about how the space tunnel came to be.

In a secret book called the Enlightenment, the Space Tunnel was mentioned, and the legend said that the Space Tunnel was cleaved by a certain strong man with a sword, opening a bridge between two different spaces, and although it was unintentional, the strong man offended the wrath of the heavens and eventually died under the wrath of the heavens.

It was also recorded in the secret book that the spatial tunnel could reverse time, that is to say, when operated in a certain way, the tunnel could bring time back to the past, just like a time shuttle, which surprised Han Qianli to no end, if this was true, wouldn't it be possible to use the spatial tunnel to go back to the past?

"What's wrong?" Seeing Han Qianli's surprised expression, Fei Lingsheng mistakenly thought that Han Qianli had found some useful information and couldn't help but ask curiously.

"So the legendary spatial tunnel was actually split open by a strong man with a sword, what kind of strength does it take to do that?" Han Giangli was puzzled.

Fei Lingsheng had heard such rumors about this matter, but it was just rumors, and in Fei Lingsheng's opinion, it was almost impossible for even a strong man with a divine realm to split the void.

"You'd better hurry up and find a way to deal with the Lunar Dragon, how did the spatial tunnel come about, can it help you deal with the Lunar Dragon?" Fei Lingsheng said.

Han Giangli nodded, memorizing a sentence about reversing time from the secret book, and then he continued to start looking for information about the Linlong.

The emperor had already gone through these secret dictionaries, so at this time, he was just watching quietly, when suddenly, the sound of a knock sounded from the Hidden Book Pavilion.

Generally speaking, it would never be possible for a henchman to disturb him at such a time, could it be that something had happened?

The emperor's heart floated with a hint of foreboding, it couldn't be that something had happened again in the Dark Forest.

"What's going on?" Walking out of the library, the emperor asked.

"Empyrean, do you know that winged tiger handler?" Heartbeat said to the Emperor.

A winged tiger?

"You're talking about the one who followed Han Qianli?" The emperor was confused.

"Yes, he came to the Imperial Dragon Palace, but because he broke the taboo by flying over the Palace, he has been imprisoned." The beloved said.

The emperor's face was cold, even those Nine Lantern Realm powerhouses, even Fei Lingsheng didn't dare to break this rule, a mere Five Lantern Realm guy dared to be so arrogant, truly worthy of being Han Qianli's disciple.

The master was mad, and the disciple was not restrained in the slightest.

"Since you've been taken into the prison, you don't need to report to me, this kind of uncaring guy needs to be taught a lesson." The emperor said.

"That's what I thought, but I heard from the prison that this man was shouting to see Han Qianli, like there was some urgent matter, does the emperor think that Han Qianli needs to be informed?" Heartbeat said.

The emperor frowned slightly, he never forgave such arrogant actions easily, but this man had an urgent matter and was Han Marchant's disciple, this forced the emperor to think deeply, after all, he was now in a partnership with Han Marchant, and he had failed to suppress Han Marchant in the Imperial Dragon Hall, this made the emperor have to treat Han Marchant with some special treatment.

But Huang Snapdragon had committed such a taboo, if he were to be released so easily, wouldn't he be saying that he was afraid of Han Three Thousand, which was never a statement that the emperor could accept.

"Lock him up for a few days first," The emperor said.

"Yes." Since the emperor had said so, the heartbeat could only follow orders, after all, his duty was only to inform the emperor of this matter, and it wasn't for him to interfere as to how the emperor was going to handle it.

Exactly three days later, Han Qianli finally read through all the books word by word, only to find no useful information, it seemed that too many people had died in the last battle with the Lin Long, so no one could have left the information they had in the first place.

This caused Han Marchant a bit of a headache, facing a completely new and very powerful opponent, it would be difficult to deal with it if he couldn't find a way to restrain it.

"Patriarch Han, it seems like we've wasted another three days." The emperor said to Han 3,000.

Han Qianli sighed and said, "Emperor, it looks like we'll have to think of another way."

"You haven't rested for three days and nights, so you should go home and rest first, and after you recuperate, we'll discuss it again." The emperor said.

Although Han Qianxiang was still in good spirits and didn't need to rest, he did need some time to relax his mind.

After returning home with Fei Lingsheng, Han Three Thousand locked himself in his room.

He wasn't afraid of dying, but he was afraid that if he died, Su Yingxia would lose her husband and Han Nian would lose her father, so Han 3000 would never be able to let himself die in Xuanyuan World.

But in the current situation, facing the powerful Lin Long, Han 3000 could barely see any chance of survival.

However, there was good news for him, knowing about the space tunnel, and also knowing that the space tunnel was probably in the Dark Forest at Xuanyuan Mountain, as a last resort, Han 3,000 could try to forcefully leave Xuanyuan World, and let the Lin Long slaughter the people of Xuanyuan World, so that Earth would not have to worry about the second invasion of Xuanyuan World.

Of course, this method was a bit cruel, but to Han 3,000, it was also a choice of last resort.

At the same time, the foreboding feeling in Han 3,000's heart grew stronger and stronger, as if a voice in his heart was telling him that something big was happening, but what was going on, Han 3,000 couldn't figure out.

Chapter 1046

There was a knock on the door, but before Han Giangli could get up and open the door, Fei Lingsheng pushed his way in himself.

"You're really rude," Han Three Thousand said indifferently.

Fei Lingsheng looked at Han Three Thousand as if it was a matter of course and said, "This is my home, do I still need to be polite?"

"Aren't you afraid I'll see me naked with nothing on?" Han Marchant was helpless.

"It's not like we haven't seen it before, there's nothing to be afraid of." Fei Lingsheng looked unconcerned.

It wouldn't have been strange at all if it had been said by some Earth girl, but from Fei Lingsheng's mouth, Han Qianli was incredulous; after all, the style of the Xuanyuan World was mostly still quite conservative, except for women born in green houses, let alone a strong man like Fei Lingsheng.

"What do you want to see me about?" Han 3000 asked.

"Can't you be found if there's nothing wrong, I used to like to be quiet and not talk to people, but now, if I don't talk, I'm afraid I won't have the chance later," Fei Lingsheng said.

Looking at her words, it seemed like she was already resigned to her fate, and she was a hallowed Extreme Master Realm powerhouse, so how could she easily resign herself to her fate?

"Fei Lingsheng, you're the number one expert in the entire imperial court, how can you say such things." Han Giangli said.

Fei Lingsheng had a hint of helplessness on her face and said, "The Lin Long, a divine exotic beast, even a divine powerhouse can't deal with it, death is just a matter of time, no one can avoid it."

Of course she didn't want to die, but this current situation, how could she avoid it if she didn't want to, once the Lin Long was allowed to break out of the Dark Forest, the world of Xuanyuan would definitely be a pitch-black hell, and the air would be filled with blood all the time.

Fei Lingsheng could almost already imagine the scenes of Xuanyuan World riddled with corpses, and there was nothing she could do about it.

"A person like you should be more afraid of death, right, it's hard to reach the Extreme Mastery realm and still be able to return to old age, as the saying goes, the longer you live, the more you fear death, are you really willing?" Han Qianli wondered, although he had never had such a personal experience, he could imagine that when a person had endless life, they should be more afraid of death than the next person.

And who would be willing to die when the face was eternal?

"Who says I'm well off and I don't need to be rejuvenated." Fei Lingsheng said disdainfully.

Han Giangli raised an eyebrow, not needing to return to her old age, what did she mean, could it be that she already looked like this.

Han Giang shook his head subconsciously, how could this be possible, he was able to have the strength he had now because of eating a large amount of Sacred Chestnut and having the addition of strong corpses, factors that were not available to others, Fei Lingsheng naturally wouldn't be able to become an Extreme Master at such a young age.

"What's there to hide about such things, isn't everyone in the world aware of it?" Han Qianli was speechless, did she still care about her age and true looks?

But it's possible, after all, isn't a woman's obsession age and looks?

Those Earth women, who spent a lot of money on skin care products, didn't just want to be able to retain their youth, and didn't want to admit that they were old.

"It's true that I lied to the whole world, they all think I'm very old, but in reality, I'm this year, I'm not even over thirty, and even the emperor doesn't know about this." Fei Lingsheng said, this secret was originally known only to her in the whole world, but now she was revealing it to Han 3000, which meant that Fei Lingsheng seemed to have really resigned herself to her fate, and if not, how could she tell Han 3000 such an important secret?

"You weren't kidding?" Seeing Fei Lingsheng's serious face, Han Giang had to change his attitude and re-examine the issue, as there was no need for Fei Lingsheng to lie to him.

But if that was the case, then it would be too surprising, because none of the truly strong people that Han Qianli had seen so far were very old, and they had all been able to reach the powerful realm through a long period of cultivation, but Fei Lingsheng, at an age of less than thirty, had become an Extreme Master realm powerhouse!

"Do you think I'm joking, I already reached the Extreme Mastery realm when I was twenty-five years old." Fei Lingsheng said.

"How did you do well?" Han Qianli was curious, without the Sacred Chestnut and the strong skeleton, the current Han Qianli was probably still just an ordinary person, so he couldn't imagine how Fei Lingsheng actually managed to do it.

"If I told you that I was born in the Dark Forest and raised by a foreign beast, would you believe me?" Ferrington said.

Raised by a different beast!

That seemed ridiculous, but it wasn't impossible.

Earth also had wolf children, i.e. children raised by wolves, and it wasn't that Han Giang hadn't heard of such deeds.

But the exotic beasts in Xuanyuan World were usually of the ferocious variety, and there was no shortage of beasts that ate people for pleasure, and it was miraculous that Fei Ling Sheng could survive in such an environment.

"The Dark Forest is the origin of Sacred Chestnut, and although I know that in your eyes, Sacred Chestnut is not that precious, but in the past, I used to eat it as a fruit." Fei Lingsheng continued.

Eating it as a fruit?

To put it that way, Han Giangli had the same experience, but he had originally used it for fruiting purposes.

"The exotic beasts raised you with sacred chestnuts?" Han Three Thousand asked.

Faced with Han Qianli's curiosity but not shock, Fei Ling Sheng's heart was a little strange, because no matter what he told anyone about this experience, they were bound to be shocked, but Han Qianli was only curious.

As expected, he wasn't an ordinary person either.

"Not entirely, I eat sacred chestnuts as well as game, ever since I have memories, I wake up every day and there are many wild rabbits and pheasants in front of me, I eat raw meat as my diet, and when I get tired of it, I also look for some flowers and grasses to relieve my fatigue." Fei Lingsheng explained.

"You've had a very colorful upbringing, eating meat and grass, but since you grew up in the Dark Forest, how did you leave it? And how did you learn to speak when you grew up with a different beast?" Han 3,000 smiled.

"That day, it went to help me search for the Sacred Chestnut as usual, but when it never returned, I knew that it must be in danger, and I was afraid without its care, so I left the place where I had been living, and after walking for an unknown amount of time, I came out of the Dark Forest and saw a completely different world, and perhaps as fate would have it, I fainted in a clan realm and was taken by those People saved." Fei Lingsheng said.

"So you learned to speak and practice within the clan?" Han Giangli had already guessed the next episode, this clan should be the starting point for Fei Lingsheng to start his new life.

Chapter 1047

"During the one year I spent in the clan, I learned to speak and knew how to communicate with people, and it was only then that I realized that I was a human and not born of a foreign beast, and I realized that I was left in the Dark Forest." At this point, Fei Lingsheng's eyes clearly jumped with burning anger, and it was clear that this matter was very unacceptable to her.

Han Qianqian, who was also a father, was also able to understand this feeling, as the saying goes, a tiger's poison never eats its own child, what kind of parent would actually throw their child in such a dangerous place like the Dark Dark Forest, wasn't this like asking her to die?

"And then what happened?" Han Qianli asked curiously, he couldn't wait to learn more about this strange life experience.

Moreover, Fei Lingsheng but ate sacred chestnuts as a fruit, once he was exposed to cultivation, his strength was bound to advance by leaps and bounds, thinking that when Han Giang was in the apocalypse, he had shocked those so-called strong people, and I'm sure Fei Lingsheng was the same.

"One year later, I came into contact with cultivation, and that's when my life truly began to change, in one night, in just one night's time, I went from being a cultivator who had just entered the country to becoming a strong person in the Five Lanterns Realm," Fei Lingsheng said.

Breaking through the Five Lamps in one night!

Han Giangli was horrified, I'm afraid that such a breakthrough had frightened those in the clan! Because this kind of thing was simply not something that ordinary people dared to imagine.

"To shock the clan and take the pinnacle of life from then on?" Han Giangli was curious.

Fei Lingsheng shook his head and said, "They were really very shocked, I didn't know what was happening at the time, but I could tell that a lot of people's eyes were afraid of me, I've seen that look, whenever Ao Tian helped me hunt for food, the food would show a look of fear and panic, then they would fight back as hard as they could, and Ao Tian would get hurt in that situation. "

Ao Tian should be the exotic beast that raised Fei Lingsheng, and I'm afraid that this name was also the name that Fei Lingsheng later gave it.

But when Han Qianqian listened to the entire passage, his eyelids began to jump straight.

Fearful eyes, fighting back desperately!

Fei Lingsheng is living in a desperate situation, the bloody scene of Ao Tian hunting is probably the most she has ever seen, and Ao Tian's injuries due to hunting will subconsciously make Fei Lingsheng have a sense of self-protection.

So when this look appeared, the only thing she could do was to kill the other party like Ao Tian had done.

"What did you do?" Han Giangli took a [English www.avracity.com] deep breath and asked.

"Slaughtering everyone in the clan, that's the only way I'll feel safe." Fei Lingsheng said expressionlessly.

Han Qianli heaved out a sigh of bad luck, and although he had guessed that this would be the end, the meaning became different after it came out of Fei Lingsheng's mouth.

Because there was a big difference between guessing and the truth.

"You're no more than a five-light realm, how could you kill an entire clan, does this clan not even have a single true expert?" Han Giangli was puzzled.

"My realm gradually increased during the slaughter, and by the time I finished killing everyone, I had reached the Eight Lantern Realm." Fei Lingsheng explained.

"F*ck." Han Giangli couldn't help but burst out in foul language.

Fei Lingsheng breaking through the five-light realm overnight was already an unbelievable thing, but I didn't expect her to be able to break through the realm in the process of killing people, and to do so three times in a row, no one would dare to believe such a thing if it was said.

"Looking at the corpses and blood all over the ground, I suddenly felt safe, the feeling was like Ao Tian was back and protecting me again, from then on, I knew what it meant to be strong." Fei Lingsheng continued.

"So you stayed at the sect until you reached the Extreme Mastery?" Han Qianli guessed that Fei Lingsheng was an extremely insecure person, so in Han Qianli's opinion, she wouldn't easily leave the sect because Ao Tian's death had become a shadow on her heart, and the only reason that could make her leave was to reach the Extreme Mastery realm and have invincibility.

"Good, it took me a few years to reach the Extreme Master realm, I just knew that I was truly safe." Fei Lingsheng said.

"You must have killed many more people in the meantime." Han 3,000 was helpless, the land of the clan was bound to have visitors, and Fei Lingsheng had to come and kill one by one to hide the truth about the clan being massacred by her.

"Six hundred and thirteen people." Fei Lingsheng said.

Han Qianli smiled bitterly and said, "You remember it clearly, but what happened later, since you became so strong, did you return to the Dark Forest?"

Ao Tian had raised Fei Ling Sheng, and to her, Ao Tian was bound to be the closest thing to her, and although it was likely that Ao Tian was dead, retrieving Ao Tian's body was something that Fei Ling Sheng should do.

"Been there, but not to find it, as it has fallen to be food for other exotic beasts." Fei Lingsheng said.

"Since you weren't looking for Ao Tian, then you were looking for the Sacred Chestnut?" Han Giangli guessed that Fei Lingsheng had reached the Extreme Mastery realm, but that wasn't the limit for cultivators, there was also a legendary divine realm, and if Fei Lingsheng wanted to reach the divine realm, he would definitely think of the Sacred Chestnut.

"You're very smart, but unfortunately Sacred Chestnut isn't that easy to find, and near Sacred Chestnut, it's usually guarded by powerful exotic beasts, which made me go there several times to no avail, and I was injured quite a bit." Fei Lingsheng said.

Hearing this, Han Giang couldn't help but take another deep breath, even Fei Lingsheng would be injured, it seemed that the Dark Forest was worthy of scruples, not only the Lunar Dragon, but other exotic beasts as well, this was almost devastating news for Han Giang.

It was hard enough to deal with the Lunar Dragon, and there were other powerful exotic beasts as well, wasn't this adding insult to injury?

"It looks like we're dead, besides the Lin Long, there are also exotic beasts that even you can't deal with, when the formation of the Dark Forest is broken, it will be the true end of the world ah." Han Giangli said.

"No, after the Lunar Dragon awakens, it will definitely need food to fill its hunger, and the stronger the exotic beast, the more delicious it will be to it, so by the time it is able to leave the Dark Forest, the strongest of the Dark Forest should have become a meal for its belly." Fei Lingsheng explained.

"This is barely good news." Han Giangli smiled bitterly, and this was all he could do to comfort himself in this situation.

"If I can reach the God Realm, there might still be a glimmer of hope." Fei Lingsheng suddenly turned his head to look at Han Qianli.

Han Qianli was stunned, the corners of his mouth lifting to reveal a faint smile, he wasn't an idiot, until this moment, Han Qianli finally understood the reason why Fei Lingsheng was pushing his heart towards him.

"You're not trying to get the Sacred Chestnut from me, are you?" Han 3,000 asked.

Chapter 1048

Fei Lingsheng had said so much, being so honest with Han 3000, telling almost all of her secrets, she did have a purpose and it was to obtain the Sacred Chestnut.

For Fei Lingsheng, only by obtaining the Sacred Chestnut would she be able to touch the Divine Realm, and when she reached it, she might even be able to have a fight with the Lunar Dragon.

Ultimately, it was that Fei Lingsheng didn't want to die.

"This is a way to deal with the Lunar Dragon, don't you want it?" Fei Lingsheng asked rhetorically.

Han Giangli directly shook his head, he didn't have much Holy Chestnut, he couldn't squander it like before, and it was hard to come by and could help him tremendously, so how could he still give it to people freely?

On top of the palace, if he hadn't eaten the Sacred Chestnut beforehand, it would have been impossible for Han Third Thousand to remain pale under that kind of suppression.

Now that Han Three Thousand Thousand already knew how important and precious the Sacred Chestnut was, even if Fei Lingsheng's goal was to deal with the Linlong, Han Three Thousand wouldn't give it easily.

"Not willingly." Han Qianqian said directly.

Fei Lingsheng thought that he would be able to gain his trust by telling Han Qianqian all of his secrets, but the sentence he ended up getting in return was one of reluctance.

"Are you going to stand by and watch Lin Long kill people with impunity in Xuanyuan World? Are you going to watch millions of people die under the claws of the Forest Dragon?" Firingsheng said with some anger.

"I'll think of other ways, and perhaps, when push comes to shove, I'll give you Holy Chestnut, but never now." Han Giangli faintly said.

Fei Lingsheng wasn't eased by these words, as the abilities that the Sacred Chestnut possessed needed to be absorbed a little bit, allowing her to break through the existing realm a little bit, and it wasn't like eating the Sacred Chestnut would allow her to reach the divine Realm.

If it really came to a crisis point, it would be too late to eat the Sacred Chestnut at that time, I'm afraid.

"I'm just afraid that when the time comes, it will be useless for you to give me any more." Fei Lingsheng said coldly.

"Fei Lingsheng, what's the use of saying so much, it will only be yours if I give it to you, and if I don't give it to you, no matter what you say, it's useless, you'd better go rest." Han Giangli said.

Fei Lingsheng thought about taking it by force, but this way would definitely make a war break out between her and Han Giangli, which was undesirable for Fei Lingsheng, after all, the current form didn't allow for such things to happen.

Fei Lingsheng took a deep breath and heaved it out again, saying, "I'll tell you one more thing, if you find this matter valuable, I want you to seriously think about the matter regarding the Sacred Chestnut."

Seeing how Fei Lingsheng still didn't give up, Han Qianli smiled helplessly.

But to be able to know more of Fei Lingsheng's secrets, Han Three Thousand was naturally willing, after all, it was his call whether it was valuable or not.

"Go ahead and see if you can get me interested," Han Three Thousand said.

"Your apprentice came to the Imperial Dragon Palace and was in a hurry, it's very likely that there's a problem with the Three Thousand Year Sect, but he broke the rules of the Imperial Dragon Palace and is now in jail." Fei Lingsheng said.

Disciple?

Isn't that Snapdragon Huang?

How could he come to the Royal Dragon Palace for no reason!

"How do you know, why haven't I heard anything at all." Han Giangli questioned.

"I'm in the Royal Dragon Hall, naturally I'll have eyes, this matter is a thousand times true, if you don't believe me, you can investigate it yourself, he rode a winged tiger into the city, compared to what many people saw." Fei Lingsheng said.

After hearing this, Han Qianli immediately left his home.

If Huang Snapdragon really did ride a winged tiger into the city, then there should be many people who saw it, and a random person on the street would be able to confirm whether what Fei Lingsheng said was true or not.

After searching for several people in succession, Han Three Thousand finally got a definite answer that someone had indeed ridden a winged tiger into the city, and although he was unknown, the emperor's men, had already captured him.

The foreboding feeling of foreboding in Han Three Thousand's heart grew stronger.

When he was leaving, he had warned Huang Snap Yong to stay in the Three Thousand Year Sect and take care of all things returning to the Three Thousand Year Sect, and his sudden arrival at the Imperial Dragon Hall must mean that something was happening in the Three Thousand Year Sect.

Han Qianli couldn't guess what was going on, so he could only find Huang Snapdragon and ask for clarification.

Since he had been imprisoned by the Emperor, he could only find the Emperor in this matter.

Han Third Thousand came to the main hall once more, faced the emperor who had his eyes closed, and said directly, "Emperor, you imprisoned my apprentice?"

"Your apprentice, who is it?" The emperor looked puzzled as he asked Han Qianqian.

Han Qianqian's face was as frosty as ice, but he knew Huang Snap Yong's character very well, this guy would definitely report himself as Han Qianqian's disciple, how could the emperor not know?

Is this the time to deliberately act crazy, is he trying to use Huang Snapdragon to blackmail him?

"Emperor, I'm currently loyal to the Imperial Court, I hope you don't make me change my mind."
Han Qianli said indifferently.

Currently loyal to the imperial court, but that didn't mean it would be in the future!

Such rebellious words, only Han Qianqian would have the guts to say it, and anyone saying so in this Imperial Dragon Hall would be sentenced to the crime of conspiracy! He might even be directly executed by the emperor.

Although the emperor had thought that when Han Qianxiang knew about this matter, he would come to question himself, he had never expected Han Qianxiang to say such words.

The emperor, who was hidden as anger, controlled his temper that was about to explode and said, "Sect Master Han, do you know what you're talking about?"

"Of course I do, but do you know what you're doing, Emperor? My disciple broke the rules of the Royal Dragon Hall, he deserves to be punished, but he came in a hurry, he must have urgent business, can't the emperor let it go?" Han Marchant said.

"I'll naturally release him when the day of his sentence is up," The emperor said.

Han Three Thousand's eyes grew cold, how long would it take until the day his sentence was up, when Han Three Thousand had already missed the important matter of Huang Snapdragon's thousands of miles of communication.

"I want to see him, and I hope the emperor will give me the chance." Han Three Thousand Year bent slightly, which was considered a very respectful gesture, as the current Han Three Thousand Year would never grovel to anyone.

This gesture eased the emperor's heart a bit, at least it would make him feel like he wasn't being held down by Han Three Thousand, and the dignity of his emperor status was still preserved.

And from the very beginning, the emperor had no intention of locking up Huang Snapdragon for any length of time, after all, he was Han Three Thousand's disciple, and as the saying goes, even beating a dog has to look at its master, so the emperor had to give Han Three Thousand a face anyway.

"Since it's your disciple's first time in the Imperial Dragon Hall, and he doesn't know the rules here, I can let him go, but after taking him away, remember to educate him properly, the Imperial Dragon Hall is never a place where he can be reckless." The emperor said.

Chapter 1049

The emperor's words were reminding Han Three Thousand and knocking Han Three Thousand at the same time.

He was talking about Huang Snapdragon, but was actually alluding to Han Three Thousand Thousand.

But Han Three thousand didn't care about that at all, from the first time he went up to the Imperial Dragon Hall, Han Three thousand had never wanted to appear before the emperor as an underling.

And the imperial court wasn't anything worth keeping for Han Three Thousand, even if he did fall out with the emperor, Han Three Thousand would still be able to go to Xia or Chong Ye.

"Thank you." Han Three Thousand said indifferently.

Immediately, under the leadership of the emperor's henchmen, Han Three Thousand arrived at the prison.

When he saw Huang Snapdragon, who had been severely beaten, in a very weak state, it caused Han Three Thousand's heart to rise with anger.

The heartthrob explained, "Because he trespassed into the Royal Dragon Hall and was uncooperative, that's why he had to use forceful means."

Han Qianqian was expressionless and did not speak.

The heart belly knew that there must be anger in Han Three Thousand's heart, and his explanation had been in the hope that Han Three Thousand would calm down, but now it didn't seem to help.

This had to make the heart belly sigh internally, he had followed the emperor for so many years, but he had never seen anyone who dared to give the emperor a face, Han Qianli was the first, and even if he gave the emperor a face, the emperor didn't dare to have any opinion about it.

This was the strong man, as long as he was strong enough, even the emperor didn't have to put it in his eyes.

After opening the cell door, Han Three Thousand entered and directly resisted Huang Snapdragon on his shoulders.

Before leaving, Han Three Thousand said to his heartbeat, "Thank the emperor for me, and tell him that I, Han Three Thousand, will keep this matter in my heart."

The heartbeat looked at Han Three Thousand's departing back and smiled helplessly, was this a warning to the emperor, what nerve.

Returning to the main hall, Heart Belly relayed Han Qianli's exact words, word for word, to the emperor.

The emperor's face was filled with coldness after hearing it, yet he seemed helpless.

"I had expected this person to be difficult to control, but I didn't expect him to be more troublesome than I thought," The emperor said.

"This guy will definitely be a hidden danger in the future, Emperrean, able to use this matter of the Linlong to kill him?" Heartbeat asked.

The emperor's expression was complicated and he didn't know what to think.

Back at Fei Lingsheng's house, when Fei Lingsheng saw Huang Snapdragon's weakened state, it was something she hadn't expected.

In her opinion, it was only right that the emperor had captured Huang Snapdragon, but to have Huang Snapdragon injured was a bit unexpected.

"It seems that the emperor has taken out all his anger towards you on your apprentice." Fei Lingsheng said.

"I'll make him pay for it," Han Qianli said coldly.

Make the emperor pay the price!

Only Han Three Thousand Years would dare to say such words.

"It looks like he still needs some time to recover," Fei Lingsheng said.

It was true that Huang Snapdragon's current physical condition needed time to be repaired, but then Han Three Thousand wouldn't be able to immediately know what it was that Huang Snapdragon was here for, and waiting under such torment was never something Han Three Thousand could accept.

Immediately, Han Three thousand pulled out a Sacred Chestnut that made Fei Lingsheng jealous and fed it directly to Huang Snapdragon.

In addition to providing cultivation energy to the person taking it, the Sacred Chestnut was also capable of repairing injuries, which was the value embodied by the precious item.

"Such a precious item, you're using it to heal his injuries, he only needs a few days to recover, aren't you recklessly wasting it?" Fei Lingsheng said with a jealous face, what a waste of a good thing.

"It's my stuff, whether it's worth it or not is also up to me, it has nothing to do with you." Han Qianli said indifferently.

Fei Ling was so angry that she was smoldering, she had told a bunch of stories in front of Han 3000 to get the Sacred Chestnut, but in the end, she hadn't gotten anything out of it, instead, it was Huang

Snapdragon, who was just a little injured and could recover in a few days of recuperation, yet it was worth Han 3000 wasting a Sacred Chestnut for him.

"Do you know that he was able to break the boundary for himself by eating the Sacred Chestnut in his normal state, but now, used to repair his body, the energy of the Sacred Chestnut is wasted," Fei Lingsheng said.

"I want him to raise his realm, I'll give him the Sacred Chestnut again when he's in a healthy state, so don't worry about it." Han Giangli said.

This statement almost made Fei Lingsheng spit blood in anger, he was so generous to Huang Snapdragon but unusually mean to himself, she couldn't fathom what kind of thoughts Han Three Thousand had in his head.

"You, you're unbelievable." Fei Ling said with an angry drumbeat.

In a short while, Huang Snapdragon finally regained consciousness, and when he opened his eyes and saw Fei Ling Sheng, his eyes showed a strong resistance.

"You how did you end up here." Huang Snapdragon said in shock.

Han Giangli was in a fog.

Fei Lingsheng was also confused.

Why did he see himself as if he had seen a ghost.

"This is my home, why can't I be here." Fei Lingsheng said as if it was a matter of course.

"Master, it's her, it's her brother who killed the Three Thousand Year Sect's disciples and he's dueling with his teacher's aunt, he wants to capture her." Huang Snapdragon grabbed Han Three Thousand Years and said eagerly.

Brother!

Isn't that Yi Qingshan?

Han Qianqian had wondered why Yi Qingshan hadn't followed Fei Lingsheng before, but he'd gone to the Three Thousand Clans!

By capturing Jiang Yingying, is this an attempt to use her to threaten him and hand over the Sacred Chestnut?

"Fei Lingsheng, I didn't think you'd still have a hand." Han Qianqian said to Fei Lingsheng with hostility.

Fei Lingsheng's face didn't change, as this matter had nothing to do with her, and she wouldn't feel guilty.

Also, Fei Lingsheng had felt strange about Yi Qingshan's departure before, but now she finally understood what Yi Qingshan had gone to do.

"I don't even know where Yi Qingshan has gone, can you believe it?" Fei Lingsheng said.

"Why should I trust you, you want the Sacred Chestnut, Yi Qing Shan wants to use Jiang Ying Ying as blackmail to make me hand it over, don't you have a common purpose?" Han Qianqian walked up to Fei Lingsheng and said with killing intent.

Jiang Ying Ying followed Han Qianlian to the Xuanyuan World, Han Qianlian must not let her have an accident here, otherwise, how can she explain to He Ting when she returns to Earth in the future?

"He's not even my brother, I have no relationship with him and I had no idea what he was going to do, I didn't know he was going to go after your sister." Gingerly said.

"Tell me where he is." Han Qianli asked in a cold voice.

Jiang Ying Ying shook her head and said, "I'll tell you the truth, he's an Extreme Master of the Xia Kingdom, what he's going to do isn't something I can just interfere with, and before that, I didn't even know he had such plans, so if you ask me, I won't be able to give you an answer."

Chapter 1050

Han Qianli looked at Fei Lingsheng with torch-like eyes, hoping to see some flaw in her expression.

But Fei Lingsheng's eyes were unmoved, not lying at all.

"If you continue to doubt me, you might as well go and find Yi Qingshan as soon as possible, he captured your sister and should want to get the Sacred Chestnut, so she won't be harmed for now." Fei Lingsheng said.

"Master, my aunt doesn't want to restrain herself, so she's going to fight him, I don't know what's happening now, so go find your aunt." Huang Snapdragon said.

Han Qianli turned to Huang Snap Yong and said, "Stay here and rest for now, when you're feeling better, join the Three Thousand Year Sect on your own, don't stay at the Imperial Court, I don't want you to become a handle again."

"Right, by the way, take Zhantai Liuyue with you, let her go with you as well."

Although Huang Snapdragon didn't understand the situation in the Imperial Court, much less what happened between Han Three Thousand and the Emperor, but to him, Han Three Thousand's words were an imperial decree, so whatever Han Three Thousand said, he just needed to do it.

"Master, you must save Shishu."

"Nonsense, do you still need to say it?"

Han Qianli was just about to leave the room when he suddenly stopped again.

Yi Qingshan was an Extreme Master after all, and it was still difficult for Han 3000 to save someone in his hands and still leave Jiang Ying Ying unharmed.

"You're the one who told Yi Qingshan about me possessing the Sacred Chestnut, right?" Han Qianqian said indifferently.

Fei Lingsheng had indeed mentioned this matter in front of Yi Qingshan, but she hadn't expected Yi Qingshan to have such an intention.

And now that Han Qianli had mentioned it like this, Fei Lingsheng understood what Han Qianli wanted to say.

"Don't worry, I'll go with you, and since I have my own responsibilities, I won't sit idly by." Fei Lingsheng said.

The two of them left the Imperial Dragon Hall together.

The emperor was filled with confusion after receiving the news at first, the sudden departure of these two was clearly something that had happened and was worthy of the two going together, much less a trivial matter.

"What news has returned from the Three Thousand Sect." The emperor called out to his henchmen and asked.

"Yi Qingshan has killed someone in the Three Thousand Sect and is trying to capture Han Qianqian's sister." The heartbeat said, this was what he had just learned, fortunately, someone from the Imperial Dragon Palace was in the Three Thousand Sect, otherwise, they would only be in a fog now.

"What is Yi Qing Shan capturing Han Three Thousand's sister for?" The emperor frowned and said.

The henchman didn't quite understand the reason for this, so he could only say, "The people we sent out are keeping a close eye on this matter, and I'm sure that if there's anything new, they'll be the first to report it."

"Keep an eye on this matter for me, I want to know what's really going on the first time." The emperor said.

Han Qianqian and Fei Lingsheng made their way with all their might, and it was then that Fei Lingsheng noticed the difference in strength between herself and Han Qianqian, as Han Qianqian was faster than her, and while this wasn't a complete indication that Han Qianqian was stronger than her, it was a reflection of one aspect.

In less than a day, Han 3,000 finally returned to the 3,000 Sect.

The bodies of the two sect disciples had been buried under Yan Qing Hua's open arms, and when Yan Qing Hua told Han Three Thousand Thousand's situation that day, Han Three Thousand was furious.

The disciples of the Three Thousand Sect were all children of poor families, yet Yi Qing Shan hadn't even left their entire bodies!

Han Giangli took a deep breath and asked Yan Qing Hua, "Do you know where they went?"

Yan Qing Hua didn't know the exact destination, but pointed a direction to Han 3000 and said, "There, your sister is going to duel with him, and I don't know what's going on now."

For Jiang Ying Ying's strength, Han 3000 was still relatively clear, she was now stronger than the Nine Lanterns Realm, but she was by no means a match for the Extreme Mastery Realm, after all, Jiang Ying Ying had only absorbed the power of the skull, and the sacred chestnuts she had eaten hadn't transformed her strength very well.

The reason why Han Qianli was able to be so strong was because of the fusion of the skulls, which was beyond anyone's reach.

"How long has it been?" Han Giangli continued to ask.

"Three days."

Hearing this time, Han 3000 gritted his teeth, three whole days, Jiang Ying Ying had obviously fallen into Yi Qingshan's hands, and he didn't know how she was doing now, whether she was injured or not.

"Your sister, can she be Yi Qingshan's opponent?" Fei Lingsheng opened his mouth to ask.

"She hasn't reached the Extreme Mastery realm yet," Han Giangli said.

Although this was Fei Lingsheng's expectation, she was still a little relieved to hear Han Qianli say it herself, Fei Lingsheng would be very speechless if even Jiang Yingying was at the Extreme Mastery

Realm, after all, the Extreme Mastery Realm was a phoenix, and she was still a little unable to accept the sudden appearance of two at once.

"It seems that she has already been captured by Yi Qingshan, you don't need to rush to Yi Qingshan, he will appear on his own accord sooner or later." Fei Lingsheng said.

This reasoning was also understood by Han Qianli, but to let him stay and do nothing, this would make Han Qianli very anxious, after all, Jiang Ying Ying was in danger, how could he wait calmly?

"Will Yi Qingshan return to Xia Kingdom?" Han Giangli asked.

Fei Lingsheng shook his head without even thinking about it and said, "How could Fei Lingsheng, this greedy, death-weary fellow, return to the Xia Kingdom, you don't know about the situation in the Dark Forest."

"Can we just keep waiting like this?" Han Third Thousand gritted her teeth and said.

Fei Lingsheng wanted to help Han Three Thousand come up with a solution, but what kind of plans Yi Qingshan had, Fei Lingsheng didn't know, and she couldn't be sure where Yi Qingshan would be at this time.

"Just wait, I'm sure he'll show up soon, and if he wants to get the Sacred Chestnut, he'll never hurt your sister," Fei Lingsheng said.

At this time, Yan Qing Hua on the side heard this and was puzzled, Yi Qingshan wanted to get the Sacred Chestnut, that's why he captured Jiang Ying Ying? But hadn't Holy Chestnut been given to Zhong Qishan? This was something that everyone knew, and Zhong Qishan had swallowed the Sacred Chestnut in front of many people in order to avoid unnecessary trouble, which had dissuaded those who wanted to snatch it.

Could it be that Han Qianqiang still had Sacred Chestnut?

"Sovereign Han, you're back, where's Sovereign Zhantai?" Yan Qing Hua asked.

"She'll be back with Snapdragon Huang, so don't worry," Han Marchiang said.

Yan Qing Hua nodded her head, and since Han Three Thousand had said so, she didn't need to ask more.

This matter, however, was far from as simple as Han Three Thousand thought.

The first time Han Qianli and Fei Lingsheng left the Imperial Dragon Hall, the emperor had sent people to surround Fei Lingsheng's mansion heavily, and in order to prevent Han Qianli from returning this time, the emperor could only confine the two of them to the Imperial Dragon Hall, and only then would Han Qianli have to return to the Imperial Dragon Hall again.

"Yi Qingshan, I will give you a taste of what threatens me, and you will be the first truly strong person I will put to death in the Xuanyuan World."
