

His True Colors Chapter 1351-1360

Chapter 1351

After confirming the communicator, Nangong Boling chose to shoot the subordinate on the spot, and the remaining nine people, all of their faces changed dramatically.

At this moment, they no longer had any luck, although they could not know how Han Qiangli did it, but they were clear that their identities had been exposed, and it was only a matter of time before they were confirmed.

As the younger brother of Nangong Boling, he had an endless amount of glory and wealth, but his act of betrayal was about to ruin his life, and even lose his life.

Of course, Nangong Boye did this with greater ambition, he wanted to be able to control the Nangong family, and the only way to do this was for Nangong Bo Ling to die.

"Brother." Suddenly, Nangong Bo game knelt down in front of Nangong Bo Ling, and said with a face of remorse, "Brother, give me another chance, I did this because I was confused."

Nangong Bo Ling full of cold face, he was able to lead the Nangong family to such a height today, has an absolutely strong heart, so he will not be merciful to anyone, even if the person who betrayed him is his own brother, he will not choose to forgive.

"Anyone who has done something wrong needs to pay the price for it, even if it's my own brother, there is no exception," Nangong Bo Ling said.

These words filled Nangong Bo game with fear, he already knew that he was wrong and wanted to seek a chance to be forgiven, but Nangong Bo Ling's attitude like this, it was obvious that he would not give him the chance.

"Brother, I'm your brother, don't you allow me to make a mistake for once? I know I'm stupid and confused, but we have blood ties, how can you k*ll me." Nangong Boling said in a panicked voice.

Nangong Bo Ling smiled faintly, what is a blood relation? And the moment Nangong Boqi chose to betray him, did he ever think that there was a blood relationship between them?

Han Qiangiang spoke up at this time and said, "Do you still need to prove it?"

The first time Nangong Boling put away the coldness on his face, he wouldn't suspect that Han Qianli had misjudged these people he had found out, so whether it was formal or not, there wasn't much need, and since Han Qianli didn't want to, he naturally wouldn't waste Han Qianli's time.

"No need, thank you for your help." Nangong Boling said.

"Help me arrange the plane, I want to leave as soon as possible." Han Three Thousand said.

"Yes." Nangong Boling echoed.

The conversation between the two was very simple, but their attitude surprised those men and Nangong Boling, they knew very well what kind of person Nangong Boling was, how could they be so respectful to a little kid?

Could it be that this little kid's status is even higher than that of the Nangong family?

How is this possible!

Is there any hidden family in this world that is more powerful than the Nangong family?

How they guessed Han Qianli's identity was of no concern to Han Qianli, and what would happen to them was of no concern to Han Qianli.

After receiving Nangong Boling's reply, Han 3,000 left.

The Nangong family had a certain value to Han 3,000, which is why he helped Nangong Boling find the spies, or else Han 3,000 wouldn't have bothered.

The contents of the tablet are unknown, but Han Qianliang's intuition told him that it might be the key to deal with the Linlong, so the importance of the tablet is self-evident, and Nangong Boling, as the guardian of the tablet, of course, cannot be in trouble.

Han Qianliang bumped into Xiaolong and the woman on his way back to the villa in the VIP area.

Xiaolong has decided to take the woman with him, but Han Qianxiang can see that she doesn't think very highly of him, so the fate between them will probably end when they leave Nangong Island, not knowing whether this will hurt Xiaolong or not.

Although Xiaolong is a jerk, Han Giangxi can see that he is still a little white in terms of feelings, and such a person can easily fall into an inextricable relationship, especially when the woman is very beautiful, and it is easy for the man to indulge.

This is the situation that Bruce is now facing.

The woman was beautiful and had sex with Xiaolong, but in her eyes, the relationship was nothing more than a transaction, and Han Giangxiang was worried that Xiaolong was unable to recognize this.

"Boss." After seeing Han Qianqian, Xiaolong ran up to Han Qianqian, although there were still women around, but he still remembered Han Qianqian as the boss, which means that at least he was not blinded by beauty.

"I'll be leaving later." Han Qianqian said.

Xiaolong's eyelids jumped, and he subconsciously looked at the woman and said, "Boss, can you take her with you?"

Now the woman also realized the seriousness of the matter, she knew that even if she continued to stay here, it would not end well, so she also made up her mind to leave with Xiaolong, of course, just leave together, as for leaving, she did not want to continue to have any involvement with Xiaolong.

"Sure, but you don't like her, do you?" Han Qianqian asked.

Xiaolong smiled bitterly and said, "Boss, I'm just a small punk, how could she be interested in me, according to what she said, her family is very rich, and her family was sent to the island to suck up to Nangong Boling, so how could she be interested in me."

"You didn't answer my question positively, but since she was able to be sent to the island, so her family, it's not very important to her, it's even possible that she's just the illegitimate daughter of some rich man, you don't need to look down on yourself." Although she didn't get a personal admission from Xiaolong, Han Qianli knew that what he was worried about had already happened.

If Xiaolong didn't have a crush on her, he definitely wouldn't have avoided Han Qianli's question and looked left and right.

"Boss, why would you say that?" Xiaolong looked surprised and asked, he couldn't figure out why Han Qianli had such a suspicion.

Han Qianqian smiled faintly and said, "If she was really that important, how could she be traded like an object, and if she were your daughter, would you give her away just to suck up to someone?"

"Of course not." Xiao Long said categorically, "My own daughter is a treasure. Xiaolong said categorically, his own daughter, that is a treasure, how can you give someone as a maid for a little benefit.

"If you can't even, then how can a rich man, how can he give it up?" Han 3,000 said.

Xiaolong nodded, I'm afraid she was really a bastard daughter who didn't even have the right to return to her home.

But thinking about it this way, she was quite pitiful, making Xiaolong feel even more sorry for her inside.

If she hadn't chosen her, she would have had a chance to stay on the island, and it was all because of herself that she was ruined.

Chapter 1352

Han Qianqiang doesn't know Xiaolong's inner thoughts, or else he would have pushed Xiaolong to the ground and blasted him, because this idiot has no need to take the blame on himself.

From the day the woman boarded the island, her fate was already not to be chosen by herself, and the fact that Xiaolong chose her was only the result of the risk she took, and it was never Xiaolong's fault.

It didn't take long for the helicopter to be ready.

Nangong Boling solved the matter of the spy as quickly as possible, and then came to send off Han Qianliang.

No need to think about what happened to those spies, even if they were Nangong Bo Ling's own brother, they would not be able to escape death.

"I hope we can meet soon." Nangong Boling said to Han Qianqiang, he couldn't wait to unlock the other world, and he knew that the next time we met would definitely be the chance to go to the other world.

"This matter won't be too soon, because I don't want to go to die either." Han Qianli said indifferently.

Nangong Boling didn't change his face, but he was slightly surprised, but he had seen Han Qianliang's extraordinary ability, and Han Qianliang's life was in danger in that world, enough to imagine how dangerous it was there.

Of course, in Xuanyuan World, Han 3,000 was already invincible, after all, he had the strength of the God Realm, which no one in Xuanyuan World had ever reached, but the strength of the Lin Long still made Han 3,000 impossible to ignore.

In terms of humans, Han 3,000 is the strongest, there is no doubt about that.

But the existence of the Lin Long was an insurmountable mountain in front of Han 3,000.

"I will always wait for you." Nangong Boling said.

Han Qianxiang casually waved his hand and then got into the helicopter.

The woman had a great deal of doubt in her heart, although she knew that Han 3,000 was Nangong Boling's VIP, but Nangong Boling's attitude toward her was more than just a VIP.

She even saw a trace of fear of Han Qianli in Nangong Boling's eyes, which made her very puzzled.

The Nangong family is the strongest hidden family in the world, bar none, and as the head of the family, how could Nangong Boling be afraid of a child?

Could it be that this little kid has the power to make Nangong Boling fearful?

The helicopter departs towards the closest island country to Nangong Island, which is also under the control of the Nangong family.

The helicopter could not make the long flight, so it was necessary to change to a long-haul flight in this island country.

After boarding the plane, the woman kept her eyes on Han Qiangiang because she was so curious about Han Qiang and wondered how such a small child could get Nangong Boling's attention.

At the same time, she also thought that if she could use the child to do something for herself, then her position in her own family would no longer be that of a tool.

Han Qianqian could sense that she was watching her, but Han Qianqian, with her eyes closed, was unwilling to communicate with her too much, so she could only pretend that she didn't know anything.

But this kind of evasion did not seem to work.

When the woman took the initiative to move to sit beside Han Qianqian, he knew that the right thing to do had come after all.

"You're curious about who I am?" Without waiting for her to ask, Han Giangli took the initiative and said.

"As far as I know, Nangong Boling is the most powerful person in the world." The woman said.

Han Qianli smiled faintly and said, "But you feel that I'm even more powerful than him?"

"It's not that it's awesome, it's that I see in his eyes that he's afraid of you, and it's no longer as simple as you being better than him." The woman said.

Han Qianqian didn't expect her to see quite thoroughly, Nangong Boling did fear him, but a mortal's fear of God was a matter of course, nothing to be surprised about.

But Han Qianqian, would not reveal his identity to her.

"Even Nangong Boling is afraid of me, what makes you think you can pry into my identity?" Han Qianqian faintly said.

The words left the woman speechless, not knowing where to begin, as she was indeed not qualified to know who Han Qianqian really was.

"But I'm a woman under you."

This made Han Qianqian almost laugh out loud, and embarrassed Xiaolong on the side.

He was just Han Qianli's subordinate, was he still qualified to know Han Qianli's secrets?

"Don't disturb my boss's rest." Xiaolong stood up and said to the woman, acting as if to tell her to get away from Han Qianxiang.

He would never let a woman ruin his relationship with Han 3,000, and he would never be disloyal to Han 3,000 because of a woman.

The woman gritted her teeth, she knew that Xiaolong had a crush on her, and she also knew that as long as she was with Xiaolong, she might be able to get Han 3,000 yuan's help.

But after all, Xiaolong was only a little brother, and she would never want to lower her own status by being with such a person unless she had to.

Sitting back down in her seat, the woman closed her eyes and began to rest.

The journey was wordless, and at the second transfer, Xiaolong said goodbye to her, and also left his contact information, which was an opportunity Xiaolong left for himself.

At this time in Cloud City.

Mo Yang had already helped Han Qianqian get the office building, and the office building had already played Feng Qian's signboard, especially large and eye-catching.

For a while, Yun Cheng was curious about what kind of background this Fengqian company actually had, the first time it appeared in Yun Cheng, it even bought the entire office building, and also Mo Yang personally helped get it done.

This inevitably reminds people of the amazing power of the boss behind Fengqian, after all, in Yuncheng, it is not a simple matter to want Mo Yang to help with things.

Su family villa.

The master of the Su family called a meeting with everyone.

The emergence of Fengqian, a new company, will certainly have an impact on the existing business landscape of Yuncheng, and they still do not know what kind of business Fengqian is involved in, so there must be thorough consideration in order to deal with Fengqian's sudden entry into Yuncheng.

Of course, there is also the fact that it would be the best situation for the Su family if they could befriend Fengqian and even have the chance to enter into some kind of cooperation with Fengqian.

The Su family sat in the company conference room as if they were lazy, and only when the old man appeared did they manage to lift their spirits.

"I'm sure you've all heard about Feng Qian's matter, right?" The old man sat on the throne and asked the question with a serious face.

Chapter 1353

"Dad, the whole of Cloud City is making a lot of noise right now, so how could we not know?"

"I heard that Feng Qian's office building, or Mo Yang came out to get it done and cleaned up all the companies there."

"To be able to get Mo Yang to step in, this Feng Qian's background is not small."

Several people in the Su family have revealed their sighs, only Su Guoyao did not speak, because now he is still the lowest status son of the Su family, even if Su Laozi intends to value him, but his personal ability is limited, has never contributed to the company, in this occasion, not even a chance to speak.

"Dad, what exactly does this Feng Qian Company do, do you know?" Su Guolin asked.

"There's no news yet to reveal where Fengqian is pointing its sword, but judging from the amount of money spent on the entire office building, Fengqian will definitely cause turmoil to the business community in Cloud City, and I'm afraid all walks of life will be affected quite a bit." Master Su said with a worried face.

These words made his children silent.

The other party's background was powerful, and if they got involved in the building materials market, the Su family would certainly suffer a very serious blow, which was something that no one in the Su family wanted to see.

"Dad, do you have any ideas?" Su Guoyao weakly opened his mouth to ask.

As soon as he spoke, the other several siblings, have revealed the contempt, this kind of meeting, he is a waste, what qualifications to open mouth, nothing to help the guy, quietly listen to not just.

"Big Brother, you just don't open your mouth, you can't help."

"Yeah, honestly listen to Dad's arrangements can't, must be nosy."

"Hardly, do you have any good suggestions?"

Su Guoyao gritted his teeth and said, "Since this is a meeting, you all have the right to speak, so why can't I?"

Su Guolin laughed disdainfully, stood up directly and said, "Brother, of course you have the right to speak, but what you said, did it help the company, and have you made any merit for the company over the years?"

The word "meritorious" was indeed a bit distant for Su Guoyao, who had made almost no achievements in the company, which was the reason why he had no status in the Su family.

"This is a meeting, not a place you use to quarrel," the old man snapped coldly. The old man snapped in a cold voice.

Only then did Su Guolin, full of dissatisfaction, sit back down in his seat, and Su Guoyao, too, stopped talking.

"Although this is a crisis for the Su family, it's also an opportunity, Feng Qian is such a big hand, it will definitely need some local partners, if we can become Feng Qian's partner, it will be a great good thing for the Su family's development." The old man said.

A few of the children heard this, but they couldn't raise their spirits at all. Feng Qian's background is unimaginable, and even if they really want to find local partners in Yuncheng, it's not the Su family's turn, so this kind of idea is just daydreaming.

"This matter, which one of you will handle it?" The old man continued.

Su Guolin and the others began to dodge the old man's eyes, afraid that the old man would entrust them with this impossible task.

The old man couldn't help but sigh in his heart, everyone was afraid to take responsibility, such a company, can we expect to have better development?

"Doesn't anyone else want to go?" The old man was dissatisfied," he said.

Still, no one answered.

At this time, Su Guoyao stood up with a hard scalp.

Su Guolin and the others looked at Su Guoyao in dismay, wondering what this punk wanted to do, could it be that he stood up at such a time to move his muscles and bones?

"Dad, leave it to me, I want to try it," Su Guoyao said.

The whole conference room was silent, the others had never dreamed that Su Guoyao would take on this matter, was he stupidly confused, or did his brain suddenly short-circuit?

"Brother, are you kidding me, just you?" Su Guolin scoffed with a face full of disdain, he was the most incompetent person in the entire company, everyone else dared not answer, but he had to jump out of the limelight.

"I'm not going, are you going?" Su Guoyao asked rhetorically.

Su Guolin was embarrassed by this statement. He was not willing to do such a strenuous and unpleasant task, and he knew that he would be treated badly and would not get any benefit from it.

Su Guolin gritted his teeth, hatred showing in his eyes, he wanted to refute Su Guoyao, but he also didn't want to bring this kind of trouble to his head because of an impulse.

"If you think you can do it, why should I fight with you, I will wait to see you make a fool of yourself." Su Guolin said.

The old man saw that no one else had stepped forward, and someone had to try this matter, and since only Su Guoyao was willing to do so, he could only leave it to him.

"Guoyao, since you're willing, you can give it a try, and the company will fully cooperate with you." The old man said.

"Thank you dad, I will do my best." Su Guoyao said.

"Alright, let's adjourn the meeting." After saying that, the old man was the first to leave the conference room.

Su Guolin then walked up to Su Guoyao, although they were brothers, Su Guolin's attitude towards Su Guoyao was not at all like that of his own brother.

"Awesome ah, you dare to do this kind of thing, you don't really think you can do it, do you?" Su Guolin said with a teasing smile on his face.

"If you haven't done it yet, how do you know if you can do it?" Su Guoyao faintly said.

"Hahahahaha." Su Guolin held his belly laughing and said, "You don't know what you can do, do you? The entire Su family, you are the most useless, why don't you even have any self-awareness?"

Su Guoyao's face remained unchanged, this kind of mockery has been a commonplace for him, he also wanted to prove it for himself, but never had the opportunity, maybe this time, is a very good opportunity.

If he could really negotiate a cooperation with Feng Qian, then his status in the company would not be something that someone like Su Guolin could take lightly.

"We'll see, when I get a deal done, Dad will definitely be impressed with me, and then I'll be entrusted with an important task, while you, like when you were young, can only be my sidekick." Su Guoyao said.

This made Su Guolin gnash his teeth in anger, when he was a child, he was indeed Su Guoyao's sidekick, and this kind of thing was a humiliating past that he didn't want to bring up.

"Don't you forget how you hid behind me in fights when you were a kid, I'm your big brother, always will be." After leaving these words, Su Guoyao left the meeting room.

Su Guolin was so angry that he clenched his fists and said through gritted teeth, "Su Guoyao, there is absolutely no way I will let you talk it out, just wait and see, can I still be afraid of this loser you?"

Chapter 1354

After Han 3,000 returned to Yun City, the word Fengqian has become a big hit in Yun City, something he did not expect, but this will not make Han 3,000 feel any discomfort, because such a situation is just a matter of time, from the time he had the idea of restarting Fengqian, it was already destined to have such a consequence.

Han Three thousand came to the school entrance at the first time, although he had not been in Nangong Island for a long time, but with the road, he had also been away for nearly ten days, for him, close to ten days without seeing Su Yingxia, he still missed quite a bit.

"Boss, are we waiting for sister-in-law again?" The first time I saw this, I thought it would be a good idea to take a look at it," he said.

Of course, Han 3,000 never intended to wait until Su Yingxia had grown up to be an adult to establish a relationship with Su Yingxia, the reason he is waiting now is mainly because he does not have absolute certainty to deal with the Linlong, otherwise, Han 3,000 has already gone to the forbidden land of the apocalypse.

"I've heard that many people are looking for you everywhere. If you knew you were here, I don't know how those people would react. Xiaolong said curiously, now Fengqian Company has not really been established yet, but the heat of discussion in Yun City about this matter is unprecedented, and for a while even the popularity of the Heavenly Family has been overwhelmed.

It can be said that no one in Yun City now, except Fengqian, can cause such a big stir.

"Don't you forget, you're the boss." Han Qianqian smiled.

Xiaolong was stunned, he was Feng Qian's boss, and the boss wanted to give him the obvious boss position!

This is undoubtedly a huge psychological pressure for Xiaolong, after all, his identity, he is still just a street punk, just followed Han Qianqiang to see the world for a few days, suddenly he wants him to sit in such a high position, he has no idea how to deal with those people, and for such things as opening a company, Xiaolong has no experience at all, he doesn't even know how the company should be started, how to develop.

"Boss, don't joke with me, I don't have the ability to be the boss." Xiaolong said with a bitter face.

On the issue of the company boss, Han Qianli seriously considered it, he even wanted to go to Bin County to look for Tang Zong, but in the end Han Qianli still rejected the idea, because talents can be cultivated.

Whether it was Qin Lin in Yanjing or Tang Zong in Bin County, they were all losers in the past, and only after meeting Han 3,000 did they gradually embark on the road to success.

Xiao Long, on the other hand, also had such an opportunity, and as long as he was given enough pressure, he would certainly be able to grow up with his weight on his shoulders. Han Qianqian hoped to give him such an opportunity, rather than denying his ability when he hadn't even tried.

"From now on, you'll learn how to be a boss, and I'll let you go to the Heavenly Family." Han 3,000 said.

Xiao Long's mouth was dry, and he was so nervous that he didn't know what to say, because he could tell that Han Qianqian had made him the boss of Feng Qian.

But from a small-time gangster, he suddenly became the owner of the company, and the change in status was so dramatic that Xiaolong didn't know how to accept the change.

In addition to the fear of the unknown, Xiaolong also had a firm point in his heart that he was not willing to disappoint Han Qianqian since she gave him a chance.

After thinking about it for a long time, Xiaolong said to Han Qianqian; "Boss, I will try my best to adapt and not disappoint you as much as possible."

"Everyone plays a different role, adapting to a new identity is not a difficult task, you just need to know that you don't have to be afraid of anyone, those big bosses to you are just some minions, when you can firmly believe in this mindset, you won't be afraid of them."

After a pause, Han Qianqian continued, "No matter what their identity is, they are just people after all, and they can't eat you, so you don't have to be afraid of them."

In order to be able to relax Xiaolong's mind, Han Qianli also did his best to persuade him, as to whether or not Xiaolong could change his mind in a short period of time, that was a matter of his own ability.

"Boss, I understand." Xiaolong said with a firm look in his eyes.

At this time, school was finally over, and students were coming out of the school entrance.

When Han Qiangli saw Su Yingxia, he also saw Qi Yiyun at the same time. The two of them were laughing and talking, and seemed to have become good friends.

When Qi Yiyun saw Han Qiangli, the corner of her mouth unconsciously raised, because Han Qiangli's sudden return was a big surprise to her.

Just as Qi Yiyun was about to run to Han Qianqian, she suddenly realized that Han Qianqian's appearance here was not for her, but for Su Yingxia who was beside her.

This made Qi Yiyun as if a pot of cold water was poured from head to toe, instantly penetrating the heart cold, the corners of her mouth raised smile also gradually news.

"Yingxia, I'm leaving first, see you tomorrow." Qi Yiyun said to Su Yingxia, "I'll see you tomorrow," she said.

Su Yingxia didn't know what changed inside of Qi Yiyun, smiled and said, "See you tomorrow."

Qi Yiyun turned around and walked away, not even greeting Han Qiangli.

Han Qianqiang, on the other hand, walked straight up to Su Yingxia, also pretending not to know YiYun.

"What are you doing here again?" Su Yingxia didn't even dare to look at Han Qianqian and said with her head down.

This shy look couldn't help but remind Han Qianli of the first time between him and Su Yingxia, when Su Yingxia was also so red that she was about to drip water.

"I've been away from Cloud City for a while and only came back today." Han Qianli said.

Su Yingxia was wondering why Han Qianli didn't show up these days, and even felt a little lost in her heart, not expecting Han Qianli to have left Cloud City for something, so she didn't look for her.

This made Su Yingxia feel a little tingly inside.

"Yingxia, what are you doing?" At this time, a man's strong voice came out.

Hearing this voice, Su Yingxia suddenly showed a hint of panic.

Han Qiang followed the voice and couldn't help but raise the corners of his mouth, isn't this his future father-in-law, Su Guoyao?

"What's going on?" After Su Guoyao approached, he took a wary look at Han Qianqiang and asked Su Yingxia.

Chapter 1355

Su Yingxia shook her head in panic and said to Su Guoyao, "It's okay, Dad, what are you doing here."

Su Guoyao stared at Han Qianli and questioned Han Qianli, "Kid, don't harass my daughter, or I won't let you off."

Han Qianqian shook his head with a smile and said, "Su Guoyao, she and I are just ordinary friends, we didn't harass her."

Su Guoyao frowned, it was a strange feeling to be called by name by a small child, and even stranger was that this little kid actually recognized him.

The current Su family was not too well-known in Cloud City, not even a third-rate family, so except for some partners who could recognize the Su family, the Su family was just ordinary people to others.

"You know me?" Su Guoyao was confused.

"I've heard that the Su family has a small but famous building materials business in Cloud City." Han Qianqian said.

This made Su Guoyao feel a bit proud of himself. The word "little famous" was already a very high evaluation for the current Su family.

"If the Su family's business wants to grow, there's an opportunity now," Han Qiangiang continued.

Su Guoyao no longer thought about proving himself all the time in the company, but unfortunately, his personal ability was limited, and proving himself was just an empty idea that he had no way to do.

But listening to Han Qianqian's words, it seems that the time has come?

Su Guoyao asked, "What opportunity."

"You should have heard of Feng Qian," Han Qianqian said.

Su Guoyao smiled faintly, now the entire Yun City's business figures, who dares to say that they have not heard of Feng Qian, just so far, no one knows what Feng Qian actually does.

"Of course I know, is Feng Qian from your family?" Su Guoyao said with a smile.

Strictly speaking, Fengqian belonged to Han Qianqian personally, but he would not tell Su Guoyao about such things.

For Han Qianqian, who was used to being a hands-off shopkeeper, he didn't want to get too many troublesome things involved on himself.

"No, but I know Feng Qian's internal plan," Han Marchian said.

This made Su Guoyao's eyelids jump, and now the entire Yuncheng business community was speculating about what business Feng Qian would be involved in, and only when they knew about it would they understand the direction of Feng Qian's cooperation.

It would be very beneficial for Su Guoyao to know about Feng Qian's next move.

But can such a little kid really know Feng Qian's internal plan? Su Guoyao doubted this.

"Feng Qian has just been established, and now no one in the entire Cloud City should know what it actually does, so how do you know?" Su Guoyao questioned.

"Because I know the owner of Feng Qian, and I'm a very good friend," Han Qianqian said.

Su Guoyao's heartbeat quickened a lot when he saw that Han Qianqian spoke with great confidence, and judging from his expression, it didn't look like he was lying.

It was too important for him to know such insider information.

"Little friend, do you have time, I'll treat you to dinner tonight, come to my home." Su Guoyao said.

Han Qiangliang looked at Su Yingxia, finally he had the chance to have dinner with Su Yingxia, although not alone, but this was enough.

"Of course." Han Qianli responded in one breath.

"Okay, I'll tell you the address, and you must come tonight." Su Guoyao said.

After leaving his address for Han Qianqian, Su Guoyao picked up Su Yingxia and took her home, feeling like a deer bumping around in his heart, full of anticipation for tonight's dinner party.

If Han Qiangliang could bring him useful information, it would be a huge opportunity for him to prove his ability in the Su family.

"Yingxia, who is this friend of yours, do you know?" On the way home, Su Guoyao asked Su Yingxia to take this opportunity to understand the identity of Han Qiangli.

Since Han Qiangliang is a friend of the owner of Feng Qian Company, his status must be not low.

The company's first and foremost focus is on the development of a new generation of products and services.

"Dad, I've only met him a few times." Su Yingxia said.

"Only met him a few times, how could he be willing to tell me such an important matter?" Su Guoyao hesitated and continued, "Dad is against your early love, after all, you are still young, but if he is truly good to you, Dad has no problem with it."

"Dad, what are you talking about." Su Yingxia looked at Su Guoyao with a speechless face, she didn't think of falling in love early, even though she did have a slight fondness for Han Qianli inside, she also didn't think of developing a relationship with Han Qianli as a lover.

The most important thing is that Su Yingxia knows very well why Su Guoyao said so, she is trying to use herself to please Han Qianqian.

"The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services, and to provide a wide range of products and services to the public. Su Guoyao said with a sigh on his face, in the meeting room, Su Guoyao promised this matter, has a big impulse component, now calm down carefully think about it, Feng Qian so big energy, can move Mo Yang this level of big people, how will the Su family in the eyes of it?"

Su Guoyao's meeting with the boss of Fengqian Company was not easy, not to mention the cooperation.

But what Su Guoyao didn't expect is that there is a chance for things to turn around, and the person Su Yingxia knows actually knows the boss of Fengqian.

That's why he changed his mind about Su Yingxia's early love, because he felt that if Su Yingxia and Han Qianqiang really had that kind of relationship, Han Qianqiang would definitely help the Su family and Feng Qianqiang to reach a cooperation.

"Dad, even if you gave the order, you can't use me as a tool to use." Although Su Yingxia was young, her heart was very open, after all, the people and things that children are exposed to nowadays are enough to give them a precocious mindset.

"You know why Su Haichao and Su Yehan dare to bully you? It's because Dad's status in the company is not high. If this can be done, no one will dare to underestimate me in the future, and Su Haichao and Su Yehan will not dare to bully you." Su Guoyao said.

Su Yingxia looked embarrassed, every time she went back to her grandmother's house, she could feel the other relatives' rejection of them, she also knew that all the Su relatives looked down on them because of Su Guoyao, but she and Han Qianqian were indeed just ordinary friends, and such a big matter could not be solved with her help.

And whether or not Han Qianqian has that kind of intention for her is something Su Yingxia can't be sure of.

Chapter 1356

Seeing Su Yingxia's dilemma, Su Guoyao didn't want to push her too hard, so he stopped saying anything.

After returning home, Su Yingxia went to her room to do her homework, while Su Guoyao started to prepare dinner.

Jiang Lan was still out playing mahjong at such times, and had never cooked for all the years she had been married to Su Guoyao.

Jiang Lan only complained about Su Guoyao, because she married Su Guoyao because she had some money in the Su family, but who would have thought that Su Guoyao would be so useless in the Su family, which directly caused Jiang Lan's dream to be shattered.

Of course, Jiang Lan still had some hope for Su Guoyao, because the Su family's building materials business was doing well, and when the old man died, he would be able to get a share of the family fortune.

In order to maintain their relationship, Su Guoyao tried his best to take care of Jiang Lan's feelings, and never got angry with her, which made it impossible for Jiang Lan to find an excuse to divorce.

It was close to seven o'clock when Jiang Lan came home, and once she got home, she was not smiling as if she was at the mahjong table, but with a cold face, as if someone owed her money.

"What are you doing, you won the lottery, aren't you afraid of wasting so many dishes, do you know how much our monthly living expenses are?" When she saw the food on the table, Jiang Lan complained to Su Guoyao, although she did not make any effort to cook, but this kind of spending money, she absolutely will not allow.

Jiang Lan is a very strange person, she would rather lose her money at the mahjong table than have a better meal at home, and she does everything she can to make herself beautiful outside, buying clothes and dressing up, never considering how much money she has at home.

He even sometimes forced Su Guoyao to reach out to the old man of the family.

"I have guests at home tonight, so I've made two extra dishes." Su Guoyao explained.

Jiang Lan laughed coldly and said, "You've made a difference, inviting people to your home for dinner without my permission, Su Guoyao, you've got a lot of nerve."

As the head of the family, and even the source of income, Su Guoyao's position was rubbed under Jiang Lan's feet, without any dignity of a man.

But Su Guoyao was not angry, but smiled and explained, "Wife, this guest today is very important to me, that's why I didn't ask you for permission in advance."

"What, do you invite him for a meal, and he's going to give you tens of millions of dollars?" Jiang Lan said with disdain, "For her, money is the most important thing, and everything else is out of the question."

Su Guoyao shook his head, and then explained to Jiang Lan what happened in the meeting room today.

After hearing this, Jiang Lan was furious.

About Fengqian Company, she had talked about it with her friends at the mahjong table, and this Fengqian Company was bought by Mo Yang personally, which was enough to show the amazing power of Fengqian.

And Su Guoyao, even took this kind of responsibility, this is not a chance for other relatives to laugh at them?

"Su Guoyao, are you out of your mind, do you know why the entire Su family, only you, a fool, did this?" Jiang Lan was so angry that she crossed her arms and said to Su Guoyao in a stern voice.

"I know, they don't dare, they don't think it can be done." Su Guoyao said.

"You're still righteous with me, if no one else can do it, why should you be able to do it, when have you become so blindly confident, or are you sick in the head?" Jiang Lan scolded him.

Su Guoyao thought that Jiang Lan would praise him, but he didn't expect Jiang Lan to react in such a way, not only not encouraging him, but also downright thinking that he couldn't do it.

Mud Bodhisattva also has a temper.

Su Guoyao put up with everything, but eventually there are times when he cannot swallow his anger.

"Jiang Lan, I didn't expect you to help in this matter, but you can't look down on me like them, you are my wife, I failed, it won't do you any good, you want to live a good life, you have to rely on me." Su Guoyao retorted through gritted teeth.

Faced with Su Guoyao's sudden outburst, Jiang Lan was somewhat confused, because it was very rare for Su Guoyao to change his face towards her, but this time, Su Guoyao seemed to be really angry.

Of course, this doesn't mean that Jiang Lan is afraid of Su Guoyao, her position in the family will never allow her to be provoked by Su Guoyao.

"What are you fierce for, when did I rely on you to support me, how much money did you take home, a few thousand a month, is it really enough to live, if I didn't win money home, you wouldn't even be able to eat." Jiang Lan said with a fierce expression.

Su Guoyao was so angry that he gasped for breath, although he did not make much money, but this family is also supported by his salary, Jiang Lan went out to play cards, without his money, Jiang Lan would not even be qualified to go to the mahjong table.

At this time, Su Yingxia came out of the room.

The two of them quarreled, and she had become accustomed to it, which was the norm in poor families.

"If you want to quarrel, hurry up, or Han Qianli will be here soon," Su Yingxia said.

This immediately calmed Su Guoyao down, he didn't want his family's shame to be known by Han Qianxiang, an outsider.

"This is my chance to completely turn over a new leaf in the Su family, so don't make trouble." Su Guoyao said to Jiang Lan.

He did not compromise, nor did he admit his mistake.

This was what Jiang Lan did not expect, and thus made her attitude towards this matter become serious.

Could it be that Su Guoyao really had a way to change his position?

If he really did it, he would have good days ahead of him.

Only money could make Jiang Lan Yan endure a moment of calm, so she didn't bother with Su Guoyao.

As for Su Guoyao's attitude toward her if he failed, it was almost easy to imagine.

It didn't take long for the knock on the door to sound.

Su Yingxia was the first to rush to the door and opened it for Han Qianli.

Han Qianqian didn't come empty-handed, but she carried a lot of gifts, which were of low value, but still a token of her appreciation.

Jiang Lan had been looking forward to Han Qianli's arrival, and when she saw Han Qianli, she was obviously disappointed, and she even felt that Su Guoyao was joking with her.

He was able to work with Feng Qian Company, how could it be something that could be solved by a little kid!

But Jiang Lan did not directly explode, but gave Su Guoyao a little face.

"Three thousand, you've come, let's eat quickly, it's all ready," Su Guoyao greeted warmly. Su Guoyao greeted warmly.

Returning to his hometown, Han Three Thousand was in a sentimental mood, thinking that when he first came here, this family, including Su Yingxia, didn't give him any good looks!

Chapter 1357

Although Jiang Lan still had a bitter face, Su Guoyao and Su Yingxia's attitude was at least good, which made Han Qianli feel somewhat relieved, and he would never let the humiliating incident happen again, nor would he let anyone treat him as trash.

Jiang Lan originally had high expectations for Han Qianli. Although she despised Su Guoyao and thought that Su Guoyao would not be able to make a deal with Feng Qianli, she always held a little hope in her heart.

But the appearance of Han Qianqian made her very disappointed, just a little kid, how could he help in this matter?

In Jiang Lan's opinion, Han Qianqian was not even worthy of three dishes and one soup, let alone a table full of dishes.

Jiang Lan stood up, went to Su Guoyao's side, grabbed Su Guoyao's ear in front of Han Qianqian, and said: "Su Guoyao, are you kidding me?"

Jiang Lan also said this in front of Han Qianqian, which means she has no intention of avoiding suspicion or giving Han Qianqian the slightest bit of face.

At home, Su Guoyao usually tolerates Jiang Lan to the best of his ability, even if Jiang Lan calls him a wimp one by one, Su Guoyao will not be angry. But today, in front of an outsider, who is likely to help him and Feng Qian, Jiang Lan's behavior is a bit unbearable for Su Guoyao.

Moreover, she said such words in front of Han Qiangli, which made Su Guoyao even more worried that she would offend Han Qiangli.

"Let go of me." Su Guoyao said in a cold voice.

Jiang Lan has never put this wimp in her eyes, and if she tells her to loosen up, won't she lose face at all?

"Su Guoyao, you're really winged, you dare to order me, I won't loose, what can you do to me?" Jiang Lan was like a shrew, not giving face to Su Guoyao at all.

Su Guoyao took a deep breath, this matter was too crucial for him, he would never allow Jiang Lan to offend Han Qianqian, if he let Jiang Lan ruin his only chance, Su Guoyao would never have any chance to turn back in his life.

Su Guoyao backhandedly punched Jiang Lan's arm.

Jiang Lan, who was in pain, unconsciously let go of Su Guoyao.

Just as Jiang Lan's temper was about to explode, Su Guoyao said with a gloomy face, "If you keep messing around, get out of this house, this is my Su family, not a place for you, Jiang Lan."

Jiang Lan was confused for a moment. After being married to Su Guoyao for so many years, Su Guoyao had been bullied and scolded at will, and had rarely even talked back, let alone taken action, which was why Jiang Lan was allowed to take advantage of the situation.

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services, and to provide a wide range of products and services to the public.

What's more, Su Guoyao, who had a gloomy face, made Jiang Lan feel a bit afraid, he was suddenly like a changed person, full of fearful atmosphere.

"Su Guoyao, you have the ability to say it again." Jiang Lan was not willing to show weakness in response.

Su Guoyao's discontent, which had been hidden for years, finally burst out in full at this moment and said, "This is my Su family, if you have a grievance against this place, get out of this family."

Su Guoyao finally became a man with a straight back.

If there was no Han Qian Yao present, Su Guoyao might have continued to choose patience as before, but now, he has the opportunity to change his fate, and this opportunity was decided by Han Qian Yao, so he must choose to be a man again.

Su Guoyao knows that if this can be done, even if Jiang Lan leaves home now, she will come back one day to show her affection, because she is a woman who loves money.

Even if Jiang Lan doesn't come back, Su Guoyao will still be short of women after he is rich and powerful.

"Su Guoyao, are you crazy, you dare to treat me like this, I'm not finished with you." After saying that, Jiang Lan reached out his hand and grabbed Su Guoyao's face.

After blocking Jiang Lan's hand, Su Guoyao slapped Jiang Lan's face.

The slapping sound was so loud that it resonated throughout the living room.

Han Qianliang took a spare glance at Su Yingxia, and what surprised him was that Su Yingxia was extremely calm in the face of her parents' fight, and had no intention of helping anyone.

She had already become accustomed to all this, or she didn't care about the relationship between her parents at all.

Jiang Lan covered her face, and her eyes flickered with disbelief.

She couldn't believe that Su Guoyao had beaten her. For so many years, she had ridden on Su Guoyao's head to make a name for herself, and she had let Su Guoyao do everything by himself.

Feeling the hot pain on her face, Jiang Lan knew it was not a dream.

"If you're willing, sit down and eat in peace, if you're not willing, get out of this door now." Su Guoyao pointed at the door and said to Jiang Lan, he has no regrets, Jiang Lan's years of bullying him has caused this situation, even if it means divorce, Su Guoyao can accept it.

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to the public.

"Su Guoyao you remember, if you don't kneel down and apologize to me, don't even think that I will take one step into this family again." After saying that, Jiang Lan directly left.

Su Guoyao didn't stay.

Su Yingxia didn't even look at him.

After taking a deep breath, Su Guoyao turned to Han Qianqian and said, "I'm sorry to have made you see a joke."

"I didn't see anything, but this table is quite rich," Han Qiangli said.

"Yes, yes, yes, let's eat quickly, or the food will get cold." Su Guoyao said quickly.

Sitting at the table, Su Guoyao opened the topic, left and right things pulling some unrelated gossip, he was afraid that directly into the subject will make Han Qianli unhappy, after all, at the time of eating, it is not appropriate to discuss too serious matters.

"Do you know the west side of the city?" Han Qiangiang suddenly asked Su Guoyao, "I know, the west side of the city has been abandoned for many years.

"I know, the west side of the city has been abandoned for many years, it's full of old factories, the government originally planned to have a plan, but no company was willing to take it on, so that area was abandoned, after all, it's not that simple to bring in new factories." Yuncheng Industry was still very good ten years ago, but after a global financial crisis, it led to the total fall of those factories, and none of them escaped the fate of bankruptcy, recalling this incident, Su Guoyao still has quite a lot of emotions in his heart.

Chapter 1358

Back then, Su Guoyao watched those factories close down, and he also saw many factory owners begging for cooperation and joint ventures in order to survive, and that period of time can be said to be the most miserable period of time in Cloud City, even the Su family's building materials sales, also reached an unprecedented low state.

Just as Su Guoyao was lamenting in his heart, he suddenly came back to his senses, Han Qiangiang inexplicably mentioned the west side of the city.

"Feng Qian doesn't want to restart the factory in the west of the city, does he?" Su Guoyao asked Han Qianqian in astonishment, those factories have long been abandoned, if to recreate an industrial park, this will certainly be a big plan, this piece of cake even if it can share some of the corners of the Su family, is enough to make Su Guoyao turn over in the Su family company.

"It has nothing to do with the factory," Han Marchiang said.

Su Guoyao frowned, if it has nothing to do with the factory, then what else can it do? Is there any other value to be found in that wasteland?

"If it wasn't for the factory, that land wouldn't be worth much," Su Guoyao said. Su Guoyao said.

"There, it will be the new city of Cloud City and the economic core of Cloud City." Han Qiangiang said.

Su Guoyao was stunned for a moment, not feeling that this was such an incredible thing, but rather felt that it was a bit of a joke.

To develop the wasteland west of the city into a new urban area, isn't this a joke?

With the economic strength of Cloud City, how could it drive the development of the new city, even if Feng Qian really has such a plan, the new city, I guess, is a ghost town.

How can an eighteen-line small city, Cloud City, allow the development of a new city?

"Your friend, is he really going to do this, doesn't he know that the strength of Cloud City can't drive the development of the new city?" Su Guoyao shook his head helplessly and said.

"Relying on Cloud City alone, naturally we can't do it, but it's not difficult to attract investment from outsiders." Han Qiangli said.

Su Guoyao finally felt that Han Qiangnian was unreliable, because what he said was all nonsense, it's certainly not difficult to attract foreign investment, but isn't it difficult to attract foreign investment? What makes Cloud City an attractive place for outsiders to invest?

As far as Cloud City is concerned, there is no development potential to be seen at all.

"Three thousand years, you're a friend who thinks too simply," Su Guoyao said.

"It's not that he thinks too simply, but you underestimate him, you think that the new city can't develop, but with his ability, he can do all the world's top brands, all converge in the new city, when these brands will have a chain effect, you can't imagine, and the west of the city, will become the largest shopping mall in the Asia-Pacific region, you can think of the brand. All of them will appear in the Fengqian Commercial Building in the new city." Han Qianli said with a smile.

Su Guoyao was confused.

He felt like he was listening to an unreliable brag.

The world's top brands?

You know those famous brands, can only have their own stores in first-tier cities, even if the second-tier cities they do not like, how could they appear in this 18-line city?

But Han Qiangiang said so categorically, which means that his friend, who should be very powerful, might be able to make this thing become true.

If this is the case, it's great news for Su Guoyao. The construction of the new city, and the Su family happens to be in the building materials business, if they can cooperate with Feng Qian, the Su family definitely has the hope to rise to the top tier of Yun City.

Just thinking about this possibility, Su Guoyao could not hold back his excitement.

Su Guoyao, who was breathing rapidly, asked, "Are you not kidding me, that friend of yours, can he really do it?"

"In less than three days, the regional directors of major brands will all come to Cloud City to discuss this matter, whether it's true or not, you'll know then." Han Qianli said with a smile.

Su Guoyao felt his mouth dry, and even had a feeling of numbness in his scalp, because once these things come true, the future of Cloud City is unlimited.

"Three thousand, you ..... know that the Su family is in the building materials business, right?" Su Guoyao asked excitedly.

"Of course I know." Han Qianqian smiled.

Su Guoyao took a deep breath and said, "If you can help me reach a cooperation with Feng Qian, I can agree to any of your requests, how about it?"

Su Guoyao knew that right now he didn't have anything that could be valued by Han Qianqian, but such a good opportunity was in front of him, and once he grabbed it, Su Guoyao would completely turn over a new leaf, and he didn't want to miss this opportunity.

"You should know that there are many more powerful building materials companies in Cloud City than the Su family," Han Qianli said.

"I know, of course I know, the Su family is not the most powerful company in Cloud City, but don't worry, the Su family is definitely the most honest and trustworthy partner, and as long as Feng Qian is willing, the Su family is willing to make the biggest profit concessions." Su Guoyao said.

"Can this matter be settled by your word?" Han Marchiang asked.

Su Guoyao's position in the company was that of a henchman, and naturally such an important decision was not his to make.

But Su Guoyao dared to agree to it because he knew that even if his father were standing here right now, he would say the same thing.

The profit concession is only a reduction in the Su family's economic income, but to be able to participate in the construction of the new city, for the Su family, it is not just a simple economic change, but also the Su family's social status.

The Su family's social status is not only a change in the economy, but also in their social status. With their social status, can they still lose the opportunity to make money?

So Su Guoyao was sure that even the old man, even if the old man, would agree to it.

"Don't worry, what I say now, I can do it all." Su Guoyao said.

"But, after all, the company is my friend's, who exactly to cooperate with, or he has to say, so, I can arrange for you to meet, as to whether the cooperation can be successful, is your business." Han Qianli said.

"Yes, yes, I understand, I understand, I'm already grateful that you were able to introduce and tell me this news." Su Guoyao said with a face full of gratitude, such an important piece of news, I'm afraid not many people in Yun City still know, this is very important to Su Guoyao, and even the entire Su family.

They can seize the first opportunity to talk to Feng Qian about cooperation, in this case, there is almost no competition.

After the meal, Su Guoyao went out before he had time to clean up the dishes. The matter of cooperation with Fengqian, he still has to go back and discuss with his father, to make concessions, also depends on his father's attitude, and the amount of concessions, is also the old man can decide.

Chapter 1359

Han Qianqiang accompanied Su Yingxia to clear the table.

Su Yingxia seemed to be accustomed to doing these chores and moved skillfully.

"Do you do housework often?" Han Giangli asked Su Yingxia.

"My mom doesn't do anything at home, and she's also bullying my dad, so I'm the only one who can help." Su Yingxia said.

Han Qianli laughed, it seems that Su Guoyao's position in the family is such that even Su Yingxia can't stand it anymore.

No wonder she didn't even change her face when Su Guoyao and Jiang Lan fought just now, and she didn't persuade Jiang Lan to leave home.

I guess in Su Yingxia's heart, she already wished Su Guoyao would resist.

This is also a side-effect of how excessive Jiang Lan is, even her own daughter can't bear to see her.

"Do you think that I should help your father?" Han Qianqian asked.

Su Yingxia was clearly stunned.

Although she was still young, she knew that if her father wanted to be used in the Su family, then the cooperation with Feng Qian had to be agreed upon.

And looking at Han Qianli's appearance, he seemed to be able to decide this matter.

"Is the owner of Feng Qian's company really your friend, or are you making a friend out of nothing?" Su Yingxia asked.

"Of course they are my friends, how could I make something out of nothing, if I couldn't introduce them to each other, how would I dare to brag." Han Qianli said with a smile.

"What I said about creating something out of nothing is not something that is there or not, but a friend of a friend." Su Yingxia stared blankly at Han Qianqian, and although she thought it was unlikely, her intuition told her that Fengqian Company was not Han Qianqian's friend at all, but Han Qianqian's own.

Han Qianqiang was stunned by Su Yingxia's words.

She must have suspected that she was Feng Qian's boss because she said so.

But this, Han Qianli would never admit.

"Do you think I can be Feng Qian's boss?" Han Qianqiang looked dumbfounded and said, "I'm not even qualified to register my company, I'm not even of legal age yet, and do you think I'm that good?"

Su Yingxia's brow wrinkled, this is just a kind of intuition, as to whether Han Qianli is or not, she can't decide.

"Why are you willing to help our family?" Su Yingxia asked.

"Because of you." Han Qianli said without any concealment, although showing her purpose too directly now might cause Su Yingxia to resist, but Han Qianli felt that there was no need for her to lie in front of Su Yingxia, and this kind of thing would be revealed sooner or later, so there was no point in hiding it.

"Why is it because of me?" Su Yingxia was confused.

"If I told you that you would be my future wife, would you believe me?" Han Qianqiang said.

Su Yingxia couldn't help but puff out a laugh and said, "Are you going to tell me about my past life and present life, I'm young, but not stupid, I won't be fooled by you casually."

Han Qianli shook his head, the past life and present life things, perhaps most people would not believe, but it is true, Han Qianli's rebirth, so that he has a chance to change his experience, so that the union between him and Su Yingxia, will not suffer the white eyes and abuse of those people.

All the things that had happened, Han Qianli could let it unfold in a new way.

"What I said is true, you don't believe it now, but later, you will definitely know everything." Han Qianli said, "He can't awaken Su Yingxia's memories, because his rebirth would mean that Su Yingxia didn't experience the events of the last life.

But there was a chance that Su Yingxia might know everything, and that was Fuyan, and if the energy beads Fuyan had transformed into were fused with Su Yingxia again, perhaps, she would know everything.

Of course, this is just Han Qianli's current speculation, and Han Qianli doesn't know exactly what kind of changes will happen.

"Have you ever told this story to anyone else?" Su Yingxia asked.

"Of course not." Han Qianli said without hesitation, this is not a way to pick up girls, and how would Han Qianli use it on others.

"I must say, it's novel, but for you, isn't Chi Yi Yun a better choice?" Su Yingxia said.

Han Qianli frowned, Qi Yiyun deliberately avoided him today, according to Han Qianli, Su Yingxia should not know that he and Qi Yiyun knew each other, but she could say such words, clearly knowing that Han Qianli and Qi Yiyun knew each other.

"She and I, we just know each other," Han Qianli said.

"But she's better looking than me." Su Yingxia blinked her eyes and said.

There is no way to deny this point, Han Qianqian, not only now, but also in the future Qi Yiyun, in terms of posture, is still perfect over Su Yingxia, even if Su Yingxia completed the transformation of the goddess, still can not be compared with Qi Yiyun.

But this is not something that can be determined by looks.

The feelings of Han Qianli for Su Yingxia are irreplaceable by any woman.

And Han Qianli will not really like Qi Yiyun, except for some feelings of indebtedness.

"Affection is not measured by beauty, I said that in the last life, you were my wife." Han Qianli said.

Su Yingxia pursed her lips, thinking that this guy is also really good at making up stories and telling them as if they were true.

"If you can really help my dad, I can consider it." Su Yingxia said.

Han Giangli smiled, this was the best result after he made his attitude clear to Su Yingxia, Su Yingxia did not reject him, which was something to be happy about.

As for helping Su Guoyao, wasn't it just a matter of his words?

"Don't worry, I'm here, I'm sure it will work," said Han Qiangli. Han Giangli said.

"You're the boss, of course you're the one in charge." Su Yingxia said, seemingly carelessly.

Han Qianli knew that Su Yingxia was deliberately testing himself, and he didn't defend or admit it, just as if he hadn't heard anything.

While they were clearing the table, Su Guoyao had arrived at the Su family home.

The old man usually liked to make a cup of tea in the evening, sitting quietly in the courtyard and enjoying the bright moon.

"Dad." Su Guoyao shouted softly after walking to the old man's side.

The old man put down the teapot and said with a sigh, "What, do you regret it?"

"No, of course not, I have good news for you." Su Guoyao said.

The old man with his eyes closed suddenly opened his eyes, so soon to have good news, but he never expected.

He didn't expect Su Guoyao to be able to do it?

"Good news so soon?" The old man was surprised by the question.

"The cooperation has not been confirmed yet, but I know some first-hand information that is absolutely vital for us," Su Guoyao said.

A handful of news, which made the old man instantly curious, and gestured Su Guoyao to sit opposite him.

The strong smile at the corner of Su Guoyao's mouth could not be concealed at all, because he knew that when the old man was drinking tea, no one was allowed to disturb him, because the old man enjoyed silence and careful savoring, and it was a very rare treat to let him sit down at such a time.

"Are you sure the news is true?" The old man asked. He was a little surprised that Su Guoyao was able to do these things, because he was well aware of Su Guoyao's ability, so he still had some doubts about the authenticity of the news that Su Guoyao brought.

Su Guoyao himself had already deliberated on this issue, and he felt that Han Qianli could not possibly make up this information in front of him, so he dared to come and report to the old man.

"Dad, don't worry, the news is absolutely true, and it has a lot to do with us," Su Guoyao said. "Su Guoyao said.

The old man's eyebrows slightly wrinkled, and the Su family can and has a great relationship. That is the Su family's business, looks like, Feng Qian's plan, need to use building materials.

"Hurry up and say it. Don't sell out." The old man said with a look of impatience.

"Dad, you know that abandoned field area on the west side of the city, right. "

The old man nodded his head, did not speak, but waited for the rest of the story.

Su Guoyao took a look at the tea on the table, and the old man poured a cup for Su Guoyao without any second words.

Su Guoyao lifted the cup in ecstasy and drank it all, and continued: "Feng Qian's first project is to develop the western part of the city. "

The old man's frown worsened, the west side of the city is almost a piece of rotten land, even the government does not have the slightest solution, and the value of the land is not very high, and the development may not be of much use.

Even if they wanted to restart the industrial park. Even if you want to restart the industrial park, but is Feng Qian that big to bring in factories?

A whole industrial park is not something that can be driven by one or two small factories.

"How to develop it? " the old man asked.

"The new city, the economic core of Cloud City, Feng Qian wants to make the west of the city into the core city of Cloud City. "Su Guoyao said.

After the old man was stunned, he directly waved his hand, and must have felt exactly the same as Su Guoyao did when he first heard about this matter.

Creating the core city area, isn't this a whimsical thing?

With the economic strength of Cloud City, how to support a new urban area.

Even if Feng Qian is really willing to invest a lot of capital to build up the new city, but in the old man's opinion, it is impossible to develop the old city, after all, Cloud City's spending power is limited, and in the absence of economic spending, the new city is just a joke.

"You won't be fooled, Yuncheng is an eighteenth-tier city, even if there is a new city, so what, how can it develop without economic impetus?" The old man shook his head and said, "Now he has some doubts about the truth of what Su Guoyao said about this matter.

Although he still didn't know how capable the boss behind Feng Qian's business was, no matter how capable or rich he was, he couldn't possibly do such a stupid thing. But no matter how capable and rich he is, it is impossible for him to do such a stupid thing.

Building a new city was like throwing money into the sea, in the old man's opinion.

"Dad. Don't worry, I haven't finished yet." Su Guoyao poured himself another cup of tea Rungang, then continued: "The new city will have a Fengqian Mall, this Fengqian Mall, will become the largest shopping center in the entire Asia-Pacific region, all the top-tier brand names in the world, will be stationed in Fengqian Mall, with the influence of these brand names, can attract foreign tourists to spend. In this way, it will be able to boost the development of the entire Cloud City. "

The old man laughed, if that was the plan. The development of the new city is no problem, because he knows how strong the attraction of those famous brands, but to think of these world famous brands to move into the city of clouds, this is not even more of a joke?

Except for the first-tier cities. The company has been in the process of developing a new product, which will be the first of its kind in the world.

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services, and to provide a wide range of products and services. "I'm not sure if I'll be able to do that.

The company has been in the process of developing the new product for the past two years.

"Dad, this matter is absolutely true, absolutely impossible to be false." Su Guoyao said with an air of certainty.

"What do you think, why does Cloud City attract the world's top brands to move in? How can a mere 18th-tier city be taken seriously by the top brands?" The old man questioned.

This question, Su Guoyao does not know how to answer, after all, he also does not know how Boss Feng Qian specifically implement this matter.

But Han Qiangli said very sure, and he also said that the regional director of those brands, will arrive in Yuncheng on the day, he had no need to lie, because this kind of lie, will be quickly debunked.

"Dad, the person in charge of those brands will soon come to Yuncheng. You believe me, we must take the lead in the establishment of the new city. For the demand of building materials, you should know better than me, we must talk to Feng Qian before others do not know about this matter, to cooperate." Su Guoyao said.

If this is the case, the Su family does have an advantage when facing this situation, but if this is just a waste, the Su family is afraid that they will be happy for nothing.

However. Since it was an opportunity, it was worth giving it a try, with or without the establishment of a new city, and being able to reach a good relationship with Feng Qian as soon as possible. It's also a good thing for the Su family.

"I will have people pay close attention to the recent arrivals at the airport, as for the cooperation with Feng Qian, we will have an early meeting tomorrow and discuss it together." The old man said.

This made Su Guoyao anxious. The more people know, the easier it will be to expose this matter. The more people know, the easier it will be to expose this matter. Once others know, Feng Qian could lose the upper hand.

"Dad, there's no need for a meeting, because too many people know about it. What if the news leaks out?" Su Guoyao said with a worried face.

The old man waved his hand and said: "We are all family members, how could the news be leaked out, and there is strength in numbers. All of them help to make plans, only then can more securely take the cooperation, nothing else, you go back first. "

Su Guoyao slumped his head, it was a meritorious thing, but Su Guoyao didn't feel any benefit, and once Su Guolin knew about it, he would definitely steal the merit from him, which made Su Guoyao even more worried.

But things have come to this, he could not disobey the old man's will, and could only stop.

When he left the Su family, Su Guoyao couldn't help but sigh, if he had known this, it would have been better not to tell the old master about it.
