

His True Colors Chapter 156-160

Chapter 156

When Fan Xue appeared again, there were two security guards behind her.

Seeing this situation, Zhang Ling Hua became even more panicked and protected Zhang Tian Xin, saying to Fan Xue, "What do you want?"

"What for?" Fan Xue laughed coldly and said, "This retarded son of yours is a scum-sucking worm of society, of course I'm going to teach him a lesson. Drag her away from me."

After the security guard heard the words, he went forward and dragged Zhang Ling Hua away.

Fan Xue took off her high heels and hit Zhang Tianxin's head one after the other.

"Let you play hooligan, you idiot, is this lady something you can just touch?" Fan Xue scolded as she beat him.

Zhang Tianxin fearfully hid in the corner, getting beaten was something he was used to, the pain was nothing, but the fear kept spreading.

Those colleagues who were watching the scene, one by one, had no mercy and were watching the scene with a sneer, because they had been discussing Zhang Ling Hua and her son for a long time, although Zhang Tian Xin usually didn't do anything out of the ordinary, but out of discrimination against Zhang Tian Xin, no one wanted to see him in the company, just this opportunity to not only teach Zhang Tian Xin a lesson, but also to make them mother and son get out of the company, these people were not too happy yet.

"Idiot, is Miss Ben's leg comfortable to touch? Fury thing, this is the price you pay for touching me." Fan Xue's men were merciless, and soon Zhang Tianxin's head was bleeding.

It was only when she saw the blood that Fan Xue had a hint of panic, she just wanted to teach Zhang Tianxin a lesson, but she didn't dare to make a big deal out of it.

Just as Fan Xue stopped, Zhang Tianxin suddenly shouted and stood up to push Fan Xue away.

When the male colleagues in the company saw this scene, they were all furious, but many of them regarded Fan Xue as the goddess of their hearts and wanted to find an opportunity to show their affection all day long, so how could they miss the opportunity at this time?

"Trying to run, you idiot, how dare you even touch my goddess."

"You melon child, you dare to push the person I like, looking for death."

"You f*cking idiot, don't you know that I like Fan Xue?"

A few big men, once again, surrounded Zhang Tianxin in a corner and brutally beat her.

Zhang Ling Hua cried out and begged for mercy, but didn't care about her attitude at all, the tears on her cheeks gushing out like spring water.

"Fan Xue, please, please tell them to stop, I'll kneel down and apologize to you." After saying that, Zhang Ling Hua poofed her knees to the ground and kept kowtowing.

Fan Xue directly threw the high heels in her hand at Zhang Ling Hua, smashing her head, and said in a cold voice, "Fine, it's fine if you want me to let him go, unless you admit that this idiot is a rogue."

As long as she admitted, Tang Lung's side could just fire her without going through the process of Zhong Liang's consent, after all, this kind of person staying in the company was also a disaster, and Zhong Liang presumably wouldn't object to it.

Zhang Ling Hua could kneel down and beg for forgiveness, but would never want Zhang Tian Xin to be defiled, if she admitted, wouldn't this be equivalent to letting Zhang Tian Xin take the blame?

"Fan Xue, my son wouldn't do such a thing, he could have just been careless." Zhang Ling Hua cried out.

"Hmph." Fan Xue gave a cold voice and said, "Still daring to argue, in that case, you can just watch your idiot son take a beating."

Zhang Ling Hua's heart ached like a knife, and even her breathing became sharp as she listened to the cries for help coming from Zhang Tianxin, as if she was slicing her heart one after another.

"I ..... I admit, I am sorry, I am sorry, my son is a rogue, Fan Xue, please, let him go." Zhang Ling Hua said with a face full of despair.

Only when she heard this did Fan Xue smiled proudly, having completed the task that Tang Long had explained, the bag was considered a winner, and if she could develop a passionate story with Tang Long tonight, she wouldn't have to do too much hard work in the company in the future.

For a girl like Fan Xue, hard work is not what she pursues, less work and more take, the best pie in the sky can hit her head, and her concept is also different, in her opinion, the beautiful woman like her, should be rich man to raise, how can she make her thousand gold body to work it.

And Tang Long, most likely, was the target she was looking for, as long as she served Tang Long happily, she would be able to have food and clothing and the whole company wouldn't dare to offend anyone.

"Stop it." Fan Xue said.

One by one, those male colleagues were furious and jerked their sleeves as if they had done something great, scrambling to perform in front of Fan Xue.

"Fan Xue, if someone bullies you in the future, tell me and I'll teach him a lesson for you."

"You can always come to me even if you're in trouble, I'm no worse than some people."

"I can do anything for you, if you feel unhappy, I can beat this idiot up again."

Fan Xue smiled faintly, these licking dogs are really dedicated, but unfortunately, how could my lady's eyes value you losers?

Of course, for a woman like Fan Xue, even if she couldn't get it, she wouldn't say so explicitly, otherwise, how could these flies willingly surround her and do things for her?

"Okay, I know you guys are good." Fan Xue said with a raised eyebrow.

Those guys were overjoyed, they all felt that Fan Xue was raising her eyebrows at them, and it looked like they would be able to get closer to her in the future.

There was a guy who forcefully wanted to show off, and deliberately kicked Zhang Tianxin again as a way to show off his might.

Zhang Ling Hua knelt on the ground and crawled over to Zhang Tianxin, seeing Zhang Tianxin's swollen nose and multiple injuries, she said with a face of self-reproach, "I'm sorry, it's mommy's fault, it's mommy's inability to protect you."

Zhang Tianxin tugged Zhang Ling Hua's hand tightly, and although she didn't say anything, she kept shaking her head as a way to show that she didn't blame Zhang Ling Hua.

"You two mothers and sons, get out of here and don't appear in front of me in the future, or I'll beat you once I see you." Fan Xue said in a high and mighty manner.

The flies that were circling around the sh*t were cross-eyed, some showing their arms, some waving their fists at Zhang Ling Hua, clearly threatening her.

Zhang Ling Hua sighed, the first time she came to the company, she felt that this was not the right place for her, after all, she was a hard laborer, but this was a place of brain survival, but Han Giang gave her the chance, so she did her best to fit in here, but now it seemed that no matter how hard she tried, she would not be accepted, in that case, why stay here?

Zhang Ling Hua doesn't blame Han Qianqian for not being accepted by others, as Han Qianqian just gave her a better working and living environment.

In her heart, she would instead feel a little sorry for disappointing Han 3000 because she didn't seize this opportunity.

"Son, let's go." Zhang Ling Hua assisted Zhang Tianxin and was just about to leave, but suddenly felt a hand on her shoulder.

"Three thousand." When Zhang Ling Hua turned her head, she saw Han Qianqian's cold, frosty face.

Although Han 3,000 didn't know what had happened, he saw the injuries on Zhang Tianxin's body and the menacing staff.

"What's going on?" Han Giangli asked in a deep voice.

Zhang Ling Hua was about to open her mouth, but couldn't say anything, even if Han Qianqian helped her, it was useless, she couldn't integrate into the company environment, she couldn't stay here and work.

And for the sake of Zhang Tianxin, she wouldn't stay here either, this time Han Qianqian could help, what about the next time? What if Zhang Tianxin gets beaten up again?

"Who are you, not an employee of our company right, this has nothing to do with you, get out." Fan Xue sized up Han Qianqian with disdain, from where did the loser come out and dare to interfere in her affairs.

"Auntie Zhang, tell me, I'll make the decision for you." Han 3,000 ignored Fan Xue and continued to ask Zhang Ling Hua.

Fan Xue laughed and mockingly looked at Han Qianqian and said, "You're making decisions for her? Hahahahaha, are you trying to laugh me to death? Where did that psychopath come from, you're not as retarded as Zhang Tianxin, are you?"

Zhang Tianxin was easily discriminated against, which Han Qianxiang had predicted, and it wasn't something he could change.

However, he couldn't change the society, but it was indeed a simple matter to change the weak water property.

Raising his hand and slapping Fan Xue's face, Han Qianqian said in a cold voice, "Do you have the right to speak here?"

Fan Xue couldn't believe it, covering her face, this loser, how dare he hit her!

"What are you guys waiting for, can't you see he hit me?" Van Snow said to the lick dog beside her.

Chapter 157

The gang of licking dogs can't wait to have more opportunities to perform in front of Fan Xue, now Han 3,000 yuan to take the initiative, but their good opportunity, a word of disagreement, jerked up their sleeves to work.

However, this group of people who sit in an office and lack exercise are like a few bedbugs to Han 3,000, who can die with a pinch of the hand and are completely unbidden to fight.

Seeing Han 3,000's toughness, those licking dogs lying on the ground howling, Fan Xue suddenly panicked.

This guy was actually so good at fighting!

"Auntie Zhang, now you can tell me what happened." Han Qianqian asked to Zhang Ling Hua.

Zhang Ling Hua didn't expect Han Qianqian to have such strong tactics, and he must have some connections to be able to arrange himself into the company, although he didn't want to trouble Han Qianqian, things had come to this point, so it was naturally good to be able to help clear Zhang Tianxin's name.

While Zhang Ling Hua was telling Han Qianqian about the process, Fan Xue ran back to Tang Long's office.

Tang Long was coaxing his girlfriend to say that she had to work overtime tonight and couldn't go home, and when she saw the panicked Fan Xue, she immediately hung up the phone and said, "Why didn't you knock when you came in?"

Fan Xue hurriedly said, "Tang Long, Zhang Ling Hua's helper came and beat up her colleague."

Tang Long frowned, Zhang Ling Hua still had a helper? How is that possible? Isn't she just a woman who doesn't know anything? Donlon didn't even know why she was able to come to work.

"I'll go check it out." Tang Long left the office with a heavy face.

By this time, Han Qianqian already knew what was going on, Zhang Tianxin had been bullied since she was a child and had a very weak character, it was absolutely impossible for her to molest Fan Xue for no reason, she was clearly wronged by Fan Xue.

But why would Fan Xue find trouble with Zhang Tianxin without a reason? Is it because it simply doesn't look good?

At this time, Tang Long came, and when he saw Han Qianqian, he couldn't help but cringe, although he vowed to take revenge and return all the humiliation that Han Qianqian had brought upon him, now was not a good time.

Han Cheng was dead, and although he didn't know about Nangong Qianqiu's death yet, but in this situation, if Tang Lung wanted to be taken seriously by the Han family, he would have to wait until the situation in the Han family was stable, and he had just entered the company now, so it was impossible for him to get in touch with the top management of the Han family.

Clashing with Han 3,000 at this point in time would not be good for him.

"How come it's you?" Tang Long asked.

"You are the top management of the company, now that something like this has happened, don't you need to investigate it?" Han Three Thousand coldly said.

Han Three Thousand and Zhong Liang knew each other, if this matter got to Zhong Liang, it would be troublesome, and with Han Three Thousand's relationship with Zhong Liang, the consequences would be even worse if this matter got to him.

"This is a matter within our company, you're not qualified to meddle with it, right." In front of so many colleagues, Tang Long didn't want to lose face, so he didn't think about casually compromising.

"If you won't investigate, then let Zhong Liang investigate." Han Qianqian said indifferently, then took out his phone.

Seeing this, Tang Long panicked, did this guy have to alert Zhong Liang because of this little matter?

Han Giangli looked at Fan Xue behind Tang Long and said, "You can now ask her why she insulted Zhang Tianxin."

Fan Xue was not happy to hear this and standing behind Tang Long, thinking that Tang Long could protect her, her anger became arrogant again and said to Han Qianqian, "What makes you say that I slandered him, this idiot is worse than anyone else, he has already peeked at me for an unknown number of times, I'm so pretty, what's so strange that he moved his mind."

"You, pretty?" Han Qianli laughed disdainfully and said, "Look at that ugly face of yours, do you call it pretty?"

Fan Xue was furious, didn't dare to say she was ugly, jumped to her feet and scolded Han Qianqian, "Are you blind to dare to say I'm ugly, why don't you look at what a poor man you are."

"Tang Long, you quickly help me teach him a lesson, he dared to call me ugly."

Tang Long's expression was as unpleasant as if he had eaten shit, if it were anyone else, how could he have the right to be arrogant in front of him, but Han Qianqian was different, his relationship with Zhong Liang was extraordinary ah.

Tang Long turned around and slapped Fan Xue in the face in a smooth manner, there was no other way but to let Fan Xue take the blame.

"Say, why did you slander Zhang Tianxin?" Tang Long coldly questioned.

Fan Xue covered her face, astonished, but this thing was what Tang Lung had told her to do, and now instead of helping her, she was even blaming her!

"What are you ..... Tang Lung doing." Fan Xue asked numbly.

Tang Long bit his teeth, wiggled his eyebrows at Fan Xue, and said, "Tell me the truth, and I can let you off the hook."

Fan Xue knew that Tang Long was trying to make her take responsibility, but why? Is it because of this loser? Why should he!

"I ..... I ....."

"You what you, say what you have to say quickly." Tang Long coldly said.

Fan Xue knew that if she didn't take the blame, she would definitely be remembered by Tang Long and would definitely not have a good life in the future, if she could help him take the blame, she could still get some benefits, and she would also be able to use this matter to blackmail him in the future.

For Fan Xue, dignity could be trampled by money, as long as there was money, even if she was allowed to be a bitch, she would be willing to do it.

"It's me, I don't want to work in the same environment as this idiot, I'm the one who discriminated against him, that's why I deliberately tore the stockings and wished him." Fan Xue said with her head down.

Those colleagues were stunned when they heard those words, although they couldn't see Zhang Tianxin either, it was too much to smear him in such a way, and although he was an idiot, he never refused anything that the people in the company asked him to run errands and work on.

Some people even played with Zhang Tianxin as a dog, throwing things for Zhang Tianxin to pick up, but it was not a bad idea.

But no one had ever wanted to drive Zhang Tianxin out of the company in this way.

"Fan Xue, it turns out that you are such a person."

"I've really missed the point, thanks to me liking you for so long."

"He's just a fool, why do you need to be so preoccupied with him, it's really annoying, just treat it as if you can't see it ah."

A group of colleagues were very good at seeing the wind, but of course, the biggest reason wasn't based on sympathy for Zhang Tianxin, but Tang Long's position.

Obviously, how could they dare to speak for Fan Xue now that Tang Long had to make decisions for Zhang Tianxin.

Fan Xue didn't feel humiliated by being spurned, but instead was happy inside, even if she lost her job, it didn't matter, with Tang Lung's grip in her hand, she could threaten him for money in the future, even if she didn't have a job, there was someone to support her, wasn't this exactly the life she desired?

"Apologize to Zhang Tianxin and Zhang Ling Hua." Tang Long said sternly and sent a sigh of relief in his heart, if this woman wasn't smart enough, this wouldn't be over today.

Fan Xue walked up to Zhang Ling Hua and Zhang Tian Xin and bowed deeply, then said, "I'm sorry."

Han Giangli frowned, this woman apologized readily, it was based on Tang Long's pressure, nothing wrong with it, but the problem was why she still had a shallow smile on her lips.

What kind of person could be this brazen?

And can mere brazenness make her happy? About to lose her job, which isn't good for anyone, I guess.

Unless ..... unless she has some other interest to gain.

If there is a real interest, then where did that interest come from?

Han Qianqiang looked towards Tang Long, then asked Zhang Tianxin, "Has this big brother spoken to you recently?"

Han Qianqiang saw fear in Zhang Tianxin's eyes, he couldn't be afraid of Tang Long for no reason, it must be something Tang Long had done to him.

"Tell me what you have, don't be afraid." Han Qianqian said.

Zhang Tianxin had been saved once by Han Qianqian, so he trusted Han Qianqian very much, lowering his head and saying, "My brother asked me to perform for him to learn how to bark, but my mother said that I'm a human being, so I can't just kneel down casually."

Hearing this, Tang Long turned pale and yelled at Zhang Tianxin, "Fart your mother, when did I ever say such a thing to you."

Chapter 158

Tang Long's loud voice scared Zhang Tianxin to the point where he shivered and hid behind Zhang Ling Hua, not daring to speak again.

But what was going on in this matter was already clear to Han Qianqian, although this matter was started by Fan Xue, Tang Long was the real originator, it was him who didn't like Zhang Tianxin, that's why he drove Zhang Ling Hua away in such a slanderous way.

This guy had already given him a chance last time, but he was still messing around with his power in the company.

At this time, Zhong Liang arrived at the entrance of the company, accompanied by Su Hachao who was compensating the whole time.

Since Su Hachao had become the chairman of the Su family, he had thought of many ways to pull in with Zhong Liang, because the west side of the city project was now almost the lifeblood of the Su family, and this cooperation in the hands of Su Yingxia was ultimately not good for Su Hachao, so he hoped that after getting closer to Zhong Liang, he would be able to take charge of the west side of the city project himself.

Due to the previous experience, Su Hachao did not dare to directly pick out, and could only save the country by using various ways to please Zhong Liang, but unfortunately the effect is very little, but in this case, Su Hachao still did not give up.

The two walked into the company, when Zhong Liang saw Han Qianliang, startled, how young master here!

Zhong Liang knows quite a bit about the recent changes in the Han family... Han Jun has become an invalid, Han Cheng is dead, and I heard that it seems that even old lady Nangong Qianqiu is dead!

With Nangong Qianqiu's support, Han Jun could become the head of the Han family in the future, but now that Nangong Qianqiu was dead and Han Jun was useless, the only person who could inherit the Han family could be Han Qianqiang.

If Zhong Liang still held a hint of betrayal towards Han Qianqiu before, then now, he no longer had the slightest thought of that.

He was working for the Han family, and now that Han Three Thousand was the only person who could inherit the Han family, he had no choice but to be loyal to Han Three Thousand.

When Zhong Liang saw Han 3,000, Su Hae Chao saw it as well, and a doubt rose in his heart, why was this wimp here? And it looked like something had happened.

Su Hachao faintly smiled, this faggot, wouldn't have caused any trouble in the weak water property.

Just when Su Hachao was about to watch a good show, he heard Zhong Liang say, "Su Dong, there's something going on in the company today, let's meet up some other day."

"Brother Zhong, this trash Han Qianqian, it's like he's causing trouble in your company, how about I help you fix it." Su Haichao said.

"Su Dong, don't you understand me? I said, "I'll make an appointment some other time." Zhong Liang coldly said.

Su Haichao wanted to see a good show, but Zhong Liang's current attitude was obviously very unhappy, and the eviction order was so obvious, he still had to stay here, it would only make Zhong Liang dissatisfied with him.

"Brother Zhong, okay, I'm leaving first, let's meet again next time." Su Haichao unwillingly walked out of the company, cursing and saying, "Braking stuff, causing me to almost cause Zhong Liang's discontent, you better not f*cking cause me any trouble, or else I'll have to let Su Yingxia bear this consequence."

"What's going on?" Zhong Liang walked into the crowd and asked Tang Lung.

Tang Lung saw Zhong Liang and felt guilty, this was a bad time to come back! Letting him interfere in this matter would not end well.

But Tang Long thought about it, he was a talent that Zhong Liang had poached heavily, and Zhong Liang valued his abilities, so he wouldn't make things difficult for a waste employee, even if there was criticism, it would be just a scolding at most.

"Brother Zhong, there's a bit of a misunderstanding." Tang Long said.

Zhong Liang looked at Zhang Tianxin, his heart sank, this f*cking beaten and bruised, can it still be a little misunderstanding?

This mother and son are the people that Young Master personally arranged to enter the company, and Tang Long, this blind thing, has touched Young Master's eyebrows again.

"Follow me to the office." Zhong Liang coldly said.

Tang Long was happy inside, going to the office to be scolded, but it wouldn't be humiliating, it seemed Zhong Liang still took care of his face.

As expected, people with ability had special treatment everywhere they went, even if they made a little mistake, they wouldn't be punished too severely.

Han Qianqian said to Zhang Ling Hua, "Take Tian Xin to the hospital first, then go home and rest for two days before coming back to work."

Come back to work again?

Zhang Ling Hua looked embarrassed and said, "Three thousand, I don't want to trouble you anymore, Tang Long made things difficult for us the first time, there will definitely be a second time."

Han Qianqian smiled and said, "Don't worry, Tang Long will soon get out of this company, whoever dares to make things difficult for you in the future, just fire directly."

Zhang Ling Hua looked startled, direct firing? Is he that powerful?

After those colleagues were briefly surprised, they laughed and kept shaking their heads, Where did this guy come from, actually daring to say such big words.

Everyone at Weakwater Real Estate knew that Tang Long was someone Zhong Liang had spent a lot of money to bring back, so how could it be possible for Zhang Ling Hua to fire a talent like Tang Long because of him? It was simply a school flower.

"Dude, what are you bragging about, do you know how Tang Lung came to our company?"

"He was hired heavily by Brother Zhong to fire Tang Lung for Zhang Ling Hua, and you're telling us jokes?"

"Who are you to talk like you can control our company's business, and don't you have a brain to think when you're lying?"

The few people who had just been beaten by Han Qianli looked at Han Qianli with an extremely disdainful expression.

"Whether or not they'll be expelled, we'll find out later." Han Three Thousand Year said indifferently and walked towards Zhong Liang's office.

The office.

Tang Long was all smiles and said to Zhong Liang, "Brother Zhong, thank you, I did act a bit too recklessly in this matter, but there's a fool in our company all day long, it's also affecting the company's image ah."

"Thank me? Thanks for what?" Zhong Liang asked faintly.

"Didn't you ask me to come to the office just to pretend to teach me a lesson? I know you don't want me to lose face in front of my other colleagues, I know what you mean." Tang Long said.

The corners of Zhong Liang's mouth rose, where did this fag come up with this ridiculous idea, he had called Tang Long to the office just so that Han Qianqiang could handle this matter better, after all, the young master's identity was hidden in Cloud City.

"Tang Long, do you know what a stupid thing you did today." Zhong Liang said.

Tang Long still looked like he didn't know what he was doing, and said with a smile, "Brother Zhong, scold me, next time, I will be thoughtful and will definitely not cause too much of an impact."

"Next time?" Zhong Liang shook his head, I'm afraid that this idiot's brain was filled with sh*t.

"Why are you targeting Zhang Tianxin, there's no conflict between him and you, right?" Zhong Liang asked, although Zhang Tianxin's intelligence was indeed a bit problematic, but he usually never caused trouble and was also very good, so it was impossible for him to actively provoke Tang Long.

Speaking of this, Tang Long revealed a sighing face and said, "There is no contradiction, just want to play with this big idiot, let him learn a few dog barks for me to hear, I didn't expect that this big idiot actually didn't listen to me, tell me, this kind of idiot in our company, if it can't make us happy, what value is there, and Zhang Ling Hua from the time she entered the company until now, there is noHaving made any achievements, our company's money is not a big wind, so what's the point of raising such an idle person."

Tang Long thought that he was handling this matter for the good of the company, so there was still an element of inviting credit in his tone.

It was true that Zhang Linghua was not very receptive and had not contributed much to the company, but her age and previous work environment had given her great limitations after all.

There were no achievements, but it didn't mean that Zhang Ling Hua didn't work hard.

Zhong Liang had also paid attention to Zhang Ling Hua's performance during this period of time, she was seriously absorbing new knowledge and wanted to contribute to the company, in Zhong Liang's opinion, this kind of employee was worth cultivating, but in Tang Long's eyes, he denied Zhang Ling Hua's efforts and only saw the useless side of Zhang Ling Hua.

"What you said makes sense, but what have you done since you've been with the company for so long?" Zhong Liang said.

Tang Long was in a high position in the company, immersed in an inescapable game of ambiguity with his female colleagues, and it was true that he hadn't done much real work, but that couldn't deny his ability.

Just when he wanted to defend himself, Han Qianqian pushed in the door.

Tang Long's eyebrows furrowed, why was this guy still here, although he had a good relationship with Zhong Liang, he wasn't qualified to meddle in the internal affairs of the company, right?

Chapter 159

"Han 3,000, you have no business here, what are you doing here?" Tang Long said with a dissatisfied face.

Han Qianqiang walked to the desk and sat directly on Zhong Liang's seat.

This action infuriated Tang Long even more!

What kind of dog sh*t dares to sit in Zhong Liang's seat.

Zhong Liang treats you as a friend, and that's no reason for you to rub your nose in it.

"Han Three Thousand Years, you're really brazen ah, it's your three lifetimes of luck that Brother Zhong considers you a friend, and you dare to casually sit in Brother Zhong's seat." Tang Long coldly rebuked.

"Friend?" Han Qianliang smiled faintly and asked Zhong Liang, "Are we friends?"

Zhong Liang's face was livid, you're going to f*cking get yourself killed, why are you dragging me down with you! Hastily, he said to Han Three Thousand Years, "I'm not qualified."

Han 3,000 yuan looked at Tang Long, shrugged his shoulders and said, "Hear that, he has no qualifications to be my friend."

Tang Long three hundred and sixty degrees of confusion, Zhong Liang, ineligible ..... ineligible to become Han Three Thousand's friend?

How could that be, he was just a wimp, anyone could step on his head, how could Zhong Liang be unqualified?

Tang Long dug his ears, he must have misheard, or else he was hallucinating.

"Brother Zhong, do you want me to help you teach this ungrateful guy a lesson?" Donlon said.

"Braking thing, how f*cking stupid are you going to be." Zhong Liang gritted his teeth and said to Tang Lung, for a piece of trash like him, he still wanted to teach Han Qianxiang a lesson, and didn't even look at what a piece of shit he was.

"Brother Zhong, you, what's wrong with you." Tang Lung asked in puzzlement.

Zhong Liang took a glance at Han Qianqian, his heart and liver trembled, but he couldn't let Tang Long continue to talk nonsense like this, or else he wouldn't even be a fart if he was implicated by this fool.

"Young Master, what do you want to do with Tang Long?" Zhong Liang asked.

His words were clearly a deliberate attempt to reveal information to Tang Lung, so that Tang Lung would know what status Han 3,000 was.

And by saying this, Zhong Liang was taking a big risk, once Han Qianxiang was dissatisfied with this, he would be at the end of his life.

However, looking at Han Qianqian's appearance, he didn't seem to be angry.

At this time, though, Tang Lung had instantly turned pale.

What did the little young master mean?

Why did Zhongliang call Han Gansan young master!

He's a member of the Han family, to be able to be called a young master by him .....

Boom!

It was like a thunderbolt exploded in Tang Long's head, shaking his entire body to the core.

Han ..... Han 3000, is he, is he a member of the Han family!

Puffing out his chest, Tang Long weakly knelt on the ground and said incredulously to Han Giang, "You ..... are a Han family member!"

Han 3000 shook his head and said, "I'm not a Han family member anymore, I don't care to be a Han family member, to me, I'm Han 3000."

What did this mean Tang Long didn't understand, but Zhong Liang's face was even more ugly, he didn't consider himself as a Han family member. It was not putting the Han family in his eyes, right.

After all these years, he had done a lot of deployments in secret, and even the Feng Qian Company was cultivated by him in secret.

Perhaps those ..... Yanjing who watched the Han Family joke would never have dreamed that the Han Family's true power did not lie in Nangong Qianqiu, much less in Han Jun, but in this unknown young master!

With his city and means, it would never be a problem to re-establish an even more glorious Han family.

Was this a case of pushing out the old and establishing the new?

Zhong Liang's scalp felt numb, as if there was an electric current, and only now did he recognize what a terrifying person Little Young Master was.

Wiping a handful of cold sweat from his forehead, Zhong Liang said, "Young Master, Zhong Liang is only loyal to you for the rest of his life, and if there is any betrayal, the heavens will punish him."

Han Giangli laughed and said, "There is no need to be so eager to show loyalty to me, I warned you to treat Zhang Ling Hua well, and what have you ..... done?"

Zhong Liang was so frightened that he fell to his knees and said with panic in his eyes, "Young Master, I'm sorry, I was negligent, I hope you can forgive me, I will definitely honor your orders in the future."

Han Jianglian stood up, walked up to Zhong Liang and said condescendingly, "You have reservations about me, I can understand, after all, in your eyes, I'm just a port of call for your temporary rest, the true master within you is still Han Jun, right?"

The cold sweat on Zhong Liang's forehead was like yellow beans, dripping down.

He had indeed thought like this before, because no matter how much opportunity the Han family gave Han 3000, in Zhong Liang's eyes, he would never be able to fight against Han Jun. After all, Han Jun was someone Nangong Qianqiu was optimistic about, and Han 3000's ten thousand achievements would never be able to stand up to Nangong Qianqiu's words.

So in doing anything, Zhong Liang would leave himself a line to avoid returning to Han Jun's side in the future and not being used heavily.

Take the matter of Zhang Ling Hua, Zhong Liang had been in a wait-and-see state since the day Zhang Ling Hua entered the company, and had not given Zhang Ling Hua any rights or preferential treatment, and the reason for this was to use these details to help him raise his status in front of Han Jun in the future.

He had to let Han Jun know in every way that although he was following Han 3000's side, he wasn't doing his best to work for Han 3000.

But Zhong Liang never expected that just these little things would be noticed by Han 3,000.

He hadn't even thought that the Han family would suddenly undergo such a drastic change.

"Young Master, I'm sorry, it's my fault, from today onwards, I'll do my best to serve you." Zhong Liang fiercely kowtowed to Han Three Thousand, he knew exactly what would happen if he was kicked out of the Han family, with Han Three Thousand's methods, there would be no place for him to live in all of Huaxia.

And it was hard to get to such heights, it was all that was left for Zhong Liang that he couldn't lose.

Tang Long already looked desperate, it didn't matter if Han 3000 was a member of the Han family or not, just Zhong Liang's attitude towards him was enough for Tang Long to understand the gap between him and Han 3000.

Revenge?

It was just a joke.

Now that he thought about the oath he had made, Tang Long himself felt absurd, did he have a chance for revenge in front of such people?

But Tang Long wondered why such a powerful person was willing to be called a wimp, and for three whole years, the entire Cloud City took him as a joke, how could he endure this humiliation.

"Zhong Liang, this is your last chance, take advantage of it." Han Giangli said.

Hearing this, Zhong Liang kowtowed incessantly and said, "Thank you, young master, thank you, Zhong Liang will definitely remember your words and will grasp the opportunity you give him."

"This man, don't let me see him in any company in Cloud City." Han Qianliang said this and left the office.

Zhong Liang waited until the office door closed before he dared to get up, his hatred for Tang Long naturally went without saying, if it wasn't for this fool, how could something like today's incident happen?

"You heard what Young Master said." Zhong Liang said in a cold voice.

Tang Long was filled with panic and crawled to Zhong Liang on his knees, begging for mercy, "Brother Zhong, please, help me, help me, if I leave Cloud City, I'll have nothing left."

Tang Long's achievements were not just his own abilities, but also the connections he had accumulated in Cloud City for so many years, which was the most valuable thing about him, if there was no company in Cloud City that wanted him, then all of his efforts over the years would be reduced to nothing, and then he would have to go to another city and start all over again, which was something Tang Long absolutely could not adapt to.

Zhong Liang looked at Tang Long with a disgusted face and said after kicking him, "Do you think I have the ability to save you? You've caused me to almost get myself killed, go away and don't let me see you again."

"By the way, let me remind you, regarding the identity of the young master, if you dare to divulge the slightest bit, your life is in danger."

Desperate and repentant.

Tang Long kept slapping himself, if not for his series of stupid actions, how could things have come to this point? He even tried to seek revenge on Han Qianqian.

Ridiculous, ridiculous to say the least!

The employees of the company gathered together to whisper when they saw Han Marchant leaving the company, and until now, they still thought that Han Marchant was bragging, after all, Tang Long was someone Zhong Liang had personally poached and was a very important person in the company.

Chapter 160

"Where do you think this braggart came from?"

"Who knows, looking at that loser look, maybe he's delusional."

"What do you guys think Zhong Liang will do with Tang Long?"

"How else can we deal with it, just casually perfunctory, it's hard to really fire Tang Long for Zhang Ling Hua."

A few people laughed lightly discussing this matter, it wasn't until Tang Long came out of Zhong Liang's office with a deathly look on his face that they felt something wasn't right.

"What's going on, Tang Long's expression, he can't have really been fired."

"How can that be, he was fired, wouldn't Zhang Ling Hua be no one to mess with."

"Damn it, I'll go ask."

A certain person walked up to Tang Long and bashfully asked, "Tang Long, how's it going, did Brother Zhong fire Zhang Ling?"

Tang Long's heart had been completely desperate, his entire body was like a walking corpse, without any energy, pushing away the people in front of him and going back to his office.

The office door was open, Tang Long was packing his personal belongings when those watching colleagues outside were stunned.

"F*ck, no way, it's really Tang Long who was fired!"

"My god, who was that young man just now, he said to fire him."

"Oh no, no, I've offended Zhang Ling Hua before, what should I do, I won't be expelled as well."

As soon as this was said, everyone panicked because they had more or less made things difficult for Zhang Ling Hua, and as for bullying and ridiculing Zhang Tian Xin, it was even more of a necessary drama that was performed every day.

From the day Zhang Tianxin arrived at the company, these people had been treating Zhang Tianxin as a plaything, teasing him when they were happy and scolding him when they were unhappy.

And now that Tang Long had been fired because of this matter, what would happen to them.

"In the future, if any of you dare to find trouble with Zhang Ling Hua, you'll end up like Tang Long." At this moment, Zhong Liang's voice suddenly came from behind him.

The crowd turned around in trepidation, and one by one, they kept quiet.

"Brother Zhong, don't worry, this will definitely not happen again."

"We will definitely treat Zhang Tianxin well in the future and take good care of him."

"Actually, this child is quite pitiful, we did go too far in the past, we must review ourselves properly."

As everyone admitted their mistakes, Fan Xue was very unpleasant because she had started this matter, and even though Tang Long was behind it, she couldn't get away with it.

Before, she wasn't worried about losing her job because she thought she could live by blackmailing Tang Long, but now that Tang Long had been fired, what blackmailing capital did she still have.

"Fan Xue, you've disappointed me, get lost." Zhong Liang said and went back to his office.

Fan Xue's face was as white as paper, she hadn't gotten anything and had lost her job, it was a fatal blow to her.

Credit card spending in advance, if she lost her job, what else would she have to pay back?

The gang of licking dogs didn't dare to say anything good about Fan Xue at this time, although she was pretty, she had to have money to get it done, and it wasn't worth losing her job for her.

At this time, outside the gates of the Weak Water Real Estate Company, Su Haichao blocked the way of Han 3,000 yuan.

"Wimp, you wouldn't have offended anyone in Weak Water Real Estate, right? You clearly know that the Su family has a partnership with Weakwater Real Estate, so you're not deliberately trying to cause me trouble, are you?" Su Haichao said to Han Qianli with a toe-curling look.

He was now the chairman of the board, and without knowing the identity of Han Qianqian, he did have the capital to be proud of himself, after all, Su Yingxia was only his subordinate now.

And when his relationship with Zhong Liang was good, and he was able to hold the west side of the city project in his hands, at that time, he wouldn't even have to give Su Yingxia face.

Of course, all of this was just Su Hachao's imagination.

"Who can I offend." Han Giangli said.

"Also." Su Haichao nodded his head in derision and said, "With your ability, you can't offend anyone, who would take a wimp like you seriously."

"Since you know, there's some other reason for waiting for me here, right?" Han Giangli asked.

Su Haichao smiled and said, "It's Family Day in a few days, and I'm afraid you'll forget, so I'm giving you a heads-up."

Han Qianli pretended to look surprised and said, "I didn't expect that you would personally invite me, so do I have to thank you."

Su Hachao proudly held his head high and said, "If you have to thank me, it's not impossible, I'm now the chairman of the Su Family, I don't care to bother with little people like you, so I'll just take it as a chance to give you something good to eat."

Did Su Haichao really sincerely invite Han Qianqiang?

Of course not, he and Su Ye-han had already agreed not to let Han 3,000 attend the family day, and the reason he said that was to get rid of Han 3,000 after he was there.

He is happy to find pleasure in toying with others, especially when it's Han Qianxiang.

To trample on Han 3,000 years old's dignity and crush Han 3,000 years old on the ground is something Su Hachao is never tired of doing in his life, who called Han 3,000 years old a wimp?

And being beaten three times, Su Hachao did not forget this hatred.

"Fine, in that case, I'll go watch a good show." Han Giangli smiled.

"Then you'll have to come early." Su Haichao smiled.

Returning to the car, looking at Han Giang's departing back, Su Haichao sneered to himself with a face full of laughter, "What an idiot, did you think I would let you into the house? When the time comes, let all your relatives see your jokes and just play monkey."

Han Three Thousand went to the hospital and made sure that Zhang Tianxin's injuries were not serious before leaving.

During that time, Zhang Ling Hua said some words of gratitude, and Han 3,000 took it as it was the only way Zhang Ling Hua could repay him, and if she didn't let Zhang Ling Hua finish, she would definitely feel uncomfortable in her heart.

As for continuing to go to work at the company, Han Qianli had also made a deal with her and told her not to worry, no one at the company would dare bully Zhang Tianxin in the future.

Strolling down the street, not picking up Su Yingxia from work, living a really boring and tasteless life, was planning to go to Mordor to take a look, and suddenly someone hammered him in the back.

"Han 3,000, where have you been for so long." Tian Ling'er was shopping with her best friend, and bumping into Han 3,000 made her excited, immediately dragging her best friend to get to know Han 3,000.

The best friend was wearing a pink dress, and although her looks couldn't be compared to Tian Ling'er's, her body was exceptionally great and eye catching, and even Han Qianli couldn't help but sink in for a few more glances.

"What are you looking at? Believe me to poke your eyes out." The Celestial Spirit crossed her hands at the waist and deliberately puffed out her chest to say to Han Three Thousand.

Han Giangli smiled helplessly and withdrew his gaze and said to Tian Ling'er, "If you want to poke my eyes out, do you have to consider whether or not you have the ability to do so?"

"Do you understand what it means to be a gentleman, a gentleman has to give way to a beautiful woman." Tian Ling'er said.

The Heavenly Spirits were gnashing their teeth at the sight of such a beautiful woman right in front of him, couldn't he see it?

"Han 3,000, did you have to make me angry?" Tian Ling'er said with a gloomy face and gritted her teeth.

Xie Yufu knew that the person in front of her was Han Qianqian, the famous wimp of Cloud City, so intuitively she didn't have the slightest liking for Han Qianqian, and wondered even more why Tian Ling'er would greet Han Qianqian on the street, wasn't she afraid of losing her Heavenly Miss's face?

However, although she was Tian Ling'er's best friend, she didn't dare to say anything in these matters because the Xie family and the Tian family belonged to a cooperative relationship and the Tian family was dominant, so even in this best friend relationship, there were still interests present.

"Ling'er, it's so hot, let's find a cold drink shop and take a break." Xie Yifu said, actually just wanting to separate from Han Giang earlier so that outsiders wouldn't see her getting to know Han Giang, the trash.

"Han Qianqian, buying me a cup of milk tea, isn't that too much to ask?" Tian Ling'er said.

Han Qianli looked at the time and had just about nowhere to go, but he was about to say something when Xie Yufu said, "We'd better go by ourselves."

Han Qianli smiled, and he saw a hint of disgust in Xie Yifu's eyes, clearly this pink-skirted girl didn't treat him well.

"Or, I won't go." Han Qianli smiled bitterly.
