

His True Color Chapter 1681-1690

Chapter 1681

Han Qianqiang had no doubt that if he said something wrong, Cool-Son Ye would even kill him on the spot, but it wasn't that he was afraid of dying or being threatened by him, he just couldn't find an excuse to explain it.

Nodding his head, "Yes!"

Hearing this, Ye Liao Cheng smiled in satisfaction, looked at Qin Frost, revealed a smile that he thought was very handsome, and said, "Sister Qin Frost, are you okay?"

Qin Shuang quietly looked at Han Qianqian, with a complicated mood, but just now, wasn't it Han Qianqian who saved herself?

How could that ball of energy be sent by Cool-Son Yeh?

It's just that one admitted it, and the other didn't deny it, Qin Frost can only admit it as a fact.

In addition, even if what Ye Guocheng said was false, but Han Qianli did not even have the courage to admit it to herself, as much as in Qin Frost's heart, thinking of this, she deliberately smiled at Ye Guocheng: "Adjusted for a period of time, much better, since you saved us, that's really thanks to you, right, why are you here?"

"Oh, in a few months, it will be our sect's entrance examination, I wanted to improve my cultivation, so I ran to the Fourth Peak to catch the spirit pet, but I didn't expect to see you, junior sister, and in a rush, I saved you. Originally, I wanted to follow you quickly, but that big flying horse was too fierce, so I tangled with it until now, and I guessed you were far away, so I came to chase you." Ye Guocheng smiled.

Qin Frost was as beautiful as an immortal, and her talent was outstanding, she was simply the dream lover of every Void Sect disciple, and Cool-Son Ye was no exception.

It's just that for so many years, his chances were not very good.

This time, Qin Frost actually encountered the attack of the big flying horse, for Cool-Songyi Ye, it was like a reward from God.

He did come to catch the spirit pet today, but the second half of the story was fictional, he didn't make a move at all, instead he chose to retreat after seeing Qin Frost being repulsed by the big flying horse.

The golden beast was so strong that even if he went to help Qin Frost, it wouldn't help, but would probably drag him down, so he remained an indifferent observer.

Just when he was sighing that Qin Frost was about to fade away, Han Qianqian, the slave, suddenly rushed out, and with an extremely strong energy, he repelled the big flying horse and managed to escape.

This made Ye Kucheng very surprised, how could a small slave have such strong power? The most frightening thing is that this energy is obviously not owned by the Void Sect.

Instead, it was more like a cult technique!

After a moment of trepidation, Ye Lone City laughed coldly, so he waited until it was dark, and after the big Pegasus left, he thought of an excuse and chased after him.

Sometimes, no one believes the truth, and it is not easy to lie, but this kind of half-truth is the most difficult for people to understand.

He also expected that Han Qianqian wouldn't dare to refute it, because he had a hold on him, and he knew it well.

Seeing that he was so sure of what he said, and that he was right on the money, Qin Frost nodded his head, feeling grateful.

"It's been hard for you." Qin Frost faintly nodded his head.

Ye Liao Cheng was incomparably excited, in the past, Qin Frost's attitude towards him always rejected people, now, at least it had been much better.

This trip was worth it.

"You're welcome, this is my part of the business." Ye Guocheng smiled lightly.

Han Qianqiang has no interest in these pickup games, he also has no interest in Qin Frost, although Qin Frost several times almost unintentionally tempted him to overturn the boat, but that is just a man's physical instincts, his heart, living is always Su Yingxia.

"Right, so now we are going back, or" Han Qianli can't stand Ye Liao Cheng's dummy fake appearance, at this time to speak out.

"Sister, let's go back, it's not too early, and there are big Pegasus infested near here, I'm afraid"
"Ye Lusheng didn't dare to speak out his inner fears.

The first thing that I'm going to do is to take a look at the newest version of this article.

She was a person who had a beginning and an end, but also a stubborn person with her own principles.

Moreover, Han 3,000 always needs to pass this trial, although Ye Lone City has proved that he was the one who saved himself just now, but one thing is undeniable, Han 3,000 also ran a long way with himself in his arms.

Although, he is still doing what only those slaves do, but at least, this slave is loyal.

Secondly, Qin Lang has his own thoughts, just like Ye Liao Cheng, the entry competition is about to begin, whoever can win the excellent results in the competition, who will become the disciple of the master, then not only the future head of the Void Sect, but also the master's master's master's hand, the future is expected.

"But junior sister your body "Ye Kucheng deliberately made an excuse.

"Oh, with Brother Ye here, is Sister Qinshang's injury still a problem?" Han Qianqian at this time.

It's not just a matter of time, it's also a matter of time before you have a chance to get to know each other," he said.

He was embarrassed when he saw Qin Lang looking up at him and cursed Han Qianqian, a dead b*tch, with a smile on his face: "That's for sure, with my cultivation, this small injury of Sister Qin Lang is nothing."

After saying that, Ye Kucheng gently transported energy and started to heal Qinshang through the air.

Han Qianqian smiled disdainfully, let you f*cking pretend, this is the price you have to pay.

The next morning, Qin Frost woke up, and Han Qianli brought some water to quench her thirst, which she had been meditating on since last night.

Qin Frost took a shallow sip, looking extremely gentle, and her frosty and beautiful face now had a lot of blood back.

Han Qianli looked at the slight water stains on her lips, and really wanted to taste it herself.

"By the way, where's your Solitary Senior Brother?" Qin Frost looked around and asked.

Last night, that greedy fellow who was afraid of death sneaked out in the middle of the night.

"Oh, Senior Brother Lonely City said last night that Master urgently summoned him back to the peak, so he went back in the middle of the night." Han Qianqian said with a fleshly smile.

That guy obviously knew that there were gold-ranked monsters in the area and didn't dare to stay long, plus he spent a lot of energy to cure Qin Shang, so, hearing that Qin Shang had to continue looking for strange beasts, he slipped away.

In case he encounters something big again, it's not worth it to lose his life here.

Qin Frost didn't think much of it and nodded, "Alright, let's continue then."

Han Qianli nodded as Qin Frost left the spring and slowly made his way towards the deeper forest.

The two had no idea that a greater danger awaited them there.

Chapter 1682

The entire surrounding area was completely obscured from view by the dense foliage, and it was black as far as the eye could see.

"Be careful." Qin Frost warned, she could already feel the energy fluctuations nearby.

Han Qianli nodded and nested behind Qin Frost, peering around.

"No, right?" Qin Lang's incredibly light chanting was followed by her bringing out her sword.

The first time I saw her, Han Qianqian's entire body was very nervous, no, did she encounter some big boss again?

Is this good luck or bad luck?

At this moment, the surrounding grasses gently leaped up, and a rustling sound came from all directions, Han Qianli was confused, and so was Qin Frost.

Hundreds of strange beasts in the form of a circle surrounded the two of them!

"Red-Eyed Beast, One-Horned Horse, Heavenly Kui, Divine Wind!" Qin Frost was almost depressed, what are they catching up with? Into the Beast's Den?

Why are all the big yellow beasts!

If you want to pick on a group of people, even an idiot knows the result.

What Qin Frost didn't know was that they were indeed lucky enough to have a big scene with a strange beast protector.

"Kill them!" At this time, standing at the top of the hundred beasts was a white haired sleepy-headed gorilla, which was the largest size gorilla Han Giang had ever seen.

"Buddha Sound Stone Monkey!" Qin Frost was surprised and lost his voice.

This was a top-level golden beast, not to mention the four peaks, even the entire Void Sect might not have more than four golden beasts, but today, it was good that the two of them had directly bumped into two of them.

Moreover, it included the strongest one!

Qinshang just wanted to catch a better yellow-grade beast and get a bronze beast for Han Qianqiang, why is it so difficult!

With a roar from the big monkey, hundreds of strange beasts suddenly attacked directly at the two, and Han Giangli was bitter in his heart.

After a night of healing, Qin Frost's fighting strength had almost recovered. In the face of the incoming beasts, she flew left and right, flying in the sky, looking good, but at the same time, Han 3,000 knew that she had a hard time holding on.

But when he had to expose his Heavenly Yin Technique in front of Qinshang, Han 3,000 didn't want to do it unless he had to. He used it before, but only because Qin Frost was in danger.

How about letting her go?

"Get out of here!" Before Han Qianqian spoke, Qin Shang in mid-air shouted coldly.

Han 3,000 was hesitant, running is not his style, leaving his woman behind, Han 3,000 couldn't let go of his dignity, while hesitating, Qin Frost had already landed in front of him, and without waiting for Han 3,000 to say anything, he lifted his clothes and flew away with him.

Han 3,000 thousand wanted to say that he would too, but Qinshang did not give him the chance.

Looking back, the hundred beasts were frantically chasing after him.

And then looking up, many strange beasts suddenly appeared on the road ahead.

There were pursuers behind and interceptors in front, and just at the critical moment, the big white monkey suddenly shouted, and a huge wall of wind suddenly blew out directly from his mouth, and expanded larger and larger!

"Bang!"

Like an airplane with its wings broken, Qin Frost was hit by the wall of sound and fell heavily to the ground.

Facing the rushing stone monkeys, Qin Frost couldn't care less and climbed up and attacked towards them.

Han Qiangli looked around, and there were all kinds of strange beasts around, one by one, with claws and teeth, seemingly wanting to skin and strip Han Qiangli. But years of experience had taught him not to panic in any situation.

He quickly searched for a breakthrough, and soon locked his eyes on a large stone cave behind the hundreds of beasts.

The cave was easy to defend and hard to attack, and was the best choice for the two of them. Although they would face death sooner or later, they had a chance to wait for the aid of the Four Peaks disciples. ,.

Watching Qin Frost retreating, the stone monkeys attacked very fast, and in just a few rounds, Qin Frost was wounded again and again.

"Sister, over there!" Han Qianli shouted, and secretly transported the Voidness Sect's skills, while using the energy of the Heavenly Yin Technique, directly to the stone cave side while killing and breaking through.

Behind them was the base camp that the beasts were guarding, and a group of beasts all came out of their nest to kill the two, but they never expected that the direction they were running would be there.

Their defense was weak, plus the two of them were surprised by Han Qianqian, the strange beasts did not reflect very well, that head Han Qianqian had pulled the landed Qin Frost desperately ran into the cave.

"That's enough!" The stone monkey waved his big hand and took up his position a hundred meters away from the stone cave, stopping the hundred beasts from pursuing him.

"They want to go into the stone cave, let them go, it's just right, we can make dinner for the Beast King." The stone monkey laughed coldly.

"But Monkey King, the Beast King is also currently about to be born, will he not be able to beat those two humans?" A henchman, now worried.

"As for the man, he is nothing but a fast runner, and he is no threat to the Beast King. The Stone Monkey said coldly and confidently.

"Also, don't forget that the Beast King is weak at birth, but there are still four bodyguards inside."

Chapter 1683

Hearing of the four bodyguards, the beasts were suddenly very relieved.

These four bodyguards have always recognized money but not people, not to mention two small humans, even if the world's humans came, they would still be the same.

In addition, the four bodyguards' abilities were quite good, although each of them was only at the yellow level, the four of them coexisted together for a hundred years and had a perfect understanding, plus the four of them's attributes were completely compatible with each other, the four of them together could at least top one and a half of the gold level.

"This group of humans, all day long, capture our kind, let us sign a master-servant contract with them and become their slaves."

"Yeah, especially in this Void Sect, we're better like captive fish, fattening up and killing them, it's too much."

"When the Beast King is born, we will work together to protect it, and in the future, it will certainly be able to lead us to fight back against the humans, don't humans love to sign contracts? Well, we'll sign with them later, but they're our slaves!"

"Yes!"

Outside, a hundred beasts were boiling.

At this time, the two people who entered the cave, Qin Lang finally could not support, a mouthful of blood gushed up the throat, the entire body is very soft, if not for Han Qianqian help, she would have fallen.

She was not healed at all, but she is similar to Su Yingxia in that she would rather grit her teeth and smile than shed even a single tear quietly.

And even if she is not injured, first she fought against the big Pegasus, and now she meets the stone monkey, everyone is tired, not to mention that she is a woman.

"Sister, are you okay?" Han Qianqian was worried.

Qin Frost did not reply, but said to him, "Help me find a quiet place, I want to heal my wounds."

Han nodded and helped her into the cave about five meters inland, where it was empty and too deep for Han to enter, but in this direction, he could see the entrance of the cave.

As soon as Qin Lang sat down, he directly transported his power to heal his injury, but only a little bit, a mouthful of blood was spat out.

Han 3,000 was sprayed with blood, but when he touched it, Han 3,000 suddenly stood up in a tense manner: "Sister, are you poisoned?"

Qin Frost's blood was black, which proved she was poisoned.

"That monkey deliberately let me go when I was leaving, I was a little loose and he slapped me." Qin Frost shook her head with difficulty, the injuries in her body made her very uncomfortable.

Even she could feel death closing in on her.

"Those monsters don't seem to be chasing us in." Han Giangli swept a glance outside the cave and saw that there was no movement and hurried to Qin Frost, then he transported the Heavenly Yin energy in his body to heal Qin Frost's injuries.

"What are you doing?" Qin Frost drank with cold eyes.

"Heal your wounds ah."

"No!" Qin Frost shook his head: "With that little energy of yours, not to mention saving me, it's not bad if you can save your own life, but you can do me a favor."

"What favor?"

Qin Frost hesitated for a moment, but still placed her eyes on Han Qianqian. ""Help me seal the two meridian points to prevent the severe poison from attacking my heart.""

She knew that the severe poison of the Golden Wonder Beast could not be cleared in her current state. The only hope was to protect the meridians and delay the onset of the poison, waiting for the rescue of the Four Peaks disciples.

However, she had already been poisoned, and any further movement to seal her veins would only make the poison come stronger, so she could only hope for Han Qianqian.

"Okay no problem, Sister, which two acupuncture points to seal."

Qin Shang blushed slightly and didn't say anything.

Han Qianqian said urgently, "Speak quickly."

"On the left side of my on the left side of my as well as in the center of my chest."

Han Marchian's raised hand froze in mid-air

Do we really have to do this?

The company has been in the process of developing the new product for the past two years.

The first time I saw it, I thought it was a good idea to have a little more information about it.

"Seal the meridians, I'm no different from normal people now, and I'll be relying on you during the time I'm waiting for rescue." Although Qin Frost understood that it was unrealistic to place hope on Han Qianqian's body, because even he might not be able to withstand the attacks of so many strange beasts.

But there was no middle way.

"I'll teach you a few advanced Void Sect spells, I'll read, you learn, understand?" Qin Frost instructed.

Han 3,000 nodded, and then, under Qin Frost's guidance, carefully studied several advanced spells of the Voidless Sect, which were divided into three types: offensive, defensive, and auxiliary.

The offensive one was the Falling Rain Ice Sword, and the defensive one was the Ice Wall Technique.

Half an hour passed, and Han Qianqian knew the heart of the spell by heart, and the moves were becoming familiar under Qin Shang's guidance, so he was about to practice, when suddenly there was a burst of cold laughter from the cave.

"Hehe, when did such a superb beauty enter the cave."

"Look at this body, it's just the best of the best."

"I can't stop drooling already, hahaha."

Chapter 1684

Hearing the voice, Han Qianqian's entire face was as cold as frost, staring at the cave.

The voice was coming from inside the cave, and from the sound of it, the number of the other party was a frightening four." Ki ll that brat, leaving that beautiful girl, we brothers have a good time." A loud laugh. Then, inside the dark cave, four silhouettes came out slowly.

As the light grew stronger, the four silhouettes became clearer.

These four people were strangely dressed. Although they were humanoid, they had green eyes and purple lips, a killer hairstyle, and a variety of strange patterns on their faces.

The most disgusting thing was that Han Marchant discovered that all four of them were snake bodies. Han Marchant's entire body was in an attack stance, just past the danger of the group. I really don't know what kind of bad luck I've had." Look, this thing is still posing in front of us." The first, a black tiger with purple lips, cracked a smile. The smile, with a mouth full of green unidentified objects, was as disgusting as it could be.

If there were a competition for ugliness, this thing would be the best in the world with one smile.

And it's the kind of first that rides high, and there's no other." Stinker, we're not interested in men, so get out of here, and since you're quite attractive, I'll spare your life." "Of course, we don't mind letting you return to the west, after all, killing you. It's just a matter of a knife." The other three laughed sardonically.

Qin Frost's eyebrows furrowed, now got up and stood up, staring coldly at the four disgusting things across the street, "Who are you guys?" "Little girl, it doesn't matter who we are, the important thing is that we will let you experience what a woman's true happiness is." The head of the group laughed incomparably.

As he said that, the four men slowly moved toward the two.

Qin Frost was about to draw her sword, but at that moment, Han Qianqian suddenly blocked in front of Qin Frost." Touching my senior sister? You four try?" Han Qianli laughed coldly.

Seeing Han Qianli light his sword, the four villains were stunned for a moment, then burst into thunderous laughter." Hahahaha, did you see, this guy is scaring us."

After the four of them finished laughing, the head of the group shouted toward Han 3,000, "Hey, brat, do you know what it's like for a little kid to hold a burning stick in front of you and say he wants to kill you?"

After saying that, the four men laughed again.

Han Qianqiang didn't have the time to pay attention to these four idiots, because these laughs wouldn't have affected him at all." Burning fire sticks don't burn fire sticks. You won't know until you try." Han Qianli laughed with a sardonic voice, and his entire body transported energy to ki II directly toward the four men.

Han 3,000 came so quickly that the four of them did not expect Han 3,000, a weak man, to suddenly attack, and for a moment they had no resistance at all against Han 3,000's attack. The first villain was even directly cut by Han 3,000's ice sword.

However, even with the cuts, Han Qianqian's cultivation could not cause any substantial harm to the villains at all.

The villain, pained, slapped Han 3,000's chest with his backhand, and Han 3,000 flew out and crashed into the wall.

One against four, the battle situation hardly needed to be thought about, and by the time Han 3,000 went in again, it was only a few rounds before Han 3,000 felt himself exhausted and suffering from repeated injuries." Three Thousand. Be careful." Qin Frost shouted, seeing one of the men take advantage of Han Three Thousand's inattention to sneak up directly behind him, at this point. She quickly and directly rushed towards Han Three Thousand." Poof!"

At this time, Qin Frost's meridians were sealed, no different from normal people, and she was wounded and poisoned, and was trying to rush over, but the wicked man over there had already discovered her actions, and with a shake of his hand, Qin Frost's entire body was directly fanned away, hitting the ground heavily.

Han Qianli's eyebrows furrowed, and the corner of his mouth slightly curled up into a smile." Thank you!" With a dashing sentence, Han Qianqian's entire body violently urged the Heavenly Yin Technique, and for a time, the entire cave was in a raging roll of energy, with Han Qianqian as the center, and a powerful black Qi wildly gathered towards it.

The four of them were suddenly shocked." What is going on?" "What's this kid doing?"

The four of them looked at each other. The third one, with his heart in his mouth and his head in his hands, rushed directly toward Han 3,000. The boss tried to call out to him, but it was too late.

Han 3,000 was enveloped in black Qi, and when faced with Lao San's rush, the black Qi lightly dispersed, and one fist came out directly.

A bang. Lao San's entire body flew several meters backwards, covering his chest and looking at Han 3,000 with disbelief.

The black smoke scattered, and at this time, Han Qianqian's eyes were red, fierce and bloody, and the silky black Qi was gently lingering around him, like a hell god of death from afar. Majestic, cold and solemn!" Lao San." Looking at the beaten back Lao San, the boss hurriedly helped Lao San down, while on Lao San's chest. A black palm print was faintly visible." F*ck, you kid, you even know how to do demon magic, give it to me." The boss waved his hand. The boss waved his hand and led the remaining two brothers to attack Han Qianqian.

Han 3,000 was in no hurry, and followed the technique recorded in the Heavenly Yin Technique, pushing the energy in his body to fight with the three villains quickly.

If Qin Frost were awake at this time, he would have seen Han 3,000 as if he were a wolf. She could certainly see Han Qianqian like a black smoke, rapidly moving around the three villains.

The moves of the Heavenly Yin Technique are very strange and incomparably vicious, and all of them are killing moves. Even the three villains were exhausted for a moment.

As Han Qianli shouted angrily, the three villains felt a powerful energy burst out from Han's body, and they were bounced away by more than half a meter.

The lead villain was horrified. Just now, this kid in front of him was obviously just a person whose cultivation was looked down upon and was not very good, but how could he suddenly change and become so strong? Lao San, I'm counting on you." Placing their eyes on Lao San, the four villains nodded to each other at the same time and attacked directly at Han Qianqiang!

The four villains, although each one is only the strength of a yellow-grade beast, but once the four people united, the four attributes of wind, rain, lightning and thunder gathered together, and then with each other's cooperation, the earth shook in a short time.

Outside the cave, seeing that the inside of the cave was already flashing, the stone monkey smiled coldly: "It seems that the four bodyguards have already acted, and the end of those two humans is to die without a burial place. Yes!"

At this time, Han Qianqian in the cave, facing the energy of the four people gathered together, his brows tightly wrinkled, and he did not expect, just an instant, these four people just like himself, suddenly became very powerful!" Ho!"

Suddenly, when the four of them were less than a few meters away from Han Qianqian, they turned into four dragons, interlaced with each other, and came straight at us!" Dragons?" Han Qianqian was suddenly shocked.

Chapter 1685

These four strange-looking, even human-headed, snake-bodied men were four different colored dragons!

The Green Dragon was covered in purple electricity, the Purple Dragon was wrapped in white wind, the Black Dragon was cloaked in green energy, the Red Dragon was covered in blue light, and the four dragons interlaced and converged on each other, pouncing straight at Han Qianqiang.

"What are you waiting for?" When Han Giangli drank, his arm shook, and the Linlong flashed white light, opened its mouth wide and attacked the four dragons!

"Ho!"

The five dragons collided with each other, and the tremendous energy wave shook even Han 3,000 to the ground and rushed all the way out of the cave, creating a deep ravine with it.

Quiet, surprisingly quiet!

Han 3,000 yuan managed to get up from the ground, the huge wind and waves almost made him pass out, looking up at the scene where the five dragons had clashed, Han 3,000 yuan smiled.

"Get that woman up, let her see that I'm a dragon and not a snake." Lin Long stood there steadily, and in front of him, the four evil dragons lay on the ground on their backs.

One by one, they looked at the Linlong with fear and trepidation, their eyes filled with incredulity.

Han Qianli laughed helplessly and looked at the unconscious Qin Frost, if Lin Long was looking for dignity, I'm afraid he didn't find it at the right time.

"This is impossible, you are just a dragon, how can you beat us four brothers together?"

The Four Evil Dragons have been working together for hundreds of years, and have never met any tough opponents, which is the key reason why they have survived until now after the fall of the dragon race.

But today, they were defeated by a dragon that had been adopted as a spiritual pet!

"Yes, theoretically I can't beat you four." Lin Long laughed, "But what if you add the heart of a dragon!"

As soon as they heard the Heart of the Dragon Clan, the pupils of the four evil dragons dilated, the Heart of the Dragon Clan was the shocking treasure of the Dragon Clan, and it was because of its loss that the Dragon Clan had been in decline for thousands of years, even in the eyes of humans, there was no difference between a dragon and a snake.

"See the clan leader!" After the four dragons looked at each other, they knelt down.

In the case of the four brothers, their current cultivation was the bottleneck for almost every dragon in the dragon tribe, so it was impossible for any dragon to beat them one-on-four.

But Lin Long can, and this shows that he has the Dragon's greatest treasure.

Moreover, when they fought just now, the four dragons could already smell the scent of the heart of the dragon tribe somewhat, but they were not sure.

After all, the heart of the dragon tribe has been lost for too long, and the dragon tribe has searched for it for so long, but it is nowhere to be found, so how can they be sure? Now, as soon as Lin Long said it, they were more sure of what they were thinking, and they knelt down.

The dragon that has the heart of the dragon tribe is the leader of the dragon tribe, this is the rule of the dragon tribe.

"Okay, don't be so affectionate with the clan leader's name." Lin Long scowled.

After Lin Long finished speaking, he looked at Han Qianqian, "These four, what to do with them?"

"I'm hungry, kill it and boil snake soup." Han Qianli said coldly. "Anyway, the outside of the cave is full of strange beasts, we won't be able to get out for a while."

Hearing this, the four dragons panicked, and the leader even looked at the Lin Long nodded his head, shouting on his knees for a time, "Clan leader, don't, don't, we are your clan, you won't kill your own compatriots because of a weak human, right?".

"Yes, our dragon clan has fallen, we should unite as one."

"You have the heart of the Dragon Clan, what you should do is to lead our Dragon Clan to glory, instead of obeying this human."

The dragon nodded: "You are right, we are all of the same race, I shouldn't kill you, and I should lead you to glory. But the problem is who do you guys mess with that you don't mess with, but him?"

"Patriarch, he's just a small human, even we four brothers can easily kill him, so what's wrong with messing with him?"

"You have the heart of the Dragon Clan, and in our Dragon Clan that's below ten thousand people."

A group of dragons are still trying to please Lin Long, because they know very well that the only one who can decide whether they live or die is Lin Long, and as for Han 3000, it is nothing at all.

The Lin Long smiled slightly: "Yes, there is the heart of the dragon family, it is true, above all people, but you have forgotten the first half of the sentence, above all people, there is one person under the former."

Hearing this, the four dragons were suddenly puzzled!

"Simply put, I, his spirit, and he, my master. Got it?!"

The four dragons went pale in an instant!

Their Dragon Patriarch, the star of the future that led them to glory, was, surprisingly, the spirit pet of this humble human being!

This

"Patriarch, you're not kidding us, are you?" The head of the four dragons asked cautiously.

"If it is false, it will be replaced." The Lin Long smiled and nodded his head.

The four dragons couldn't believe it as they looked at Han Qianqian, and then at the Linlong who seemed to be enjoying being someone else's spiritual pet, his head was spinning for a moment.

What's going on, by what authority, a dragon with the heart of a dragon, that is absolutely strong in the Eight Directions World, why should it be subjugated to a human!

And still, such a weak human!

Chapter 1686

"Patriarch, I'm not convinced." The first one shook his head, "Even if you were to kill me, I'd still have to say something. He, however, is just a piece of trash.

He is just a piece of trash, he is not qualified to be your master." "Yes, I think so too."

Four dragons head like pounding garlic, Lin Long helplessness, this is to death!

Is it really that simple for Han Qiangiang to be his master? Obviously not, but Lin Long didn't dare to say, do we have to tell them that this guy has a Pan Gu axe? And the wife of one of the three future true gods? And Forget it, I'm tired of saying it!

Sometimes, some people's backgrounds can be so complicated that you can't do anything about them while screaming out that they are sick.

Han 3,000 is one of those people!

"Hey, you four, you're really hopeless." Originally, he wanted to scold them, dissipate Han Qianqian's anger, and keep them alive, but he didn't know that these four indiscreet guys had to fight to the death.

The four dragons looked at each other strangely, "What's wrong with us four? Did we say it was wrong?"

The Linlong looked at Han 3,000, saw that he also helplessly shook his head, heart for the four silent dragons once, transported energy, directly to send the four dragons to the west.

But at this time, the whole cave suddenly shook violently, and the sturdy cave wall was filled with falling stones.

Hundreds of beasts came running from everywhere, guarding in front of the cave and kneeling down one by one.

At this time, in the main hall of the four peaks, Lin Mengxi's brows were furrowed, her Qian jade fingers were rapidly pinching, and after a moment, her brows were furrowed, and she said to Ruoyu: "Notify the palace master immediately, the mountain behind the four peaks has changed, and there is a fear of demons descending into the world!".

Ruo Yu followed Lin Meng Xi for many years, several children and disciples, since childhood, it is rare to see Lin Meng Xi so nervous, nodded her head, and quickly flew towards the main hall.

In the Void Sect, all the disciples felt the change in the color of the sky, and they all stood on the open platform, overlooking the four peaks.

At this time, the four peaks were completely covered by black clouds, and within the black clouds, purple lightning jumped wildly, converging with each other and exploding from time to time!

The head of the Void Sect also moved quickly out of the main hall with Elder Preceptor at this time.

"Brother, at the four peaks, black clouds are overwhelming and the demon Qi is rushing to the sky, it seems that it should have been born back then."

Wu Yan heaved a heavy sigh, "I didn't expect my Void Sect to suppress him for over a thousand years, but I finally let him reincarnate."

"His ability is there, even when he was born, we had no foreknowledge, some things are not something we can stop." The headmaster smiled faintly.

Wu Yan nodded, "What the palm master said is true. What should be done about the four peaks there?"

"The Beast King is born, and the beasts protect him, but can we really stop him if we go? However, listen to God's order and do your best, so let's say, you immediately deploy the elites of each peak to the back of the four peaks, and you personally lead the team to go there to see the situation, remember, do not act rashly, so as not to cause unnecessary casualties." The headmaster instructed.

Wu Yan nodded his head and immediately went to do it.

When Wu Yan left, the headmaster shook his head, "I only hope that the Void Sect's restriction can still trap you, even if you reincarnate, you will never be able to leave my Void Sect, let alone grow."

Half an hour later, on the four peaks, the Void Sect disciples gathered.

As the commander of the operation, Wu Yan stood in the center, on both sides, there were six peaks of elders, and a hundred disciples stood in front of them, each holding a long sword, with a heroic spirit.

With a wave of Wu Yan's hand, the procession marched to the four peaks.

It was the first time for the company to be able to offer its products to the public, but it was also the first time for the company to be able to offer its products to the public.

It's just a pity that such a great beauty, rare to meet once in a hundred years, but in the end, met with such a catastrophe, and from then on, the fragrance vanished, jade damage, it is really regrettable.

The first thing that I want to mention is that I have been to the Back Mountain Beast Forest, because if I don't care about Qin Shuang, I will probably lose my reputation.

At this time, inside the cave, after the violent shaking stopped, Han Qianli and the others were barely able to stand upright. Inside the cave at this time, in addition to the thick dust flying, there was a dark red bloody gas flowing in a dark stream.

The odor was so pungent that even Han Qianli had a hard time smelling it.

"What's going on?" The Linlong was puzzled as he looked into the deep, bottomless cave and wondered for a moment.

"Patriarch, quickly quickly flee, is is the beast king descended." The head of the evil dragon panicked, then kneeled piously toward the cave.

The other three brothers did the same.

Lin Long was puzzled and even more angry: "All of you get up, I am the King of the Beast, who are you kneeling for?".

Han 3,000 quickly pulled the Linlong, this is obviously not the time to fight this anger, his eyes, seriously staring at the cave, there is a sense of foreboding.

Chapter 1687

"Dragons? King of the Beasts?" Inside the cave, a scornful sneer suddenly came out.

The voice was majestic, deep, and full of magnetism.

"What? Are the dragons now this low in intelligence?" He let out a sneer.

Lin Long was furious: "What kind of hero is a sneaky one, have the guts to come out and speak."

"Talking to a retard like you, you are also worthy of my king's personal appearance? The king of beasts, you don't think you can do it." The words had just fallen, at this time. A violet blur came fiercely, and the Linlong scrambled his energy to resist, but his whole body was not hit by the violet mane, and his brain was confused.

"The Beast King is at peace, the Beast King is at peace."

"Yes, he is the new head of our Dragon Clan, please forgive him for the sake of the four of us who have faithfully guarded you."

"It's not easy for the Dragon Clan to have a clan leader, please be merciful." The four dragons now hurriedly blocked the front of the Linlong with their kneeling capital, begging for mercy on his behalf.

"You four. What qualifications do you have to beg for mercy in front of this king?" With a cold smile, another purple mane struck, and the four dragons were instantly knocked over.

But not only did the four dragons not resist in the slightest, they panicked and climbed up and continued to kneel down.

The four dragons looked at this scene. The whole man was furious.

"Are you very unconvinced? Bruce?" The cave laughed coldly.

The Lin Long snapped coldly, "I was careless just now and let you plot against me, now, I'll show you who is the real Beast King."

After saying that, Lin Long urged the Dragon Heart in his hand, and the whole man went straight towards the cave to kill.

Only, just after taking two steps, the Lin Long stopped, covered his head with both hands in pain, and squatted down, completely losing his fighting strength.

"It's just a mole cricket. How dare you act rudely in front of my king, simply looking for death."

See another purple mane rushed out, and at this time the Lin Long completely touched his head, not paying attention at all, Han Qianqian a rise, directly in front of him.

As soon as the purple mane passed, the yellow light on Han Qianqian's body flashed, and a small yellow aura lit up around him, while the purple mane also slowly dissipated.

Yellow aperture again!

It was exactly the same aperture as the one Han Qianqian and Lin Long had used when they were searching for the heart of the dragon race on the ancient battlefield.

Being inside the aperture, the Linlong situation was instantly alleviated, standing up and looking coldly into the cave.

"Humans, truly the most annoying insects in the world."

As soon as the words fell, the temperature inside the cave dropped sharply, and frost was condensing at a speed visible to the naked eye, as if the entire cave had entered a world of ice and snow, snow-covered and cold to the bone.

Immediately afterwards, there was an abrupt noise inside the cave. An incomparably large purple mane directly filled the entire cave.

Han Qianli only felt a darkness before his eyes, and when he opened his eyes again, his surroundings were already a dark, barren world, and he could not see any direction. Nor could he see the slightest bit of light.

"Boundary?" Han Qianli was stunned.

"Little worm, you know quite a bit. However, there are some things that even if you understand, you won't have the chance to comprehend them, because, you'll be trapped here forever, suffering the ravages of the Dark Hell until you're ashes to ashes."

Han Giangli smiled, "Yes?"

Lin Long also laughed.

At this time, outside the cave, the Void Sect's Reverend Preceptor led more than three hundred disciples, who had already led into the Hundred Beasts Forest. However, as soon as they entered the forest, they encountered a massive attack by strange beasts.

For a while, the battle between man and beast was extremely fierce.

Wu Yan's cultivation was so high that he was able to defeat more than one person, but there were too many strange beasts. According to his estimation, almost all of the ten thousand beasts in the Four Peaks Hundred Beast Forest, regardless of their size or class, were in action this time.

The Void Sect's more than three hundred disciples were almost no match, relying on themselves and the Six Peaks Elders to crush them in their cultivation, which barely stabilized the situation.

"Set up the formation, set up the formation!" Wu Yan shouted.

More than three hundred disciples hurriedly evacuated the battle, ran out of the battle circle, and then quickly formed a huge circle to surround the Ten Thousand Beasts.

The six elders, along with the preceptor, each threw out their own magic treasures, gathered in the air, and linked up with each other in a seven-star posture. On the ground, hundreds of disciples also threw their swords in unison, chanting incantations, and suddenly, in mid-air, the seven swords were the core. Ten thousand swords stood up.

This is the Void Sect's Seven Star Sword Formation, and the seven elders are in charge of the eye of the formation, so the formation is extremely strong and the defense is quite high. The Ten Thousand Beasts, which were raging just now, were trapped in the sword formation for a moment, unable to escape.

"Yunfeng, protect the formation for me and the six elders, and Lone City, you quickly lead a team of men and horses into the central area of the Beast King to rescue Qin Shang."

Hearing this order, Cool-Son Ye was stunned.

Let yourself lead a lone army to go deeper, if there are still strange beasts inside. What should he do then?

But in front of so many people, Ye Liao Cheng could only nod helplessly, "Yes."

Then, he led more than a dozen of his junior apprentices who had been following him for years, and quickly headed towards the center of the Hundred Beasts Forest.

A moment later. Ye Liao Cheng arrived, and the distant cave was completely within his sight.

Most of the strange beasts had already rushed out to fight with the Void Sect, and the entrance of the cave. But there were only a few strange beasts guarding the entrance, of course, these were nothing to Cool-Son Ye. But the beast king inside was what he was afraid of.

"Brother, what should we do?" A disciple now asked.

What to do, Ye Liao Cheng he also does not know. One step forward is a dead end, one step back

"Listen, no one moves without my order. All of you stay here and observe." If the situation was good, Ye Liao Cheng would treat it as picking up someone, if it was bad, he would immediately evacuate.

"Bang!"

Suddenly, at this moment, there was a violent explosion in the cave!

If it wasn't for Wu Yan and the six elders of the Quarantine Academy, the sword formation would have been destroyed by the explosion.

"There's a change in the Beast King's area, and the beasts are panicking, all disciples listen to the order, defend the sword formation to the death!"

"Yes!" Everyone drank in unison.

Under the sword formation, after the explosion, all the beasts suddenly seemed to have lost their souls, desperately trying to retreat, even though there was a sword formation to stop them, every time a strange beast was about to break through the boundary, there was always a flying sword that would instantly kill it, but it still could not stop them from madly surging towards the sword formation.

After the explosion, Cool-Son Ye completely panicked and ran back with his sword without saying a word.

Saving people, at this time even if it was his own mother, he wouldn't even take a second glance.

"This this how is this possible!"

Inside the cave, deep inside, an incredible voice, now weak, pale, and completely incomprehensible, rang out.

Chapter 1688

The frost disappeared, the purple mane dissipated, and the cave returned to the scene just now, with Han Qianqian smiling and looking into the cave, Lin Long smiling and looking at Han Qianqian, and the four dragons completely dumbfounded. Look left, look right.

What's the situation?!

"You you you worm, you, how could you possibly destroy my absolute domain? This is impossible." Inside the cave, the Beast King was completely shocked to the point of speechlessness.

Absolute Domain was the attack method he was most proud of, and although, his predecessor was unable to use it due to the suppression of the Void Sect's formation, his powerful spiritual soul still existed. Therefore, even if he was reincarnated, even if he was just born. When his new physical body was weak, he could rely on his powerful spirit to construct an absolute domain out of it.

In his realm, he was the master, and all the rules were determined by him.

But Han Qianqian, however, broke this rule, and even, outlawed him!

He became the new master of that space, and then forcefully devoured himself. If he hadn't been strong enough to evacuate in time, the person who died in the absolute realm would have been him!

It was him!

"Impossible, impossible ah, even even if you"

The beast king never dreamed that maybe the physical attack, Han Qianqian, a weak chicken of the Eightfold World, would be really hard to fight against, but if you want to deal with him from a spiritual attack

This is simply like killing a dinosaur with an embroidery needle, which is not at all on the same level.

How many unjust spirits and grievances are there on the ancient battlefield, who can ordinary people endure? But Han Giangli relied hard on himself and went in.

The skeleton on his body, the Pan Gu axe he possessed, everything, made him face these. It was simply like playing with a child's toy, as simple as it could be.

A small absolute domain of the Beast King might be a nightmare for other people, but for the Beast King it was a nightmare. It was a nightmare, but for Han 3,000 yuan, it was just a little trick in front of a magician, playing some poker exchange.

The four dragons, listening to the Beast King's words, simply turned into children with ten thousand question marks, their eyes filled with strangeness.

As the Beast King's four guards, the four dragons naturally know the Beast King's tricks. How many heroes and heroines have died in the absolute realm over the years, unable to be reborn forever.

But Han Qianqian, without much effort, disrupted the Beast King's attack.

This was unheard of in their hundred years of guarding. It was unheard of and unseen.

"Big brother, meet big brother."

"Big brother, from the first time I saw you, I knew that big brother was no ordinary man."

"Blow your mother's fart, can't you speak, is Mr. Han also worthy of being called Big Brother by you? He is the master of our clan leader, and we are going to call him Grandpa."

"Grandpa, Grandpa Han, hehe."

The Four Dragons weren't stupid, being able to live until now and still hold important positions despite losing the heart of the Dragon Clan, their brains were spinning much faster than ordinary people.

A look at the Beast King's side of that situation, while Han 3,000 is so breezy. He suddenly saw the wind and set the helm, and bowed down to Han 3,000's door.

Han 3,000 was also a little speechless by the four dragons, but the dog looked at the master. Just now, in the heat of the moment, the four dragons still pleaded desperately for the sake of the Linlong, from this point of view, these four dragons are not bad in nature.

Moreover, they were the clansmen of the Lin Dragons, what did the Lin Dragons think. How could Han Qianli not know?

"Traitor, traitor, you four traitors." Inside the cave. The Beast King cursed angrily at this point.

"Grandpa Han, the Beast King's reincarnation is when the Beast King's entire soul is at its weakest, and he just launched the Absolute Realm though. But I believe that it must have caused him to lose a lot of energy, and he won't be able to launch a second attack in a short period of time. Grandpa Han, take advantage of his illness." The leading Evil Dragon said.

"Yes, Grandpa Han. Now is the best chance. It's now or never."

Seeing the four dragons outside, they frantically encouraged Han 3,000 to kill himself. The Beast King was about to vomit blood.

What the Four Dragons said was exactly his current destiny, and the reincarnation had cost him too much energy, so he used the strongest technique to try to get Han 3,000 as soon as he arrived.

Who knew that the boat would turn over in the gutter!

He is now completely like a baby, with no ability to fight back against any attack.

"B*tch, b*tch, you four dead sl u ts ! ! ! !" The Beast King was gnashing his teeth in anger.

Han Qianli shook his head helplessly, looked at the Lin Long, and the two of them slowly walked toward the cave.

The cave was a hundred meters deep, and it was almost dark, pitch black, but under the leadership of the four eunuchs, Han quickly passed through the layers of caves and managed to walk into the innermost chamber.

The chamber was made of two huge stone doors, and one could already smell the strong smell of blood inside.

Han Giangli touched the stone doors, and judging from the feel of them, each one weighed at least ten thousand kilograms, was half a meter thick, and was protected by energy, so it was not easy to open them.

At that moment, the four dragons looked at each other, smiled, and leapt toward the stone door.

Chapter 1689

The four dragons quickly shrank in size, and quickly stuck to the stone door, roaming around each other to form a circle. After three circles, the stone door was reopened. A moment of dust flew.

So, the four dragons are the stone door key, Han 3,000 really inner bitter smile, these four traitors, really cheap.

Selling their teammates to such an extent!

As soon as the stone door opened, a blood-red light instantly shone out from the stone chamber, turning both man and beast red.

In the center of the stone door, there was a huge pool of blood, and the pool was full of blood. It was boiling, and sometimes a few blood bubbles would gurgle out.

Like a dog's leg, the four dragons invited Han Qianqian into the stone room.

Then, the head of the Four Dragons drank coldly. The head of the four dragons snapped in a cold voice, "Little brat, our grandfather Han is here, why don't you hurry up and get out and meet him?"

Han Qianli was speechless, this kind of traitor, who is their master who bad luck, but, at least now, for themselves, these four people, can only be described as true fragrance.

No matter how much the Beast King's temper could be suppressed. But he couldn't afford to have his own traitor be so reckless in front of him.

With a furious voice, a shadow suddenly jumped out of the pool of blood.

Han Qianqian looked at it stiffly for half a day.

Finally, he couldn't help but laugh out loud.

When Han 3,000 laughed, the five dragons laughed as well!

The Beast King held his face red: "What's so funny?"

Han Qianqian's first impression of the Beast King was that he was a lion or a tiger, but what he never dreamed of was that the so-called Beast King of the Eight Directions was

A rabbit!

To be precise, it was a strange-looking rabbit.

Aside from its appearance, there was no difference between it and an ordinary rabbit, but the biggest difference was that when it opened its mouth, it had tiger-like fangs instead of the shiny two front teeth of an ordinary rabbit.

Han Giangli really couldn't imagine. This one, which looked quite cute, could actually be the arrogant, arrogant, cold-blooded and ruthless Beast King from earlier!

"So now you. Are you going to kill yourself, or am I going to do it? Anyway, I'm hungry, and I don't know how long I'll have to stay in this cave, so I don't mind eating a roast rabbit." Han Qianli smiled slightly.

The Beast King was furious: "A soldier cannot be killed or insulted, so don't bother to do it.

Anyway, after death, the worst that could happen is that he would be reincarnated again. Anyway, his consciousness was strong enough, so it would only take a little more work.

"Grandpa Han, the spirit of the Beast King. Even if he commits suicide, if his soul is complete, he will be resurrected soon." At this point, the traitor boss, appropriately reminded Han Qianli.

The Beast King grimaced in anger, wishing he could pull out his skin and drink his blood.

Han 3,000 nodded, "That makes sense, Beast King, you know what to do now, right?"

"So what do you want?" The Beast King suppressed his anger.

"Let's make a deal, if you behave yourself as his spirit pet, you will be spared, if you don't want to, I'll take your soul right now, and the Void Sect can't cure you. But you shouldn't doubt that he can't heal you, right?" Lin Long smiled.

After finishing his speech, Lin Long quietly leaned to Han Qianqian's ear, "This guy can be a beast king, so he must have extraordinary skills. Keeping a guy like this by our side will do us good and no harm."

Han 3,000 nodded his head, in fact, he was also thinking the same thing. There was no certainty of victory, so one more person had more power.

The Beast King's heart was cold. How could he give a human insect as a spiritual pet, even if he were to die, to the Beast King? This was simply an insult and trample on the beast's personality, but on the other hand, Han Giang could break his absolute domain. It would not be difficult to kill his spirit.

The Beast King knew this in his heart.

"Is it hard to choose? Then let's give you another benefit." The Linlong smiled.

The Beast King didn't answer though, but looked at the Lin Long. It was obvious that he was waiting for his next sentence.

That's right, the Beast King weighed and weighed again and again, and put aside what kind of bullshit beast compartment first. Staying alive was the most important thing.

Moreover, Han Qianxiang could break his absolute domain, and for now, recognizing him as master was no loss!

"From now on, I'm the boss and you're the third!"

"The third? What about the penis?"

Han Qianqiang properly released the red-eyed jade python at this time, seeing the red-eyed jade python, the beast king was even more speechless, he not only had to submit to a dragon, but also to a snake.

"If you want to refuse again, how about another condition?" Linlong continued to laugh.

"Enough, just do it, don't mention conditions." The Beast King was very depressed, afraid that the more Lin Long mentioned, the more excessive it was, and in the end, some cats and dogs appeared, and he couldn't even be the third.

Han Qianli smiled, and signed the master-servant contract with the reluctant Beast King soon, and Han Qianli gave him a particularly loud name: "Little White!".

After the beast king resisted several times, all of which were inadmissible by Han 3,000, looking at the four laughing dragons, Sebastian smiled coldly, "Right, master, I have something important to report, about these four of them."

Chapter 1690

Upon hearing this, Han Giangli came to be interested, and the four dragons looked at Xiao Bai with startled speechlessness for a moment, wondering what he was doing.

"Master, have you heard of dragon nature?"

When it comes to the nature of dragons, Han Qianqian suddenly understood that they are dragons by nature, so since ancient times, there have been various legends about dragons having nine sons.

It's no wonder that when he and Qin Shuang first came in, the four dragons looked like lecherous devils, they were dragons, so they were naturally born this way.

Seeing Han Qianqian nodding, Bai continued, "Besides this, the dragons have another great characteristic, which is their greed for money. These four traitors are willing to hide in this cave to be my bodyguards because of the treasure in the cave."

As soon as they heard this, the four dragons' eyes widened.

"That Grandpa Han, you don't listen to nonsense, he's simply purely retaliatory, what value can there be in this broken cave ah."

"Yes, Grandpa Han, the boss he's right."

The four dragons pounded their heads like garlic, Han Qianqian smiled: "Yes or no, the Lin Long is also a dragon, one can see."

The four dragons looked at each other, if Lin Long wants to check, the hole can't hide anything, even if they hide the gold panties, there will be nothing left, we are all dragons, and how can they not smell the jewelry.

"I'm not sure if I'm so serious about this, but I'm not. Yes, it's true that some of the smaller ones do have some possessions, but the problem is it's all a hobby of the dragon, and I believe you don't care about this much." The first dragon said, "That's not necessarily true."

"Although you can break my absolute domain, with all due respect, even if you are strong, you are no different from me now, you are still in a growth stage. In one's growth period, the more useful things one has, the better, so getting some jewelry on one's body is obviously a good idea." Xiao Bai said.

These four traitors betrayed him, so that he would become a spiritual pet, he naturally also has his own plans, damn it, fish to the death, I'm not easy, you guys do not want to be easy.

In addition, the contract has been made, Han Qianxiang is his master, for him, recognizing a human as his master is already a great shame, if his master is still a weak chicken, it is even more of a great shame.

Also, if Han Qianxiang was too weak and was killed, as a spiritual pet, he wouldn't have a good end either, so in public and in private, he had to favor Han Qianxiang.

"Hey, once a beast king, don't talk nonsense, our grandpa Han is wise and mighty, you're obviously slandering."

"Yes." The four dragons nodded in unison.

Han 3,000 was about to speak, when Lin Long opened his mouth, "What Xiaobai said is actually not without reason, no matter in which world, money is an eternal good thing."

Han 3,000 also felt that there was some truth to it, and that money was needed to enter the world, and money was needed even more in the world of the Eight Directions, a world that was so decisive.

Of course, Han 3,000 won't refuse money.

"However, it doesn't seem good to take other people's things." Han mulch thousand was embarrassed.

Linlong disdainful smile: "In private, where is this taking other people's things? These four dragons are all dragons of my clan, as the clan leader, their property should naturally belong to me, and you are my master, is this called taking?"

"That's right, since Yu said it in private, I'll say it in public, these treasures, given by my strange beast clan, were meant to be used to get these four guards to protect me, but the fact that I'm all like this now means that the four of them are grossly negligent, so it's normal for me to take back our previous commission, and it's normal for you, my master, to take it. " Xiao Bai Dao.

Both sides of your words, the four dragons were stunned, and finally concluded eight big words, in public and private, should be surrendered.

Han 3,000 also knew that Lin Long and Xiaobai were thinking for themselves, and nodded: "Since you all said so, Four Dragons, why don't you take it out?".

"If you don't want to take it out, it's fine. We've been in here for so long and we're hungry anyway, we can't eat the roast rabbit, but we can still consider the roast snake feast." Lin Long smiled.

Hearing the roast snake, the four dragons couldn't help but feel a chill down their backs, there were three waves of masters in it, but only one they could afford to provoke.

"Delivery!" The four dragons clenched their teeth and became very depressed.

But if being depressed was useful, they would have become the strongest in the world, so, despite being depressed, the four dragons honestly led Han Qianqian to his own residence.

There were so many different kinds of caves in the cave that it was complicated, and if no one led the way, Han Qiangiang would definitely get lost in it.

After bypassing the numerous caves, Han Qianqian, led by the four dragons, stopped in front of a small cave that looked very secluded.

The entrance to the cave was concealed by stones, so if you didn't look closely, you wouldn't have noticed that there was a secret door here.

The four dragons looked at each other reluctantly, and then reluctantly repeated the action of opening the central door.

The moment the stone door opened lightly, the cave, which had been dark, suddenly became bright.

Han Giangli swore that he was a man of great wealth, but he was also stunned by the various types of glowing jewelry in front of him.

The brightness of the color and the number of jewels were simply breathtaking, and the entire cave was almost completely filled with all kinds of exotic treasures.

According to Han Qianli's estimation, these things could have fit into several trains if they had been loaded into a car.

Not only Han 3,000, but also Xiaobai was stunned.

He, as a hallowed Beast King, had never thought that these four traitors had secretly harvested so many treasures.

"You guys have amassed so much wealth, isn't it outrageous, so much?" The dragon's eyes have emerged golden light, as a dragon, he also has a kind of inexplicable impulse to see the jewelry.

Before coming in, he had warned himself countless times, as the head of the dragon clan, should be stable, low-key, meaningful, should not be corrupted by the smell of copper, but after coming in, he had to sigh, really f*cking fragrant!

The four dragons nodded awkwardly, their awkward smiles filled with reluctant bitterness, these are all the four brothers of all their belongings for thousands of years, usually they themselves could not give up, but did not expect that one day they ended up for someone else to give up.

"A bit interesting." Lin Long smiled and walked straight in.

Han Qianqian also followed suit, slowly following in.

This was simply a world of gold, a paradise of jade, but unlike Xuanyuan World and Earth, all the jewelry here was not only more beautiful in color, but most importantly, they also had a faint white glow to them.

Most importantly, Han Qianli also found a lot of incredible things inside these treasures.
