

His True Colors Chapter 183-188

Chapter 183

A husband and a child!

The impact of these four words on Han Three Thousand was like an overwhelming sea.

In particular, the word godson made Han Three Thousand's heart thump, although he was now sleeping in the same bed as Su Yingxia, he hadn't done anything out of line, could it be that Su Yingxia's words were hinting at something?

"By the way, what do you mean you want me to be chairman?" Han three thousand hadn't returned to her senses, Su Yingxia had already started the next topic, making Han three thousand repent to her gut, very herself why she didn't pick up that topic just now.

"The bank side can operate, and the Su family's company can be acquired." Han 3000 said very simply, but this matter was indeed not difficult for him, just acquire the Su family company directly.

"To make it sound so simple, it will cost a lot of money again, right?" The Su family was now in a debt situation, although the suspension of the west city project would bring a great crisis to the Su family, but in recent years, the Su family was still able to rely on the money in their hands to survive, to do this thing in Su Yingxia's opinion, it was not simple.

"The bank pressure, the Su family can't stand up to it, Su Haichao can't last too long, selling the company is his only choice, as for spending money, the Chengxi project is enough for you to earn it back." Han Marchiang said.

"Didn't you say that Weak Water Properties would stop working with the Su family? Are you going to bother your classmates again?" Su Yingxia said.

"Since we're all old classmates, there's no difference between two or three times once or twice." Han Qianli smiled.

Su Yingxia looked at Han Qianqian with suspicion, could the friendship between classmates really be this deep? Repeatedly letting others help, Han 3,000 is not only not embarrassed, but also rightfully so?

Su Yingxia had some thoughts before, and the words that Shen Lingyao said still lingered in her mind.

"Three thousand, when can I meet your classmates?" Su Yingxia asked.

"Speaking of which, it should be soon, he'll be returning to Yun City after his foreign affairs are taken care of, I've already made an appointment with him, he'll come to Yun City after he returns." Han Giangli said.

When Su Yingxia heard this, she no longer had any doubts.

If her circle could have been a little bigger and could have understood a little more about Yanjing, Han Three Thousand Thousand would have already revealed her skills, but it was a pity that Su Yingxia was in Cloud City, and her understanding of Yanjing, which was a thousand miles away, was simply unheard of, except for some famous sights, after all, the circles were different, and there was no access to higher fields.

Su Family Company.

The people in the conference room were anxious like ants on a hot pot, the cooperation in the west of the city was soaked, the bank kept exerting pressure, and now the Su Family Company was already like a crumbling building, with the possibility of falling down at any time.

And once the Su family collapsed, all the relatives of the Su family would be crushed to death in the ruins, they were in the Su family corpse, there is no half ability, go to other companies will inevitably be eliminated by the reality, the comfortable life is already very crisis for them.

"Hai Chao, this matter is caused by you, you must be the one to find a way to solve it."

"The bank has given a deadline, the City West project can no longer cooperate, we have completely lost the ability to repay the loan, the bank has a legitimate reason to demand early repayment, if we can't do it, the company can only declare a flaw."

"Hai Chao, you're so stupid, don't think that we don't know that you forced Su Ying Xia away, have you forgotten everything that happened before? Now it's not Su Yingxia that killed the Su family, but you killed us."

The relatives gnashed their teeth one by one as they looked at Su Hai Chao, it was all Su Hai Chao's fault that they would come to this situation, so they could only vent their frustration by blaming him.

"Have you guys said enough?" Su Haichao said in a cold tone: "Enough talk, just come and listen to what I have to say, you bunch of trash, what contribution have you made to the company? And who is now in a position to accuse me?"

"Hai Chao, what do you mean!"

"Did you ever make anything before, in the company? You can be the chairman only because you're a man."

"Some trash, really think of themselves as capable men, if it wasn't for the old lady, what qualifications do you have to be the chairman, I do think Su Yingxia is more capable than you."

"Had I known that if I had let Su Yingxia be the chairman of the board there wouldn't have been so much crap, maybe the company could have developed better, it's only been a short time since it fell into your hands."

Hearing this, Su Haichao was even more annoyed, that b*tch Su Yingxia, why should she compare to him?

"If you are not happy with me, you can get out of the company now, the company is in distress, you don't need people like you to add insult to injury." Su Haichao said.

"Want to kick us out of the company? Su Haichao, do you think there's anyone else in the company who listens to you now?"

"What right do you have to kick us out."

While the conference room was bickering non-stop, Du Hong arrived at the company.

As the governor of the original loan to the Su family, Du Hong was instructed by Han Qianqiang to put pressure on the Su family, and the purpose of his visit today was to bring good news to the Su family.

But Du Hong doesn't quite understand why Han Qianqian is doing all this behind his back, as in his eyes, a small Su family is not even close to the hair, so why spend so much energy?

When Su Haichao knew that Du Hong had arrived at the company, he immediately asked his secretary to welcome Du Hong into the conference room.

"Governor Du, why are you free to come today?" Su Haichao asked Du Hong.

"Su Dong, I'm here to bring you good news." Du Hong said.

Hearing this, Su Haichao looked pleased, although the cooperation of the west side of the city project was gone, as long as the bank gave grace, the Su family still had a chance to turn around.

"Governor Du, you're willing to give us time?" Su Haichao was surprised.

"To give you time?" Du Hong disdainfully looked at Su Haichao and said, "Without the west side of the city project, what makes the Su family eligible for a loan, even if I give you time, do you still have the money?"

Su Haichao frowned, good news but Du Hong himself said, if not to extend his time, what is good news?

"What do you mean, Governor Du?" Su Haichao was puzzled and asked.

"Isn't it good news that someone is willing to buy your company, and that everyone who is working can remain in the company?" Duhon said.

"No." Su Haichao refused without thinking, the company was acquired, he hadn't sat in the hot chairman's position, wouldn't he be giving it away, this was something he absolutely could not accept.

But the other relatives heard this and held a different opinion, as long as they could stay and continue working and still keep their current positions, it was a good thing for them, as for who was the chairman, did it matter?

"Su Haichao, now is an opportunity for the Su family, someone is willing to take over this mess, and you're smirking, but you're not?" Du Hong said.

"Governor Du, the company belongs to the Su family and will never be given to anyone else, I'm the chairman, no one is qualified to squeeze me out." Su Haichao said with a tough attitude.

"Su Haichao, you want to die yourself, why do you want to drag us together."

"Governor Du brought such a great opportunity, you still don't know how to appreciate and cherish it, do you have to bankrupt the Su family to be willing to do so?"

"You'll only harm the company if you become chairman, do you still have the face to sit in this position?"

Listening to what the relatives said, Su Haichao's face was livid, in the past, these guys could be licking their faces to suck up to him, but now one by one, they were treating him like an enemy.

"I'm the chairman, there's no place for you to talk here, shut up." Su Haichao was furious.

"I do think that these people have a point, Su Haichao, I'll give you three more days, or I'll submit an application to the court for enforcement, and then not only will the company go bankrupt, but all of you, all of you, will be out on the streets." Du Hong stood up and left the conference room.

Three days!

These three days are dispensable for Su Haichao, he can't do anything, is the Su family really going to be finished?

"Su Haichao, think it over, if you really want to enforce it, you are the chairman of the board and bear the greatest responsibility, you won't even have a place to live when the time comes."

"How many more days can you sit in the position of occupying the chairman's seat? Do you have to see a coffin to shed a tear?"

"The old lady really died at a bad time, or else the company wouldn't have ended up in this situation."

The Su family crowd said angrily, they really wanted to be able to sell the company, but the decision was ultimately in Su Haichao's hands, if he didn't want to, he would have to watch the company collapse into bankruptcy.

Chapter 184

While the Su company was arguing, Su Yingxia was already packing her bags in the hillside villa.

Since she's also not working in the company right now, Jiang Lan suggested returning to Bin County early, just as a trip back to her mother's house for more fun.

Su Yingxia was bored and also wanted to take a breather, so she agreed.

Han Qianli is still working on the acquisition of the Su family company, so he can't travel with them and will be two days late.

Although Su Yingxia didn't know what Han Marchant was doing, Han Marchant said that she had something to deal with, so she didn't ask more questions.

"Yingxia, what could Han Three Thousand have to do with anything? Why don't you let him come with us?" Jiang Lan came to Su Yingxia's room and asked Su Yingxia a question.

If it was before, she would not have wanted to go there on her own accord, but now, she knew that Han 3000 was a very powerful person, so she was happy to bring Han 3000 back to her mother's house, so that the people at her mother's house would know that Han 3000 was not a wimp, and Jiang Lan even thought of using Han 3000 to help her grow her face.

"If he says something is being dealt with, there must be something, so why ask so much." Su Yingxia said.

Jiang Lan looked unhappy and said, "If Han 3000 doesn't go with us, those relatives at home will think that we don't dare to take him for fear of losing face."

"He's only two days late, it's not like he's not going, why are you worrying about this." Su Yingxia was speechless.

Jiang Lan sighed, could she not be worried, if Han Qianxiang didn't go, what long face would she take.

"You have to make a deal with him, he will get it, the sky is falling to go." Lan Jiang said.

"Don't worry, what he promised me, he'll definitely do it." Su Yingxia said.

At that moment, Jiang Lan found the red line on the bed sheet and pointed to Su Yingxia, "What is this?"

"No ..... it's nothing, you go pack your bags, we'll leave early." Su Yingxia said, pushing Jiang Lan out of the room, if she knew the significance of this red line, she would have to be scolded.

After closing the door, Su Yingxia muttered her mouth, hating to rip the sheets off, thinking of Han Qianli's stupid as a pig behavior, she was on fire.

A grown man, is it hard to let her take the initiative to ride on her body to understand what it means?

After packing up the luggage, Su Guoyao drove the car and the family left.

That night arrived in Bin County.

It was a very small county, the development could only be described as a mediocre level, there were no advantages, but there were no major disadvantages either, suitable for people without aspirations to live, the slow pace made people very comfortable and not too stressful.

Jiang Wan knew that Su Yingxia would be back today, so she waited at home early, it was hard to wait for Su Yingxia, but she didn't see Han 3000, making Jiang Wan a little lost, she also wanted to compare Liu Zhijie with Han 3000, so that Su Yingxia would know how good Liu Zhijie is, Han 3000 didn't come, her wishful thinking wouldn't work.

"Yingxia, where's Han Qianqian? Why isn't he here?" Jiang Wan couldn't help but ask.

"He has something to do and will arrive two days late." Su Yingxia said.

Two days late?

Jiang Wan deflated her mouth, this was probably just an excuse, it seems that she was too ashamed, that's why she didn't bring Han Marchand.

"Ying Xia, it can't be that you didn't let him come, we're all family, you're all here on festivals, how can you let him still be alone in Cloud City? Although he's not as good as my Liu Zhijie, he's not so bad as to see the light of day." Jiang Wan said.

"Jiang Wan, what do you mean you can't see the light of day, Han 3,000 is busy, that's why he can't be with us." Jiang Lan said with an unhappy face.

"Aunt Lan, I'm just afraid that he's busy with something, so who knows if it's really something." Jiang Wan's smile was harmless, but there was an embroidery needle hidden in her words.

"Don't worry, he will definitely come and won't let you down." Jiang Lan said in a cold voice.

Jiang Wan hid a smile and said, "What does it matter to me if he comes or not, what am I disappointed for, come into the house, I'll introduce my boyfriend to you."

When he arrived at home, Liu Zhijie brightened up when he saw Su Yingxia, this was the first time he saw Su Yingxia, he didn't expect Su Yingxia to be so much prettier than Jiang Wan, the two of them were not at the same level at all.

Such a beautiful woman, but married to a wimp, what a waste.

"Aunt Lan, Uncle Yao, hello, my name is Liu Zhijie." Liu Zhijie introduced himself.

"Zhijie is now running his own company as a boss, but the company isn't big, it definitely can't compare to the Su family, but there are millions of profits a year, and he's still young, so he'll definitely be able to do better in the future." Jiang Wan was not satisfied with Liu Zhijie's brief self-introduction and quickly added some more.

The owner of the company, making millions of profits a year, these words were clearly showing off.

Jiang Lan laughed disdainfully, a few million was nothing, but Han 3000 had spent tens of millions to buy the hillside villa.

"It's nothing, how can I dare to banter in front of the Su family with this little bit of ability." Liu Zhijie said modestly.

"It's indeed a class act." Jiang Lan said directly.

Jiang Wan was discontented when she heard this, Liu Zhijie was merely being modest, but she didn't expect Jiang Lan to actually rub her nose in it.

"Aunt Lan Lan, it's true that Liu Zhijie is not much of a success, but to be compared to Han Giang, it's also a difference between a dragon and a worm, it's just a pity that you don't dare to bring him here, otherwise, you might be able to let Liu Zhijie point out to him, a grown man, what's he thinking about all day at home washing and cooking, he's not a bit of a success." Jiang Wan said.

Su Yingxia saw that the two of them had a fighting stance and quickly said, "Sister Wan, aren't Uncle and the others at home?"

"Ji Jie let them go on a trip and won't be back until tomorrow, he's too filial, your uncle isn't happy to go, Ji Jie insisted on letting them go, and the money is at their disposal, I can't help it." Jiang Wan said, then looked at Jiang Lan and continued, "Aunt Lan, did Han Qianqian invite you to go on a trip? It's been three years, you wouldn't have never been taken there."

The travel thing, there really wasn't any, so Jiang Lan didn't know how to argue, and simply said, "I just like Cloud City, going anywhere isn't as good as home."

Jiang Wan laughed, this kind of laughable excuse, thanks to Jiang Lan being able to say it.

"Aunt Lan, you'd better let Han 3000 come, it's really not a good idea to hang around with Zhijie, he definitely won't treat Han 3000 badly, only when Han 3000 earns money can he properly honor you, otherwise ah, you'll only be envious of my father in this life." Jiang Wan said.

Jiang Lan was so angry that she wanted to curse, Jiang Wan's sentences were aimed at, and she kept showing off for a moment, how could she swallow this anger.

"Forget it, it's only a few million profit a year, how can Han 3000 hang out with him, now Han 3000 is earning less than ten million a year." Jiang Lan said.

Jiang Wan this time directly laughed out loud, just that wimp Han 3000 can still earn ten million a year, this bragging is too outrageous, who doesn't know that Han 3000 is a useless loser who eats soft food at home all day, where is he going to earn ten million?

"Aunt Lan, you're such a joker." Jiang Wan laughed so hard that she tumbled over.

Jiang Lan knew she wouldn't believe whatever she said, so she simply stopped arguing with her and waited until Han 3000 arrived to find a way to prove it.

"It's getting late, I'm going back to my room to rest." Lan Jiang said.

"The room is already prepared for you, so go, but Aunt Lan you must not be angry, I didn't mean to compare Liu Zhijie and Han Qianli."

Even Su Yingxia couldn't hold her tongue at this statement and said to Jiang Wan, "Sister Wan, Liu Zhijie is really nothing in front of Han 3000."

Jiang Wan gritted her teeth, she dared to say that Liu Zhijie was nothing in front of that wimp Han 3000?

Jiang Wan returned to her room, so angry that she was fuming.

Liu Zhijie hugged Jiang Wan in his arms and said with a smile, "There's nothing to be angry about, she's saying such things to deliberately anger you, if you take it seriously, won't you just fall into her trap."

Jiang Wan's chest rose and fell sharply, gritting her teeth and saying, "If Han Qianqiang doesn't come, how am I going to find superiority, how am I going to let their family know how good I am."

"He's tragic enough, but Su Yingxia actually feels ashamed to even take him out, I'm curious what kind of man lives like a wimp." Liu Zhijie scowled.

"No, I must find a way to make him come, there must be a way." An idea popped into Jiang Wan's head, simply think of a way to force Su Yingxia to call Han 3000 tomorrow.

Chapter 185

The next morning, Jiang Wan very kindly bought breakfast for Su Ying Xia three people, the enthusiasm even Jiang Lan felt strange, how could Jiang Wan be so nice to them all of a sudden?

During breakfast, Jiang Wan suggested that Su Ying Xia give Han 3000 a call and ask when he would arrive, which let Jiang Lan know the purpose of her offer of affection.

But Han 3,000 is not coming, just delayed some time, so even if the call is made, it does not matter.

When Su Yingxia was forced to pull out her phone and dial Han Marchant's number, Han Marchant didn't even get through, and Jiang Wan actually snatched the phone away.

"Sister Wan, you ....." Su Yingxia was a little angry.

Jiang Wan directly interrupted Su Yingxia's words and said, "I'm not helping you get Han 3000 to come, what if he makes some excuse."

When the phone was connected, Jiang Wan couldn't wait to ask, "Han 3000, what's wrong with you, the whole family is here, you're the only one missing, you wouldn't be afraid to come, would you."

Hearing Jiang Wan's voice, Han 3,000 felt a little strange, how could it be her calling?

This woman Han Qianqian had seen before, and was competing with Su Yingxia, but her skills of sheepishness were profound, don't look at her as if she was smiling, but in reality her heart was deep, and I heard that she had gone so far as to undergo repair surgery in order to curry favor with the rich that she had turned herself from a woman into a girl.

"Sister Wan, I was delayed by something, that's why I wasn't with Ying Xia." Han Giangli said.

Jiang Wan faintly smiled, and this unreasonable excuse even tried to perfume him.

"What can you have to do, can't the home cooking and laundry work still be done for a few days? Hurry up and come, I'm also going to ask my boyfriend to introduce you to a job, what's wrong with you, a grown man, staying at home all day." Jiang Wan said.

The contempt in his words was clear enough for Han Qianli to feel, but it wasn't surprising, Jiang Wan was already this kind of person.

"I'll be there tomorrow, don't worry." Han Three Thousand said indifferently.

"Don't lie to me, you have to be there tomorrow," Jiang Wan said.

"Of course, how could I lie to you." Han Three Thousand said.

"Fine, I can wait for you, if you don't come, I'll go to Cloud City and find you out." After saying that, Jiang Wan handed the phone to Su Yingxia with satisfaction.

Su Yingxia sighed helplessly.

Jiang Wan saw the situation, thinking that Su Yingxia knew that Han 3000 was coming, so she was in a bad mood, and comforted, "Yingxia, no matter what, it's also a family, how can you not let him come, and for so many years, he has embarrassed you, it's time to get used to it, as long as you don't do anything out of the ordinary."

Su Yingxia smiled and didn't say anything.

Jiang Lan looked dissatisfied and said, "Jiang Wan, don't be so smug, I'm afraid you won't be able to accept it in the end."

"Can't accept what?" Jiang Wan was confused.

"Of course it's Han 3000's excellence." Jiang Lan said without hesitation.

"Pfft." A mouthful of gruel spewed out, and when Jiang Wan heard the word excellent, she felt like she had heard the world's biggest joke.

How could these two words be used on Han Three Thousand's body?

"Aunt Barbra, it's not like you to speak up for Han 3000, is it because you don't want to embarrass yourself too much, and Soyuk wants to help Han 3000 support the scene?" Jiang Wan smiled.

Jiang Lan was about to lose her temper, Jiang Wan spoke so bluntly and without any consideration for the feelings of others, not to mention that the current Han 3000 was not a wimp anymore.

"Just wait and see." Jiang Lan said hatefully.

Jiang Wan smiled, of course she had to wait, she would only have the chance to humiliate Han 3000 when he arrived, and only then would she have the chance to play a trick on the wimp.

Looking at Liu Zhijie, Jiang Wan suddenly felt that comparing him to Han Three Thousand was a bit too elevating, what qualifications did such a wimp have to compare to Liu Zhijie?

But Jiang Wan didn't mind this in order to be able to look at the joke on Han Qianqiang.

Cloud City.

Han Three thousand sat in the office of the chairman of Weak Water Real Estate, and in front of him stood Zhong Liang and Du Hong.

Before Du Hong had been speculating about who Han Qianli was, so young and actually sitting on tens of billions of assets, until he came to Weak Water Real Estate, he had some knowledge of Han Qianli's identity.

It was well known that the backstage of Weak Water Real Estate was the Yanjing Han Family, and Han Qianxiang's surname happened to be Han, so maybe he was a member of the Yanjing Han Family, but exactly how, Du Hong had no way to confirm it, this kind of high-level matter was no longer something he had the ability to investigate.

"Boss Han, after tomorrow, Su Haichao should be able to give me an answer, do you want to personally appear?" Du Hong asked Han Qianqian.

"I'm leaving Cloud City for a few days tomorrow, so you can help me with this matter," Han Qianqian said.

Du Hong nodded his head in excitement, it was a great honor to be able to help Han Three Thousand with this.

Although his current position wasn't low anymore, there wasn't much chance of him wanting to go a hundred feet further, but if he could get his hands on Han Qianqian's line, he would have a chance to continue climbing.

"Don't worry, Boss Han, I'll help you get it done right," Du Hong said.

"After acquiring the Su family, the new chairman is Su Yingxia, but you'll keep this matter a secret for now." Han Qianli instructed.

"Yes yes yes, I will keep it a secret." Du Hong said.

"Zhong Liang, the manufacturer's matter, you take care of it, no matter what method you use, I want you to use the fastest time to acquire it under the Weak Water Property." Han Qianqiang said.

Zhong Liang nodded his head and said, "Do it within three days."

But there was one thing Zhong Liang was puzzled about, after acquiring those manufacturers, Weak Water Real Estate would no longer need to work with the Su family, so what would the Su family do?

Zhong Liang was clear that everything Han Three Thousand Thousand did was for Su Yingxia, but then there would be no reason to give the Su family any more benefits.

Han Three thousand did this, naturally, he had his own plans, the west side of the city project will no longer involve the Su family next, and Su Yingxia needs to think of other ways to expand the Su family's business, so that the Su family can tide over this crisis.

Of course, Han 3,000 is not to make things difficult for Su Yingxia, but he knows Su Yingxia's character, things are too smooth for her, but will make her unacceptable, and the acquisition of manufacturers, and then with the Su family cooperation, this kind of sky-breaking loophole, Han 3,000 can not make up, after all, Su Yingxia is not a fool, it is impossible to have been relying on unwarranted classmate friendship to Teen her.

After a good deal, Han three thousand left the company, just at the door, and Su Hai chao head-on collision.

Su Hachao came to the weak water property is to let Zhongliang give him another chance, did not expect to run into Han 3,000.

In his opinion, this matter is Su Yingxia secretly bad, since he can't find Su Yingxia, it's good to be able to vent on Han Qianqiang.

Su Hachao furiously ran to Han Qianli, one hand grabbed Han Qianli's collar, gritted his teeth and said: "Han Qianli, where is that b*tch Su Yingxia? You let her out, she's also a member of the Su Family, why would she harm the Su Family."

Han Qianqiang looked indifferent and said, "She's harming the Su Family? But she's already left her job, and the company's affairs have nothing to do with her."

"If it wasn't for her, how could Weakwater Real Estate have terminated its cooperation with the Su family. Han 3,000, don't you think this b*tch is blowing pillow air in Zhong Liang's ear? Or are you so used to wearing a cuckold that you don't take it seriously anymore." Su Haichao scoffed.

Han Qianqian's eyes were cold, grabbed Su Hachao's wrist and said in a cold voice, "Su Hachao, talking without thinking will end badly, I advise you better think it over."

Su Haichao had been beaten twice by Han Qianqian, and knew that he was no match for Han Qianqian, hearing him say that, his heart was not convinced, but he couldn't stop being afraid, and quickly released Han Qianqian, retreating a few steps.

"Isn't it, you know yourself, otherwise, how could Zhong Liang identify her as the person in charge of the west side of the city, don't you think there are really no other factors in this?" After Su Hachao said these words, he made a state of running away at any time, he didn't want to be beaten by Han Qianqian at the entrance of the Weak Water Property.

But Han 3000 wasn't as angry as he thought he would be, instead he was still smiling.

The reason why Han 3000 wasn't angry was because he knew exactly how things were, and as for whether or not to give Su Hachao proof, it was completely unnecessary, and when Su Yingxia stepped into the Su Family Company again as the new chairman, Su Hachao would naturally regret what he had said.

Chapter 186

"Su Haichao, from chairman of the board to a worker again, this feeling is not pleasant, but I believe you can adjust to it, good luck." After Han Qianqian said this, he didn't count the fact that Su Hachao had just gotten rough with him and left straight away.

If he wanted to be reckless, Su Hai Chao would have died long ago.

But in the current situation, Su Haichao hadn't violated his bottom line.

Su Hachao moved a few steps across the road to make way for Han 3,000, he didn't dare to stop him, he couldn't fight and couldn't be defeated, so he could only show off his tongue.

After Han 3,000 yuan left, Su Hachao wanted to go to the weak water property to look for Zhong Liang, but was stopped by the security guard, because Zhong Liang had already instructed if Su Hachao appeared, not to let him into the company.

Su Hachao had no choice but to wait at the door.

Until the end of the day, seeing Zhong Liang, Su Hachao from running up.

"Brother Zhong, Brother Zhong, please give the company another chance, you can make a request, I will meet you with anything." Su Hachao looked at Zhong Liang with a prayerful look, now the only way to bring the company back to life is to get back the chance to cooperate with Weak Water Real Estate, only then, the bank will not pressure the company.

"Su Hachao, do you think I'm joking with you? This is the third time, and you think you have a chance?" Zhong Liang said in a cold voice.

"Brother Zhong, please help me, if you don't help me, I'm finished. If you want Su Yingxia to return to the company, I can also go and invite her." Su Hachao said.

Zhong Liang shook his head and said, "It's late, if you don't want to be cornered, the best way now is to sell the company, that's the most pertinent advice I'll give you, as for cooperation, it's impossible."

Su Haichao saw that Zhong Liang was about to get into the car, simply blocked in front of Zhong Liang and said, "Brother Zhong, give me a chance to discuss, I just became the chairman, I don't want to sell the company just like that."

"Blame it on yourself, and with your ability, you're not fit to be the chairman, trash." Zhong Liang disdainfully said.

When the company's security guards saw Su Haichao stopping Zhong Liang, they rushed up at the first opportunity, one by one, they looked at Su Haichao with a great deal of anger.

Su Haichao was willingly scolded as trash, and said, "Brother Zhong, I am indeed trash now, but just give me the chance, I will prove to you that I can grow."

Zhong Liang laughed and said, "Whether you grow or not, what does it have to do with me, and you won't be able to turn over a new leaf in your life, because you've messed with someone you can't afford to mess with, not to mention you, even the old lady of the Su family is still alive, she can't afford to mess with her."

Zhong Liang raised his hand, and a few security guards directly raked Su Hachao away.

Su Hachao despairingly watched Zhong Liang's car drive away, is it really the only way to have a way to live is to sell the company?

But it's only been how long since he became chairman, Su Hachao is very unhappy inside.

"Su Yingxia, you're a b*tch, isn't it just sleeping with him? I don't believe that I can't find another way." Su Haichao spoke through gritted teeth, then took out his phone and dialed Su Yehan's number.

"Where are you, I want to see you, now." Su Hachao said.

Although Su Yehan was worried about the status quo and future of the company, but for her, this was not the most important thing in life, what she wanted to do was to marry into a rich family, so in the past two days, Su Yehan made a lot of friends and entered many different circles, rich people knew some, but unfortunately did not meet her requirements, so Su Yehan was not in a hurry to do it.

"I'm at home, what's the matter?" Su Yeh Han asked.

"I'll be right over, wait for me at home." Su Haichao hung up the phone and drove towards Su Yehan's house.

Su Yeh Han put on her makeup and a very sexy set of clothes, planning to go to a rich party tonight to see if there was any chance she could meet the rich man she called her heart.

When Su Haichao arrived, Su Yeh Han said, "If you have anything to say, just say it quickly, I still have to go to a party."

Looking at Su Yehan's voluptuous and sexy body, Su Hachao said, "Do you know why Zhong Liang would value Su Yingxia?"

Su Yeh Han laughed coldly and said, "Didn't you say that she and Zhong Liang have an indistinct relationship?"

"Good, so I'm going to ask you to help the company save the situation." Su Haichao said.

"Me?" Su Yeh Han frowned, this responsibility was taken by Su Hai Chao, how could it fall on her, and there was no way for her to make Zhong Liang come back to her mind ah.

"You go accompany Zhong Liang, as long as he is happy, he is definitely willing to give the company a chance." Su Hachao said.

"Su Hachao, are you crazy." Su Yehan heard this and said excitedly, how could she be willing to go to accompany Zhong Liang, she has to marry into a noble family in the future, if these black histories are picked up, wouldn't it be a break in her future.

"Su Yeh Han, you are also a member of the Su family, now let you sacrifice just a little for the Su family, is that not okay?" Su Haichao said.

"Of course not, my innocence is worth more than just one Su family, if my future in-laws knew about this, wouldn't I be finished." Su Yehan said.

Su Haichao knew that she was still dreaming of marrying into a noble family, but there was one fact that Su Yehan did not recognize, her beauty did have an advantage for ordinary women, but what was it to a noble family? Those really rich and powerful families with countless famous models around them, how could she possibly be able to compare to them.

"Su Yehan, stop dreaming, with your posture, how can you marry into a rich family, you better wake up." Su Haichao said.

Hearing this, Su Yehan's face sank and said, "Su Haichao, what do you mean."

"My meaning is clear, those rich people can't possibly fancy you, can you compare to those star models? And with your current position, how are you going to reach out to the real upper class circles? I know you've been to a lot of parties lately, but you should know that the people at those parties aren't really rich." Su Haichao said.

Su Yeh Han knew this, and she was also trying to find a way to get in touch with the upper class circles, she just didn't have a feasible plan yet, but she believed that if she was willing to do it, she would be able to do it.

"It's just a matter of time, I'm sure I'll be able to reach out." Su Yeh Han said.

"You can't do it, unless the Su family can become a first-class family, you will never be able to reach that kind of circle." Su Haichao said in a firm tone, "Grandma has never touched the threshold of a first-class family for so many years, do you think you can do it with just a face?"

The old lady's years of hard work, Su Yeh Han is clear, but the real first-class family doesn't put the Su family in her eyes at all, so she is dying and doesn't let the Su family successfully enter the real high society.

Su Yehan's confidence was shattered like broken glass by Su Hechao's words, and she was also aware of the difference between herself and the famous model star.

Seeing that Su Yehan began to hesitate, Su Haichao continued, "After the Su family becomes a first-tier family, the people you know won't be of the same rank as they are now, so think it over yourself."

After a while, Su Yeh Han asked, "What do you want me to do?"

Su Haichao saw Su Yehan compromise and regained hope, showing a smile and saying, "Go accompany Zhong Liang, blow pillow breeze in his ear, and ask him to cooperate with the company."

"What if he still refuses?" Su Yeh Han said.

"As long as you can make him happy, why wouldn't you, while there's still time, go online and look up how to make a man submit." Su Haichao said.

"Alright." Su Yeh Han compromised.

The only way to make men happy was in serving them comfortably, and Su Yeh Han had to learn a lot online.

As long as she could marry into a rich family, Su Yehan would do anything, she wouldn't allow Su Yingxia to live better than she did, so finding a rich man was the only way she could surpass Su Yingxia.

That night, Su Yehan went to Zhong Liang's house, this information, are given to her by Su Hai Chao, Su Hai Chao even deliberately let Su Yehan dressed up a little more sexy.

When knocking on Zhong Liang's door, Su Yeh Han, who was dressed in a net dress, lowered her head and revealed a shy posture, saying to Zhong Liang, "Brother Zhong, I'll accompany you tonight."

Zhong Liang didn't expect Su Yehan to come to this, it must have been authorized by Su Haichao, but he didn't dare to do such a thing, and even if he slept with Su Yehan, it would be impossible to change the cooperation.

Chapter 187

"You've been treating Su Yingxia as a b*tch, believing that she has an unclear relationship with me and that's why I appointed to work with her, but in reality, I don't have any relationship with her, but you, instead, have completely made a show of being a b*tch." Zhong Liang said disdainfully.

"What do you mean?" Su Yeh Han gritted her teeth and said that she had given up her dignity to do this, but she didn't expect Zhong Liang to say that.

"What do you mean?" Zhong Liang sneered, "There's no point, I'm too dirty for a b*tch like you."

After saying that, Zhongliang directly closed the door.

Su Yehan was furious, she deliberately dressed so sexy, if the hidden tulle should have no resistance to men, but ..... but Zhong Liang actually disliked her dirty!

"Zhongliang, come out and make it clear." Su Yehan angrily kicked the door and shouted.

Zhong Liang opened the door with a cold face and snapped, "Su Yehan, if you make any more nonsense, I'll hire security to blow you out, do you want this matter to be known all over the city?"

It's all over town!

If this matter spread out, everyone in Cloud City would treat her like a whore, not to mention marrying into a rich family, I'm afraid no man would ever be willing to come near her again.

"Brother Zhong, I'm sorry, I'll leave right away." Su Yehan said with a confession.

Zhong Liang shook his head helplessly, what kind of genes is this Su family, Su Hachao is like this, Su Yehan is also like this, big tempered and cowardly, what big deal can he achieve?

After leaving Zhong Liang's neighborhood, Su Yeh Han called Su Hai Chao and scolded Su Hai Chao, because if it wasn't for Su Hai Chao's attention, how could she be so humiliated.

The first thing you need to know is how to make sure that you're going to be able to get the best out of your shoes.

Could it be that he really had no relationship with Su Yingxia.

How is this possible?

If Su Yingxia hadn't sold her body, why would Zhong Liang have to accept her?

Su Haichao couldn't figure this out, and it was impossible for him to do so.

Villa on the mountainside, after eating dinner, Han Giangli returned to his room to prepare to rest and go to Bin County tomorrow.

Closing his eyes, he suddenly thought of someone who hadn't seen him for two years, and wondered how he was doing now.

Dialed a number that had never been used in two years, and the other party quickly answered.

"I'll be in Bin County tomorrow." Han 3,000 said.

"Yes, yes, yes, do you need me to pick you up?" The voice on the other end of the phone was clearly very excited.

Han Giangli hesitated and said, "Okay."

"I'll prepare right away."

Hanging up the phone, Han Marchian closed his eyes to rest.

He had been to Bin County once in the first year of his newlywed marriage, and his image as a wimp at the time had demeaned Jiang Lan's family to the point where they wouldn't even let Han Three Thousand attend the dinner table.

Han Marchian still vividly remembered the indifferent attitude of Jiang's family towards him, even children passing by him would deliberately step on his shoes, at that time Han Marchian was willing to endure this bad mood for Su Yingxia.

In the case of not being accepted by the public, Han 3,000 strolling in Bin County, met a down-and-out young man, at that time he was dumped by his girlfriend, suppressed by his boss, life was almost in despair, Han 3,000 reached out to give him a promising future tomorrow.

There is a celebrity in Bin County that no one knows about, named Tang Zong, who is now the biggest boss in Bin County, and the youngest, and is called the most outstanding person in Bin County for decades.

But behind this eminence, Tang Zong had never dared to forget where his future had come from.

For the past two years, Tang Zong had been waiting for a call from Han Qianqian, but Han Qianqian hadn't heard from him at all, and Tang Zong even felt that the big man had forgotten about him.

But now it seemed that he hadn't forgotten, and there was still the chance to be able to repay his kindness.

The next day, at the Bin County Passenger Terminal, the only Rolls Royce in Bin County was parked in front of the passenger terminal.

Everyone knew that this car belonged to Tang Zong, so the onlookers were curious as to why Tang Zong would come to a place like the passenger terminal, and if it was someone worthy of being greeted by him personally, what kind of big shot would he have to be!

Finally, in the expectant eyes of the crowd, a low-key young man walked to the car.

Tang Zong was such a big shot that he personally got out of the car to open the door for him, but it stunned those who were watching from the side.

"What kind of person is this, actually wanting to be greeted by Tang Zong and having Tang Zong open the door for him!"

"He doesn't look that old, in his twenties, is he that good?"

"Looks even more powerful than Tang Zong, is he from our Bin County?"

Discussions chattered in the crowd, and there were many good people who took pictures of the car and sent them to their friends to marvel.

In the car, Tang Zong appeared a bit restrained, although he was now the most famous person in Bin County, but he didn't dare to be a bit rude in front of Han Qianqian.

Even the driver was very shocked, thinking about those big bosses, even the government family, want to see Tang Zong is very rare, and those people in front of Tang Zong one bite one Tang General Manager called, do not dare to have the slightest disrespect.

But now, this young man was the one who made Tang Zong so reserved, what kind of big shot was this, the driver could no longer imagine.

"Mr. Han, it's been a long time, I thought you had forgotten about me." Tang Zong said to Han Marchant with an honorific title.

"You're mixing well now, a Rolls Royce trip and a driver." Han Marchiang smiled.

Tang switched on the fogging of the front and rear seat grilles to prevent the driver from seeing the backseat, as he knew that Han 3000 was a man who liked to keep a low profile.

"Mr. Han, without your help, I wouldn't know where I'd be wandering today," Tang Zong said.

"I just gave you some money, and to be able to develop today, it's all due to your personal ability, and to be honest, I'm quite surprised." What Han Qianli said was the true feeling of his own heart, when he first met Tang Zong, he only felt his downfall, there was a bit of his own shadow, so Han Qianli gave him the opportunity, but he didn't expect that Tang Zong could develop to this point today.

This might be the inadvertent interruption of a willow into a shade.

In Cloud City, Han 3000 deliberately cultivated Lin Yong for three years, but in the end, Lin Yong's performance made him very disappointed, it was good that he knew Mo Yang, otherwise Lin Yong's ability would not be able to carry the banner of Cloud City.

"Mr. Han, you have given me the opportunity, of course I have to take it." Tang Zong said.

"This is a nice surprise, whenever you feel that Bin County is no longer enough to satisfy you, look for me in Cloud City." Han Giangli said, Tang Zong's ability to continue cultivating, so he was willing to give Tang Zong another chance.

Hearing this, Tang Zong's excitement crept up his cheeks and without hiding it, he said, "Thank you, Mr. Han."

"There's no need to thank me, since you've seized the opportunity, it's fine for me to help you again, but remember one thing, don't betray me, because I haven't learned to forgive yet." Han Qianli faintly said.

Tang Zong's body shook as he bowed his head and said, "Please don't worry Mr. Han, all I have is from you, Tang Zong will never betray you."

After the news of Tang Zong personally picking up the man at the passenger terminal spread in the circle of friends, almost the entire Bin County began to talk about the matter.

The Jiang family.

As for Liu Zhijie who regarded Tang Zong as his idol, but any news about Tang Zong, he would look at it carefully, and when he learned about Tang Zong's visit to the passenger terminal, he immediately gave this matter a high level of attention and quickly found the photo that was circulating in the circle of friends.

"What are you looking at?" Seeing that Liu Zhijie was staring at the phone, Jiang Wan was a bit dissatisfied and said.

Liu Zhijie handed the phone to Jiang Wan and said, "Today, Tang Zong personally went to the passenger station to meet someone, this matter was quickly talked about, I don't know what kind of big person came to actually let Tang Zong personally greet."

Tang Zong was very clear who Jiang Wan was, and was very shocked after hearing Liu Zhijie's words, but unfortunately the photo was only able to see some of his back.

"Looking at the back, quite young, is he even more powerful than Tang Zong?" Jiang Wan said.

Liu Zhijie wasn't sure what was going on, but according to Tang Zong's temper and way of doing things, if it wasn't someone he particularly valued, he would never be able to greet them in person.

"It's probably a big person from out of town," Liu Zhijie said.

Chapter 188

Jiang Wan looked at the photo on her phone and had a plan, she handed it to Su Yingxia and said with a proud face, "Let me show you, this is the most powerful person in Bin County right now, you should have heard of him, Tang Zong, Liu Zhijie is a friend with him."

This excessive bragging and boasting words, even Liu Zhijie was a bit blushing, with his status, how could he be Tang Zong's friend, Jiang Wan would really say anything to brag.

But the good thing is that Su Yingxia doesn't know Tang Zong either, so this matter won't be debunked.

But Su Yingxia didn't care about Tang Zong at all when she saw the photo, but that backdrop made her freeze.

After experiencing the incident with the little piano prince, Su Yingxia's knowledge of Han Qianli's back was very deep, it could be said to have gone deep into the marrow of her bones, and right now the back on the photo made her very familiar, if it wasn't Han Qianli, who else could it be!

Seeing Su Yingxia looking dazed, Jiang Wan thought she was scared, smiled and said, "In fact, this kind of adult character, private character is still very good, he used to invite us to dinner, is a very easy-going personality, there is a chance, I'll introduce you to him."

Seeing Jiang Wan's more and more outrageous words, Liu Zhijie felt ashamed, and said, "He's very busy, how can he casually ask for a date, quickly give me the phone."

Jiang Wan glared at Liu Zhijie, as if she disliked him for interrupting her pretence, and threw her phone directly to Liu Zhijie.

"By the way, isn't Han Giang coming today? Why haven't you heard anything yet, it's not a lie, is it?" Jiang Wan deliberately knocked Su Yingxia.

Su Yingxia was still immersed in the back of that photo, she was sure that that person was Han Marchant, but she couldn't figure out why Han Marchant even knew someone like Tang Zong.

Although Bin County was just a small place, and a person like Tang Zong was nothing to put in Cloud City, but it was strange that he could know him, after all, this was Bin County ah, and he had only been here once.

Seeing that Su Yingxia didn't speak, Jiang Wan felt that she was avoiding her question, and used her elbow to prod Su Yingxia, reminding her, "You'd better give him a call, in case you get lost, it's not good."

After Su Yingxia returned to her senses, she said, "Don't worry, he's already in Bin County, he should be here soon."

"That's good, I'm afraid that he's not too familiar with it, getting lost could be a problem." Jiang Wan was relieved, Su Yingxia said so, she must have already contacted Han Marchioness.

As long as Han 3,000 was here, she would be able to show off and use Liu Zhijie to belittle Han 3,000, and incidentally find a sense of superiority in front of Su Yingxia as well.

It was only in the afternoon that Han 3,000 came to Jiang's house, and Jiang Wan was so enthusiastic that she didn't treat Han 3,000 as a wimp at all, which made Han 3,000 very surprised.

Could it be that in these two years, Jiang Wan has still changed her sex?

"Han 3,000, you're not still washing and cooking at home, are you, a grown man, how can you not do some business?" When Han Qianli had packed his bags and returned to the living room, Jiang Wan spoke up.

"Wouldn't it be a waste of time to do business without worrying about food and clothing." Han Qianqian smiled.

When Jiang Wan heard this, her bone-deep dislike for Han Qianqian increased some more, as a man, he said such useless words, no wonder he was still a useless wimp after so many years.

"You can't say that, you can't eat soft food, but you also have to see if Ying Xia has any strength, although she is now the person in charge of something, but it's not a powerful position, can she still support you for the rest of your life?" After Jiang Wan finished speaking, her words changed, then she introduced Liu Zhijie, "You should really learn from Zhijie, he now runs his own company and is his own boss, making a few million a year easily, if he was like you, I would have kicked him out long ago."

The metaphor in these words was clear to Han Qianli, so Jiang Wan Wan wasn't changing her sex, but was deliberately acting nice and looking for an opportunity to show off Liu Zhijie.

"A few million a year is a lot, that's astronomical for an ordinary family," Han Marchiang said.

Seeing Han Qianli acknowledge Liu Zhijie's excellence, Jiang Wan was even happier and said, "Of course, Zhijie is no ordinary person, that's why I told you to learn from him, to be a man, you can't be so useless, or you'll be poked in the back."

"Yes yes yes, I will definitely learn from him." Han Qianli said with a face that wasn't very heartfelt.

Hearing Han Qianqian answer so perfunctorily, Jiang Wan was a bit dissatisfied, he should have shown a look of envy at this point.

And even Su Yingxia didn't seem to have any envy, which was not good.

"Right, let's go to the mall in the afternoon, there's a new large mall in Bin County that you haven't been to yet, there are many famous brands in it." Jiang Wan Wan said.

Going to the mall, Jiang Wan will definitely be a show-off, Su Yingxia directly shook her head and refused, "No, I want to go back to the countryside to have a look."

"What's there to see in the countryside, there aren't many people living in the village anymore, all of them have moved into the county town." Jiang Wan said.

"Although there's no one there, but there's a lot of memories, I still want to see the little river I used to play in." Su Yingxia said.

Jiang Wan waved her hand repeatedly and said, "No go no go, there are a lot of mosquitoes these days, I don't want to be bitten, I have to spend tens of thousands of yuan every month just for the amulet, how can I go to that kind of place."

"Sister Wan, if you don't want to go, let Liu Zhijie take you to the mall, I'll go with Han Qianqian and take him there on the way." Su Yingxia said.

Going to the mall by herself, anytime is fine, but not today, if she can't take Su Yingxia with her, where will she get the chance to show off?

Jiang Wan had her eyes on many things that she wanted and purposely didn't ask Liu Zhijie to buy them for her, just waiting for today.

"Ying Xia, it's rare for you to accompany me to the mall for once, you won't be such a spoilsport, the countryside can go tomorrow." Jiang Wan said unhappily.

Liu Zhijie in line with the side: "Tomorrow go back to the countryside again, it's rare that your sister Wan is happy, if you have anything you like, Han 3000 can't afford it, I can give it to you."

"Go, must go, Ying Xia, go back to the countryside tomorrow." Jiang Lan on the side heard Liu Zhijie's words and held a fire in her heart, they looked down on Su Yingxia, it was the same as looking down on her, how could Jiang Lan endure this grievance.

Su Yingxia grumbled and looked at Jiang Lan, she was trying to find a way to avoid this, but she didn't expect that Jiang Lan's words pushed her into the fire pit.

"Aunt Lan is right, come along, don't be a spoilsport." Jiang Wan said.

Su Yingxia sighed and could only agree to go.

At lunch time, Jiang Wan's parents finally returned from their travels, naturally, they couldn't miss showing off in front of Lan Jiang, saying where they had gone to play, how much loot they had bought back, the words kept revealing how much money they had spent this time, and how good Liu Zhijie had been to them.

"Hey, Jiang Wan can find a husband like Liu Zhijie, it makes our old couple very happy ah, Liu Zhijie is so successful, in the future we don't have to worry about Jiang Wan not having a good life." Xu Fang said with a sigh on her face, and then took Jiang Lan's hand.

"You've worked hard, you haven't been treated as a broad wife for so many years in the Su family, we used to think that you'd be the best person in the family to live a good life."

Hearing Xu Fang's words, Jiang Lan mentally felt disgusted, I hadn't seen her being so caring before, but now she was speaking sarcastic words.

"Sister, I'm doing well now, don't worry." Jiang Lan said.

Xu Fang glanced at Han 3000 and said, "What's good, what's the point of pretending in front of your own family, Han 3000 has been in the Su family for so many years, nothing has been accomplished, no contribution at all, are you good or not, don't I still know?"

Jiang Bo, Jiang Wan's father, gave a cold snort and said, "I think you should leave Han 3,000 in Bin County this time, so that he can learn from Liu Zhijie and be a productive person, he can't be a piece of rotten mud for the rest of his life."

"Uncle, how can 3,000 thousand be rotten mud, don't say that about him." Su Yingxia said with dissatisfaction.

Jiang Bo still quite liked Su Yingxia, after all, he was his niece, but it was a well-known fact that Han 3000 was not successful, even if Su Yingxia helped him defend himself, it was useless.

"And you're speaking for him? This kind of useless man should be scolded and sobered up so that he knows what he should do." Jiang Bo was disdainful.
