

His True Color Chapter 2061-2070

Chapter 2061

"I'm rich, I'm rich, I'm rich."

Coming out of the underground palace, Han Qianqian was placed in the bamboo house at the back by Granny Long. At this moment, Su Yingxia was cleaning the room, although Granny Long had already cleaned it in advance, Su Yingxia still boiled water and tidied up the hygiene, for Su Yingxia, this was the home they might have to live in for a long time.

What kind of home is a home without fireworks?

Su Yingxia had just finished boiling water, and at this point she couldn't help but roll her white eyes out of the sky: "I know you took two boxes of jewellery, look at your little smug look."

"Honey, you don't understand this, do you? How much is two boxes of jewellery? The jewels I scavenged from the Four Dragons are literally dozens of times more than this, would I care? What I care about are these seeds." Han Qianqian did not conceal his complacency.

In a way, he had indeed made a fortune, and, in a big way.

"Seeds? Do you think we're still short of food? Besides, for those with cultivation levels like ours, it doesn't really matter if we eat or not." Su Yingxia said with contempt.

"You think it's the seeds that you eat? You're wrong! These seeds are all essential for refining all kinds of wondrous pills, and there are some essential items that must be used. For example, the Bitter Cold Fruit, or whatever the Extreme Ice Fire Grass is, hey, the seeds are being collected, everything is there." Han Qianqian couldn't say how happy he was.

The most important thing in alchemy is what, one is technology, two is material, technology, there is the secret book of Immortal Spirit Island, material, ordinary before in the auction house to buy have, originally only want to practice some ordinary for the disciples to use, which know this ancient book not only has some magical method of turning waste into treasure, more importantly, high grade strange shortage of materials, is also the solution.

To think that back then, a single Ten Thousand Bitter Cold Lotus could have been a direct bid king, but something like the Ten Thousand Bitter Cold Lotus, in these seeds, was only of inferior grade!

What was this if not a fortune?

Hearing these words from Han Qianqian's recitation of the Extreme Ice and Fire Grass, Su Yingxia also froze, because the Extreme Ice and Fire Grass and Bitter Cold Fruit were basically extremely precious materials in the Eight Directions World, and any one of them was enough to exchange for tens of millions, or even hundreds of millions of Purple Crystals, and it could even be said that these things were priceless.

"Holy shit, it can't be true, right?" Even someone as refined as Su Yingxia could not help but speak foully in excitement at this moment, walking a few steps to Han Qianqian's side and sitting down.

After seeing the writing on the ancient book, Su Yingxia's pair of eyes also widened.

The two of them now understood why Wang Juzhi would even do such a treacherous thing as committing regicide in order to obtain the position of the Sect Leader.

To many people, this was indeed a heavenly temptation.

"However, it says that you need corpse valley land in order for these seeds to germinate. Shit, corpse valley land again?" Han Qianqian looked at Su Yingxia in a depressed manner.

Why was the place Corpse Valley Land always mentioned? If it was such an important place, how could Wang Juzhi have let it go!

"Why don't we go and take a look?" Su Yingxia also felt that this was fishy.

"Let's let them out first." Han Qianqian said.

"I've already spoken to Granny Long, and we might have other disciples."

"En!"

Early the next morning, Han Qianqian released all of the hundred or so people in the Eight Wastelands World. During the time they had been in the Eight Wastelands World, the Alliance disciples had been cultivating day and night and had made rapid progress, especially Ning Yue and Fu Mang, one had reached the middle stage of Evil Punishing and the other had reached the middle stage of Kongdong.

And Qin Shannon had also improved, she was still mainly playing with Nian'er, but even so, Qin Shannon, who had outstanding talent, had reached the middle stage of Evil Punishing and had broken through extremely quickly.

Many of the other disciples, the worst of whom were at the upper stage of the Dao realm, and many more were almost at the middle stage of the Saint realm.

Important disciples like Shiyue and Qiushui had even reached the Ethereal Realm.

A dozen days outside was decades in the Eight Desolate World, and although they were of average talent, there was plenty of spiritual energy inside, so they had improved considerably. Moreover, over this period of time, Jianghu Baixiao Sheng had also specifically planned accordingly for the alliance.

Fu Mang led the backward male disciples for the Hot Blooded Hall, and Ning Yue led her own disciples for the Women's Gang, the two of them ranking as the left and right generals of the alliance.

This is a very clever arrangement, as it ensures that Fu Mang has someone to lead and Ning Yue's forces will not be scattered, and at the same time, if something happens, they can check and balance each other.

When the group came out and saw Immortal Spirit Island, they were both amazed and confused.

Some of them didn't even feel like they had changed places, as the beauty of the place simply didn't look like the Eight Directions world, but more like the Eight Wastelands world.

Han Qianqian took the Dragon Lady and met with everyone. Although the Dragon Lady had previously been a servant, Han Qianqian withdrew her from this status and demanded that everyone must treat her with sufficient respect, and also sent someone to serve her specifically. To Han Qianqian, the only living Dragon Lady was perhaps the only totem of Immortal Spirit Island's past.

After settling everyone down, Han Qianqian took Su Yingxia and carried Han Nian, followed the dragon lady all the way through the backyard and walked about ten metres in the opposite direction of the weak water.

Suddenly, they stopped at a dry and incomparable clearing.

"Island Master, this is the land of the Valley of Corpses."

Chapter 2062

Han Qianqian looked at the dry clearing in front of him, which was almost completely cracked.

Because of the extreme lack of water, the cracked gap is almost as wide as two fingers.

Han three thousand head are big, but also no nonsense, pick up the bucket will directly pick water.

But nearly an hour or so, Han Qianqian's physical strength and endurance, at least pick back dozens of buckets of water irrigation in the ground, but when Han Qianqian looked at the ground, the whole person speechless to the extreme.

The ground is still dry and unchanged!

"Strange heck, this miscellaneous thing? This ground has been dry for too long? Too much need for water?" Han Qianqian rubbed his head, depressed very much.

However, Han Qianqian decided to change his approach.

After all, if the drought was too long and there was too much water shortage, a few buckets of water or even dozens of buckets would not solve the problem; irrigation was necessary to make the drought stop.

Thinking of this, Han Qianqian found a lake behind the island, and then used the spell lazy, directly the water in the lake through the energy belt, as into the gully, flowed into the distant corpse valley land.

Han Qianqian energy used quite a lot, the water flowed extremely fast, but an hour later, let Han Qianqian incomparable dumbfounded thing happened.

All the water inside the lake was transported to the corpse valley by Han Qianqian, and the whole lake even bottomed out because there was no water, but the corpse valley side, but it was exactly the same as it had never been filled before.

Still cracked and extremely dry!

This is hell, a lake is sucked dry, but it is still dry as hell? Is it that exaggerated?

"Is this land that water-starved?" Han Qianqian couldn't help but scratch his head in wonder and ask.

Su Yingxia also felt that something was not right, in a way, the field is short of water, but not so short as this. To know the lake is at least ten times the area of this land, or even more times, but so much water irrigation down, even if the corpse valley land did not completely solve the dry, but also not to reflect at all.

"It has also been decades since the death of the master, there has been no one to take care of it, so will there be a real shortage, or, to find some more water?" Su Yingxia said.

Thinking about what Su Yingxia said also makes sense, Han Qianqian no longer think more, the whole person flew to mid-air, bird's eye view of the nearby water sources.

Finally, he placed his eyes on the only water source a few hundred meters away from the corpse valley.

There is still a lake, but it is at least four times larger than the previous lake, so even if it is the only one, but irrigated by the lake here, there will certainly be no problem.

Think and do, Han Qianqian this time directly nonchalant, using all the energy, directly moved the entire lake of water all to the field.

In the air, a huge ball of water, just slowly lifted from the lake, and then boom landed in the corpse valley.

The name of nature's mover, Han Qianqian is not to be denied!

With the water falling straight into the corpse valley, Han Qianqian helplessly joked at Su Yingxia: "This is already the only water source around here, if this water rat can't get enough, then we can only use the weak water over there to water it."

Su Yingxia helplessly bitter smile: "What? Are you going to destroy it if you can't get it?"

Weak water will melt away even the stones, let alone the soil in the small field, this weak water, it is estimated that the corpse valley is gone.

But just as Su Yingxia's words fell, the other two wide-eyed thing happened.

The sky is full of water, but in the fall into the corpse valley, just a bubble will all disappear in the dry ground, not even what is left.

And that a bubble, in the eyes of Han three thousand, more fucking like a mockery.

In his head until now, there is still that water running boing sound!

"This nigga's!" Han Qianqian felt a hot pain in his face, can not really force himself to use weak water to die with it?

"How can this be?" Su Yingxia also frowned.

Obviously, to this point now, it is long past the problem of long drought and lack of water, but there is a weird problem in this corpse valley land.

Because by now, the two lakes of water have gone down, not to say that this corpse valley ground can be wet, but at least it is not as it is now, not the slightest change, even the surface of the water directly showered by the place is still rubbing hands into ash.

"How about, three thousand, try the weak water?" Su Yingxia suddenly looked at Han Qianqian said.

Han Qianqian froze: "You really want me to take revenge?"

"Do you still remember the murals?" Su Yingxia said.

Speaking of the murals, Han Qianqian carefully thought back, and seemed to understand that Su Yingxia's words were not a joke, the water on the murals at the time the two people looked at, both felt unusually strange.

Only, at that time, the two people said it was not clear why the water on the mural was strange.

Now think about it, perhaps, those strange water, there is another reference.

Thinking of this, Han Qianqian ran directly to the weak water spring, but after several attempts, there is no way to take out the weak water.

With the ordinary apparatus is naturally not, with energy, those energy on the weak water, but also like a punch on cotton, not the slightest effect.

"Three thousand, I heard that the weak water is not stored in the three realms, not within the five elements, so our ordinary realm of spells, it is difficult to have any effect on it." Su Yingxia said at this point.

Not in the three realms, outside the five elements?

"But since it exists on Immortal Spirit Island, this means that the people of Immortal Spirit Island have a way to move it." Han Qianqian frowned and said.

Su Yingxia agreed with Han Qianqian, but what method did the people of Immortal Spirit Island use to move this water?!

Han Qianqian and Su Yingxia immediately fell into contemplation, and a moment later, the two looked at each other in amazement, and their gazes were tacitly locked on the Immortal Spirit Divine Ring in Han Qianqian's hand.

"Try it?" Han Qianqian looked at Su Yingxia and said in a soft voice.

Su Yingxia frowned and nodded.

Han Qianqian directly a energy into the Immortal Spirit divine ring, immediately, the Immortal Spirit divine ring ring in the red mass then suddenly a twist, and then from the ring out of the time, is already a red light.

The mind is united!

Han Qianqian fiercely stable mind, directly control the red light, and then red light to reach out to the weak water in the valley.

With the red light gradually rise, those weak water at this time has also undergone a stunning change.

The red light wrapped the weak water slowly, and with Han Qianqian's intention, it rose directly to mid-air!

"It worked?" Su Yingxia looked at Han Qianqian with delight, her eyes full of admiration.

The serious Han Qianqian, is too handsome!

Han Qianqian was also not talking nonsense and seriously controlled the weak water, then sent it all the way to the corpse valley.

With the withdrawal of the red light, a splash of weak water straight shower corpse valley ground.

The two mouths do not even blink, staring dead at the corpse valley, waiting for it will be what kind of reflection!

And at this time, the splash of weak water, but also finally with the corpse valley dry ground formal contact!

Chapter 2063

As soon as the weak water hit the ground, then, it will soon be the same as the previous water, along those gaps directly immersed in the sunken ground.

Everything, and those springs fell to the ground, almost exactly the same!

Another soak?

Two mouths look at each other, can not guess wrong?

But if this is not the case, what else can it be?

Waiting to look back, the dry ground of the corpse valley, at this time began to rise from the bottom of the source of some flowing water, the innermost layer of the soil also began to slightly moistened.

Han Qianqian whole person is also ecstatic.

Originally cracked dry land gradually restored the cracks, the soil also began to become moist because of the timely replenishment of water.

A few moments later, the dry land disappeared, and in its place, a wet and fertile land.

"Three thousand, it worked." Su Yingxia was immediately excited like a child, directly hugging Han Qianqian, dancing and jumping.

Although Nian'er did not know what was going on, she still joined her mother, hugging her father and jumping and shouting, anyway, for children, joy is all that matters.

"Plant something!"

After the joy, Han Qianqian put a seed of the Extreme Ice Fire Grass down.

This thing could only grow among ten thousand years of cold ice, but the growth cycle took almost ten thousand years before it sprouted and ten thousand years before it took root, so the Extreme Cold Fire Grass was quite a valuable material for alchemy.

Han Qianqian intends to test the water.

After packing up their things, the two couples took Han Nian in the backyard and then played.

Time, always in the company of family passes quickly, in the blink of an eye three days have passed.

In these three days, the alliance disciples have not stopped, in addition to the necessary practice, the rest is male and female weaving.

The alliance needs to grow, and there are so many people, which means that they always have to go out of the island and into the island, so the boat is necessary. To live on the island, the conditions need to be better, so cleaning and renovation of Immortal Spirit Island is also necessary.

And Han three thousand in the past three days, every morning will go to the corpse valley to see the extreme ice fire grass sprouted, and then is to take his wife and children to enjoy the "I for you to build a mountain" fun.

This day early in the morning, when Han Qianqian once again to the corpse valley, the whole person boiling.

This also means that Han Qianqian and Su Yingxia's prediction and judgment were correct!

Until now, Han Qianqian had finally understood the true value of the corpse valley.

It could simulate various ecological environments in order to allow various plants to grow under its blessing, and because of this, there were all kinds of seeds in the underground palace.

When on the seventh day, after Han Qianqian received the fiery red Extreme Ice Fire Grass, Han Qianqian was completely excited.

On the spot, he took out dozens of cherished varieties, planted them all into the corpse valley, and then obediently waited for them to mature.

Of course, Han Qianqian didn't stay idle either. During the waiting days, Han Qianqian used this Extreme Ice Fire Grass to start his alchemy journey according to the method recorded in the book, with the Double Dragon Cauldron.

In order not to make a fool of himself, this period of Han Qianqian are specifically to go to the underground divine palace refining, and use the most low-level refining for experiments.

After the underground divine palace experienced N explosions, Han Qianqian's first elixir that could at least be seen from the sale was produced.

Immediately after, the second, the third

Until another seven days had passed, Han Qianqian had completely mastered many of the techniques and methods of alchemy according to what was taught in the book and a lot of tests.

On the floor of the underground divine palace, there were also quite a few low-grade finished pills laid out.

"These things, as long as in refining down, later can even batch, which then basically solve most of the disciples' daily use. However, these are not enough."

The high-ranking pills would not only give everyone more confidence in the alliance, but at the same time, it would also give everyone more impetus if they used it as a reward.

"It's up to you." Han Qianqian set his eyes on the Extreme Ice Fire Grass.

However, before refining this, Han Qianqian returned to the corpse valley land and harvested the few extremely high-quality materials he had planted earlier.

Then, only then did he begin to continue with his next big plan.

Already have a rich experience of previous failures, Han Qianqian will change the alchemy place in the Immortal Spirit Island special alchemy room, began their own "Hongtu great plan."

This toss, is a full month.

During this month, the eight worlds underwent great turmoil and change.

The Pill God Pavilion's strange defeat in Qinglong City made the developing Pill God Pavilion very angry and disgraceful, and after the execution of Master Fu, the "culprit", the Pill God Pavilion decided to wash away the shame in its own way.

In just one month, the Pill God Pavilion south recruiting north expansion, the refusal to comply with the more direct attack, many sects were directly exterminated to kill the chicken to make an example of monkeys, a time, many sects heard the Pill God Pavilion and pale.

But the Pill God Pavilion is obviously not satisfied with this.

And the Fu family, also ushered in the "spring" moment.

Chapter 2064

Fu Mei found a thigh.

And this thigh is not bad.

Han Qianqian's former "rival", Ye Wuhuan's son Ye Shijun.

After Ye Wuhuan's death, Ye Shijun inherited everything his father left behind, and has 100,000 soldiers and horses as well as a lot of wealth in Tianhu City, which makes him a wealthy man.

The Fu family relies on this tree, naturally happy, Fu Tian even threatened, from now on, the Fu family and the Ye family will be a strong union, re-emerging glory.

In fact, this move, and indeed some effect, in the Ye family and the old Fu family under the joint, this force to attract many people to join.

There are even rumors that the top of Blue Mountain is very interested in the Ye Fu alliance and intends to bring it into the sphere of influence.

In front of the interests, there is no eternal friend, there is no eternal enemy, the top of the Blue Mountains to see Ye Fu has power, natural view is no longer the same.

Faced with the ever-expanding power of the Eternal Sea and the Pill God Pavilion House, the Top of Blue Mountain certainly wanted to pull in all the powers that looked good to subjugate and resist.

However, Fu Tian is a cunning old thing, neither rejecting the top of the Blue Mountain nor accepting, turning his head and seemingly and the eternal sea as if, obviously, he is playing the circumlocution card, because, Fu Tian himself still has ambitions.

In order to achieve his ambition, the Fu family intends to move, moved to the water blue city next to the sky lake city, want to take two sides in an angle, rely on each other.

But this does not mean peace.

On the contrary, the dark currents are even more save.

And the center of the vortex of the dark current is Han Qianqian stayed in the sect "Void Sect".

The Voidless Sect is located at the junction of the two cities in the mountains, for Ye Fu two, occupy the Voidless Sect, you can completely open up the hub of the two cities, to achieve mutual support.

And at the same time, stuck in this position, once the two cities support each other, they can present a combined mode, or even slow development, control the entire southeast region.

And the Pill God Pavilion also coveted the Voidless Sect.

Because the two Ye Fu families can see such an important location, how can the people of the Pill God Pavilion not see it? Moreover, once they occupy this position, they can also jam the throat of the two Ye Fu families, not only to prevent them from being so powerful, but also to dismantle the heart of the top of Blue Mountain to annex the two Ye Fu families, so that the two Ye Fu families can only choose themselves.

Therefore, the Voidless Sect now seems calm, in fact, the war seems to be ready to touch.

Voidless clan recently, is also desperately looking for allies, want to try to survive.

When Jiang Hu Bai Xiao Sheng returned with these news in the boat made by the alliance and the map drawn by Han Qian Qian according to the route in his head, he was about to report to Han Qian Qian when he suddenly heard a loud explosion violently in the backyard.

When the crowd rushed to the backyard, only to see the originally good alchemy room is now blown apart, only a frame left standing in place.

In the middle of the original place, a dark and unattractive man was standing there, holding the lid of the tripod in his hand, dumbly frozen next to the tripod.

"Shit, Lord, what's wrong with the Lord?"

"Haha, it can't be that the alchemy gave a blow up, right?"

"Holy shit, that's too much to die before the master, right?"

A group of allies all giggled and looked at each other, and then joked, thinking that something had happened, and the result was like this.

However, they could joke because they had all seen Han Qianqian's ability, and naturally knew that a small potion explosion could not hurt him at all.

"Ha!" The black shadow opened his mouth, a white smoke came out of his mouth.

This black shadow, in addition to the always alchemist Han Qianqian, who else could it be?

"Oops, shame on the individual." Su Yingxia speechlessly rolled his eyes, hurriedly took a towel rushed over and wiped Han Qianqian's face.

"I told you to go back to the underground palace to refine, but you have to run to the alchemy room with fascination and confidence, now it's done." Su Yingxia is really angry and funny.

Sometimes the Han three thousand mature and stable incomparable, even cold intention to kill, and sometimes childish to cute.

Of course, Su Yingxia knew that only in front of herself, Han Qianqian would lean more towards the latter.

This, Su Yingxia's heart was happy, because only in front of the person he loved, the person would show his childish side.

"Holy shit." Han Qianqian suddenly cracked his mouth and smiled at Su Yingxia.

Because the face is too dark, so the teeth are extremely white, a smile, revealing a crescent-shaped.

The first thing you need to do is to get a good idea of what you're doing.

Poor Su Yingxia a clean clothes instantly dyed black by someone, the whole person is Han Qianqian turn some dizzy head.

When Han Qianqian stops, Su Yingxia also knows that many people are watching, pouting with a finger pointing at Han Qianqian's forehead: "so many people are watching it, your brain is fried?"

"I'm done." Han Qianqian stared at his eyes, and the whole person shouted with incomparable excitement.

"What became ah, oops, husband, put me down, so many people are watching." Su Yingxia was very red-faced and said in a delicate voice.

"Dan, Dan has become!" Han Qianqian laughed and moved his mind.

Suddenly, in the Double Dragon Cauldron, a dazzling light shot up to the sky!

Chapter 2065

Looking at the astounding red light and the incomparable aura in the tripod, all the Alliance disciples who were joking just now froze in place.

Immediately afterwards, a jade-colored elixir about the size of an egg slowly flew out and hung on the tripod, emitting a charming aura.

"An upper grade elixir?"

"My goodness, our alliance master turned out not to be funny, but rather refining big goods ah."

"This can't be right, something like a top grade elixir is incomparably valuable and cherished, generally not a master alchemist, it is simply impossible to refine."

"Yes, could it be that our alliance master is a master-level alchemist?"

Just now, a group of people thought how comical Han Qianqian's god-level performance was, and now, how shocked they were inside.

With the operation of a bronze, he had played a king's game!

How can this not make people very shocked?

Even Su Yingxia, at this time is completely frozen in place, this time she also completely no longer have any concept of shyness, let Han Qianqian hug, all attention is attracted by that pill.

"Shit, what the hell kind of genius is this guy? Even Dan can also refine?" Fu Mang looked at Fu Li in depression, his eyes were full of incredulity.

Is this really still an earthling?

Didn't they say that all earthlings were inferior creatures? That was an existence even lower than the Xuan Yuan world created at the top of the Blue Mountain.

However, in Han Qianqian's body, Fu Mang not only could not feel the slightest sense of superiority as a person of the eight worlds, but had a kind of self-doubt, could there be a mistake in the order or something? The earth is the highest level, and the eight worlds are inferior?

This is not to blame for the lack of confidence, but the fact that in the eight-sided world, there are many people who can have super aggressiveness, but often these are martial idiots, because they need to have absolute focus on martial arts cultivation to be able to this superb, but often these people will also ignore other aspects of research, such as auxiliary nature of alchemy, pharmaceutical or refining weapons and so on.

After all, people are people, limited energy is one hand, more importantly, talent!

No one is perfect!

But Han Qianqian, a lower race, is always hitting Fu Mang's face, fucking half day, he is more like a lower species.

Fu Li is also full of shock, for a time really do not know how to answer, as far as the quality of this pill, it is simply the top quality, even when the Fu family's glory, such a level of pills are not often seen.

"Yingxia Yingxia is too capable, right, to find a man is a bit outrageously strong!" Fu Li muttered.

Ginseng wa took a look at the next Qin frost, a long sigh, her beautiful stunning face has shock, but full of eyes are full of sorrow and sadness.

For Qin Frost, the better Han Qianqian is, the more it will obviously tug at her heartstrings, but it is obvious that Han Qianqian's excellence will always have nothing to do with her, but is all Su Yingxia's.

Putting down Su Yingxia, Han Qianqian took the elixir into his hands.

The first time I saw this, I was able to get a good look at all the people in the room, and finally, I smiled gently: "All of them are a bit worldly, don't make a fuss, there are many of them in the future, as long as they do their best for the Alliance, or disciples with outstanding cultivation, I will issue them. Since this is the first one, I will reward the most meritorious ones first."

After saying that, Han Qianqian placed his gaze on the body of Jianghu Hundred Dawn.

In an instant, Jianghu Hundred Dawn became the focal point of the entire room, and everyone looked at it with incomparable envy.

After all, this kind of top grade elixir was really a heavenly treasure that countless people could only dream of.

Jianghu Bai Xiaosheng was also completely frozen, and when Han Qianqian brought the elixir over and handed it to him, he still didn't reflect, because this kind of such precious thing, he never thought it would be his turn in the first place.

"Three thousand, how can I take this thing?" Jiang Hu Bai Xiao Sheng was a little embarrassed and said.

"As the deputy alliance leader of the alliance, when there are good things in the alliance, naturally you will be the first one to have a turn, what is there to be embarrassed about?" Han Qianqian laughed.

"But" Jiang Hu Bai Xiao Sheng looked at Su Ying Xia with embarrassment.

To take a turn, it should also be the turn of Su Yingxia and Han Nian ah.

"There is no but, the alliance was first established, you took the trouble to do a lot of things." Han Qianqian smiled, Jianghu Baixiao Sheng was about to speak, Han Qianqian has a palm of Dan slapped into his mouth.

There was a loud laugh from the crowd.

Although the first potion had nothing to do with most people, it was clear that Han Qianqian's move won the hearts of the people. He made it clear to everyone that if you are willing to give, you will definitely reap.

And this, in turn, greatly encouraged everyone's motivation.

"In the future, I will refine many pills, anyway, as I said earlier, as long as one has made merits or significant contributions, or one's cultivation rises quickly, everyone is eligible to take it." Han Qianqian smiled, and then said, "Yingxia, first take the first-order pills practiced before to Jianghu Bai Xiaosheng, let him distribute them to all brothers and sisters, as a consolation for everyone who has worked hard during this period."

Su Yingxia smiled and nodded, of course she would not be angry with Han Qianqian for giving the first item to an outsider, because she knew very well the position she had in Han Qianqian's heart.

As long as she was willing, Han Qianqian would even give her his life, not to mention a small top-grade pellet.

She supported Han Qianqian's approach because if it were her, she would have done the same. The alliance was first built, and it is the style of a great marshal to stabilize people's hearts.

At noon, Han Qianqian's family was eating when Jiang Hu Bai Xiao Sheng brought Fu Mang and Ning Yue but came.

According to Han Qianqian's expectation, Jiang Hu Bai Xiao Sheng should be in the middle of cultivating and digesting pills.

"What's wrong?" Han Qianqian said strangely.

Jiang Hu Bai Xiao Sheng told Han Qian Qian all about the huge changes happening in the outside world today, which he didn't dare to neglect for fear of delaying anything.

After listening, Han Qianqian frowned slightly and fell into contemplation, after a moment, he smiled gently: "It seems that the situation is very confusing, but what do you three think?"

Seeing Han Qianqian's eyes, Fu Mang's original words swallowed directly into his stomach, looking at Han Qianqian awkwardly said, "You don't want to trip this mess, right?"

Ning Yue looked at Han Qianqian's eyes, the whole person also heart can not help but a shock.

"Boring, boring." Han Qianqian shook his head insipidly, patted his stomach, and stood up, "I'm full!"

Then, he walked towards the backyard, and after only two steps, Han Qianqian suddenly turned back, looked at the three people, and laughed: "What are you all doing standing still? Pack up your things and get ready to go."

The three of them were dumbfounded!

"Ah? Where to?"

"Go to Heavenly Lake City to exercise after you've eaten enough to help digestion." Han Qianqian smiled mysteriously.

Is he crazy?! What's the point of going there? There are 100,000 troops of Fuye and the Pill God Pavilion is looking at him, is this not going to seek death?

Chapter 2066

Obviously, Han Qianqian's so-called movement to digest a little, not simply exercise, but want to go to this trip!

Therefore, to Fu Mang, Han Qianqian's behavior he did not understand.

Whether it was the Pill God Pavilion or the Fu family, to the Mystic Alliance, they were all enemies.

The Pill God Pavilion is worried about not finding the Mystic Alliance to export their anger!

And the Fu family did not need to say much.

But Han Qianqian wants to go at this time!

If you're not careful, it's likely that you'll be sandwiched between the two sides of the forces into a meat sandwich membrane.

Especially when Han Qianqian came out, but also let Fu Mang to be the leader of this time, which makes Fu Mang confused do not know what to do.

If not for the fact that Han Qianqian had saved himself, he really felt that Han Qianqian was using himself as cannon fodder.

Even in a way, Ning Yue also felt so.

Han Qianqian only took Qiushui and Shiyue out, which he had strongly requested, while the other female disciples, including a large number of disciples under Fu Mang, all stayed on Immortal Spirit Island.

This is not the Fu Mang as cannon fodder is what?

Ning Yue was even thinking about the scene when Fu Mang shouted out loud: I am the left commander of the Mystic Alliance, Fu Mang, and then he was shot into a hedgehog with ten thousand arrows through his heart.

But Han Qianqian had his own calculations.

The situation in Tianhu City, whether the Fu and Ye families win, or the Pill God Pavilion wins, will be the most difficult opponent to deal with.

Therefore, he wants to make the muddy water more muddy, only then, under the chaotic world, he will have the certainty of winning.

Once he wins, he can kill two birds with one stone, instantly dismantling the future of the two enemies, and he is the one who benefits, and may also have an unexpected harvest.

Han Qianqian has prepared a big game of chess for this.

"I say three thousand ah, we really bring this point of people to go? And, do we really want Fu Mang to lead the team?"

When the boat crossed the sea and was about to dock, Fu Li finally asked Han Qianqian, the question they were most concerned about, in the midst of Fu Mang's crazy eye hints.

The whole boat, in addition to Qin frost, ginseng fruit, Han three thousand family, there are only Lin Long, Jianghu hundred Xiaosheng, Star Yao, Qiushui, Shiyi and Fu Li two.

And the other side is a mountain of people nearly a hundred thousand to two hundred thousand army, others are really a mouthful of spittle, can drown them a few.

Han Qianqian while looking at the sea, while laughing: "Don't be anxious, how will I let Fu Mang send death? Don't worry, when we get to Tianhu City, we'll borrow troops from Fu Tian."

Hearing Han Qianqian's words, Fu Mang almost a heel directly into the sea, and Fu Tian borrowed troops?

I'm afraid that when the time comes, Fu Tian will only lend a sword to himself, so that he hurried to kill himself.

"You guys go to the fishing village and wait for me first, I still have something to do." After saying that, Han Qianqian looked at Fu Mang: "Take care of my wife and my daughter!"

As soon as the words fell, Han Qianqian's hands moved, summoned the small Tianlu Pixie, straight towards the distant sea.

The first thing you need to do is to take care of your wife and daughter before you leave, and he is the one who needs to be taken care of, okay?

Qin Shuang shook his head helplessly, his eyes were full of sadness.

But she quickly withdrew her eyes, because, she clearly, the Voidless Sect is now in critical condition, she can no longer always think about the personal feelings of children.

And at this time, Han Qianqian, with the help of the little Heavenly Lu Pixie, had already flown over tens of thousands of sea miles.

"That's enough!" Suddenly, Han Qianqian ordered the little Heavenly Lu Pixie to stop, a pair of eyes like a torch looking at the sea below.

"Roar a little, last time it may have been led too far." After Han Qianqian finished, after feeding a bunch of jewels to the little Heavenly Lu Pixie, the little Heavenly Lu Pixie suddenly looked up to the sky and roared!!!

"Roar!!!"

Han Qianqian smiled and did not hurry, so he rode on the back of the Little Heavenly Lu Pixie and slowly waited.

An hour has passed.

Two hours passed.

Until several hours later.

The sea was calm, but the next moment, suddenly the currents leapt, and below the surface, there was an incomparably huge black shadow swimming rapidly.

"Roar ! ! ! !"

With a long roar, a huge figure suddenly burst out of the sea, straight attack Han Qianqian.

Han Qianqian did not move and did not go, indifferently looking at the black shadow attack.

The black shadow rushed towards Han Qianqian, but when it was less than half a meter away from him, Han Qianqian suddenly raised a red stone gently with his right hand, and the black shadow, too, stopped instantly.

"I am the new Island Master of Immortal Spirit Island." Han Qianqian smiled.

If at this time Fu Mang and other people in the words, will be scared face pale, because Han Qianqian in front of the huge black shadow that stands, is precisely the original Great Heavenly Lu Pixiu.

The big sky Lu brave froze for a moment, a pair of huge eyes like dragon eyes deadly stare at the red stone in Han Qianqian's hand.

The next second, he fiercely a withdrawal, about four or five meters away from Han Qianqian distance, slowly half release wings, lowered the head.

Han Qianqian smiled faintly, the story on the stone wall is really true, and things are as he guessed.

However, the eyes of the big Tianlu Pixiu have been looking at the little Tianlu Pixiu, which made Han Qianqian frown: "Is it your son?"

Chapter 2067

The Great Heavenly Locust Pixie nodded under Han Qianqian's gaze.

"No wonder you are so hostile to me." Han Qianqian was helpless, it should be that the Great Heavenly Locust Pixie sensed that there was a change on Immortal Spirit Island, so it came to help, leaving behind the little Heavenly Locust Pixie that was still just an egg.

But I did not think that the small Tianlu Pixiu because of unattended, was found by humans and sold to the auction house.

And Han Qianqian happened to buy this small Tianluo brave, and then met the big Tianluo brave here.

The Big Heavenly Lu Pixiu treated Han Qianqian as an intruder, plus the little Heavenly Lu Pixiu was still with him, and when it was determined that the little Heavenly Lu Pixiu was his son, he naturally did not relent to Han Qianqian.

"What an interesting destiny." Han Qianqian shook his head helplessly: "The matter of Immortal Spirit Island is over, you go back, as for the little Heavenly Lu Pixie, I also return to you."

After saying that, Han Qianqian hands a move, will be their own with the little heavenly Lu brave recognition contract removed, patting its little butt, let it go back to the big heavenly Lu brave.

The small Tianlu Pixiu three steps a back, reluctant to look at Han Qianqian, originally but a few meters of distance, hard to walk a few minutes.

However, when the little Heavenly Lu Pixiu and the big Heavenly Lu Pixiu came together, after tentatively sniffing each other, snuggled with each other, intimate.

"Let's go." Han Qianqian smiled, and waved at them.

The big Tianlu Pixiu took a look at Han Qianqian, and lowered his head again, as if in gratitude to Han Qianqian, then, with the little Tianlu Pixiu fiercely jumped into the water.

The small Tianlu Pixiu fondly glanced at Han Qianqian, finally, or under the care of the big Tianlu Pixiu, with a cheerful beast song, swimming towards the distance.

Looking at two different sizes of figures snuggled together far away, Han Qianqian some sadness, but more is a happy emotion.

Although Tianlu Pixiu from birth and their own side by side to do battle, a master and a servant feelings have always been good, but because of this, Han Qianqian is not willing to break up other mother and son.

After finishing these, Han Qianqian flew back to the fishing village, when heard Han Qianqian said that in the future there will be no more monsters to disturb their fishing, and then see Han Qianqian and others are returning by boat, the whole fishing village was happy, had to stay Han Qianqian and others to eat.

They couldn't resist their enthusiasm, and after a meal, the group was sent off by the fishermen, heading towards the direction of Tianhu City.

The first two days, a group of people is day travel and night ambush, everything is considered normal.

But the closer we get to Tianhu City, the situation is getting worse and worse.

On the way, many people were rushing in the direction of Tianhu City. Han Qianqian stopped a person and asked, "Brother, I want to ask, why are many people on this road going in the direction of Tianhu City?"

The man took a look at Han Qianqian, but saw that he was wearing a mask, and was about to ignore it, but when he saw Fu Mang and many beautiful women behind Han Qianqian, his eyes lit up: "Haven't you heard, the two families of Ye Fu in Tianhu City are recruiting, and the positions of the divine martial arts general in Zhonglang and the general director of the Ye family garrison are vacant."

The first time I heard this, Han Qianqian couldn't help but smile, the Fu family is really interesting, Zhong Lang Shen Wu General, this is not the position that Fu Tian gave himself before?

I didn't expect to take it out again so soon to recruit troops.

"So good?" Han Qianqian laughed.

"That must be good, however, the competition is also very fierce, people like you better go less to get together." The man said blandly.

Han Qianqian smiled and shook his head, "I'm not interested in these positions."

"Count on you to have some self-awareness, although the two Fuye families give excellent treatment, but there are only two positions, so people like you don't even have to think about it."

"Is that so?" Han Qianqian laughed.

"That must be, these seats, to sit should also be our Duke Zhang sit, you also go to the Heavenly Lake City? Pretending to ask me what's wrong with Tianhu City, forget it, see that strong man behind you has some skills, or I can take pity on you and take you to see our Duke Zhang?" The man disdainfully swept a glance at Han Qianqian, his face was written with arrogance.

He saw Han Qianqian as a kind of small person, deliberately looking for topics to approach himself, the purpose is of course to follow his master to mix a meal.

Fu Mang heard this but a dumbfounded face, but inwardly panicked into a dog, look at me? You are afraid of blind your dog's eyes, fucking the biggest in this is this masked man in front of you? But you prefer to look at my part?

However, when Fu Mang was speaking, he was stopped by Han Qianqian, who smiled: "Yes."

That guy swept a glance at Han Qianqian disdainfully: "Okay, then you come with me."

After saying that, he led Han Qianqian's group of people towards the front plus step.

In less than ten minutes, a group of people rushed to the front of the large force, the team around the two or three hundred people, including a number of sturdy big man, a fierce and fierce, do not approach the appearance of the living.

"All right, you guys wait, let little master me go report first, after all, Mr. Zhang is not something that people like you can just see." After saying that, that guy ran incomparably proudly to the crowd in front of him.

Chapter 2068

In the centre of the crowd at the front, there were two palanquins, luxurious beyond compare.

When the guy said a few words to the people at the side of the palanquin, the troops stopped and in the first palanquin, a man poked his head out slightly, a gentleman like a jade, but with a few handsome features.

After sweeping a glance at Han Qianqian, he nodded, and the guy then waved to Han Qianqian's group of people.

Han Qianqian took a few steps over with his men.

After sizing up Han Qianqian, Duke Zhang showed disdain and glanced at Fu Mang, still with displeasure in his eyes, and finally after his gaze fell on Su Yingxia and Qin Shannon, Duke Zhang then smiled slightly, "Alright, keep it."

After saying that, Duke Zhang threw out a pile of purple crystals on the ground with a hint of bravado in his eyes.

"What are you waiting for, why don't you thank Duke Zhang?" The man hurriedly urged.

Han Qianqian skimmed at the purple crystals on the ground, and was also considered to be generous, throwing out ten thousand.

Of course, to Han Qianqian, this was nothing at all.

However, Han Qianqian smiled and bent down to pick up the amethysts on the ground.

"How's that? My Prince Zhang is generous, isn't he? Oh, if you follow my Prince Zhang, you will enjoy endless glory and wealth." The man laughed smugly.

Han Qianqian did not say anything, and the troops, too, resumed their journey at that moment.

"My name is Niu Zi, from now on you will follow me." The man came in front of Han Qianqian at this point and said as he walked forward.

After walking for a moment, seeing that Han Qianqian still didn't say anything, Niu Zi suddenly came over and said mysteriously, "Actually, you saw my gongzi's bravado just now, how does it feel to have taken 10,000 purple crystals?"

"Not bad." Han Qianqian chuckled softly.

"Oh, as long as you can make our Duke Zhang happy, not to mention a hundred thousand, a million or even ten million is at hand. Let me tell you directly, this group of beautiful women behind you my gongzi likes very much, choose a few and send them over, gongzi Zhang will definitely not treat you badly." Niu Zi patted Han Qianqian's shoulder and looked at him with a very ambiguous look.

"Not interested." Han Qianqian said.

"You brat, don't you want to be punished for your wine? For our Duke Zhang to look at a trash like you is to give you face, otherwise, with your trash-like appearance, can you have a chance to make a name for yourself?" Niu Zi immediately drank with great dissatisfaction.

"Huh." Han Qianqian let out a bitter laugh and didn't want to retort, he naturally had no interest in arguing with such people.

Niu Zi shook his head speechlessly and ignored Han Qianqian.

The group of people just marched towards Heavenly Lake City in such a vast manner.

In the evening, Niu Zi went to Duke Zhang's place, and when he returned, he angrily called on Han Qianqian, saying that Duke Zhang wanted to see him alone.

Han Qianqian smiled noncommittally, gesturing to Su Yingxia and the others not to worry, and then just followed Niu Zi to the centre of the large group.

The ground was covered with a thick layer of blankets, and the palanquin just landed on it, plus the palanquin was originally like a small palace, looking extremely luxurious.

The palanquin was surrounded by light white gauze, and when the breeze blew, what was visible in the palanquin was a huge and luxurious round bed, with fine counters and all kinds of decorations around it.

Zhang Gongzi was leaning slightly against the bed, and on the small counter in front of him was a thick dish of amethysts, while Zhang Gongzi, was playfully playing with a few of them in his hands.

Next to Duke Zhang's sedan chair was another sedan chair, inside which lay a beautiful woman with a perfect figure, although only slightly powdered, she still couldn't be described as stunningly beautiful.

When Han Qianqian was brought to the front of the palanquin, the oxen gently retreated.

Mr. Zhang swept a glance at Han Qianqian and smiled softly, "Do you know how much money I have on this?"

Han Qianqian shook his head, "I don't know."

"It's right not to know, because it's so much that you can't even count it, and to you, it should be an astronomical amount." After saying this, Duke Zhang smiled condescendingly and reached out with his hand, pushing the purple crystals on the counter straight to the outside of the palanquin.

Looking at these piles of purple crystals, many of the guards beside him could not help but swallow their mouths in disgust.

Just from this area alone, this pile of purple crystals was no less than half a million, to say the least.

To many people, this was a huge sum of money, but to Han Qianqian, these did not count at all.

A night of casual spending in the auction house would not cost more than that amount.

"Sir Zhang, what do you mean by that?" Han Qianqian did not look away, not even glancing at those purple crystals.

"I really like those women around you, Niu Zi should have told you that."

"I did, but I also replied that I wasn't interested." Han Qianqian said blandly.

"Not interested? All refusals stem from not having enough chips, here is half a million purple crystals, think about it." Duke Zhang laughed gently, seeming to have it all figured out.

"I won't answer the same question a second time." Han Qianqian said.

Hearing Han Qianqian's words, Niu Zi angrily wanted to rush up and beat Han Qianqian up, this was half a million purple crystals, don't be too insensitive.

"Interesting!" But Duke Zhang was not angry, he clapped his hands and several servants slowly walked over carrying several large boxes.

Then, they opened the boxes, and inside were all dazzling purple mists, three whole boxes of purple crystals, at least five million, if not ten million.

This amount was a huge sum of money, not to mention for individuals, even for many powerful families.

Duke Zhang smiled, still arrogant as ever, "What now?"

Han Qianqian smiled bitterly helplessly, not even looking at those purple crystals, and turned around to leave.

Niu Zi immediately blocked directly in front of Han Qianqian, and those muscular men around him also took a step forward at that moment, their eyes very unkind.

"Stop right there! Brat, have you had enough? Our Duke Zhang is already giving you face, you should know that five million amethyst coins can buy quite a few women."

"If you go out with so many women, you're obviously a white boy, relying on women to eat soft rice.

"That's right, give you five million, you can find a whole bunch of women, brat, apologize to Mr. Zhang."

Niu Zi led a group of strong men to drink in a cold voice.

"Brother, it looks like you've met your match." In the other palanquin, the beautiful woman laughed softly. To her, Han Qianqian was a white boy who lived off women, and although she often kept some good-looking white boys, Han Qianqian's kind of physique was clearly not what she wanted.

After saying that, the woman gently swung her jade arm and swung open the curtain in front of the sedan chair, revealing her extremely beautiful features, glanced contemptuously at Han Qianqian and laughed, "Take off your mask."

"Did you hear that, Miss Zhang told you to take off your mask, damn it, you're still pretending to be a masked man here, how long ago was the old script."

"Why should I take it off?" Han Qianqian couldn't help but laugh.

"If you look okay, this lady can consider it, this five million purple crystals plus this lady accompanying you for one night in exchange for those few women of yours." Miss Zhang smiled confidently.

Han Qianqian suddenly laughed coldly with disdain, "Fine. But are you sure you're qualified?" After saying that, Han Qianqian removed his mask.

Chapter 2069

When Han Qianqian's mask was taken off, that firm and handsome face appeared in front of everyone.

Miss Zhang's originally disdainful eyes suddenly stared at Han Qianqian with a deadly gaze, and then, her eyes flashed with peachy intent.

Han Qianqian's looks were completely unexpected and even shocked Miss Zhang's heart.

Although she was somewhat psychologically prepared, after all, the "duck" that can make a group of women around, if the body is not particularly good, then at least the face is very good.

It was just that she didn't expect Han Qianqian to be this handsome!

Although his body was a little less than the muscular type that Miss Zhang wanted, and he might be a little less than that, she didn't mind too much for the sake of her brother's happiness.

"Good, it's not too bad, you can get into the sedan chair." Although Miss Zhang's mouth was light, her heart was more or less looking forward to it, after all, for her, who was more partial to muscular men, to let someone whose face broke her own selection criteria get into the sedan chair, it was obvious that this face was very much to her liking to break the rules that had been in place.

Han Sanchi gave a trademark smile, then, put the mask back on.

"Sorry, as I said, you are not qualified." Han Qianqian finished, turned around and walked away.

"Bitch, what are you talking about?" After Miss Zhang froze, her entire body raged.

No man had ever been able to reject herself, and for Han Qianqian to do this, where was her face still?

"Could it be that what I said wasn't clear enough?" Han Qianqian stood up slightly and turned her head.

"I warn you, you'd better think carefully before you answer. I'm the Miss Zhang family's eldest daughter, a body of ten thousand gold, not comparable to those women, it's your honor to be taken by me. Miss Zhang stifled her anger and said in a cold voice.

Han Qianqian laughed dumbly, "Fine, then I'll say it again."

"I'm not interested in women like you, in my eyes, let alone being able to compare to them, even compared to others, they are worthless. Do you hear me clearly?" Han Qianqian said in a cold voice.

These words were like a huge slap on her own face, and Miss Zhang was so angry that her back teeth were clenched, and her long fingers leapt into tight fists, wanting to eat Han Qianqian alive.

"Brat, you're too fucking much, even if you reject my family's Duke Zhang, even our family's Miss Zhang has to reject you too, I order you, apologise immediately." Niu Zi was furious.

He had introduced Han Qianqian, and if Han Qianqian angered the Duke and Miss and blamed it on Niu Zi himself, he was not willing to do so.

Therefore, it was most appropriate to jump out at this time.

And almost at the same time as Niu Zi's angry voice, the dozens of strong men around him also stood out at the same time, the anger in their eyes as if they wanted to kill Han Qianqian with one punch.

Looking at these tall, strong men, Han Qianqian smiled disdainfully.

"Brat, if you don't want to be beaten up, be a good boy and go to the lady's sedan chair."

"Otherwise, don't blame us for being ruthless." After saying that, a few big men twisted their shoulders while sharpening their fists, making the loud sound of bones clashing.

Seeing this stance, Miss Zhang coldly snorted in disdain, "Beg this lady, be a good boy and be a male dog for this lady, and I'll even keep this palanquin for you on account of your good looks."

These dozens of big men, who were not only extremely strong, but also had a high cultivation level, were the right-hand men of Duke Zhang. Obviously, if Duke Zhang's men didn't have some skills, how would he dare to answer the recruitment of the two Fu Ye families?!

Therefore, those present could not help but sneer at this point, and to them, Han Qianqian only had two choices: either, to be killed by this gang, or, to go back to being a dog in a good manner.

"I told you to behave yourself long ago, but you didn't listen." Niu Zi pretended to sigh bitterly in helplessness, but in his eyes was anger at Han Qianqian.

After all, Han Qianqian had ruined his original plan.

"With just you guys?" Han Qianqian sneered disdainfully.

"Heh, you're still so tough when you're on the verge of death, this kung fu, you learnt it from tricking women, right? But it may work against women, but it's useless against fists." A big man said in a cold voice.

"What women need is a soft tongue, not a tough mouth!" Miss Zhang said mockingly and wilfully.

She had never concealed her desires in this area, and even prided herself on mastering countless men, as it satisfied her physical needs and, at the same time, was a strong proof of her appearance.

The corners of Han Qianqian's mouth twitched, and suddenly her foot exerted a slight force.

Brush!

The dozen of big men suddenly felt a blackness in front of their eyes before they could even reflect, followed by a sharp pain in their chests, and their bodies flew tens of metres under the weight of a strange force.

Bang! Bang, bang, bang!

The young captain who had left the big men behind, who had a higher cultivation level and had those men as a meat shield, saw Han Qianqian rushing towards him with a jolt.

He raised his fist in a panic and slammed it directly towards Han Qianqian with all his might, a full ten thousand pounds!

"Bang!"

"Ah!!!"

The giant man's thigh-thick arm suddenly hit Han Qianqian's fist like a rotten wood hitting a boulder and exploded from the inside, then broke free from the giant man's arm and turned into a pile of flesh, flying backwards!

Chapter 2070

"Pah!"

A pile of rotten flesh, mixed with crumbling bones, quietly landed several meters behind the giant man.

And at this moment, on one side of the giant man's arm, the muscles were ripped apart with tendons and flesh just exposed, blood flowing out like a column from the torn opening continuously.

Everyone on the scene was dumbfounded!

Fist to fist!

A giant, facing a child-sized "weakling" in front of him, and instead of imagining his opponent being blown to pieces, he was blown off an arm!

It was like taking a toothpick and breaking a tree.

Coupled with the bloody scene of a punch to the flesh, everyone at the scene was inwardly shocked.

What kind of power disparity was this that could cause such an explosive scene of seconds!

Niu Zi stood in place, his legs looking at Han Qianqian, already completely uncontrollably pissing his trousers, and his legs were constantly trembling!

What had he just been through?

A brush with death?

I thought I was about to watch a clown show, but who the hell would have thought that I would be the clown?

Patting the dust on his fist, Han Qianqian smiled disdainfully, leaving behind a group of dumbfounded people, and turned to leave.

At this moment, no one dared to stop him, and even, they forgot to stop him!

"This this" Looking at Han Qianqian's back, Duke Zhang was too surprised to open his mouth for a while.

"Aiya, Duke Zhang, it's my bad, it's my bad, I'm blind, I've found such a person." Niu Zi flopped down on his knees.

Han three thousand can't afford to mess with, what else can he do, only beg for mercy with his master ah.

As far as he was concerned, Han Qianqian had humiliated his son and young lady one by one, and now his men had been killed and injured, so if his master blamed him, he wouldn't know how many times he had died.

However, Niu Zi's tearful voice was not answered, as Duke Zhang still mumbled and looked at the direction Han Qianqian had left.

"Bang!"

There was a loud bang, and the giant Han captain, who had half of his arm blown off, only then suddenly felt the pain drilling through his arm and fell straight to the ground, his hand covering the wound and opening his eyes in pain!

This loud sound woke up Duke Zhang, who looked at Niu Zi and was furious, but turned to smile, "Niu Zi, good job, getting such an expert for Laozi!"

"Huh?" Niu Zi was stunned.

Duke Zhang was full of joy, Han Qianqian's performance just now had simply shocked him greatly, but at the same time, it also made him very happy.

With an expert like him, then this trip to Heavenly Lake City to compete for the official positions of the two Fu Ye families wouldn't be a handful!

"This guy, he's ridiculously strong, Laozi's Eighteen Luohan couldn't even support a single face-to-face, Niu Zi, what are you still fucking standing there for? Hurry up and bring me the Purple Crystal." After saying this, Mr. Zhang excitedly ran off the palanquin and ran after Han Qianqian in the direction he had left.

After a moment's daze, Niu Zi also reflected, greeted the few servants who were carrying the box, and hurriedly followed after Duke Zhang.

After everyone had left, Miss Zhang was still looking at the direction in which Han Qianqian had gone.

Then, her body couldn't help but tremble and her face flushed slightly: "I really underestimated you, both handsome and so strong, it seems that you will make me very comfortable, I'm really too satisfied with you."

After saying that, she made a light fist and her eyes were full of flirtation, "I'm going to eat you up."

"Someone, bring out my pressed tulle, and the best paints, I want to put on a good make-up!" After saying that, she laughed and lowered the white veil around the palanquin.

At this time, Han Qianqian, after repairing the gang of rabble-rousers, had already returned to Su Yingxia and the others, and was leading them with the intention of leaving, when Duke Zhang also came over with a group of his men in a dusty manner.

When he saw these people, Han Qianqian was unperturbed and smiled gently, "What? Haven't you had enough?"

"No, no, no, no, big brother, you misunderstood, I I am not here to seek revenge on you." Zhang Gongzi subconsciously dodged away in a hurry, while desperately waving his hand.

Seeing that Han Qianqian did not move, he then hurriedly ordered his servant to carry things up, heaving a smile.

Niu Zi hurriedly helped, "Brother, my gongzi is not here to seek revenge, but to reward you."

"Yes, yes, that's right, although we just had a bad time, but then again, it's inevitable that these teeth and lips will fight."

"What my Duke means is that not only will he not take revenge, but instead he will reward you with five million purple crystals, and at the same time, promote you to be our Duke Zhang's chief retainer."

"Yes, yes, yes, that's what I mean."

Duke Zhang and Niu Zi changed their previous attitudes and were full of smiles, afraid of angering Han Qianqian.

Han Qianqian was somewhat amused, and although the women and Fu Mang didn't know what Han Qianqian had actually just gone and done, they obviously had a rough guess of what had happened through the conversation, and couldn't help but cover their mouths and snicker one by one.

"Then since someone gave five million purple crystals, there's no reason not to, right?" Han Qianqian looked at Su Yingxia mischievously.

"So you guys are saying yes?" Niu Zi asked with a sudden burst of joy.
